

INDEX

A

- ABC Parents (Asset-building Champion Parents), 231
- Abundant Assets Alliance, 281
- Academic performance, 86*t*, 88–90
- ACE (Assets in Early Childhood Education) Project [Colorado], 293
- Activating sectors. See Community asset-building sectors
- Ad Council, 217
- Adair, R., 252
- Adolescence: identity formation as critical task of, 56; significant changes during, 70. See also Youth
- Adreasen, A. R., 234
- Adults: community capacity by engaging, 137, 138; cultivating social expectation for engagement by, 213–214; gap between asset-building belief and action by, 210–212; honored for asset-building actions by youth, 182; impact of baby boomer generation of, 307; increasing volunteering by older, 105; moving toward asset-building lifestyles, 233–237; moving toward shared responsibility for children by, 105–106; perspectives on asset-building beliefs and actions by, 207, 208*t*–209*t*; responsibility for nurturing other people's children, 210–212; strategies for engaging them with other people's kids, 212; thanking asset-building efforts of individual, 213. See also Intergenerational relationships; Youth-adult relationships
- African Americans: academic performance by eighth grade, 127; asset-building actions by families of, 222; good parenting beliefs by, 225; policy-related desires by, 225–226. See also Race/ethnicity differences
- After the Game (Youth First), 128
- After-school programs, 293–295
- Age differences/level of assets, 69–70, 73*t*
- Age segregation: moving to intergenerational community from, 103–105; role modeling prevented by, 54. See also Intergenerational relationships
- Alaska ICE, 189, 318
- Alaska School Board Association, 87
- Alcohol use predictors, 92*fig*
- Alcoholics Anonymous, 325
- Alternatives, Inc., 198
- Alvarez, C., 272
- American Camping Association, 289
- America's Promise—The Alliance for Youth, 109, 144
- Andress, I. S., 156
- Appreciative Inquiry* (Cooperrider), 156
- Arab Americans, 250
- Arab-American Family Support Center, 247
- Arlington Partnership on children, Youth, and Families (Virginia), 314
- Art activities, 44–45, 74
- Asset foundation: built during first two decades of life, 102–103; essential shifts to build, 99–101; intergenerational community to promote, 103–105; putting emphasis on all youth building, 102. See also Healthy development
- Asset Lab project (New York City), 246–247, 281
- Asset taxonomy: assets as building blocks of development, 57–58; balancing external and internal factors of, 28–29; boundaries-and-expectations assets, 41–42; commitment-to-learning assets, 50–52; constructive-use-of-time assets, 42–48, 49, 74; empowerment assets, 39–40; extending the reach of assets, 122; external assets, 30, 31–48, 32*t*, 75*t*, 208*t*; horizontal accumulation of, 26–27, 93, 122; identifying factors communities can readily promote, 30; internal assets, 30, 33*t*, 48–57, 76*t*, 208*t*–209*t*; positive-identity assets, 55–57, 95; positive-values assets, 52–57, 95; research leading to configuration of, 29–30; social-competencies assets, 55; vertical accumulation of, 26, 79–80, 122. See also Developmental Assets framework
- Asset Team (South Africa), 298
- Asset-building: asset language used in, 99–101, 100*t*; civic engagement in, 113–114; civic journalism support of, 327–329; consistent messages used in, 109–111; customizing, 249; engaging neighborhood, 266–267; engaging other systems and sectors in, 267–273; engaging religious community, 262–266; engaging school, 251–256, 257–258; equipping parents for, 230–231; family support

- Asset-building, continued
 services for, 226; during first two decades of life, 102–103; focus on all youth, 102; how parents and families engage in, 221–223†; infusing into public programs and services, 322; intergenerational community’s role in, 103–105; joy of, 188–190; moving to the next level, 335–336; perspectives on beliefs and actions of, 207, 208†–209†; redundancy as part of, 111; relationship importance to, 106–107; shared responsibility for, 105–106; strengthening families’ capacity for, 224–232; unifying community vision for, 108–109; uniting communities for, 114–115; youth as actors in, 112, 192–203
- Asset-building capacities: action in socializing systems, 16; change emphasis on unleashing, 243–244; civic engagement in, 113–114; community-building actions, 16; identifying, unleashing, and supporting, 120; individual-level actions, 16; model of unleashing, 135*fig*; strengthening families, 224–232; supportive structure for community, 185–188
- Asset-building communities: advocating for families, 232; collective power of, 126–127, 129; Cradle Beach Camp (New York) as, 124–125; cultural shifts required for, 99–115; definition of, 16, 121–122; emphasis on all youth, 102; essential cultural shifts to promote, 99–101, 100†; global spread of, 88, 142; guiding principles for envisioning, 122–132; Morgan County experience with being, 43; principles in action, 132–134; recovering the wisdom of community through, 150–151; signs of progress in, 141–150; strategies for creating, 134–141; targets of, 122; thirty-six characteristics of, 138–140; transforming diverse and urban area into, 17; Youth First initiative (Annandale, Minnesota) as, 128–129; youth programs as inadequate substitutes for, 125–126. See also Community
- Asset-building community principles: community innovation as part of, 125–126; on community socializing systems, 126–127, 129; on developmental strength community effect, 129–130; on healthy development for all children and youth, 123; on improving community infrastructure, 130–131; taking action based on, 132–134; on transformative social change, 131–132
- Asset-building community signs: examples of asset building successes, 143–144; recognition of community efforts, 144–145; the spread of an idea, 141–142; studies of impact and, 145–150
- Asset-building community strategies: creating operational infrastructure, 136–137; cultivating community readiness, energy, and commitment, 136; direction taken from, 134; model of unleashing capacity using, 135*fig*; unleashing community capacity through five action strategies, 137–141
- Asset-building initiatives: accessing financial resources for, 178–182; casting vision for the community, 167–168; catalyzing asset-building innovation for, 176; developing strong leadership base of, 175–176; dialogue, learning, action, and support network for, 168–171; functions of, 167; including youth as partners in, 197–198; managing and coordinating, 176, 179; youth in governance positions of, 198–199; youth as researchers in, 199, 201; youth roles in program leadership/development, 201–202. See also Community change infrastructure; specific initiatives
- Asset-building letters, 213
- Asset-building lifestyles, 233–237
- Asset-building sectors. See Community asset-building sectors
- Assets in Action initiative (Vermont), 318
- Assets in Action Teen Writing Contest (Arizona), 173
- Assets for Colorado Youth (Denver), 173–174, 197, 248, 293, 326
- Assets in Motion (Wadsworth, Ohio), 143
- Assets Tag, 173
- Atwood, B., 119, 120
- Australia asset-building communities, 88
- Authoritative communities, 121–122
- Awareness, 244
- B
- Baby boomers, 307
- Balentine, V., 205–206
- Bales, S. N., 217
- Barkley Brown, M., 128, 129
- Beach, C., 300
- Behavior: caring, 52–54, 68–69; high-risk, 4–6*fig*, 25, 27, 80–82*fig*, 90–92*fig*; thriving, 25, 27, 82–85*fig*; violent, 87†; volunteerism, 105, 203, 217, 290–292. See also Values
- Bell, C., 254
- Benham, J., 295
- Benold Middle School (Texas), 252, 254
- Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS), 260, 287–288
- Bish, D., 265
- Blackwell, A. G., 111
- Bly, R., 1, 41
- Blyth, D., 114, 275, 285
- Booksin Elementary School, 231
- Borden, L., 275
- Borud, L., 108, 270–271
- Boundaries-and-expectations assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 208†; consistency across influencing systems, 41–42; listed, 41; role modeling/high expectations to create, 42
- Boundary setting, 41–42
- Boy Scouts of America, 256
- Boys: acts of violence reported by, 87†; high academic performance reported by, 86†; underdeveloped caring asset in, 68–69. See also Gender differences; Girls
- Boys and Girls Clubs of America, 142
- Broadcast media, 172–173, 327–329
- Brusk, B., 124, 125
- “Bubble-up” approach, 186

