A
acquisitions for leveraging a business, 215 actual and potential market potential market, 62 substantial business, 62
Acura, 107
Adidas, 26, 184, 204 advantages. See also leveraging the business; sustainable competitive cost advantage, 248, 251, 257, 267
innovator’s advantage, 234–236 affinity charts, 29
Aflac, 206
aggregate impact, 28
Airbnb, 85, 99–100, 181, 201, 257
airline industry, 25, 29, 32, 42, 98, 296 Aldi, 107, 188
Align brand identity, 174 alliance partners, 259–263 alternative value propositions (AVPs).
See also scale economies performance value, 104–107 price value, 107–108
relational value, 108–110
Amazon, 63, 283, 286 breadth of product line, 167 competing against Amazon, 326–328
customer-centric culture, 286
customer relationships, 8
eyear positioning, 167
failure to brand customer reviews, 196–197
growth into new categories, 69
long-term, 314
niche marketing, 63
One-Click, 196
ordering process as value added
component, 50
purchase of Twitch, 313 scope of, 6
synergies, 117
value proposition of, 7
American Can Company, 274
American Express, 140, 141, 155, 173, 191
Ampex video recorders, 235 analysis outputs. See also external analysis; internal analysis;
opportunities
competitive strength grid, 52–55
overview, 11
scenario analysis, 21, 22, 349
Annie Chun, 220, 241 annual strategic plan. See also business strategies
anthropological research, 34, 239 Apple
building a valuable brand, 317–319 competing with General Motors, 117
customer experience, 130 design, 50, 130, 231
documentation, 291
innovation, 241, 242
iPhone, 197, 234
iPod, 196, 198
logo, 187
Macintosh, 241
Newton’s failure, 73
ordering process as value added
component, 50
scope of, 6
self-expressive benefit, 188 Steve Jobs, 207
store, 201
user group, 82
value proposition of, 7
App Store, 78, 319
Aquafina, 98, 111
Ariat, 31
Arm & Hammer, 27, 209, 219
Asahi Dry Beer, 232, 235, 238
Asea Brown Boveri, 110
aspirational association, 172 asset leverage, 236 assets and competencies. See also brand assets; relevant assets and competencies
of competitors, 49, 50, 342
identifying for leveraging, 215
and innovation evaluation, 241
key success factors, 70–71
overview, 7–8
protecting during strategic alliances, 261, 262
and strategic imperative, 174 assets and liabilities, 163. See also brand associations, 170, 171.
See also brand associations automobile industry 4-wheel drive offerings, 197 luxury car market competitor strength grid, 52–54
as powerful customer for tire companies, 68
relevance concept, 61
transformational innovations in, 84 aviation industry, 28
Avon, 183, 185, 206, 207, 221, 257
Avon Breast Cancer Crusade, 206, 207
B B2B (business-to-business) experience, 72
backward integration, 44
Bain & Company, 269
Balance bar, 41, 320
Banana Republic, 26, 36, 173
Bank of America, 41, 52, 226, 245, 263
Barbie, 169, 226
barriers to success, 235. See entry barriers; exit barriers Baskin–Robbins, 254
Bausch & Lomb, 7
Bayer, 239
Beiersdorf, 26
benefits from product segmentation variables, 25
Best Buy, 73
Betty Crocker, 36, 181, 239 biases inhibiting new business creation, 242–243 big data trends, 83
Birkins, 105
Black & Decker, 35, 97, 167, 215, 216
BMW, 24, 53, 54, 82, 87, 105, 162, 173, 187, 201, 232
Boston Consulting Group (BCG), 267, 268
BP, 253
brand. See also brand strategy business strategy and, 162, 175, 267 Gallo of Sonoma market strategy, 13 local heritage, 256
   marketing and, 200–207
   overbranding, 275
   standardization vs. customization, 253–257 strategic alliances for gaining access to, 260–261 subbrands, 275, 278
brand analysis, 255–257 brand architecture. See also assets and competencies; brand equity brand awareness, 163–164
   leveraging, 215, 216
brand assets, 15, 86, 162, 168, 200, 216, 236, 311, 313–314, 329–331 Brand Asset Valuato (Young & Rubicam), 86, 200
brand associations
   brand personality, 45, 168, 187
   contemporary, 167–168 emotional benefits, 172, 187–188
   the experience, 195–196 global, 250
   organizational intangibles, 166
   overview, 165
   product category, 166
   self-expressive benefits, 173
brand awareness, 148, 162–164
brand descriptor roles, 278 branded CEOs, 207
branded differentiators, 198–199, 202, 203
branded energizers, 202–203
branded promotional activities, 205 branded social programs, 206–207 branded sponsorships, 203–204 brand endorsers, 204–205 brand equity, 162–176
   brand add value, 218–219
   brand awareness, 163–164
   brand fit new product, 218
brand identity, 171–176, 217
brand personality, 168
brand position, 196–198, 256
brand salience, 163
extension and brand name, 219 and goodwill, 303
impact on firm revenues, 304–307
impact on firm value, 307–311
intangible marketing assets, 304
and Dove, 329
overview, 162
brand essence, 173
brand extension logic, 217 brand extensions for leveraging the business, 216–219 brand/firm associations, 334, 335
brand identity, 171–176, 217
brand image, 52, 130, 134, 162, 167, 171, 217, 255, 269, 292, 294, 318, 334 Brand Japan, 47
brand loyalty
   as aspect of brand equity, 164 and customers, 26, 27, 52, 164 loyalty matrix, 26, 27
brand management, global, 256, 263 brand managers, 254, 290
brand personality, 45, 166, 168
brand portfolio, 275–278
brand position, 175–176, 198–200, 259
brand proliferation, 266 brand relevance, 231
brand salience, 163
brand strategy
   brand identity, 171–176
   brand personality, 168
   and business strategy, 267
   and relevance, 61
brand-use associations, 40–42
Branson, Richard, 169, 201, 207
British Airway, 170
Budweiser, 43, 52
Buick, 25, 27, 276
building and managing customer relationships customer decision journey, 122–128
   improving customer experience, 135–137
   long-term customer relationships, 138–142
   measuring customer experience, 133–135
Burger Chef, 224
Burger King, 26
business and technology trends big data, 83
   cultivating vigilance, 88
   economic trends, 87–88
   government/policy trends, 86–87 innovations, 83–84
