Index

ABC (activity-based costing). See also costs; peanut butter costing allocating indirect costs, 77–78 allocations to cost pools, 79 analyzing cost activities, 78–79 applying to bottlenecks, 353 applying to variance analysis, 122–124 benefits, 66
changing prices after, 80 cost control, 15
direct costs, 73
direct cost tracing, 71
defining, 65
estimators, 78
indirect costs, 74, 76
overcosting, 69–70
versus cost smoothing, 66 product-cost cross-subsidization, 69–70 reallocation of cost activities, 78–79 reallocation via ABC, 78–79 single indirect cost allocation, 66–67 testing, 73–76
total costs by type, 75
ABC design
cost allocation base, 74
cost allocation rates, 74–75
cost pools, 73
direct costs, 73
indirect costs, 74, 76
testing, 73–76
total costs by type, 75
ABC system
batch-level costs, 72
cost hierarchy, 72
cost pools, 71
cost-allocation bases, 71 cost-usage base, 71
customer-level costs, 72
direct cost tracing, 71
facility-sustaining costs, 72 profit calculations, 72 as refined costing system, 71 unit-level costs, 72
abnormal spoilage
job costing, 311
making adjustments for, 309–311 versus normal spoilage, 297–299 absorption costing applying, 151–153
versus variable costing, 149–150 account analysis method, 165–166 accounting, defined, 9 accounting methods
accrual, 17
financial, 10 management, 11–12
accounting terms
direct costs, 19–21
fixed costs, 21–22
indirect costs, 19–21
accreditation accounting budgeting with, 99–100
versus cash basis, 27–29 versus cash basis accounting, 97 downside, 100
using, 17
activity-based costing (ABC). See ABC (activity-based costing) adjustments, making for spoilage, 310 advertising, considering, 40–41
allocated fixed costs
gaining, 242–244
losing, 242–244
antitrust law, 209
appraisal costs, 340
asset accounts, debits and credits in, 60 assets
defined, 25
depreciation of, 85
listing on balance sheet, 92
relevant range, 26
tangible versus intangible, 26

• B • balance sheet
creating, 100–101
using, 92–93
batch-level costs in ABC system, 72
BCR (benefit-cost ratio), 147 bidding for contracts, 252 bonds
maturity rate, 11
selling, 11
bottlenecks
applying ABC (activity-based costing), 353 clearing, 352–354
considering outsourcing, 353 eliminating defective products, 353 eliminating idle time, 353 incoming units, 352–353 increasing contribution margin, 351–352 inefficiencies, 352 occurrence of, 351
reducing setup time, 353
breakeven point
applying to products, 43–44
calculating for CVP, 32–34 computing via contribution margin, 35
d example, 33–34
formula, 33
lowering, 35–36
budget
defined, 83, 92
financial controls, 84
going over, 241
master, 84
purpose, 84
budget entities, determining, 91 budget goals, role in employee compensation, 90 budget variances flex budgets, 112
investigating, 111–113
budgeted hours, using in dual rate allocations, 239
budgeting
business plan, 86
cash basis accounting, 97–99
cash flow, 86
importance of, 85–86
opportunity cost, 85–86
overview, 14
with practical capacity, 237–239 with single rate allocations, 237–239 strategic plan, 86–87
budgeting financials, pro forma statements, 91–94 budgeting process
accountant, 89
balance sheet, 100–101
capital expenditure budget, 88
cost of goods sold, 96–97
equity investors, 92 experience, 87–88
financial plan, 92
financial statement, 92 income statement, 101
market research, 90
matching principle, 99
sales projections, 89–91 source of funds, 92
staff, 89
standard costs, 91
timing, 88
variances, 91
budgets
flex versus static, 104 production, 94–97
revenue, 94–97
business plan
controls, 84
defined, 83, 92
going over, 241
master, 84
purpose, 84
byproducts. See also products accounting for joint costs, 270 considering, 270
defined, 255
gross margin, 270
production method, 270 production of, 270
sales method, 270
setting sales value of, 257

cash flow
budgeted statement of, 99 financing activities, 94 investing activities, 94 operating activities, 93
role in budgeting, 86
Change Bank skit, 33 changes. See variance analysis client activity, levels of, 67–68 COGS (cost of goods sold)
account type, 59
assessing, 96–97
defined, 27, 37
collusion pricing, 210
common costs
allocating, 217–221
allocating to divisions, 220–221 allocation methods, 218–219
defined, 231, 249
incremental cost allocation, 251
pooling, 219
stand-alone cost allocation, 249–251
competition law, 209
competitors, influence on prices, 194 conference method, 165 conservatism, principle of, 29 constant gross margin NRV method. See also joint cost allocation methods explained, 263, 268 expressing as percentage, 263–265 goods available for sale, 264 joint cost allocations, 265 reducing separable costs, 266–267
using, 263
working backward, 263
Consumer Price Index, 143
contracts
bidding for, 252
cost-plus, 251
defined, 251
fair costs, 252–253
with government, 251–253 reasonable costs, 252–253 contribution margin
formula for, 35
versus gross margin, 37–38 capacity. See also practical capacity adding to avoid redlining, 360 cyclical stock, 155