Bui, D., 187
Building Assets–Reducing Risks program (St. Louis Park High School, Minnesota), 148–149
“Building Big Futures” (newspaper supplement), 260
Bunker, P., 131, 230
Burris, M. E., 49
Business/industry sector, 271

C

Camp Eastview (Youth First), 128–129
Camp Fire USA, 256
Camping experiences, 288–290
Canadian asset-building communities, 88
Caring value asset, 52–54, 68–69
Carnegie Council on Adolescent Development, 43–44, 275, 284
Carson, E., 331
Catholic Charities Mulroy Neighborhood Center (Denver), 203
Celebrating: asset-building work, 184–185; asset-building youth programs, 302
Center of Governmental Research study (2004), 49
Center for Strength-Based Strategies (Michigan), 324
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 120, 281, 283, 296
Change. See Community change
Chase Youth Commission, 295
Cheltenham Elementary School (Denver), 174
Child care programs: after-school, 293–295; for pre-school and school-aged child, 292–293
Child Guide Program (Minnesota), 256
Child well-being: changes across time for measuring, 6*fig*–7; economic well-being measure of, 4; global context of, 7–8; high-risk behavior measure of, 4–6; indicators used in measuring, 9–11
Child Wellbeing Index (CWI), 6
Children: adolescent asset-building and interaction with younger, 194–196; adults building assets for unrelated, 34–36, 105–106, 206–219; advancing meaningful policy engagement by, 315–316; civic leadership role taken by, 196–198; constructive-use-of-time promoted for, 42–48; coordinating policy agenda strategies for, 316–320; engaging parents more deeply with their, 219–232; estimates on poverty rates of, 4; lack of vocal constituency for, 307–308; moving toward shared responsibility for, 105–106; negative characteristics of communities for, 11–12; neighborhood “social contracts” protecting, 36; overdependence on programs for care of, 106–107; UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989) on, 7, 305, 309, 310–311. See also Healthy development; Youth
Children First initiative (St. Louis Park, Minnesota), 133, 145, 175, 184
Children’s Defense Fund, 226
Civic decision influence barriers: fragmented political interests, 312; lack of clear policy agendas, 308–309, 312; lack of vocal constituency, 307–308; predominance of deficit thinking, 305–307; social attitudes toward government/public policy, 304–305
Civic decision influence opportunities: advancing meaningful youth engagement, 315–316; asset-building themes and, 312–313; coordinating policy agenda strategies for, 316–320; gathering data and monitoring trends, 313–314; mobilizing public vision and will, 315; unleashing community and organizational capacity, 320
Civic decisions: addressing the challenge of funding and, 320–324; aligning other influences on, 324–329; barriers and challenges to, 304–312; from influencing to making, 329–330; to leverage community change resources, 137, 140; opportunities for impact, 312–320; renewing engagement in, 113–114. See also United States
Civic journalism, 327–329
Civic leaders: empowering parents as, 229–231; partnering to engage range of volunteers as, 188; studies on involvement of, 217; supporting change infrastructure, 175–176, 177*t*; youth in positions of initiative and, 196–203. See also Community; Volunteerism
Civic Ventures study (2002), 105
Clark, M., 324
Coalition for America’s Children, 214
Coalitions: creating new asset-building, 185; four models of working together in communities, 186, 188; repositioning of existing, 185–186
Cochran, M., 232
Coconino Coalition for Children and Youth (Arizona), 173
Coles, B., 317
Collaboration model, 188
Collins, C., 258
Colorado Academy (Denver), 203
Colorado Trust, 147, 326
Commission on Children at Risk (U.S.), 121
Commission on Youth (Virginia), 320
Commitment-to-learning assets: bonding to school, 52; homework, 51–52; listed, 50; motivation and engagement, 51
Committee on Community-Level Programs for Youth of the National Research Council, 279
Common good theme, 110–111
Communication: between stakeholders and the public, 171–174; inclusive language used in, 161–162; initiative support through networks of, 168–171; matching asset-building message to audience, 214–215; using media, 172–173; value of conversation, 169–171; youth roles in asset-building, 202
Communities for Children and Youth (Maine), 319
Communities That Care model, 181
Community: activating all sectors of, 137, 138–139; advocating for families, 232; assessing multiple influences on assets in, 63; authoritative, 121–122; boundary setting by, 41–42; defined in context of