   sustainable businesses, 85–86 workplace, 84–85
businesses
   and competitor analysis, 44–46, 51, 52
   and innovation, 2
   intangible benefits, 171
   limitations and high-growth market risks, 71–75
   overview, 3–4
   position and divestiture decision, 269, 270 prospects and brand value, 277 business model
   elements, 116
   value-capture mechanisms, 116
   value-creating system, 115
the business portfolio, 266, 268, 275, 348
business strategies
   and brand, 162, 267
   contingency plans, 92
   and core identity, 172–173 criteria for selecting, 9–10 decentralization model, 2, 273, 274 and divestment or liquidation decision, 269–272 functional strategies and programs, 3–4, 8–10
   and global footprint, 249, 257–259, 263 indications of need for global strategies, 250, 251
   and innovation evaluation, 242
   milking cash cows, 272–274, 278, 280, 281
   overview, 3–11, 15
   product-market investment strategy, 350
   ROI considerations, 9, 241 and strategic market management system, 10–14 strategic uncertainties and, 21 business-to-business (B2B) exchanges, 72 business units. See silo units Business Week, 73
Index 369

buyer hot buttons, 30
buyer sophistication, 65

C
Cadillac, 54, 196, 231
Caesars Entertainment Corporation, 292
Campbell Soup, 28, 44, 255
Canon, 234, 241, 254
capital, 21, 45, 51
Cardinal Health, 220
cash cows or milking strategy, 272–275, 279 category perceptions, managing, 236–237 Caterpillar, 50, 52, 195, 252
CD sales, 73
cement market, 65
Cemex, 239
Centurion Industries, 279, 280
CEOs, branded, 207
channel barriers, 42, 43
channels of distribution, 69
Charles Schwab, 62, 138, 211, 232, 305
Chase Manhattan, 208
Chase & Sanborn, 273
Chevrolet, 27, 167, 231, 276
Chevron, 62, 139, 198, 289
Chief Marketing Officer (CMO), 3, 14, 162, 293
China, marketing in, 259
Chipotle Mexican Grill, 65
Christensen, Clayton, 240
Chrysler, 207, 231–233, 260
Chux disposable diapers, 235
Circuit City, 26
Cirque du Soleil, 84, 230–232, 242
Cisco, 40, 84
CitiGroup, 167
Clairol, 223
Clarke American Checks, 220
Clif, 41, 42, 320
Clinique, 126, 127, 209
Clorox, 46, 120, 163
CNN, 41, 56, 168
Coach, 219
Coca-Cola
“American” position of brands, 254 brand energy, 201
global brand building, 250, 251 Global Water Initiative, 89–90 in India, 258
moats, 310
partner with World Wildlife Foundation, 182–183 share of wallet, 305
size curse of, 243
Coca Cola Company, 89–90, 98, 111 coffee competitors, 41
Colgate’s Total, 195
collectivism trend, 80 Comcast, 113
commitment curse, 243
communication, 198, 207, 209 communication modalities, 225 company products, 218 company performance
customer and brand equity impact, 304–307 how markets value marketing assets, 311–314 managing marketing firm value, 314–315
marketing assets effect, 307–311 competencies. See assets and competencies competition. See also competitor analysis; competitors; sustainable competitive advantage brand loyalty as buffer, 164, 165 from existing competitors, 62–63 and market selection in global arena, 258 from potential competitors, 67 overcrowding, 71–72, 74
superior competitive entry, 72
vulnerability to innovation, 165, 218 competitive intensity and divestment decision, 269 competitive risks in high-growth markets, 71–74
competitive strength grid, 52–54
analysis process, 54
analyzing submarkets, 54 luxury car market, 52–54 competitor actions model, 44–49 competitor analysis, 39–55
assessing strengths and weaknesses, 48–52
brand identity, 171–176
and business portfolio, 267, 268
competitive strength grid, 52–54
competitor identification, 40–43
Nintendo’s success with, 47, 48 obtaining information on competitors, 55
overview, 12, 39, 40, 55
planning form, 338–342
potential future competitors, 44 understanding competitors, 44–49 underestimating quantity and commitment, 72
competitors
and business strategy, 4–7
and cross-subsidization threat, 252 and loyalty matrix, 27
and market profitability, 66 major competitor planning form, 340, 341 primary vs. indirect, 41, 42
strength grid, 342
understanding your, 44–49 Comstock, Beth, 293
confirmation bias, 271, 272 Consumer Reports, 325 contemporary art price premiums, 188 contemporary brand associations, 167–168
contingency plans, 92
cost advantage
and market-share dimension, 267, 268 sources of, 215, 249, 251, 252, 258 and superiority, 51
cost of maintaining unprofitable business units, 269, 271 cost structure, 46, 68–69, 344
Courtyard by Marriott, 219
Crayola, 163
creating new businesses, 230–244 arenas for, 231, 237
from ideas to market, 242–244
managing category perceptions, 236–237
overview, 230
creating strategic synergies, 116–117
creating valuable customers
customer lifetime models, 152–157
customers as valuable assets, 157 pitfalls in funnel management, 150–152
purchase funnel, 147–150
creative external analysis, 22 creative thinking methods, 199–200 credible brand positions, 176
customer-centric talent align internal and external brand, 296
  customer value, 294–295
  educate employees on customer requirements, 295 employee and customer satisfaction, 294 empower employees, 295–296
  hire customer-oriented employees, 294
  customer characteristics approach to segmentation, 24, 204
  customer decision journey
    complex nature of, 124–127 consideration set, 125
    core elements of, 122–123 information gathering, 125 managing the, 127–128
    post-purchase, 126 preference, 125
    purchase, 125
    trigger, 124–125
  customer-driven idea Web sites, 33 customer equity
    definition, 146
    erosion, 285
    impact on firm revenues, 304–305
    impact on firm value, 307–311
    intangible marketing asset, 304 customer experience manage
    by brand or its partners, 131
    controlled by the customer, 132
    different meanings of, 128–129
    factors affecting, 129–130
    GE power systems, 130–131
    office depot’s customer experience turnaround, 131
    social/external sources control, 132–133
