

Index

A

Aas, Erik, 124, 142, 151, 187
Abed, Fazle Hasan, 6
Ablaza, Gerardo C., 131
ACCION International, 21
ADB (Asian Development Bank),
74, 97, 99
Africa: bribery in South Africa,
117–118; licensing opportunities in, 115; mobile banking in,
132–134; prevalence of voice over text calls in, 142; rise in telephone subscribers in, 122–124; sales volume of prepaid SIM cards, xix,
155; village pay phones replicated in, 140
African National Congress (ANC),
108, 109
Aggregate wealth of poor, xxxi
Airtime, 93, 94, 95
Aktel, 84, 90, 181, 185
Alam, Mahbulul, 96
Alcatel, 62, 87
Ali, Monica, xxvii
Amazon.com, 11
America Online, 33
ANC (African National Congress),
108, 109
Apple Computer, 11, 33
Appropriate technology: digital divide and, xxxiii; myth of, 167–169

ApproTech (Appropriate Technologies for Enterprise Creation), 169
Asian Development Bank (ADB),
74, 97, 99
Asia Unplugged (Rao), 121
ATM cards, 133
Atrium Capital Corp., 42–43, 49, 61
AT&T, 59, 78, 84
Autarky, xxviii
Awami League, 6, 53, 82, 183, 184

B

Babu, Nolok, 142
Baez, Joan, 5
Bakht, Syed Yamin, 144
Banco de Oro, 129
Bangladesh: cell phone taxes,
186–187; cellular operators in, 124; contracts in, 91–92; corruption in, xxvii, 185; demographics and geographic resources of, 13; electrical grid, 96; fiber-optic cable laid in, 48; floods of 1974, xxviii, 6, 18; foreign investors in, xxxv, 182; hartals, 45, 53, 82, 182, 183–184; impact of foreign telecom investments,
157–158; impact of village pay phones in, 14–15, 31, 152–153;
international submarine cable
access, 195–196; Liberation War,
5–6, 173; literacy rate of, 4, 135,

- 193–194; martial law in, 45; NGOs in, 59–60; origins of, 5; phone service and, 4; politics in, 4–5; poverty reduction in, 193–195; projected growth of, 15–16; rapid urbanization of, 88; remittance transfers in, 126–127, 135–136; rivalry between India and, 58; social change in, 193–195; social effect of mobile services on, 146–148; telephone culture before GrameenPhone, 45–46; telephone subscribers in, 122; tender offered for cell phone licensing, 53, 64; U.S. venture capital for, 42–43
- Bangladesh Human Rights Commission, 184
- Bangladesh Idol*, 142
- Bangladesh National Party, 82, 183
- Bangladesh Railway. See BR
- Bangladesh: Reflections on the Water* (Novak), xxx
- Bangladesh Rural Advancement Committee (BRAC), 5–6, 37, 59, 170, 171, 173–174, 176, 194
- Bangladesh Rural Telecom Authority (BRTA), 80
- Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC), 157–158, 185–186
- Bangladesh Telecom Regulatory Authority, 103
- Bangladesh Telephone and Telegraph Bureau. See BTTB
- Banglalink, 124, 185
- Banker to the Poor* (Yunus), 19
- Banking: with cell phones, 125–128, 132–134; strategies of Grameen Bank, 25–26. See also Grameen Bank; Mobile banking
- Begum, Delora, 14–15
- Begum, Helena, 14
- Begum, Laily, 90, 152
- Bell, Alexander Graham, 10
- Bell Atlantic, 49
- Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream, 72
- Bessemer Venture Partners, 116
- Bharti Mobile, 114, 121
- Bilateral investment treaties (BITs), 54
- Biodigesters for methane, 172, 175
- Biogas: cow dung needed for production of, 167, 175; market testing, 172–174; opportunities for entrepreneurs with, 172
- BITs (bilateral investment treaties), 54
- Black Economic Empowerment Act, 110
- Bonfire of the Vanities* (Wolfe), 9
- BOP (bottom-of-the-pyramid) business model, xvii, 129, 130, 203
- BRAC (Bangladesh Rural Advancement Committee), 5–6, 37, 59, 170, 171, 173–174, 176, 194
- BraNET, 194–195, 201
- Brand, Stewart, 167
- BR (Bangladesh Railway), 67, 86, 187; fiber-optic cabling along, 48–49; leases fiber to GrameenPhone, 91–92; Quadir proposes fiber bid for, 80–81
- Bribery, 117–118
- Brick Lane* (Ali), xxvii
- BRICs (Brazil, Russia, India, and China), 15
- British East India Company, xxvii
- British Telecom (BT), 59
- Broadband wireless networks, 196
- BRTA (Bangladesh Rural Telecom Authority), 80
- BT (British Telecom), 59
- BTRC (Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission), 157–158, 185–186
- BTTB (Bangladesh Telephone and Telegraph Bureau): attitude toward competition, 79; cell operations of, 124; complaints about, 185–187; connection dispute with PBTL, 54–55; development by, xxx, 35; GrameenPhone's relations with, 67, 89, 97–99; interconnection with GrameenPhone, 84, 95–97, 99,

