
Index

- Acknowledgment, 61
Afghanistan, 36, 45–46n.3
Age, 87
Albania, 70
Allport, G., 12
Anan, K., 84
Arts clubs, 90
Arusha peace process, 82
Authoritarian government, 71, 77
Aztec people, 50
- Balkan youth, 41
Bar Tal, D., 38
Basque country, 101
Belarus, 70
Belfast Agreement (1998), 103
Beliefs, 57
Believability, 65
Bigirindavyi, J.-P., 6, 9–10, 81
Bodine, R., 49
Bogorin, V., 75, 77, 80n.8
Bosnia-Herzegovina, 70, 72, 75
Broome, B., 15–16
Bujumbura, 86, 87, 89, 91
Bulgaria, 70
Burundi: challenges of conflict in, 83–85; conflict management in, 85–93; history of conflict in, 82–83; number of deaths in, 81; overview of, 81–82; violence in, 82–83, 85
- Catalunya, 98
Catholics, 100–101, 102–104
CBI. See Consensus Building Institute (CBI)
Celebration of Peace, 91
Citizenship education, 104
Civic learning, 55–56, 64
Clayton, B. E., 2
Clubs, 90–91
- Cold War, 3
Communication, 61, 75–76
Communism: conflict management program in, 70–80; fall of, 69
Community Peace and Safety Networks program: limitations of youth contact in, 19–21; overview of, 16–19
Community service, 91
Confidentiality, 42
Conflict and Communication: A Guide Through the Labyrinth of Conflict Management (Shapiro, D. L.), 71, 79–80n.4
Conflict ethos, 38
Conflict management: in Burundi, 85–93; in former communist countries, 70–80; importance of relationships to, 4; schools as leaders in, 18; of South African youth, 20, 32n.22
Conflict management skills: need for, 3–4; stand-alone programs for, 50–51; strategies to improve, 4–5
Conflict resolution education (CRE): developmental continuum of, 49; origin of, 48; overview of, 49
Conflicts: benefits of, 97–98; in Burundi, 82–85; disentangling sources of, 56–59; effect on youth, 4; former communist countries' perception of, 77; in Northern Ireland, 105; reported by South African youth, 32n.22; since Cold War, 3. See also specific types of conflict
Consensus Building Institute (CBI), 52
Contact theory, 12–14
Contempt, 28, 29
Cooperation, 13
Cortes, H., 50
Crawford, D., 49

- CRE. See Conflict resolution education (CRE)
 Croatia, 70
 Cross-community contact, 22–23
 Cuban missile crises, 57–59
 Culture: definition of, 95–96; questioning of, 96
 Curricular reform, 102–104
 Czech Republic, 70, 72, 80n.6, 99
- Debate, 23–24, 44
 Debriefing, 55
 Decategorization models, 15
 Decision making, 71, 77, 78
 Declaration of Human Rights of Children, 78
 Declaration of Principles, 36, 45n.2
 Democracy, 73
 Des Forges, A., 82
 Dialogue: overview of, 23–24; and perspective taking, 59; in Seeds of Peace program, 46–45, 46n.11; and single identity work, 25; of South African youth, 19; in Youth Intervention for Peace Project, 87–88
 Discrimination. See Prejudice
 Discussion, 23–24
 Displacement camps, 85
 Diversity: in former communist countries, 69–70; programs to promote respect for, 99–107
 Dovey, V., 17
 Dovidio, J., 15, 16
 Dual identification model, 16
- Eastern Europe, 69–79
 Economics, in former communist countries, 72
 Education for mutual understanding, 103
 Egyptian youth, 35–45
 Elementary school, 49
 Emotional coping, 27–29
 Emotion-focused coping, 27
 Emotions, 57, 71
 Employment. See Youth work initiative
 Estonia, 70
 Ethnic conflict, 82–86
 Ethnic immersion, 28–29
 Europe, 69–79
- Euskadi, 98
 Evaluation, 88–89
 Executive committee, 89
- Face saving, 32n.22
 Facilitated dialogue, 19
 Facilitators: in Northern Ireland programs, 106–107; in Seeds of Peace dialogue, 40–41, 44, 46n.12
 Fairman, D., 5, 8, 47
 Ferdig, M.A.S., 25
 Feuerverger, G., 37
 Fisher, R., 2
 Fiske, S., 14
 Focus group interviews, 19–20, 32n.22
 Free Europe radio station, 76
 Freedom, 78–79
 Freire, P., 88
 Funding, 93, 106
- Gabor, F., 76
 Gearhy, A., 47–48
 Great Britain, 101
- Harris, I., 11
 Harvard Negotiation Project, 1
 Harvard-MIT-Tufts Program on Negotiation, 62
 Harver, C., 18
 High school, 49
 History classes, 36, 48–49. See also Social studies curricula
 Holocaust, 37
 Human rights, 78
 Human Rights Watch, 82
 Human security: definition of, 4; ethnic violence in effort for, 84; and isolated training, 20–21; and role plays, 55; at Seeds of Peace program, 42; strategies to improve, 4–5
 Hungary, 70, 72
 Hutu people, 81, 82–84
- Identities, 57, 95–98
 Imposed identities, 97
 Inquiry-based model, 103
 Integrated schools, 102
 Intercommunity peace dialogues, 87–88

