

Index

A

- Advice, 6, 91–103; best, from CEOs, 137–141; from board members, 95, 99–100; caution in seeking, 2; from community boards, 102; from friends, 92, 95, 102–103; myth about, 4, 134; organizations as source of, 97, 98–99; from other CEOs, 16, 95–96, 96–97, 98, 99, 102, 140–141; from outside consultants, 91, 94–95, 99, 100, 101, 102; from people inside company, 93–94, 95, 97, 100, 101–102, 103; from personal coach, 101; real truth about, 134; from spouses, 101, 102
- Amato, Jay: acting slowly regretted by, 82–83; best advice from, 137; career change by, 143n1; delay in accepting CEO position regretted by, 78–81; management team members fired by, 51–52; plans improvised by, 44; useless advice given to, 98; varied rhythms of thinking/acting used by, 106–107
- American Culinary ChefsBest: culture of, 77; rhythm of, 117–118; sources of advice for CEO of, 97, 98–99; surprises encountered in, 25–28
- Ameritech, 91
- Armstrong, Lance, 103
- Asking questions: about company decision-making process, 81; about status of incumbent CEO, 86; to aid management team selection, 61, 67; employees dislike of CEO's, 25. See also Information gathering
- AT&T: CEO “hitting groove” at, 125; rhythm of, 111–112; sources of advice for CEO of, 92–95
- Avery Dennison, 22–23

B

- Ballmer, Steve, 98
- Bank One: first-day rejection of new CEO at, 9–10, 11, 37; formulating plan for, while gathering information, 37–39; management team slowly formed at, 59–62; quick decision making at, 83–84; rhythm of, 113–114; steady approach to achieving results at, 123
- Banta Corporation: management team selection at, 65, 67–68; new CEO “in groove” at, 127; recruitment of new CEO for, 21–22, 23–24; rhythm of, 114; sources of advice for CEO of, 100–101; surprises encountered in, 24–25
- Belcher, Don, 21–22, 23, 24, 25
- Board of directors: community, as source of advice, 102; difficulty of managing, 39; first-day rejection of new CEO by, 9–10, 11, 37; organization used as, 99; as source of advice, 95, 99–100
- Bossidy, Larry, 16
- Branch offices, communication with, 109
- Bristol-Myers Squibb: investment in ImClone by, 35–36; moving beyond crisis rhythm at, 112–113; quick formation of management team at, 53–54; sources of advice for CEO of, 102–103; time required for achieving results at, 119
- Brown, Greg, 14
- Burns, Stephanie: best advice from, 137–138; on Dow-Corning's leadership development process, 66; on gauging required speed of action, 85–86; management team selection by, 69–71; planning for silicone-implant safety crisis by, 48–49; regrets of, about time management, 78; rhythm of Dow-Corning unchanged by, 105; sources of advice for, 95–96; on time required for “hitting groove,” 125–126

C

Canavan, Pat, 14

Cappellas, Mike, 16

CEOs: best advice from, 137–141; down-to-earth quality of, 143n4; as source of advice, 16, 95–96, 96–97, 98, 99, 102, 140–141; turnover of, 2. See also names of specific CEOs

Chambers, John, 16

Changes: avoiding, when assuming CEO position after predecessor's death, 36; hindered by people legacy, 19–20, 24–25, 52; made to deal with plummeting stock price, 42; rapid incrementalism approach to, 107–108; in relationship with customers, 18–19

ChefsBest Award, 26, 27, 28

Citrin, Jim, 12, 13

Collins, Jim, 64

Communication: with branch offices, 109; direct, with customers, 18, 19, 45; honest, about downsizing, 38–39

Community boards, as source of advice, 102

Company culture. See Corporate culture

Compensation program, changed to increase customer focus, 18

Consultants, outside, as source of advice, 91, 94–95, 99, 100, 101, 102

Corporate culture: building, as challenge for new CEO, 28; company lacking coherent, 87; as factor in management team selection, 70–71; giving more attention to, 77; limited knowledge about, 21, 81; time required for changing, 19–20; transformation of, 46–47

Culture. See Corporate culture

Customers: changing relationship with, 18–19, 20; necessity of getting to know, 45

D

Death, assuming CEO position after sudden, of predecessor, 29–33, 36

Decision making: “chicken or steak” approach to, 83; gauging correct speed of, 84–89; knowledge about company's process for, 81

