Contents

Acknowledgments, viii
Foreword, ix
Introduction, xi

Section 1: The long road to trial, 1

1 You’ve been served! Now what?, 3
   Questions to ask your insurer about your policy, 3
   What are the options if your employer purchases your insurance policy and dictates the terms?, 6
   When and how to report a claim, 7
   A few pitfalls to avoid after you’ve been sued, 8

2 What is medical malpractice?, 13
   The criteria of physician legally defined malpractice, 14
   EMTALA issues, 18
   Complaints to the medical board, 19
   Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), 20

3 How to choose an attorney, 23
   Questions to ask your attorney, 23
   Conflicts of Interest, 25
   Problems with the Hospital as co-defendant, 26
   How do you change your attorney?, 28

4 Coping with a medical malpractice lawsuit, 31
   Kübler-Ross five stages of grief, 32
   Maslow five stages of needs, 36
   Strategies for coping, 39
Contents

5 Before the deposition, 40
   Differences between federal and state court, 41
   Addressing the complaint, 42
   The discovery phase begins, 43
   Meeting with your attorney, 43
   The in-house physician review, 44

6 Nail the deposition, 46
   Preparing for the deposition, 47
   Dealing with co-defendant issues, 47
   General deposition rules and tips, 50
   Sample question and answer scenarios, 53

7 All about experts, 62
   Expert qualifications, 63
   Daubert rules regarding medical expert testimony, 64
   The defense expert, 66
   The plaintiff’s expert, 67
   Using the plaintiff’s expert to help your case, 69
   What if their expert is lying?, 70

8 Pretrial countdown, 72
   Reviewing your deposition, 72
   Motions to dismiss the case, 73
   Should you settle your case?, 75
   Preparing for trial, 77

9 The trial, 79
   Rules to follow when in court, e.g. How you should dress, 80
   Jury selection, 81
   The cross-examination with tips and question and answer scenarios, 84
   Jury Deliberation, 94
   Damages, 95

10 What to do if you lose, 97
   What are the steps to getting an appeal?, 97
   Can you get your attorney to file an appeal?, 98
   Settling in lieu of an appeal, 99
Section 2: An ounce of prevention, 101

11 Why doctors get sued, 103
   Bad outcome, 103
   Should you apologize?, 104
   What makes patients angry?, 105
   Methods to prevent patients from becoming angry, 105

12 Communication Issues, 112
   Effective communication, 112
   Foreign language issues, 113
   Informed consent, 114

13 Good documentation makes a difference, 116
   Documentation of Informed Consent, 117
   Destroy your diary or patient log before you get sued, 118
   Be aware of your electronic footprint, 119

14 Liability risk with the use of physician extenders, 122
   Vicarious Liability, 123
   How should you run your practice?, 125

15 Hospital issues, 127
   Peer Review, 127
   Hospital Privileges, 128
   Risk Management: Does it help you?, 129
   The Against Medical Advice (A.M.A.) form, 130
   Suspension of privileges, 132

16 Summary, 133

Appendix A Expert qualification requirements vary by state, 137
Appendix B Arbitration mediation and pretrial screening panels, 141
Appendix C Collateral source reform, 145
Appendix D I’m Sorry Laws, 148
Glossary, 150
Index, 157