accountability, vindicating, 262 achtung, feeling of, 87, 95–96, 97 acquisition, act of, 170 action
  and concept of good will, 124 and conscience, 242 duty and, 40–45
justification of, 45–46
and kingdom of ends, 107 maxims and, 61–62
moral assessment of, 123 moral worth of, 39, 40, 126, 127, 128 overdetermination of, 48
rational, 139–140, 147
“subjective principle” of, 91–92 action, criterion of different judgments yielded by, 78n. 15
FUL as, 60
agent’s reasons, 139
aiding others, duty of, 97 American revolution, 263n. 3 anarchy, 200
ancients, gratitude for, 224 animal nature, perfect duties arising from, 236 animals choices of, 21
duties to, 244
anthropology, 162, 258
anti-moralist, Kant as, 256 antirealists, metaethical, 249 applied ethics, 161 appropriation, problem of, 172 a priori principle, supreme principle of morality as, 134–135, 137n. 8 arguments, practical presupposition, 138, 139–141
Aristotle, 162, 178n. 12, 215, 257 arrogance, 96, 245, 246 artistic expression, Nelson Goodman’s account of, 44–45
assessment, criterion of different judgments yielded by,
    78n. 15
FUL as, 60
attitudes of “autonomy,” 8, 109 cultivation of, 225–226
authority
  and juridicality, 13
  second-personal, 144, 154 unquestioning obedience to, 260 authority to demand, 143–144 autonomy
  adopting attitude of, 8, 109 capacity for, 113
commitment to, 141
elements of, 105
and FPP, 152–153
and independence, 163
and kingdom of ends, 8–9, 110–111
notion of, 102
personal, 163
and second-personal competence, 154 autonomy (cont’d)
universal validity of, 259
of will, 146
avarice duty to avoid, 96
greedy compared with miserly, 240 Baron, Marcia, 2, 11, 13, 14 beauty, duty to respect, 244 Beccaria, Marchese, 188, 190
Bedürftige, 227n. 8
beneficence

duty of, 13–14, 213, 216–217, 224
limitations of, 214–215, 221
nature of, 216
and question of latitude, 217–222, 226 benevolence, dignity of, 108 Bentham, Jeremy, 193 bizarre principle, consider, 132, 133 bodily injury, and justice, 162–163 borrowing, ethics of, 53–54
Boy Scout principle, 46, 47, 48
Brennan, Supreme Court Justice William, 12
Butler, Joseph, 42
capital punishment, 12, 185, 187
as acceptable, 191
and clemency, 190
for external wrongdoing, 189 and ideal law, 191
for “men of honor,” 190 and moral respect for persons, 188–189 casual laws, 58, 63 “casuistry,” 260
catechism, moral, 256
Categorical Imperative (CI), 19, 121
application of, 95
bindingness of, 138
content of, 137n. 3
derivation of, 66
distinguished from hypothetical imperative, 5–6 effect on moral agent of, 98 formulations of, 6, 52, 77n. 3 “humanity formulation,” 83 identification of, 53
from intuitive examples, 153 meaning of, 257
and politics, 161
in popular press, 259
and praise, 38
as universal law, 105
Universal Law Formula of, 53 character Achtung elicited by, 96 and good will, 124–125, 137n. 4 cheating, revealed by PCI, 68 children, paternalism towards, 214 choices based on principles, 50 conditions on value of, 42 and dependence, 173 distinguished from wish, 162
and good will, 23, 36
human capacity for, 165 and humanity formulation, 94
importance of, 86
power of, 100
and property, 168
unqualifiedly good, 34–35
and value, 43, 88–89
CI. See Categorical Imperative
“CI-procedure,” 78n. 18, 231 citizens, of just state, 114, 116 citizenship, 9
coevolution, 168–169
ethical tests of, 69–70
external, 184
hindering, 168
justification of, 168–169
right as system of reciprocal limits on, 172–173 colonialism, 258
commonwealth, kingdom of ends as ideal, 106–107 community, of rational agents, 107 compassionate feelings, cultivation of, 225, 226 conflict of duties, and FUL, 75 cornformity, questions about, and FUL, 60 conscience
as fundamental duty to oneself, 241–243 role of, 15

