

Index

“80-20” rule, 52

A

A. T. Kearney, 9

ABB, 137

abilities: asking questions about leadership, 7–8; creating results, 43, 59; education and leadership, 57; gap between target job and current, 8; importance of relational, 42–43, 46; motivating others, 28

acknowledgements, 163–164

acumen: about, 46; evaluating leader's people, 47–49; potential business, 49–51

adopting Apprenticeship Model, 143–151

age of CEO, 34–35

ambition, 59

Ann Taylor, 117

Apple, 119

Apprenticeship Model. See also designing talent tracks; recognizing potential leaders: about, 2–3, 25–27; accelerating development with, 63–67; adopting, 143–151; board decisions and, 119; boss as mentor, 29–30; boss' role in grooming leaders in, 81–82, 161–162; challenges in executing, 30, 32–33; clearing path for growth, 73–75; concentric learning, 35–37, 40; conventional leadership development vs., 31; defining growth path for protégé, 67–73; designing talent tracks, 61–63; having leaders develop other leaders, 26, 145–146, 160, 161; identifying leaders early, 27–28; individual building blocks for, 159–161; open dialogue about leaders, 94–98, 108; planned apprenticeships, 28; providing deliberate feedback, 87–92, 108; spotting leadership talent, 41

B

Baby Gap, 117

Banana Republic, 117, 118

Banco Popular, 63–66

Bank of America, 131

Batlaw, Anish, 6, 7

beer truck scenario, 129

bidding wars for leaders, 10

blockages: boss' role in dissolving, 86–87; clearing path for growth, 73–75; freeing up jobs to provide leader experience, 32; Textron's method for breaking, 148–150

Blue Cross Blue Shield Association, 123

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan (BCBSM), 122–129

board of directors: choosing successful CEOs, 117–119; discussions about high-potential leaders, 111–112; finding inside vs. outside CEOs, 136–137, 140; goal for candidate assessment, 141; knowing when to act on successors, 133–135; organizing search for CEO, 122–123; presenting leaders before, 114–115; priority of leadership development with, 8–9; providing candidate profiles and recommendations to, 127–128; recommendations for emergency successors, 129; role in choosing CEOs, 136–140; succession decisions by, 120–121 bosses: charting growth trajectory of leader, 100–103; coaching tips for, 84–86; developing one-page summary of leaders, 98–100; developing

- protégés as leaders, 12–19; dissolving blockages, 86–87; keeping track of leader's growth, 92–94; leader's need for feedback from, 159–160; leadership development by, 79–80, 107–108; as mentor, 29–30, 81; observing and supporting protégés, 82–84, 162; open dialogue about leaders, 94–98, 108; providing deliberate feedback, 87–92, 108
- Boston Chicken, 156
- Breen, Ed, 137
- Brennan, William J., 155
- Brokatzky-Geiger, Juergen, 5
- Brown, Randy, 71–72
- building blocks for Apprenticeship Model: company's, 161–162; individual's, 159–161
- business. See also corporations: ability to create results in, 43, 59; assessing potential business acumen, 49–51; developing CEO nucleus, 50; freedom to balance short- and long-term needs, 76; leader's talents for, 28, 46; looking at big picture of, 154
- Butler, John, 143, 144
- ## C
- Callas-Miller, Gwen, 143–144, 147–148, 149, 150, 151
- Campbell, Lewis, 143, 144–145, 151
- candidates for leadership: assessing, 6–7, 38–39; dealing with those not unchosen for CEO, 141–142; defining CEO criteria, 123–125, 129–132; disqualifying potential, 44–45; identifying, 125–126; inside vs. outside, 136–137, 140; interviewing, 126–127; presenting profiles and recommendations to board, 127–128; ways to assess, 6–7
- career paths. See designing talent tracks
- Carrión, Richard, 63–66
- CEO nucleus: about, 28, 49; building, 68–69; developing, 50
- CEOs. See also choosing successful CEOs: ages for, 34–35; allowing time for choosing, 132–136; challenges facing, 130; choosing next, 33–35; COO or CFO as, 133–134; corporate failure to diversify standards for, 54–55; dealing with candidates not chosen, 141–142; defining criteria for, 123–125, 129–132; developing consensus from interviews, 127; finding high-potential leaders, 56–58, 60; helping success of new, 140–141; human qualities of, 120; identifying candidates for, 125–126; information gathering phase for, 123; inside vs. outside candidates for, 136–137, 140; interviewing candidates for, 126–127; learning required for, 2, 53, 59; organizing search for, 122–123; providing support for Apprenticeship Model, 32; recommendations for emergency successors, 129; risks with untested, 66–67; skills required of, 34; succession problems and choice of, 9–10; unique nature of job, 119–120
- CFOs (chief financial officers), 57, 110–111, 133–134, 153–154
- challenges facing CEOs, 130
- Chambers, John, 97
- change: competency in managing, 112; corporate selection of leaders responding to, 54–56; response to, 53
- Charan, Ram, 165–166
- charisma, 58
- Chipotle Mexican Grill, 156
- Chiron Corporation, 5
- choosing successful CEOs: allowing time for, 132–136; board decisions and, 117–119; board's role in, 136–140; defining selection criteria, 123–125, 129–132; developing consensus from interviews, 127; handling candidates not chosen, 141–142; helping new leader succeed, 140–141; identifying candidates, 125–126; information gathering phase in, 123; inside vs. outside candidates, 136–137, 140; interviewing candidates, 126–127; organizing search, 122–123; principles guiding succession, 119–120; rewards of planned decisions, 121–129
- Cisco, 97
- clarity, 28
- Clayton Dubilier, 40
- coaching: inside vs. outside, 91–92; offering protégés, 12–19, 113; tips for bosses, 84–86; Welch's methods of, 37–40
- cognitive process: business acumen and, 49–50; potential leaders', 51–53, 59

