

Index

Page references in italic refer to illustrations, those in bold refer to tables

- actin 299, 308
  - elastic behaviour 309
  - in muscle structure 309
  - polymerization 308–9
- adsorption 19
  - of surfactants 177–80
- aggregates
  - ‘bulk’ energy 303
  - in colloids 112
  - critical aggregation concentration (CAC) 303
  - in DNA 289
  - mole fractions 301–303, 304
  - molecular ordering 6, 9
  - self-assembly 7
    - one-dimensional self-assembly model 304–6
  - size distribution 303
  - in surfactants 201–4, 201
- amino acids 291–292, 296, 297
- amorphous polymers 76–85
  - conformation 76
  - dynamics 79–82
  - entanglement molar mass 78
  - glass transition 82–5
  - molar mass 79–80
  - motion 79–82
    - reptation model 80, 81–2
    - Rouse model 80–1, 82
  - relaxation processes 84–5
  - shift factor 78–9
  - viscoelasticity 77–9, 77
    - relaxation times 77–8
  - viscosity 79–80
- amphiphiles 7, 8–9, 112, 113, 161–218
  - see also* surfactants
- amyloids 300
  - diseases 300
- aramids 99
- aromatic polyamides 99
- association colloids see surfactants
- atomic force microscopy (AFM) 32
- Avrami equation 91–2
- bacterial motion 308
- bacteriorhodopsin 278
- beer 152–3
- bentonite 139
- bilayers see membranes
- biological soft matter 1, 39–40, 275–310
  - complexity 277
  - DNA 286–93
  - glycoproteins 304–7
  - lipid membranes 276–84
  - macromolecular assemblies 307–310
  - polysaccharides 304–7, 305
  - proteins 291–304
- biomineralization 215, 217
- biopolymers see biological soft matter
- block copolymers 100–2
  - in emulsions 142

- block copolymers (Cont.)
  - fibrillization 301
  - and gene therapy 287
  - phase separation 100–2, 101, 103
  - stability 101–2
- Brillouin scattering 243
- Brownian dynamics method 35–6
- Brownian motion 10–11, 10, 134
- calorimetry 32, 89, 245–246, 257–258
  - liquid crystal identification 245–6
- cell dynamics simulations 36
- cell membranes see lipid membranes, cell membranes
- cells, 260–267, 276–78
  - motility systems 307–308
- cellulose 305, 306
- chain (chain-growth) polymerization 41–3
  - free radical polymerization 41–3
  - ionic polymerization 41, 43–4
    - anionic 43, 44
    - cationic 43–4
- characteristic relaxation time 77–8
- chitin 306
- cholesterol 198, 223, 277, 278, 279
- clays 137–9
  - applications 137
  - cleaving 138–9
  - structure 137–8
- collagen 155, 295
- colloids 111–59
  - aggregation 112
  - anisotropy determination 119–20
  - characterization 118–25
  - charge stabilization 125–9
    - coagulation 127, 128–9
    - critical coagulation concentration (c.c.c.) 128–9
    - DLVO theory 126–8
    - electric double-layer 125, 126
    - and valence 126, 129
  - clays 137–9
  - coagulation 112, 127, 128–9
  - colloidal dispersions 112–13, 113
  - defined 111
  - electrokinetic effects 121–5
    - electro-osmosis 122, 124, 125
    - electrophoresis 121–2, 124
    - Hückel equation 122, 123
    - mobility measurements 122–3
    - sedimentation potential 122
  - Smoluchowski equation 122, 123
  - streaming potential 124, 125
  - zeta potential 122, 123, 124–5
- emulsions 142–8
- flocculation 112, 127
  - bridging flocculation 133–4, 136–7
  - depletion flocculation 134
  - and steric stabilization 129, 132
- foams 140–2, 152–3
- foods 149–55
  - cake mixture 153
  - dairy products 149–50, 153
  - emulsifiers 151–2
  - foams 152–3
  - gelatin 155
  - ice-cream 153–5
  - jelly 67
  - proteins 150–1
  - stabilizers 152
  - surfactants 151
- gels 136–7
- inter-particle forces 114–18
  - electric double-layer 115–17
  - van der Waals 112, 114–15
- kinetic properties 134–5
- latex dispersions 155–7
- multiple colloids 113
- network colloids 113
- particle shape 118, 119
- particle size determination 118–21
  - Coulter counter 118, 121
  - dynamic light scattering 121
  - optical microscopy 118
  - particle counting methods 118
  - scanning electron microscopy 118
  - scattering techniques 118, 121
  - sedimentation methods 118, 120
  - transmission electron microscopy 118
  - ultramicroscopy 118–19
- rheology 118
- simple 112–13, 113
- sols 113, 135–6
- stability 112, 133–4
- steric stabilization 129–33, 130
  - adsorption 130–1
  - advantages 129–30
  - attractive interaction 130
  - critical flocculation point (CFPT) 132
  - and free energy 131, 132

