INDEX

ABI, see Actionable brand idea
Acquisition channels, 149
Action(s). See also Engagement in advertising technology ecosystem, 203
call to, 142
in traditional marketing, 21–22 triggered by emotion, 101–102
Actionable brand idea (ABI), 43–44 developing, 53–54
in ROE², 54–55
Actionable business ideas, 43–45
Adaptation, 176–178
AdChoices, 204–205
Adobe, 68, 185, 188
Advertising message, 141
Advertising technology (ad tech), 201–206 audience, 201–202
data, 202–203
and power of people, 205–206 privacy, 203–205
Alignment: with image and values, 105–107
as motivator, 124
“Always on,” 7
Amazon.com, 10, 154
American Apparel, 4 Amplification effect, 41–51. See also Return on Experience × Engagement (ROE2)
actionable brand ideas in, 43, 44 actionable business ideas in, 43–45 application of, 42–43 in automobile industry, 130–133 and campaign calendars, 49–50 experience and engagement in, 41–42
impact of timing in, 45–46 and return on investment, 46–49 turning knowledge into strategies for, 50
Analysis technologies, 183, 184
Angie’s list, 113–120
Apple, 20, 65
Atomic moments of truth, 25, 27–39 customer awareness in, 31–32 harnessing, 27–28
at Hilton Hotels, 38–39 importance of, 31
managing, 34–36
meaning of, 30
recognizing, 28–30
and top challenges in marketing, 36–38
value in play during, 32–34
AT&T, 199

Attribution:
- of business outcomes, 186
- multichannel, 179–180

Audience:
- global, 11
- for online advertising, 201–202

Audience-targeted media buying, 202

Automobile industry, 121–133
- amplification effect in, 130–133
- commitment to dealership, 129–131
- delivering on promises, 127
- drivers of consumer behavior, 122
- and functionality as motivation, 122–124
- impact of recalls, 128–129
- and intent to repurchase, 123–128

Awareness:
- in atomic moments of truth, 31–32
- consumer, 212
- of individuals' values, 19

Bad customer experiences, 152, 153

Balance of power, 11

Behavioral tracking technologies, 212

Bernbach, Bill, 137

Big Data, 80, 193–200
- for better decision making, 197–198
- for delighting and surprising customers, 195–197
- emerging opportunities for, 198–199
- making sense of, 157–158
- for more relevant customer connections, 193–194
- skills for leveraging, 199–200

Big Data era, 190–191

Boring content, 145–146

Brady, Patrick, 113–119

Brand(s):
- customer commitment to, 85–87, 111–112
- discount vs. premium, 90–92
- feelings about, 19, 20. See also Experience
- in grocery industry, 83–84
- intent to repurchase, 124–128
- interactions with, 22. See also Engagement
- new opportunities for, 6–7
- perceived stature of, 109
- representatives of, 65
- shift of power to consumers from, 11
- social impacts of, 11–12

Brand characters, 140

Brand equity:
- and customer experience, 110–111
- drivers of, 104–109
- and emotional connections, 89–90, 111
- and engagement level, 110
- in hospitality industry, 104–110
- measures of, 56–57
- and trust, 88

Brand exposure, 153

Brand recalls, 128–129

Broken promises, 36–37

Brown, Donaldson, 47–48

Buick, 20

Business equity:
- and customer experience, 110–111
- drivers of, 104–109
- and emotional connections, 89–90, 111
- and engagement level, 110
Index

in hospitality industry, 104–110
- measures of, 56–57
- and trust, 88

Business intelligence tools, 186

Business outcomes:
- attribution of, 186
- drivers of, 112
- and emotional connections, 91, 102–103
- experience impacting, 99–100
- impact of emotion vs. logic/reason on, 86–89
- measures of, 177–178
- with ROE, 59

