

Index

A

- Aaron and OT Corporation (case), 231
- Abraham Path Initiative, 116
- Academy of Family Mediators, 238
- Accessibility, 128
- Accountability, 43, 229
- Adler, P., 149
- Adversaries, consideration for, 175
- Agreement(s): and agreement process in enduring conflict, 196–206; and boundary creation, 192–193; and bridge building, 190–192; and conflict framing, 195–196; constructive uses of, 183–185; derivative, 199–202; focus, 247–248; implicit, 197–199; and negotiation, 202–206; in ongoing conflict, 181–206; opportunities and pitfalls of, 181–189; pitfalls of focusing on, 185–189; and process formation, 193–195; using, to stay with conflict, 189–196
- Agreement fixes, 47
- Agreement process*, 196–197
- Aikido, 214, 215
- Alan and Jonathan (case), 126–127
- “Alaska Wolf Summit,” 25–26
- Alex and John (case), 82–83
- Alfini, J., 247
- Alliance for Responsible Transportation (ART), 186–187
- Allred, K. G., 74
- Ally roles, 8
- Alternative futures approach, 257
- Alzheimer’s disease, 233
- Analysis, 4
- Andrews, J., 28
- Anxiety, 36
- Apartheid, 41

- Applied power, 156
 Arena, selecting, 142
 Aristotle's Poetics, 98
 ART. See Alliance for Responsible Transportation (ART; Case)
Art of War (Sun Tzu), 148–150
 Assertion, positive, 145–146
 Association of Conflict Resolution, 238, 240
 Association of Family Conciliation Courts, 108
Auctoritas (influence), 154
 Audubon Society, 49
 Australian Dispute Resolution Association, 238
 Authenticity, 43
 Avenues: of contact, 124–130; identifying effective, 127–128; intentional, 125–127
 Avoidance: challenging our collusion in, 66; and conflict avoidant behaviors, 62–66; and energy conservation, 58; and engagement, in enduring conflict, 85–86; escalation and, 64–65; and escaping avoidance trap, 55–86; facing, 68–80; and fear, 56–57; and hopelessness, 57; and how people avoid conflict, 61–66; and inadequate skills, 60; and minimization, 62; and misdirection, 63–64; and naming elephant, 81–84; and path of least resistance, 60–91; and powerlessness, 59; and premature problem solving, 65–66; and resource depletion, 60; respecting and challenging, 67–68; and shame or embarrassment, 59–60; staying in contact in face of, 130–132; and systems or relationship preservation, 58–59; and uncertainty, 57–58; and urge to avoid conflict, 56–61; and why disputants avoid conflict, 56–90
 Avoidance, facing: and escalation, 76–78; and minimization, 70–72; and misdirection, 72–76; overview of, 68–70; and premature problem solving, 79–80
 Axelrod, Robert, 134, 203
- B
- Baris, M. A., 126
 BATNA (best alternative to negotiated agreement), 45, 156
 Behavior: conflict, and conflict narratives, 90–92; conflict avoidant, 62–66; limiting abusive, 223; and values, 42
 Behavioral factors: and attending to conflict cycle, 48–49; and building and maintaining lines of communication, 45–46; and negotiating even

- when refusing to negotiate, 46–47; and using agreements strategically, 47–48; and using power constructively, 44–45
- Belfast Agreement (1998), 182
- Beliefs, 35. See also Values
- Benjamin, R. D., 149
- Berger, P. L., 88
- Beyond Neutrality: Confronting the Crisis in Conflict Resolution* (Mayer), 8, 38, 239
- Bingham, L. B., 261
- Blake, R. B., 73, 74
- Blake, William, 55
- Boomers and Weiners (case), 208–209
- Bosnians, 22
- Boulder, Colorado, 10–11
- Boundary creation, 192–193, 223
- Brett, J. M., 152, 194
- Bridge building, 190–192
- Bui-Wrosinska, L., 31
- Bulgaria, 200
- Bulgarian Foundation on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution, 200–202
- Bully pulpit*, 154
- Bush, R.A.B., 190, 238, 247
- C
- Camp David talks, 188
- Carol and Paul (case), 127
- Carrie and Karenna (case), 168–169
- Casino Royale* (movie), 114
- Catholics, 22, 29, 46, 182
- Cats* (musical), 98
- Causal crutches, 63–64
- CDR Associates, 200
- Charles (case), 135–137
- China, 140, 182
- Christianity, 116. See also Catholics; Protestants
- Clarity, 142, 174
- Clinton administration, 188
- Clinton, Bill, 80, 188
- Coates, C. A., 126
- Cognitive dissonance, 37
- Cold War, 125
- Coleman, P. T., 31, 71, 153
- Communication: adopting flexible approach to, 135–137; avenues of contact in, 124–130; dealing with persistently dysfunctional, 137–140;
ebb and flow of, 132–137;
in enduring conflict, 119;
and finding effective voice, 133–135; and finding right fit, 129–130; and guerrilla communicator, 148–150;
how to reestablish direct,
140; identifying effective avenues of, 127–128; intentional avenues of, 125–127; lines of, 45–46; and recovering from destructive interaction, 147–148; and speaking through conflict,