Dimon, Jamie: best advice from, 138; career change by, 143n1; casualness of, 143n4; first-day rejection of, 9–10, 11, 37; management team slowly formed by, 59–62; personal rhythm of, 114; plan formulated by, while gathering information, 37–39; quick decision making by, 83–84; steady approach of, to achieving results, 123

Dolan, Peter: best advice from, 139; company moved beyond crisis rhythm by, 112–113; on gauging required speed of making decisions, 88; ImClone investment as challenge for, 35–36; management team quickly formed by, 53–54; personal rhythm of, 112; regrets of, about not asking about status of incumbent CEO, 86; sources of advice for, 102–103; time required by, for achieving results, 119

Dorman, Dave: cause of break in stride of, 127; “hitting groove” recalled by, 125; on management team selection, 63; personal rhythm of, 111; retirement of, 144n1; sources of advice for, 92–95

Dow Chemical: Liversis selected as new CEO of, 71–72; management team selection at, 72–75; results achieved by new CEO of, in first 100 days, 124; rhythm of, 117; sources of advice for CEO of, 96–97; time required for CEO to “hit groove” at, 126

Dow-Corning: customer-driven rhythm of, 105; leadership development process at, 66; management team selection at, 69–71; regrets about time management at, 78; silicone-implant safety as issue for, 48–49; sources of advice for CEO of, 95–96; time required for CEO to “hit groove” at, 125–126

Downsizing. See Layoffs

Dreyer's Ice Cream, 27

E

E&J Gallo, 27

Employees: importance of smiling at, 68; poor morale of, 46, 47; slow pace of acting on issues related to, 79, 88. See also Layoffs

- Energy creation, as role of leadership, 121
- Esrey, Bill, 95
- Executive sponsors, assigned to customers, 18
- Executives, turnover of senior, 2
- F
- Family: dealing with, of CEO who died suddenly, 31; mixed reaction by, to accepting CEO position, 15–16. See also Spouses
- Farber, Dana, 103
- Firing employees. See Layoffs
- “Flow.” See “Groove”
- Friends, as source of advice, 92, 95, 102–103
- Frito-Lay: as ChefsBest Award licensee, 27; existing management team retained at, 58; rhythm of, 116; sources of advice for CEO of, 100
- Fuller, Larry, 12
- G
- Game plans. See Plans
- Garriques, Ron, 58
- Gerstner, Lou, 16, 57
- Good to Great* (Collins), 64
- Graddick-Weir, Mirian, 95
- “Groove”: causes of “break in,” 127–128; time required for “hitting,” 120, 124–127
- H
- Hannigan, Bill, 95
- History: as benefit and advantage, 56–57; paralysis by, 52. See also People legacy
- Horton, Tom, 95
- I
- Ianna, Frank, 94
- Idealab!, 21, 22
- ImClone, 35–36
- Immersion, information gathering as, 16, 38
- Improvisation, 44, 48
- Information: about company’s decision-making process, 81; easy availability of, 44; unknown about culture, 21, 81
- Information gathering: about value of management team members, 61–62; hindered by predecessor not being informed of replacement, 44–45; plan formulation while, 37–39; by prospective CEO, 16–18, 23–24
- Infrastructure, upgrading and building, 27–28
- Interviews: asking about company decision-making process in, 81; asking about status of incumbent CEO in, 86; limited knowledge gained in, 24; for position as CEO of Motorola, 12–13, 14–15
- IT system, consolidating multiple, 37, 39
- J
- Jobs, Steve, 16
- Joerres, Jeffrey: best advice from, 139–140; on first 100-day plan, 38; management team quickly formed by, 54–55; personal rhythm of, 108–109; rapid incrementalism approach of, 107–108; sources of advice for, 101–102; steady approach of, to achieving results, 120, 122–123
- JP Morgan Chase, 143n1
- K
- Kodak, 56
- L
- Layoffs: communicating necessity of, 38–39; to deal with plummeting stock price, 42; as interrupting company’s rhythm, 110; of management, 51–52, 69; to send message that change is necessary, 67–68
- Leadership, creating energy as role of, 121
- Legal counsel, as source of advice, 94–95, 99
- LeMay, Ron, 95
- Liveris, Andrew: cause of interruption of flow for, 128; on gauging required speed of making decisions, 88; on knowing customers, 45; management team selection by, 72–75; personal rhythm of, 116; results achieved by, in first 100 days, 124; selected as CEO of Dow Chemical, 71–72; as source of advice, 95; sources of advice for, 96–97; on time required for “hitting groove,” 126
- Loneliness: CEO reporting absence of, 96; CEOs experiencing, 2, 37, 91, 100–101

