Index

A
Accessible data, 124–125
Account provisioning, 120–123; pros/cons of, 122–123; via blended learning service, 122
Actionable data, 109–110
Adaptive software, 92–93; pros/cons of, 93
Alliance College-Ready Public Schools (Los Angeles, CA), 177
Alliance for College-Ready Public Schools, 8, 63, 83, 144–145, 154, 177
Analysis of student data (monitoring), 2
Application programming interface (API), 94–95
Aspire ERES Academy (ERES), 11, 61, 200, 203, 211, 217
Aspire Gateway Academy, 154, 216
Aspire Inskeep Academy, 3–4
Aspire Public Schools, xi, 22, 150–151, 156, 211, 227, 230; blended learning journey, 1; culture at, xii; data-driven culture, 107; defined, 223; embarkation on blended learning journey, 1–2; Godzilla data and technology team, 107; mission statement, xi
Aspire Slauson Academy, 50–51, 171
Aspire Titan Academy, xix, xx, 2–4, 33, 50, 51, 60–61, 62, 72, 97, 110, 114, 119–120, 155, 185, 188, 190, 191–192, 195, 199, 200–201, 216; annual goals, 101; instructional methods, 100; Project Buzz Learning Blog, 70–71
Aspire way, xii
Assignable content, 94
Atkins, Norman, 215

B
Bandwidth, 140–141
Benaraw, K., xix, 33, 60–61
Beta products, 102–103
Bhattacharyya, A., xvii, 5, 35, 57, 99
BLEND Award, 166–167
Blended costs, furniture, 131
Blended learning, 9, 11–12; access to multiple data points to measure student growth, 2; at Aspire Public Schools, 6; challenges in getting off the ground, 8; classroom rollout, 175–176; compared to technology-enriched learning, 5–6; defined, 1; getting off the ground, 208; and International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) standards, 2; involvement/support from many departments, 210; as a journey, 168; launching, 11–12, 147–213; learning goals (individualization), 2; lesson plans, 269–291; as a model, 5–6; opportunities offered by, 2; pilot teachers, 211–212; piloting, 29, 206; professional development for teachers, types of, 149–150; running, 150; staff’s willingness to try out, 37–38; and support of classroom teachers/literacy specialists, 4–5; teacher tips, 177; and teacher’s mediocre classroom management, 208–209; teaching lessons to support, 170–180; as team sport, 63–64; undertaking, 37

Blended learning analyst: essential duties and responsibilities, 224–225; general summary of position, 223; job description, 223–226; organization relationships, 225; qualifications for, 225–226

Blended Learning Case Studies (FSG), 80

Blended learning data: account provisioning, 120–123; actionable data, 109–110; actionable nature of, 125; characteristics of, 124–125; checking daily, 116–120; checking for fidelity of implementation, 108; data integration, 120; informing instruction, 108; observing one-on-one, 108; as a rapid screener, 109; setting class goals, 108; setting individual goals, 108; student data, protecting, 125; user names and passwords, 123–124; using with teachers, planning for, 110–115; verifying and validating other data, 108–109; ways of using, 107–126; what good data looks like, 124–125

Blended Learning Data Talk Form, 112–114

Blended learning friends, need for, 67–79

Blended learning job leader description, 53–54; full-scale implementation work, 55; pilot-focused work, 53–54

Blended learning journey, 1, 9–13, 216–220; conclusion, 219–220; example, 217–220; launch, 217–218; pre-launch of pilots, 217

