Index

Note: Page references in italics refer to figures and tables.

A
Aberdeen Group, 31
alignment, 131–164
  with Buyer’s Journey (See Buyer’s Journey) with salespeople (See sales department) with product strategy, 190–191 analysis of buyer interviews (See interview analysis)
Apple
  iPhone, 3–4, 5–6, 160
  iWatch, 192–193
  Jobs and, 4, 195
  Macintosh, 22
ArchDaily, 168
Archimedes, 19
Argus Labs, 46
audio recording, of interview, 77–78
Autodesk, 164–170
Acxiom, 46

B
Baer, Jay, 151, 152
Beko, 6–7
big data, 45–48
Brenner, Michael, 50
business-to-business (B2B)
  Buyer Persona approach for, xxii
  Buyer Profiles and social media, 49, 129 identifying interviewees for, 64 sales organization’s contribution to insights, 42–43 business-to-consumer (B2C)
  Buyer Persona approach for, xxii
  identifying interviewees for, 64
Businessweek, 4

Buyer Legends: The Executive Storyteller’s Guide
(Eisenberg, Eisenberg), 41–42

Buyer Personas
building the presentation, 123–128, 124, 125, 126, 127 C-level executive (case study), 31–34 completion time for, 52 defined, xx–xxii
early conception of, 20–23 expectations of buyers and, 23–25 5 Rings of Buying Insight for, 25–31 (See also 5 Rings of Buying Insight) to guide strategic planning, 194–198 “high-detail persona,” 159 industry marketing affected by, 158–160 inspiration from insight and, 19–20 product strategy benefits, 190–191, 192–193 “results-oriented persona,” 159–160 two versus one, 118–123, 119, 120, 121 (See also segmentation)

vision for, 185–186, 188–190, 194–198
(See also goal setting; interview analysis; interviewee recruiting; interviews; interview techniques)

Buyer Profiles
building, 129–130
Buyer Personas compared to, 7–10, 8, 11–12 Buying Insight versus, 112–114
social media for, 48–49, 130

Buyer’s Expectations
goal setting and, 184
interview analysis and, 106
messaging strategy and, 140–141, 142, 143
revealing, xx, xxi
See also Buying Insight; 5 Rings of Buying Insight

Buyer’s Journey (Buying Insight 4), 135–150, 151–170 alignment (See goal setting; messaging strategy; sales departments) Autodesk example, 164–170
Caterpillar example, 159–160 crafting a buyer’s story with, 41–42 defined, 26–27
educating buyers and, 163–164 element of, 127, 154–155, 156 expectations for, 157–158 global perspective on, 160–162
goal setting and, 187
interview analysis for, 99–110
for long-term goals, 162–163 “Patrick” case study, 154–158 prioritizing assets for solution marketing, 156–157 Priority Initiative of buyers and, 151–152
understanding, 153–154
Web analytics and, 49–50, 158
(See also Buying Insights, decision making by buyers, interviews, interviewing techniques)

Buying Insight, 19–34
  copywriting, 127–128
  inspiration and insight, 19–20
  interview analysis and “Insights Aggregator,” 103–105, 104, 105 interview analysis for Key Insights, 106–110, 107, 108, 109, 117 interviewing for, 73–74 (See also interview techniques) mining interviews for (See interview analysis) sharing with sales departments, 173–175

C
  Capabilities List, messaging strategy and, 140–147, 148–149 Caterpillar, 159–160
  causation, data correlation versus, 47
  Cavett, David, 94
  Challenger Sale, The, 176
  challenger sales approach, 176–177
  Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM), 183–184
  China, Beko sales in, 6–7, 160
  C-level executives, campaigns to persuade, 30–34, 177–179 communication about need for buyer personas, 28, 56–59 building Buyer Persona presentations, 123–128, 124, 125, 126, 127 contact strategy for potential interviewees, 68–72
  copywriting Buying Insights, 127–128 listening to customers/interviewees and, xix–xxiv, 40, 81–82, 94–95 (See also interviews) overcoming resistance to buyer personas, 55–59, 60, 186–188 communication (continued) to salespeople (See sales departments) with C-level executive buyers, 30–34 with other teams about buyer concerns, 193–194 competition choosing interviewees and, 66–68 competitive advantage and Buyer’s perception, 91, 91–92 interview questions about, 89 consent, to record interview, 77–78 consideration, impact on buyer persona approach, 13–15, 24 (See also high-consideration buying decisions, low-consideration buying decisions) consumer appliance industry, 6–7, 150 contact strategy, for potential interviewees, 68–72 content marketing messaging for (See messaging strategy) alignment with Buyer’s Journey (See Buyer’s Journey) strategy for (See Buying Insight, Buyer’s Journey, messaging strategy, segmentation, solution marketing) Content Marketing World Conference (2014), 153 continuous partial attention (CPA), 135 Cooper, Alan, 20–23, 190
copywriting
brevity of, 164
Buying Insights, 127–128 educating Buyers with, 163–164
messaging strategy, 139, 150
Corporate Executive Board (CEB), 5, 176 cultural factors, understanding, 3–4, 6–7, 114–117, 160–162