Lucent Technologies: full engagement of new CEO of, 124–125; interruptions of rhythm of, 110–111; plummeting stock price of, 40–43; quick formation of management team at, 55–57; sources of advice for CEO of, 99–100

M

MacDowell, Angus, 46

Management team, 5, 51–75; built by deceased predecessor, 33; consultant help in selecting, 94; importance of members of, 52–53, 61; leadership development of members of, 66; myth about, 4, 133; quick formation of, 51–52, 53–57; real truth about, 133; retaining existing, 58; selecting right people for, 62–75; slow formation of, 57–62; as source of advice, 100

Manpower: quick formation of management team at, 54–55; rapid incrementalism at, 107–108; sources of advice for CEO of, 101–102; steady approach to achieving results at, 120, 122–123

McNerney, Jim, 1

Mead-Johnson, 53

Microsoft, 98

Middle managers, 2, 51

Misconceptions. See Myths

Mistakes, 5–6, 77–89; acting quickly as, 84; acting slowly as, 79, 82–83, 84; delay in accepting CEO position as, 78–81; fear of making, 108; gauging required speed of action to avoid, 84–89; myth about, 4, 133; real truth about, 133; related to culture, 77, 81; in time management, 78; viewed as learning experiences, 78, 84, 133

Motorola: efforts to speed up rhythm at, 115–116; lack of coherent culture at, 87; management team selection at, 64–65; slow formation of management team at, 57–59; slow pace of acting at, 79, 84; surprises encountered in, 18–19

Myth #1. See Surprises

Myth #2. See Plans

Myth #3. See Management team

Myth #4. See Mistakes

Myth #5. See Advice

Myth #6. See Rhythm

Myth #7. See Time line

Myths: list of, 4–5; real truth about, 131–135

N

Nike plan, 52

90 days, first, 6, 119, 129

Nortel, 43

Noski, Chuck, 93–94

Notebaert, Dick: advisers to, 91; best advice from, 140; improvisation by, to overcome corporate problems, 44–48; management team selection by, 68–69; on Qwest's rhythm, 116

O

Organically groomed. See Rising organically

Organizations, as source of advice, 97, 98–99

P

Pace. See Rhythm; Speed of acting

Parachuting in: defined, 10, 11; surprises encountered by CEOs when, 18–19, 24–25, 27–28

Parker, John: background of, 26; became CEO by buying company, 25–27; culture neglected by, 77; on rhythm of American Culinary ChefsBest, 117–118; sources of advice for, 97, 98–99; surprises encountered by, 27–28

People legacy, change hindered by, 19–20, 24–25. See also History

Pepper, John, 12, 13, 15, 16

Personal coach, as source of advice, 101

Personal rhythm: of Dimon at Bank One, 114; of Dolan at Bristol-Myers, 112; of Dorman at AT&T, 111; of Joerres at Manpower, 108–109; of Liveris at Dow Chemical, 116; organizational rhythm vs., 118; of Rosenfeld at Frito-Lay, 116; of Russo at Lucent, 111; of Streeter at Banta, 114; of Zander at Motorola, 114–115

Plans, 5, 35–50; for cash flow problem at small company, 44; for creating change after death of predecessor, 36; for dealing with financial and morale problems at company, 44–48; for first 100 days as CEO, 38; formulating, while gathering information, 37–39; for getting to know customers, 45; for handling plummeting stock price, 40–43; myth about, 4, 132; for public revelations of company's investments,

35–36; real truth about, 132; for silicone-implant safety issue, 48–49
Polumbo, John, 95

Q

Qwest: advisers to new CEO of, 91; improvisation by CEO of, to overcome problems, 44–48; management team selection at, 68–69; rhythm of, 116