consent, for rightful condition, 172 consequentialist principle, 132 Constant, Benjamin, 188, 239 Constitution, rightful, 175 constitutional crisis, 1937, 205 contract
  defined, 166
  freedom of, 172
  and private right, 166
  relations of, 171
contradiction in conception test interpretations of, 65–66 and multiple intentions, 80n. 44 versions of, 67
contradiction in will test, 71–74, 80n. 60 cosmopolitanism, 15, 114, 258 cosmopolitan rights, 9, 116 cost/benefit analysis, rejection of, 259 counsels of prudence, 5 court, international, 198 creativity, and good will, 21 crime and right to punish, 176–177 unnatural, 187
  victimless, 185
criminal law, 12, 179, 183 criterial reading, Kant’s derivation, 122
Critique of Judgment (Kant), 86
Critique of Practical Reason (Kant), 10, 58, 59, 88, 96, 129, 151 concept of good in, 26 “deposit” case in, 79n. 26 formula of autonomy in, 233 rejection of cost/benefit analysis in, 259
Critique of Pure Reason (Kant), 135
discussion of, 171
mathematics contrasted with philosophy
in, 263
CW test. See Contradiction in will test Darwall, Stephen, 2, 6, 10 Dean, Richard, 2, 7
decreation
ethical tests of, 69–70
  revealed by PCI, 68
defamation, 96, 245, 246 defer, reason to, 170 “definitive articles,” 9 deliberating agent, 148, 149–150 deliberation, role of FUL in, 71 deoontology, in ethical theory, 182 dependence
  and choice, 173
  and interference with another person’s freedom, 163
derivation of Categorical Imperative, 121
  interpretation of, 123
desire-belief model, of motivational forces, 184
desires, and humanity formulation, 94 deterrence-imposing system, of law, 181 deterrent effect, of punishment, 193 dignity distinguished from price, 108 inalienable, 100
  interpersonal aspect of, 138
  nature of, 108
  and nature of ends, 109
  second-personal aspect of, 141–144
  state of, 115
dignity of humanity, recognition of, 96 dignity of persons, and second-personal authority, 154
disposition and concept of will, 23
  cultivation of, 226
  disrespect, 99, 247
  divine will, and moral commitment, 104 drunkenness, 238
duty
  acting from, 40–45, 47–48, 49 based on humanity formulation, 93 “common Idea” of, 124 development of talents as, 51n. 15 divisions of, 229–230 fundamental principle of, 231 good will linked to, 76n. 1 of gratitude, 14
  to help the poor, 12 imperfect, 217, 243–244 indirect, 221
  inward requirements of, 60
  and law, 129
  of love, 13–14
duty (cont’d)
and moral worth, 36–40, 124, 125
to oneself, 14–15, 235–244 to perfect oneself, 216, 227n. 7
and punishment, 181
and rational nature, 84 of respect to others, 14–15, 245 reverence for, 260
and theory of moral reasoning, 230–233 transgressions of, 63 universal, 230
and universal law formulas, 53–54, 60 veneration of, 16