defined, 139
downward demand spiral, 157
master-budget, 154–155
normal, 154–155
practical, 153–154
pricing decisions, 157
and product mix, 188–192 relating to inventory, 153–158 theoretical, 153–154
uncertainty, 158
utilization, 154
capacity and profit, analyzing, 190–192 capacity level
choosing, 156–158
costing products, 156
and employee evaluation, 157–158
capacity planning, 128
capital expenditure budget, 88
carrying costs, considering for JIT purchasing system, 330–331 carrying costs of inventory. See also inventory
considering, 318, 320
interest, 186
ordering, 186
quantity discounts, 186–187
reducing, 329
cash basis accounting
versus accrual method, 27–29, 97
budgeting with, 97–99
contribution margin (continued) increasing, 351–352
lost, 320
reduced, 320
using, 225–227
control accounts. See also debit process versus credit process flow process, 63
for inventory, 59
manufacturing example, 61–62 using in manufacturing, 58–59 conversion costs in process costing, 273, 280–281

corporate costs
allocating, 217–221
allocating to divisions, 220–221
allocation methods, 218–219
defined, 231, 249
incremental cost allocation, 251
pooling, 219
stand-alone cost allocation, 249–251
cost accounting
defined, 9
historical information, 12 versus management accounting, 12 “secret,” 69
cost activities, analyzing via ABC, 78–79 cost allocation accuracy, 366
complexity of, 216
corporate costs, 217–221
direct method, 246–247 direct versus indirect costs, 213
explained, 50–51, 66
going over budget, 241
incremental, 251
indirect costs, 216
justifying decisions, 215–216 processing, 213–216
purposes of, 214
single rate, 232–235
stand-alone method, 249–251
step-down method, 247–248
tracking customer revenues, 222–225 via cost hierarchies, 216–217
cost allocation base
explained, 126
using with indirect costs, 74
cost allocation rates
assigning to products, 74–75
determining, 237–240
cost behavior
defined, 161
fixed costs, 161
mixed costs, 161
plug and chug, 161
variable costs, 161
cost control
ABC (activity-based costing), 15
CVP (cost-volume profit), 15 joint costing, 15 performing analysis, 14 support costs, 15
variance analysis, 15
cost drivers
assets, 25–26
constant, 170
deciding between, 169–170
defined, 51
impact on total costs, 163–164
relevant range, 25–26
slope coefficient, 170
cost estimation methods account analysis, 165–166
choosing, 169–170
conference, 165
cost hierarchies, 170
industrial engineering, 164 quantitative analysis, 166–169 cost functions
changing, 171
defined, 161
linear, 162–163
nonlinear, 162–163, 171
cost objects
allocating, 49
defined, 25
cost of goods sold (COGS)
account type, 59
assessing, 96–97
defined, 27, 37
cost of quality
  appraisal costs, 340
  considering for inventory, 318
  external failure costs, 340
  internal failure costs, 340
  prevention costs, 339–340
  replacement, 340
  warranty work, 340
  cost of quality report
  appraisal costs, 341
  compiling, 341–342
  external failure costs, 341
  internal failure costs, 341
  prevention costs, 341
  cost of sales
  account type, 59
  assessing, 96–97
  defined, 27, 37
  cost pools
  in ABC design, 73
  in ABC systems, 71
  changing allocations to, 79
  defined, 50–51
  homogeneous, 71
  using with corporate costs, 219 cost smoothing, 66
  cost versus benefit, 249 cost-allocation bases in ABC systems, 71 cost-benefit analysis, 13 costing mistakes
  avoiding, 357–361
  costs assigned incorrectly, 359
  failing to implement ABC, 361
  fixed costs as variable costs, 357–358
  forgetting about taxes, 359
  ignoring timing of costs, 361
  misusing target net income, 358–359
  period costs as product costs, 358
  pricing products incorrectly, 357
  redlining, 360
  reviewing variances incorrectly, 360
  cost-plus contract, defined, 251 cost-plus pricing, applying to profits, 202–204 costs. See also ABC (activity-based costing): pricing; product costs; total costs direct, 23

