Index

Action taking, 26
Actionable data, 27
Actionable intelligence, 17
Actionable objective, 28
Actions of learning leaders, 9–10
Adjustment phase, 36
Administrative individual contributors, 183 Aligned content, 25
Aligning and prioritizing, 85–86
Aligning with the business, 113–114
Alignment of business, 64 early establishment of, 25 inclusion of, 35 initiative level, 97 between learning objectives and business goals, 110 and measurement a new intervention, 105 and measurement an existing intervention, 104
Pfizer case study, 26
of tests with learning objectives, 126–128 types of, 37
Alignment wanted, 98
“All of the above” questions, 129
AMAP/AHAP/ASAP (as much as possible, as human as possible, as soon as possible), 44–45, 48, 50
American Society for Training and Development (ASTD), 1, 14, 75, 98, 116
Analysis improvement
data collection, 130–132
segmentation power, 133–137
summary, 137
Analytics continuum, 148 anecdotes, 17
benchmarks, 18–19
correlations and causation, 19
development analytics and learning continuation, 20–22
predictive analytics and optimization, 19–20 scorecards and dashboards, 18
summary, 22
“Analyze” category, 234
Anecdotes, 17, 22
Answers placed in logical order, 129
“Apply” category, 234
Approach, 89–90, 110–111
As Much as Possible as Soon as Possible (AMAP) vision, 42
Assessment of business impact, 159
ASTD. See American Society for Training and Development (ASTD)
Asynchronous distance learning, 7
AT&T case study
AT&T learning services challenge, 43–45 business issue, 41–42
AT&T case study (continued)
  execution, 51–55
  improving collectors skills, 41–52
  results, 55–59
  training design approach, 45–48
  training design content, 48–51
  conclusion, 59–60
AT&T leaning services challenge leaning services goals, 43
  new vision development, 43–44
  skill needs determination, 44 success measures determination, 44–45
Audience segmentation, 85

Baby Boomers (Boomers) backgrounds of, 10
  definition of retirement to, 4 generalization of, 2–3
  technology and, 6
Background(s) of Baby Boomers (Boomers), 10 of Chrysler Academy case study, 74 of Defense Acquisition Anniversary case study, 164–165 of Generation X, 10 of Leadership Program at a Fortune 500 Financial Company case study, 139–140
  of Millennials, 10 of Pfizer case study, 24–25 of VW Credit, Inc. case study, 88–89 of VW Credit, Inc. learning alignment with business, 109–110
Barrie, Paige, 89–95, 109–110, 113–114
Baseline data, 256
Basics, improving on. See Improving on basics Behavior change, 20 Behaviors and metrics, 44 and outcomes importance, 160
Benchmarks, 18–19
Bersin by Deloitte, 14, 34, 188
Best Buy, 9
Better Buying Power (BBP) initiative, 165
Beyond curricula, 86–87
Beyond training, 94–95
Big data, 10, 187
Bloom, Benjamin, 126
Bloom’s Taxonomy, 126–127, 233–235
Boomers. See Baby Boomers
  (Boomers)
Bork, Laszlo, 15
Boudreau, John, 19, 150
Brainstormed responses, 105
Break-even approach, 141
Bruce, David, 94, 113
Business data, 106–107
Business development managers
  (BDMs), 89–95
Business goals, 42 Business impact isolation of, 21
  Kirkpatrick’s levels and, 32 of leadership development, 159 measurement, 188
  qualitative demonstration, 146 Business impact achievement challenging and learning
    investment, 158–159
    evaluation, 159–161
    impact, 161–162
    optimizing the investment, 162–163
    working questioned, 159
“Business Impact” award, 75
Business issue, 41–42
Business measures, of success, 25

Business metrics
- actual, 146, 150, 156–157, 160
definition of, 64
evaluation of, 185 functional alignment with, 15 and human resources (HR), 188 impact to, 156–157
predictive analytics and, 175 understanding, 155

Business outcomes
- direct alignment of leaning to, 145–146
- investment alignment to, 155
- and learning investments, 177