  strategic importance of, 129
  customer lifetime models
    account for and facilitate customer transitions, 154–155 acquisition cost expenditures, 157 assign marketing costs, 156 customer management and acquisition, 153–154 general approaches, 152–153 invest in prospects, 156–157 by lowering acquisition costs, 155 missing individual data, 155 need to account for when money arrives, 155 predict and mitigate churn, 154 typical customer is active, 155–156 customer orientation, 3, 51, 52 customer relationship management (CRM), 109, 238
  customer decision journey, 122–128
  improving customer experience, 135–137
  long-term customer relationships, 138–142
  measuring customer experience, 133–135
  customer relationships
    buy new offerings, 305
    endorse the firm, 305
    greater share of wallet, 305 lower defection rates, 304
  customers
    as active partners, 31–34 and branded social programs, 207
    and brand loyalty, 26, 27, 52
    for competitor identification, 40–42 and customer trends, 240 existing usage of, 208–211 involving in brand energizing, 201 low-end market, 240
    power superior to seller’s, 67–68 priorities of, 31
    satisfaction and loyalty of, 334 sophistication and knowledge of, 65 customer service
    branded differentiators, 198–199
    innovation in, 167–168 type of performance value, 104–107 customers valuable assets, 157
  customer value, 294–295
  customer value leadership
    business model, 114
    changing market realities, 117–118
    creating strategic synergies, 116–117
    evolving value propositions, 113–114 managing for, 114
    monitoring morphing market boundaries, 117 parity performance, 111 points of difference, 112 points of parity, 112
    tradeoffs, 114
    workplace communications, 113

Credit Swiss, 204
Crest, 6, 166, 186, 206
critical mass in global arena, 258, 259 CRM. See customer relationship management cross-market exposures, 253 cross-subsidization, 252 Crystal Pepsi, 224
CT scanner industry, 50 cultural trends (social), 80–82, 256 culture (business)
  and brand equity, 165, 175
  and competitor analysis, 45, 46, 51
  core identity as reflection of,
    172–173
  customer-centric, 284–286 entrepreneurial, 52
  frugal, 107
  synergies, 225
  culture (global strategies), 257, 259, 262 current strategies and competitor analysis, 45, 46 curse of success, 243, 245
customer analysis, 23–35
  brand identity, 171–176
  buyer hot buttons, 30
  consumer motivations, 28–31, 35 and cultural trends, 80–82 customer use experience, 220
overview, 12, 23, 24
planning form, 337, 338
segmentation strategies, 23, 204
unmet needs, 31–35, 239
customer-centric approach, 283 customer-centric competencies, 286–288 customer centricity, 283–285
customer-centric organizational cultures, 284–286 customer-centric structure, 288–291
customer-centric talent, 294–296
leading for, 292–294 metrics and incentives for, 291–292
customer-centric organizational cultures
building and sustaining, 285–286 traits of, 284–285
customer-centric organizational structure centralize selectively, 291 silos, 288–291
managing structure to span silos, 289–291 customer value propositions identifying motivations central to, 29, 30 marketing role in determining, 14
overview, 7
and submarket growth, 65 customized products and brands in global arena, 254–257

differentiation
branded differentiators, 198–199, 202, 203
and brand position, 198–199, 202, 203 core identity, 172–173
as entry barrier, 67
failure to utilize opportunities, 196–197
in global markets, 257–259 and low cost, 230–232
price pressure from lack of, 65, 67 and profitability analysis, 67 and trends vs. fads, 69, 70
Direct2Dell blog, 182 direct vs. indirect competitors, 41, 42 discounted cash flow (DCF) model, 152, 307, 314, 317 Disney
diversification of, 51, 52
leveraging brand, 117, 216–219 service delivery capability, 95 distribution constraints, 74 distribution systems, 69 constraints of, 74
as entry barrier, 67
and expansion into new market segments, 221
and global strategies, 254
and market/submarket analysis, 69
planning form for market analysis, 344–345 utilizing excess capacity, 216 diversification, 6, 48, 51, 52
divestment or liquidation decision, 269–272, 250, 251 Dollar Shave Club (DSC), 96
Dometic, 220, 221
dominant brands, 163
Dove brand (Unilever), 253, 329–331
Dow, 32, 200, 289
Dow Chemical, 289
downhill skis, 22
driving forces. See also motivations brand recall, 209, 277
global vs. local share, 258 identifying, 63
product-driven growth, 207, 208
scale economies, 263
for strategic repositioning, 195, 196 trends drivers, 70, 169 Drucker, Peter, 6, 70, 96, 272, 283, 284 dual organizations, 244 durable goods forecasts, 64 Duracell, 8, 203 dynamic markets. See market dynamics

E
EAS, the vitamin supplement, 222 eBay, 50, 63, 224, 235, 238
e-commerce, 224
economic recessions, 87–88 economies of scale. See scale economies
Eddie Bauer Edition Ford Explorer, 199
Elastic Compute Cloud (EC2), 117 emerging key success factors, 70 emerging market, owning, 236 emerging submarkets, 60–62, 343 emotional attachment to business unit, 46, 47
emotional benefits and unmet needs, 172 employees
and customer satisfaction, 294 educate employees on customer requirements, 295
empower employees, 295–296
hire customer-oriented employees, 294
empower employees, 295–296
Endless Waters, 111
endorsed brands, 219
endorsers, 204–205
Energizer bunny, 203
energizing the business, 194–211
branded energizers, 202–203
energizing the brand and marketing, 200–207
innovating the offering, 195–199
overview, 194–195, 210–211
energy bar market, 41–42, 320–321 Enterprise Rent-A-Car, 230 enthusiastic shoppers, 28 entrepreneurial culture, 51, 52
entry barriers
assets and competencies, 50
channel barriers, 43
and competitive overcrowding, 71, 72 in global arena, 258 loyalty of existing customers, 164–165
overview, 67
and trends vs. fads, 69–70
environmental analysis, 11, 12, 79–88.
