Contents

Preface xiii

September 1

1 Take advantage of new beginnings 3 • 2 Know your limits 4 • 3 Read the biography of an exemplary leader 5 • 4 Attend a meeting just to listen 6 • 5 Review your program’s publications 6 • 6 Reorder your tasks 7 • 7 Be a coach 8 • 8 Waste time 9 • 9 Learn from a bad decision 10 • 10 Reflect on respect 11 • 11 Provide an outlet for dissent 12 • 12 Tell your supervisor what you need 13 • 13 Learn more about today’s college students 14 • 14 Convey some good news and some bad news 15 • 15 Describe your supervisor 16 • 16 Stop—at least for a moment 17 • 17 Remember that it’s not all about you 18 • 18 Share someone else’s dream 19 • 19 Learn from what others teach 19 • 20 Evaluate without making value judgments 20 • 21 Be the change you want to see 21 • 22 Respect other people’s time 22 • 23 Consider the first thing you do at work every day 24 • 24 Find the weakest link 25 • 25 Go back to the future 26 • 26 Lead by serving 27 • 27 Simplify something 27 • 28 Study interactions 28 • 29 Seek your own satisfaction 29 • 30 Read a boring book 30
October 33

1 Take stock 35 • 2 Ask questions 36 • 3 Exhibit candor 37 • 4 Remove one obstacle 38 • 5 Look around you 39 • 6 Have confidence 40 • 7 Attend a campus event 41 • 8 See people, not tasks, as your first priority 42 • 9 Nominate someone for an award 42 • 10 Discover new ways to manage stress 43 • 11 Move on 44 • 12 Assess your telephone style 45 • 13 Learn from a case study 46 • 14 Practice self-doubt 47 • 15 Speak to a chronic latecomer 48 • 16 Put agendas on your agenda 49 • 17 Recommend a good book 50 • 18 Raise awareness 51 • 19 Plot an escape 52 • 20 Be unique 53 • 21 Show someone you care 54 • 22 Question an assumption 55 • 23 Define leadership 56 • 24 Stay on message 57 • 25 Celebrate something 58 • 26 Open yourself to persuasion 59 • 27 Ask, “Why?” 60 • 28 Make time fly 61 • 29 Become your own life coach 63 • 30 Decide how you make decisions 64 • 31 Be frightened 65

November 67

1 Do something that really matters 69 • 2 Spend time with your best faculty members 69 • 3 Use only positive words 70 • 4 Discourage end runs 71 • 5 Know your legislators 72 • 6 Improve your telephone log 73 • 7 Envision a better future 74 • 8 Think holistically 75 • 9 Learn something new about academic freedom 76 • 10 Raise the bar 77 • 11 Expand access 78 • 12 Stop and smell the roses 79 • 13 Think like a novice 80 • 14 Seek common ground 81 • 15 Don’t take it personally 83 •
Contents

16 Establish boundaries 84 • 17 Accommodate differences 85 • 18 Identify your biggest challenge 86 • 19 Make the first move 87 • 20 Reflect on the relationship between students and faculty members 88 • 21 Examine workload carefully 89 • 22 Discover new sources of administrative insight 91 • 23 Glow with pride 91 • 24 Embrace your greatest frustration 92 • 25 Build a team 93 • 26 Share your story 95 • 27 Clarify responsibilities 96 • 28 Change your environment 97 • 29 Take a chance on someone 98 • 30 Provide context 99

December 101

1 Prepare for the home stretch 103 • 2 Identify an opportunity 104 • 3 Remember that having fun matters 105 • 4 Don’t sell beyond the close 106 • 5 Learn something new about tenure 107 • 6 Embrace uncertainty 108 • 7 Stop being busy 109 • 8 Notice where the shoe pinches 110 • 9 Redouble your efforts 112 • 10 Think like a student 112 • 11 Bookend your day 114 • 12 Consider the law of unintended consequences 115 • 13 Mix it up 116 • 14 Build flexible time into your schedule 117 • 15 Remember that you’re a symbol 118 • 16 Identify your favorite word 119 • 17 Simplify your focus 120 • 18 Support those who support you 121 • 19 Identify your brand 122 • 20 Write an article on academic administration 123 • 21 Explain the system 124 • 22 Associate with someone you admire 125 • 23 Have a meeting standing up 126 • 24 Trust your instincts 127 • 25 Take a day completely off 128 • 26 Make a wish 129 • 27 Count your blessings 130 •
CONTENTS

28 Reflect on your achievements 131 • 29 Share credit 132 • 30 Identify the first major task you’d like to tackle in the new year 133 • 31 Consider why students leave 134