Business results, 100
- and training design approach, 36

Business situation, 41–42

“Butts in seats” mentality, 6

Buy-in and engagement assurance, 46–47

Buy-in and traction, 62

C&C learning services, 43, 46–47, 52

Caesars Entertainment, 187

Capital Analytics, 26

Cascio, Wayne, 19, 150

Case study
- AT&T, 41–60
- Chrysler Academy Culture of Measurement, 74–77
- Defense Acquisition University: valuing training, 164–168
- Fortune 500 financial company: leadership program, 139–143
- optimization performance management, 177–179
- Pfizer, 24–29
- VW Credit, Inc., 89–95, 109–114

Causal model, 102

Causal relationships, 188

Causality, 149

Causation and correlations, 19, 148–149 criteria for, 19 establishing, 157 gentle guide to statistics of, 152–154 performance driver, 149–150 “Cause preceding the effect” test, 150

Cells, 256

Center for Talent Reporting, 33, 193, 218

Certainty, 155, 157

Chrysler, 15

Chrysler Academy case study
- background, 74
- fast-forward, 75
- measurement framework, 75–76
- plan origins, 74–75
- responsive and relevant, 77

Chrysler Academy culture of measurement, 74–77

Closing ratio, 101

Coaching and reinforcement, 53

Coaching techniques, 51

Cognitive shortcuts, 252

Collection agents, 111

Collection skills, versus customer satisfaction, 42

Collector skills, 44

College guidance, 7

Communication, effectiveness, 59

Comparability, 120

Competencies, 160

Competency modeling, 80

Competitive advantage, 10

“Comprehend” category, 234

ConAgra, 14

Concurrence, 85

Conference Board, 98

Connection Rallies, 53

Consistency, 122–124

Content, 118–120
Continuing the journey, 167–168
Continuous improvement, in-process measures for, 25
Control groups, 150–151, 157
CoP (Groton Community of Practice), 24, 27
Correlation analysis, 150
Correlations and causation, 19, 148–149
Coscarelli, Bill, 125
Cost growth reductions, 168
Cost-benefit analysis, 141
Course assessments improvement, Pfizer case study, 28
Course Commitment form, 112
Course design, 119
Course objectives, 83
Create category, 233
Credit & Collections (C&C) metrics, 43 organization, 42
Criterion-Referenced Test Development (Shrock and Coscarelli), 128
Cultural considerations, 52
Cultural relevance, 52
Culture merging, 43
Culture of fear, 63–64
Curriculum alignment, 37
about, 79–80
aligning and prioritizing, 85–86
beyond curricula, 86–87
learning from high performers, 82–84
performance map, 80–81
skill gaps closure goal, 80 skill gaps quantification, 84–85
summary, 87
Curriculum development, needs-based approach to, 75
Customer satisfaction versus collection skills, 42 results, 42, 48
Data credibility of, 106 from DAU, 165
planning for success, 66–69
storage and aggregated, 131
Data cleaning
about, 245–246
dates, 246 dealing with others, 246