Community, continued

- healthy development, 15–16; development of moral commitments tied to, 42; Developmental Assets studies revealing portraits of, 60–63; developmentally attentive, 121; four models of working together in, 186, 188; global asset-building movement and, 88, 142; identifying factors that can be readily promoted by, 30; influencing decision makers/opinion leaders of, 137, 140; isolation of children/youth within, 11–12; level of assets and size of, 70–71; moving from age segregation to intergenerational, 103–105; recovering the wisdom of, 150–151; reframing assumptions about family, organizations, and, 224; religious, 45–47, 77, 161–162, 262–266; social trust in, 159–160, 161–162; socializing systems of, 126–127, 129; supporting part-time employment of youth, 49; toward shared responsibility for children by, 105–106; uniting for asset building, 114–115; “Year of Values” for, 53. See also Asset-building communities; Civic leaders; Cultural shifts
- Community asset-building sectors: creating opportunities and relationships among, 274; engaging specific, 251–274; linkage among, 246–247; shared themes in activating, 241–250
- Community asset-building themes: action and continuity, 245–246; emphasis on unleashing capacity, 243–244; equity and justice, 247–248; linkage among sectors, 246–247; multiple levels of change, 242–243; receptivity, awareness, mobilization, 244; relating and social change, 250; safety, customizing, focusing, and reframing, 249–250; transformation across time, 244
- Community change: collective efficacy, social trust, and public will for, 159–160, 161–162; creating operational infrastructure for, 163–190; ensuring change becomes way of life, 237; finding the joy of asset-building and, 188–190; head and heart work for, 158; highlighting possibility of, 234–235; mobilization and organizing for, 235; multiple levels of, 242–243; overcoming barriers to action, 235t–236t; personal efficacy and responsibility for, 159; receptivity and cultivating openness to, 233–234; Search Institute project on, 233; shared vision, purpose, and commitment to, 154–157; storytelling about, 238; tips for increasing readiness for, 160–163. See also Cultural shifts
- Community change infrastructure: assessment or evaluation of, 182–184; broad engagement of the willing to create, 164–165; casting vision for community and, 167–168; catalyzing asset-building innovation through, 176; celebrating the work of, 184–185; for communication between stakeholders and public, 171–174; creating networks supporting initiatives, 168–171; developing leadership base for, 175–176, 177t; emergent, flexible, and permeable, 166–167; facilitative, empowering leadership of, 165–166; financial support of, 178–182; fluidity of, 166–167; functions of community initiative and role of, 167; managing and coordinating, 176, 179; operating principles for, 163; supporting community capacity building, 185–188; tools, training, technical assistance for, 174–175; unleashing instead of controlling or directing approach by, 163–164. See also Asset-building initiatives
- Community Clean-Up Week (Youth First), 129
- Community effect, 129–130
- Community Profiles* (publication), 314
- Community service, 203, 290–292
- Community Youth Nights (Youth First), 128
- Connections initiative (Howard County, Maryland), 144
- Consistent messages, 109–111
- Constructive-use-of-time assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 208t; creative activities to develop, 44–45, 74; described, 42–43; listed, 42; part-time employment impact on, 47–48; religious community to develop, 45–47, 77; time at home to build, 47; youth programs to develop, 45, 77
- Continuity concept, 245–246
- Conversations, 169–171
- Conway, J., 282
- Cooperation model, 188
- Cooperrider, D., 156
- Coordination model, 186
- Corporate foundations, 325–327
- Corporation for National and Community Service, 196, 290
- Corrigan, S., 300
- County of Orange Health Care Agency, 150
- Cradle Beach Camp (New York), 124–125
- Creative activities, 44–45, 74
- Cruell, L., 247
- Cultural competence, 55
- Cultural shifts: from age segregation to intergenerational community, 103–105; from changing priorities to long-term commitment, 113; from civic disengagement to engagement, 113–114; from conflicting signals to consistent messages, 109–111; from deficit language to asset language, 99–101, 100t; from early-childhood-only to first two decades of life, 102–103; from efficiency to redundancy in asset building, 111; from fragmented agenda to unifying vision, 108–109; from program focus to rational focus, 106–107; from self-interest to shared responsibility, 105–106; from some youth to all youth, 102; uniting communities for asset building, 114–115; from youth as objects to youth as actors, 112. See also Community change
- Culture: affecting gender differences in assets, 67–68; importance to vision of raising children, 2–3; relating asset-building to different, 250; social trust to bridge differences in, 159–160, 161–162; transforming, 3. See also Race/ethnicity differences
- Customizing asset-building, 249

D

- Damon, W., 42, 56, 332
- Dedor, R., 216
- Depression, 95
- Development Assets theory: more assets the better hypothesis of, 78–80; overview of, 26–27
- Developmental Assets: A Synthesis of the Scientific Research on Adolescent Development* (Scales and Leffert), 25
- Developmental Assets (among U.S. youth): age differences and, 69–70; aggregate sample for 2003 dataset of, 64*t*–65; average number of forty assets among, 65–66; external assets percentages in all youth (2003), 75*t*–76*t*; gender differences and, 67–69; identifying assets in short supply, 73–77; identifying assets that are signs of strength, 77–78; income differences and, 66–67; level of assets and, 71*t*–73*t*; level of assets in single-parent/two-parent homes, 74*t*; percentage of external assets (2003), 75*t*; percentage of internal assets (2003), 76*t*; race/ethnicity differences and, 66; size of community and, 70–71
- Developmental Assets framework: applications of, 333–335; architecture of, 30–58; broad vision/shared language of, 23–24; combined with risk and protective factor theory, 148; described, 3; historic origins/development of, 24–30; on importance of Developmental Assets, 78–93; infused into classroom practice, 257–258; leading hypothesis in theory behind, 78–79; long-term action/commitment as part of, 113; popularized understanding of, 37; social context of, 331–335; strategies for developing a comprehensive, 96–97; vision of, 334. See also Asset taxonomy; Asset-building community; Search Institute; Socialization
- Developmental Assets importance: developing comprehensive framework on, 96–97; Developmental Assets Profile (DAP) on, 95; dual action of assets, 79*fig*; to high-risk behavior patterns, 80–82*fig*, 90–92*fig*; leading hypothesis on the more assets, the better, 78–79; ranking assets in, 93–97; relative power of, 90–92*fig*; student achievement and, 86*t*, 88–90; thriving behaviors and, 82–85. See also Level of assets
- Developmental Assets origins: applying framework to all youth, 29; balancing external and internal factors, 28–29; building on previous research, 29–30; connecting scientific knowledge to positive outcomes, 25, 27; drawing from practitioners' wisdom, 28; growing out of scientific literature, 25; identifying factors communities can readily promote, 30; theory behind Developmental Assets, 26–27
- Developmental Assets Profile (DAP), 95
- Developmental Assets studies: assessing level of Development Assets, 60–61; on asset-building impact and youth development, 145–150; continuum of experience expanded through, 61; on developmental assets among U.S. youth, 63–78; to discover community challenges, 61, 63; on engaging adults

- in asset-building, 213, 215; examining Developmental Assets among U.S. youth, 63–78; Grading Grown-Ups 2002 study, 213, 215; on importance of developmental assets, 78–93; on including youth in youth initiative efforts, 197–198; on increasing number of older adult volunteering, 105; on level of assets and size of community, 70–71*t*; on mentoring relationships, 285–286; by MIPH (Minnesota Institute of Public Health), 149–150; on multiple influences on assets in community, 63; National Asset-Building Case Study Project (Search Institute), 197–198; on program-level impact, 147, 150; on statewide mobilization efforts, 147; University of California at Davis study (2001), 146–147; on urban African Americans eighth graders and academics, 127; on which assets are most important, 94. See also Search Institute
- Developmental Research and Programs (DRP), 181
- Developmentally attentive community, 121. See also Asset-building communities
- Dikko Foundation (Indiana), 326
- Drug use. See Illicit drug use
- DuBois, P. M., 113
- Dungan, R., 88