- 140–147; and staying in contact in face of avoidance, 130–132; and staying in contact intentionally, 121–124; and truth-telling process, 141–143
- Conceptual factors, 41; and allowing for possibility of change in adversaries, 40–41; and finding appropriate level of depth and breadth, 39; focus on essential in, 38–39; and putting conflict in historical, cultural, economic, and political context, 40
- Conflict: behavior, 90–92; cycle, 48–49; encapsulating, 51, 232–234; framing, 195–196; how people avoid, 61–66; power and, 152–164; religious, 29; role of, in people's lives, 19–20; speaking through, 140–147; strategies for speaking truth through, 143–144; transformation, 238, 240–241; urge to avoid, 50–61
- Conflict allies: and choosing effective intervention tools, 254–259; and contracting for staying with conflict, 250–252; and developing format for intervention, 252–254; in enduring conflict, 250–259
- Conflict, enduring. See Enduring conflict
- Conflict engagement, 239, 242–243
- Conflict field: challenge for, 5–8; literature of, 202; new direction for, 1–18
- Conflict narrative(s): challenging our, 4–5; characteristics of, 92–99; and conflict behavior, 90–92; distributive approaches in, 93–94; exclusive and inclusive approaches in, 95–97; fatalistic and hopeful approaches in, 97; framing variables in, 99–104; integrative approaches in, 93–94; internal and external approaches in, 94–95; nature of, 88–90; outcome and process approaches in, 98–99; victim, villain, and hero dynamics in, 92–93; working with, 87–118
- Conflict resolution: rationale for term, 239–240; transformation, engagement and, 238–243
- Conflict resolution professionals: and anticipating conflict, 4–5; at crossroads, 7–8; and effective engagement, 38; new roles for, 8–9; and reinforcing misdirection, 72–73. See also Conflict specialists

- Conflict rhythm: direct and indirect approaches to, 215; entering into, 210–211; and rhythms of engagement, 208–215; working with, 211–215
- Conflict, six faces of: enduring, 24–25; latent, 22; low-impact, 21–22; representational, 23; stubborn, 23–24; transient, 23–24; working with, 25–27
- Conflict specialists: challenge for, 3; and constructive use of implicit agreements, 199; and enduring conflict, 237–266; and limiting communication, 139–140; and negotiation, 202–206; role of, 15–18; and taking charge of conflict rhythm, 213–214; and truth-telling process, 141–143. See also Conflict resolution professionals
- Conflict, staying with: challenges for, 14–15; contracting for, 250–252; description of, 11–14; and enduring conflict, 10–11; marketing approach to, 262–266; as new mission for conflict resolution professionals, 9–15; using agreements for, 189–196
- Congruence, 166
- Consensus building*, 196–197
- Constantino, C. A., 193–194
- Contact: avenues of, 124–130; and finding right fit, 129–130; and identifying effective avenues, 127–128; keeping, in face of avoidance, 130–132; and using intentional avenues, 125–127
- Coser, L. A., 27
- Covey, S. R., 134
- Covey's fifth habit, 134
- Craziness, as causal crutch, 64, 74, 224
- Croats, 22
- Crum, T., 214
- Crusades, Christian, 29
- Cuba, 46
- Cuban missile crisis, 125
- Cultural appropriateness, 128
- Cutcher-Gershenfeld, J. E., 93
- Cycling, 161
- Czechoslovakia, 182
- D
- Darwin, Charles, 27
- Davis, K. E., 74
- Debs, Eugene, 28
- Deconstructing, 106
- Depth, 128
- Derivative agreements, 199–202
- Diallo, Amadou, 30–31
- Diamond, J., 30
- Dispute resolution, 238
- Dispute Resolution Section of ABA, 238