Data collection, 130–132
Data collection for optimization, 174–175
Data definition, 106–107
Data gaps, 165
Data mining, 76
Data scientists, 66
Data segmentation, 134
Data set preparation and cleaning
about, 241–242
completeness verification, 244
data cleaning, 245–246
data privacy and encryption, 242 data quality confirmation, 244–245 feet getting wet in data, 242–243
multiple data source combination, 246–247 problems, testing and dealing with, 247–250 variable transformations, 250–253
Database merging, 249
Davenport, Thomas H., 171, 187
Dealer performance, 74
Decision making, data driven, 76
Deconstruction strategy, 103
DeEP engagement techniques, 51, 59
DeEP Levels 1-3 evaluations
Level 1 student surveys, 56
Level 2 assessments, 56
Level 3 behavioral surveys, 56
DeEP manager comments, 58–59
DeEP Results (Levels 1-3), 57–58
Level 1 student surveys, 57
Level 2 assessments, 57
Level 3 highlights, 57
Defense Acquisition Anniversary case study
background, 164–165
continuing the journey, 167–168
findings, 166–167
setup design, 165–166
Defense Acquisition University (DAU) data needs, 165–166 learning programs, 165 studies, 164 study results, 167–168
Delivery, 52
Deloitte, 14, 34
Demographic groups, 160
Demographic segments, 174
Demographics
individual, 133, 172 organizational, 133, 172
types of, 172
use for, 119 workforce, 9
Denominators, 130
Descriptive statistics, 18
Descriptors, 121
Design
comparability, 120
consistency, 122–124
learner-focused, 124
question, 122
scale, 121
survey length, 124
Details put in the stem (short and to the point), 128
Developing Extraordinary Performers (DeEP)
DeEP engagement techniques, 51
Phase 1 target audience operation managers, 50
Phase 2 target audience support managers, 50
Phase 3 target audience first and second-level contributing support managers, 50 workshops, 45–46
Development analytics and learning continuation, 20–22
Development of metrics, 15, 76
Development plans, for administrative individual contributors, 183
Developmental feedback, 183
Differentiation, 187
Direct alignment of learning, to business outcomes, 145–146
Discrimination, 174
Distractors, 130
Double negative usage, 128–129
Drug Safety Research and Development Group (DSRD), 24–25
Economy, 7–8
Effect size, 255
Effective leadership development, 159
Effectiveness measures, 37
E-learning, 7
Engagement, level of, 142
Engagement phase, 37, 67, 71–72, 225–226
Engagement process, 51
Engagement-by-tenure curve, 143
Evaluate category, 234
Evaluation, 159–161
Evaluation models, survey-based, 156
“Excellence in Practice” award, 75
Execution, 51–55
coaching and reinforcement, 53
cultural considerations, 52
delivery, 52
instructor delivery skills, 52–53
preview workshops, 51–52
reinforcement tools, 53–55