E

- Educating parents, 226, 228
- Efficacy: community responsibility and personal, 159; social trust and collective, 159–160
- 8-18 Media (Michigan), 202
- Electronic media, 172–173, 327–329
- Elkins, B., 203
- Empowerment assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 208*t*; described, 39; evaluating, 183; missing for many youth, 74; parents as leaders/change agents, 229–231; safety, 40, 67; service to others, 40; Stratford Youth and Family Advisory Board support of, 200–201; valuing young people, 39–40
- Empowerment evaluation models, 183
- Engagement/motivation, 51
- English, T., 323–324
- Equity theme, 247–248
- Ethnicity. See Race/ethnicity differences
- Ewing, J., 291
- Extended family: creating a new, 227; engaging children with, 219–232; shared experiences with, 228–229
- External agency Fund Technical Assistance Handbook*, 178
- External assets: boundaries-and-expectations, 41–42, 208*t*; constructive-use-of-time, 42–48, 49, 208*t*; described, 31; empowerment assets, 39–40, 74, 208*t*; listed, 30, 32*t*; other adult relationships, 34–36; percentage for all youth (2003), 75*t*; support assets, 31, 34–39, 74, 77–78, 104, 208*t*
- External (environmental) factors, 28–29

F

- Faith community. See Religious community
- Family: asset-building by parents and, 221–232;

Family, continued
 community advocacy for, 232; engaging children with extended, 219–232; level of assets and income of, 66–67; level of assets and one-parent vs. two-parent, 72–73, 74*t*; reframing assumptions about community, organizations, and, 224; school involvement by, 38–39; shared experiences with, 228–229; support of adult relationships other than, 34–36, 105–106, 206–219; support within the, 34. See also Homes; Income differences; Parents
 “Family champions,” 229
 Family Leadership Connection (California), 230
 Family support services, 226
 Family/work public policies, 323
 Fay, T., 156
 Ferries, B., 197
 Ferris, S., 259–260
 Financial issues: accessing other financial resources, 179–182; addressing the challenge of funding, 320–324; private and corporate foundation support, 325–327; proving grants to asset-building organizations, 178–179
 First Lutheran Church (Pennsylvania), 291–292
 First order community effect, 129, 130
 Fischer-Murray, J., 43
Flores Indigenas (Indigenous Flowers) [Cheltenham Elementary School, Denver], 174
 Focusing asset-building, 249
 Fortner, D., 143
Fortune magazine’s 100 Best Companies list, 49
 Forty Developmental Assets. See Asset taxonomy; Developmental Assets framework
 Foundation for Child Development, 6, 7
 Future Factory (South Africa), 298

G

Gallup Youth Survey, 220
 Garbarino, J., 269
 Garcia, R., 272
 Gardner, J., 110
 Gbolo, S., 287
 Gender differences: acts of violence reported and, 87*t*; in caring asset, 68–69; cultural traditions affecting, 67–68; high academic performance reported by, 86*t*; level of assets among U.S. youth and, 67–69, 73*t*, 85–87*t*. See also Boys; Girls
 Geography of influence, 15. See also Community
 Girl Scouts of America, 142, 256
 Girl Scouts—Wagon Wheel Council (Colorado Springs), 242–243
 “Girl-poisoning” society, 289
 Girls: acts of violence reported by, 87*t*; caring asset development in, 68–69; high academic performance reported by, 86*t*. See also Boys; Gender differences
 Gitlin, T., 154
 GivEm40 24/7 coalition (Michigan), 255
 Gladwell, M., 133

GLBT (gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender) youth, 248, 249
 Global asset-building movement, 88, 142
 Governor’s Children’s Cabinet (Maine), 319–320
Grading Grown-Ups 2002 study, 213, 215
 Green, J., 264

H

Halfon, N., 312, 322
 Hamilton, S., 191
Hardwired to Connect (2004 report), 121
 Harper, D., 286–287
 Harvard Family Research Project, 277
 Harvard University, 132
 Haydon, K. C., 214
 HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative [Boise], 317
 HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative [Charlotte County], 62
 HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative [Houston], 17
 HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative [Search Institute], 122
 HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative [Wadsworth, Ohio], 143–144
 HEAF (Harlem Educational Activities Fund), 246
 Health care system: asset-building infused in, 270–271; as asset-building resource, 322–323
 Health dimensions, 25
 Healthy Communities Coalition of Lyon and Story Counties (Nevada), 134
 Healthy Community Initiative of Northfield (1990s), 53
 Healthy Community Initiative (Orlando), 133, 202–203
 Healthy development: assets as building blocks of, 57–58; built during first two decades of life, 102–103; call to hope and action for, 18–19; Developmental Assets theory on, 26–27; framework of Developmental Assets approach to, 3; importance of culture to, 2–3; importance of Developmental Assets to, 78–93; looking for new solutions, 12–18; the more assets experienced the better, 79–80; societal struggle over, 1–3; strategies theme to, 3. See also Asset foundation; Children; Thriving behaviors; Youth
 Healthy development promotion: community in context of, 15–16; intentional change leading to, 13–14
 Healthy Nampa—Healthy Youth coalition (Nampa, Idaho), 144
Healthy Youth in King County (Washington), 314
 HEART of OKC, 187–188
Helping Kids Succeed—Alaskan Style, 87
 Hersch, P., 39–40, 206
 Hewlitt, S. A., 220
 High academic performance, 86*t*, 88–90
 High expectations, 42

High-risk behaviors: in context of Developmental Assets, 25, 27; Developmental Assets and, 80–82*fig*, 90–92*fig*; level of assets and, 81*t*; Overall Risk Behavior Index to measure, 90–92*fig*; percentage engaged in one or more, 6*fig*; research and reports on, 4–6

Hillside Family of Agencies, 49

Hillside Work-Scholarship Connection, 49

Himmelman, A., 186

HIV/AIDS pandemic, 8

Holmstrom, C., 175

Homes: importance of time spent at, 47; studies on youth left alone after school in, 44. See also Family; Parents

Homework, 51–52

Hong, K. L., 193

Honoring asset-building work, 184–185

Horizon Foundation (Maryland), 326

Horizontal accumulation principle: as asset-building community target, 122; collective power of community targeted by, 126–127, 129; described, 26–27, 93

Houston Endowment, 17

Houston Healthy Communities • Healthy Youth (HC • HY), 17

Hoy, S., 293

Hurricane Katrina refugees, 17

Hurwitz, J., 328

I

Ianni, F., 42

Identity formation, 56

Illicit drug use: percentage of youth reporting marijuana use, 82*fig*; predictors of, 92*fig*

IMPACT PLUS grant, 199

Income differences: acts of violence reported and, 87*t*; high academic performance reported by, 86*t*; level of assets and, 66–67, 73*t*, 85–87*t*. See also Family

