Index

Page numbers in italics refer to figures; those in bold refer to tables and boxes.

a

abusive supervision
  contributing factors
    leader’s alcohol use 315
    leader’s mental illness 313, 314 leader’s sleep quality 316
  defining 4, 40, 166, 212, 247
  mindfulness intervention 247–248
  negative impacts
    emotional exhaustion 171, 177
    low job satisfaction 169
    low organizational commitment 170
    mental and physical illness 4, 172, 173, 212
    overall poor well-being 174, 248
    weak safety climate 40
  subordinates’ coping mechanisms 177, 179, 179, 180, 181 whistle-blowing procedures 185 see also destructive leadership accident rates 19, 52

accidents 9–10, 16, 33
active constructive leadership 97
Actor–Partner Interdependence Model (APIM) 140 agreeableness 81, 82, 100
alcohol use/misuse 114, 315–316
ambition 78, 79
anxiety 81, 119, 154–155, 172, 237–238, 260, 313–314; see also stress appraisal support 152
approachability 37
attitudes
  of employees
    passive leadership impacts 169, 170–171
    towards interventions 199–201
towards leader 50, 73, 77
towards safety 4, 10, 11, 13–14, 49, 50–51, 54, 55–56 towards work 136, 139
future research 62
of leaders
  influence on employees’ attitudes 10, 11, 13–14, 49, 50–51, 53–54, 55–56, 199–201, 268
  towards interventions 199–201
towards mental health/illness 150, 153
towards safety 4, 10, 11, 13–14, 49, 50–51, 54, 55–56
see also perceptions
authentic leadership
  consistency 43
  elements 3
  personality traits of leader 37, 105
  positive impacts
    active safety participation 39 authentic relationships 14–15
    employee engagement 216
    self-development 20
    strong safety climate 20, 37–38
    work–family facilitation 135
  and psychological capital (PsyCap) 262–263, 264–265 role-modelling 14–15, 17
  transparency 42
  autonomy 17, 61, 75, 76, 116, 117, 135

b

behavioural integrity 15
behavioural plasticity hypothesis 103 benevolence 17
BP Deepwater Horizon oil spill 10, 33
broaden-and-build theory 202–203, 260 ‘Building Human Strengths’ (Seligman) 256 bullying 172, 173–174, 181, 183, 212; see also destructive leadership burnout factors
engagement 217
family–work conflict 139
interpersonal conflict 177
leadership style 70–71, 79, 171, 212, 213, 238, 242
resource depletion 237
workplace incivility 96
card games, strengths 294–295
Centre de Réadaptation de l’Estrie, Quebec 298
Centre of Applied Positive Psychology (CAPP) strengths model 283–284
burnout factors
generation 217
family–work conflict 139
interpersonal conflict 177
leadership style 70–71, 79, 171, 212, 213, 238, 242
resource depletion 237
workplace incivility 96
card games, strengths 294–295
Centre de Réadaptation de l’Estrie, Quebec 298
Centre of Applied Positive Psychology (CAPP) strengths model 283–284 civility 96, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102–103, 105, 106; see also incivility cognitive moral development (CMD) 100, 105 communication