INDEX

319

- grafting density 131, 131
- long-chain molecule attachment
  - 129, 130
  - and solvent quality 131–2
  - surface chemistry 111–12
- columnar phases 9, 231–233, 233, 238, 254–255, 258–259
- computer simulation 33–6
  - see also* individual methods e.g.
    - Monte Carlo method
- condensation polymerization 41
- continuum theory 253–4
- contrast matching 23–4, 23
- Coulter counter 118, 121
- critical aggregation concentration (CAC) 303
- critical coagulation concentration (c.c.c.) 128–9
- critical micelle concentration see
  - micelles and micellization, critical micelle concentration (CMC)
- crystalline polymers 85–93, 99
  - crystal growth 89–90
    - nucleation 89
    - temperature dependence 90
  - crystallization kinetics 91–2
  - degree of crystallinity 89
  - experimental techniques 88–9
  - growth theories
    - kinetic nucleation theory 92–3, 93
    - Lauritzen—Hoffman theory 92–3, 93
  - hierarchical structure 86–8, 87
    - chain folding 86, 87
    - chain orientation 88
    - lamellae 86–7
    - spherulites 88
    - superstructures 87–8
  - melting process 90–1, 91
    - equilibrium melting point 90–1
    - melting temperature 90
    - Thompson—Gibbs equation 90, 92
  - morphology 85–6
  - preparation 85
- cubic phases 9, 137, 162, 201, 207–208, 230
- dacron 98
- dairy products 149–50, 153
- dendrimers 102, 104
- deoxyribonucleic acid see DNA
- Derjaguin-Landau-Verwey-Oberbeek theory see DLVO theory
- detergents 194–8
  - characteristics 195
  - dirt redeposition prevention 195–7
  - dirt removal action 195–6, 196, 197
  - ingredients 195
  - microemulsion action 198
  - soap 195
- dielectric spectroscopy 31, 85
  - frequency determination 31
- differential interference contrast (DIC)
  - microscopy 20
- differential scanning calorimetry (DSC) 32, 89, 245–246
- diffusion coefficient 10, 11
- dipoles 5–6, 7
  - in liquid crystals 236
- dissipative particle dynamics (DPD)
  - method 36
- DLVO theory 126–8
  - and potential energy 126–7, 127
  - and protein crystallization 297–298
  - repulsive potential 127–8
  - and stability determination 128
- DNA 66, 103
  - condensation 286–89
    - defined 286
    - DNA aggregates 289
    - gene therapy 287–288
      - block copolymers 288
      - non-viral 287
    - phase separation 289
  - counterion condensation 289–291
    - charge fraction calculation 290, 291
    - Manning model 289–291
    - Poisson—Boltzmann model 291
  - Manning condensation see DNA, counterion condensation
  - structure 284–286
    - constituent bases 284
    - double helix 285, 285
    - liquid crystal formation 286
- double-layer see electric-double layer
- dynamic light scattering (DLS) 21, 59, 121
- elastomers 93–4
- electric double-layer 115–17, 125, 126
  - Debye screening length 117, 126
  - diffuse model 116, 116
  - Stern model 116, 116
  - surface potential calculation 116–17
- electron microscopy 20, 89