D
“day in the life,” of buyers, 24
Decision Criteria (Buying Insight 5)
analyzing, by type of buyer, 120
defined, 27
typical example, 126
goal setting and, 187
interview analysis for, 100–110
messaging strategy and, 142–147, 148–149
(See also Buying Insights, Buyer’s Journey, decision making by buyers, interviews, interviewing techniques) decision making by buyers

Buyer Profiles and, 7–10, 8, 11–12 Buying Insights for, 12–13 high-consideration and low-consideration decisions, 13–15 identifying decision makers for interviews, 64–66 “know your customer” rule and, 5–6, 57–59 market research importance for, 3–7 reliance on demographics/psychographics, 7–10, 8
understanding, 7–10, 8
demographics
finding interviewees and, 63–64
over-reliance on, 10, 12
segmentation and, 113–114, 118, 119

DiMercurio, Dusty, 164–170
“discussion guide,” for interviews, 40

E economic buyers, 64–66
educating buyers, 163–164
Eisenberg, Bryan, 41
Eisenberg, Jeffrey, 41
e-mail, to request interview, 69 entering new markets, 114–117, 196–198

Everyone Writes (Handley), 150 Excel (Microsoft), for “Insights Aggregator,” 103–105, 104, 105 expectations, of buyers, 23–25 (See also messaging strategy)

F
Facebook, 46
5 Rings of Buying Insight, 25–31
Buyer’s Journey (Buying Insight 4), overview, 26–27, 50, 101 (See also Buyer’s Journey (Buying Insight 4))
Decision Criteria (Buying Insight 5), 27, 100–103, 105, 107, 108, 109, 120
(See also Decision Criteria) determining number of Buyer Personas needed, 115–117 (See also segmentation) including buyers in marketing decisions with, 27–34 interview techniques and, 83
5 Rings of Buying Insight
(continued)
Perceived Barriers (Buying Insight 3), 26, 100, 126, 141
(See also Perceived Barriers)
Priority Initiative (Buying Insight 1), 25, 79, 98, 100, 101, 106, 119, 125, 151–152 (See also Priority Initiative) reviewing with internal stakeholders, 115–117 Success Factors (Buying Insight 2), 25–26, 100, 101–103, 125, 142 (See also Success Factors)
two Buyer Personas versus one Buyer Persona, 118–123, 119, 120, 121 focus groups, 44–45
Forbes, 4

G
Geneen, Harol, 131
global understanding, 3–4, 6–7, 160–162 goal setting, 185–198
alignment and, 131–134
Buyer Personas for strategic planning and, 194–198 communication across teams for, 193–194 for interview analysis, 97–98 “marketing credibility” and, 188–190 potential and, 198
product strategy and, 190–191, 192–193 starting Buyer Persona initiative and, 186–188
Google searches, optimizing, 158 “group think,” 45

H
Halvorson, Kristina, 153
Handley, Ann, 150
high-consideration buying decisions defined, xxii–xxiii, 13–15, 24 pricing models and perceptions of value, 29–30 which buyers to interview, 88–89 (See also internal stakeholders, interviews, interview analysis, and interview recruiting) “high detail” persona,” 159
how many buyer personas are needed, 111–122

I incentives, offered to interviewees, 63, 68 industry marketing, 158–160

_Inmates Are Running the Asylum, The_ (Cooper), 22–23 insight, 19–34 (See also Buying Insight) internal stakeholders mock interviews and, 58–59, 60 overcoming resistance of, 55–59 overcoming resistance of, for setting goals, 186–188 reviewing 5 Rings of Buying Insight with, 115–117 interview analysis, 97–110 goals of, 97–98