Industry/business sector, 271

Initiatives. See Asset-building initiatives

Institute for Community and Adolescent Resiliency, 190

Institute of Medicine, 279, 321

Institute of Medicine-National Research Council report (2002), 79

Intentionality of programs: of asset-building tools, 281, 282*t*; importance of infusing, 280–281, 283; replication versus, 281

Intergenerational relationships: adults building assets for unrelated children, 34–36, 105–106, 206–219; cultivating broad social expectations for, 213–214; empowering parents as leaders/change agents, 229–231; encouraging parents to give permission for, 215–216; encouraging young people to mobilize, 216; engaging children with extended family, 219–232; forming influential, 218; obstacles to engagement in, 214–215; on-going support and reflection on, 217, 219; opportunities for engagement in, 217; responsibility for nurturing other people's children and, 210–212; strategies for engaging adults with other people's kids, 212. See also Adults; Age segregation; Youth-adult relationships

Internal factors: commitment-to-learning assets, 50–52, 208*t*; described, 28–29; listed, 28, 33*t*; percentage of all youth (2003), 76*t*; positive-identity assets, 55–57, 95, 209*t*; positive-values assets, 52–57, 209*t*; social-competencies assets, 55, 209*t*

Invigorating programs. See Youth programs

Irby, M., 278

Iron John Camp for Boys (YMCA), 289–290

Islamic Center (Minnesota), 262

Islamic Society of North America, 262

“It Takes a Child to Raise a Whole Village” (Kretzmann and Schmitz), 112

J

Jack S. Macy Intermediate School, 255

Jerabek, A., 148–149

Johnstad, K., 282

Juhl, S., 329

Jump Start program (Maine), 325

JustCommunity, 181

Justice: as asset-building theme, 247–248; building assets with first-time offenders, 325; PYD (positive youth development) approach to, 324

Juvenile justice system, 323–324, 325

K

Kasserian ingera? (“How are the children?”) greeting, 3, 19

KidsNet-Rockdale (George), 182

Kielsmeier, J., 196

King, B., 273

Klein, C., 1

KOIN-TV (TV station), 172

Kozol, J., 248

Kretzmann, J. P., 112

Kroenke, C., 285

L

Lang, T., 264

Language (inclusive), 161–162. See also Communication

Lappé, F. M., 113

Larson, R. W., 308

Latimer, K., 297

Latinos/Latinas: asset-building actions by families of, 222; Assets for Colorado Youth (Denver) for, 173–174; good parenting beliefs by, 225; Moorhead (Minnesota) Healthy Community Initiative for, 132–133; policy-related desires by, 225–226. See also Race/ethnicity differences

Law enforcement system, 272–273, 323–324

Lawton/Fort Sill (Oklahoma) Community Coalition, 133

Leadership. See Civic leaders
 Leavitt, C., 62
 Leffert, N., 25, 285
 Lerner, M., 335
 Level of assets: age differences and, 69–70, 73*t*; four defined, 71–72; gender differences and, 67–69, 73*t*, 85–87*t*; implications of, 83, 85; income differences and, 66–67, 73*t*, 85–87*t*; one-parent and two-parent families and, 72–73*t*; race/ethnicity differences and, 66, 73*t*, 85–87*t*; risk behavior patterns by, 81*t*; summary of percentage of youth and, 73*t*; thriving indicators by, 83, 84*t*. See also Developmental Assets importance
 Libraries, 271–272
 Likens, N., 143
 Lilith Week for Girls (YMCA program), 289
 Lippman, L., 83
 Los Dichos program (Santa Clara County), 231

M

McCarter, M., 317
 McDonald's Reading Buddies program, 286–287
 McFerrin, B., 44
 MacIntyre, D., 253
 McIntyre, M., 255
 McKnight, J., 106
 McLellan, M., 172
 McNicoll Park Middle School (British Columbia), 253–254
 McPherson (Kansas) Asset-Building Initiative, 134
 “The Macy Way,” 255
 Mahlock, A., 301
 Mahoney, C., 143–144
 Mannes, M., 233
 Marczak, M., 275
 Marijuana use, 82*fig*
 Marquette-Alger Youth Foundation (Michigan), 202
 Marquette-Algers community (Michigan), 145–146
 Mason, H., 199, 316
 Massachusetts Executive Office of Health and Human Services, 318
A Matter of Time: Risk and Opportunity in the Non-school Hours (Carnegie Council on Adolescent Development), 45, 275
 MCOP (Mentoring Children of Prisoners), 287
 Meadowbrook Collaborative (St. Louis Park), 267
 Media: asset blitz using, 172–173; civic decisions and aligning influence of, 327–329; television (“screen time”), 51–52
 MENTOR: National Mentoring Partnership, 284–285
 Mentoring relationships: asset-building outcomes of, 286, 288; Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS), 260, 287–288; with children of prisoners, 287–288; estimated participation in, 284–285; MCOP (Mentoring Children of Prisoners), 287; research on value of, 285–286
 Mercy Medical Center, 108
 Millennium Communications Group, 327
 Miller, R., 271

Minneapolis Families and Children's Service, 229
 Minow, M., 105
 MIPH (Minnesota Institute of Public Health), 149–150
 Mobilizing community change. See Community change
 Mobilizing youth: building assets with peers and younger children, 194–196; as communicators, philanthropists, and service-learning, 202–203, 290–292; community capacity building by, 137, 138; to encourage intergenerational relationships, 216; engaging as leaders/asset champions, 196–203; as essential strategy, 191–192; by nurturing their own developmental assets, 192–203. See also Youth
 Modeling. See Role modeling
 Mogul, J., 186
 Money manager types, 37
 Montebello School District, 254–255
 Moore, K., 83
 Moorhead (Minnesota) Healthy Community Initiative, 132–133
 Moorman, G., 178
 Moral commitments development, 42
 Morgan County asset-building efforts, 43
 Morrissey, E., 283
 Motivation/engagement, 51
 MTParents.com campaign (Search Institute), 221
 MTV study, 217
 Mueller, D., 289, 290
 Mullikin, D., 57
 Museum of Life and Science (North Carolina), 259
 Music activities, 44–45
 Muslim Arab Americans, 250

N

Nalder, S., 322
 Nampa community (Idaho), 108–109
 Nathan, J., 196
 Nathaniel Woodhull School (New York City), 256
 National Academy of Services report (2002), 142
 National Asset-Building Case Study Project (Search Institute), 197–198
 National Association of State Alcohol Abuse Directors, 150
 National Center for Children in Poverty, 4
 National Collaboration for Youth, 256
 National Collaboration for Youth's Core Competencies for Youth Development Workers, 142
 National Commission on Children, 107, 219
 National Education Longitudinal Study (NELS), 44
 National Guard, 297–298
 National Guard (Oregon), 297–298
 National Mentoring Partnership, 142, 256
 National Prevention Network, 150
 National Recreation and Parks Association, 142
 National Research Council, 321
 National Research Council-Institute of Medicine report (2002), 79
 National Youth Leadership Council, 290