- 102, 186; new service connections from, 45; questions GrameenPhone licensing, 82, 83–84; rejects proposal to lease fiber, 80; relations with Alcatel, 62; resists fiber leasing, 91; role in submarine cable operations, 196; uninterested in cellular business, 49; Yahya tries to lease fiber-optic cabling for, 48–49
- Businesses: BOP model for, xvii, 129, 130, 203; domestic manufacturing and, 178–179; microfinance in solar, 171–172; model of village phone vs. biogas electrical, 177–178; startup times required for, xxviii; sustainability of, xx; wealth creation and small, 146. See also Microfinance; Wealth creation
- Business Week*, 93
- C
- Cable & Wireless, 110
- Capital: development of MSI's venture, 115–117; flight, 62; initial plans for GrameenPhone, 74; overestimating risk of foreign investment, 68–69; Pitroda's vision of improving, 28; Quadir raises phone system investment, 42–44; raising U.S. venture, 42–43
- Capitalism. See Inclusive capitalism
- Carter, Jimmy, 18
- Cash-in–cash-out problem, 140
- CDC Capital Partners, 116
- CDC (Commonwealth Development Corporation), 74, 97, 99
- CDMA (Code Division Multiple Access) services, 121
- C-DOT (Centre for Development of Telematics), 28–30
- Cell, C, 118
- CellBazaar, 142–144, 201
- Cellnet, 113, 114
- Cell phones: airtime of rural callers, 93, 94, 95; banking with, 125–128, 132–134; borrowed phones and SIM cards, 140–141; buying minutes on credit, 130; bypassing fixed-line network, 97–99; call pricing, 83–84, 151; “cell phone as cow” concept, xviii, 39–42; cellular operators in Bangladesh, 124; CityCell service, 53, 55, 84, 128, 185; climbing trees for better reception, 118; correlation between GDP and, 148; as credit card terminals, 134; development in Scandinavia, 51–55; as disruptive technology, xxiii; features of GSM, 56–57; flashing, 132; growth in MTN subscribers, 123, 124; handset costs of, xxxiv, 11; international calling rates, 155–156; international roaming agreements, 101; licensing tender in Zimbabwe, 112; loading money onto, 133–134; modeling network for, 79–80; MOPT floats tender for licensing, 53, 64; more voice than text calls in, Africa, 142; Mugabe's opposition to, 111, 112; myths about poor and, 38; opinions in South Africa of, 109; PHS, 72–73; Pitroda's development in India, 26–31, 55; prepaid subscriber cards for, 125–126; prepaid village service, 101; remittance flows via, 134–137; rise in African subscribers, 122–124; silent revolution of, 145; Skaar's viability model for, 66–67; social impact of mobile credit, 133; subscriptions in India, 121; taxes in Bangladesh, 186–187; texting cash to cell subscribers, 131; texting rates for Philippines, 128; universal appeal of, xxxii; use during emergency flooding, 97. See also Costs; Village pay phones
- Celpay, 133–134
- Celtel International BV: about, xix; begins operations as MSI-Cellular Investments, 115; capital raised by, 116; Celpay owned previously by, 133; corruption policy at, 117; costs of operation for, 119–120; foreign

- investments in, xxvi–xxvii; MTC buys, 149; prepaid SIM card sales, 155; prosperity of, 118; reinvesting profits, 159; subscribers for, 123–124
- Central Bank, 19
- Centre for Development of Telematics (C-DOT), 28–29
- CGAP (Consultative Group to Assist the Poor), 134
- Chhaya, Mayank, 29
- China, 54, 190
- Chittagong University, 18
- Chowdhury, Abdul-Muyeed, 5–6, 170, 173
- Chowdhury, Tawfiq-e-Elahi, 10–11, 16, 173, 174, 175, 180, 183
- Chu, Michael, 23–24, 25
- Citigroup Venture Capital International, 21, 116
- CityCell, 53, 55, 84, 128, 185
- Clapton, Eric, xxviii
- Clinton, Bill, 18
- Clinton, Hillary, 18
- CNN, 32
- Coca-Cola, 125
- Cohen, Ben, 72
- Commercial Bank of Africa, 140
- Commonwealth Development Corporation (CDC), 74, 97, 99
- Communication: as basic human need, xxiv, 111; literacy and oral, 142; universal appeal of cell phones, xxxii. See also Information communications technology
- Computervision, 72
- Concert for Bangladesh, xxviii
- Connectivity: credit and, 39–42; India's, 29; interconnections with BTTB fixed-phone network, 84, 95–97, 99, 102, 186; poor communications in Bangladesh and, 45–46; productivity and, 9–10, 37; reducing poverty with, xxxiv; rural access for India, 30–31; taxes on Bangladesh, 186–187
- Consultative Group to Assist the Poor (CGAP), 134
- Consumer surplus, 175
- Contract validity, 91–92
- Conway, Rob, 188
- Coopers & Lybrand, 47–48, 108
- Corruption: Bangladesh, 185; bribery in South Africa, 117–118; Corruption Perceptions Index, xxvii, 85; growth stymied by, xxvii; policy at Celtel, 117
- Corruption Perceptions Index, xxvii, 85
- Costs: BTTB and GrameenPhone call charges, 95; of cell phone handsets, xxxiv, 11; Celtel operation, 119–120; international calling rates, 155–156; international cell calling rates, 155–156; Orascom pricing war with GrameenPhone, 120; proposed for pricing for GrameenPhone, 83–84; set by phone ladies, 151; texting rates for Philippines, 128
- Counts, Alex, 24, 139
- Cow dung: amount needed for biogas production, 175; market testing biogas from, 174; as source of methane, 167, 172. See also Biogas
- Craigslist, 142–143
- Credit: buying SIMs cards on, 130; connectivity and, 39–42; moving to culture of, 126–127; social impact of mobile, 133; Yunus' experiment with microcredit, 18, 19. See also Microloans
- C-SAM, 26, 30, 138, 139
- Currency risks and microfinance, 20–21

D

- Daily Star*, 83, 183, 184, 185, 191
- Debit cards, 129, 133
- DEKA Research & Development Corporation, 165
- De Klerk, President, 108
- Dell, 11
- Democratization and privatization, 108

