
INDEX

- Aardvark Industries Ltd. See Wendals Foods case study
- ABB. See Activity-based budgeting
- ABC (activity-based costing). See also ABM
- ABC-to-ABM conversion, 126–129
- best practices for, 40–41
- business reasons for, 40
- ABC/M. See ABC; ABM
- ABM (activity-based management), xvii–xix, xxiii, 7–8, 17. See also ABC
- ABC-to-ABM conversion, 126–129
- anxiety about strategies, 54–55
- benefits of. See Benefits of ABM
- consistent application of, 40–41
- implementation of. See Implementation of ABM
- time-driven (pull descriptive) costing, xxv–xxviii, 122–123, 147
- Value Cycle, 39–40
- Accounting, xx–xxi
- Accounting maturity, xxiii–xxiv
- Activity-based budgeting, xxiv–xxv, xxviii, 110, 119, 123–124
- Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 124–130
- Activity-based costing. See ABC (activity-based costing)
- Activity-based management. See ABM (activity-based management)
- Activity-related vs. volume-related costs. See LubeOil Corporation case study
- Admissions process (HomeHealth case study), 45–46
- Alignment of employee behavior, 5–6
- Allocating costs, xxii
- Antos, John, 95, 106
- Anxiety about ABM strategies, 54–55. See also Communicating strategy to employees
- Armed forces. See Canaraus Armed Forces case study
- Assignment costing, xxiv–xxvi, 120–122
- Automobile, performance management as, 16–18
- Back-office systems, 15, 18
- Baker Street Snacks, 145
- Balanced scorecards, 8–10
- Behavior of employees, 5–6
- Benefits of ABM (case studies):
- Canaraus Armed Forces, 88
 - check printing (SuperDraft Corporation), 71–73
 - home health care (HomeHealth Network), 53–54
 - lubricants (LubeOil Corporation), 32–35
 - snack foods (Wendals Foods), 143
 - trucking (Sierra Trucks Corporation), 113, 131
- Best Brands Ltd. See Wendals Foods case study
- Best practices for ABC, 40–41
- Bottom-up costing. See Predictive costing
- BPM (business performance management), 3, 91–92
- Budgeting. See Activity-based budgeting
- Business intelligence gap, 6–7
- Business performance management (BPM), 3, 91–92

- Business reasons for ABC, 40
- Buy-in, managerial. See Commitment to ABM methodology
- Calibration and validation of data, 123
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 130
- CAM-I Process Classification Framework, 46–47, 62
- Canarus Armed Forces case study, 81–94
 - commitment to ABM methodology, 89
 - communicating strategy to employees, 88–89
 - implementation, 86–88
 - initial benefits and lessons learned, 88–90
 - initial efforts and pilot, 84–85
 - next steps and current state, 90–92
 - organizational background, 83
 - project planning and design, 86–88
- Car, performance management as, 16–18
- Case studies:
 - Canarus Armed Forces, 81–94
 - HomeHealth Network, 39–63
 - LubeOil Corporation, 21–38
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation, 109–115, 117–133
 - Standard Loan, 95–108
 - SuperDraft Corporation, 65–79
 - Wendals Foods, 135–148
- Categorization of customers and products, 35
- Check printing. See SuperDraft Corporation case study
- Cokins, Gary, 37, 54, 60, 88, 92
- Commitment to ABM methodology, 41
 - Canarus Armed Forces case study, 89
 - SuperDraft Corporation case study, 68
- Communicating strategy to employees, 5–6
 - Canarus Armed Forces case study, 88–89
 - LubeOil Corporation case study, 54–55
 - SuperDraft Corporation case study, 68
- Consistent application of ABC methodology, 40–41
- Constraint-based costing, xxix–xxx
- Consumption costing, 123–124
- Corporate performance management (CPM), 3
- Correct cost, nonexistence of, xx
- Cost allocations, xxii
- Cost reduction opportunities, 35
 - documentation costs (HomeHealth case study), 45, 59
 - scheduling costs (HomeHealth case study), 58–59
- CPM (corporate performance management), 3
- Culture of performance management, 38.
 - See also* Management commitment
 - LubeOil Corporation case study, 24, 33
- Customer categorization, 35
- Customer focus (satisfaction), 11–12
 - SuperDraft Corporation case study, 72–73
- Customer microsegmentation, 12, 15
- Customer value, 12–13, 17
- Data collection strategy, 89–90, 123
 - ABC-to-ABM conversion, 126–128
 - validation and calibration, 123, 130
- Data management. See Information technology (IT)
- Data validation and calibration, 123
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 130
- Decision-making process, 36
- Descriptive pull costing, xxvi–xxviii, 122–123, 147
- Descriptive push costing, xxiv–xxvi, 120–122
- Design of ABM projects:
 - Canarus Armed Forces, 86–88
 - HomeHealth Network, 48–53
 - LubeOil Corporation, 27–32
 - resource balance, 40
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation, 120
 - Standard Loan, 102–104
- DND. See Canarus Armed Forces case study
- Documentation costs (HomeHealth case study), 45, 59