economics, and world order, 201 economic welfare, 263
egoism, rational, 140, 141 emotions, and rationality, 85. see also feelings “empiricism of practical reason,” 66 end, concept of, 231 end in itself
  good will as, 99
  humanity as, 93, 94
  meaning of, 84
  one’s own humanity as, 92 properly ordered will as, 92 qualification for, 85–86 rational nature as, 87, 91 ends
  contingent, 89
  human beings as, 262
  and humanity formulation, 94–95
  necessary, 89
  obligatory, 212–213, 222, 233–235 enforcement, presupposition of effective, 202 Enlightenment contemporaries, 261 Enlightenment faith, opposition to, 259 enslavement, ethical tests of, 69–70. see also slavery entitlement, 164
epistemology, Kant’s, 257 equality, 262
  innate, 165–166
  moral, 261
esteem, and moral worth, 40 esteem-worthiness, idea of, 39 ethical duties
  main divisions of, 229–230 obligatory ends as ground of, 233–235 ethical laws, internally self-imposed, 180 ethics applied, 161
  Kant’s, 15–16
  nature of, 212
  religious grounding for, 258 “eudaimonism,” 184, 257, 261
European Union, 13
evil, absolute, 26
“exception,” 220–221
exclude, right to, 169–170 executive, role of, 178n. 12 experience in derivation of Formula of Universal Law, 136 and will, 22
exploitation, 16 false promising, UC-maxim of, 66, 69 federation, pacific, 115–116 feelings
  cultivation of, 225–226
  sympathetic, 13, 14, 103, 224–226 Feinberg, Joel, 143, 186
Feldman, F., 77n. 8
FH. See Formula of Humanity as End in Itself
FHE. See Formula of Humanity as End in Itself Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, 230, 255, 261 fidelity, dignity of, 108 first-person deliverative standpoint, 150 FKE. See Formula of Kingdom of Ends force, use of, 169
Formula of Autonomy (FA), 4, 8, 102 action-guiding aspect of, 111 focus of, 111
initial statements, 102–104
and kingdom of ends, 112
and moral obligation, 105 practicality of, 112
Formula of Humanity as End in Itself (FH or FHE), 4, 7–8, 105 argument for, 149
and kingdom of ends, 107, 112
summary of, 106
Formula of Humanity (FH), 74, 76
interpretation of, 133–134
Christine Korsgaard’s argument for, 156n.15 misconception about, 56
Formula of Kingdom of Ends (FKE), 74, 76, 106 Formula of Universal Law (FUL), 4, 6, 53, 54, 105
application of, 76
applied to generic maxims, 63 compared with FA, 105 compared with PGW, 58
criterion for, 123
criticism of, 76
derivation of, 121–122
duties derived from, 133 establishing, 136
G.W.F. Hegel’s criticism of, 64
introduction of, 122
and kingdom of ends, 112
misconception about, 57
noncontradiction tests, 62, 65 persistent problems, 74–76 and supreme principle of morality, 124, 131
Formula of Universal Law of Nature (FULN), 4, 6, 53, 58
FPP. See Fundamental Law of Pure Practical Reason Frankenstein (Shelley), 29 fraud, and justice, 162–163
freedom, 151, 262
accounting required for, 164 defined by laws, 196
as independence, 162, 177 individual, 115
interference with another person’s, 163 limits on, 163–164, 168
and moral law, 151
negative and positive, 145, 146 stateless, 183
free riding, identifying case of, 68 free states, league of, 197 French revolution, 263n. 3 friendship, duties of, 222, 223
FUL. See Formula of Universal Law
Fundamental Law of Pure Practical Reason (FPP), 152–153
Furnam vs. Georgia, 192, 193
Galvin, Richard, 2, 4, 6, 7 gender, 263
generalization tests, in ethics, 80n. 50 globalization, 13
global order, just, 197 global political institutions, opposition to, 199 Glückseligkeit (happiness), 256. See also happiness gluttony, 238
goals, representations of laws on, 35 God
duties to, 244–245
rational nature of, 83
will of, 104
good absolute, 26
conception of, 25–27
Robert Johnson on, 25
pre-eminent, 35
qualified, 28, 29
without qualification, 28, 30 Goodman, Nelson, 44
goodness
conditional, 30
intrinsic, 8, 31
property of, 26
unconditional, 29–30
good will, 27, 256
and choice, 50
concept of, 3–4
and concept of duty, 36, 76n. 1, 124, 125
as end in itself; 99
explanation of, 19
and humanity formulation, 98
Robert Johnson on, 20–21, 27
and law, 130
principle of, 4
value of, 22, 24–25, 28, 33–34, 56, 125, 257
government branches of, 173
world, 13
governmental powers, separation of, 178n.

12, 197

The Grapes of Wrath (Steinbeck), 261

gratitude

as ethical duty, 13, 14 and obligation, 223–224

Gregg vs. Georgia, 192

Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals

(Kant), 1, 3, 10, 14, 52, 148, 151, 184

analysis of good in, 25 argument for moral law in, 144–155 derivation of Formula of Universal Law