- Demographics, of Bangladesh, 13
- Denmark, 101
- Department of Posts and Telecommunications (South Africa), 108
- Deutsche Bank, 25
- Developing countries: appropriate technology and, 167–169; bilateral investment treaties with, 54; corruption and, xxvii, 85, 117, 185; creating new services in, 35–36; defined by World Bank, 82; financial aid received by, xxviii–xxx; foreign investments in, xxix; GDP indicator for, xxix; income as development, xxxi–xxxii; income opportunities in, 146; Internet strategies in, 119; ladder of development, xxi; link between connectivity and productivity, 9–10, 37; martial law in Bangladesh, 45; need for disruptive technology, xxiii; obstructions of Bangladesh hartals, 183–184; remittance flows in, 135–137; resources of, 124
- Development finance institutions (DFIs), 116
- Dhaka Stock Exchange, 192
- Dhaka University, 47
- Digital divide: appropriate technology and, xxxiii; creating Digital Dividend, xxxii, 139, 155; taxes reinforcing, 188
- Digital Dividend, xxxii, 139, 155
- Digured, Knut, 58–59, 60
- Dish-wallahs, xxxv, 31–33
- Disruptive technology, xxiii
- Dow Jones Sustainability Index, 200
- Drayton, Bill, 161
- Dr. Mo. See Ibrahim, Mohamed
- Dylan, Bob, xxviii
- E
- East Pakistan, 5–6
- EASY prepay card, 101
- EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciations, and amortizations), 102, 120
- Econet, 112–113
- Economic and Social Benefits of Mobile Services in Bangladesh* (Ovum), 147–148
- Economist, The*, xxxii, 21, 112, 126
- Economy: domestic manufacturing and, 178–179; effect of financial aid on, 11; opportunities out of poverty, 147; overcoming poverty with microloans, 161–162; reduced poverty in Bangladesh, 193–195; technology and growth in, 11–12. See also GDP; Microfinance
- EDGE technology, 196
- Education, Quadir's, 7–8
- Egypt, 116, 149
- Electricity: Bangladesh protests over, 183–184; Bangladesh's access to, 166, 170; electrical grid in Bangladesh, 96; generating methane for, 172; production of methane-powered Stirling engines, 174–175; solar-powered, 171; startup costs of plants, 175–176. See also Biogas
- Electronic cash wallet, 129, 131
- Emergence Bio-Energy: Chowdhury's role in, 173; formation of, 167; manufacturing Stirling engines in Bangladesh, 178–179; modeling plans for, 176–178; need for in Bangladesh, 169–170; potential impact of, 179–180; sales goal for biodigesters, 175
- Emerging Markets Handset initiative, xxxiv, 187
- Emerging Markets Partnership, 116
- Empowerment: MTN associated with black, 110; phone ladies' contributions to women's, 152–153
- Entrepreneurs: biogas, 172; C-DOT establishes phone, 28–30; Mailman's success, 201; phone ladies as, 130, 152–153; prepaid SIM card sales, xix, 155; Quadir's success as native, xxv, xxx, 201; sari sari owners as, 130, 153–154; as source of external combustion, xxv–xxvi;

Vodacom franchise, 154–155. See also Ibrahim, Mohamed; Phone ladies; Quadir, Iqbal; Village pay phones; Yunus, Muhammad

Eradicating Poverty Through Profits Conference, 139

Ericsson, 85, 87, 112, 158

Estrada, Joseph, 128

Exchange Wallet, 137–138

Exogenous shock, xx–xxii

Export aid zones, xxxiii

External combustion: disruptive technology and, xxii–xxv; foreign investors and, xxvi–xxvii; microfinance with foreign investment, xxxii; native entrepreneurs as source, xxv–xxvi

F

Far Eastern Economic Review, 93

Fertilizer, 175

Fiber-optic cabling: advantage to GrameenPhone, 78–79; BR proposed Bangladesh, 48–49; GrameenPhone's proposal to work with BR, 80–81; importance of in GrameenPhone investments, 67; laying of in Bangladesh, 48; lease won by GrameenPhone, 91–92

Fidjestol, Gunnstein, 65, 67–68, 69, 76, 79, 80, 83, 85, 90, 91

Financial aid: economic effects of, 11; received by developing countries, xxviii–xxx

Financial Express, 190

Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 133

Financial Times, 124

Financiera Compartamos, 25

Fingerprint biometrics, 133

Finnet, 52

Finnish Telecom, 52

First e-Bank, 129

First-mover advantage: GrameenPhone's, 76, 90, 92; MTN's, 110–111

First Rand Bank of South Africa, 133

Fisher, Martin, 168–169, 178

Fitch, 25

Fixed-line networks: GrameenPhone bypasses, 97–99; limitations of African, 154

Flashing, 132

Flight capital, 62

Floods of 1974, xxviii, 6, 18

Ford Foundation, 19

Ford, Henry, 151–152

Foreign investments: advantages of Bangladesh telecom for, 58–60; amount received by developing countries, xxix; Bangladesh's, xxxv, 182; Celtel and, xxvi–xxvii; contributions to development by, 145–146; GrameenPhone's success due to, xxvi; knowledge transfer with, 89; licensing and taxes on, 189–191; microfinance and, xxxii; overestimate of risk in, 68–69; reinvesting profits, 157–159, 190–191; social impact of foreign telecom investments, 157–159; treaties protecting, 54; yearly rates of, 4

Fortune at the Bottom of the Pyramid (Pralhad), xxxi

Fredrik, Jon, 199–200

Friedman, Thomas, 163

G

Gandhi, Indira, 27–28, 29

Gandhi, Rajiv, 28, 29, 30

G-Cash, 131, 137

GDP (gross domestic product): chart of developing country's, xxix; corporate profits and, 186–187; defined, xxi; driving with ICT, 146–149; growth in Bangladesh, 193; U.S. vs. Bangladesh, 11

Gladhill, Herbie, 62

Globalization: GrameenPhone as sign of, 16; Yunus' impact on global community, 161