Neighborhood asset-building: improving climate, enriching programs and practices for, 267; strengthening relationships for, 266–267; stronger neighborhoods through, 268–269

Neighborhood Centers (Oklahoma), 301

Neighborhood Matters!, 268

Neighborhood Youth Services (Minnesota), 269–270

Neighborhoods: developing stronger, 266–267; engaging asset-building in, 266–267; “social contracts” in, 36; support in, 36

Networking model, 186

New York City Asset Lab project, 246–247, 281

New York City study (2002), 70–71*t*

New York State Office of Child and Family Service, 318

Newspaper media, 172–173, 327–329

Nicoll, N., 119, 120

Niego, S., 232

O

Office of Policy and Strategic Planning (Louisville Metro Government), 178

Office of Youth Development (Massachusetts), 318, 320

Oklahoma Institute for Child Advocacy, 119

OMNI Institute, 197, 248

OMNI Research and Training study (1997–2002), 147

One-parent family: level of assets and, 72–73, 74*t*; youth program/faith community participation and, 77

100 Best Communities for Youth People (America’s Promise), 144

“150 Ways to Show Kids You Care” poster, 234–235

Optimism, 57

Orange County Department of Education, 150

Oregonian (newspaper), 172

Oregon Consortium and Oregon Workforce Alliance (TOC/OWA), 297–298

Oregon Council on Crime and Delinquency (Eugene), 323

Oregon National Guard, 297–298

Osher, D., 183

OST (out-of-school time) programs, 277. See also Youth programs

Ott, V. A., 143

Overall Risk Behavior Index, 90–92*fig*

Ozarks Fight Back initiative, 57–58

P

Palmer, P., 168, 170–171

Parents: asset-building by families and, 221–232; educating, 226, 228; empowered as leaders/change agents, 229–231; encouraging intergenerational relationships, 215–216; engaging more deeply with their children, 219–232; equipping to build assets, 230–231; family support services for, 226; Gallup Youth Survey on youth relationship with, 220; private and public parenting by, 222–223*t*; school involvement by, 38–39. See also Family; Homes

Park Nicollet Foundation (Minnesota), 326

PARK (Positive Atmosphere Reaches Kids), 258

Parker, S., 182

Part-time employment: community support of, 49; as external asset, 47–48

Paso del Norte Health Foundation (Texas), 326

Pattinson, K., 195

Pearson, Y., 282

Peers: building assets through relationship with, 194–196; peer-to-peer support, 104; role modeling by, 77–78

Perkins, M., 198

Personal character values, 54

Personal choice competencies, 55

Personal future asset, 56–57

Personal power asset, 56

Pessimism, 56–57

Peterson, D., 189–190

Pew Partnership for Civic Change report, 165, 166

Philanthropic youth roles, 202–203

Phillips, J., 229

Pipher, M., 289

Pittman, K., 312

The Politics of Meaning (Lerner), 335

Positive Atmosphere Reaches Kids (PARK), 258

Positive future asset, 56–57

Positive-identity assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 209*t*; listed, 55–57; lower levels of depression/attempted suicide, 95

Positive-values assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 209*t*; overview of, 52–55

Potts, A., 157

Poverty, as risk factor, 4

Preschool child care programs, 292–293

Prevention programs: asset-building potential of, 295–296; school-based tobacco, 281, 283, 296

Print media, 172–173, 327–329

Private foundations, 325–327

Private parenting actions, 222–223*t*

Problem youth, putting energy into all youth not just, 102

Profiles of Student Life: Attitudes and Behaviors (Search Institute), 43, 254

Project Cornerstone (San Jose), 230

Project STAR (Students Taught Awareness and Resistance), 296

Public Agenda, 101, 219, 220, 294

Public health programs, 322–323

Public parenting actions, 222–223*t*

Public policy. See Civic decisions

Public vision/will, 315

PYD (positive youth development), 324

Q

Queens Child Guidance Center, 247

R

Race/ethnicity differences: acts of violence reported and, 87*t*; cultural competence regarding, 55; Developmental Assets/level of assets and, 85–87*t*;

- Race/ethnicity differences, continued
 high academic performance reported by, 86*t*; level of assets and, 66, 73*t*; positive identity, depression, and attempted suicide, 95. See also African Americans; Culture; Latinos/Latinas
- Ragsdale, L., 180
- Raising children. See Healthy development
- Receptivity concept, 244
- Recreation/sports programs, 296, 298–299
- Redundancy concept, 111
- Reframing asset-building, 249–250
- Relating asset-building, 249–250
- Relationships: community changes in, 242; increasing social trust through, 161; intergenerational, 34–36, 105–106, 205–239; mentoring, 284–288; peer, 77–78, 104, 194–196; religious community, 264; strengthening school, 252–254; youth program, 259; youth-adult, 35–36, 54, 103–107, 206–219
- Religious community: asset development through, 45–47; engaging asset-building in, 262–266; using inclusive language referring to, 161–162; percentage of U.S. youth participation in, 77
- Religious community asset-building: building interfaith networks for, 263; building partnerships, 265; enriching programs and practices, 264; strengthening relationships in, 264
- Research studies. See Developmental Assets studies
- Resistance skills, 55
- Responsibility, for community change, 159
- Restraint value, 54–55
- Reviving Ophelia* (Pipher), 289
- Richardson, S., 53
- Roberts, C., 218
- Rodine, S., 12, 119, 120, 186, 187, 188
- Roehikepartain, E. C., 37
- Role modeling: age segregation preventing, 54; boundaries-and-expectations assets created through, 42; caring values developed from, 52–54, 68–69; by peers, 77–78. See also Youth-adult relationships
- Roodt, M. van, 296, 298
- Rose Tree Media School District (Philadelphia), 156–157
- Rosenberg, P., 17
- Rothman, A. J., 214
- Rowley, J., 172
- Royal Canadian Mounted Policy (Canada), 273
- Rush, L., 181
- S
- SAFECO Insurance, 268
- Safety asset: community change and theme of, 249; described, 40; gender differences and, 67
- St. Louis Park High School (Minnesota), 148–149
- St. Peter (Minnesota), 157
- St. Petersburg Times's* Newspapers in Education program, 260
- Saito, R., 285
- Sampson, R., 266
- San Francisco Department of Public Health, 320
- San Luis Obispo Youth Task Force (California), 320
- Sanchez, F. M., 88
- Sanders, M. G., 127
- Saraswathi, T. S., 308
- Savell, S., 319–320
- Scales, P. C., 25, 89, 100, 130, 246
- Schlesser, W., 254
- Schmitz, P. H., 112
- School asset building: enriching programs and practices, 256; infusing Developmental Assets into classrooms, 257–258; linking school districts for, 255; strengthening relationships, 252–254
- School-aged child care programs, 292–293
- Schools: asset building challenge of, 47; Benold Middle School (Texas), 252, 254; Booksin Elementary School, 231; caring dimension in, 38; Cheltenham Elementary School, 174; commitment-to-learning assets and, 50–52; Development Assets and student achievement in, 86*t*, 88–90; engaging asset-building in, 251–256, 257–258; Jack S. Macy Intermediate School, 255; McNicol Park Middle School (British Columbia), 253–254; Montebello School District, 254–255; Nathaniel Woodhull School (New York City), 256; parental involvement in, 38–39; Rose Tree Media School District, 156–157; St. Louis Park High School asset-building program, 148–149; Sanders's study on African American eighth graders' performance in, 127; support asset in, 36, 38–39. See also Student achievement
- Schrumpf, F., 294
- Schwarz, A., 287, 288
- Screaming Eagles Academic Team (Ohio), 286–287
- "Screen time" concept, 51–52
- Search Institute: on asset-building actions by parents, 222; Attitudes and Behaviors Survey (2004), 62; Developmental Assets studies (2000 to 2292) on asset-building by, 132–134; Developmental Assets studies (since 1990) by, 60–63, 83, 95, 290, 291; forty development assets listed by, 32*t*–33*t*; HC • HY (Health Communities • Healthy Youth) initiative by, 122; Islamic Center intergenerational training by, 262; MTParents.com campaign by, 221; National Asset-Building Case Study Project, 197–198; network building efforts by, 170; "pathways of community change" project by, 233; poster ("150 Ways to Show Kids You Care"), 234–235; preschool and school-aged child care work by, 292–293; Profiles of Student Life: Attitudes and Behaviors, 43, 254; research and training activities of, 18; on students involved in community service, 290, 291; thriving behaviors indicators used by, 83, 84*t*; thriving terminology used by, 25, 27; tools for strengthening program's intentionality provided by, 281, 282*t*; tools and training available through, 174; Uniting Congregations for Youth Development (UCYD) by, 262,