direct versus indirect, 19–21 dollar amounts of, 174 essential, 126
expensing, 27
finding, 24–25
fixed versus variable, 21–22
ignoring timing of, 361 indirect, 23
inventoriable, 26–27
lowering, 16–17
manufacturing, 24
non-inventoriable, 141
reducing, 123–124
for retailers, 24
spreading evenly, 67–68 spreading over cost objects, 66 sunk, 39
timing, 39–40
variable, 21–23
costs and employee issues, handling, 364 costs and profit by product, 77 cost-volume profit (CVP), 15 credit process versus debit process, 59–60, 63 creditors, defined, 10–11 credits in manufacturing, 61–62 customer costs
  isolating, 223–225
  labor, 225
customer life-cycle costs, 206 customer orders, dealing with changes in, 67–68 customer response time average waiting time, 349–350
  bottlenecks, 348
  explained, 348
  manufacturing lead-time, 350–351 parts and supplies, 348 specifications, 348
time drivers, 348
  on-time performance, 349 uncertainty about orders, 348 customer returns, occurrence of, 332 customer revenues profit analysis, 222–223 purchase discounts, 223 tracking, 222–225
customer satisfaction
achieving, 338
annual reports, 346
benefits, 347
CEO letter, 346–347
complaints, 345
defective units, 345
follow-up, 338
getting feedback, 346
improving, 344–347
internal reports, 346
market research, 345
measuring, 344–347
non-financial measurements, 345–347 process yield, 346
timeliness, 338, 346
customer-level costs in ABC system, 72 customers
  gathering information from, 198
  ideal, 191
  influence on prices, 194
CVP (cost-volume profit) analysis. See also profit goal breakeven point, 32–34
  combining results of products, 43–45
  contribution margin, 34–35
  cost of sales, 37
  defined, 15, 31
  example, 32
  financial losses, 34 lowering prices, 41–42 operating leverage, 38–39 pitching products, 40–45 reaching profitability, 35–36
  sales mix, 43–45
  setting profit goal, 36–38 target net income, 36–38
cyclical stock, defined, 155
• D • debit process versus credit process, 59–60, 63. See also control accounts debits in manufacturing, 61–62 decision making carrying cost of inventory, 186–188 make versus buy decision, 181–184
  special orders, 179–181
  weighing opportunity costs, 184–185 decision model
  applying to equipment decisions, 175–178 book value, 177–178
  overview, 174–175
  real value, 177–178 relevant qualitative factors, 178–179 demand
  affecting suppliers, 336
  analyzing, 335–336
  from competitors, 336 purchasing patterns, 336 variations, 336
departments
  allocating to, 245–249
  direct allocation method, 246–247 reciprocal method, 248
  step-down allocation method, 247–248
depreciation accumulated, 177
  considering, 176
  defined, 85
  five-year straight-line, 176–177 design decisions, considering, 201 direct allocation method, implementing, 246–247
direct costs
  in ABC design, 73
  allocating to cost objects, 49
  charging customers for, 50–51
  computing in manufacturing, 52–53 deciding on, 20–21
  examples, 23
  versus indirect costs, 19–21
  in normal costing, 57
  in process costing, 272 tracing, 69
tracing in ABC systems, 71 dividends, considering, 92 dual rate allocations
calculating, 239
and practical capacity, 239–240
using, 235–237
duty cycle, explained, 127

• E • economic order quantity (EOQ) formula. See EOQ (economic order quantity) formula efficiency variances
applying to direct materials, 114–116
budgeted input quantity, 114–115
for direct labor, 117
formula for, 113
and price variance, 123–124
reasons for, 115–116
employee effectiveness
judging, 120–121
purchasing manager, 121 employee evaluation, capacity-level considerations, 157–158 employee issues and costs, handling, 364 employee turnover, impact of, 245 EOQ (economic order quantity) formula demand, 321
explained, 317
ignoring, 327–328
for prediction error, 325 purchase order lead time, 321 purchasing cost per unit, 321 quality costs, 321
relevant carrying cost, 321 relevant ordering cost, 321 reorder point, 321, 323–324 stockouts, 321
variables, 321
equipment decision
applying model to, 175–178 coming to conclusions, 176–177 connecting to balance sheet, 177–178 considering depreciation, 176 determining alternatives, 175 equity, listing on balance sheet, 92 equity investors, rewarding, 92
equivalent units
calculating, 280–281
computing, 277–279
and costs, 276–279
counting, 274–275
direct material costs, 276
labor costs, 276
overhead costs, 276
spoiled units excluded, 301–302 spoiled units included, 299–301 total costs of production, 275–276 using in process costing, 274
weighted average method, 283–285 essential costs, explained, 126 estimator, job of, 78 expense accounts, debits and credits in, 60
expenses, recognizing, 27
expensing costs, 27
expiration date, considering, 298 externality, negative, 184