- electronic polymers 105–6
 emulsifiers 151–2
 emulsions 142–8
   defined 142
   destabilization 145
   microemulsions 142, 146–8, 147, 198, 205
   occurrence 142
   stability 143–4, 144
     and free energy 145–6
     influential factors 144 and interfacial tension 145, 146
     and surfactants 143–4
     thermodynamics 145–6
   types 142–3
 endocytosis 279, 288
 enthalpy changes 32, 68, 70–1 and degree of crystallinity 89 and phase transitions 32, 247–8 entropy changes 16, 68, 69–70
 excluded volume 4, 5, 63
 exocytosis 281
 experimental techniques 19–33
   see also individual techniques e.g.
   infrared spectroscopy
- fatty acids 151, 163, 164, 167, 173, 175–177, 200
 ferroelectric liquid crystal displays 230, 264–267
 fibres 98–9
   drawing 99 natural 98
   silk 294–7
   spider silk 62, 295
   spinning 98–9
 fibrillization 298–304, 302
   amyloids 300
   block copolymers 300
   chiral self-assembly 299, 299 mechanisms 300
   misfolding 300
   nanostructure formation 300
   one-dimensional model 301–4
   self-assembly 299
 Fick's laws 11
 Flory—Huggins theory 13, 68–72
   assumptions 71
   enthalpy change 68, 70–1
   entropy changes 68, 69–70
   Gibbs free energy 68, 71, 72–5
   interaction parameter 71 lattice model 69, 70
   polymer blends 68–9, 72, 100
   polymer phase behaviour 72
   polymer-solvent mixtures 68–72, 100 flow 25–6
 foams 140–2, 152–3
   beer 152–3
   defined 140
   Gibbs—Marangoni effect 141–2
   stability 140–1, 153
   structure 140–1, 140
   surface tension 141–2
   thinning 140, 141–2
 foods see colloids, foods
 fractionation methods 19
 Frank elastic constants 243, 254, 260
 free energy
   of emulsions 145–6
   Gibbs see Gibbs free energy
   Landau theory 13–14, 15, 16
 Fréedericksz (Frederiks) transitions 259, 259, 260 frustrated phases 231
- Gaussian chains 46
 gelatin 134, 155, 295
 gelation 67–8, 297
   gel point 68
 gels 136–7
   defined 136
   formation 136–7
   properties 137
   syneresis 137
 gene therapy 287–88
 Gibbs adsorption equation 183–7
 Gibbs free energy and Flory—Huggins theory 68, 71, 72–5 and micellization 189–92
 glass transition 78, 82–5, 83
   enthalpy change 83
   and free volume 83–4
   glass transition temperature 78, 82–3, 83
   influencing factors 85
   measurement
     calorimetric methods 83–4 rheology methods 84 and molecular mobility 85
 globular proteins 295
 glycoproteins 304–7
- haemoglobin 294
 Hamaker constant 114, 115, 139

INDEX

321

- hard sphere model 4–5
- hexagonal structures 9, 88, 206, 207, 215, 216
- hydrogen bonding 6–7, 138, 155, 162, 277–278, 286, 292, 295, 300
- hydrophile—lipophile balance (HLB) scale 143
- hydrophobic effect 7
- hyperbranched polymers 102

- ice-cream 153–5, 154
  - constituents 153–4
  - production 154
  - stabilizers 154–5
- infection 282
  - see also* viruses
- infrared spectroscopy 30, 56
  - and molecular microstructure 56
  - and polymer branching 56
- interfacial tension
  - emulsions 145, 146
  - surfactants 171–3
- intermolecular interactions 3–7
  - attractive interactions 3, 5–6
  - Coulombic potential energy 5, 6
  - dipole moments 5–6
  - excluded volume 4, 5
  - hard sphere model 4–5
  - hydrogen bonding 6–7
  - Lennard—Jones potential 5, 6
  - and potential energy 3, 4, 4
  - repulsive interactions 3, 4
  - van der Waals forces 5, 6
- isotropic—lamellar (smectic) phase transitions 17–18
- isotropic—nematic phase transitions 17

- jelly 67

- kaolinite 138, 138
- keratin 292, 295
- Kevlar 99
- Krafft point/temperature 187–8, 188, 209