- Interests, 57
- Intergroup conflicts: assumptions about reducing, 12–16; definition of, 3; in former communist countries, 75; strategies to decrease, 4–5
- Intergroup contact: and assumptions about reducing conflicts, 13; and majority versus minority groups, 13–14; and prejudice reduction, 13; and single identity work, 22–23; and social interdependence, 14
- International Committee of the Red Cross, 72
- Interpersonal communication, 75–76
- Intolerance: definition of, 97; education and youth work initiatives in, 98–107; forms of, 97; and imposed identities, 97; and social identity, 97
- Ireland. See Northern Ireland
- Islamic schools, 101
- Israeli youth, 35–45, 60
- Israeli-Arab conflict, 35–45, 60, 62–63
- Izard, C., 29
- Jobs. See Youth work initiative
- Jones, T. S., 5, 7, 11
- Jordanov, D., 76
- Kaffiyahs, 39, 46n.10
- Kazakhstan, 70
- Kennedy, J. F., 57–59
- Khrushchev, N., 57–59
- Krishnamuriti, 6
- Kyrgyzstan, 70
- Language, 32n.22, 41, 101
- Latvia, 70, 72, 80n.6
- Lazarus, R., 27, 28
- Lederach, J. P., 87
- Lewis, M., 28
- Literature classes, 36
- Lithuania, 70, 99
- Littlejohn, S., 23, 26
- Low-income schools, 51
- Macedonia, 70, 72, 76
- Major, B., 27
- Majority group, 13
- Mandela, N., 16
- Map-making process, 95
- Media, 44, 65, 73
- Mediation programs, 16–19
- Mendelsohn, F. M., 17
- Middle school, 49
- Minority group, 13–14, 27
- Moldova, 70, 72, 99
- Montezuma, 50
- Morrison, M. L., 11
- Motivation, 71
- Muslims, 101
- Mutual differentiation model, 16
- National Council for the Social Studies, 49
- Nationalism, 99
- The Nature of Prejudice* (Allport, G.), 12
- Nazi Germany, 37
- Negotiation: in communist countries, 78; Harvard Negotiation Project's view of, 1; in Workable Peace program, 61–64
- Northern Ireland: curricular reform in, 102–104; identity in, 96; institutional change in, 100–101; single identity work in, 22; youth work initiatives in, 104–107
- Ó Maoláin, C., 6, 10, 95
- Open society, 69–79
- Open Society and Its Enemies* (Popper, K.), 79
- Open Society Institute, 79n.1
- Operational corps, 89
- Opportunities, lack of, 4, 5
- Oskamp, S., 15
- Oslo Accords. See Declaration of Principles
- “Own culture validation” projects, 23, 26
- Palestinian Liberation Organization, 45n.2
- Palestinian National Charter, 37
- Palestinian youth, 35–45, 46n.10, 60
- Pappe, I., 37
- Peace, 1, 76
- Peace clubs, 90–91
- Peace dialogues, 87–88