- Economic value of business intelligence, 6
- Employee behavior, 5–6
- Employees, communication with. See Communicating strategy to employees
- Employees, value to, 13, 18
- EPM (enterprise performance management), 3
- Executing strategy. See Performance management (PM)
- Expense reduction opportunities, 35
 - documentation costs (HomeHealth case study), 45, 59
 - scheduling costs (HomeHealth case study), 58–59
- Facts, need for, 7–8
- Fear of ABM strategies, 54–55. See also Communicating strategy to employees
- Financial services. See Standard Loan case study
- Focusing on customers, 11–12
 - SuperDraft Corporation case study, 72–73
- Food snacks. See Wendals Foods case study
- Franklin, Jason, 111
- Front-office systems, 15, 17
- GPK (Grenzplankostenrechnung) method, xxviii
- Health care. See HomeHealth Network case study
- HH. See HomeHealth Network case study
- Historical costing, xxiv–xxvi, 120–122
- HomeHealth Network case study, 39–63
 - admissions process, 45–46
 - documentation costs, 45, 59
 - initial benefits and lessons learned, 53–55
 - initial efforts and pilot, 43–46
 - intake referral process, 44–45
 - model building, 47–53
 - next steps and current state, 56–60
 - organizational background, 42
 - project planning and design, 48–53
 - rollout phase, 46–47
 - scheduling costs, 58–59
- Hornby, Jonathan, 81, 93
- Implementation of ABM. See also Planning ABM implementation
 - Canarus Armed Forces, 86–88
 - check printing (SuperDraft Corporation), 69–71
 - financial services (Standard Loan), 101–102
 - home health care (HomeHealth Network), 46–47
 - lubricants (LubeOil Corporation), 27–32
 - snack foods (Wendals Foods), 140–142
- Implementation teams:
 - Canarus Armed Forces, 86
 - HomeHealth Network, 47–48
 - LubeOil Corporation, 27
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation, 112, 120
 - Standard Loan, 101–102
 - SuperDraft Corporation, 69
- Implementation specialists, 27
- Indirect expenses, xxi–xxii
- Information evolution model, 81, 93–94
- Information technology (IT), 7, 18–19
 - customer microsegmentation, 12
- Intake referral process (HomeHealth case study), 44–45
- Integrated performance management, 14–16
- Kang, Thomas M., 21, 38
- Kaplan, Robert S., 36, 60, 67
- Knowledge management, 19
- KPIs (key performance indicators), 9–10, 16
- Lessons learned:
 - Canarus Armed Forces, 88–90
 - check printing (SuperDraft Corporation), 74
 - health care (HomeHealth Network), 54–55

- Lessons learned (cont.)
 lubricants (LubeOil Corporation), 32–35
 snack foods (Wendals Foods), 143–144
 trucking (Sierra Trucks Corporation), 131–132
- Levels of maturity, 81, 93–94
- Loan programs. See Standard Loan case study
- Local decision making (LubeOil Corporation), 27, 28
- Logistics operations, 35
- LubeOil Corporation case study, 21–38
 communicating strategy to employees, 54–55
 culture of performance management, 24, 33 global implementation, 27–32
 initial benefits and lessons learned, 32–36
 initial efforts and pilot, 25–27
 local decision making, 27, 28 manufacturing methodology, 29–31
 marketing and sales methodology, 31–32
 next steps and current state, 36–38
 organizational background, 22–25
 project planning and design, 27–32
 shared expenses, 32
- Managed care. See HomeHealth Network case study
- Management commitment, 41. See also Culture of performance management
 Canaraus Armed Forces case study, 89
 SuperDraft Corporation case study, 68
- Managerial accounting, xx
- Management strategy. See Performance management (PM)
- Manufacturing methodology (LubeOil case study), 29–31
- Marketing and sales methodology:
 LubeOil case study, 31–32
 SuperDraft Corporation case study, 72–73
- Maturity, accounting, xxiii–xxiv
- Maturity levels, 81, 93–94
- Microsegmenting of customers, 12, 15
- Miller, John A., 39, 55, 61
- Mobil Corporation, 21, 38
- Model building, 47–53
- Nair, Mohan, 77
- Nevin, Lee, 25. See also LubeOil Corporation case study
- Norton, David P., 36
- Not-for-profit sector, 4
- OLAP (Online Analytical Processing), 108
- Operational control, RCA for, xxviii
- Organizational issues (case studies):
 Canaraus Armed Forces, 83
 HomeHealth Network, 42
 LubeOil Corporation, 22–25
 Sierra Trucks Corporation, 111, 118–119
 Standard Loan, 97
 SuperDraft Corporation, 66–68
 Wendals Foods, 136–138
- Output costing, RCA for, xxix
- Output-driven costing, xxvi–xxviii, 122–123, 147
- Overhead expense allocation, xxii
- Performance management (PM), 1–19 automobile analogy for, 16–18 culture of, 24, 33, 38 defined, 2–4
 as framework for value creation, 12–14 as integrated system, 14–16 purpose of, 11
- Performance management culture, 38. See also Management commitment
 LubeOil Corporation case study, 24, 33
- Pilot phase (case studies):
 Canaraus Armed Forces, 85
 HomeHealth Network, 40, 44–46
 LubeOil Corporation, 26–27
 Standard Loan, 97–101
 Wendals Foods, 138–140
- Planning ABM implementation:
 Canaraus Armed Forces, 86–88
 HomeHealth Network, 48–53

