

CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Foreword	xi
Lee S. Shulman
Acknowledgments	xvii
About the Authors	xix

PART ONE:

Introduction—Recommendations—History

1. Foundations and Education: Introduction	3
Ray Bacchetti, Thomas Ehrlich
2. Recommendations: Building Educational Capital	21
Ray Bacchetti, Thomas Ehrlich
3. What Might Andrew Carnegie Want to Tell Bill Gates? Reflections on the Hundredth Anniversary of The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching	47
Ellen Condliffe Lagemann, Jennifer de Forest

PART TWO:

K–12 and Foundations

4. Increasing Foundation Impact by Building Educational Capital	71
Theodore Lobman, Ray Bacchetti
5. Foundations and School Reform: Bridging the Cultural Divide	107
Nancy Hoffman, Robert Schwartz
6. When Reach Exceeds Grasp: Taking the Annenberg Challenge to Scale	139
Barbara Cervone
7. Building Capacity for School Improvement	163
Thomas Hatch

8. The National Writing Project: Commitment and Competence 185
Ann Lieberman

PART THREE:

Higher Education and Foundations

9. Patron or Bully? The Role of Foundations in Higher Education 211
Charles T. Clotfelter
10. Many Motives, Mixed Reviews: Foundations and Higher Education as a Relationship Richer in Possibilities Than Results 249
Ray Bacchetti
11. Working Through Intermediaries: The New Jersey Campus Diversity Initiative 283
Edgar F. Beckham
12. From Idea to Prototype: The Peer Review of Teaching 303
Pat Hutchings
13. Addressing Failure: The Case of the Commission on Social Studies 323
Robert Orrill

PART FOUR:

Cross-Cutting Topics

14. Education and the Conservative Foundations 347
Leslie Lenkowsky, James Piereson
15. Robin Hood with a Difference: Operating Foundations and Universities and Schools 379
Robert Weisbuch
- Appendix A: Going for the Gold in Undergraduate Education 409
Russell Edgerton
- Appendix B: Selected Data on Foundation Grants and Total Educational Expenditures 417
- Name Index 491
- Subject Index 497