See also future environment;
trends
cultural trends, 80–82
customer trends, 79
demographic trends, 79–80
economic trends, 87–88
and government regulations, 86–87 impact analysis of strategic
uncertainties, 91, 92
planning form, 346–347
scenario analysis, 347
sustainability, 82
Ernhart, 215–216
escalation of commitment bias, 271 ethnographic research, 33–35
evaluation of brands, 276, 277 evaluation of major innovations, 241 Expedia, 113
extended identity, 172 external analysis, 19–35
  defining the market, 22
  global focus, 248–249
  objectives, 19, 20
  overview, 11–12, 19, 20, 22–23, 35
  strategic uncertainties, 19–22, 89, 347 timing of, 23
external energizer brands, 203
F fads vs. trends, 69–70
fashion quality, 105 fatal biases inhibiting new business creation, 242
FedEx, 50, 67, 223, 326
femininity trend, 80
Ferragamo, 106
Fiat, 260
Fidelity Investments, 109
Fidelity Private Wealth Management, 109 financial performance. See also investment decisions
  overview, 332
  profitability, 44, 277, 333
  sales and market share, 332–333
  sales patterns and forecasts, 64
  shareholder value, 333–334
  financial projections, 349, 351 financing and access to capital, 51 firm revenues, brand impact bigger growth options, 306 increased brand consideration, 305–306 pay price premiums, 306
  purchase, 306
  stronger endorsements, 306 firm revenues, customer relationships
  buy new offerings, 305
  endorse the firm, 305
  greater share of wallet, 305
  lower defection rates, 304
firm revenues, marketing assets acquire customers, lower marketing expenditures, 309
  better human capital, 309
  brand assets and licensing, 313–314
  faster brand retrieval, 308
  faster cash flows, 307–308
  faster purchase decision, 308 faster response to marketing spending, 308
  firm acquisitions, 313
  higher cash flows, 308–310
  high-growth companies, 311–313
  larger relationship investments, 309–310
  lower costs of debt, 309
  lower employee pay, 309
  lower marketing research, 309
  new product development costs, 309
fixed-cost industries, 67 focus strategy. See also alternative value propositions; customer value propositions
Ford, Henry, 34
Ford Motor Co.
  business units, 4, 8
Eddie Bauer Edition of Explorer, 199
envisioning the mass market, 235 Galaxy in Europe, 239, 255
forecasting
  demand, 73
  and economic recessions, 87
  and government regulations, 86–87
  growth, 64
  and incremental innovation, 83 and reaction strategies, 92 technology, 91
forecasting market growth demographic data, 64
  sales of related equipment, 64 Fortune, 73
forward integration, 44 frugal shoppers, 28
Frito-Lay, 62, 67, 295, 334
functional quality, 105
functional strategies and programs, 8–9
funnel management pitfalls attract enough leads, 151 attracting poor quality leads, 150 link funnel problems to their causes, 151
  optimize through experimentation, 151 sales and marketing to work together, 151 future environment. See also
  environmental analysis
  driving force identification, 63–64
  key success factors, 345
  potential competitors, 44–49
  and strategic uncertainties, 21, 22 future events, 19, 20, 43, 347. See also forecasting

G
Galaxy in Europe, 255
Gallo of Sonoma brand, 13
Gap, 26
Gates, Bill, 234
GE Money, 291
General Electric (GE) breakthrough innovations, 244 creating new business, 237 and CT scanner industry, 50 divestment decisions, 269
  ethnographic research, 35
  geographic expansion, 221
  GE Profile subbrand, 219
  GE’s decision, 97
  global trickle down innovation, 251 leading innovation, 293 managing customer experiences, 130–131 market attractiveness/business position matrix, 268
  net promoter, 305 organizational culture, 244 portfolio model, 268
  scope of, 6
  selling of small-appliance division, 97, 271
size curse of, 243
successful diversification, 51, 52 synergy, 116
technology breakthrough ideas, 237, 238 turbine research, 216
visibility of, 164
General Foods, 273
General Mills, 210
General Motors, 117, 283 backward integration strategy, 44 multiple segments strategy, 28 OnStar, 199
restructuring of, 266, 267 strategic alliances, 260, 261
generic positions in advertising, 254
geographic expansion, 221
generic positions in advertising, 254
German brand Gerolsteiner, 112
Germany, Wal-Mart’s failure in, 258
Gerstner, Lou, 6, 285
Gillette, 6, 8, 62, 96, 187
Givenchy, 106
global brand associations, 250 global brand leadership, 256 Globalization of markets (Levitt), 253 global, see best global practice elements in each chapter expanding the global footprint, 257–259
marketing management, 262
motivations behind, 249–252
overview, 194–195, 248, 249, 263
standardization vs. customization, 253–257
strategic alliances, 259–262
strategies, 248–263
Gold Violin, 25
Google, 63, 88
green movement/trend, 82, 85 growth. See also energizing the business and competitor analysis, 44
divestiture program in support of, 269–272
and market analysis, 343
market growth-based shakeouts and price wars, 73
options and marketing assets, 306
overview, 194–195
stall points vs., 240, 241 sustainable growth performance, 222–224 growth platform development, 2–3 growth rate, 63–65, 71, growth-share matrix, 267 growth strategy, 14, 160, 273
H
Haas School of Business at UC Berkeley, 173 habit and brand loyalty, 164 Halberstam, David, 39
Hallmark, 168, 187, 326, 338
Harley-Davidson, 82, 183, 184, 188, 202, 254 healthy eating trend, 256 healthy refreshment beverages (HRBs), 240 heavy users, 48, 208
Heineken, 253, 254
Hermes, 105
Hertz, 225, 230
Hewlett Packard, 111, 294
high-growth companies, 311–313
high-growth markets risks competitive overcrowding, 71–72
distribution constraints, 74
market growth disappointment, 73
price instability, 73–74
resource constraints, 74
Hill’s Petfood, 42, 343
Hippel, Eric von, 32 historical data and growth forecasts, 64 hold strategy, 272, 274, 275 Home Depot, 7, 185, 206, 207, 269 Honda, 24, 25, 72, 127, 175, 255 hot buttons, 30, 36
How to Grow When Markets Don’t (Shyvotsky and Wise), 220
HRBs. See healthy refreshment beverages (HRBs) hybrid submarket, 61
Hyundai, 50, 54, 173, 209
I Iacocca, Lee, 207
Iams Company, 42
IBM
ad agency consolidation, 254
brand, 218–219