clear 55, 104
frequent 60
hierarchical 81
informational support 152, 155
inspirational motivation 240, 241 leadership development 57–58, 59
signalling theory 34–36
transformational leadership 12, 75, 239
two-way 24, 52, 98, 117 work–family policies 137 competence 17, 35, 37, 75, 76 complaint handling 183, 184 conscientiousness 81, 82, 100, 103, 245 conservation of resources theory (COR) 74, 76, 77, 83, 84, 135, 236–239, 249, 259–260
consistency 15, 43–44, 105
contingent reward behaviours 2, 39, 52, 310
coping strategies 151, 157, 175, 177–182, 179, 259 counterproductive workplace behaviours (CWBs) 50, 52–53, 54, 165, 181, 261, 308, 309 coworker relationships 19, 93; see also incivility creativity 119
credibility 57, 99, 100 dedication 115, 214
depression
in employees 71, 96, 154–155, 171, 172, 212, 315
in leaders 81, 311–313
mindfulness as treatment for 237–238
derailed leadership 166
destructive leadership
abusive supervision see abusive supervision characteristic behaviours 164–165, 166–167
coping strategies of subordinates 177–182, 179
defining 164–165, 166
derailed leadership 166
future research 185–186
intentionality 167–168
measures against 182–184
negative impacts 50, 175
emotional exhaustion 171
low job satisfaction 169–170
low organizational commitment 170–171
mental and physical illness 171–172, 173–174, 212–213
negative emotional responses 175–177
other impacts 172–173
research limitations 174–175
weak safety climate 17–19, 51
passive leadership see passive leadership
research growth 163–164
social learning theory 17–19
supervisory injustice 4, 263–264
supportive but disloyal leadership 166
terminology 164, 165
tyranical leadership 165
disrespect 40, 94–96
dedication 115, 214
depression
in employees 71, 96, 154–155, 171, 172, 212, 315
in leaders 81, 311–313
mindfulness as treatment for 237–238
derailed leadership 166
destructive leadership
abusive supervision see abusive supervision
characteristic behaviours 164–165, 166–167
coping strategies of subordinates 177–182, 179
defining 164–165, 166
derailed leadership 166
future research 185–186
intentionality 167–168
measures against 182–184
negative impacts 50, 175
emotional exhaustion 171
low job satisfaction 169–170
low organizational commitment 170–171
mental and physical illness 171–172, 173–174, 212–213
negative emotional responses 175–177
other impacts 172–173
research limitations 174–175
weak safety climate 17–19, 51
passive leadership see passive leadership
research growth 163–164
social learning theory 17–19
supervisory injustice 4, 263–264
supportive but disloyal leadership 166
terminology 164, 165
tyranical leadership 165
disrespect 40, 94–96
emotional contagion 71, 181
emotional exhaustion
coping strategies 179, 180, 181
and depression 172
promotion factors 168, 171, 174, 175, 175, 177
reduction factors 101, 117, 238, 246 emotional expressivity 240, 241 emotional intelligence 241, 242 emotional reactivity 247–248 emotional responses 175–177 emotional support 151–152, 153 empathy 37, 40, 312
empowering leadership 17, 52–53, 54, 116–117, 202
engagement, employee
defining 214–215
link to well-being 217–218 and manager behaviour 222–223, 224 managing for 218
in positive psychology 281
promotion factors
positive leadership 10–11, 13, 52, 71, 101, 102, 103, 215–216, 216, 246
recognition 115, 116
social exchange mechanisms 103
strengths-based leader development 282, 299, 299
reduction factors 95, 175
enthusiasm 71, 212, 214
ethical leadership
cognitive moral development (CMD) 100, 105
defining 3, 98, 245
impact on employee well-being 246
key components 98–99
and mindfulness 239, 245–246
morality 99
perception by workers 100, 105
role models for 100
social learning theory 99
role of leadership 96–98; see also ethical leadership, and workplace civility/incivility inconsistent leadership 12, 17–18, 43–44
individualized consideration 3, 51, 72, 79, 81, 117, 212, 239, 243–244
informational support 152, 182
injury rates 12, 19, 40, 52–53, 54, 57–58, 72, 77
injustice 4, 247, 263–264
inspirational motivation 3, 51, 72, 81, 120, 240–242, 249
instrumental support 152
intellectual stimulation 3, 51, 71, 72, 83, 118, 121, 239
interventions/training
Collective PsyCap Intervention (cPCI) 267–268
development guidelines 268
efficacy 270
hope 269
optimism 271–272
recommendations 272–273
resilience 270–271
ethical leadership 105–106
mental health 153–156
mindfulness 248–249, 250
occupational health
defining 197
implications from studies 206–207
leaders breaking 202–203
leaders making 198, 199–202
leaders’ role 197–198
leadership training limitations 204–205
model of leader’s role 205–206, 206
national standards 197
phases 197
readiness for change 200 resources for leaders 203–204

h happiness 71, 212, 261, 267, 283 health see mental health and illness; physical health; well-being hope 257, 258, 259, 260, 264, 269, 271–272