- 263; on youth left alone after school, 44. See also Developmental Assets framework; Developmental Assets studies
- Search Institute Attitudes and Behaviors Survey (2004), 62
- Search Institute Profiles of Student Life: Attitudes and Behaviors*, 60, 95, 145
- Second-order community effect, 129, 130
- Self-esteem asset, 56
- Seligman, M.E.P., 56–57
- Sense of purpose asset, 56–57
- September 11, 2001, 250
- Service to others, 40
- Service-learning, 203, 290–292
- Sessions, M., 329
- Sexual intercourse restraint, 54–55
- Shared vision: cultivating community, 154–157; leadership diversity and, 177*t*
- Sharlow, D., 325
- Silberstein, E., 216
- Silbert, D., 173
- Silvius, L., 230, 231
- Single parent family. See One-parent family
- Size of community, 70–71
- Small, S., 129
- Smith, M. C., 143
- Social change theme, 250
- Social service agencies, 269–270
- Social trust, 159–160, 161–162
- Social-competencies assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 209*t*; overview of, 55
- Socialization: community socializing systems and role in, 126–127, 129; consistency in, 110; Developmental Assets in social context of, 331–335; role modeling as part of, 42, 52–54, 68–69. See also Developmental Assets framework
- Society: cultivating broad expectations for adult engagement by, 213–214; current dilemma of boundary-breaking behavior in, 41–42; “girl-poisoning,” 289; networks and norms of a healthy, 335; renewal of civic engagement in, 113–114; transformative social changes in, 131–132
- Somerset Hills YMCA, 199
- Soriano, H., 200
- Special Olympics, 249
- Sports/recreation programs, 296, 298–299
- Stambaugh, L., 213
- Stampede Policy Substation/Boys and Girl Club, 109
- Staubach, C., 157
- Stein, L., 196
- Stephenson, P., 311
- Stoney Creek United church of Canada, 265
- Storytelling, 238
- Stratford United Methodist Church Youth Fellowship, 201
- Stratford Youth and Family Advisory Board (Connecticut), 200–201
- Strommen, M. T., 156
- Student achievement: Developmental Assets and, 86*t*, 88–90; St. Louis Park High School program to improve, 148–149; Sanders’s study on African American eighth graders, 127. See also Schools Studies. See Developmental Assets studies
- Suicide attempts, 95
- Sundram, R., 201
- Supple, A., 129
- Support assets: adult and youth perspectives on, 208*t*; creating new extended family for, 227; described, 31, 34; missing for many youth, 74; other adult relationships, 34–36, 104, 105–106; peer-to-peer, 77–78, 104; support in neighborhoods, 36; support in schooling, 36, 38–39; support within the family, 34

T

- Tag, You’re It!*, 173
- Takanishi, R., 7
- Take the Time (Portland, Oregon), 133
- Taking Asset Building Personally* workbook, 230
- Tarrant County Youth Collaboration (TCYC), 180
- Task Force on Youth Development and Community Programs (Carnegie Council on Adolescent Development), 43–44
- Teen centers programs, 299–301
- Teen Network (Virginia), 314
- Teen Power ¡El Poder de Juventud! (Roswell, New Mexico), 184
- Television (“screen time”), 51–52
- Terbush, T., 273
- Texas Association of Partners in Education, 17
- Texas Department of State Health Services, 320
- Third-order community effect, 129–130
- Thrive (Canadian Centre for Positive Youth Development), 170
- Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, 292
- Thriving behaviors: described, 25, 27; Developmental Assets and, 82–85; indicators of, 83, 84*t*, 85*fig.* See also Healthy development
- Tiger Woods Learning Centers, 281
- The Tipping Point* (Gladwell), 133
- Tobacco prevention programs, 281, 283, 296
- Tobacco use predictors, 92*fig*
- TOC/OWA (Oregon Consortium and Oregon Workforce Alliance), 297–298
- Tolman, J., 278
- Traverse Bay Area’s GivEm40 24.7 (Michigan), 132
- Trinity Baptist Church (Oklahoma), 301
- Trojanowski, T., 200, 201
- The Troubled Journey: A Portrait of 6th–12th Grade Youth* (Benson), 29
- 21st Century Community Learning Center, 294
- Two-parent family: level of assets and, 72–73, 74; youth program/faith community participation and, 77