Blended learning software, student-achievement impact of, 208

Blended learning model, piloting, 79
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning pilot agreement (sample), 234–236</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning readiness, 250–251</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning rotations, daily schedule illustrating placement of, 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning service, account provisioning via, 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning teachers, 9–13; beginning, 10; launch, 11–12; nine months later, 10–11; pilots, 12–13; pre-launch of pilots, 11; underestimating power/impact of, 211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning teaching assistant; essential duties and responsibilities, 228; general summary of position, 227; job description, 227; organization relationships, 228; qualifications for, 228–229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended learning teaching assistants, See BLTAs (blended learning teaching assistants)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended pilots, setting out clear parameters for, 210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended school: opening, 66–67; taking team to visit, 60–61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blended work with districts and charters, 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BLTAs (blended learning teaching assistants), 51, 112; getting support from, 202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brem, L., 4–5, 109, 201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Budgets, being disciplined with, 209–210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Buy-in, creating, 47–65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BYOD (Bring Your Own Device), 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cabling, 138; adding to classroom, 137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cannaday, C., xix, 171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Caring for computers (lesson plan), 279–281</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carts, 129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Castro, N., xix, 2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Category 5e (CAT5e), 138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chair size, 129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chang, J., xvii, 44–45, 57, 100, 116, 117–118, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charter management organizations (CMOs), 7, 107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charters, blended work with, 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Children’s Internet Protection Act (CIPA), 142–143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class goals, setting, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom environment, 132; and blended learning rollouts, 127; chair size, 129; cord control, 132; power sources, locating, 131; ratio of students to computers, identifying, 128–129; trade-offs between computer desks and stations, 129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom management, 71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom rollout, blended learning, 175–176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom rotation model, 129–130; furniture, 129–130</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Classroom rotation procedure for students, 173</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

299
Classroom space, 30, 49, 133
Clayton Christensen Institute, 1, 80
“College for Certain” school culture, 41
Common Core State Standards, 26, 72, 73, 74, 88, 89, 91, 180
Common Core weekly schedule for grades 3–5 blended learning classrooms (sample), 265–268
Common Core weekly schedule for grades K–2 blended learning classrooms (sample), 261–264
Common Sense Media, 86, 177
Computer problem, handling (lesson plan), 288
Computer storage, 129
Computer workstation etiquette (lesson plan), 276–277
Computer workstations, 130–131, 193
Computers, addressing student behavior on, 197–200
Constant improvement, process of, 166–167
Consultants, need for, 29
Content filter, 143
Cord control, 132
Cornerstone Charter Schools, 8, 39, 70, 117, 212
Correct keyboarding position (lesson plan), 281–282
Cost, software, 96
Culture of schools, 8
Curriculum, software for, 95

D
Dadigan, M., xix
Data integration, 94–95, 120
Data validation, 90
Deane, J., xvii, 24, 47
Decision criteria rubric, 30
Decision making, transparency in, 73–74
Decision-making process, furniture, 128
Dersaroian, T., xix, 63, 216
Determined Decision Maker, 15, 31, 46, 65, 76
Device costs, 103; hardware, 103
Device procurement decision, hardware, 104
Diagnostic Reading Assessment (DRA), 108–109
Digital badges, 15
Digital Learning Now, 9
Director of Innovative Learning: essential duties and responsibilities, 230; general summary of position, 230; job description, 230–233; qualifications for, 231–232
District- or organization-level leadership, 52–53
Districts, blended work with, 8
Drucker, P., 40
DSL, 140

E
E-rate program, 42, 142–143
Eager learners, 6
EdSurge, 86
Education Elements, 122
Education leaders, failing to engage, 209
EducationSuperHighway, 43; SchoolSpeedTest, 141
Electrical power, 138
End-of-year teacher survey questions, 252–255
Enhancement/extension of curriculum (rigor), 2
Esparza, F., xix, 62, 72–73

F
Failure to engage, education leaders, 209
Feasibility, software, 97–98
Feedback: soliciting, 157; teachers, 156
Fiber optic, 140
Fidelity of implementation, 90, 108
FirstLine Schools (New Orleans, LA), 24
Flexibility, and classroom environment, 127
Florez, C., xviii, 14, 171
Focusing on instructional problems, 20–21
Follow-up training, 152–153
Full-scale implementation work, 55; blended learning job leader description, 55
Fundamental decisions, 17–76
Furniture: blended costs, 131; and blended learning rollouts, 127; chair size, 129; classroom rotation model, 129–130; computer workstations, 130–131, 193; decision-making process, 128; existing, using to save costs, 131; headphone storage/holders, 130; measuring what you have for, 129; procurement/placement, 127–128; ratio of students to computers, identifying, 128–129; tape measure, need for, 129–131

G
Getting Smart, 9
Godzilla data and technology team, Aspire Public Schools, 107
Going blended: first few weeks of, 174; models/pilots, 8; reasons for, 2–5
Gonzalez, R., xix, 2–5, 40, 51, 200