i idealized influence 3, 14–15, 51, 52, 55, 72, 239
incivility
ambiguity 95
causes 94
defining 93, 94
future research 106
low intensity 94–95
manifestations 94
outcomes 95–96
pervasiveness 95
role of leadership 96–98; see also ethical leadership, and workplace civility/incivility
inconsistent leadership 12, 17–18, 43–44
individualized consideration 3, 51, 72, 79, 81, 117, 212, 239, 243–244
informational support 152, 182
injury rates 12, 19, 40, 52–53, 54, 57–58, 72, 77
injustice 4, 247, 263–264
inspirational motivation 3, 51, 72, 81, 120, 240–242, 249
instrumental support 152
intellectual stimulation 3, 51, 71, 72, 83, 118, 121, 239
interventions/training
Collective PsyCap Intervention (cPCI) 267–268
development guidelines 268
efficacy 270
hope 269
optimism 271–272
recommendations 272–273
resilience 270–271
ethical leadership 105–106
mental health 153–156
mindfulness 248–249, 250
occupational health
defining 197
implications from studies 206–207
leaders breaking 202–203
leaders making 198, 199–202
leaders’ role 197–198
leadership training limitations 204–205
model of leader’s role 205–206, 206
national standards 197
phases 197
readiness for change 200
resources for leaders 203–204

f fairness 97, 102, 245
family–work conflict 130–131, 131, 133, 138, 139; see also work–family issues feedback
appraisal support 152, 297
contingent reward behaviours 2, 20
leader intervention programmes 61, 62 Reflected Best Self exercise 288–290, 291 safety improvement factor 43, 44, 59, 60
and self-efficacy 56, 57, 75
A First-Rate Madness (Ghaemi) 312
Framework Agreement on Violence and Harassment at Work (EU) 182–183

g Gallup Organization strengths model 282 gendered assumptions 132–133, 133 globalization 94, 129, 264 growth and development 22, 118–119, 121
interventions/training (cont’d)
  positive leadership 183–184
  challenges 218–220
  checklists 223–224, 225, 226, 227, 228
  future research 228
  success factor research 220–223, 221, 222, 224 safety leadership 23–24, 57–61, 62 strengths-based identifying strengths 284–285, 286–287, 288–290, 289
    job crafting 290–292, 292
    ‘me at my best’ exercise 292–294, 293
    performance reviews/appraisals 297–299
    team development 299–301, 300
    Totem card game 294–295
    using strengths in new ways 294
  transformational leadership 84, 116
  work–family facilitation 139
  involvement, employee 13, 51, 77, 116–118, 121, 150, 201, 202; see also engagement, employee j

  job crafting 201–202, 205–206, 206, 290–292, 292
  job satisfaction
    promotion factors
      growth and development 118
      individual consideration 244
      involvement 117
      mental health programmes 150
      positive leadership 11, 50, 70, 73
      psychological capital (PsyCap) 263 support 151, 213
      work–family facilitation 136
    reduction factors
      destructive leadership 166, 168, 169–170, 174, 175
      incivility 96
      work–family conflict 131, 136
      workplace bullying 175
  Just Enough Anxiety (Rosen) 314

l laissez-faire leadership characteristic behaviours 212
    defining 2, 167
    limitations of studies 174–175
    negative impacts
      bad attitudes 50
      emotional exhaustion 171
      low organizational commitment 170–171 negative behaviours and performance 50
      negative emotional responses 176–177
      poor job satisfaction 169–170
      psychological distress 172, 173, 174
      weak safety climate 51, 53
      workplace incivility 97
    see also destructive leadership; passive leadership leader affective experiences 81 leader–member exchange (LMX)
    3, 11, 49, 52, 53–54, 134–135, 265
  Leadership and Performance Beyond Expectations (Bass) 2–3 learning climate, organizational 199 locus of control 78, 79, 180, 181, 243