Business problem, decomposing, 209

Cadence of touches, 45–46

Call centers, moments of truth for, 29

Campaign calendars, 49–50

Capabilities, confluence of, 23–24

Car buying and servicing, see Automobile industry

Careful content, 144

Carlyle, Thomas, 166

Causality, 37, 169

Channels, 147–163
- challenges with cross-channel experiences, 156–161
- and changes in customer expectations, 151
- cross-channel marketing, 150
- defined, 147–148
- digital, 4–6, 14, 148–149
- evolution of, 163
- improving customer experiences across, 161–163

interactions and consumer experience, 150–151
- key trends for, 153–156
- in me economy, 13
- proliferation and fragmentation of, 4, 5
- qualities of customer experiences, 151–153

Channel metrics, 167–168

Chief privacy officers (CPOs), 216

Cinco the Dog campaign, 54

CMSs (content management systems), 185

Coca-Cola, 20

Collectible posters, 139

Commitment, see Customer commitment

Committee think, 142

Communication:
- for connection, 18–19
- process of, 177–178

Confidence, as motivator, 124

Connections:
- among consumers, 7–8
- core elements of, 18–20
- with customers, see Customer connections
- Hierarchy of, 17–18
- as motivators, 124

Consistency:
- in addressing privacy issues, 220
- of communication process, 177
- of marketing process, 67–68

Constant Contact, 68, 187

Consumers:
- empowerment of, 11–12
- flow of data controlled by, 220
Consumers (Continued)
interconnectedness of, 7–8 knowledge of marketing among, 12–13 marketers’ knowledge of, 24
and privacy of information, 211–221
shift of power from brand to, 11
Consumer Assigned Value, 138
Consumer behavior, shifts in, xii–xiii, 7–11
Consumer/customer expectations, 7 changes in, 151
for content and communication, 10–11 escalation of, 155–156
Consumer/customer experience, see Experience Content, 137–146
challenges with, 142–144
customization of, 37–38
defined, 138–139
evolution of, 139–140
key trends for, 140–142
overcoming challenges with, 144–146
and ROE, 137–138
tapping power of, 146
user-generated, 4
Content management, 143
in managing moments of truth, 35
technologies for, 183, 185
Content management systems (CMSs), 185
Content marketing, 145, 146
Cookies, 205, 212
Costello, John, 75–81
CPNI (customer proprietary network information), 204
CPOs (chief privacy officers), 216
Creative approaches, 37–38
Cross-channel marketing, 150
challenges with, 156–161
improving experiences in, 161–163
Culture, engaging with, 146
Customers:
brand representation by, 65
organizing around, 64–66 recognizing, across channels, 159 respect for, 215–216
in rethinking measurement, 63–64
Customer commitment: to automobile dealerships, 125, 129–131
to brands, 111–112
to hotel brand, 85–87
Customer connections, xiv, 17–25
atomic moments of truth in, 25 Big Data in creating, 193–194 confluence of capabilities for, 23–24
core elements of, 18–20
in current era, 22–23
by Dunkin’ Donuts, 75–81 emotional and experiential, 20–21 igniting new connections, see Transformation strategies levels of, 17–18
with linking, 183
and marketers’ knowledge of consumers, 24 transactional, 21–22
Customer infrastructure, 71
Index

Customer proprietary network information (CPNI), 204
Customer satisfaction, 84–85