Global System for Mobile Communications (GSM), 51, 56–57, 74, 121, 199

Global TeleSystems (GTS), 43

- Globe Telecom: about, xix; introduces G-Cash, 131, 137; market share of, 128; mobile banking of, 139–140; mobile dominance over Filipino fixed-line phones, 123; prepaid SIM cards, 141; Txt Bak Mo, 132
- GNet, 194
- Goldman Sachs, 15, 44
- Gonofone Development Corporation: establishment of, xxv, 43; Grameen Bank's interest in, 52; as part of collective owning GrameenPhone, 72, 73, 74; Quadir's development of, 62, 70; seeks new investment capital, 99–100; sell shares in GrameenPhone, 163–165, 191, 201
- Good Faith Fund, 18
- Governments: corruption in, xxvii, 85, 117, 185; disruptions in emerging, 183–184; taxes levied on cell industry, 183, 185–188; time required to start businesses, xxviii
- GP-GP service, 98–99, 101, 154
- Grameen Bank: banking strategies of, 25–26; feasibility study for communications by, 55–56; GrameenPhone organized by, 71–73; interest rates, 22–23; Islamic reactions to, 22–23; microloans for Internet kiosks, 196–197; organization of, 36–37; origins of, 19–20; partners with Groupe Danone, 200; phone ladies as borrowers from, xviii, 14–15, 94, 153; Quadir's entrepreneurial influence on, xxv, xxx, 62–64; role in Bangladesh telecom development, 35, 38; role in micro-finance, 17; social effect of, 146–147; types of loans, 21–26; Yunus' strategy for, 25–26
- Grameen Foundation USA, 21, 24, 131, 139, 140, 141
- Grameen Fund, 61
- GrameenPhone: about, xvii–xviii, xxii; advantage of fiber-optic cabling to, 78–79; bypasses fixed-line network, 97–99; cash flow problems of, 99–100; CellBazaar, 142–144, 201; competitors of, 124; complaints about BTTB and BTRC, 185–187; developing network for, 87–90; development of village pay phones, 92–95; first calls by, 89–90; first-mover advantage of, 76, 90, 92; first offices for, 88–89; foreign investors' role in, xxvi, 3; Gonofone negotiates larger shares of, 163–164; GP-GP service, 98–99, 101, 154; growth mode begins for, 101–103; improves relations with BTTB, 89; increases in village pay phones, 150–152; initial proposal for, 39–42; initiation of SMS, 101; interconnection with BTTB, 84, 95–97, 99, 102, 186; IPO for, 191–192; licensing of, 84–85, 189; memorandum of understanding for, 73–74; mobile banking activities of, 135; modeling cellular network, 79–80; MSI funding vs., 115–116; name given by Yunus, 70; number of employees in Bangladesh, 149; organization of, 71–73; places bid for license, 76; positive face of globalization, 16; prepaid phone cards and, 125–126; pricing, 83–84, 120; proposal for outside funds, 74–75; proposal to work with BR, 80–81; Quadir leaves, 102; Quadir's initial role in, 85; rapid growth with subscribers, 151; reinvesting profits, 158–159; rollout strategies by Quadir, 76–77; sets opening day for network, 85; Shams' role in, 47; sign of globalization, 16; SMS contributions to income, 142; social effect of, 146–147; telephone culture before, 45–46; text messages from, 181–182; wins fiber lease, 91–92
- Grameen Shakti, 171
- Grameen Telecom, 46–47, 71–72, 74, 76, 94, 99, 100, 151, 163, 164, 192, 196

Greenwald, Jeff, 31, 32
 Gross domestic product. See GDP
 Groupe Danone, 200
 Growth: BRICs and, 15; Harrod-Domar model of, 11; link between telecommunications and, 26; projected for Bangladesh, 15–16; starting small to create, 12–13; technology and economic, 11–12; tiger economies and rapid, xxxiii, 16
 Growth Guarantees, 21
 GSM Association, 162, 187, 188
 GSM Association Emerging Markets Handset initiative, xxxiv, 187
 GSM (Global System for Mobile Communications), 51, 56–57, 74, 121, 199
 GTE, 26
 Gustavus Adolphus, 7

H

Handsets: costs of, xxxiv, 11; Emerging Markets Handset initiative, xxxiv, 187
 Harrison, George, xxviii, 6
 Harrod-Domar model of growth, 11
Hartals, 45, 53, 82, 182, 183–184
 Harvard: Business School, 23; Kennedy School of Government, xxiii, 102
Harvard Business Review, 8–9, 26, 28, 30
 Hasina, Sheikh, 6, 82, 84, 89–90, 183
 Hermansen, Tormod, 69, 70, 73, 77
 Hertz, 181
 Hewlett Packard, 141
 Hiatt, Arnold, 72
 “Hidden Wealth of the Poor, The” (The Economist), 126
 Hierarchy of needs, xxiv
 Huberts, Marco, 62
 Huq, Muzammel, 68

I

Ibrahim, Mohamed (Dr. Mo), 156; on development of Celtel, xxvi–xxvii; develops MSI, 113–114; estimates sales of prepaid cards, 155; investments by, 117; policy on bribes, 117–118; sells Celtel, 159

 ICT. See Information communications technology
ICT Statistics, 122
 IDCOL (Infrastructure Development Company Limited), 171
 IFC (International Finance Corporation), 74, 75, 97, 99, 116, 140–141
 Inclusive capitalism: about, 145; phone ladies and sari sari owners exemplifying, 130; wealth creation and, xxxi
 Income: Bangladesh, 4; as development, xxxi–xxxii; sari sari reseller, 153–154; SMS contributions to, 142; wealth creation and, 146
 Independence IBOT Mobility System, 165
Independent, The, 96, 136, 183
 India: bidding for cell licenses in, 57, 58; cellular subscriptions in, 121; dish-wallahs of Delhi, xxxv, 31–33; Pitroda’s innovations in telecommunications, 26–29, 55; rivalry between Bangladesh and, 58; roaming agreements with, 101; Tata Group invests in Bangladesh, 190–191
 Information communications technology (ICT): building middle-class wealth with, 146; caste system and, 31; communications as basic human need, 111; disruptive nature of, xxii–xxv; driving GDP with, 146–149; extending financial services via mobile, 139; India’s limitations in, 27; Mifos architecture for microfinance systems, 141–142; monopolies underestimate impact of, 33; social impact of, xvii, 146; as social leveler, xix, 125; Yunus urges privatization of communications, 102–103
 Infrastructure, 36