H
Half-manual account provisioning, 122
Hardware, 9, 103–106; BYOD (Bring Your Own Device), 106; device costs, 103; device procurement decision, 104; long-term budget, 105–106; low-cost devices, 104; managing devices, 105; procurement decision, 104; testing devices, 104–105
Hardware specifications: evolution of, 9
Hawley, C., xix
Headphone storage/holders, 130
Headphones: handling (lesson plan), 290–291; headphone letter for families, 194; managing, 192–194; organizers, 192
Healthy skeptics, 6–7, 34; defined, 7
Highline Public Schools (Seattle, WA), 8, 47–48, 53, 56, 88, 90, 149, 153
Hwang, C., xix, 3–4

I
Implementation: fidelity of, 90, 108; planning, 27; planning for, 76–146
Incentive systems, 187–190
Individual goals, setting, 108
Individualization, 2
Information technology (IT team), 42, 144–145
Informing instruction, 108
Infrastructure: failing to upgrade before starting blended learning, 209; and IT team, 42–44; specifications, evolution of, 9
Instruction, supporting, 155–156
Instructional problems: examples of, 20–21; focusing on, 20; identifying, 21
Instructional professional development, 150–151
International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) standards, and blended learning, 2
Internet connection, 140–141
Internet outage, 195–196
Intrepid Launcher, 15, 157, 169, 180, 204, 213
Invoices for software or services, scrutinizing, 210
IT leadership, 55–56; how successful IT leadership works, 56

J
Jimenez, S., xix, 154–155
Job description: blended learning analyst, 223–226; blended learning teaching assistant, 227–229; director of innovative learning, 230–233
“Just-in-time” training, 151

K
Kerr, M., 51
Keyboarding instruction, 180
KIPP Empower (Los Angeles, CA), 51
KIPP Foundation, 35, 57, 58
Kirkpatrick, H., 156
Klein, R., xviii, 47–48, 53, 56, 88–90, 99, 149, 153

L
Lab rotation, 21
Lab space, 132
Laptop locks, 129
Launch, 11–12
Launching blended learning, 147–213
LEAP Innovation, 24, 57–58, 72
Learning, technology for teaching vs., 9
Learning curve, recognizing/planning, 66–76
Learning goals (individualization), 2
Lesson plans, 269–291; caring for the computers, 279–281; on classroom procedures with technology, 179; closing the program and logging in again, 287; computer problem, handling, 288; computer workstation etiquette, 276–277; correct behavior at workstations, 273–274; correct behavior on computers, 272–273; correct keyboarding position, 281–282; headphones, handling, 290–291; loading of the computer, 285–286; locating each workstation in the classroom, 270–271; logging in, 284; logging out, 284–285; necessary materials at workstations, 275; noise level at workstations, 271–272; preparing to rotate, 278; quiet and effective transitions, 275–276; staying comfortable at the computers, 278–279; track pad, using, 282–284; troubleshooting problems during log-in, 286–287; volume adjustment, 288–290
Loading of the computer (lesson plan), 285–286
Locating each workstation in the classroom (lesson plan), 270–271
Log-in problems (lesson plan), 284
Log-out problems (lesson plan), 284–285
Long-term budget, hardware, 105–106
Long-term sustainability, 143–144
Low-cost devices, 104

M
Manual account provisioning, 122
Mastery Charter Schools (Philadelphia, PA), 27, 173
Mazawey, J., xix, 72
McGrail, C., xx, 155
Meraz, L., xx, 119–120
Milner, A., xx, 62, 195
Milpitas Unified, 132
Mistakes, 205–223; learning from, 205
Model: blended learning as, 5–6; choosing, 79–84; criteria to valuate, 79–80; economics, 79; feasibility, 80; impact on schools/students, 79; next-generation, 83–84; organizational fit, 80; station rotation model, 80–81
Moodle Teacher, 212
Multiyear implementation, conditions for, 75