in, 133

goals of, 121

main propositions in, 9 moral worth discussed in, 39

Preface of, 125, 126, 134

stated goal of, 20

Habermas, Jürgen, 205

Hamann, J. G., 261

Hampton, Jean, 191

happiness, 256

danger of, 27

ethics of, 54

and moral worth, 38–39

pursuit of, 23

subjective nature of, 217 understanding of, 213–214 happiness of others

as end, 232

as obligatory end, 212–213, 216, 226

harm, conception of, 167

hedonism, 237

Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich, 7, 64, 69, 230

Heine, Heinrich, 259

Henson, Richard, 37

Herder, J. G., 261

Herman, Barbara, 43

Hill, Thomas, 190

history, irrelevance of, 175

Hobbes, Thomas, 11, 42, 164, 183, 196

Holtman, Sarah, 2, 8

honor

as basis for morality, 176–177

human desire for, 246

inclination to, 126

rightful, 173

hospitality, universal, 116 hostility, mutual, 248

humanity, 256

and Constitution, 175

as end in itself, 7–8, 93, 94, 232, 235, 262

as good will, 98

as ideal, 98–99

“innate” right of, 11, 162, 164–165, 175

respect for, 112, 189

unconditional value of, 14

use of term, 83 humanity formulation. See also Formula of basic elements of, 83

Humanity

duties following from, 95–97

as moral principle, 90–95

human rights, 15

basic, 100

defense of, 258

Hume, David, 42, 164, 165 humility, duty to avoid false, 241

Hypothetical Imperative, 5–6

general principle behind, 6

as normative principle of rational willing, 72 requirement for, 74

idealism, transcendental, 261

Idea of Reason, state of nature as, 175 immorality, and humanity formulation, 94

impartiality

and beneficence, 222–223

universal validity of, 259

imperatives, defined, 5 imprisonment, institution of, 185 incentive, punishment as, 180

inclination, action from, 126

independence

central idea of, 162

freedom as, 177

and innate right of humanity, 164

and law, 172

and limits on freedom, 163–164

and principle of right, 11 indifference, moral, 260 indigenous peoples, mistreatment of, 258 inequality, and social custom, 247, 248 innate right, 165. see also right “inner impossibility,” 69 intelligence, and good will, 21, 31 intelligible, as distinct from sensible, 16n. 2, 236 international law, 198
intuitionists consequentialist, 146
deontological, 146, 152 inventors, 51n. 5
irrationalism, 15, 255
Johnson, Asbert N., 8
Johnson, Robert, 2, 3–4, 20
joy, sympathetic, 224 judgment and freedom, 146
  “a priori synthetic,” 257 and respect, 99
  role of FUL in, 71
  unilateral, 170
judiciary, role of, 178n. 12 juridicality
  non-binary understanding of, 204 presuppositions of, 202, 203 juridical state, 203 conditions for, 198
  republican, 197
  sovereignty of, 197
justice, 11–12
  beneficence as, 215
  and coercion, 168
cosmopolitan, 114
  and private right, 165–168
  and public right, 172–175 “punitive,” 184
  and role of law and politics, 162 united will and, 171 of World Order, 12–13
just state, 116
Kagan, S., 77n. 8
Kant’s Ethical Thought (Wood), 14
Kant’s Search for the Supreme Moral Principle (Kerstein), 9 Kerstein, Samuel J., 2, 6, 9 kingdom, defined, 107 kingdom of ends, 8, 102, 106–108 and citizenship, 114 laws for, 109–110, 111
  legislators for, 110
  members of, 114
knowledge
  and good will, 31
  limitation of, 261
  “know yourself,” 242
Korsgaard, Christine, 92, 148, 149
latitude and (im)partiality, 222–223 kinds of, 218
  rigoristic interpretation of, 220, 221, 222, 226 lawgiving, prescriptive, 180 law-making, and value, 88 Law of Nature Formula, 52 laws, 11–12. See also moral law acting for sake of, 136 authoritative interpretations of, 196
  and coercion, 168
  concept, 24
  externally imposed, 180 incentive for, 183
  and independence, 172
  Robert Johnson on, 23–25
  practical, 24, 129
  and private right, 165–168
  and public right, 172–175
  reverence for, 51n. 15
LCI. See Logical Contradiction Interpretation league of sovereign states, 197, 199 legal theory, punishment in, 181 legislators
  ideal moral, 111
  Kantian, 109
  for kingdom of ends, 114
  moral, 112–113
legislature, role of, 178n. 12 lex talionis, 12, 179, 183, 185 liberalism, political, 15
Libertarian Kantians, 255
Locke, John, 11, 164, 167, 170, 172, 183 Logical Contradiction Interpretation (LCI) test, 67, 69–70 love, duties of, 13–14, 211–212, 223, 226 lying, 200, 238–240