Fast-forward, 75
Feet getting wet in data
about, 242–243
data log, 243
Findings, 166–167
Flexible workplace, 5–6
Focus on management skills, 46
Focus on one vision, 45–46
Focus on the learners, 47
Forbes, 170
Formative measurement, 34
Framework of TDRp
about, 194–195
data sets, 196
executive reports, 196 standard measures, 195
statements, 196
Frey, William, 9
“Fuzzy” matches, 250

Gamble, Valerie, 24–28
Gamification, 7
Gap analysis, 87
Gap assessment communication, 92
Gap Assessment survey, 90
Gap projections, 4
Gap quantification, 93
“Garbage-in, garbage out” phenomenon, 117, 137
General linear models (GLMs), 155, 157
Generation 2020, 2
Generation definition, 2–3
Generation X backgrounds of, 10
generalization of, 2–3
Generational groups, 1
Generational shift, 5
“Gimmie” responses, 129
Global principles, 159
Globalization, 8, 52
Goals, clearly articulated, 105
Google, 9, 14, 61, 176, 187
Grammar tenses and plurals, 129
Groton Community of Practice (CoP), 24
Group size, 257
Guidelines for multiple choice questions, 128–130

Hard evidence using advanced analytics
about, 145–146
causation; what drives performance, 149–150 gentle guide to statistics of causation, 152–154 isolating the impact, 150–152
isolation and analytics continuum, 155–156
quest for isolated impact, 146–149
statistical modeling and significance, 154–155
summary, 156–157
Harrah’s, 14, 61
Harrison, Nigel, 140, 143
Harvard Business Review, 187
Hay Group, 170
High performer, definition of, 90
High performers, 82
Higher-quality performance plans, 183–184
HOW scores, 160–161, 163
How to optimize investments, 171–174
HR data warehouses, 175–176
Human capital, 16
Human capital analysis, 17, 155, 160
Human Capital Analytics: How to Harness the Potential of Your Organization’s Greatest Asset, 17, 150, 241, 255, 259
Human capital investment, 14, 98–99, 146, 148, 151, 241
Human capital studies, 151
Human Connection (HC)
  Level 1 student surveys, 55
  Level 2 Learning assessments, 55
  Level 3 pre- and post-behavioral surveys, 55
  Level 4 business impact evaluations, 56
Module 1: Connect to Collect, 48–50
Module 2: Negotiation to Win, 49
Module 3: Negotiating with Style, 49
Module 4: Collection Experts Solving with Style, 49–50
Human Connection (HC) results
  Level 1 student surveys, 56
  Level 2 assessments, 56
  Level 3 highlights, 56
  Level 4 highlights, 57
Human Connection (HC) workshops, 45–46, 48–50
Human resources (HR), 15, 98, 188
Human resources information system (HRIS), 67, 172

