

CONTENTS

Tables, Exhibit, and Figures	ix
Foreword	xiii
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xxi
The Authors	xxiii
Introduction	xxvii

PART ONE: THE IBSTPI® EVALUATOR COMPETENCIES: DEVELOPMENT, INTERPRETATION, AND APPLICATION

ONE: THE PRACTICE OF EVALUATION

IN ORGANIZATIONS	3
Practice-Oriented Atheoretical Approaches	5
Process-Driven Operational Approaches	7
Research-Oriented, Practice-Based Comprehensive Approaches	10
Conclusions	12
Questions for Consideration	12

TWO: IN SEARCH OF EVALUATOR

COMPETENCIES	13
Need to Determine Evaluator Competencies	14
Research Questions for the Examination of the Literature	16

vi Evaluator Competencies

Approach to the Literature Study	16
Results of the Literature Study	18
Conclusions	37
Questions for Consideration	37
THREE: IBSTPI EVALUATOR COMPETENCIES AND THEIR DEVELOPMENT	39
A Brief History of Competency Modeling	40
The ibstpi Competency Development Model	40
Assumptions Underlying the ibstpi Evaluator Competencies	45
Conclusions	47
Questions for Consideration	48
FOUR: DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF THE EVALUATOR DOMAINS AND COMPETENCIES	53
Professional Foundations	54
Planning and Designing the Evaluation	66
Implementing the Evaluation Plan	83
Managing the Evaluation	92
Conclusions	95
Questions for Consideration	95
FIVE: USE OF THE EVALUATOR COMPETENCIES	97
Competency Use by Those New to Evaluation	99
Competency Use by Experienced Evaluators	100
Competency Use by Managers	101
Competency Use in Academic Settings	103
Use by Consultants Providing Evaluation Seminars	106
Competency Use by Associations	108

Conclusions	110
Questions for Consideration	110

PART TWO: THE IBSTPI EVALUATOR COMPETENCIES: VALIDATION

SIX: SOME FOUNDATIONAL RESEARCH	113
The Foundational Research	113
The Program Evaluation Standards	114
Guiding Principles by the American Evaluation Association	119
Guidelines for Ethical Conduct by the Canadian Evaluation Society	120
Standards für Evaluation of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Evaluation	124
Guidelines for Ethical Conduct of Evaluations and Code of Ethics of the Australasian Evaluation Society	125
Standards on Ethics and Integrity by the Academy of Human Resource Development	127
The King, Stevahn, Ghere, and Minnema Work on Essential Evaluator Competencies	129
The Engle, Altschuld, and Kim Survey of University-Based Evaluation Programs	131
Conclusions	133
Questions for Consideration	133
SEVEN: THE VALIDATION RESEARCH	135
Purpose and Scope of the Study	135
Procedures	136
Ratings of Criticality	144

viii Evaluator Competencies

Competency Ranking	146
Factors Contributing to Significant Differences	149
Implications for the Final Evaluator Competencies	151
Conclusions	153
Questions for Consideration	153
EIGHT: FUTURE DIRECTIONS	155
Focus of Evaluations	156
Outsourcing Evaluation	157
Professionalism and Accountability	158
Global Competence	160
Conclusions	161
Questions for Consideration	161
Appendixes
A. ibstpi and Its History	163
B. Glossary	167
C. Evaluation Tools and Approaches	173
D. Annotated Bibliography	177
E. Professional Associations for Evaluators	189
References	191
Index	199

TABLES, EXHIBIT, AND FIGURES

TABLES

2.1	Comparison of Various Ethical Codes or Standards	19
2.2	Comparison of the Contents of Books on Evaluation	23
2.3	Comparison of Academic and Certificate Programs in Evaluation	28
7.1	Personal Profile of the Respondents in the ibstpi Evaluator Competency Validation Study ($N = 443$)	139
7.2	Occupational Profile of the Respondents in the ibstpi Study ($N = 443$)	140
7.3	Evaluator Profile of the Respondents in the ibstpi Study ($N = 443$)	142
7.4	Level of Support for the Four Competency Domains by Average Number and Percentage at the Three Highest Levels	144
7.5	Level of Support for the Performance Statements Within the Four Domains by Average Number and Percentage at Two of the Highest Levels	145
7.6	Criticality Ratings of the 2006 ibstpi Evaluator Competencies	147

EXHIBIT

7.1	An Example of the Items in the Validation Survey	138
-----	--------------------------------------------------	-----

FIGURES

3.1	ibstpi Generic Competency Development Model	42
3.2	Structure of the ibstpi Competency Model for the Evaluator	44