Distributive approaches, 93–94
 Distributive power, 154–155
 Distrust, 31, 35. See also Mistrust
 Dominance, 160
 Durability, 128
 Duvall, B. B., 126
 “Dynamical systems,” 31

E

Eastern Mennonite University,
 238
 Eastern Orthodox, 22
 Efficiency, 128
 Einstein, Alfred, 135
 Eliot, T. S., 98
 Ellis, D., 108
 Embarrassment, 59–60
 Emotional intelligence, 217
 Emotional turmoil, 36
 Emotions: containment of,
 219–221; and disputant responses to emotions of others, 222–226; of disputants, 217–218; expression of, 218–219; managing over time, 215–226; and replenishing disputants’ emotional energy, 221–222
 Enduring conflict: agreement process in, 196–206; avoiding and engaging in, 85–86; characteristics of, 27–32;
 communicating in, 119–150;
 conflict allies in, 250–259;
 conflict specialists and,
 237–266; deep roots of, 28;
 dynamic nature of, 267–272;
 as embedded in structure,
 30; embracing paradox of,
 33–35; as face of conflict,
 24–25; framing narratives and identity in, 112–114;
 identity issues in, 28–29;
 involvement of fundamental issues of power in, 31–32; involvement of values in,
 29–30; and living with uncertainty, 35–38; mediating in shadow of, 243–250;
 as rooted in distrust, 31;
 special challenges in framing, 111–118; sustainable approach to, 207–235; system roles for, 259–262;
 as systematic and complex, 30–31; two key challenges in facing, 32–38
 Energy conservation, 58
 Engagement: conflict and,
 19–53; and conflict encapsulation, 232–234; opening door to, 84–86; rhythms of, 208–215
 Engagement, effective: behavioral factors in, 44–49;
 building blocks of, 38–52;
 cognitive factors in, 38;
 conceptual factors in, 38;
 ethical factors in, 42–44;
 sustainability factors in,
 49–52

- Escalation: and conflict avoidance, 64–65; constructive, 172–178; and facing conflict avoidance, 76–78; and reciprocity of power, 160; using power and, 151–179
- Ethical factors, 42–44; and being accountable, 43–44; and being authentic, 43; and congruence between values and behavior, 42; and reflection and reexamination, 44
- Etzioni, A., 153, 157
- Everitt, A., 154
- Evil, as causal crutch, 63, 74, 224
- Evolution of Cooperation* (Axelrod), 134
- Exclusive approaches, 95–97
- Exit strategy, 176
- External approaches, 94–95
- F
- Facebook, 130
- Fairbanks, Alaska, 26
- Family Conflict Services, 263
- Family Court Review*, 109
- Family Mediation Canada, 238
- Fatalistic approaches, 97
- Fear, 56–57
- First Nations, 25
- Fisher, R., 45, 93, 156, 202
- Flexibility, 128, 167
- Focus, 165
- Folger, J. P., 190, 238, 247
- Follett, Mary Parker, 151
- Forgiveness*, 135
- Formal power, 154
- Framing: conflict, 195–196; effective, 144; and losing meaning through changing frame, 116–118; and special challenges in framing enduring conflict, 111–118; and systematic and cultural sources of narrative frames, 114–116; techniques for long-term, 104–111; in truth-telling process, 142; variables, 99–104
- France, 182
- Francine and Jo Anne (case), 129–130
- Freud, S., 27
- Freytag, G., 98
- Freytag's pyramid, 98
- Friends of the Earth, 49
- G
- Gadlin, J., 110
- Gam zeh ya'avor* (Hebrew), 215
- “Gaming it out,” 167
- Gamson, W. A., 153, 157
- Garrity, C. B., 108
- Garrity, R., 126
- Geneva Conventions, 183
- Germany, 182
- Ghais, S., vii, xvi
- Gilbert and Sullivan team, 121
- Gilbert, W., 119
- Goldberg, S. B., 152, 194