Immigrants, 9
Impact and certainty, 157 measuring, 64
  merit pay, 161–162
  performance impacts, 161
  turnover, 161
Impact analysis, 64
  statistical, 65
Impact measurement, 68–69
Impact measures, 66
Impact phase, 35, 38, 67, 231–232
Improvement, negative, 252
Improvement, positive, 252
Improving collectors skills, 41–52
Improving Level 1
  content, 118–120
  design, 120–123
Improving Level 2
  about, 124–130
  alignment of tests with learning objectives, 126–128
  analysis improvement, 130–137
  guidelines for multiple choice questions, 128–130
  performance-based learning objectives, 125–126
Improving on basics, 115–139
  about, 115–116
  alignment of tests with learning objectives, 126–128
  analysis improvement, 130–137
  answers placed in logical order, 129
  basics, 116–117
  case study, 139–143
  comparability, 120
  consistency, 122–124
  content, 118–120
  data collection, 130–132
  design, 120–124
  details put in the stem (short and to the point), 128
  grammar tenses and plurals, 129
  guidelines for multiple choice questions, 128–130
  Improving Level 1, 118–120
  improving level 1, 118–123
  improving on, 118–124
  leadership development, finding impact of, 142
Leadership Program at a Fortune 500 Financial Company case study, 139–140
learner-focused, 124
multiple choice questions guidelines, 128–129
Improving on basics (continued)
parallel format/structure for responses, 128
performance-based learning objectives, 125–126
preliminary results, 143
question, 122
scale, 121
segmentation power, 133–137
survey length, 124
trick questions, 129
usefulness, 129
valuing promotion rate, 142–143
valuing retention, 142
Improving versus proving, 177
In Conclusion, Get Started, 187–189
Inaction consequences, 42
Inclusion, of alignment, 35
Indicators, 137
Individual demographics, 133, 172
Individual information, 174
Informed learning, 7
Initial level, 32
Initiative alignment, 37
In-process efficiency measures, 37
In-process measures, for continuous improvement, 25
Institutional knowledge, 4–5, 10
Institutional strategies, 13
Instructor delivery skills, 52–53
Instructors, 118
Internal hiring, 143
Internal measurement competency, 62
Intervening factors, 106
Inventory taking of what it takes, 69
Investment. See also Human capital investment; Return on investment (ROI) alignment to business outcomes, 155 challenging and learning, 158–159
learning investments, 177, 188
on Measurement Map, 100 optimizing, 162–163 in people, 99 and performance, 149 time frame of, 140–141 Isolated effect of training, 146 Isolated ROI, 173, 177
Isolating impact, 147, 151
Isolating the impact price performance, 151–152
test and control groups, 150–151
Isolation and analytics continuum, 155–156 benefits of, 148, 156 difficulty of, 171 of investment, 157 of metrics, 76 principles of, 173
Isolation study, 156
Jain, Mayank, 140–141
JetBlue, 15, 61
Job analysis, 81
Job application, 119
Job openings, 4
Job role, 182
Job-specific training, 25
Kaufman, R., 118
Kaufman and Keller, 118
Keller, J., 118
Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), 80, 90, 100, 174
quantifiable, 107
Kirkpatrick, Donald, 32
Kirkpatrick and Kirkpatrick, 118
Kirkpatrick hierarchy, 34
Kirkpatrick methodology, shortcomings of, 147
Kirkpatrick model, 55, 118, 145
Kirkpatrick scale, 20
Kirkpatrick/Phillips system, 21–22, 33, 38, 198
Kraybill, Ron, 49
Kraybill Conflict Style, 49
Leader turnover, 161
Leaders, learning, 9–10 Leadership development, finding impact of preliminary results, 143
valuing engagements, 142
valuing promotion rate, 142–143
valuing retention, 142
Leadership Development Measurement Map, 103
Leadership development programs, 157, 159, 175
Leadership performance, 64
Leadership Program at a Fortune 500 Financial Company case study
background, 139–140
finding impact of leadership development, 142
investment, 140–141
preliminary results, 142–143
study design basis, 141 Leading indicators consideration, 106
definition of, 64, 100
expectations into, 104 implications from, 103, 111 layers of, 101, 106 and Measurement Map, 104, 146
use of, 110–111, 185
Learning services goals, 43
Learner focus, 124
Learning group activities and problem solving, 47 impact and value of, 25 scenario-based, 47 story-based, 47
Learning and development (L&D) alignment to, 15 analysis to, 15 business impact of, 171 business interaction of, 188 initiatives, 31 managing, 1
as retention tool, 162 and survey insights, 147 talent development, 170 team, 116
Learning effectiveness, 33 Learning effectiveness measurement (LEM) measurement before training, 34 methodology, 33
Learning from high performers, 82–84
Learning gain, 20, 32
Learning investments, 188
and business outcomes, 177 Learning management systems (LMSs), 32, 131, 172 Learning measurement system (LMS) core technology of, 66 data for, 67
Learning measures, 145
Learning objectives, 115 objectives alignment with, 125
performance-based, 125–126
Learning phase, 37, 67, 69, 228
Learning services achievements, 59–60 focus of, 47–48
Learning strategies, 13, 31 chose your own adventure, 49
Learning styles, 46–47
Lee, Mary, 132
Level 1 student surveys, 55
Level 2 Learning assessments, 55
Level 3 pre- and post-behavioral surveys, 55
Level 4 highlights
Module 1: Connect to Collect, 57
Module 2: Negotiation to Win, 57
Module 3: Negotiating with Style, 57
Module 4: Collection Experts Solving with Style, 57
Life cycle of change, 45, 47–48
Life expectancy, 4
Likert scale, 84
“Living the vision,” 97
Low-hanging fruit, 62, 86
Lykins, Lorrie, 6