m management by exception
    active 2, 51, 52–53
    passive 2, 4, 51, 97; see also passive leadership ‘me at my best’ exercise 292–294, 293
  meaningfulness, job 73, 74, 76, 81, 200, 202, 212 mediators
    for employee safety 76–78
    for employee well-being 73–76, 77, 224
  mental health and illness consequences of mental illness 150 defining ‘mental health’ 150 defining ‘mental illness’ 307 destructive leadership’s impact 4, 171–172, 173
    incivility impacts 96
    leadership social support
      training 153–154
      benefits to companies 157
    Mental Health Awareness Training (MHAT) 153–154
    support provision 156
    support sources identification 155
    warning sign recognition 154–155
    link to engagement 217
    mental health and well-being 149–150 mental illness of leaders
      alcohol use/misuse 315–316
      anxiety disorders 313–314
      depression 311–313
      personality disorders 308–311
      sleep problems 316
      work stress 314–315
    post-World War II developments 256 prevalence of mental illness 149, 155 self-determination theory 74–76
Index

stigmatization, fear of 155, 314 transformational leadership's impact 70–71, 73, 74–76 workplace bullying impact 173–174 see also psychologically healthy workplaces
Mental Health Awareness Training (MHAT) 153–154
mindfulness, employee 238 mindfulness, leader and abusive supervision 247–248 conservation of resources theory (COR) 236–239 dimensions 237
and ethical leadership 245–246
future research 249–250
impact on employee well-being 235, 236 impact on safety performance 22–23 implications for organizations 248–249 implications for research 249–250 and leader well-being 238–239 “mindfulness” defined 237 and transformational leadership 239–240
individual consideration 243–244
inspirational motivation 240–242
moderators
for employee safety 79–80
for employee well-being 78–79, 224
for workplace civility/incivility 103–104 mood disorders 311–313; see also depression moral codes 98
morale 117, 151

n narcissism 309–311
negative leadership see destructive leadership neglectful leadership 50 neuroticism 78, 79, 81, 180, 247
non-leadership 17–18, 174–175; see also passive leadership Normandin Beaudry consulting actuaries 298–299, 299

o
openness 81, 82, 117
optimism 71, 212, 237, 257, 259, 264, 271–272, 312 organizational citizenship behaviours (OCBs) 11, 101, 102, 103–104, 116, 246, 261 organizational climate 261, 265 organizational commitment promotion factors 50, 117, 118, 136, 150, 242, 261
reduction factors 168, 170–171
organizational culture 33, 132–133, 133, 139–140, 224, 249 organizational maturity 199 organizational structure 38, 42–43, 44, 45, 81