- lamellae see membranes
- lamellar phases 8–9, 102, 162, 207, 208, 211–214, 282
- Landau—de Gennes model 256
- Landau theory 13–14, 15, 16
  - free energy 16
  - curves 14, 15
- density 14
  - minima 14, 15
- Langmuir adsorption equation 179–80
- Langmuir-Blodgett technique 176–7
- latex dispersions 155–7
  - model hard sphere systems 155–6
  - phase behaviour 156–7
  - structure 157
- Lattice Boltzmann method 36
- lecithin 151
- light scattering 20–1, 57–9
- lipid membranes 212–15, 276–84
  - cell membranes 212–15, 214, 276–78, 277
  - constituents 276–7
  - function 212, 215, 276, 278
  - proteins 212, 214–15, 277–8
  - structure 212, 276
- lipid rafts 278–9
  - constituents 278
  - protein interaction 278–9
- membrane fusion 279–282
  - and actin 282
  - cell-cell 282
  - intracellular 282
  - and SNARE proteins 280, 281
  - stalk hypothesis 281
  - vesicular transport 280, 280
  - viral 282
- membrane instabilities 282–4
  - myelin formation 282–4, 283, 284
- lipids 153, 161, 167–8, 167, 200, 212–215
  - see also* lipid membranes
- liposomes 212–15
- liquid crystal displays (LCDs) 259–269
- liquid crystals 221–69
  - applications 259–269
  - classification 222
  - defined 221
  - mesogens 221
  - mesophase 221
  - phases 204–211, 238–246, 255–259
  - polymers 99
  - see also* lyotropic liquid crystals; thermotropic liquid crystals
- lyotropic liquid crystals 2, 9, 205–11, 222
  - aggregate structures 205–7, 206
  - amphiphiles 162, 204
  - defined 205, 222
  - of DNA 285
  - interfacial curvature 206

- lyotropic liquid crystals (Cont.)
 inverse structure 208, 209
 micellar structure 205–7 normal structures 205, 207
 phase diagrams 205–11
 phase identification 211
 phase rule 204–5
 phase sequence 206–8, 208
 and concentration 208–9
 templating 162–3
- McMillan theory 251–2, 252, 256, 258–9
- macromolecular assemblies 307–310
- Maier—Saupe theory 13, 249–253, 259
- Manning model 289–291
- margarine 143, 151, 152
- mayonnaise 143, 151, 152
- mean field theory 12, 13, 13, 16–17
 Maier—Saupe model 13
- membranes
 detergent-insoluble/detergent-resistant 278–9
 elastic properties 212
 fusion see lipid membranes, membrane fusion layer phase formation 211–12
 lipids 213, 276–84
see also lipid membranes, cell membranes
- mesoscopic methods 36
- mica 139
- micelles and micellization 9, 180–94 association number 191, 192–4 and chain length 193–4
 and cosolute 194
 and salt 194
 and temperature 192
- casein 149–50, 149
- critical micelle concentration (CMC) 162, 180–3, 181, 186, 187, 303–4 and chemical potential 187
 and cosolute 194
 and hydrophobe chain length 193–4
 and salt 194
 and surfactant type 192–3
 and temperature 192
- critical micelle temperature (CMT) 182
- defined 162
- and entropy 191
 Gibbs free energy change 189–91
 Krafft point 187–8, 188 and alkyl chain length 188
 micelle morphology 180, 181 models 189–92
 closed association model 189–91
 mass action model 189–91
 open association model 189 phase separation model 191–2
 mole fractions 189, 190
 one-dimensional self-assembly model 302–4
 and solubilization 198–200 fat digestion 198–200, 199 and surface tension 182–3
- microemulsions 142, 146–8
 applications 148
 bicontinuous 146, 147–8, 147
 cosurfactant 146
 in detergent action 198
 dispersed (droplet) 146, 147, 147 phase inversion temperature (PIT) 148
 stability 147
 Winsor classification 148
- microscopy 19–20
see also types of microscopy e.g.
 electron microscopy
- microtubules 307–308, 308
 motility systems 307–308
- Mie scattering 20–1
- Miesowicz coefficients 238
- milk 143, 149–50
 casein micelles 149–50
 constituents 149, 150
- molecular aggregates see aggregates
- molecular dynamics method 35
- molecular mean field theory see mean field theory
- monolayers 173–7
 experimental techniques 173–4, 174
 Langmuir—Blodgett (LB) films 176–7, 178 multilayer stacks 176–7, 178 phase investigations 174–6 condensed phases 175–6, 176, 177 surface pressure—area isotherm 175, 175
- Monte Carlo method 33–5, 259
 Metropolis sampling 33–4
 periodic boundary conditions 34–5, 34