Goldman, Emma, 207, 233–234
 Goleman, D., 77, 217
 Golten, M. M., xvi, 240
 Good Friday Agreement (1998), 182
 Great Britain, 182
 Great White Fleet, 156
 Greenpeace, 49
 Grillo, T., 108
 Groucho syndrome, 197
 Guerrilla communicator, 148–150
 Guerrilla fighters, 163

H

Hale, K., 97
 Harper, G., 92, 274
 Hero dynamics, 92–93
 Hitler, Adolf, 182
 Honeyman, C., xvi, 110, 202, 203, 274
 Hopeful approaches, 97
 Hopelessness, 57
 Human condition, 3

I

Identity, 29, 30, 32; confusion, 36; issues, 28–29; narratives and, 112–114
 “If Mediation Is Our Position, What Is Our Interest?” (panel), 240
 Illegitimate power, 155
Imperium (power), 154
 Implicit agreements, 197–199

Implied power, 156
 Inclusive approaches, 95–97
Inconvenient Truth, An (documentary film), 158
 Incrementalism, 166
 India, 182
 Individual power, 155
 Informal power, 154
 Integrative approaches, 93–94
 Integrative power, 154–155
 Intellectual uncertainty, 37
 Intentional avenues, 125–127
 Intentionality, 165
 Internal approaches, 94–95
 International Academy of Mediators, 238
 Intervention, 4; choosing effective tools for, 254–259; developing format for, 252–254
 Iran, 46
 Islam, 29, 116
 Israel, 80, 188
 Iteration, 142

J

Japan, 182
 Jerusalem, 115, 116
 Jewish tradition, 215
 Joe and Jane (case), 123–124
 Joel and Joan (case), 127
 John (case), 12–13
 Johnson, C. H., 92, 98
 Johnson, E. T., 126
 Johnstone, G., 91
 Jones, E. E., 74
 Judaism, 116

K

- Karen and Dennis (case),
210–211
- Kelley, H. H., 74
- Kendra and Bart (case), 159, 162
- Kilmann, R. H., 91, 93
- King, Rodney, 30–31
- Kirk and Louise (case), 77–78
- Kissinger, Henry, 89–90
- Kosovo, 97
- Kyoto Protocol (1997), 47–48,
182, 185

L

- LaCrosse, E. R., 126
- Lang, M., 255
- Latent conflict, 22. See also Conflict, six faces of
- Lawyers, 73
- Lax, D., 93, 202, 203
- Le Guin, U. K., 92
- Lederach, John Paul, 19, 33,
88, 238
- Legitimate power, 155
- Lenin, Vladimir, 233–234
- Letting go, 225
- Levi-Strauss, C., 88
- Lewicki, R. J., 31
- Libya, 46
- LIFO (online tool),
133–134
- Limits, built-in, 174
- Lincoln, Abraham, 215
- Looming haystack (case),
245–246
- Los Angeles, California, 30–31

- Low-impact conflict, 21–22.
See also Conflict, six faces of
- Luckmann, T., 88

M

- Macfarlane, J., xvii, 176
- Mandela, Nelson, 41
- Mao Zedong, 149
- Marx, Groucho, 197
- Marx, Karl, 27
- Mayer, B., 8, 30, 38, 48, 61, 90, 103, 152, 153, 156, 240, 243
- McKay, J., vii, xvi
- McKersie, R. B., 93
- Mediators: agreement focus of, 247–248; neutrality and impartiality and, 244–247; role specificity and, 243–244;
and short-term contract,
248–250
- Merchant, C. S., 193–194
- Meta-negotiation, 25
- Metaphors, working with,
110–111
- Meyers-Briggs Type Indicator,
133–134
- Michelle (case), 251
- Middle East, 95, 97–99, 103, 115, 116
- Minimization: and conflict avoidance, 62; and facing avoidance, 62–72
- Mirroring, 161
- Misdirection: and avoiding conflict, 63–64; and facing avoidance, 72–76