Infrastructure Development Company Limited (IDCOL), 171
 Interest rates, 22–23
 International calling rates, 155–156
 International Finance Corporation (IFC), 74, 75, 97, 99, 116, 140–141
International Herald Tribune, 93, 188
 International submarine cable, 195–196
 International Telecommunications Union (ITU), 37, 122, 148
 Internet kiosks, 196–197
 Investcom Holding, 124
 Investments. See Capital; Foreign investments
 IPO for GrameenPhone, 191–192
 Iraqna, 120
 Isa, Masud, 76
 Islam: interest rates forbidden in, 22–23; modernity of Bangladesh women, 4
 Ismail, Mohammed, 4
 ISPs (Internet service providers), 196
 IT. See Information communications technology
 ITU (International Telecommunications Union), 37, 122
 IVeri Payment Technology, 134

J

Jagland, Thorbjorn, 90
 Johnson & Johnson, 165
 Jorstad, Mette, 61
 Joseph, Michael, 124
 Junior Chamber International, 113

K

Kahn, Fouzul Kabir, 171
 Kahn, Louis, 76
 Kamen, Dean, 165–167, 174
 Kenya Telecom, 124
 Kholsa, Vinod, 24
 KickStart, 168–169, 178
 Kissinger, Henry, xx
 Kleiner Perkins, 24
 Knowledge transfer: with foreign investments, 89; manufacturing

Stirling engines in Bangladesh and, 178
 Kyivstar, 200

L

Ladder of development, xxi
 Lagos, Ricardo, 17
 Landes, David, xxii
 Lemelson Foundation, 165, 174
Lexus and the Olive Tree, The (Friedman), 163
 Liberation War, 5–6, 173
 Libre Ko, 132
 Licensing: Egypt sells third GSM license, 149; GrameenPhone places bid for, 76; increasing costs of cellular, 189–191; opportunities in African, 115; Yunus argues for GrameenPhone, 84
 Lindemann, George, 49–50
 LINKdotNET, 119
 Literacy: in Bangladesh, 4, 135, 193–194; tradition of oral communications and, 142
 Loans: given to women, 22; interest rates of Grameen Bank, 22–23; types of, 21–26
 London Business School, xxxiv, 148–149, 151
Los Angeles Times, 93

M

Maestro debit card, 133
 Magnusson, Bo, 52, 57, 64
 Mailman, Josh, 43, 61, 64, 65, 72, 100, 150, 158, 165, 189, 201
 Mandela, Nelson, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 154
 Market testing biogas, 172–174
 Marshall Plan, 11
 Martenson, Gunnulf, 52
 Marubeni Corporation, 72–73, 75, 81, 85, 99, 163–164
 Masiyiwa, Strive, 111, 112
 Maslow, Abraham, xxiv
 Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 201

- MasterCard, 129, 133
 McCaw Cellular Communications, 78
 MCI, 48, 84
 McKinsey & Company, 68–69
 M-commerce: about, 127; CellBazaar, 142–144, 201; MFIs and, 141–142; potential for growth, 144, 201
 Memorandum of understanding, 73–74, 191
 Methane: biodigesters for, 172, 175; credits for, 175. See also Biogas; Cow dung
 Metro Mobile cell phones, 49
 Mexico, 15, 25
 MFIs (microfinance institutions): currency risks and, 20–21; m-commerce and, 141–142
 Mibanco, 25
 Microfinance: BOP business model, xvii, 129, 130, 203; cell phones and, 127; Clinton's program for, 18; currency risks and, 20–21; foreign investment and, xxxii; Grameen Bank's role in, 17; importance of, 24; interest rates and, 22–24; pre-paid subscriber cards, 125–126; repaying loans with G-Cash, 131; role in Bangladesh solar business, 171–172; Yunus' experiment with microcredit, 18, 19
 Microloans: about, 17; appropriate technology made affordable with, 169; demand for, 24–25; mobile banking and, 139–141; successes of, 161–162
 Micro power plants, 174–176
 Microsoft, 11, 56–57, 98
 Microwave links, 96
 Middlebury College, 43
 Mifos (Microfinance Open Source) project, 141
 Mikati, Azmi, 124
 Mills, Pierre Landel, 82
 Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications (MOPT), 53, 76, 91, 102
 M-Net, 107
 Mobikom, 200
 Mobile banking: in Africa, 132–134; birth of, 127–128; cell phones and, 127; GrameenPhone, 135; m-commerce and MFIs, 141–142; microloans via, 139–141; M-Pesa, 140; remittance flows via cell phones, 134–137; SMS culture needed for, 142–144; social impact of credit, 133; using Smart Money, 129; wealth and, 134–135. See also Credit
 Mobile Systems International (MSI), 114, 115–117
 Mobile-to-mobile networks, 97–99, 154
 MobiNil, 119
 Moe, Trond, 96, 97, 98, 103
 MoneyMaker irrigation pumps, 169, 178
 Money transfers: about, xix; remittance flows via cell phones, 134–137
 Moore's law, xx, 44, 167, 175, 179
 MOPT (Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications), 53, 76, 91, 102
 Motlana, Nthato, 109, 110
 Motorola, xxxiv
 M-Pesa, 140
 MSI (Mobile Systems International), 114, 115, 116–117
 MTC, 120, 149
 MTN: 10 Years of Cellular Freedom, 107–108
 MTN Banking, 132–133
 MTN (Mobile Telephone networks): associated with black-empowerment movement, 110; competitors of, 113, 118; first-mover advantage used by, 110–111; limited interest in sub-Saharan networks, 114; listed on Johannesburg Stock Exchange, 111; mobile banking of, 132–134; number of subscribers of, 155; origins of, 107–108; pre-paid SIM cards, 141; subscribers for, 123, 124; taxes on, 188; village phone model replicated by, 140