• F • facility-sustaining costs ABC system, 72 factory second, explained, 297 FIFO (first-in, first-out) method. See also LIFO (last-in, first-out) method
equivalent units, 287–288
equivalent units for spoilage, 307–308
and LIFO, 147–149
physical flow of units, 286–287 physical flow of units for spoilage, 307 process costing, 286–290
process costing for spoilage, 306–309 units for beginning WIP, 308
using, 144–145
financial accounting
explained, 10
external parties, 10 retrospective, 10 shareholders, 10
financial control, defined, 84 financial losses, incurring, 34
financial plan
controls, 84
defined, 83, 92
going over, 241
master, 84
purpose, 84
financial statements
balance sheet, 92
dividends, 92
income statement, 93
statement of cash flows, 93–94 types of, 92
finished goods inventory, 273
fixed costs
allocating, 242–244
covering, 34–35
defined, 161
examples, 23
listing as variable costs, 357–358 in total dollars, 181 versus variable costs, 21–22, 49 fixed overhead costs
allocating, 128–130
applying costs, 129
assessing variances, 131
budgeting, 130
capacity needs, 127–128
capacity planning, 128
cost allocation rates, 128
duty cycle, 127–128
flexible budget variances, 129 paying for, 126–131 planning, 127–128
preventive maintenance, 127 production volume variances, 129–130
relevant range, 128
scheduled maintenance, 127
spending variance, 129
static budget, 129
flex budget
applying, 123–124
benefits, 109
components, 110–111
defined, 104
fixed costs, 109
revenue and cost variance, 110 sales volume variance, 110–111 using static budget with, 109
variances, 110, 112
FOB (free on board), 141

G

GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles)
period costs, 150
product costs, 150
goal congruence, defined, 327 government contracts
bidding for, 252–253
entering into, 251–252
gross margin, defined, 270 gross versus contribution margin, 37–38

H

historical information, use of, 12

I

improvements, making, 16–17 income, after-tax, 359 income accounts, debits and credits in, 60 income statement
budgeted example, 101
formula, 93
showing common costs on, 219 income taxes, adjusting target net income for, 46
incremental cost allocation, 251, 270
incremental revenue, 270 indirect costs. See also overhead; single indirect cost allocation
in ABC design, 74, 76
allocating, 20
allocating by product, 77–78
allocating to cost objects, 49
allocation of, 126
budgeted, 56
budgeting for, 56–57
calculating in manufacturing, 53–54
charging customers for, 50–51
cost allocation base, 74, 126
deciding on, 20–21
versus direct costs, 19–21
examples, 23
fixed, 126–131
fixed versus variable, 49, 125
incurring, 126
job costing, 55–58
justifying allocations, 216
in normal costing, 57
predetermined, 56
industrial engineering method, 164 inflation, measuring, 143 inspection point, considering for waste, 296 intangible assets, 26 interest, explained, 10 inventoriable costs being conservative, 142
defined, 140
examples, 140–141
FOB (free on board), 141
matching principle, 140
previewing, 26–27
profit, 140
risk of loss, 141
inventory. See also carrying costs of inventory
assets, 58
carrying cost of, 186–188 considering in manufacturing, 58 control accounts, 59
indirect costs, 59
labor, 59
materials, 59
purchases and sales, 143 and quality, 343–344 relating capacity issues to, 153–158 reserve, 323–324 types, 58
inventory costing allocating fixed costs, 149–153
capacity level, 156–158
period costs, 150
product costs, 150
variable versus absorption, 149–153 inventory costing methods applying, 142
BCR (benefit-cost ratio), 147
FIFO (first-in, first-out), 144–145, 147–149 inflation, 143
LIFO (last-in, first-out), 145–149
overview, 142–144
specific identification method, 147
weighted-average, 146–147 inventory costs carrying, 318, 320
considering, 317
opportunity costs, 320
ordering, 318
ordering sequence, 319–320
purchasing, 318
quality, 318
stockout, 318, 320
inventory formula, using, 95 inventory issues, handling, 365 inventory levels, uncertainties related to, 324 inventory methods, process costing, 288–290 inventory quantity
calculating, 321–322
EOQ (economic order quantity), 321 inventory orders, dealing with changes in, 67