Colgate-Palmolive, 3, 11, 143; calibrating leader's talents, 93; global identification of leaders, 41–45; managing apprenticeships at, 105–115; recognition and rewards at, 113–114; responding to change, 54, 112

communications: importance in leadership, 42; persuasion in, 65 concentric learning, 35–37, 40 conventional leadership development, 31

COO (chief operating officer), 133–134

Cook, Ian, 41, 107

corporations: annual leadership recalibration, 92–93; assessing culture of, 156–157; building blocks for Apprenticeship Model, 161–162; challenges executing Apprenticeship Model, 30, 32–33; conventional vs. Apprenticeship Model of leadership development, 31; DNA pool of, 54–56; failure to diversify standards for CEOs, 54–55; global identification of leaders in, 43–45; long-term cultivation of leadership, 30, 32, 135–136; rating leadership development of, 22–23; resignation of high-potential leaders from, 115; risks using untested CEOs, 66–67; role in managing apprenticeships, 105–106; successful producers of leaders, 11; succession-planning discussions in, 108–110; traditional career paths in, 62; updating criteria for leaders, 53–56 deliberate leadership development, 37–39, 150–151

D

Dell, Michael, 34, 63, 102 designing talent tracks: allowing for leaps in growth, 63–67; clearing path for growth, 73–75; defining growth path, 67–73; example of, 61–63; providing freedom to fail, 75–77 dialogue about leaders: CEO selection and, 137–138; importance of, 94–98, 108; Textron's use of, 147–148

Disney, 117, 118

disqualifying candidates as potential leaders, 44–45 diversity, 53–56

DNA pool of corporations, 54–56

Drexler, Mickey, 117

drive of potential leaders, 52, 59

DTE Energy, 143

E

education: gap between leadership skills and, 10–11, 21; leadership ability and, 57

Eli Lilly, 137

emergency successions, 129

Eon Labs, 5

Ericsson, K. Anders, 37

experience: CEO age and, 34–35; gaining to fill leadership gap, 13–15; unblocking jobs to provide potential leaders, 32

F

failures: allowing freedom for, 75–77; reasons for leader's, 103

feedback: deliberate, 87–92, 108; leader's need for, 159–160; letters as, 89–91; personalized coaching and, 19–20

Fisher, Robert, 118

FleetBoston, 131

Ford, 137

Francis, George, 122

G

Gap, Inc., 117, 118, 129

Gap Kids, 117

gaps: gaining experience to fill, 13–15; between target job and current ability, 8

General Electric, 3, 10, 11, 33–34, 37–38, 54, 55–56, 63, 93, 143, 155

General Motors, 54

Genpact, 72

global succession-planning discussions, 108–110

global talent, 42

Gorsky, Alex, 5–6, 7

Grove, Andy, 63

growth: allowing for leaps in, 63–67; charting leader's, 100–103; developing personal process for, 161; keeping track of leader's, 92–94

growth path: clearing, 73–75; defining, 67–73

H

hard duty assignments, 75 Hexal, 5
 high-potential leaders: assessing corporate culture, 156–157; avoiding damaging situations, 156; board discussions about, 111–112; danger of signaling as front runner, 133; defined, 26; resignation of, 115; resistance from bosses of, 73–74; succession-planning discussions about, 108–110; taking role in own development, 153–157; testing, 71–72; where to find, 56–58, 60 horizontal career moves, 70–71
 HR (Human Resources): contributing in mentor-boss roles, 30; framework for succession planning at Textron, 146; providing support for Apprenticeship Model, 32, 107–108; role in leadership development, 6–7 human qualities of CEOs, 120