Mugabe, Leo, 112
 Mugabe, Robert, 111, 112
 Mujibur Rahman, Sheikh, 6, 45, 82
 Mukherjee, T., 191
 Murrow, Edward R., 182

N

NAFTA (North American Free Trade Agreement), 54
 NAIL (New Africa Investments Limited), 109–110
 National Board of Revenues, 102
 Nazareno, Napoleon L., 129, 130
 Negroponte, Nicholas, 168
 Nepal, 64–65
 Netherlands Development Finance Company, 116
 NetOne, 112
 New Africa Investments Limited (NAIL), 109–110
New Age, 189
New Statesman, The, 94
New York Times, 124
 NGOs (nongovernmental organizations), 59–60
 Nhleko, Phuthuma, 188
 Nippon Telegraph and Telecom (NT&T), 59, 72–73
 NMT (Nordic Mobile Telephone), 51
 Nobel Peace Prize, viii, xviii, 17, 18, 199
 Nokia, 52
 Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 59–60
 NORAD (Norwegian Agency for Development and Cooperation), 48, 51–52, 55–56, 61, 64, 69, 80, 99
 Nordic Mobile Telephone (NMT), 51
 Nordin, Bertil, 52
 North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 54
 Norway, 54, 77, 101
 Norwegian Televerket, 53
 Novak, Robert, xxviii, xxx
 NTT (Nippon Telegraph and Telecom), 59, 72–73
 Nye, Joseph, 163

O

Oberlin College, 37
Ode magazine, 146
 Omidyar, Pierre, 143
 One Laptop Per Child nonprofit organization, 168
 OneWallet software, 138
 Open Society Institute, 100
 Opportunity Bank of Malawi, 133
 Orascom Telecom Holding (OTH):
 about, xix; Banglalink, 124, 185;
 cellular development by, 119–120;
 competitor with GrameenPhone,
 143, 158, 192; investments in Bangladesh, 87; pricing war with GrameenPhone, 120; purchases
 Sheba Telecom, 120
 Ovum, 147

P

Pacific Bangladesh Telecom United (PBTU), 53, 54
 Patel, Praful, 193
 PayPal, 138
 PBTU (Pacific Bangladesh Telecom United), 53, 54
 Peace Corps, 181
 Perry, Wayne, 78
 Personal Handy-Phone System (PHS), 72–73
 Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT), 128
 Philippines: cell phones and GDP, 149; mobile banking in, 127–128; sari sari reseller income in, 153–154; SIM card sales by sari sari owners, 130; texting rates for, 128
 Phone ladies: about, xviii, 14–15; as borrowers from Grameen Bank, xviii, 94, 153; call prices set by, 151; exemplifying inclusive capitalism, 130; first, 90; ideas originating, 40–42; numbers of, 149; social impact of, 152–153
 Phone services: airtime of rural and urban phones, 93; Bangladesh, 10–11; C-DOT, 28–30; CityCell

- service, 53, 55, 84, 128, 185; connectivity and productivity, 9–10, 37; costs of cell phone handsets, xxxiv, 11; fixed-line networks, 97–99, 154; modeling cell phones services, 66–67; myths about cell phones and poor, 38; Pitroda sees opportunities in, 26–29; prepaid cell service, 101; pricing and fees proposed for GrameenPhone, 83–84; Quadir raises investment capital for, 42–44; Quadir's insight into connectivity, 9–10; rates of in Dhaka, 4; Scandinavian, 51–55; telephone culture before GrameenPhone, 45–46; village cell phones, 14–15, 26–31; Yunus urges privatization of, 102–103. See also Village pay phones
- PHS (Personal Handy-Phone System), 72–73
- Pitroda, Sam: communication as basic human need, xxiv; develops IT in India, 26–31; develops OneWallet software, 137–139; as inspiration to Quadir, 121; meets with Yunus and Grameen Bank, 55; returns to India after making wealth, 26, 44; technology as social leveler, xix, 31, 125
- Planet*, 114
- PLDT (Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company), 128
- Politics in Bangladesh, 4–5
- Poor: aggregate wealth of, xxxi; cell phones and, 38; loans to, 22
- Posts and Telecommunications Corporation (PTC), 111–112
- Poverty: aggregate wealth of poor, xxxi; connectivity's reduction of, xxxiv; need for disruptive technology to offset, xxiii; opportunities out of, 147; overcoming with microloans, 161–162; rates of reduction in Bangladesh, 193–195; shocks breaking cycle of, xxi–xxii
- PPP (purchasing power parity) methodology, xxix, 58
- Prahalad, C. K., xxxi
- Prepaid SIM cards: borrowed phones and, 140–141; buying on credit, 130; impact of sari sari resellers, 153–154; mobile banking with, 125–126; MTN's, 141; voice-and-text combinations, 128–129; volume of sales in Africa, xix, 155
- Preston, Billy, xxviii
- Privatization, 108
- ProCredit, 25
- Productivity: connectivity and, 9–10, 37; phone as tool for, 40–42
- Profits: GDP and corporate, 186–187; reinvesting, 157–159, 190–191
- Profund, 20–21
- Project Dignity, 22
- PTC (Posts and Telecommunications Corporation), 111–112
- Purchasing power, xxxi
- Purchasing power parity (PPP) methodology, xxix, 58
- PureTxt 100, 129

Q

- Quadir, Iqbal: about, xviii; appointed to GrameenPhone Steering Committee, 73; on appropriate technology, 169; argues case for Bangladesh telecom investments, 58–61; awarded Rotary SEED Award, 199; calculations of impact of telecom on GDP, 148; call tariffs for village phones, 151; death of father, 6, 7; develops business perspectives, 8–9, 46–47; education of, 7–8, 9; electricity modeling based on Skaar's cell modeling, 176; on electricity production, 171; emigrates to U.S., 7; on fiber-optic opportunity, 48–49, 79; forms Emergence Bio-Energy, 167; influenced by Yunus' philosophy, 35; initial role in GrameenPhone operations, 85; on innovations in technology, 14, 15, 32–33; insight into connectivity, xviii, 9–10, 107; inspirations for