J

Jelly Belly cost recovery, 298
JIT (just-in-time) purchasing
benefits, 329–330
carrying costs, 330
explained, 329
goal of, 329
ordering costs, 330
risks, 329–330
JIT purchasing system
adjusting total purchasing costs, 334 average inventory, 331
carrying costs of inventory, 331
customer returns, 332–333
opportunity costs, 330
ordering costs, 330
JIT purchasing system (continued)
purchasing costs, 330–331
stockout costs, 332
warranties, 332–333
job cost sheet, using in normal costing, 57–58
job costing
abnormal spoilage, 311
budgeting for indirect costs, 56–57
cost allocation, 50
cost drivers, 51
cost objects, 49
cost pools, 50–51
defined, 47
direct costs, 50–53
implementing in manufacturing, 51–55
indirect costs, 50–51, 55–58
normal costing, 55–58
normal spoilage, 309–311
presenting total costs, 54–55 versus process costing, 190–191 proper use of, 48
quality in, 343
Reliable Fencing example, 52
spoilage, 309–312
joint cost allocation methods. See also constant gross margin NRV method
choosing, 267–270
incremental cost, 270
incremental revenue, 270
market-based approach, 258
matching principle, 258
NRV (net realizable value) method, 258, 261–263, 268 physical measure, 260
relative sales value, 259
sales value at splitoff, 259, 268 sell or process further, 269–270 joint costs
allocating, 257–258
contracts, 258
defined, 15, 255
financial reporting, 257 insurance settlements, 258 litigation, 258
NRV (net realizable value) calculation, 261–262 product pricing, 257 regulated products, 258
separable costs, 256
splitoff point, 256
total cost, 256
● ●
labor costs
considering, 225
determining, 276
labor variances
analyzing, 113
efficiency variances for, 117 price variances for, 116 layoffs, impact of, 179 learning curves, assessing impact of, 172 lenders, defined, 10–11
liabilities
defined, 85
listing on balance sheet, 92
liability accounts, debits and credits in, 60 LIFO (last-in, first-out) method, 145–149.
See also FIFO (first-in, first-out) method litigation risk, estimating for products, 220 losses, incurring, 34
lost contribution margin, 320
● ●
machine costs, allocating, 220 maintenance
preventive, 127
scheduled, 127
make versus buy decision, 181–184
management accounting versus cost accounting, 12 differential costs, 12 versus financial accounting, 11 forward-looking, 11
using, 11–12
management by exception, 104–105
management reports, preferences for, 12 manufacturing costs, reviewing, 24 manufacturing examples
  control accounts, 61–62
  cost of goods sold, 62
  direct costs, 52–53
  finished goods, 62
  indirect costs, 53–54
  job costing, 51–55
  Karl's Kustom Kitchen Kabinets, 61–62
manufacturing lead-time
  capacity costs, 351
  carrying costs of inventory, 351
  formula, 350
  relevant costs, 350
  revenue, 350
  variable costs, 350
manufacturing system COGS (cost of goods sold), 59
  control accounts, 58–59
  credit process, 59–60 debit process, 59–60
  inventory, 58
  overhead control, 59 margin, contribution versus gross, 37–38 margin of safety
  increasing, 364
  and lower profits, 37
market research, conducting, 90, 345 markups, reducing, 202–203
master budget
  defined, 104
  financial plan, 84
  operating income, 106–107
  operating plan, 84
  problem with, 105–108
  for toy manufacturer, 105
  using with flex budget, 109
  variances, 106–108, 111
matching principle
  applying to joint cost allocation, 258 applying to spoilage, 296–297
  calculating profit on sale, 140–141 in product life-cycle budgeting, 205 using in budgets, 99 material costs in process costing, 280–281 materiality, defined, 249 mistakes in costing
  avoiding, 357–361
  costs assigned incorrectly, 359
  failing to implement ABC, 361
  fixed costs as variable costs, 357–358
  forgetting about taxes, 359
  ignoring timing of costs, 361
  misusing target net income, 358–359
  period costs as product costs, 358
  pricing products incorrectly, 357
  redlining, 360
  reviewing variances incorrectly, 360
mixed costs, defined, 161