Mager, Robert, 125
Major Defense Acquisition Program (MDAP), 165–166
Making changes, 93–94
Manager involvement, 119, 163
Manager participation, 183
Map, performance, 81
Map building, 82, 90–92, 111–113
Mapping cross-functional, 105 intended outcomes, 64 process, 87
Maps’ new application, 98–99
Maslow, Abraham, 82
Maximizing Performance process, 180–181
Mayer, Marissa, 9
McKinsey, 16
Measurement approach to, 75 functions, 65 skills, 65 uses of, 100
Measurement alignment
  about, 97
  alignment wanted, 98
  data definition, 106–107
  maps’ new application, 98–99
  measurement map building, 104–105
  measurement maps, 99–100 measurement maps appearance, 100–104
  summary, 107–108
Measurement as intentional process, strategy needs, 15–17
Measurement capacity, growth of, 68–69
Measurement culture, Pfizer case study, 27
Measurement framework, 32–35, 75–76
Measurement framework establishment
  about, 31–32
  measurement frameworks, 32–35 practical measurement framework for learning, 35–39
  summary, 39
Measurement Framework for Learning, 35
Measurement journey, 29 Measurement Map appearance, 100–104 building, 111
  business data, 106, 146, 178
  causal chain of evidence, 98 creation of, 155–156 described, 99 elements of, 125
  human capital investment, 99
  information needed, 112 introduction to, 97
  keys to use of, 107 learning initiative and business goals, 26 metrics training and business impact, 37–38 versus process map, 104 sketch of, 113–114 usage of, 110
Measurement map building
- alignment, define and measurement an new intervention, 105
- alignment and measurement an existing intervention, 104
Measurement mapping, 28
Measurement model, 140
Measurement of learning, 14
Measurement plan, elements of, 69
Measurement plan templates, 27
Measurement results, 117
Measurement strategy, 13–14, 31–32, 139
Measurements, specific, 250
Measures
- effectiveness, 37
- manager skills, 45
- metrics, 45
- in-process efficiency, 37
- of success, 16
Meister, Jeanne, 2
Mental model, 32
Mentors, 5
Merit increases, 161
- and training, 162
Merit pay, 161–162
Metrics
- and behaviors, 44
- business metrics, 156–157, 160, 188
Credit& Collections (C&C), 43
devlopment of, 15, 76
isolation of, 76
measures, 45
numbers of, 107
use of, 14
Millennials
- backgrounds of, 10
generalization of, 2–3
technology and, 6
Minorities, 182
Missing data
- data granularity problems, 248–249
- data matchup problems between sources, 249–250
- unavailable operational data, 249
Mission Assistance, 165
Mobile learning, 7
Mobile technology, 6
Morrel-Samuels, P., 118, 121
Multiple choice questions guidelines
- all-of/ non-of the above questions, 129, 238
- answers placed in logical order, 129, 239
- details put in the stem (short and to the point), 128, 237
double negative usage, 129, 238
- grammar tenses and plurals, 129, 239
- no “gimmies,” 129, 240
- parallel format/structure for responses, 128, 237–238
- responses in similar length, 129, 239
- trick questions, 129, 240
- usefulness, 129, 240
Needs analysis, 44
Needs-based approach, to curriculum development, 75
Negative improvement, 252
Negotiation, 48–49
New vision development, 43–44
Nonconcurrence, 85
Objectives, aligned with strategic goals, 125
Observational study, 147
Onboarding programs, 175
Ongoing processes, versus performance plans, 183
Online collaboration tools, 6
Online surveys, 133
Open talent economy, 8
Optimization, 17, 21–22, 146
Optimization of performance management, 177–179
Optimization technique, 162 Optimization through predictive analytics
about, 169
data collection for optimization, 174–175
how to optimize investments, 171–174 predictive analytics, 170–171 predictive analytics as learning game changer, 175–176 predictive analytics pioneers in human resources, 176–177
conclusion, 177–179
Optimization through prescriptive analytics, 148
Organization, tenure with, 174
Organizational changes, 17
Organizational demographics, 133, 172
Overall results, 60
Parallel format/structure for responses, 128, 237–238
Penetration rates, 133
Pensions, 8 Percent certainty, 256 Performance change in, 152
and investment, 149 previous versus post, 160
Performance analysis, 94
Performance differentiator, 85
Performance factors, 153
Performance gains, 170
Performance gaps attention to, 89 cause of, 86
indentification of, 63, 85–86
prioritization, 86–87
as structure for curriculum, 86
Performance impacts, 161
Performance map, 80–81
Performance plans development of, 181–182 versus ongoing processes, 183
Performance ratings, 161, 163
Performance-based curriculum, 87
Performance-based learning objectives, 125–126
Personality types, orientation of, 90
Pfizer case study
action taking, 26