- GrameenPhone by, 3–5; installs base stations out of Dhaka, 92; on interconnection with BTTB, 99; interest in Stirling engine, 166–167, 170; leaves GrameenPhone, 102, 162–163; meets Yunus, 37–38, 39, 41, 42; need for disruptive technology, xxiii; negotiates with Telenor, 69; persuades Grameen as new investor, 61–64; Pitroda’s influence on, 26; prepares rollout strategies, 76–77; proposal to work with BR, 80–81; proposes “cell phone as cow” concept, xviii, 39–42; raises investment capital for phone system, 42–44; reinvests in Gonofone, 100; represents Gonofone in GrameenPhone development, 72, 73; role in Emergence Bio-Energy, 179; seeks funding in Scandinavia, 51–53; sees Bangladesh as sleeping tiger, 16; signs memorandum of understanding, 73–74; on starting small, 12–13; on startup costs of electrical plants, 175–176; submits licensing bid for GrameenPhone, 76; success as native entrepreneur, xxv, xxx, 201; on success of phone ladies, 152–153; teams with Kamen, 165–167; vision for Internet kiosks, 197; works for Grameen Fund, 61
- Quadir, Kamal, 37, 142–143, 201
- Quadir, Khalid, 38–39, 43, 194, 201
- Quadir, Samina, 64
- Qwest Communications, 48
- R
- Rahman, Munshi, xix
- Rahman, Saifur, 189
- Ramaphosa, Cyril, 109
- Rao, Madanmohan, 121
- Reagan, Ronald, 146
- “Real Digital Divide, The” (Economist), xxxii
- REB (Rural Electrification Board), 170
- Reinvesting profits, 157–159, 190–191
- Reliance, 121
- Remittance flows via cell phones, 134–137
- Rockwell International, 26, 27
- Rotary SEED Award, 199
- RTS (Rural Transaction System), 141
- Rural Bankers Association of the Philippines, 131, 139
- Rural Electrification Board (REB), 170
- Rural regions: airtime of callers in, 93, 94, 95; income opportunities in, 150–154
- Rural Transaction System (RTS), 141
- Russell, Leon, xxviii
- S
- Sachs, Jeffrey, xxi
- SA Clothing and Textile Workers Union, 110
- Safaricom, 124, 140
- Sangin, Amir Zai, 53
- Sarin, Arun, 139, 142, 157
- Sari sari* owners, 130, 153–154
- Sawiris, Naguib, 119, 120
- Sawiris, Onsi, 119, 120
- Schumacher, E. F., 167
- SEDF (Soros Economic Development Fund), 100
- Segway Human Transporter, 165
- Self-employment: lowering poverty with, 147. See also Phone ladies; Village pay phones
- Sesay, Emma, xix
- Shams, Khalid: about, 47; advocates public offering of GrameenPhone, 192–193; on BTTB fiber lease, 91; on CellBazaar, 143; connection with Quadir and Yunus, 41, 47; on current GrameenPhone revenues, 151; developing financing and bids for GrameenPhone, 74, 76, 82–83, 84, 85; interest in EDGE technology, 196; on loan from Soros Economic Development fund, 100; negotiates with Telenor for GrameenPhone bid, 68, 69–70,

- 151; offers Quadir job at Grameen Fund, 61; on politics of Bangladesh, 184; silent revolution of cell phones, 145; on structure of Grameen-Phone, 72; Teliya negotiations, 53; on urbanization of Bangladesh, 88; on Yahya, 80
- Shankar, Ravi, xxviii
- SharedPhone, 156–157
- Sharia, 23
- Shaw, Bernard, 32
- Sheba Telecom, 85, 87, 90, 120
- Shell Oil, 6
- Short message service (SMS). See Texting
- SIM cards. See Prepaid SIM cards
- Singh, Herman, 133
- SingTel, 128
- Sirkeinen, Yjro, 52
- Skaar, Inge: as GrameenPhone CEO, 85–86, 87, 88, 89, 96; plan for base station installations, 92; Quadir's electricity modeling based on cell modeling of, 176; role in preparing Telenor bid, 65–68, 69, 74, 75, 76, 77, 79, 83
- Slingshot, 166
- Sloan School of Management, 143
- Small Is Beautiful* (Schumacher), 167
- Smart cards, 133
- Smart Communications: operations of, xix, 123, 128–131; Smart Buddy, 128–129; Smart Load, 129, 130; Smart Money, 129, 138; Smart Padala, 137
- SMS (short message service). See Texting
- Social impacts: of foreign telecom investments, 157–159; information technology as social leveler, xix, 125; loading money onto cell phones, 133–134; of mobile credit, 133; SMS required for mobile banking, 142–144; social change in Bangladesh, 193–195; of Stirling engine on village life, 174; technology-induced paradigm shifts, 139; tradition of oral communications and literacy, 142; of village phone ladies, 14–15, 31, 152–153
- Social Venture Network, 43
- Solar technology, 168, 171
- Solow, Robert, 11–12
- Solow's surprise*, 11–12
- “Song of Bangladesh” (Baez), 5
- Soros Economic Development Fund (SEDF), 100
- Soros, George, xxvi, 43, 100
- Sources of Growth and Productivity in Bangladesh*, 193
- South, xvii
- South Africa: Black Economic Empowerment Act, 110; cellular licensing in, 107
- South African Black Taxi Association, 110
- Standard Bank, 132
- Standby letter of credit (SBLC), 21
- Stanford Graduate School of Business, 24
- Starr, Ringo, xxviii
- Star TV, 32
- Steyn, Warren, 156–157
- Stirling engines, 166–167, 170, 172–174, 176–177, 178
- Stride Rite, 72
- Subscriber identity module (SIM) cards. See Prepaid SIM cards
- Sun Microsystems, 24
- Sustainability, xx
- Swarthmore College, 8
- Synvis, Odd, 57, 60, 61, 64
- Syriatel, 120