N

net realizable value (NRV) method. See NRV (net realizable value) method
nonlinear cost functions versus linear functions, 162–163
quantity discounts, 171
slope coefficients, 171
normal costing
  direct costs, 57
  indirect costs, 55–58
  job cost sheet, 57–58
normal spoilage
  versus abnormal spoilage, 297–299
  job costing, 309–311
  making adjustments for, 309–311
normal spoilage methods
  choosing, 302–303
  excluding spoiled units, 301–302 including spoiled units, 299–301, 303 inspection process, 303
NRV (net realizable value) method
  changing amounts, 262
  considering, 268
  constant gross margin, 263–268 determining sales prices, 263
  explained, 258
  per unit amounts, 261–262 Percent of NRV total, 262 total costs, 261–262 operating department, 232
operating income
  in static budget, 106–107 toy manufacturing example, 106 operating leverage, degree of, 38–39 operating plan in master budget, 84 operations manual, 176
opportunity costs
  defined, 85
  JIT purchasing system, 330
lost contribution margin, 320
reduced contribution margin, 320 weighing, 184–185 order management example, 68
ordering costs
  considering for inventory, 318
  considering for JIT purchasing, 330
  inventory, 318–320
  JIT purchasing system, 330
ordering decisions demand issues, 335–336
  JIT (just-in-time) purchasing, 329–334
  prediction error, 325–328
  SCM (supply chain management), 335 total purchasing cost, 334 ordering process, uncertainty in, 324
ordering sequence
  invoice, 319 packing receipt, 319
  PO (purchase order), 319 statement, 319
orders. See customer orders outsourcing
  considering, 353
  versus in-house production, 181–184 versus insourcing, 354
overcosting, impact on pricing, 69–70
overhead
  control in manufacturing, 59
determining, 276
  essential costs, 126
  minimizing, 125–126
  variable manufacturing, 131
overhead costs
  in ABC design, 74, 76
  allocating, 20
  allocating by product, 77–78
  allocating to cost objects, 49
  allocation of, 126
  budgeted, 56
  budgeting for, 56–57
  calculating in manufacturing, 53–54
  charging customers for, 50–51
  cost allocation base, 74, 126
  deciding on, 20–21
  versus direct costs, 19–21
examples, 23
  fixed, 126–131
  fixed versus variable, 49, 125
incurring, 126
job costing, 55–58
justifying allocations, 216
in normal costing, 57
predetermined, 56
P&L (profit and loss statement)
  formula, 93
  budgeted example, 101
  showing common costs on, 219
packing receipt, including in ordering sequence, 319
payable, generating, 100 peak-load pricing, 208 peanut butter costing. See also ABC (activity-based costing)
    explained, 66
    levels of client activity, 67–68 undercosting, 69–70
performance related to time, 348–349
period costs
  defining, 150
  labeling as product costs, 358 physical measure method, 260 physical units, percentages of completion, 279–280
plug and chug, 161
PO (purchase order), filling out, 319 practical capacity. See also capacity
budgeting with, 237–239
determining cost allocation rates, 237–240 and dual rate allocations, 239–240 evaluating, 240
and variance analysis, 241–242 predatory pricing, 209–210
prediction error
acting on, 326–327
calculating EOQ, 325
defined, 325
evaluating, 325–328
goal congruence, 327
ignoring EOQ, 327–328 relevant total costs, 325–326 scope amount, 327
total dollar amount, 327
pre-tax dollars, 45–46
prevention costs, 339
price discrimination, 207, 209
price variances
applying to direct materials, 114
for direct labor, 116
and efficiency variance, 123–124
formula for, 113
reasons for, 115–116
prices changing after analysis, 16
increasing, 16
influences on, 193–196
lowering, 41–42
setting, 15–16
pricing. See also costs; sale price; target costing collusion, 210
and competition, 15–16
cost-based, 197
impact of overallocation on, 70 impact of underallocation on, 70 market-based, 197
predatory, 209–210
pricing decisions, considering capacity, 157 pricing for profits, 197–202 principal amount, paying interest on, 10 principle of conservatism, 141 pro forma financial statements, explained, 91
process costing allocating costs, 272
applying to spoilage, 304–309
conversion costs, 273, 280–281
defined, 47, 271
direct material costs, 272, 276