“headlines” for each Key Insight, 106–110, 107, 108, 109, 117 “Insights Aggregator” for, 103–105, 104, 105 interview transcripts for, 99–103, 100 number of interviews and, 98–99

interviewee recruiting, 55–72 choosing which buyers to interview, 64–68 finding time for, 59–60 internal sources, 60–62 professional recruiters, 62–64 requesting interviews, 68–72, 77–78 resistance by internal stakeholders, 55–59 interviews

as qualitative research, 39–41 buyers’ decision making and, 15–17 conducting (See interview techniques) finding interviewees (See interviewee recruiting) for changes in buyer personas, 189–190 importance of, 36–39, 51–53 interviewer preparation for, 76 mining for insight (See interview analysis) new products and markets, 196–198 number of interviews needed, 98–99 one-on-one, xxi–xxii testing segmentation options and, 114–117 who should conduct, 51–52, 74–75 interview techniques, 73–95 example of interview, 84–86 gaining insight with, 73–74 identifying interviewer, 74–75 listening to answers, 81–82, 94–95 note-taking during interview, 76, 80, 81 interview techniques (continued) preparing for interview, 75–77 proficiency for, 98

questions for interviews, 78–94, 87, 91, 93 recording interviews, 77–78 iPhone (Apple), 3–4, 5–6, 160
iWatch (Apple), 192–193

J
Japan, iPhone marketing in, 3–4, 5–6, 160 jargon interview responses, probing, 86–88, 87 “Jessica” (Buyer Profile), 11–12 Jobs, Steve, 4, 195
journalists
as interviewers, 74–75
as marketers, 168

K
“Kathy” (user persona), 20–22
Key Insights, interview analysis for, 97–110, 107, 108, 109, 117. See also Buying Insight “know your customer” rule defined, 5–6 overcoming objections to, 57–59

L
leads, generating, 28–29 (See also messaging strategy, Buyer’s Journey, solution marketing) Line//Shape//Space, 167–170
LinkedIn, 49, 75
listening importance of, xix–xxiv, 40 during interview, 81–82, 94–95 low–consideration decisions as impulsive, 13–15
understanding, 41–42
(See also high–consideration decisions)

M
Macintosh (Apple), 22
Mangialardo, Donato, 190–192
marketing departments alignment with sales departments, 29, 60–62, 131–134, 171–184 (See also sales departments) capacity of, 116
vision for, 185–186, 188–190, 194–198
Marketing Leadership Council (Corporate Executive Board), 5 marketing strategy, 131–164, 188–189, 194–197 (See also Buyer’s Journey, educating buyers, new products and markets, messaging strategy) market research, 35–53
  big data for, 45–48
  buyer surveys for, 43–44 finding time for, 59–60 (See also interviewee recruiting) focus groups for, 44–45 importance of, 3–7 (See also Buyer Personas; decision making by buyers; interviews) investing in, 38–39, 116–117 need for, 35–36
  qualitative research for, 39–41 salespeople for, 42–43 satisfying customer needs and, 36–38
  social media for, 48–49
  Web analytics for, 49–50, 158

See also Buyer Personas; Buyer’s Journey (Buying Insight 4); Buying Insight; interview analysis; interviewee recruiting; interviews; interview techniques

McKenna, Regis, 36–38

messaging strategy, 135–150
  alignment and, 131–134
  Buyer’s Expectations and, 140–141 Capabilities List for, 140–147, 148–149

continuous partial attention (CPA), 135
  copywriting, 127–128, 139, 150, 163–164 effectiveness of, 28 (See also communication) evaluating competition for, 143–145 pre-meeting contributions for, 139–140 strategy workshop attendees, 138–139, 142–143 traditional approaches, 136–138

Microsoft Excel, for “Insights Aggregator,” 103–105, 104, 105

Powerpoint, for Buyer Persona presentation, 123–128, 124, 125, 126, 127 “missing features,” interview questions about, 92–94, 93 mock interviews, with internal stakeholders, 58–60 moderator, for messaging strategy team, 138–139, 142–143

N
  new products and markets, building personas for, 196–198 Ogilvy, David, 38
onboarding, 45–48