Marbury v. Madison, 205 marriage, purpose of, 248n. 8 Marxist Kantians, 255
masturbation, 187
maxim, 7. See also Volition, principle of acting on, 50n. 3 and actions, 61–62
application of FUL test to generic, 63 compared with principle, 62
concept of, 24
and contradiction in conception test, 65–66 generic, 70
immoral, 67
Robert Johnson on, 23–25
and kingdom of ends, 107
testing, 54–55
as universal law of nature, 54
McTaggart, J., 191
means, and humanity formulation, 94–95 means and ends, distinction between, 95, 162 “Mensch,” Yiddish use of, 99 mental illness
paternalism towards, 214 and responsibility for crimes, 194 metaphysics concept of will in, 22
Kant’s, 257
of morals, 10
The Metaphysics of Morals (Kant), 1, 95, 99, 179, 211, 256 on dignity and equal respect, 142 Doctrine of Right in, 177n. 1 fanatically moralistic person condemned in, 260 formula of autonomy in, 233 latitude defined in, 218 principal aims of, 229
Tugendlehre, 184
Mill, John Stuart, 56–57, 69, 161 misers, 240–241
moderation, and good will, 20 monarchy, universal, 200, 201 Moore, G. E., 27, 147, 149 moral agent, behavior of, 223 moral duty, examples of, 37 moral egalitarianism, universal validity of, 259 moral feelings, and ethical duties, 229 moral freedom, and law, 182 moral good, 35, 50
moralism, suspicion of excessive, 99 moralist, Kant as, 256 morality. See also Categorical Imperative; supreme principle of morality broadly construed, 112–113
capacity for, 100
categoricity essential to, 103 “common knowledge of,” 257
as end in itself, 86
first principle of, 103
fundamental principle of, 19, 42, 49–50
as illusion, 261
and rational agency, 138 of sex, 237–238
supreme principle of, 52, 121 moral law absolute bindingness of, 257 and concept of freedom, 151 consciousness of, 152
expressing, 45–49
and pure reason, 135
respect for, 7
second-person perspective on, 139
and Universal Law Formulas, 59–60
and value, 88
morally good person, and good will, 21 moral nature, perfect duties regarding, 238–241 moral obligation, second-person aspect of, 10 moral person, state as, 115 moral philosophy, 257
Anglophone tradition of, 235 fundamental questions for, 77n. 2 moral principle application of, 15 deriving supreme, 9–10
and end in itself, 90 essential features of, 116n. 2 humanity formulation as, 90–95 moral reasoning, theory of, 230–233 moral system, of state, 184 moral theory, misconceptions about, 56 moral worth, 125
claim of, 19
genuine, 41
and happiness, 38–39
unconditionality of, 129
value of, 46
Morris, Herbert, 191
motivation and moral principles, 42–43 overdetermination of actions by, 48 mysticism, 15, 255

naive agent, 147
natural laws
and choice, 34
and human choice, 21–22
Nazi Kantians, 255
neighbor, duty of love for, 214 non-assistance, maxim of principled, 232 nonbeneficence, 94
maxim of, 55
as universal law, 71–72, 73
noncontradiction tests, interpretation of, 55 “non-needy agent,” 73 non-persons, 189
norms, features of, 147 Nöten, 227n. 8

obedience, duty of, 203 “object of volition,” 147 obligation determination of, 154
and gratitude, 223–224
interpersonal aspect of, 138
and moral responsibility, 153
second-personal aspect of, 141–144
oneself, duties to, 14 ordinary moral thinking, 128 organic unities, doctrine of, 27 others, duties to, 14 “ought” judgments, compared with hypothetical imperatives, 6 overdetermination, examples of, 48 pacifist league, 197, 199, 201 parents, relationship with children of, 167 participant, use of term, 206n. 1 “participation,” 227n. 14 paternalism opposition to, 13
rejection of moralistic, 213
PCI. See Practical Contradiction Interpretation peace for humankind, 206 penalties, punishment distinguished from, 186 perfection
cost of, 103
duty to increase one’s moral, 219
as end, 232
moral, 243
natural, 243
as obligatory end, 212–213
perpetual peace, definitive articles of, 115, 197–198 personhood, and slavery, 113 persons as end-setting agents, 113
reverence for, 51n. 15
special value of, 262
PGW. See principle of good will philanthropist, discussion of, 126–127 philosophy, limitations of, 263. See also political philosophy
Pogge, Thomas, 2, 11, 13 point of view, first-person and third-person, 60 political borders, 263 political liberalism, 258
political philosophy, 161, 196 political power, legitimacy of, 177 political science, and world order, 201 political theory, Kant’s, 113 political units, small, 205 politics, 259
the poor duty to help, 12
duty to support, 173
possession physical, 177
sense of, 178n. 9
Potter, Nelson, 2, 11, 12 practical authority, second-personal kind of, 144

Practical Contradiction Interpretation (PCI) test, 67–68

practicality, of supreme principle of morality, 124 practical law. See Categorical Imperative practical presupposition arguments, 139–141 practical reason, critique of, 145 praise, disrespectful, 38

praiseworthiness, forms of, 37 predecessors, gratitude for, 224 price, distinguished from dignity, 108