equivalent units, 274, 277–279
FIFO (first-in, first-out) method, 286–290
FIFO for spoilage, 306–309
finished goods inventory, 273
goal of, 271
inventory methods, 288–290
labor, 276
material costs, 280–281
overhead, 276
percentages of completion, 279–281 physical units and total costs, 277 pricing products, 272
and spoilage, 298–303
standard costs, 290
total costs of production, 275–276
tracing costs, 272 transferred-in costs, 290–291
using, 271
weighted average method, 282–285, 288–290
WIP (work in process), 273–274
process versus job costing, 190–192 process yield, defined, 346 product costs. See also costs; target costing
accuracy of, 72
defining, 150
incorrect assignment, 359 labeling period costs as, 358 product defects, identifying, 341 product design, quality of, 340 product life-cycle budgeting assigning risks, 205–206
collusion pricing, 210
competition law, 209
customer life-cycle costs, 206
demand inelasticity, 207–208
explained, 204
matching principle, 205
peak-load principle, 208 product life-cycle budgeting (continued)
predatory pricing, 209–210
price discrimination, 207, 209
pricing and regulation, 209
pricing strategies, 206–208 research and development costs, 205–206 skimming the market, 206
total cost of ownership, 206
product mix, managing with capacity, 188–192 product sales, adjusting, 45 product testing, conducting, 340–341
product-cost cross-subsidization, 69–70
production activity, pushing above relevant range, 360 production and scheduling issues, 364 production budgets, 94–97 production costs determining totals, 275–276 direct materials, 276
labor, 276
overhead, 276
production in house versus outsourcing, 181–184 production method, using with byproducts, 270 production volume variances, 129–130
products. See also byproducts; reworking products applying breakeven point to, 43–44 applying target net income to, 44 combining results of, 43–45
comparing profits of, 363
cost allocation rates, 74–75
costing, 156
defective, 118–120
defined, 23
estimating litigation risk, 220 pitching via CVP (cost-volume-profit) analysis, 40–45 pricing incorrectly, 357
WIP (work-in-process), 24
product-sustaining costs in ABC system, 72 profit and capacity, analyzing, 190–192 profit and loss statement (P&L), 219 profit calculations, accuracy of, 72 profit goal. See also CVP (cost-volume profit) margin of safety, 37
meeting, 15–16
setting, 36–38
profit on sale, calculating, 140–141
profitability
improving, 271
reaching via CVP, 35–36
sales mix variances, 226–229 sales quantity variances, 229–230 sales volume variances, 230 variances and contribution margin, 225–227 profits computing via ABC, 76–80 cost allocations, 366 cost-plus pricing, 202–204 costs and employee issues, 364
defined, 140
financial risk, 205
implementing sales mix analysis, 363–364
improving, 240
increasing margin of safety, 364 increasing using costing, 363–366 inventory issues, 365
maintaining, 41–42
maximizing with limited capacity, 188–192 measuring, 147–149
pricing for, 197–202
product life-cycle budgeting, 204–210
production issues, 364 reducing markups, 202–203
scheduling issues, 364
scrap management, 365
scrap reduction, 365
special orders, 365–366
spoilage issues, 366
target costing, 198–202 target rate for ROI, 203 purchase discounts, analyzing, 223 purchase order (PO), filling out, 319 purchases, uncertainties related to, 324
purchasing costs
considering for inventory, 318
JIT purchasing system, 330
purchasing manager, evaluating, 121, 328 qualitative factors, considering, 178–179
quality
benefits, 338
cost of quality report, 341–342
defined, 338
demanding, 17
eliminating bottlenecks, 351–354 ensuring, 340–341
identifying defective products, 341 importance of, 337
inspecting work in process, 354 and inventory, 343–344
in job costing, 343
limited warranty, 344
performance related to time, 348–349
product design, 340
product testing, 340–341 scheduled maintenance, 340
quality costs
appraisal costs, 340
considering for inventory, 318
external failure costs, 340
internal failure costs, 340
prevention costs, 339–340
replacement, 340
warranty work, 340
quality practices, implementing, 342–344 quantitative analysis method, 166–169 quantity discounts, impact of, 171