generic positions in advertising, 254
Gerstner and, 6
product-market investment strategy, 6
as trend driver, 196 user-developed products, 32
ideal brand, 190
ideal experience, 35
ideas to market, 242–244
Ideastorm Web site (Dell), 33
Ikea, 107–108, 176, 233
image and positioning strategy, 45–46 immediacy of strategic uncertainties, 92 impact analysis, 89–92
impact of innovations, 83–84 impact of new technologies, 268 impact of strategic uncertainties, 91
improving customer experience channel challenges, 137 evaluation and improvement process, 135 maintain a customer focus, 135 manage the extended delivery network, 137 incentives. See rewards and incentives incremental innovations, 83–84, 233, 234 incumbent curse, 243, 245 incumbent firms. See also businesses divestiture or liquidation process bias, 269–270 making new businesses viable, 242–244 need for energy, 200
new business development bias, 234–236, 242–244
strategic stubbornness, 84 indirect vs. primary competitors, 41–42 individualism trend, 80 indulgences trend, 80 industrial firms, 70 industry economies, 248–249 industry mobility, 49, 50. See also barriers to success
information sources, competitor, 55 innovation quality, 105
innovations
advantages, 234–236
and branded differentiators, 198–199, 202, 203 branding innovations, 198 as competitor strength, 49, 50 creating new business arenas, 237–242
creative thinking methods, 199–200 Drucker’s do’s and don’ts, 237 employees as source of, 164 evaluating potential of, 233–234 global influence, 250
from ideas to market, 242–244
incremental, 83–84
innovations (Continued)
low-end disruptive innovations, 240–241
managing category perceptions, 236–237
overview, 2, 195–196
perceived innovativeness, 236 performance analysis of, 337 relentless leadership for, 235–236 and silos, 242–243
substantial, 83–84
transformational, 83–84 types of, 83–84 vulnerability to innovations of corporates, 165–166
intangible benefits, 167
intangible marketing assets create company value, 312 vs. tangible assets, 304 Intel, 34, 163, 266, 272
Intel Americas, 108, 114
Intel Inside brand, 163 internal analysis. See also performance analysis
brand identity, 171–176
identifying assets and competencies for leveraging, 222–224
overview, 12
planning form, 347–349
strategic options, 11, 248
strategy development, 96–97
International Harvester, 271
Internet, 78, 82, 83, 95, 96
B2B dot-com experience, 72 cchannel barriers and e-marketing, 43
customer-driven idea web sites, 33
customer segments, 28–29 and mature/male segment, 26
web sites, 63
Internet bubble, 67, 71
Internet sales. See Amazon; Dell Computer
interviewing customers, 29, 30 Intuit, 33
investment decisions. See also finances performance business units as a portfolio approach, 266–269 and future direction, 7
and niche segments, 62
product-market investment strategy, 350
investment mindset, 293
Irma Zandl, 70
J
Jaguar, 24, 168, 281
Jamba Juice, 221
Japan, 39, 47, 53, 231, 252, 254–257
Jell-O, 163, 209
J. I. Case, 271
Jim Lecinski, 125
Jobs, Steve, 207, 234, 317, 318
John Deere, 168, 169, 220, 271
Johnson & Johnson (J&J), 88, 221, 285
Joie de Vivre, 168, 177
joint ventures, 260–262
K
Kao Corporation, 50
Kelleher, Herb, 207
key strategic assets. See assets and competencies; brand assets key success factors (KSFs) employee attitudes, 337 and external analysis, 23
and market analysis, 59
and market trends, 71–74
overview, 70–71
planning form for market analysis, 345
and segmentation strategy, 23 shift from product to process
technology, 72–73
and strategic alliances, 259–262
and strategy development, 96–97
KFC, 88, 169, 221, 254
KitchenAid, 63
KLM Cargo’s Fresh Partners
Initiatives, 238–239
Kmart, 176
knowledge hubs, 295
knowledge-sharing sessions, 295
Kodak, 61, 88, 118, 235, 241
Kraft, 205, 210
KSFs. See key success factors
L
Laflay, A.G., 254
Lane Bryant, 167
lateral thinking, 200
layered analysis, 22
lead countries in global strategy, 254 leading indicators of market sales, 64 lead users, 32–33
The Learning Company, 226
L’Eggs, 235
Lenox, 217
leveraging a brand asset case challenge, 329–331 leveraging the business, 214–226 brand extensions, 216–220 core business, 222–223 evaluating your options, 222–224 expanding the scope of the offering, 220–221
and global strategies, 248
identifying assets and competency
for leveraging, 215–216
new business and market leader, 223–224
overview, 194–195, 214–215
product market, 222
strategy, 224
synergy and, 224–226
leveraging to achieve synergy, 260
Levi’s, 26, 187, 253, 254
Levitt, Theodore, 5, 10, 284
Lexus, 25, 54, 173, 189, 232, 239 Lincoln, 54
line extensions, 195–196 LinkedIn’s greatest assets, 316 liquidation or divestment decision, 269–272
L.L. Bean, 169, 245, 338
local celebration trend, 82
The Long Tail (Anderson), 63
long-term customer relationships
attitudinal loyalty, 138 build habit, 140
company credit, 139
connect the product or service performance, 139 create multiple relationships, 142 defend the, 141
differentiate value, 141 foster customer co-creation, 142 grant exclusivity, 142
impact on firm revenues, 304–305
impact on firm value, 307–311
and impact on firm revenues increase investments in customers, 141
raise customer switching costs, 140 rebuff competitor challenges, 141 refresh the relationship, 142 remember the need and offering, 139–140
resolve need for variety, 141 satisfy the customer with an
offering, 139
long-term orientation trend, 80 Lovemen, Gary, 295
low-cost labor or materials and global strategies, 251 low-cost production, 43, 72
low-end disruptive innovations, 240, 241 Lowe’s, 7
low-involvement products, 163 loyalty matrix, 26–27. See also brand loyalty Luna bar, 42, 231, 320, 321 luxury car market competitor strength grid, 52–54 Lycra, 254
M Macy’s, 26
male shoppers, 26, 36
management. See also marketing as competitor strength, 50–52 and divestiture or liquidation decision, 269–272
marketing management, 262
utilizing for competitor analysis, 55 manager/employee capability and performance, 337 managing category perceptions, 236–237
managing customer experience
by brand or its partners, 131
controlled by the customer, 132
different meanings of, 128–129
factors affecting, 129–130