U

- UNICEF's Website, 310
United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989), 7, 305, 309, 310–311
United Nations Human Development Report, 305
United States: children/adolescent's lack of vocal constituency in, 307–308; examining Developmental Assets among youth of, 63–78; fragmented political interests in children/youth in, 312; impact of baby boomer population on resources of, 307; lack of clear policy agendas on youth in the, 308–309, 312; perspectives on asset-building beliefs and actions in, 207, 208*t*–209*t*; “youth problems” national dialogue in, 207. See also Civic decisions
United Way, 180, 181
United Way of Metropolitan Tarrant County (Texas), 180
Uniting Congregations for Youth Development (UCYD) [Search Institute], 262, 263
University of California at Davis study (2001), 146–147
“Urban sanctuaries” study, 44
U.S. Department of Education, 281
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families, 287
Uth Turn (Brooklyn), 247

V

- Values: caring, 52–54, 68–69; community and development of moral, 42; identifying shared, 109–111; personal character, 54; positive-values assets, 52–55, 95; religious community promotion of, 46; restraint, 54–55; taught through programs, 107. See also Behavior
Valuing young people, 39–40
Varenhorst, B. B., 194–195
Vasquez, C., 201
Vermont Agency of Human Services, 318
Vertical accumulation principle: as asset-building community target, 122; described, 26, 79–80
Violent behavior, 87*t*
Vision: cultivating community shared, 154–157; impact of Developmental Assets, 334; leadership diversity and shared, 177*t*; mobilizing public will and, 315; moving toward community, 108–109
Volunteerism: increasing rate by older adults, 105; service-learning, 203, 290–292; studies on involvement of, 217. See also Civic leaders

W

- Wadsworth, D., 211
Walker, G., 304
Walker, J., 275
Wallace, D., 315
Wallace Foundation, 294
Warren, L., 328
Wayne Area Role Modles (Wayne County, North Carolina), 144

- Websites: Search Institute Profiles of Student Life: Attitudes and Behaviors, 95; Thrive (Canadian Centre for Positive Youth Development), 170; on UN Convention on the Rights of the Child summary, 310–311
Wegmans grocery chain (New York), 49
Weissbourd, R., 105
Westfield Area YMCA, 289–290
What Do Children Need to Flourish? Conceptualizing and Measuring Indicators of Positive Development (ed. by Moore and Lippman), 83
What Teens Need to Succeed (Benson, Galbraith, and Espeland), 193
Widmann, P., 256
Williams, R., 300
Wilson, G., 88
Wolf, L., 203
Work/family public policies, 323
World Health Organization, 323
World Summit for Children (1990), 7

Y

- Yancy, E., 227
“Year of Values” (Northfield, Minnesota), 53
YMCA Canada, 142, 205, 256, 281
YMCA of Great Seattle, 119, 261
YMCA of Hamilton-Burlington (Canada), 259–260
YMCA (Melbourne, Australia), 201
YMCA of the USA, 119, 142, 225, 233, 256, 268, 281
Young Adult Library Services Association, 271
Youth: advancing meaningful policy engagement by, 315–316; as asset building actors, 112, 192–203; asset-building leadership positions taken by, 196–203; civic leadership role taken by, 196–198; constructive-use-of-time promoted for, 42–48; conventional medical model to care for, 101; coordinating policy agenda strategies for, 316–320; developing “youth charter” of expected behavior of, 155; essential shifts to build asset foundation for, 99–101, 100*t*; examining Developmental Assets among U.S., 63–78; Gallup Youth Survey on relationship with parents, 220; gap between asset-building belief and action by, 210–212; gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (GLBT), 248, 249; high-risk behaviors of, 4–6*fig*, 25, 27, 80–82*fig*, 90–92*fig*; honoring adults for asset-building actions, 182; identity formation as critical task of, 56; lack of vocal constituency by, 307–308; moving from influencing to making decisions, 329–330; moving toward shared responsibility for, 105–106; negative characteristics of communities for, 11–12; overdependence on programs for care of, 106–107; part-time employment of, 47–48, 49; perspectives on asset-building beliefs and actions by, 207, 208*t*–209*t*; as philanthropists, 202–203; putting energy into all, 102; societal struggle over raising our, 1–3; three principles for working with, 197–198; UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989) on, 7,

- 305, 309, 310–311; valued as resources, 39–40.
See also Adolescence; Children; Healthy development; Mobilizing youth
- “Youth charters,” 42, 155
- Youth Development Advisory Council (Massachusetts), 320
- Youth First initiative (Annandale, Minnesota), 128–129
- Youth Master Plan (San Luis Obispo), 320
- Youth mayors, 329–330
- Youth program asset-building: after-school programs, 293–295; asset-building outcomes of, 285; building partnerships for, 260; camping experiences, 288–290; diverse array of organizations engaged in, 256, 258; enriching and celebrating, 302; enriching programs and practices for, 259–260; improving climate for, 259; mentoring potential for, 284–288; National Guard helping with, 297–298; Neighborhood Centers (Oklahoma), 301; preschool and school-aged child care potential for, 292–293; prevention programs potential for, 295–296; Seattle YMCA experience with, 261; service to others and service-learning potential for, 203, 290–292; sports and recreation, 296, 298–299; strengthening relationships for, 259; teen centers potential for, 299–301; themes for invigorating programs, 276–284
- Youth program themes: connections across programs and settings, 283–284; intentionality, 280–283; quality, 278–279; quantity and diverse opportunities, 276–278
- Youth programs: asset development through, 45; asset-building outcomes of, 285; with asset-building potential, 284–301; engaging asset-building in, 256, 258–260; enriching and celebrating asset-building, 302; as inadequate substitute for creating asset-building communities, 125–126; invigorating and enhancing asset-rich, 137, 139, 275–301; key themes in invigorating, 276–284; overdependence on, 106–107; percentage of U.S. youth participation in, 77; studies on asset-building impact of, 147, 149–150; teaching values through, 107
- Youth Risk Behavior Survey (Vermont), 314
- Youth-adult relationships: age segregation preventing, 54, 103–105; body of literature on, 35; overdependence on programs instead of, 106–107; support in neighborhoods for, 36; support through other than family adults, 34–36, 105–106, 206–219; support within the family, 34; value of sustained, 35–36. See also Adults; Intergenerational relationships; Role modeling

Z

“The Zone” (Oregonian newspaper), 172

Other Books by Peter L. Benson

The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Spiritual Development
(with Eugene Roehlkepartain, Pamela E. King, and Linda M. Wagener)

Developmental Assets and Asset-Building Communities
(with Richard Lerner)

*Trends in Youth Development:
Vision, Realities,
and Challenges*
(with Karen Pittman)

What Teens Need to Succeed
(with Judy Galbraith and Pamela Espeland)

What Kids Need to Succeed
(with Judy Galbraith and Pamela Espeland)

*Beyond Leaf-Raking: Learning to Serve,
Serving to Learn*
(with Eugene Roehlkepartain)

The Quicksilver Years
(with Dorothy Williams and Arthur Johnsen)