- montmorillonite 139 muscles 291, 307–309
 myelin 282–4, 283, 284
- nanostuctures 300, 307
 nanotechnology 307
 nematic phase 8, 17, 99, 223–5, 225
 neutron reflectivity 33
 neutron scattering 21, 59, 244–5
 nuclear magnetic resonance (NMR)
 29–30, 57
 deuterium labelling methods 29 and liquid crystals 245 spin relaxation measurements 29–30
 nucleation
 crystalline polymer growth 89, 92–3, 93
 phase separation 75, 75
 sol particle formation 135–6
 nucleic acids see DNA
 nylons 98, 99
- Onsager theory 4, 252–3
 optical microscopy 89, 118
 opto-electronic polymers 105–6 order parameters 12, 17–18, 243–4, 246–253
 defined 17
 vectors and tensors 18 ordering examples 8
 mesoscopic 7–8 and molecular aggregates 6, 9
 periodicity 7
 Ostwald ripening 74, 141, 143, 144
- particle counting methods 118
 peptides 291, 293
 block copolymer formation 300, 301
 fibrillization 298–301
 linkages 292
 nanostructure formation 300
 one-dimensional self-assembly model 301–304
 structure 293
 peptization 139
 perspex 82, 155
 perturbed/unperturbed dimensions 48, 62–3
 phase diagrams 205–11
 nonionic surfactants 209–11
 phase rule 204–5
 phase separation 19
 in polymer blends 68–9, 72, 100
 phase transitions 11–18
 and enthalpy change 32, 245–6
 entropy changes 16
 equilibrium states 15
 first order 11–12, 12
 fluctuations 17
 Landau theory 13–14, 15, 16
 in liquid crystals 238–246, 255–259
 mean field theory 12, 13, 13
 second order 12, 12, 14–16
 phospholipids 167
 photon correlation spectroscopy (PCS)
 21, 59, 121
 Pickering stabilization 152
 plasticizers 85
 plastics 1, 93–4
 thermoplastics 93
 poly(12-hydroxystearic acid) 155–6 polyacrylamide 134
 polyacrylics 50, 98
 polyamides 98
 polydimethylsiloxane 26, 60
 polydispersity 18–19
 applications 19
 polydispersity index 51, 55
 polyelectrolytes 50–1, 103–5
 applications 104–5
 charge strength 103–4
 conformation 104
 polyesters 98
 poly(ethylene) 50, 88, 93
 poly(ethylene glycol) (PEG) 134, 287–8 poly(ethylene imine) (PEI) 287 poly(ethylene oxide) 76
 poly(ethylene terephthalate) (PET) 93, 98 polyisoprenes 56, 56 polymer light-emitting diodes (PLEDs) 105–6, 106
 polymer solutions 62–76
 coil-globule transition 65–7 and chain rigidity 67
 coil size measurement 64–5 small-angle scattering 64–5 viscosity measurements 65
 and concentration 63–4
 overlap concentration 64, 64 critical solution temperatures 72–6
 excluded volume 63
 Flory-Huggins theory 68–72
 gelation 67–8
 mixing behaviour 68–72