GE power systems, 130–131
office depot’s customer experience turnaround, 131
social/external sources control, 132–133
strategic importance of, 129
managing marketing, firm value
foster strong marketing competencies, 314
long-term, 314–315
manufacturing, 51, 52
market. See also market position; new markets; submarket analysis coping strategy for contradictory claims, 196
core identity, 172–173
decline in demand and divestiture decision, 271
defining the market, 22
growth-based shakeouts and price wars, 73 from ideas to, 242–244
and innovation evaluation, 241–242
overcrowding in, 71, 74 owning emerging markets, 236
price instability, 73–74
selection, basic dimensions, 258 strategically important, 252 and submarket profitability analysis, 65–68 market and submarket growth forecasting growth, 64 identifying driving forces, 63–64 market and submarket profitability analysis change in technology, 73
cost structure, 68–69
customer power, 67–68
existing competitors, 67 Porter’s Five-Force Model, 66–67
potential competitors, 67
substitute products, 67
supplier power, 68
market changes and high-growth market risks, 71–73 market demand and divestment decision, 269 market dynamics and business strategy, 10–14 innovation requirement, 242–244 plan requirements, 1–3 and relevance concept, 61 understanding, 61
market expansion, 6, 44
market growth disappointment, 73
marketing and growth strategy, 14 and strategic management, 14–15 marketing assets and competencies, 10, 15 marketing assets in firm value acquire customers, lower marketing expenditures, 309
better human capital, 309
brand assets and licensing, 313–314
faster brand retrieval, 308
faster cash flows, 307–308
faster purchase decision, 308 faster response to marketing spending, 308 firm acquisitions, 313
higher cash flows, 308–310
higher-growth companies, 311–313
larger relationship investments, 309–310
lower costs of debt, 309
lower employee pay, 309
lower marketing research, 309
new product development costs, 309 marketing doctrine, 291
marketing management, 262 “marketing myopia” (Levitt), 10 marketing–sales alignment, 290–291 marketing skills and leveraging the business, 215 marketing strategy, 10, 14–15 market position
brand position, 232, 249, 251
and divestiture decision, 270 market attractiveness/business position matrix, 268 and sustainable competitive advantage, 52 market realities changes, 117–118 market sales forecasts, 64 market selection in global arena, 258–259 market/submarket analysis, 59–74
cost structure, 47
dimensions, 59–60
emerging submarkets, 60–62
market trends and distributive systems, 60 profitability and cost structure, 60 size and growth, 60 market trends. See also trends vs. fads, 69–70
Marks & Spencer, 258
Marriott, 35, 87, 166, 219, 220
Marriott Hotels, 115, 294
Mars, 42, 264, 340, 343, 344 masculinity trend, 80
MasterCard, 52
Maturiteen male segment, 26 maturity and decline of market sales, 65 Maytag, 205
Mazda, 232, 260
McDonalds
competing with Starbucks, 41 expansion, 253
Ronald McDonald House, 203, 207
McElhaney, Kellie, 206
measuring customer experience
attribution models, 134 customer journey analysis, 134–135 mobile technology, 133–134 service blueprinting, 133
SERVQUAL, 133
Medtronic, 105, 283, 285 memorable branded symbols, 205–206
Me Nation trend, 81
Mercedes, 98, 127, 204, 254, 266 mergers of competitors, 44 merging brands, 277
MetLife and Peanuts characters, 203, 205, 206
Metrosexual male segment, 26
Michelin, 205, 252
Microsoft, 8, 48, 62, 191, 196, 207, 224, 234, 281, 313, 316
Microsoft Office, 8, 188 milking strategy or cash cows, 266, 267, 272–274 mobile technologies, 78, 133–134, 136 mobility barrier concept, 43 Montblanc, 254
morphing market boundaries, 117 motivation analysis, 29, 35 motivations
and competitor analysis, 44
customer analysis for determining, 23 for global strategies, 248–252 key customer motivation strategy, 50 of offshore firms, 261
planning form, 337
scale economies, 248
MTV, 253
Muji, 106, 201, 233
multiple brand identities, 175 multiple businesses, 2
multiple segments vs. a focus strategy, 27–28
myopic product focus, 10
My Tribe trend, 82
N
name dominance, 163
national investment incentives and global strategy, 251–252
Neiman Marcus, 111
Nestlé, 256, 266, 278, 340, 342
Nestlé Purina Petcare, 42, 340, 342, 344 Netflix, 41, 143, 158–159, 196, 201, 218
newbie shoppers, 28
new business. See also creating new businesses creating viability, 243–244 in established organizations, 243–244
and innovation, 91
leveraging a business into, 223–224
and niche segments, 239
overview, 194–195
and resource allocation, 244 new business arenas components to systems, 238–239
customer trends, 240–241
evaluation, 241
lower price point, 240–241 niche markets, 239 technological innovation, 238
unmet needs, 239
new-market disruptive innovations, 241
new markets adapting to, 223
case challenge, 320–321
of competitors, 46
diversification, 6, 48, 51, 52
expanding segments, 221–222 fulfilling unmet needs, 31 governing expansion, 221 for leveraging the business, 222
market expansion, 6, 44
from new technologies, 91
and relevance, 61–62
sales forecasts for, 64 sources of advantage, 214–215 new networking trend, 82 niche segments, 204
Nike
differentiation in global markets, 258
global businesses, 253
 Niketown showcase stores, 164 performance strategy, 25 repeatable leveraging strategy, 224 and retrosexual male segment, 26 Nintendo, 47–48, 56, 196
Nissan, 127, 163, 254, 260
Nokia, 106
nonfinancial objectives, 46
Nordstrom, 26, 36, 166, 167, 174, 198, 235, 335
Norwest Bank, 280
O
objectives, commitment, and competitor analysis, 44–46
Ocean Spray, 210
Office Depot’s customer experience, 131–132 OfficeMax, 31
offshore firms, 261
Ogilvy & Mather, 225, 253
Olay brand (P&G), 6, 8, 33, 37, 42, 50, 96, 157–188, 190, 196, 235, 250, 255, 310
Old Navy, 26, 219
Old Spice, 26
operations, 51, 216
opportunities
failure to utilize, 196–197
identifying, 20
managing category perceptions, 236–237
opportunity cost of hanging on, 269 organic foods and products, 86 organizational biases. See incumbent firms organizational characteristics. See also internal analysis internal analysis planning form, 349 organizational cultures, customer-centric, 284–286 organizational intangibles and brand associations, 167 Organon, 287