Data, 97. See also Big Data access to, 23 availability of, 23
best practices in using, 204–205 complexity, accuracy, and value of, 202 cost of gathering, 212 distribution of, 175–176
exponential increase in, 212 for measurement and segmentation, 174–175 for online marketing/advertising, 202–203 ownership and protection of, 64 reasons for gathering, 213 respecting, 215
streamlined access to, 64
Data accumulation technologies, 182, 184
Database evolution, 183
Data deluge, 4
Data ingestion tools, 183
Data management, 23
in advertising technology ecosystem, 203
integrated, 183
in managing moments of truth, 35
master strategy for, 208
Data management technologies, 182, 184
Data mining, 145, 194
Data science, 184
Data sources, in advertising technology ecosystem, 203
Data visualization tools, 186
Data warehousing, 189–190
Death by committee, 142
Decision making:
Big Data for, 197–198
in managing moments of truth, 35, 45
rational vs. emotional, 83
real-time, 184
Decision space, 8, 63
Delighting customers, 195–197
Delivering on promises, 127
Devices: increase in, 4
mobile, 154–155
Digital channels, 148–149
convergence with, 14 data deluge from, 4
and global marketing, 5–6 opportunities created by, 6
Direct channels, 149
Direct marketing, 14, 160
Direct Marketing Association (DMA), 204, 216
Disney, 110
Disruption, in information flow, 4
DMA (Direct Marketing Association), 204, 216
Dove, 21, 53
Dunkin' Donuts, 75–81
DuPont, 47–48
Economies of one, 13
E-mail addresses, 31–32
Emotion(s): in car buying, 122–124
connection between experience, engagement, and, 102–104 and customer satisfaction, 84–85
as differentiator, 92
experience impacted by, 99–100 impact of, 86–87
information available about, 11 interaction inspired by, 101–102 linking experience and, 84–87 logical reasoning vs., 88–89
price vs., 90–92
Emotional connections, 19–21.
See also Experience(s) and brand/business equity, 89–90
and business outcomes, 86
Emotional segmentation, 172–173
Empowerment of consumers, 11–12
Engagement:
combined with experience, 41–42
See also Amplification effect
connection between emotion, engagement, and, 84, 102–104
defined, 42, 55
as differentiator, 92
as driver of perception and action, 101–102
emotional, 21
information available about, 11
interactions creating, 150–151
linking emotions and, 84–87
measures of, 56
new models of, 154
qualities of, 151–153
sources of, 42
Experiential connections, 20–21
Experimentation, 67
Experts, lack of, 143

Experience(s): across channels, 161–163
as aspect of content, 138
and brand/business equity, 110–111 business outcomes impacted by, 99–100
combined with engagement, 41–42.
See also Amplification effect
connection between emotion, engagement, and, 102–104
defined, 42, 55
as differentiator, 92
as driver of perception and action, 101–102
emotional, 21
information available about, 11
interactions creating, 150–151
linking emotions and, 84–87
measures of, 56
new models of, 154
qualities of, 151–153
sources of, 42
Experiential connections, 20–21
Experimentation, 67
Experts, lack of, 143

Facebook, 195
Facebook Exchange, 187
Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 204
Fans, moments of truth for, 29
FedEx, 43–45
Feelings, see Emotional connections
Flexibility, 68, 174
Foodland, 91
FootClicks, 31
Frequency of touches, 45–46
Functionality, as motivation, 122–124
Index 235

Gap, 176
GEICO Gecko, 140
Global content, 141
GlowCap, 198–199
Goals, clarity of, 144
Great customer experiences, 151–152
Grocery industry, 83–92 emotional connections and brand/business equity, 89–90 emotion and experience as differentiators, 92 emotions and customer satisfaction, 84–85 and emotions vs. logical reasoning, 88–89 establishing trust, 87–88 impact of emotions, 86–87 linking emotion and experience, 84 price vs. emotion in, 90–92

Hadoop Distributed File System (HDFS), 183, 197
Haidt, Jonathan, 88
  The Happiness Hypothesis (Jonathan Haidt), 88
HDFS (Hadoop Distributed File System), 183, 197
Hierarchy of Connections, 17–18
Hierarchy of Needs, 17, 18
Hierarchy of Relationships, 66
Hilton Hotels, 110, 176–177
Hollywood, 143
Hospitality industry, 99–112 connection between experience, emotion, and engagement, 102–104 customer commitment to brand, 111–112 customer experience and brand/business equity, 110–111
  drivers of brand and business equity, 104–109 emotion inspiring interaction in, 101–102 experience impacting business outcomes, 99–100 iteration driving engagement in, 101–102
HubSpot, 68, 187
IAB (Internet Architecture Board), 204
IBM, 68, 188
Identification: of customers across channels, 159
  in managing moments of truth, 35
Identity management, 182
IGA, 92
Inaccurate measurement, 37
Incrementality, 37, 169
Individual campaign metrics, 167
Information:
  for connection, 19
  data deluge, 4
  and global infrastructure, 5–6
  increasing media, devices, and disruption, 4 islands of, 37 privacy of, 211–221
  shifts in production of/access to, 3–11
  Information technology–marketing partnership, 207
Integrated data management, 183
Intelligence, in managing moments of truth, 35
Intelligent anonymity, 204
Intent to repurchase, 123–128
Internet, 6
Internet Architecture Board (IAB), 204
“Internet of Things,” 162
Investment allocation, 169–171
Inward-focused content, 144
Irrelevance, opportunity cost of, 34
Islands of information, 37
IT–marketing partnership, 207