Mistrust, 32. See also Distrust
 Mnookin, R. H., 203
 Monk, G., 87, 88, 91, 95
 Moore, C., xvi, 25, 30
 Moore, Christopher, 25
 Moral ambiguity, 36
 Moral imagination, 33
 Morris, E., 156
 Moscow, 125
 Mouton, Jane, 73
 Munich agreement (1938),
 182, 188
 Muslims, 22
 Mutuality, 128, 161–162
 MySpace, 130

N

Naming, 105
 Narratives, 87; and identity,
 112–114; systemic and cultural sources of, 114–116
 National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Issues, 108 National Environmental Policy Act, 212
 National Party (South Africa),
 41
 National Resources Defense
 Council, 49
 Native American group (case),
 106, 113
Negotiation, 196–197
 Nelson, G., 239
 Network for Conflict
 Resolution (Canada), 238
 New York City, 30–31

NGOs (nongovernmental organizations), 204
Niceness, 135
 Niebuhr, Reinhold, 52
 Nixon, Richard, 62
 Nonresolution, creative, 52–53
 Nonviolence, 166
 North Korea, 46
 Northern Ireland, 11, 29, 46,
 97, 182, 227
 Nowak, A., 31

O

Olson, K. B., 109
 Ombudsman Association, 238
 Ongoing power, 155–156
 OT Corporation, 231
 Outcome approaches, 98–99

P

Pacing, 144
 Palestinian-Israeli settlement,
 80, 188
Paradigm shifts, 115
 Parks, Rosa, 23
 Passivity, inclinations toward,
 19–20
 Pat and Margaret (case), 127
 Paul and Bill (case), 67–68
 Perry and Melissa (case),
 176–177
 Personal power, 154
 Ping-Pong diplomacy, 140
 Power, 31–32; and conflict,
 152–164; and constructive escalation, 172–178;

- constructive use of, 44–45; definition of, 152–153; and discussing power dynamics, 167–169; effective uses of, by disputants, 165–167; and escalation, 151–179; gender norms about, 164; helping disputants in wise use of,
 164–169; lens, 178–179;
 nature of, 153–156;
 reciprocity of, 159–164;
 responding to others' use of, 169–172; sustainable,
 162–163; using, 157–159
- Powerlessness, 59
- Predictability, 128, 167
- Prevention, 4, 48
- Prisoner's Dilemma exercise,
 134, 203
- Problem solving*, 196–197
- Process, 48
- Process approaches, 98–99
- Process formation, 193–195
- Project Redress, 261
- Promise of Mediation, The* (Bush and Folger),
 190, 247
- Proportionality, 166, 174
- Protestants, 29, 46, 182
- Provocability*, 135
- Public advocacy groups, 209
- R
- Rabin, Yitzhak, 188
- Racism, 114
- Raiffa, H., 202
- Reactive devaluation, 197
- Realism, 165, 225
- Rebecca and Larissa (case), 233
- Reciprocity, 142, 166
- Reconstructing, 106–107
- Reexamination, 44
- Reflection, 44
- Reflective method, 255–256
- Relationship preservation,
 58–59
- Religious conflict, 29
- Representational conflict, 23.
See also Conflict, six faces of
- Resistance, path of least, 60–61
- Resource depletion, 60
- Resources: developing, 49–50;
 and elements of support, 226–229; and recognizing, accessing and developing support, 229–232; and support systems, 226–232
- Reward power, 155
- Rhythms, 224–225. See
also Conflict rhythm;
 Engagement: rhythms of
- Ricci, I., 193
- Rogers, Will, 181
- Role(s): of conflict in people's life, 19–20; of conflict specialist, 15–18; and role playing with long-term perspective, 256–257; specificity of, 243–244; system, for enduring conflict, 259–262;