Oscar Mayer Wienermobiles, 183, 205
overbranding, 198, 275
overcapacity, 67, 71, 97, 222
P
packaged goods forecasts, 64 packaging innovation, 238
Pampers, 6, 37, 164, 182, 183, 185, 187, 195, 232, 235, 254, 257
Panda Express, 65
Panera Bread, 65
Pantene, 6, 8, 187, 250, 253, 263, 308 parity. See points of parity parity performance, 29, 111, 114
Pedigree Adoption Drive, 207
PepsiCo, 41, 74, 98, 111, 166, 258
perceived innovativeness, 236
perceived need or desire, 61 perceived quality and BAV, 200 brand and firm associations, 335
and brand equity, 277
and brand/firm associations, 335 of global brands, 250, 254 value of quality, 87 profitability measurement
(Continued)
relative cost, 335–336
values and heritage, 337–338 profitable survivors, 63 Progressive Corporation, 108 promotional activities, branded, 205 proof points and strategic initiatives, 173–174 prospect lifetime value (PLV), 156 publicity events, 149, 164, 171, 201, 204
purchase funnel
creating the, 147–149
failure to attract enough leads, 151 management, 151–152
metrics, 149–150
Q
Quaker Oats, 188, 227 qualitative research, 33–34 quality. See perceived quality Quality Function Deployment (QFD) program, 29 quality of life trend, 80 R
Ralph Lauren, 26, 187
R&D skills, 216
reaction strategies, 92 Redbirds minor league baseball team, 195 regulations, government, 86
relational value
comprehensive solution management, 109–110 customer relationship management, 109 general strategy, 108–109
relative cost, 335–337
reluctant shoppers, 28 renting not owning trend, 82 repeatable strategies expansion strategies, 257 in leveraging in general, 224 research
Brand Asset Valuator of Young & Rubicam, 200, 236
DDB Needham’s Sponsor-Watch, 204 on growth initiative success, 269–270 homemakers naming brands from memory, 163–164 research and development (R&D) and global innovations, 250 and innovativeness, 51–52 sharing across business units, 8 resource allocation
and brand loyalty, 26–27
constraints, 74 importance of, 2–3, 14
and milking strategy, 272–273 and rapid growth, 74 and strategic uncertainty, 21 resource constraints, 71, 74
restraint trend, 80 retailing, 74, 105, 233
retrosexual male segment, 26 return on investment (ROI), 9, 83, 150 risks developing business outside core abilities, 214 of entering global markets, 258 of milking strategy, 273
Robert Mondavi, 43
ROI. See return on investment
Rolls-Royce, 109, 110
Ronald McDonald House, 165, 203, 207
Rossignol powder skis, 44
Royal Crown’s Diet-Rite cola, 74
S
Sainsbury, 223
Saks, 111, 181
sales, 91, 144, 145, 194, 221
sales and market share, 332–333
sales or distribution capacity, 215, 216
sales patterns and forecasts, 64
Samsung, 57, 58, 108, 164, 204, 306
Samuel Adams, 221
saturation, 65
Saturn, 239, 267
SBU. See strategic business units
SCA. See sustainable competitive advantage scale economies
as entry barrier, 67
and global strategies, 248, 249
and growth-share matrix, 267, 268
for leveraging the business, 216
loss of, 333
from product standardization, 249, 253–257
and strategic alliances, 260, 261
scenario analysis, 21, 22, 92–94, 347
create, 93 estimate probabilities, 94 relate to strategies, 94
scenarios, creating, 21, 22, 347
Schweppes, 166
Schwinn, 69, 216, 219
scope dynamics
defining the market, 22
expanding the scope of the offering, 220–221
overview, 6
and visibility, 164
scope expansion, 6, 220–221 “Sea of Ideas” meetings (Texas Instruments), 88 segmentation benefits, 25
definition, 23
how to approach, 24–28
male shopper segments, 26
multiple segments vs. a focus strategy, 27–28
petfood segmentation strategies, 339, 340
variables, 24, 25, 222
segment level. See submarket analysis self-expressive benefits, 54, 172, 186, 188–190, 199, 204, 239, 241, 254, 269, 335 service quality, 106, 133, 139, 170, 334
shareholder value, 13, 243, 333–334
Shell International, 290 short-term financial pressure curse, 242, 245 short-term orientation trend, 80 Siebel, 231, 238
silence curse, 242–243, 245 silo units customer segments align to, 290 managing structure to, 289–291 marketing doctrine development, 291 marketing–sales alignment, 290–291
matrix organization, 289 organize teams to, 289
overview, 3–4
as portfolio, 266
problem of, 288–289
synergy among, 4
simplification trend, 81–82
Singapore Airlines, 106, 129, 134, 169, 232 Sirius, 35
size curse, 243, 245
size of competitor, 44
skincare customer decision journey, 126–127 Slack, 85, 113
snacking trend, 82
Snapple, 226
SoBe, 233, 240
social programs, 206–207
social responsibility quality, 106–107 Sony
  competing against Nintendo, 48 creating synergies, 116 design and manufacturing skills, 216
global businesses, 253
  and retrosexual male segment, 26
  visibility of, 164
sponsorships, branded, 203–204 Sprite, 254
standardized products and brands in global arena, 253–257
Starbucks
  customer centrity, 295
  expanding offering scope, 220–221
  as indirect competitor of Folgers, 41 in Japan, 9
  My Starbucksidea site, 33 niche market, 239 reward program and customer
    management, 159
  standardization, 253 stock return, 242, 262
  role of cash flows and marketing assets, 307–311
strategic advantage. See sustainable competitive advantage
strategic alliances, 249, 259–262
strategically important markets, 252 strategic analysis, 42, 43. See also analysis outputs; external analysis; internal analysis
  immediacy of strategic
    uncertainties, 92
impact analysis, 89–90
impact of strategic uncertainties, 91
managing strategic uncertainties, 92 strategic brand consolidation process, 275–281
strategic business units (SBUs), 12, 348
definition, 12
portfolio analysis, 350
strategic decisions, 19–21, 63, 96–97 strategic fit evaluations, 270, 277 strategic flexibility and business strategy selection, 10 as company strength, 51
  and global strategies, 249
strategic analysis, 89
strategic groups
  competitor identification, 42, 43, 335–342
creative thinking, 199–200 strategic initiatives and proof points, 173–174
strategic market management system, 10–14
strategic necessities, 70
strategic options, 10, 12