N
Necessary materials at workstations (lesson plan), 275
Network: approach to technology, 135–136; bandwidth, 140–141; content filter, 143; E-rate program, 142–143; getting up to speed, 134–146; infrastructure, 136–140;
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Network (Continued)</th>
<th>Phasing in work, 74</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Internet connection, 140; long-term sustainability, 143–144; network consultant, hiring, 145; strategic versus tactical questioning, examples of, 135; wireless access point coverage, 141–142; wireless access points (APs or WAPs), 142; wireless design, 141–142</td>
<td>Physical infrastructure, 136–138; defined, 136–137; how to approach, 136–137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Network consultant, 145</td>
<td>Pilot agreement, 48, 57; not creating, 207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Network infrastructure, 139–140</td>
<td>Pilot-focused work, 53–55; blended learning job leader description, 53–54; new team members, 54–55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New team members: finding, 53–55; full-scale implementation work, 55; key duties, 53–54; pilot-focused work, 54–55</td>
<td>Pilot teachers, 211–212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Newsletter, 167–168</td>
<td>Piloting blended learning, 206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Next Generation Learning Challenge model (FSG), 80</td>
<td>Pilots, 12–13; and blended learning, 29; committing to, 27, 31; crafting, 79–84; evaluating, 82–83; examples of lessons learned in, 28; how not to pilot, 82; leadership team, gathering, 31; learning from, 210; measuring, 29; measuring the work, 29; pre-launch of, 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Next-generation models, 83–84</td>
<td>Pilots, pre-launch of, 218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Noise level at workstations (lesson plan), 271–272</td>
<td>Pocket chart, 185–186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Noncomputer activities, 174–177</td>
<td>Potentially competing demands, 44–45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>O</td>
<td>Power, defined, 138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One-on-one observation, 108</td>
<td>Power outlets, adding to classroom, 137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online learning software, running, 79</td>
<td>Power sources, 131; locating, 131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organization-level leadership, 52–53</td>
<td>PowerSchools, 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Orozco, C., xx, 216</td>
<td>Pre-launch of pilots, 11, 218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P</td>
<td>Principal’s strength using technology, 33–34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parent-teacher conferences, 63</td>
<td>Process, neglecting to document, 211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parents: engaging, 62–64; involving by sharing key information and expectations, 200–201</td>
<td>Procurement decision, hardware, 104</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Productive struggle, 163
Professional development for teachers, 149–150
Project Buzz Learning Blog, Aspire Titan Academy, 70–71
Project plan (sample), 237–244

Q
Question, “alignment,” 27
Quiet and effective transitions (lesson plan), 275–276
Quoted software prices, paying, 207

R
Rapid screener, blended learning data as, 109
Ratio of students to computers, identifying, 128–129
Readiness: letter for teachers, 160; school, 34–45; students, 164–166; teachers, 158–164
Relay Graduate School of Education, 215
Report cards, and blended learning achievement, 201
Resistant teachers, 50
Reyes-Serpas, D., xx, 50–51
Rocketship Education, 83, 124; curriculum evaluation rubric, 245–249; and software selection, 91; teacher culture at, 73
Rotation chart, 184–186
Rubric: decision criteria, 30; to measure pilots, 29