R

Rapid incrementalism, 107–108

Regrets. See Mistakes

Reinemund, Steve, 85

Resizing. See Layoffs

Rhythm, 6, 105–118; companies with fast-paced, 113–118; customer-driven, 105; interruptions of, 110–111; moving beyond crisis, 112–113; myth about, 4, 134; rapid incrementalism's effect on, 107–108; real truth about, 134; reestablishing even-paced, 111–112; refraining from changing, 105; summary of findings on, 118; varying pace of, 106–107. See also Personal rhythm

Rising organically: defined, 10, 11; difficulties of, with sudden death of predecessor, 29–33; few surprises encountered when, 11

Rosenfeld, Irene: existing management team retained by, 58; on gauging required speed of action, 84–85; personal rhythm of, 116; sources of advice for, 100

Russell-Stover, 27

Russo, Pat: best advice from, 140–141; full engagement with new company by, 124–125; on interruptions to company's rhythm, 110–111; management team quickly formed by, 55–57; personal rhythm of, 111; plummeting stock price as challenge for, 40–43; as source of advice, 16; sources of advice for, 99–100

S

Schacht, Henry, 40

School Specialty, new CEO's experience at, after sudden death of predecessor, 29–33

Silver Lake Partners, 12

Smiling, importance of, 68

Spalding, Dan, 29–31, 32, 33

Speed of acting: gauging required, 84–89; regrets about quick, 84; regrets about slow, 79, 82–83, 84. See also Rhythm

Spouses, as source of advice, 101, 102. See also Family

Stavropoulos, Bill, 72, 96

Stewart, Martha, 35–36

Streeter, Stephanie: background of, 22–23; Banta's recruitment of, 21–22, 23–24; best advice from, 141; cause of break in stride of, 127; on gauging required speed of action, 87–88; on "hitting groove" as new CEO, 127; information gathering by, 23–24; knowledge of, about culture, 81; management team selection by, 65, 67–68; personal rhythm of, 114; regrets of, about slow pace of acting, 79; on smiling at employees, 68; sources of advice for, 100–101; surprises encountered by, 24–25

"Stride." See "Groove"

Succession, importance of circumstances of, 10–11

Sun Microsystems, 12, 13, 16, 59

Support, CEO's experience of lack of, 9–10, 11, 37

Surprises, 5, 9–33; circumstances of becoming CEO and, 10–11; first-day rejection by board as, 9–10, 11, 37; myth about, 4, 132; for new American Culinary ChefsBest CEO, 27–28; for new Banta CEO, 24–25; for new Motorola CEO, 18–19; real truth about, 132; sudden death of predecessor as, for organically groomed CEO, 29–33

T

Team. See Management team

Teamwork: with management team members, 74; as problem encountered by new CEO, 19

Time line, 6, 119–129; "fire fighting" at beginning of, 119; first 90 days of, 119, 129; for "hitting groove," 120, 124–127; interruptions of "flow" along, 127–128; myth about, 5, 135; real truth about, 135; steady approach to achieving results throughout, 120–124

Trevino, Lee, 128

Turnover: due to morale problem, 39; of executives, 2

V

Values, emphasis on, 122–123

Vander Zanden, Dave: best advice from, 141; cause of break in stride of, 127–128; CEO role assumed by, after death of predecessor, 29–33; change avoided initially by, 36

Vanstar, 79–80

Viewpoint: delay in acceptance of CEO position of, 79–81; firing of management team members at, 51–52; improvisation by CEO at, 44; rhythm varied at, 106–107; slow pace of action by new CEO of, 82–83; useless advice given to CEO of, 98

W

Warrior, Padmasree, 14

Welch, Jack, 16

Women, competitive, 25

World Presidents' Organization (WPO), 97, 98–99

Wright Orthopedics, 48

Y

Young Presidents' Organization (YPO), 97, 98–99

Z

Zander, Ed: on avoiding breaking groove, 128; “growing organically” defined by, 10; information gathering by, 16–18; lack of coherent culture encountered by, 87; management team selection by, 64–65; management team slowly formed by, 57–59; Motorola's recruitment and hiring of, 11–15, 16; no-meeting goal of, 115–116; personal rhythm of, 114–115; reaction of family of, to accepting Motorola CEO position, 15–16; on reasons for success, 20–21; regrets of, about slow pace of acting, 79, 84; source of advice for, 140–141; surprises encountered by, 18–19, 87

Zimmer, 53–54