
Index

- Academic achievement, 45–46
- Adolescents: avoiding disconnection from, 25–26; bridging worlds of, 10; fear and coping of, 58–59; involvement in planning after-school activities, 76; myth of, 25; societal pressures on, 12–13
- Adult-adult relationships, 10–11
- Adult-youth relationships: benefits of, 1, 10, 19; challenges to, 32; childhood formation of, 74–75; core values of, 19; paradigm shift in, 1–2, 9; perception of, 9; students' need for, 64
- After-school program staff: empathy of, 76–77; example of, 71–72; leadership of, 75; professional development of, 71–81, 82n.22; stability of, 75, 81–82n.13; turnover of, 82n.13–n.14
- After-school programs: cross-referencing other domains with, 10–11; integrating emotional intelligence in, 77–79; and peer pressure, 76; reasons for student attendance in, 9; youth involvement in planning of, 76
- Alcohol, 24
- Anxiety, 58–60, 79
- Attachment: benefits of, 11–12; importance of, 21–22; neurobiology and, 22–23; to primary caregiver, 10; and teacher-student relationship models, 48
- Authenticity, 76
- Authority, 63, 76
- Autonomy, 12
- Behavior: effect of parent-child relationship on, 23–24; parents' understanding of, 27
- Belonging, 10
- Bernstein-Yamashiro, B., 2, 7, 55
- Blame, 27
- Bowlby, J., 21, 22
- Bringing Yourself to Work project, 73, 79, 80
- Bullying, 19
- Calmness, 78
- Client-centered approach, 33
- Cohen, J., 74
- Collaborative relationship, 35
- Communication recommendations, 27–28
- Companionship, 39
- Congruence, 34, 35
- Cooper, R. K., 77
- Daloz, L. A., 71
- Depression, 19, 46
- Developmental systems theory, 50
- Dinners, 26
- Diversity, 38–39
- Dropout rates, 56
- Drugs, 24
- Educational policy, 56
- Educators for Social Responsibility, 77
- Emotional intelligence: core aspects of, 73; importance of, 74; integration of, 77–79; overview of, 72–73
- Empathy, 33, 35, 76–77
- Encouragement, 61
- Environment, learning, 49, 51–52
- Fear, 58–60
- Feldman, S. S., 25–26
- Fiore, N., 3, 5, 9
- Fredriksen, K., 2, 6, 45

- Ginnott, C., 27
 Goleman, D., 72, 73, 74
 Guided participation, 37
- High school, 62
- Identity formation: and attachment benefits, 11; schools' acknowledgment of, 67–68; and teacher-student relationship, 62–64
- Independence, 20
- Individuation: definition of, 20; versus separation, 25–26
- Kinkel, K., 17–18
- Leadership, 75
- Learning: and attachment benefits, 11–12; environment for, 49, 51–52; and guided participation, 37; students consent for, 60–62; versus teacher-student relationship, 58–59
- Leisure activities, 39
- Listening, 27
- Love, 27
- MacPhee, M., 3, 7, 71
- Marital satisfaction, 26
- Maternal care, 21
- Mead, G. H., 80
- Mentoring: cross-referencing other domains with, 11; functions of, 71; limitations of, 39; of minority youth, 38–39; needs of youth in, 38; overview of, 36; psychotherapy implications for, 37; requirements of, 36–37; signs of effectiveness of, 37
- Mentors: building relationships with, 31–32; need for, 32; responsibilities of, 38; versus therapists, 39
- Middle school, 12
- Miller, J. B., 76–77
- Minority youth, mentoring of, 38–39
- Misunderstandings, 10–11, 77
- Nature versus nurture debate, 22
- Neurobiology, 22–23
- Noam, G. G., 3, 5, 9
- Object-relations model, 20
- Parent-child relationships: avoiding disconnect in, 25–26; benefits of, 26; developmental neurobiology and, 22–23; effects of, 23–24; foundation of, 20; new model of, 20–21; overview of, 19–20; recommendations for, 26–28; and violence, 18–19
- Peer pressure: and afterschool programs, 76; and parent-child disconnect, 25
- Perry, B., 22–23
- Physical risk, 79
- Policy, educational, 56
- Pollack, W., 2, 5–6, 17
- Prevention programs, 75, 81–82n.13
- Primary attachment model, 11
- Protective factors, 24
- Psychological adjustment, 46–47
- Psychology domain, 10–11
- Psychotherapy: basis of, 31; common factors in, 32–36; major approaches of, 32–33; mentoring implications of, 37–40
- Reach Out to Schools Project, 77
- Relationships, 11. See also specific types
- Resiliency, 10
- Resnick, M. D., 23–24, 26
- Respect, 63, 64
- Rhodes, J., 2, 6, 45
- Risk-taking programs, 79
- Rogers, C. R., 33, 34
- Rogers, F., 17
- Rogoff, B., 37
- Ropes courses, 79
- Safe Schools Initiative, 18
- Salaries, teacher, 51
- Sawaf, A., 77
- Schools: acknowledgment of identity formation by, 67–68; drawbacks of, 12–13; effects of, 24; fear and coping of adolescents in, 58–59; protective factors of, 24; quality indicators of, 68; recommendations for, 14; role of, in teacher-student relationships, 50–52; sociocultural perspectives of, 49