- LubeOil Corporation, 27–32
 - resource balance, 40
- Sierra Trucks Corporation, 120
- Standard Loan, 102–104
- PM. See Performance management (PM)
- Precision, as myth, xx
- Predictive costing, xxiv–xxv, xxviii, 110, 119, 123–124
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 124–130
- Priority, ABM as. See Commitment to ABM methodology
- Product categorization, 35
- Project planning and design:
 - Canaraus Armed Forces, 86–88
 - HomeHealth Network, 48–53
 - LubeOil Corporation, 27–32
 - resource balance, 40
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation, 120
 - Standard Loan, 102–104
- Project teams and timeline (case studies):
 - Canaraus Armed Forces, 86
 - HomeHealth Network, 47–48
 - LubeOil Corporation, 27
 - Sierra Trucks Corporation, 112, 120
 - Standard Loan, 101–102
 - SuperDraft Corporation, 69
- Public sector, PM for, 4
- Pull descriptive costing (time-driven ABC), xxvi–xxviii, 122–123, 147
- Push descriptive costing, xxiv–xxvi, 120–122

- RCA. See Resource consumption accounting (RCA)
- Reducing costs, 35
 - documentation costs (HomeHealth case study), 45, 59
 - scheduling costs (HomeHealth case study), 58–59
- Referral process (HomeHealth case study), 44–45
- Resource balance, 40
- Resource consumption accounting (RCA), xxviii–xxix, 147. See also Consumption costing

- Rollout phase. See Implementation of ABM

- Sales and marketing methodology:
 - LubeOil case study, 31–32
 - SuperDraft Corporation case study, 72–73
- Satisfaction, customer, 11–12, 72–73
- Scheduling costs (HomeHealth case study), 58–59
- Scorecards, 8–10
- SD. See SuperDraft Corporation case study
- Segmentation of customers and products, 12, 15, 35
- Shared expenses, xxi–xxii
 - LubeOil Corporation case study, 32
- Shareholder value, 12–13, 17
- Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 109–115, 117–133
 - activity-based budgeting, 124–130
 - data validation and calibration, 130
 - implementation of ABM, 124–130
 - initial benefits, 131
 - initial efforts and pilot, 119
 - lessons learned, 131–132
 - organizational background, 111, 118–119
 - project planning and design, 120
 - project teams and timeline, 120
 - results of ABM implementation, 113
- Snack foods. See Wendals Foods case study
- Software. See Information technology (IT)
- Sponsorship of ABM. See Commitment to ABM methodology
- Stages of accounting maturity, xxiii–xxiv
- Standard Loan case study, 95–108
 - initial efforts and pilot, 97–101
 - next steps and current state, 104–106
 - organizational background, 97
 - project planning and design, 102–104
 - rollout phase, 101–102
- Strategy, 60
 - alignment of employee behavior, 5–6
 - communicating to employees, 5–6, 54–55, 68, 88–89

- Strategy (cont.)
 for data collection, 89–90, 123, 126–128 execution of. See Performance management (PM)
- Strategy maps, 9
- Stratton, Alan, 110, 115, 117, 133
- SuperDraft Corporation case study, 65–79
 commitment to ABM methodology, 68
 communicating strategy to employees, 68
 customer focus, 72–73
 implementation of ABM, 69–71
 initial benefits and lessons learned, 71–74
 initial efforts and pilot, 68
 marketing and sales methodology, 72–73
 next steps and current state, 74–77
 organizational background, 66–68
- Supplier-employee value, 13, 18
- Teams, implementation. See
 Implementation teams
- Theory of constraints (TOC), xxix
- Thompson, Jeff, 135, 145
- Throughput accounting, xxix–xxx
- Time-based activity-based costing, xxvi–xxviii, 122–123, 147
- Timeline. See Project teams and timeline
- TOC (theory of constraints), xxix
- Top-down costing, xxiv–xxvi, 120–122
- Trucking. See Sierra Trucks Corporation case study
- Vadgama, Ashok, 65, 76
- Validation of data, 123
 Sierra Trucks Corporation case study, 130
- Value, 12–14, 17–18
- Value Cycle, ABM, 39–40
- Vision statement, 3, 89
 communicating strategy to employees, 5–6
- Volume-related vs. activity-related costs.
See LubeOil Corporation case study
- Wendals Foods case study, 135–148 current state and future studies, 144–145
 implementation of ABM, 140–142
 initial benefits and lessons learned, 143–144
 initial efforts and pilot, 138–140
 organizational background, 136–138
- Work activities, 8