- Pearce, W. B., 26
- Peer mediation training, 20–21
- Perspective taking, 59–61
- Pettigrew, T., 12, 13, 27
- Pioneers, 73, 74
- Poland, 70
- Popper, K., 79n.1
- Portugal, 98
- Power, 84, 85
- Prejudice: assumptions about reducing, 12–13; and emotional coping, 27–29; models to reduce, 15–16; past research on, 15
- Problem-focused coping, 27
- Process curriculum, 50–51
- Promotion of Human Values program, 72
- Protestants, 100–101, 102–104
- Purpose, 84, 85
- Racism. See Intolerance; Prejudice
- Radio, 73
- Recategorization models, 15–16
- Refugees: of Burundi, 85, 92; in former communist countries, 72; number of, 3
- Rehabilitation, 91
- Relationships: importance of, 4; improvement of, 4; opportunities to build, 4, 5
- Religious education, 100–104
- “Respect for diversity” projects, 23
- Retzinger, S., 28
- Role plays, 54–55, 60, 62
- Romania, 70, 74–75, 76, 77, 79, 99
- Russia, 70
- Rwanda, 81, 82, 89
- Saunders, H., 24
- Schools: for Burundi refugees, 92; in fight against intolerance, 98–107; history instruction in, 36–38, 48–50; in South Africa’s peace education program, 18
- Second-order change, 24
- Security. See Human security
- Seeds of Peace program: application process of, 38–39; arrival at, 39–40; countries currently involved in, 36; dialogue in, 46–45, 46n.11; overview of, 5, 7–8, 35–36; participants in, 38–40; returning home from, 45
- Self-esteem, 28
- Seminars, 88
- September 11, 2001, attacks, 47–48
- Serbia and Montenegro, 70
- Shame, 28
- Shapiro, D. L., 1, 2, 6, 9, 69, 71
- Single identity work: and dialogue, 24–26; extensions of, 23–29; overview of, 22–23
- Slovakia, 70, 99
- Slovenia, 70, 72
- Smith, A., 6, 10, 95
- Smith, S. N., 5, 8, 47
- Social identity, 96–97
- Social identity theory, 14–16, 27
- Social interdependence, 14
- Social studies curricula, 49–50. See also History classes
- Social support, 13
- Sociopolitical system, in former communist countries, 72–73
- Soros Foundation, 69, 72, 79n.1
- Soros, G., 79n.1
- South Africa, 11–12, 16–23
- Soweto township, 18
- Spain, 98, 101
- Sports, 105
- Stand-alone programs, 50–51
- Standardized testing, 51
- Status, 13
- Straker, G., 17
- Tajikistan, 24
- Teachers: in former communist countries, 71, 73; in Workable Peace program, 55, 64–65
- Team sports, 105
- Television, 73, 76
- Textbooks, 37
- Thokoza township, 18
- Transcendent Communication Project, 23
- Tropp, L., 12, 13, 27
- Trust, 42, 88
- Tudin, P., 17

- Tudose, R., 74, 76, 77–78, 79, 80n.8
 Tutsi people, 81, 82–84
 Twa people, 82
- Ukraine, 70
 United Nations, 9, 70, 72
 Urban schools, 51
 U.S. Information Agency (USIA), 12
- van Eck, J., 81
 van Woerkom, M., 5, 7, 35
 Violence: in Burundi, 82–83, 85; role of contempt in, 28, 29; South African youths' perception of, 17
- Work. See Youth work initiative
 Workable Peace program: components of, 52–56; creation of, 52; goal of, 52; overview of, 5; skills learned in, 56–64
 World Health Organization, 72
- Youth: displaced, 85; effect of conflict on, 4; in ethnic conflicts, 83–84; responsibilities of, in former communist countries, 70
 Youth Career and Advising Center, 72
 Youth Council for Northern Ireland, 104
 Youth Intervention for Peace Project (YIPP): challenges of, 92–93; community service in, 91; evaluation in, 88–89; focal points of, 86–87, 89–90; future of, 93; goal of, 10; organizational structure of, 89–90; overview of, 86; peace clubs in, 90–91; peace dialogues in, 87–88; rehabilitation in, 91–92; training seminars in, 88
 Youth work initiative, 98–107
 Yugoslavia, 69
- Zionism, 37