January

1 Do an anonymous good deed 137 • 2 Create a leadership journal 137 • 3 Thank someone 138 • 4 Document your successes 139 • 5 Stop procrastinating 140 • 6 Listen to an opposing view 141 • 7 Learn something new about assessment 142 • 8 Reread a favorite book 143 • 9 Pay a visit 144 • 10 Discover time puddles 145 • 11 Continue reinventing yourself 146 • 12 Improve one policy 147 • 13 Find a way to say yes to someone 148 • 14 Talk about research 149 • 15 Balance your life 151 • 16 Set your priorities 152 • 17 Let a student gush 153 • 18 Attack your ignorance 154 • 19 Demonstrate good stewardship 155 • 20 Review your institution’s mission statement 156 • 21 Expand your resources 157 • 22 Dare to dream 158 • 23 Focus on your lowest priorities 159 • 24 Get back in touch with someone who made a difference 160 • 25 Share a meal 160 • 26 Release one frustration 161 • 27 Solve a problem 162 • 28 Be distinctive and concise 163 • 29 Set short-term goals 164 • 30 Reach out 165 • 31 Enjoy a sense of accomplishment 166

February

1 Plan for spontaneity 169 • 2 Think metaphorically 170 • 3 Praise sincerely 171 • 4 Identify a
Contents

possible successor 172 • 5 Update your résumé 173 • 6 Return to the classics 174 • 7 Contact the parent of a student 175 • 8 Immerse yourself in history 176 • 9 Assess your job satisfaction 177 • 10 Celebrate someone else’s good news 178 • 11 Study your competitors 179 • 12 Offer encouragement 180 • 13 Review your evaluation 181 • 14 Think about potential donors 182 • 15 Let a faculty member reminisce 183 • 16 Continue your education 184 • 17 Track your use of time 185 • 18 Write yourself a letter of recommendation 186 • 19 Imagine if money were no object 187 • 20 Offer to be someone’s mentor 188 • 21 Apologize to someone 188 • 22 Write a note to a prospective student 189 • 23 Consider the needs of an employee 190 • 24 Manage your workload 191 • 25 Articulate your vision 192 • 26 Review patterns of expenditure 193 • 27 Decide what you would change 194 • 28 Read the job listings 195 • 29 Take advantage of a rare gift 196

March

1 Be a philosopher 201 • 2 Think of something outrageous 202 • 3 Reread your institution’s strategic plan 203 • 4 Invite a member of the staff to lunch 204 • 5 Describe a “typical” student 204 • 6 Take a personality test 206 • 7 Analyze trends 207 • 8 Be your own consultant 207 • 9 Envision your dream job 208 • 10 Explore your faculty’s scholarship 210 • 11 Reallocate 5 percent of your budget 211 • 12 Identify your most wasteful practice 212 • 13 Think big. Really big 213 • 14 Develop five new interview questions 214 • 15 Challenge your own leadership style 215 • 16 Recall a poor judgment 216 • 17 Relax. You’ve earned it 216 • 18 Identify a pressure point 217 • 19 Remember good administrative advice 219 • 20 Make your environment more accessible 219 • 21 Review your computer files 220 • 22 Learn something new about strategic planning 222 • 23 Identify a bad habit 223 • 24 Empower others 224 • 25 Find a hot-button issue 225 • 26 Increase opportunities for research 225 • 27 Reflect on your proudest accomplishment 227 • 28 Improve your public presentations 227 • 29 Examine your use of pronouns 228 • 30 Explore a few other best practices in higher education 229 • 31 Finish something 230
CONTENTS

April 233

1 Do something foolish 235 • 2 Audit your committees and meetings 235 • 3 Reread your institution’s disaster plan 236 • 4 Reward yourself 237 • 5 Define your purpose 238 • 6 Assess faculty and staff morale 239 • 7 Sort through a stack of papers 240 • 8 Expand your knowledge of higher education law 241 • 9 Build a bridge 242 • 10 Learn a new software application 243 • 11 Overplan your day 244 • 12 Chart your progress 245 • 13 Check a blind spot 246 • 14 Slow down 247 • 15 Explore your insecurities 247 • 16 Remember your favorite professor 248 • 17 Get excited 249 • 18 Identify a significant problem 250 • 19 Think like a pilot 251 • 20 Jot a note to a member of the staff 252 • 21 Chat with a colleague 253 • 22 Outline a plan 254 • 23 Walk through your facilities 255 • 24 Live in the moment 256 • 25 Remove your mask 257 • 26 Ask someone about his or