S
Sales representative, 125
Sample blended learning classroom floor plans, 259–260
Sample blended newsletters, 256–258
Sample Student Data Tracker, 118–119
Sanchez, N., xx
Scheduling, 156
School culture: concerning technology, 41–42; quality of, 40–41; taking into account, 100–102
School leadership, 32–34, 47–49
School readiness: determining, 32–46; growth/expansion, potential for, 44; information technology team and infrastructure, 42–44; potentially competing demands, 44–45; school culture, quality of, 40–41; school leadership, 32–34; school stability, 40; staff readiness, 34–35; staff willingness, 37–40; student achievement, history of, 36–37; technology, use of, 41–42
School stability, 40
Schools, culture of, 8
Schools and Libraries Program of the Universal Service Fund, 42
SchoolSpeedTest, EducationSuperHighway, 141
Schoolzilla, 107
Seating, with computers, 190–192
Single sign-on, 124
Site-based technology support, 51–52
“Skin in the game”, 64; use of term, 48
Slow bandwidth, 141
Small-group instruction, 22;
competency-based approach, 23;
ideal schedules, determining, 22–23;
and in-class rotation, 22; student achievement data, as focus, 23–24;
Summit Public Schools (San Jose,
CA), 23–24
Software, 9, 85–103; adaptivity, 92–93;
alignment and content coverage,
91–92; application programming
interface (API), 94–95; assessments, 92; assignable content, 94; beta products, 102–103; choosing, 85–86;
cost, 96; curriculum, 95; data integration, 94–95; decisions, 100;
early adopters, 86; engagement, 95;
feasibility, 97–98; how to choose, 90–103; management, 97;
nonnegotiables, 90–91; partly adaptable, partly assignable, 94;
piloting, 99; potential instructional challenges, 87–88; potential tech challenges, 87; pre- and post-assessments, 92; quotes, obtaining,
96; selecting, 85–90; short software pilots, running, 99; stakeholders, involving in the decision-making process, 99–100;
tradeoffs, 86–87, 98; training, 96–97;
using student achievement data
in, 89
Software products, development of/changes in, 9
Software providers, and teachers’ best interests, 212
Software representative, 98, 151
Software training, 150
Staff buy-in, 58–60; engage staff and creating parameters around the work, 59–60; forward movement, 58–59; principal engagement, 58;
school readiness, determining, 59
Staff readiness, 34–35
Stakeholders: engaging, 57–60;
soliciting input from, 24
Station rotation model, 80–81
Staying comfortable at the computer
(lesson plan), 278–279
Stipends, paying, 207
Strategic Planner, 84, 106, 126, 133, 146
Strong relationships, with IT team, not building, 207
Student achievement, school’s history of, 35–36
Student achievement data: as focus,
23–24; and software/hardware
purchases, 27
Student-achievement impact, of blended learning software, 208
Student data: making use of, 107–126;
protecting, 125
Student engagement, technology, 27
Student independence, routines/procedures to foster, 171–174
Student voices, paying attention to, 171
Students, See also Student data:
readiness, 164–166; teaching students to track their own data, 116–120; technology literacy, 178–180; voices, paying attention to, 171
Substitute teachers, planning for, 202–203
Success, articulating measurement of, 24–25
Sullivan, B., 140, 144
Summit Public Schools (San Jose, CA), 8, 47, 83, 134, 136; Personalized Learning Plan (PLP) application, 23; small-group instruction, 23–24; wireless design, 141

T
Tableau (software product), 120
Tavenner, Dianne, 136
Teacher expectations, managing, 206
Teacher readiness, 158–164
Teacher tips, blended learning, 177
Teachers, 49–51, See also Teacher readiness; blended learning readiness, 251–252; competing demands, 49; concerns about classroom space, 49; district- or organization-level leadership, 52–53; end-of-year teacher survey questions, 252–255; feedback, 156; focusing on needs of, 154–155; fostering teacher collaboration around blended learning, 50; learning from, 70–71; master schedule changes, 49; new team members, finding, 53–54; resistant, 50; site-based technology support, 51–52; substitute, 202–203; and technology, 49; technology use, 49–50
Teaching, technology for learning vs., 9
Team: building, 47–65; visiting blended school, 60–61
Tech helpers, appointing, 202
Technology: cautions, 27; engagement, waning of, 27; examples of instructional problems to solve using, 20–21; implementation of, 25–27, 31; information technology (IT team), 42, 144–145; lesson plans on classroom procedures with, 179; pilots, committing to, 27; principal’s strength using, 33–34; seductive nature of, 25; student engagement, 27; tech support, 64; tech support, outsourcing, 43; understanding current technology capacities/budget, 43; use of, 41–42; using to achieve educational outcomes, 27
Technology for learning, technology for teaching vs., 9
Technology-purposeful classrooms, 215
Technology training and tech resiliency support, 150
Testing devices, 104–105
Third-party provider, account provisioning via, 122–123
Thomas, N., xviii, 27, 173
Tiongco, J., xviii, 63, 144–145, 154, 177–178
Track pad, using, 282–284
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>V</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Y</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Trade-offs between computer desks and stations, 129 |
| Tradeoffs, 73–74 |
| Traffic light chart, 179 |
| Trainers, micromanaging, 151 |
| Training: agendas, 151; follow-up, 152–153; integrating with other professional development, 153; “just-in-time,” 151; sequencing, 157; skipping, 152; software, 96–97; of teachers/leaders, 149–157 |
| Training agendas, micromanaging, 157 |
| Transition time tracker, 178 |
| Transparency: of data, 124–125; in decision making, 73–74 |
| Troubleshooting, 194–196 |
| Trustworthy data, 125 |

| U |
| Underestimating power of blended learning teachers, 211 |
| User names and passwords, 123–124 |
NOTES
NOTES