JCPenney, 93–98

Knowledge:
as power, 24–25
of privacy issues, 216 turned into strategies, 50

Last click measurement, 179
Lean back channels, 78
Lean in communications, 78
Learning agenda, 67–68
Leveraging skills, 64, 199–200
Lifetime value, 168
Linking tools, 183
Logical reasoning, emotions vs., 88–89
Longer-term goals, 46
Long-term value, 171
Loyalty:
as competitive weapon, 72 defining, 70–71
earning, 11
recognition for, 106, 108
Loyalty programs, 38–39, 70–72
Machine learning, 184
Marketing automation, 189–190
Marketing campaigns, 8, 9, 49–50
Marketing clouds, 186–189
Marketing interactions, 8–11
Marketing investment allocation, 169–171
Marketing–IT partnership, 207
Marketing landscape, 3–15 changes in consumer behavior, 7–11 customer knowledge of marketing, 12–13
empowerment of consumers, 11–12
the me economy, 13
tectonic shifts in, 3–7
Marriott, 110
Maslow, Abraham, 18
Mass marketing, 14, 78
Mass media, 14
Mead, 54
Measurement, 165
changing landscape of, 171 consistency of, 67
of cross-channel interaction, 160–161 elements of, 169 inaccurate, 37
renewed focus on, 166
rethinking, 62–64
of return, in ROE, 55–58
return on investment, 46–49
and ROE, 165, 180
strategies for, 177–180
technologies for, 183, 185–186
trends in, 173–177
types of, 166–169
Media, 4, 153
Media buying, 202
Index

Media message, 141
Media programs, management of, 206
Me economy, 13
Miss-to-hit ratio, 142–143
Mobile technology:
  opportunities created by, 6
  as platform vs. channel, 154–155
Moments of truth, see Atomic moments of truth
Multichannel attribution, 179–180
Multiple regression analysis, 58

NASCAR, 45
No Frills, 91

Omnidata for omnichannel approach, 206
On-demand technology model, 209
Online advertising/marketing, see Advertising technology (ad tech)
Opting out, 215
Oracle, 68, 187
Oracle SalesForce, 188
Organization, around customers, 64–66
Overloaded content, 144

Partnerships, IT–marketing, 207
Peer reviews, 7–8
People:
  brand representation by, 65
  as heart of marketing, 210 need for human brain power, 205–206 Perception: experiences as driver of, 101–102
  of stature, 109
Performance, longitudinal view of, 178–179
Personal attributes, business outcomes and, 86
Personalization, 141, 162
Personally identifiable information (PII), 205
PGA, 45
Pillsbury Doughboy, 140
Point of purchase, 63
Potential value, 170–171
Price, emotion vs., 90–92
Privacy, 211–221
  best practices with, 204–205 company knowledge about, 216 as major issue, 211–213 in online transactions, 203–205 principles in addressing, 220–221 and reasons for gathering data, 213 and respect for customers, 215–216 responsibility for, 216–220
  and transparency, 214–215
Privacy policy, 214–216
Privacy protections, 213
Procter & Gamble, 139
Programmatic media buying, 202 Promises: broken, 36–37
  delivering on, 127
Purchase path, nonlinear, 8, 9, 63