alignment, 26
background, 24–25
course assessments improvement, 28 measurement culture, 27 postcourse evaluations improvement, 27–28 strategy creation, 26
strategy need, 25
next steps, 28–29
Phillips, Jack, 20–21, 32, 118, 145, 149. See also Kirkpatrick/Phillips system
Phillips, Ken, 127
Phillips’ hierarchy, 34
Plan development and blueprint measurement, 69–71
Plan origins, 74–75
Planning for success
about, 61–62
data, 66–69
inventory taking of what it takes, 69
plan development and blueprint measurement, 69–71
purpose and political will, 62–63
skills and capabilities, 65–66
tools and technology, 66–67
summary, 71–73
Political will, 63
Population size, 256 Positive improvement, 252
Postcourse evaluations improvement, 27–28
Posttest results, 115
alignment with learning objectives, 116
Practical measurement framework for learning, 35–39
Predictive analysis, 76
Predictive analytics. See also Optimization through predictive analytics business metrics and, 175 corporate use of, 170–171 data science and, 188 as learning game changer, 175–176 and optimization, 19–20 optimizing with, 188 pioneers in human resources, 176–177
use of, 38
Preliminary results, 143
Preview workshops, 51–52
Price performance, 151–152
Prior performance, 151–152
Priority alignment, 42 Problems, testing and dealing missing data, 248–249
naming conventions, 248 sniff test, 247–248
Proficiency, 84
Program beneficiaries, 177
Promotion rates, 142
Proof-of-concept, 167
Proving versus improving, 177
Purpose and political will, 62–63
Quantitative impact measurement model, 165
Quantitative return on investment
(ROI), of DAU training, 165
Quest for isolated impact, 146–149
Question, 122
Question design, 122
Rate of retention, 14
Recommendations, 119
Regression modeling, 153
Regression models, 153, 155, 157
Reinforcement tools, 53–55
Remember category, 235
Reports, types of, 131–132
Response scale, 122 Responses
in alphabetical order, 129 parallel format/structure for, 128 of similar length, 129, 239
Responsiveness and relevance, 77
Results
DeEP engagement techniques and manager comments, 59
DeEP evaluations, 56
DeEP manager comments, 58–59
human connection, 55–59
human connection results, 56
by segments, 133
by tenure, 136
Retention algorithm, 176
Retention rates, 142 Retention tool, learning and development (L&D) as, 162 Retirement
definition of, 4 delay of, 7 delayed, 5
Return on investment (ROI), 20, 32,
38, 145, 169, 173
Revenue growth, 170
ROI methodology, 149
Root cause analysis, 173
Rule of tens, 256
“Ruling out the other factors” approach, 150
Sales training, 115
SARS, 166
SAR-to-SAR cost growth, 165–166
Satisfaction, 20, 32
Satisfaction surveys, 116
Scale, 121
Schmidt, Eric, 187
Schrock, Sharon, 125, 127
Scientific methodology, 162
Scorecards and dashboards, 18
Segmentation, 130
Segmentation power, 133–137
Segmentation principles, 173
Segments, results by, 133
Selected Acquisition Report (SAR), 165
Semiretirement, 5
“Set up” condition, 79–80
Setup design, 165–166
Seven-point scale, 121
Skill gaps closure goal, 80 quantification, 84–85
Skill needs determination, 44
Skilled-trade workers, shortfall of, 4
Skills and capabilities, 65–66
Skills training programs, 175
Smile sheets, 117
Social platforms, 6
Solving with Style, 49
Specific measurements, 250
Spitzer, Dean, 16, 33–34
Spitzer’s alignment, 33–34
Standard deviation, 255
Standard operating procedures (SOPs), 28
Standard statements
  about, 198–199
  effectiveness statements, 201–205 efficiency statements, 206–207 outcome statements, 199–201 three statements, 208
Starbucks, 15
Statistical certainty, 256
Statistical measures, 155
Statistical modeling and significance, 154–155
Statistical models, 153
Statistical significance, 153, 255–257
Statistical techniques, 38
Statisticians, 148
Statistics, 256
Strategic acquisition outcomes, 168
Strategic contribution, 31 Strategic goals agreement on, 107 causal alignment, 111
  definition of, 100
  leadership goal, 102 measurement of, 101
  objectives alignment with, 125
Strategic measurement, benefit of, 169
Strategic planning, 16
Strategy, deconstruction of, 100
Strategy creation, 26
Strategy needs
  about, 13–15
  measurement as intentional process, 15–17
  Pfizer case study, 25
Structural equation modeling, 155
Study design basis, 141
Success business measures of, 25
  definition of, 102
  measures of, 16
  vision of, 45
Success measures determination, 44–45
Sullivan, John, 176
Survey insights, and L&D, 147
Survey length, 124
Survey questions, 118
Survey-based evaluation, 139
Survey-based evaluation models, 156
Survey-based methodologies, 149
Surveys, 130
Surveys and tests development, 131
Synchronous distance learning, 7