I

IBM, 54
 identifying potential leaders, 27–28, 41–45 Immelt, Jeff, 34, 55, 56, 63, 80–81, 102 individual building blocks for Apprenticeship Model, 159–161 integrity, 53
 intentionally developing leadership, 60 interpersonal relations: importance of leader's abilities in, 42–43, 46; people acumen, 47–49
 interviewing candidates for CEO, 126–127

J

job mobility, 149–150
 job postings, 161
 Jobs, Steve, 62, 119
 John F. Welch Leadership Center, 56
 Johnson & Johnson, 54 judgment: observing and developing in protégé, 82–84; potential leaders', 52–53
 Jung, Andrea, 63

K

key performance indicators (KPI), 48
 Kindle, Fred, 137

Kindler, Jeff, 155–156
 Kmart, 118–119
 KPI (key performance indicators), 48
 Krampe, Ralf Th., 37

L

leaders. See also recognizing potential leaders: abilities in interpersonal relations, 42–43, 46; ability to create business results, 43, 59; allowing for leaps in growth, 63–67; Apprenticeship Model approach to building, 2–3, 25–27; assessing corporate culture, 156–157; assessing potential business acumen, 49–51; avoiding damaging situations, 156; bidding wars for, 10; building CEO nucleus, 68–69; charting growth trajectory of, 100–103; choosing CEO from inside vs. outside, 136–137, 140; concentric learning for, 35–37, 40; dealing with those not chosen for CEO, 141–142; defining growth path for, 67–73; developing other, 26, 29–30, 145–146, 160, 161; developing strategic vision, 17–19; dialogue about, 94–98, 108; expanding social acumen, 69–70; focusing on characteristics of, 45–47; gap between education and skills needed for, 10–11; gaps between target job and current ability, 8; giving responsibility for profit and loss, 68, 69, 70; how to develop, 12–19; identifying early, 27–28; identifying potential, 41–45; key identifying indicators for potential, 51–53; monitoring pool of, 115–116; observing social acumen of, 82; one-page summary of, 98–100; passion for continued learning, 53, 59; people acumen of, 47–49; planned apprenticeships for, 28; providing personal feedback and coaching, 19–20; resignation of high-potential, 115; resistance to rising, 73–75; spotting, 2; taking assignments to enhance skills, 15–17; taking role in own development, 153–157; unplanned emergence of, 11 leadership: annual recalibration of, 92–93; boss' role in developing, 79–80; corporate DNA pool for, 54–56; determining of best path, 157; importance of communications, 42; intentionally