- polymer solutions (Cont.)
  - phase behaviour 72–6, 73
- polymer solutions (Cont.)
  - lower critical solution temperature (LCST) 75, 76, 76
  - nucleation and growth 75, 75
  - spinodal 74, 75
  - upper critical solution temperature (UCST) 75–6, 76
  - solvent quality 62–3
  - thermodynamics 68–72
  - theta solvents 62–3
- polymers 39–110
  - amorphous see amorphous polymers
  - behaviour 40
  - blends 100–2
  - block copolymers 100–2
  - chain conformation 44–51
    - and bond rotation 44, 45
  - chain architecture 49–51
    - chain branching 50
    - charged species 50–1
  - isomerism 44–5
  - molecular size 45–8
  - rotational isomeric state (RIS)
    - model 44
  - stereochemistry 48–9, 49
  - tacticity 48–9
- characterization 51–62
  - infrared spectroscopy 56
  - light scattering 57–9
  - neutron scattering 59
  - nuclear magnetic resonance 57
  - rheology 60–2
  - stress—strain experiments 60–2, 62
  - x-ray scattering 59
- conjugated 105–6, 105
- crystalline see crystalline polymers
- dendrimers 102, 104
- electronic/opto-electronic 105–6
- fibres 98–9
- historical aspects 1, 39
- hyperbranched 102
- liquid crystals 99
- microstructure 55
  - experimental investigation 55–7
- molar mass 51–2, 79–80
  - average defined 51
  - distribution 55, 55
  - measurement 51–5
    - gel permeation chromatography 54–5
    - membrane osmometry 51–3, 52, 53
    - size exclusion chromatography (SEC) 54–5
    - vapour pressure osmometry 53–4
    - viscometry 54
- molecular size 45–8
  - average measures 45–6
  - and bond angle rotation 47–8
  - contour length 45–6
  - freely jointed chain model 46–7
  - Gaussian chains 46
  - perturbed/unperturbed dimensions 48, 62–3
  - valence angle model 47
- plastics 93–4
- polyelectrolytes 103–5
- repeat units 42
- rubber 67, 94–8, 94
- semiconducting 105–6
- spinning 62
- structure 40
- synthesis 41–4
- poly(methyl methacrylate) (PMMA) 82, 155
- poly(oxyethylene) 209
- poly(oxyethylene) alkyl ethers 210, 210
- poly(p-phenylene terephthalamide) 99
- polypeptides 103, 292
  - misfolding 300
- poly(propylene) 93
- polysaccharides 304–7, 305
  - occurrence 304–5
- poly(styrene) 155
- poly(vinyl chloride) (PVC) 85
- proteins 150–1, 291–304
  - and cell membranes 212–15, 277–8
  - crystallization 297–8
    - DLVO theory 297–8
    - equilibrium clusters 298
    - gelation 297
    - procedure 297
    - virial coefficient 297, 298
  - denaturing 66–7, 296
  - fibrillization 298–304
  - folding 296–7, 296
    - hydrophobic effect 297
  - interact with lipid rafts 278–9
  - peripheral 215, 278
  - SNARE 280
  - structure 291–5
    - hierarchical 292