T

- Tammany Hall, 184
- Tata Group, 58, 190–191
- Tax and the Digital Divide* (GSM), 188
- Taxes: Bangladesh cell phone, 185–187; changes after removal of mobile-specific, 187–188

- Technology: appropriate, 167–169; economic growth and addition of machines, 11–12; as social leveler, xix, 125; technology-induced paradigm shifts, 139
- Telecel, 112
- Telecom in sachets, 129, 130, 153–154
- Telecommons Development Group, 136, 151
- Telecon, 52
- Telekom Malaysia, 84
- Telenor: about, xviii; arguments for backing GrameenPhone, 77; backs GSM design, 56; in Gonofone share negotiations, 164; GP-GP all-mobile service, 98; increases investment in GrameenPhone, 99; international investment experience of, 71, 82; invest in GrameenPhone's licensing bid, 65, 67–68, 69, 72, 74, 77, 82; on IPO listing for GrameenPhone, 192–193; as partner with Telia, 52–53, 60; pleased with GrameenPhone performance, 199–200; Quadir loses board seat for, 102; reinvestment vs. repatriation of profits, 158; requests fiber-optic support in Bangladesh, 61; Skaar serves as GrameenPhone CEO, 85–86, 87, 88, 89, 96; sponsors feasibility study for GrameenPhone, 64; Synvis supports Quadir's vision, 57–58, 60
- Telenor Consult, 64
- Teleplan, 56, 168
- Teletalk, 124
- Telia International, 52–54, 56–57, 60, 62, 64, 71, 121
- Telkom, 107–108, 110
- Texting: cash to cell subscribers, 131; casting votes for Bangladesh Idol via, 142; GrameenPhone initiation of, 101; messages from GrameenPhone, 181–182; mobile banking and, 142–144; Philippine rates for, 128; prepaid cards for voice-and-text, 128–129
- Tiger economies, xxxiii, 16
- Time* magazine, 6
- Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index, xxvii, 85
- Treaties protecting foreign investments, 54
- Tufts University, 153
- Txt Bak Mo, 132
- U
- UAE Etisalat, 149
- UAE Exchange Wallet, 137–138
- UBS Global Research, 60
- UCOM, 62
- United Nations Development Programme, 193
- University of Wales, 112
- Urbanization of Bangladesh, 88
- US WEST, 48
- V
- Vanderbilt University, 18
- VCom, 117
- VCRs, 31
- Venture capital. See Capital
- Village pay phones (VPPs): development of, 92–95; Emergence Bio-Energy model vs., 177–178; ideas originating, 40–42; impact of in Bangladesh, 14–15; increases in, 150–152; as instrument of social change, 31; microfinance and, 139; origins in India of, 26–31; PC model for viability of, 66–67; planning leading to, 66; prepaid service for, 101; remittances via, 136–137; replicated in Africa, 140; Soros's support of, 100
- Villers, Phil, 72
- Virgin Group, 118
- Virgin Mobile, 118
- Vishnui, Deepak, 32
- Vodacom, 110, 113, 114, 118, 119, 154–155
- Vodafone, 110, 124, 139, 142, 157

W

- Wajed, Sheikh Hasina, 6, 82, 84, 89–90
- Waldorf College, 7
- Wallah, 31
- Warid Telecom, 124, 143, 158, 185, 189, 192
- Water purification devices, 166
- Waverman, Leonard, 151
- Wealth and Poverty of Nations* (Lan-des), xxii
- Wealth creation: appropriate technology and, 167–169; building middle-class with information technology, 146; contributions by foreign investments, 145–146; inclusive capitalism and, xxxi; mobile banking and, 134–135; overview of, 145–146; private enterprise's role in, xxx–xxxii; rates of poverty reduction in Bangladesh, 193–195; rural income opportunities and, 150–154; village phones' role in, 152
- Western Union, 136, 137
- Wharton School of University of Pennsylvania, 8, 9, 45
- Whole Earth Catalog* (Brand), 167
- Wired* magazine, 31
- Wireless networks, 194
- WIZZIT, 133
- Wolfe, Tom, 9
- Women: birth rate and employment, 60; as loan recipients, 22; phone ladies, 14–15, 152–153; roles in Bangladesh, 4–5. See also Phone ladies
- Wood, Tim, 140
- World Bank, xxviii, xxxi, 8–9, 11, 26, 43, 54, 74, 82, 97, 135, 140–141, 150, 193, 194
- World Economic Forum, 163
- WorldPaper, The*, 41, 94
- World Resources Institute, 129, 130, 155
- WorldTel, 55

Y

- Yahya, Mokkaram, 48, 80
- Yunus, Muhammad: assists Quadir's telecom development, 47, 52, 53, 64, 67, 68, 69, 83, 84; awarded Rotary SEED Award, 199; backs Quadir's rollout strategies, 76–77; as Bangladesh cabinet member, 82; banking strategies of, 25–26; envisions universal phone service, xxx; experiment with microcredit, 18, 19; founds Grameen Bank, 18–19, 36; on GP-GP service, 97–98, 99, 154; graduating from poverty with connectivity, xxxiv; international influence of, 17–18, 82, 161; loan policies of, 21–22; meets with Pitroda, 55; negotiates with Telia, 53–54, 60; optimistic about GDP growth rate, 194; philosophy of, 35; on politics of Bangladesh, 184; price issues for village phone system, 66; Quadir meets, 37–38, 39, 41, 42; role in GrameenPhone, 70, 71–72, 73, 85, 100; on social effect of Grameen Bank and GrameenPhone, 146–147; on success of phone ladies, 152–153; suggests Quadir approach NORAD, 61; urges privatization of communications, 102–103

Z

- Zephyr Asset Management, 116
- Zia, General, 45
- Zia, Khaleda, 82, 183, 196
- Zimbabwe telecom development, 111–112