- Schore, A., 23
 Security, 11, 48
 Self, 74, 80
 Self-awareness, 77–79
 Self-esteem, 46
 Seligson, M., 3, 7, 71
 Separation model, 20
 Separation, versus individuation, 25–26
 Sexual activities, 24
 Sizer, T., 68
 Social and emotional learning, 74
 Spencer, R., 2, 6, 31, 75
 Stability, 75, 80, 81–82n.13
 Standardized testing, 50–51
 Stiver, I. P., 76–77
 Student-teacher ratios, 51
 Student-teacher relationships: and academic achievement, 45–46; benefits of, 12, 45–46, 64–65, 69; and consent to learn, 60–62; definition of, 57; example of, 55–56; growth of, 64–67; and identity formation, 62–64; implications for, 67–69; versus learning, 58–59; models of, 48–50; and psychological adjustment, 46–47; role of school in, 50–52; students' desire for, 64; and students' fears, 58–59; study of, 56–58
 Suicide, 19
 Supporting separation model, 1
 Teachers: assistance from, 69; burnout of, 13; characteristics of successful, 12; demands of, 50–51; encouragement from, 60–61; importance of, 12; recommendations for, 68–69; salaries of, 51; self-image of, 48; student descriptions of, 62–63; training of, 13, 14, 68
 Teacher-student relationships: and academic achievement, 45–46; benefits of, 12, 45–46, 64–65, 69; and consent to learn, 60–62; definition of, 57; example of, 55–56; growth of, 64–67; and identity formation, 62–64; implications for, 67–69; versus learning, 58–59; models of, 48–50; and psychological adjustment, 46–47; role of school in, 50–52; students' desire for, 64; and students' fears, 58–59; study of, 56–58
 Teasing, 19
 Therapeutic alliance, 35–36
 Therapists: collaborative relationship with, 35; and empathy, 33, 35; versus mentors, 39; positive regard for client by, 33–34; presence of, in client relationship, 34; training of, 14
 University of Minnesota National Longitudinal Study on Adolescent Health, 26
 U.S. Department of Education, 18
 U.S. Secret Service, 18
 Violence, 17–19, 23–24
 Vygotsky, L., 37
 Wellesley College, 73, 77
 Wentzel, K. R., 25–26
 Winnicott, D. W., 21
 Youth-adult relationships: benefits of, 1, 10, 19; challenges to, 32; childhood formation of, 74–75; core values of, 19; paradigm shift in, 1–2, 9; perception of, 9; students' need for, 64