INDEX

325

- peptide linkages 291–2
- primary 292
- secondary 292, 293
- tertiary 294
- proteoglycans 306, 307
- pyrophyllite 138, 139
- quasi-elastic light scattering (QELS) 21, 59, 121
- Raman spectroscopy 30–1, 243
- random walk 4–5, 10, 46, 46
- Rayleigh scattering 20
- rheology 25–8, 31, 60–2
  - of colloids 118
  - deformation rates 26–7
  - extensional rheometry 60–1
  - glass transition measurement 84
  - rheometers 28
  - shear rheometry 60
- ribonucleic acid (RNA) 286
- rubber 67, 94–8, 94
  - deformation 95–6, 97
  - elastic modulus 96
  - elasticity 94–5
  - elongation 96–7, 97
  - entropy changes 95–6
  - stress v. extension (strain) 97–8, 97
  - vulcanization 94
- scaling laws 6, 18
- scanning electro microscopy (SEM) 20, 118
- scattering methods 20–5, 57–9, 118
  - intensity distribution 24
  - particle information 24
  - see also* individual methods e.g.
    - dynamic light scattering
- sedimentation methods 118, 120
  - centrifugation 120
- self-avoiding walk 5
- shear 25–6, 25
- silicone 26, 60
- silk 292–5
- small-angle light scattering (SALS) 20, 57, 64
  - in colloids 118, 121, 157
- small-angle neutron scattering (SANS) 23–4, 23, 59, 64
  - in colloids 118, 121, 157
- small-angle x-ray scattering (SAXS) 21, 22–3, 59, 64
  - in colloids 118, 121
- polymer structure 88–9
- smectic A (lamellar)—isotropic transition 14
- smectic C—smectic A transition 14
- smectic phases 8–9, 17–18, 225–230
- SNARE proteins 280, 281
- soap 195
- sodium dodecyl sulphate (SDS)/water system 209, 210
- soft materials
  - applications 2
  - defined 3
  - as interdisciplinary subject 1–2
  - structural organization 7–9, 8
    - defects 7
    - periodicity 7
    - phases 8–9
    - supermolecular aggregates 9
    - symmetry groups 8
- sols 113
  - defined 135
  - monodisperse latex sols 136
  - particle shape 118, 119
  - particle size 118–21
  - preparation 135–6
    - condensation methods 135
    - controlled hydrolysis 136
    - dispersion methods 135
    - emulsion polymerization 136
    - nucleation 135–6
- solubilization 198–200
- spectroscopic methods 29–32
- sphingolipids 168, 278
- spider silk 62, 295
- sponge phase 212
- stabilizers 152
- starch 305, 306
- step (step-growth) polymerization 41
- Stokes-Einstein equation 10–11, 21
- supermolecular aggregates see aggregates
- surface forces experiments 32–3, 139
- surface structure probes 32–3
- surface tension 168–71, 168, 169
  - and CMC 182–3, 185–7
  - and concentration 182–3, 183, 185–7
  - saturation 186–7
  - defined 168–9
  - and foams 141–2
  - Gibbs adsorption equation 183–7
  - measurement 169–71, 170
    - dynamic surface tension 171
  - and micelles 182–3

- surface tension (Cont.)
  - and surfactants 168–71, 168, 169, 182–3
- surfactants 161–219
  - adsorption 177–80
  - contact angle 177, 178, 179
  - Langmuir adsorption equation 179–80
  - Young equation 179
- detergency 194–8
- dual nature 161
  - and emulsions 143–4
  - in foods 151
  - and hydrophobic effect 162
  - ‘ideal gas’ behaviour 186
- interfacial curvature 200–4
  - elastic moduli 202
  - Gaussian curvature 200–201, 201, 202
  - mean curvature 200–201, 201
  - spontaneous curvature 201–2
- interfacial tension 171–3
  - defined 171
  - measurement 172
  - spreading coefficient 172–3
  - work of adhesion 171, 172–3, 172
  - work of cohesion 171–2, 172, 173
- ionic 161, 163–6
  - amphoteric 166
  - anionic 163–5, 165
  - cationic 163, 165–6, 165
  - zwitterionic 166
- liquid crystal phases 204–11
- lyotropic liquid crystals 162–3, 205
- membranes 211–15
- micelles and micellization 162, 180–94
  - solubilization 198–200
- molecular packing 202–4
  - aggregate formation 203–4, 204
  - packing parameter model 202–204
  - monolayers 173–7
  - nomenclature 164
  - nonionic 161, 166–7
  - phase diagrams 205–11
  - surface tension 168–71, 168, 169, 170
    - and CMC 182–3
    - thermodynamics 184–6
  - templated structures 215–17
  - thermodynamic properties 162
  - vesicles 213–15
- symmetry breaking transitions 17
- symmetry groups 8
- templated structures 215–17
  - formation 215
  - hexagonal 215, 216
  - layered 215
  - mesoporous materials 215
  - of vesicles 215–16
- tensors 18, 236–7, 248–50
- terylene 98
- thermodynamics 11–12, 68–72
- thermosets 93
- thermotropic liquid crystals 2, 9, 205, 224–71
  - applications 259–69
    - ferroelectric liquid crystal displays 264–7
      - advantages 266
      - orientation states 265, 266
      - problems 265–7
    - nematic liquid crystal displays (LCDs) 259–60
      - Frédericksz transition 259, 259, 260
      - switching times 260
      - threshold electric field 260
    - polymer dispersed liquid crystal (PDLC) displays 267–8, 268
      - preparation 267–8
      - principle 267
    - spatial light modulators 268–9
  - supertwisted nematic (STN) LCDs 263–4
  - thermochromic liquid crystals 269
  - thin-film transistors (TFT) LCDs 263–4, 264
  - twisted nematic (TN) LCDs 260–3
    - construction considerations 262
    - sharpness 262
    - display elements 261, 261
    - principle 261
    - reverse contrast 262
- characteristics 233–8
  - anisotropic properties 236–8
    - electric field alignment 236–7
    - flow behaviour 237–8
    - magnetic field alignment 236–7
    - mechanical alignment 237
    - optical anisotropy 237