- developing, 60; long-term cultivation of, 30, 32, 135–136; providing explicit criteria for, 106–107; updating corporate criteria for, 53–56
- leadership development: author's conclusions on, 1–2; concentric learning for, 35–37, 40; conventional vs. Apprenticeship Model of, 31; cultivating leader's strategic vision, 17–19; high priority of, 8–9; Novartis's strategies for, 5–8; practice and self-correction in, 2; protégé model for, 12–19; providing personal feedback and coaching, 19–20; rating company on, 22–23; shortcomings in, 21
- leaps in growth: allowing for, 63–67; designing growth path for, 71–72
- learning: concentric, 35–37; passion for continued, 53, 59; required for CEOs, 2
- letters as feedback, 89–91
- Lewis, Ken, 131
- local talent, 42
- Loepp, Dan, 128
- M
- managing apprenticeships: board discussions about high-potential leaders, 111–112; boss' role in leadership development, 79–80, 107–108; corporate role in, 105–106; corporate succession-planning, 108–110; dealing with resignation of leaders, 115; HR support, 32, 107–108; monitoring pool of leaders, 115–116; providing explicit leadership criteria, 106–107; recognition and rewards, 113–114
- Mark, Reuben, 41, 63
- Marsili, Daniel, 41–45, 107, 108, 111–113
- McColl, Hugh, 131
- McDonald's Corporation, 155
- mentors. See also bosses: boss as, 29–30; HR contributions in mentor-boss roles, 30; what makes good boss-mentor, 81
- military sources of leadership, 58
- motivating others, 28
- Mullaly, Alan, 137
- Murphy, Glenn, 118
- N
- narcissism, 157
- NationsBank, 131
- North Carolina Bank, 131
- Novartis AG, 3, 5–8
- Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corporation, 5–8, 143
- nurturing own leadership potential, 154–155
- O
- Old Navy, 117, 118
- organizing CEO searches, 122–123
- outside CEOs, 136–137, 140
- outside coaches, 91–92, 113
- Outward Bound, 114
- P
- Partner Brands, 156–157
- PepsiCo, 11
- performance reviews: combining with personalized coaching, 39; deliberate feedback during, 88–89; one-page summaries of leaders, 98–100; shortcomings of, 21, 80
- persuasion, 65
- Pfizer, Inc., 156
- planned apprenticeships, 28
- practice: leadership development and deliberate, 37–39, 150–151; self-correction and, 2
- Pressler, Paul, 117–118, 137
- Pret a Manger, 156
- Procter & Gamble, 11, 143
- profit and loss. See also business: giving leaders responsibility for, 68, 69, 70; responsibility leading to growth, 63
- protégés. See also recognizing potential leaders: boss as mentor for, 29–30; clearing path for growth, 73–75; defining growth path for, 67–73; designing talent tracks for, 61–63; giving latitude to lead team, 76; grooming as leaders, 12–19; importance of coaching, 19–20; providing freedom to fail, 75–77
- R
- recognition and rewards, 113–114
- recognizing potential leaders: assessing potential business acumen, 49–51, 59; criteria for, 58–59; factors disqualifying candidates, 44–45; finding high-potential leaders, 56–58, 60; focusing on characteristics of leadership, 45–47; global identification of leaders, 41–45;

- key indicators for, 51–53; people acumen, 47–49, 59; responding to change, 54–56; updating corporate criteria for leaders, 53–56
  - recruitment, 32
  - regional talent, 42
  - resignation of leaders, 115
  - rewards and recognition, 113–115
  - “Role of Deliberate Practice in the Acquisition of Expert Performance, The” (Ericsson, Krampe, and Tesch-Römer), 37
  - Royal Little, 144
- S
- Sandoz, 5
  - Seidenberg, Ivan, 63
  - selection criteria for CEO, 123–125, 129–132
  - senior team meetings, 110–111
  - Sherwin-Williams, 11
  - shortcomings in leadership development, 21
  - Sinning, Cathy, 122
  - Six Sigma, 146, 149
  - skills: ages for CEOs and, 34–35; gap between education and leadership, 10–11, 21
  - Smith, Jim, 93–94
  - social acumen: expanding, 69–70; observing leader’s, 82; signs of, 48–49
  - success profiles, 111
  - succession: allowing time for choosing CEOs, 132–136; Colgate-Palmolive’s plans for, 41–45; corporate planning meetings on, 108–110; decision making by board of directors, 120–121; preparing for emergency, 129; principles guiding, 119–120; problems and choices of in CEO, 9–10; Textron’s model for planning, 145–151; timing and, 133–135
  - Sudderth, Greg, 122
- T
- talent. See also designing talent tracks; recognizing potential leaders: allowing for leaps in growth, 63–67; assessing personal leadership, 157; business and people acumen, 46–51; calibrating leader’s, 92–94; developing leadership, 2; local, regional, and global, 42; protecting, 148, 149
  - talent pools: building CEO, 3; corporate DNA pool, 54–56; monitoring, 115–116
  - teams: developing, 38; giving protégés latitude to lead, 76
  - Tesch-Römer, Clemens, 37
  - testing: corporate risks with untested CEOs, 66–67; high-potential executives, 71–72
  - Textron, Inc., 3, 143–151
  - thinking. See cognitive process
  - Thomson Corporation, 93, 94, 100–103, 143
  - Tobias, Randy, 137
  - Truman, Harry, 119
  - Tyco, 137
- U
- United Auto Workers union, 123
- V
- Vasella, Daniel, 5, 8
  - Verizon, 63
- W
- Wang Laboratories, 97
  - Welch, Jack, 33–34, 37–40, 55, 60, 63, 89, 165
  - WellPoint, Inc., 3, 71, 132, 143
  - Whitmer, Richard, 125
  - Williams & Connolly, 155
- X
- Xerox, 54
- Y
- “You Can Make A Difference” Award, 114