p
part-time employees 133
passive leadership characteristic behaviours 39–40 as destructive force 4–5 negative impacts emotional exhaustion 171
low job satisfaction 169–170
low organizational commitment 170–171
low safety participation 12 mental illness 172, 173
negative emotional responses 176–177
overall poor well-being 174–175
weak safety climate 4–5, 12, 17–18, 39–40, 50–51, 53
workplace incivility 97
passive management-by-exception 2, 4, 51, 97 personality trait factors 309, 316 see also laissez-faire leadership peer relationships 19, 93; see also incivility perceptions of behavioural norms 97–98 of destructive leadership 166, 180, 181, 247 of fairness 97
influence of leadership style 11, 12, 24, 33–34, 53–54, 59, 60, 73–74, 121 of leader ethicality 100, 101, 105 of leader's safety commitment 33–34, 36, 37–38, 39, 40, 43, 44–45 of recognition 115
of safety climate 10, 24, 40, 53–54, 58, 59, 60 of self 73, 77
shared 199
of social support 19
of supervisor support (PSS) 151 of work–family issues 132–134, 133, 138 of working environment 73–74, 77
see also attitudes performance and engagement 214 mental illness impacts 310, 312, 313, 314, 316 positive leadership impacts 2–3, 101, 212
psychological capital (PsyCap)
impacts 257, 258, 259, 261, 264–265 and recognition 115–116
safety performance see safety leadership Self-Regulation Theory (SRT) 20 and use of strengths 283, 288, 296 work–family policy impacts 137, 139
performance reviews/appraisals 116, 152, 297–299 PERMA model of well-being 281
personality disorders 308–311
personality traits 37, 43, 81–82, 100, 245
physical health
negative factors
destructive leadership 4, 173, 174, 263–264
workplace bullying 174, 175
workplace incivility 4
positive factors 113, 263
see also well-being policies, organizational civility 106
destructive leadership prevention/intervention 182, 183–184, 185
mental health 113, 150, 155
physical health 113
safety 15, 18, 37, 39, 42–43, 55
work–family 130, 132, 136–137, 139, 140
positive leadership 214, 217–218, 218, 264;
see also authentic leadership; ethical leadership; transformational leadership positive leadership development see interventions/training, positive leadership positive organizational behaviour (POB) 255, 256–257, 281; see also psychological capital (PsyCap) positive psychology 255–257, 267, 281; see also psychological capital (PsyCap); strengths, human Positive Psychology Center (PPC) strengths model 283 ‘Positive Psychology’ (Seligman and Csikszentmihalyi) 256 presenteeism 79
prevention focus 20–23, 242
procedural justice 79
promotion focus 20–23, 242
psychological capital (PsyCap)
collective (cPsyCap) 262–263
role of leadership 263–266
Collective PsyCap Intervention (cPCI) 267–268
development guidelines 268
efficacy 270
hope 269
optimism 271–272
recommendations 272–273
resilience 270–271
constructs 257
efficacy 258
hope 258
optimism 259
resilience 258
defining 257
future research 272–273
Health PsyCap and Safety PsyCap framework 266–267, 266
Health PsyCap and well-being 267 leader-to-follower contagion 264 research 260–262
social contagion theory 267
theoretical foundations 259–260
psychological distress 4, 96, 115, 164, 171–172, 174, 177 psychological needs 74–75 psychological resources theory 259–260 psychologically healthy workplaces characteristics 150
defining 114
leadership social support
training 153–154
benefits to companies 157
Mental Health Awareness Training (MHAT) 153–154
support provision 156
support sources identification 155
warning sign recognition 154–155
move towards 113
policies 150
RIGHT way 114
Recognition 115–116
Involvement 116–118
Growth and Development 118–119
Health and Safety 119–120
Teamwork 120–121
role of leadership 114, 121–122, 197, 205
supportive leadership 150–151
empowering employees 152 knowing how to support 152–153 social support types 151–152 supportive organizational culture 150
see also mental health and illness psychometric instruments 284–285, 286–287
psychopathy 308–309, 311
R2 Strengths Profiler®  285, 286–287 rationality  55
recognition  56, 115–116, 121, 176, 244
Reflected Best Self exercise  288–290, 291
reflection  240, 241
Regulatory Focus Theory  20–23
relatedness  75, 76
relationship-focused leadership  213 reliability  37, 40, 99, 105 resilience  257, 258, 259, 260, 268, 270–271
resources
  conservation of resources theory (COR)  74, 76, 77, 83, 84, 135, 236–239, 249, 259–260
  and mindfulness  236–239, 249, 259–260
  for occupational health interventions  202–204 for safety  34, 41–42, 44, 45 types  236
  for well-being  76, 84, 114, 119, 120, 151–153, 155 for work–family facilitation  132, 135 respect
  between co-workers  93–94, 97–98, 102–103, 104–106, 117
  for employees  75, 99, 102–103, 104–106, 213
  in leader–member exchanges  53
  for leaders  120, 212
see also ethical leadership responsibility  17, 38, 40, 74, 201, 202, 207
RIGHT way  114
  Recognition  115–116
  Involvement  116–118
  Growth and Development  118–119
  Health and Safety  119–120