- defined 222–223
- degree of order 233–6
  - long-range order 234
  - positional ordering 234
  - radial distribution function 234–5
  - translational order 234
- director 223, 242–3, 243
- elastic properties 253–5
  - continuum theory modelling 253–4
  - elastic constants 253–4, 254
  - lattice displacement 254
- molecular structure 222–3
- orientational order 246–53
  - Euler angles 246, 247
  - McMillan theory 249–51, 250
  - Maier—Saupe theory 249–53
    - odd-even variation 250, 251
  - Onsager theory 252–3
  - orientation distribution function 247, 248, 249
  - orientational order parameter 249–51
    - cylindrically symmetric molecules 248–50
    - from Maier—Saupe potential 251–2
    - non-cylindrically symmetric molecules 250–1
    - and temperature 252
    - and phase transition 251–3
  - Saupe matrix 249
  - tensors 248–50
  - theories 249–53
- phase identification
  - differential scanning calorimetry 247–8
  - light scattering 243
  - neutron scattering 243–5
  - nuclear magnetic resonance (NMR) 245
- textures 238–42
  - defects 238–9
  - disclinations 238–40
  - Dupin cyclide 241, 242
  - fan texture 242
  - filaments (flexible) 240
  - Schlieren texture 239, 242
- x-ray diffraction 243–5, 244
- phase transitions
  - in columnar phases 258–9
  - frustrated smectics 258
  - NAC point 257–8, 257
  - universal behaviour 257–8, 257
  - nematic-smectic A transition 255–6
    - ‘cybotactic clusters’ 255, 255
    - free energy density 256
    - Landau-de Gennes theory 256
    - pretransitional fluctuations 255
  - and orientational order 251–2
  - smectic A—smectic B transition 258
  - smectic A—smectic C transition 256
- phases
  - blue phases 231
  - columnar phases 9, 231–3, 254–255, 258–259
  - cubic D phase 230
  - discotic molecules 231–2, 232, 233
  - frustrated phase 231
  - nematic phase 223–5, 224, 225, 255–6
    - chiral 223–4, 241
    - molecular orientation 223
  - smectic phases 225–30, 227, 255–6
    - chirality 232, 230
    - elasticity 253–5
    - ferroelectric liquid crystal displays 230
    - frustrated smectics 228, 228
    - molecular alignment 226
    - ordering 229
    - smectic A phase 226–9, 241–2
    - smectic B phase 229, 242
    - smectic C phase 228–30, 242
    - smectic F phase 229
    - smectic I phase 229
    - soft crystal phases 229–30
    - transitions 227–8
    - types 227
- Thompson—Gibbs equation 90, 92
- time—temperature superposition principle 78, 78
- transmission electron microscopy (TEM) 20, 89, 118
- Twaron 99
- upper critical solution temperature (UCST) 75–6, 143
- van der Waals forces 5, 6
  - calculation 114–15
  - in colloids 112, 114–15
- vesicles 213–15
  - budding and fusion 279–280, 282
  - membrane trafficking 279–80, 280
  - preparation 214–15
  - and templating 216–17

328

INDEX

viruses 276, 279, 282, 287, 309, 310

viscoelasticity 26–8, 40, 60, 61

amorphous polymers 77–9, 77

viscosity 25

water purification 134

wide-angle x-ray scattering (WAXS) 21,

22, 59

polymer structure investigation 88,

89

WLF equation 78, 79

x-ray reflectivity 33

x-ray scattering 21–3, 59

see also small-angle x-ray scattering

(SAXS); wide-angle x-ray

scattering (WAXS)

Zimm plot 58–9, 58