Radio, branded content in, 139
Real-time adaptation, 176–177
INDEX

Real-time cross-channel interaction, 159–160
Real-time decision making, 35, 184
Recalls, 128–129
Recognition, for loyalty, 106, 108
Recognizing customers, across channels, 159
Records of interactions, in managing moments of truth, 35–36, 45
Recyclebank, 176
Reputation, 109
Respect for customers, 215–216
Responsibility, for privacy, 216–220
Retailers, moments of truth for, 29, 31
Returns, measuring, 55–58
Return on Experience × Engagement (ROE²), x–xii, 53–59, 223–224. See also specific topics in automobile industry, 121–133 in grocery industry, 83–92 in hospitality industry, 99–112 implementing technology for, 207–210 improved business outcomes with, 59 math behind, 57–58 and measurement, 180 measuring return, 55–58 as metric, 168 promise of, 54–55 technologies enabling, 181–183 Return on investment (ROI), 46–49 ROE², see Return on Experience × Engagement
Ronald McDonald, 140
Segmentation, 165 and Big Data technology, 194 changing landscape of, 171 elements of, 169 emotional, 172–173 in ROE², 165 technologies for, 183–185 Self-image, alignment with, 105–107 Share of wallet (SOW), 170, 175 Sharing, 141 Silver, Nate, 12 SiteCore, 185 Smith, Elmer, 93–97 Sobey's, 92 Social channels, 149 Social engagement, 24 Social gaming, 154 Social impact, 11–12 Social media: challenges of, 156 feedback from, 176 information volunteered through, 11 opportunities created by, 6 power of, 9 SOW (share of wallet), 170, 175 Speed, in current marketing landscape, 6 Staff, brand representation by, 65 Stanek, Dan, 31 Stature, perception of, 109 Strategies: for improving cross-channel experiences, 161–163 for transformation, see Transformation strategies turning knowledge into, 50

Safeway, 92
Salesforce.com, 68
Save-On-Foods, 91
Index

Targeted messaging, 10
Targeting:
  improving, 162
  technologies for, 183–185
Technology(-ies), 181–191
  advertising, 201–206
  analysis, 183, 184
  Big Data, 80, 157–158, 193–200
  confluence of capabilities through, 23–24
  content management, 183, 185
  core elements of, 182
  data accumulation and management, 183, 184 enabling ROE\(^2\), 181–183 enabling vs. distracting, 68 evolution and improvement of, 189–191 as magic bullets, 209 marketing cloud, 186–189
  measurement, 183, 185–186
  and privacy of information, 211–221
  ROE\(^2\), implementing, 207–210
  segmentation and targeting, 183–185 Tectonic shifts, 3–11
  and consumer behavior, 7–8
  data deluge, 4
  and global infrastructure, 5–6
  increasing media, devices, and disruption, 4
  in marketing interactions, 8–11
  meaning of, 13–14
Testing, 178
Time, content influenced by, 146
  Timely access, 184
  Time starvation, 7
Timing, and amplification effect, 45–46
Toucan Sam, 140
Trader Joe’s, 83–84
Traditional marketing, 6, 21
Transactional connections, 21–22
Transformation strategies, 61–72 consistent marketing process, 67–68
  key elements in, 69–70
  loyalty programs, 70–72
  organizing around customers, 64–66 rethinking measurement, 62–66
  using technology to enable, 68 Transparency:
  in content, 141
  in data gathering and use, 214–215 Trust:
  and business outcomes, 86
  earning, 11
  establishing, 87–88
  as motivator to repurchase, 123–127
  and transparency, 214
Truth, in content, 141
Truthiness, 141
TV, branded content on, 139
Twitter, 195
TXU Energy, 53, 177

Uber, 154
Upstream indicators, 22
User-generated content, 4

Value (worth):
  during atomic moments of truth, 27–28, 32–34
  of data, 202 dimensions of, 32–33
Value (worth) (Continued) lifetime, 168
    long-term, 171
    of opportunities, 34 potential, 170–171
Values (ethical):
    alignment with, 105–107
    of brand, 145
    in customer experience, 65 of individuals, awareness of,
        19, 145
Viral content, 143

Vision, metrics driven by, 177
Visual learning, 10
Vitality Inc., 198–199
Whole Foods, 83–84
Yelp, 195
YouTube, 10
Zappos, 65
Zynga, 176