- third party, 8; three types of, 8
- Roma minority, 200
- Romeo and Juliet* (Shakespeare), 98
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 154, 156
- Roots, deep, 28, 32
- Ross, L., 31, 198
- Rothman, J., 237, 239
- S
- Safety, 51–52, 128, 175, 227
- Sanction power, 155
- Sander, F., 247
- Saturday Evening Post*, 181
- Scenario mapping, 257–259
- Schneider, A. K., 110, 202, 203
- Schön, D., 255
- Search for Common Ground, 263–264
- Sebenius, J., 93, 202, 203
- Serbs, 22
- “Serenity Prayer,” 52
- Seul, J., 210
- Shame, 59–60
- Shell, R. G., 93
- Shias, 29
- “Silent majority,” 62
- Simplicity*, 135
- Skills, inadequate, 60
- Smith, M., 240
- Social power, 155
- Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution, 238
- Solomon, King, 215
- Solving Costly Organizational Conflicts* (Blake and Mouton), 73
- South Africa, 41, 227
- Soviet Union, 125
- Stalemate, 160–161
- Strength Deployment Inventory (online tool), 133–134
- Structural power, 154
- Structure, 32; in enduring conflicts, 30
- Stubborn conflict, 23–24.
See also Conflict, six faces of
- Stuckless, N., 108
- Stupidity, as causal crutch, 64, 74, 224
- Submission, 160
- Substituting, 107–109
- Sudetenland, 182
- Sufi tradition, 215
- Sullivan, A., 119, 120
- Sun Tzu, 149
- Sunnis, 29
- Super narrative, 116
- Support systems: and elements of support, 226–232; recognizing, accessing, and developing, 229–232; resources and, 226–232
- Sustainability, 166
- Sustainability factors, 49–52; and attending to safety, 51–52; and developing resources, 49–50; and encapsulating conflict, 51; and

- maintaining energy, 50; and managing emotions, 50–51
- Sustainable approach: and conflict engagement and conflict encapsulation, 232–233; and enduring conflict, 207–235; and managing emotions over time, 215–226; and preparation for long haul, 234–235; and resources and support systems, 226–232; and rhythms of engagement, 208–215
- System design process, 260–261
- System roles, 8
- Systems preservation, 58–59
- Tito regime (Yugoslavia), 22
- Totalizing description, 95
- Transformative mediation, 238
- Transient conflict, 22–23. See also Conflict, six faces of
- Transparency, 167
- Truthfulness, 141, 222
- Truth-telling process, 141–143; and considering recipient, 146–147; and effective framing, 144; positive assertion in, 145–146; and strategies for speaking truth through conflict, 143–144; timing and pacing in, 144–145
- Tulumello, A. S., 203

T

- Tactical sophistication, 175–176
- Tannen, D., 123
- Taylor, A., 255
- Terrorist groups, 163, 188
- Tesler, P., 176
- Therapists, 72–73
- Third siders, 120
- Third-party roles, 8
- Thirty Years War, 29
- Thomas, K. W., 91, 93, 277
- Thomas-Kilmann instrument (conflict styles inventory), 91
- Thompson, P., 176
- Time-limited power, 155–156
- Timeliness, 128
- Timing, 144, 224–225
- Tito, Josip Broz, 22

U

- Uncertainty: and avoiding conflict, 57–58; intellectual, 37; living with, 35–38
- United Nations, 194–195
- United States, 46, 125, 140, 182; labor history, 28
- Ury, W., 39, 45, 93, 152, 156, 193, 202, 274
- U.S. Navy, 156
- U.S. Postal Services, 261

V

- Vallacher, R. R., 31
- Values, 29–30, 32, 35; congruence between behavior and, 42
- Values-base approach, 174–175
- Van Ness, D., 91

Variables, framing, 99–104; and breadth, 101–102; and deconstructing, 106; and depth, 99–101; and dimension, 103–104; and length, 102–103; and naming, 105;
 and narratives and identity in framing enduring conflict, 112–114; and reconstructing, 106–107; and seizing new frames, 109–110; and special challenges in framing enduring conflict, 111–118;
 and substituting, 107–109;
 and techniques for long-term, 104–111; and working with metaphors, 110–111

Ver Steegh, N., 109

Victim dynamics, 92–93

Victim space, 93

Victor, D. G., 182

Vietnam, war in, 62

Villain dynamics, 92–93

Vision, alternative, 33

Voice, effective, 133–135

Vonnegut, K., 36

W

Walton, R. E., 93

West Side Story (musical), 98

Western powers, 46

Wiethoff, C., 31

Wildau, Susan, 200–202

Wilde, O., 141

Winslade, J., 87, 88, 91, 95

Woodrow, P., xvi, 240

World Series of Poker
 (television), 114

Washington, DC, 125

Y

Yugoslavia, disintegration of, 22

Z

Zarefsky, D., 22

Zhou Enlai, 181