R
R&D (research and development) costs, 206 receivable, generating, 99 reciprocal allocation method, implementing, 248
redlining, avoiding, 360
reduced contribution margin, 320
regulators, addressing concerns of, 11 relevance
deciding on, 17
decision model, 174–175
defined, 173–174
dollar amount of cost, 174
materiality, 174
relevant costs
explained, 174
and revenue, 191–192
relevant range
for assets, 26
defined, 25
explained, 128
relevant revenue, 174
reorder point
defined, 321, 323
formula, 323
reserve inventory, 323–324
safety stock, 323–324
reserve inventory, 323–324 retailers, costs for, 24
revenue
  recognizing, 27–28
  and relevant cost, 191–192 revenue budgets, 94–97 revenue formula, applying, 95 reverse engineering, 199 rework allocating to jobs, 313–314 assigning to jobs, 312–313 reworked products, defined, 295 reworking products. See also products accounting entries, 312 to recoup profits, 303
risk of loss, defined, 141 risk versus effort, 35
risks, assessing for product life cycle, 205–206
ROI (return on investment), target rate of, 203

S
safety stock
  computing, 324
  explained, 323
sale price, computing via ABC, 76–80. See also pricing
sales method, using with byproducts, 270
sales mix
  adjusting product sales, 45 applying breakeven point, 43–44 applying target net income, 44
  combining results of products, 43–45
  connecting to contribution margin, 227–228
  defined, 359
  for increasing total profits, 363–364 variance, 228–229
sales projections, role in budgeting, 89–91 sales quantity variance, calculating, 229–230 sales value at splitoff, 259, 268
sales volume variances
  competition, 112
  explained, 110–111, 230
  product demand, 112
  quality, 112
  reasons, 112–113
  unrealistic budget, 112 scheduled maintenance program, following, 127, 340 scheduling and production issues, 364 SCM (supply chain management) issues, 335–336
scrap
  defined, 295
  making allocation decisions about, 314–315 managing, 365
  reducing, 365
  and spoilage, 296
  versus spoilage, 314 sell or process further decision, 269–270
separable costs
  computing after splitoff, 260–267
  defined, 255–256
  determining, 262
  incurring, 260
  NRV (net realizable value), 261–263
  reducing, 266–267
services, defined, 23 shareholders, considering in financial accounting, 10 shipping orders, dealing with changes in, 67 single indirect cost allocation, 66–67. See also indirect costs single rate cost allocation actual results, 234–235
  analyzing, 233–234
  budgeting with, 237–239
  explained, 232
  figuring out rate, 233
  slope coefficients, changing, 171
special orders
  considering, 180–181
  defined, 179
  fixed costs, 181
  influence on prices, 195–196
  profitability, 196
  taking, 365–366
specific identification method, 147
splitoff point, defined, 255–256
spoilage
  abnormal, 297–299, 311
  dealing with, 366
  defined, 295, 339
  expiration date, 298
  job costing, 309–312
  matching principle, 296–298
  normal, 297–303, 309–311
  and process costing, 298–303
  process costing, 304–309
  and scrap, 296
  versus scrap, 314
  weighted average method, 304–306
stand-alone cost allocation method, 249–251
standard costs
  considering in budget, 91
  defined, 103
  and process costing, 290
  setting realistically, 121 statement, including in ordering sequence, 319 static budget
  defined, 104
  financial plan, 84
  operating income, 106–107
  operating plan, 84
  problem with, 105–108
  for toy manufacturer, 108
  using with flex budget, 109
  variances, 106–108, 111
step-down allocation method, implementing, 247–248 stock appreciation, 92
stockout costs, considering for inventory, 318, 320 strategic plan, explained, 86–87 sunk costs, 39
suppliers
gathering information from, 199
influence on prices, 194
supply chain management (SCM) issues, 335–336 supply chain, tying to variance analysis, 122 support activities, 231
support costs
allocating to departments, 245–246
defined, 15, 231
dual rate allocations, 235–237
incurring, 232
practical capacity, 237–240
single rate cost allocation, 232–235 support department, 232

tangible assets, 26
target costing. See also pricing; product costs gathering information, 198–199 implementing in manufacturing, 199–201
overview, 198
value engineering, 200
target net income
adjusting for income taxes, 46 adjusting product sales, 45
applying to products, 44
misusing, 358–359
setting profit goals, 36–38 target pricing. See also pricing design decisions, 201 and target cost, 199–201 taxes adjusting target net income, 46 mistake of forgetting about, 359
pre-tax dollars, 45–46
terminology
direct costs, 19–21
fixed costs, 21–22
indirect costs, 19–21
TOC (theory of constraints), 351
total cost of ownership, 206
total costs. See also costs computing via ABC, 76–80
figuring, 256
impact of cost drivers on, 163–164 total purchasing cost, adjusting, 334 transferred-in costs, considering in
process costing, 290–291

undercosting, impact on pricing, 69–70 unit-level costs in ABC system, 72 U.S. antitrust law, 209 utility costs, investigating, 69 utilization, defined, 154

value engineering, 200
variable costing versus absorption costing, 149–150
applying, 151–153
variable costs
computing, 22
defined, 161
examples, 23
versus fixed costs, 21–22, 49 listing fixed costs as, 357–358 variable manufacturing costs activity levels, 132–134 actual costs, 133–134 budgeted costs, 132–133
design-engineer labor, 131 efficiency variances, 135–137
expert costs, 131 finding reasons for, 136–137
flex budget, 134
implementing analysis, 134–136
maintenance, 131
variable manufacturing costs (continued)
  planning for, 132
  repair, 131
  spending variance, 135–137
  utility costs, 131

variance analysis
  and ABC costing concepts, 122–124 allocated fixed costs, 242–244
  allocating to departments, 245–249 applying to decisions, 118–124 benchmarking, 120 budgeted versus usage, 241–244 continuous improvement, 120
  contribution margin, 108
  defective products, 118
  defined, 103
  dollar amounts, 119
  efficiency, 113–117
  employee effectiveness, 120–121
  favorable versus unfavorable, 107–108
  flex budget, 104, 109–111, 123
  following up on, 118–120
  labor, 113
  management by exception, 104–105
  material prices, 113–117
  operating income, 108
  percentages, 119
  practical capacity, 241–242 product volume variances, 129–130 rate of usage, 244
  researching relevance, 118 standard price, 113 standard rate, 113

  of static budget, 105–108 and supply chain, 122
  variances
    defined, 240, 360
    recognizing, 104–105
    reviewing incorrectly, 360
    role in budgeting, 91
  VC (venture capital) firms, 86–87

• W •

warranties
  limited, 344
  relevance to JIT purchasing system, 332–333 waste factory second, 297 inspection point, 296 reworking products, 303
  scrap, 296–298
  spoilage, 296–298
weighted average method
  applying to spoilage, 304–306
  beginning work in process, 283–285
  equivalent units, 283–285
  equivalent units for spoilage, 305–306 physical units for spoilage, 304–305
  process costing, 282–285, 288–290
weighted-average cost, 146–147
WIP (work in process)
  process costing, 273–274
  products, 24