Talent Development Reporting principles (TDRp)
about, 191–192
assumptions, 193–194
conclusion, 216–218
framework, 194–196
guiding principles, 196–197 home of, 193
introduction of, 33 provisions of, 192–193
standard measures, 197–198
standard statements, 198–208
Three Reports, 208–216

Talent gap, 9
Talent models, 8
Task analysis, 97
Technology, 6–7
Telecommunication, 9
TelePresence, 51
Tenure, 20, 134
results by, 136
Test and control groups, 150–151
Test groups, 150–151, 157
Test questions, 127
Tests, quality of, 128
The 2010 Workplace (Meister and Willyerd), 2
“Think, Learn and Achieve” motto, 110
Three Reports
about, 208–210
L&D Operations Report, 216
L&D Summary Report, 210–211

Program (or Initiative) Report, 211–216
Throughput measures, 13
Time to impact, 156
Tools and technology, 66–67
Top box percentage, 121
Trading dollars allocation, 63
Traditionalists, 2
Trainee engagement, 140
Trainee’s leadership abilities, 141
Trainee’s promotion likelihood, 141 Training business values from, 16 impact of, 167
measures of, 16
and merit increases, 162 and results, 15 value of, 64
Training contribution calculation, 146
Training design approach and business results, 36
buy-in and engagement assurance, 46–47
focus on management skills, 46
focus on one vision, 45–46
focus on the learners, 47
life cycle change of two populations, 45 life cycle of change addressed, 47–48
Training design content
developing extraordinary performers (DeEP), 50
human connection, 48
human connection workshops, 48–50
Training initiative costs, 170 Training penetration, 132
Transfer (behavior change), 20
Transfer phase, 34, 37, 229–230
Transient workforces, 4
Trick questions, 129
Index

Turnover, 161–162
2008 recession, 8

“Unconscious competence,” 82
Union work level, 162–163
U.S. Department of Defense (DoD), 164
U.S. Department of Labor (DoL), 8 Usage, 20
Usefulness, 129
Utilization, 32
Utilization measures, 13

Value creation organizations, 9–10
Valuing engagements, 142
Valuing promotion rate, 142–143
Valuing retention, 142
Variable transformations
about, 250–251
currency value variables, 252–253 difference variables, 251–252 parentage scaled variables, 252
Variance, 255
VCI Academy (VCI), 88–90, 94–95, 109–111, 113–114, 170
Vestrics, 26, 92–93, 110, 159, 164–166, 181–182
VF Corporation, 170
VF Corporation case study
background, 180–181
conclusion, 186 phase one, 181–183
phase three, 184–185 phase two, 183
the study, 181
Videoconferencing, 6
Virtual communication skills, 7
Virtual workplaces, 9
Volkswagen Group, 88
VW Credit, Inc. case study approach, 89–90
Volkswagen Group, 88

background, 88–89
beyond training, 94–95
gap assessment communication, 92
gap quantification, 93
making changes, 93–94
map building, 90–92

VW Credit, Inc. learning alignment with business aligning with the business, 113–114
approach, 110–111
background, 109–110
map building, 111–113

WHAT scores, 163
White children, 9
Willyerd, Karie, 2
Wireless Collections, 42
Wireline Collections, 42
“Wisdom of the crowd” approach, 91
Women, 182
Work changes, 5–6 Workforce
about, 1
changes to, 13
demographics, 9
economy, 7–8
gap projections, 4
generation definition, 2–3
globalization, 8
of leaders, learning, 9–10
retirement, 4–5
technology, 6–7
virtual workplaces, 9
work changes, 5–6
summary, 11
Workforce planning, 177
Working backward process, 111
Working hours, 5
Working questioned, 159