Perceived Barriers (Buying Insight 3) case study use of, 31–34
defined, 26
example, 126
interview analysis for, 100, 101–110
messaging strategy and, 141, 147, 149, 163–164 sales enablement and, 177, 193–194
(See also Buying Insights, decision making by buyers, interviews, interviewing techniques) permission, to record interview, 77–78 persuasion, of internal stakeholders, 55–59, 60, 186–188 phone calls, for interview recruiting, 69–72 playbooks, sales, 175
Powerpoint (Microsoft), for Buyer Persona presentation, 123–128, 124, 125, 126, 127 pricing models, 29–30
Priority Initiative (Buying Insight 1)
analyzing, by type of buyer, 119
Buyer’s Journey and, 151–152
defined, 25
interview analysis for, 25, 98, 100, 101–110
messaging strategy and, 142–147, 148–149
understanding, 79
(See also Buying Insights, decision making by buyers, interviews, interviewing techniques) product demonstrations, interview questions about, 89 product lifecycle management (PLM) software, 190–191 professional recruiters for interview scheduling, 62–64 psychographics
over-reliance on, 10
segmentation and, 113–114 “pulling the thread,” 82–84 qualitative research, defined, 39–41 “qualitative research recruiters.”

See professional recruiters
questions for interviews about buyers’ decision making process, 88–90 about “missing features,” 92–94, 93 about perceived competitive advantage, 91, 91–92 example interview, 84–86 to keep conversation flowing, 82–84 “open-ended,” 91
pacing, 81–82, 94–95
probing jargon responses, 86–88, 87 probing with buyer’s words, 80 scripted opening question, 78–80
See also interview techniques

R
recording, of interviews, 77–78 recruiting interviewees. See interviewee recruiting Regis McKenna (marketing and public relations firm), 36–38
Regis Touch: Millions Dollar Advice from America’s Top Marketing Consultant, The (McKenna), 36–38 reorganization, problems of, 171–173
“results-oriented persona,” 159–160
Ross, Maribeth, 31

S Sagent Technologies, 22
sales departments, 171–184 alignment with marketing departments, 29, 60–62, 131–134, 171–184
as a source of buyer persona insights, 42–43 buyer personas shared with, 173–175
challenger sales approach, 176–177
C-suite access by, 177–179
for finding interviewees, 60–62 marketing synergy, example, 179–183 marketing synergy, importance, 171–173, 183–184 salespeople as interviewers, 74–75 sales playbooks, 175
sales prospects, as interviewees, 66–68, 75–77
SAP, 50
Scott, David Meerman, 6–7 screener for third-party recruiting, 63 search engine optimization (SEO), 158 segmentation, 111–130
building Buyer Profile, 128–129 Buying Insight and, 112–114
copywriting Buying Insights, 127–128 finding Buyer Profile information, 129–130 goal of, 111–112
presenting Buyer Persona, 123–128, 124, 125, 126, 127 testing options for, with additional interviews, 114–117
two Buyer Personas versus one Buyer Persona, 118–123, 119, 120, 121 silence, during interview, 94–95 smartphones
iPhone marketing in Japan, 3–4, 5–6, 160 measuring emotions with, 46 social media developing content for, 139
as a source of buyer persona insights, 48–49, 130 solution marketing
Buyer Personas used for, 158–160 prioritizing assets for, 156–157
See also 5 Rings of Buying Insight, stakeholders, internal. See internal stakeholders Staresinic, Dan, 132
Stone, Linda, 135
strategic planning, 131–164, 188–189, 194–197 Success Factors (Buying Insight 2) as part of Buyer’s Journey, 156–157 defined, 25–26
interview analysis for, 100, 101–110
messaging strategy and, 142–147, 148–149
(See also Buying Insights, decision making by buyers, interviews, interviewing techniques) surveys, 43–44, 129, 162
T “take me back to the day . . .” (scripted interview question), 78–80 targeted advertising, 47–48 team composition for messaging development, 138–139, 142–143 technical buyers, 65–66
time issues
finding time to recruit interviewees, 59–60 interview length, 69
transcripts, of interviews, 99–103, 100

U user personas, 23–24, 190–191

V
voice mail, leaving recruiting messages on, 69–72

W
Web analytics, 49–50, 158 website experience, interviewing buyers about, 82–83, 85–86, 88, 95 website for content marketing, 164–170, (See also messaging strategies)

Y
Youtility (Baer), 151–152