strategic paralysis, 275 strategic shoppers, 28
strategic strengths, 70
strategic stubbornness, 117
strategic uncertainties, 20, 21, 347
  immediacy, 92
  impact of, 91
  managing, 92
strategic value for collaborators, 261–262
strategic visions, 55, 116, 243, 244, 269, 280
strategy, 1–3, 19, 20. See also business strategies; marketing strategy development, 9, 12–14, 52, 93, 257
strategy performance system, 14, 339 strengths and weaknesses internal analysis, 12 and leveraging options, 202 market decline, 274 planning form for internal analysis, 349 profitable survivors of market decline, 274
strategic analysis, 97
strategic strengths, 70
SWOT analysis, 94–95
strengths and weaknesses of competitors, 49–52
  competitive strength grid, 52–55
  relevant assets and competencies, 49–52
  strategies based on, 48–49
subbrands
  effect on brand reputation, 217–219
  and endorsed brands, 220–221 subcategory labels, 237 submarket
  emerging, 61
  new technologies in, 91
submarket analysis actual and potential size, 62–63 defining the submarket, 22 dimensions, 59–60
emerging, 61
growth, 63
profitability analysis, 65–68 submarket growth, 65 substantial innovation, 84
substitute products, 65
superior position and SCA, 52
supplier power, 68
sustainability, 9, 81, 82, 85, 86, 90, 192, 195
sustainable competitive advantage (SCA). See also assets and competencies; competition access to low-cost labor and materials as, 251
  and assets and competencies, 7–8, 214–215
  and barriers to competition, 43
  and brand loyalty, 164
  and business strategy, 9
  from channel of distribution, 69 from distribution, 69
  from geographic focus strategy, 27
  and global strategies, 249
  from geographic focus strategy, 27
  overview and creating, 2 sales, market share, and, 333–334 from segmentation, 23 and selecting business strategies, 9–10
  and standardized products, 253 superior position and, 52 Swatch, 164
sweet-spot program, 183–185
switching costs and brand loyalty, 164
SWOT analysis, 94–96
symbols, branded, 205
synergies
  creating, 116–117
  difficult to obtain, 225
  and global strategies, 248
  between offerings, 28
T
tangible benefits of going green, 204 Target, 26, 95, 96, 201, 282 TaskRabbit, 85
technological innovation, 238
technology
  as bargaining chip in strategic
    alliances, 261
  branded differentiators, 198–199
  business trends, 83–86 impact of new, 91
technology (Continued)
information technology strategy, 9
innovation, 238
innovation quality, 105
leverage to manage customer experiences, 136 mobile, 133–134
motivation for strategic alliances, 260
R&D skills, 216, 268
strategic uncertainties, 21
Tenneco Oil Company, 271
Tesco grocery chain, 223
Tesla, 105
Texas Instruments, 67, 88, 108
The Learning Company, 226
Thomson Corporation, 34, 78
Tide, 187, 190, 196, 199
Tiffany, 168, 254
Timex, 235
Tokyo, 106, 164, 228
Tommy Hilfiger, 169
Toms Shoes, 106, 110
Toshiba, 164, 200, 261
Toyota, Aiko, 284
Toyota, 284
and demographic segments, 25
competitor analysis, 44
customer analysis, 79
e-mail, to FedEx and UPS, 67 entrepreneurial culture, 72
established firms, 31 to growth rate, 72
immediacy of threats, 92 impact of threats, 92
intangible attribute, 167
superior competitive entry, 72
SWOT analysis, 94–96
Tide, 187, 190, 196, 199
Timex, 235
Tokyo, 106, 164, 228
Tommy Hilfiger, 169
Toms Shoes, 106, 110
Toshiba, 164, 200, 261
Toyota, Aiko, 284
Toyota, 284
and demographic segments, 25
competitor analysis, 53
intangible brand value and associations, 167 joint venture with GM, 260, 262 manufacturing as strength, 51 recalls and quality problems, 284
scale economies, 260
U.S. and European factories, 252 trade barriers, 245, 251, 252, 260 trade-off questions for customer interviews, 30 transformational innovations, 83–84.
See also creating new businesses transformational leadership, 294 transparency trend, 81
trends
cultivating vigilance, 88
cultural trends, 80–82
customer trends, 79–80
environmental analysis of, 12, 346 fads vs., 69–70
identifying with external analysis, 22
and market/submarket analysis, 59–60
planning form, 337–351
and strategic analysis, 2 23andMe, 105
Uber, 84, 85, 100, 155, 201, 233
Udi, 184, 202
unaided recall, 164
uncertainties, strategic, 20–21 uncertainty avoidance trend, 80
Unilever, 34, 85, 96, 193, 256, 278, 290, 306, 329–331
Union Bank of California, 27
Unum, 3, 12, 23–24, 31–35, 40, 195, 237–239, 247, 283, 285, 290, 320, 329, 340
Upshaw, Lynn, 175
user-developed products, 32
value added components, 49, 50, 55, 60, 261
value-added stages, 68
value-capture mechanisms, 116, 118
value chain, 50, 68, 120, 219, 252, 261 value chain analysis, 68–69
value-creating system, 115, 116
value proposition, 7, 9, 12, 20, 104–110, 113–114, 181, 195, 237, 275, 293, 301
Valvoline and NASCAR, 203–204
Vanguard Group, 107
Victoria’s Secret, 167
vigilance, 88
Virgin Atlantic Airlines, 166, 169–171, 177
Virgin brand, 170, 207
Visa, 10, 167, 204, 221, 253, 254 visibility, 54, 164, 182, 183, 185, 196, 216, 219,
262, 280
visualization trend, 81 Vodafone, 253
volatility and vulnerability, cash flows greater customer stability, 310 internal mistakes, 311 rival entry, 311 rival switching strategies, 310 Volvo, 54, 165, 176, 186, 187
W
Wall Street Journal, 73, 141, 154 Walmart, 107
breadth dimension, 167
competencies, 51
failure in Germany, 258
green strategies, 85–86
operational capacity and efficiency, 51 power over suppliers, 68 price value leadership, 139, 166 and Procter & Gamble, 202
scope of, 6
single segment focus originally, 27
supplier power, 68
value proposition of, 7
and Unilever, 290
Warby Parker, 107, 201
Wasa Crispbread, 166 weaknesses. See strengths and weaknesses Web sites, 63, 209, 212
Welch, Jack, 220, 269, 281
Wells Fargo, 114, 200,
280, 292
Westin Hotel Chain’s Heavenly Bed, 131, 197–199, 233
Whole Foods, 113, 195, 201, 232, 233, 240
Williams-Sonoma, 6, 30
wine industry competitor analysis, 43 Woods, Tiger, 224
workplace communications, 113
X
Xerox, 61, 234, 237, 308
Y
Yahoo, 209
Yoplait’s Go-Gurt, 238
Young & Rubicam, 168, 225
YouTube, 81, 92, 178, 227
Z
Zappos, 15, 113, 128, 129, 166, 167, 190, 232, 233
Zara, 36, 116, 188, 233, 307
Zook, Chris, 222–224