  Teamwork  120–121
risk-taking behaviours  17, 54, 72, 119 role clarity  16, 17, 74, 202 role models of leaders  100
role-modelling  14–15, 17, 19, 56, 73, 75, 77, 99, 102
positive leadership see safety leadership psychological capital (PsyCap)  262–263, 265, 266
teamwork  24
trust in management  40
safety compliance factors active management-by-exception  52
  empowering leadership  17, 53
  leader involvement  16
  leadership consistency  80 safety-monitoring behaviour  13, 21
Self-Regulation Theory (SRT)  21, 22
  supportive leadership  11, 52
  transactional leadership  12, 16, 24, 72
  transformational leadership  52, 53, 54, 72, 80
safety inspiration  21
safety leadership
  behavioural integrity  15–16
  consequences of poor leadership  9–10 current knowledge  9–13
  defining  21
  empowering leadership  17, 52–53
  future research  61–63
impacts on employees
  non-safety attitudes  53–54 safety attitudes  50–51, 55–56 safety behaviour  10–11, 56–57 safety performance  51–53
  Self-Regulation Theory (SRT)  20–23
  social learning theory/social exchange theory  13–19 leadership styles  11–13, 49–50
S.A.F.E.R. Leadership Model  51
  in senior management see senior management safety leadership;
signalling theory
  sensemaking of work environment  16 supportive behaviours  52
  training  23–24, 57–61
  trust, two-way  16–17
safety monitoring  13, 21
safety participation
  defining  51
  promotion factors  11, 13, 14, 17, 21, 51–53, 54, 72, 77, 78
  reduction factors  12, 80
safety performance factors see safety leadership safety task performance  52
safety voice behaviours  54, 77
self-acceptance  243
self-compassion  237, 241, 243
self-determination theory  55, 74–76, 77, 83, 84
S.A.F.E.R. Leadership Model  51, 55, 56, 61 safety citizenship behaviours  11, 13, 52, 54, 80 safety climate factors
  co-worker relationships  19
  destructive leadership  18–19, 40, 51
  leader–member exchange  11 policies and programmes  42 self-efficacy
    defining 76
    as key resource 237
    leader’s safety 24
    in mental health training 153 motivating employees’ 56, 73, 121, 135, 244 as psychological capital (PsyCap) 257, 258, 260, 262, 265, 270, 272 and well-being 73, 212
self-esteem 79, 103, 150, 151, 181, 284 self-perceptions 73, 77
self-regulation processes 20–21
Self-Regulation Theory (SRT) 20–23
senior management safety leadership
    authentic leadership 37
    impact on employees 33–34 importance 33
    safety intelligence 37
    signalling safety commitment see signalling theory
    transparency 42
    workers’ perceptions 54
sensemaking 16, 102, 104
shared leadership 19
signalling theory 34–35
    examples of signalling 35–36 signals of senior management safety commitment 36–39, 44–45
    consistency 43–44
    indirect signals 41
    organizational structure 42–43
    participation 39–41
    resource allocation 41–42
sleep problems 316
social contagion theory 262, 264, 267, 268
social embeddedness 243–244 social exchange theory 3, 13–19, 56, 97, 102–103, 117, 135, 151, 199 social identity theory of leadership (SITOL) 199–200 social impact theory 19
social learning theory 13–19, 99, 102, 104, 266
social support 19, 74, 151–153, 202, 259 sociological change 129 strengths, human
Centre of Applied Positive Psychology (CAPP) model 283–284
development
    job crafting 290–292
    ‘me at my best’ exercise 292–294, 293
    Totem card game 294–295
    using strengths in new ways 294
Gallup Organization model 282 identifying 284
    feedback 288–290, 291
    psychometric instruments 284–285, 286–287
    Strengthspotting 285, 288, 289 importance to workplace well-being 256, 301–302; see also psychological capital (PsyCap) managerial practices 296
job crafting 292
    performance reviews/appraisals 297–299
    team development 299–301, 300
    overuse and misuse 295–296
    Positive Psychology Center (PPC) model 283 signs 288, 289
The Strengths Book (Linley, Willars et al.) 296
StrengthsFinder®, 285, 286–287
Strengthspotting 285, 288
stress
    conservation of resources theory (COR) 237, 259–260 management competencies for preventing/reducing 214, 215 as mental illness factor 314–315 mindfulness as management strategy 247
    promotion factors
        destructive leadership 119–120, 171, 173, 177–182, 179, 212, 248
        incivility 96
        intellectual stimulation 71
        personal inauthenticity 105
    reduction factors
        optimism 259
        supportive leadership 157, 213
        transformational leadership 70–71, 135
        work–family facilitation 132, 133
    see also anxiety
supervisory injustice 4, 263–264
supportive but disloyal leadership 166
supportive leadership
    individual consideration 243
    and mindfulness 243–244
    positive impacts
        high psychological capital 265 mental well-being 119, 150, 151–153, 213 physical well-being 213, 263 positive attitudes 10–11 safety compliance and participation 10–11, 52
        work–family facilitation 134, 137, 139, 140
training 153–156
Index

t
- task-focused leadership 213
- teams
  - collective psychological capital 262–263
development 299–301, 300
efficacy 73
importance of 120–121
teamwork 114, 120–121, 200, 204–205
tolerance 40
Totem card game 294–295
training see interventions/training
transformational leadership
  - contingent reward behaviours 2, 39, 52, 310
  - laissez-faire leadership see laissez-faire leadership
management by exception
  - active 2, 51, 52–53
  - passive 2, 4, 51, 97
positive impacts
  - employee well-being 212
  - safety compliance 9–10, 12, 13, 16, 22, 24, 72
  - safety participation 53
  - safety task performance 52–53
preventive focus 20, 22
reinforcement and feedback 56, 212 sensemaking approach 16, 55
types 2

Transactional Model of Stress 178
transformational leadership
  - antecedents 80–82
  - Bass’ theory 2–3
  - boundary conditions 78–80
  - characteristic behaviours 75
  - four I’s 3
  - future research 82–84
  - idealized influence 14–15, 55
  - influence process 72
  - mediators for employee safety 76–78
  - mediators for employee well-being 73–76, 77
  - moderators for employee safety 79–80
  - moderators for employee well-being 78–79
  - self-determination theory 74–76, 77
  - meta-analyses 69
  - and mindfulness 239–244
  - and narcissism 310
positive impacts
  - employee involvement 117
  - employee well-being 69, 70–71, 212, 242, 244
  - individual consideration 117, 120, 243–244
  - inspirational motivation 240–243
  - intellectual stimulation 118
  - safety awareness and participation 11–12, 13, 24, 39
  - safety participation 52, 53, 72
  - safety voice behaviours 54
  - strong safety climate 51, 53
  - teamwork 12, 120–121
  - work–family facilitation 135–136
  - positive resource spirals 238
  - promotion focus 20, 22
  - role-modelling 14–16
  - safety-specific 51
  - training 59–61
  - transparency 42, 45
trust
  - in employees 3, 17, 102, 117
  - in leader–member exchanges 11, 53–54
  - in leaders 16–17, 73, 75, 76, 77, 80, 117
  - in senior management 40 turnover 96, 101, 113, 118, 136, 140, 151, 213, 261 tyrannical leadership 18–19, 165, 169, 170, 173, 175

v
- VIA Survey 285, 286–287, 298
- vision 21, 73, 74, 75, 212, 240–241, 242, 249

w
- weaknesses 297
- well-being
  - antecedents 235
  - conservation of resources theory (COR) 237
defining 235
and human strengths 296, 301–302
incivility impacts 95–96
and leader mindfulness 235, 236
abusive supervision 248
ethical leadership 246
implications for organizations 248–249
transformational leadership 242, 244
leader impact 213–214, 215, 263
ethical leadership 101, 246
mediators for 73–76, 77
moderators for 78–79
negative leadership 212–213, 248
supportive leadership 119, 150, 151–153, 213, 263
task- and relationship-focused leadership 213 transformational and transactional leadership 212 well-being (cont’d)
transformational leadership 69, 70–71, 212, 242, 244
link to engagement 217–218
outcomes 235
PERMA model 281
psychological see mental health and illness; psychological capital (PsyCap); psychologically healthy workplaces resources 76, 84, 114, 119, 120, 151–153, 155
and self-efficacy 73, 212
work–family impacts 139 work hours 130, 133
work–family issues
facilitation 131, 132
future research
methodological challenges 139–141 theoretical challenges 137–139 managers’ assumptions/perceptions 132–133, 133 managers’ response to 133–134 multilevel model 137–138, 138
supportive organizational culture
leadership styles 134–136
policies, services, benefits 136–137
work–family conflict
antecedents 130–131, 131
anxiety disorders 314
consequences 131, 131
defining 129
employee engagement 217
vs. family–work conflict 130–131, 131 globalization’s impact 129 sociological change’s impact 129 traditional model 130–131, 131 ubiquity 130
working conditions 81, 200–202