Price, R., 152

Prichard, H. A., 152

Principia Ethica (Moore), 147 principle of good will (PGW), 4, 53, 58 principles

acting on, 44

actions as expressions of, 45 distinguishing right from wrong, 43

exemplification of, 44–45

expressing, 43, 47, 48, 49

Robert Johnson on, 23–25

objective, 24

subjective, 24

privacy, respecting, 246

private right, 11, 165–168 promising falsely, efficacy of, 68 property

defined, 166

intrinsic, 31–33

John Locke on, 167–168

and private right, 166

rightful claim to, 174

theory of, 168

“propositions,” for supreme principle of morality, 122

prudence

counsels of, 5

principle of, 98

“punitive,” 184

public law of peoples, 206

public right, 11, 169–172 punishment, 117n. 3. See also Capital punishment avoidance of, 181

discussion of, 176–177

and equality of respect, 193 function of, 190

justification of, 179, 182, 188

Kant on, 12

in kind, 186–187

law of, 184–185

and motivation, 47

punitive prudence, 194

“Pure Practical Judgment,” typic of, 58, 59 rape, ethical tests of, 69–70 rational action, 139–140, 147 rational agency

and moral philosophy, 112

valuing one’s own, 150

rational agents

concept of, 106

dignity of, 108

mutually accountable, 143

subjective ends of, 107 rational authority, first-person perspective on, 150–151 rational beings, 5

conception of, 104

and supreme principle of morality, 123

rationality, 14

and capacity for morality, 87 destruction of, 92–93

economic models of, 85

instrumental, 263

nature of, 83–85

shared, 26

universal validity of, 259

rational nature, as end in itself, 93–94 rational will, 4, 74, 262

criterion for, 76

uniqueness of, 22

Rawls, John, 111, 142, 177n. 4, 207n. 11

reason

agent-neutral compared with agent-relative, 155n. 7

concept of, 263

and ethical duties, 229

nature of, 24

power of, 85

representations of, 25–26
reasoning and choices, 34
   and Hypothetical Imperative, 72–73
moral Rechtslehre (Doctrine of Right or Law), 2, 114, 161–162, 179–180, 181, 211, 229 “reciprocity requirement,” 72 recognition respect, 142 rectitude, 258
reflection, and good will, 20 “regress argument,” for humanity formulation, 98 regress of conditions, practical presupposition arguments as, 148–149 “relevant descriptions,” problem of, 74–75 religion, duty of, 244 Religion Within the Limits of Reason Alone (Kant), 99 religiosity
   pietistic, 242
   sanctimonious, 15, 255
republic, world, 198, 201 republican constitution, 115 republicanism, 183
The Republic (Plato), 75 resources, access to, 263 respect, 261
   concept of, 129
   and dignity, 109
   duty of, 14, 15, 229, 245
   feeling of, 87, 95–96
   for humanity, 112, 262 moral feeling of, 241
   for oneself, 96
   for persons, 7
   recognition, 142
   treating people with, 99 respect for persons, and capital punishment, 189 responsibility, moral, 154 retribution and crimes of honor, 176
   law of, 185
retributivism, 179
   and capital punishment, 188
defense of, 193
reverence, feeling of, 87, 95–96 revolution, 183
   arguments against, 11–12 and social contract, 174 ridicule, 96, 245, 247
right
   cosmopolitan, 116
   independence as, 163
   innate, 164–165
   Kant’s theory of, 11
   moral significance of, 143 private, 165–168
   private and public, 162, 169 as reciprocal limits on coercion, 172–173
   relations of, 167
Right, Doctrine of (Rechtslehre), 2, 114, 161–162, 179–180, 181, 211, 229 rightful interaction, basic types of, 167 rightness, moral, of action, 127 rigoristic interpretation, 220, 221, 222, 227n. 9 Ripstein, Arthur, 2, 11
Romantics, 261
Ross, W. D., 152
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 183, 196
“rugged individualist,” 73 rules of skill, 5
rusting talents example, 73 sacrifice, of human life, 249n. 16 sadness, as sympathetic impulse, 224 scandal, duty not to give, 245 scouting principle, 46, 47, 48 second-person perspective, 139 self-conceit, 87, 99–100, 246 self control, and good will, 20 “self-deception,” 239 self-defilement, sexual, 237 self-government, 213 self-interest, 44
self-love, 99–100, 103, 236–237 self-perfection, 97, 235 self-preservation, 125–126, 236 self-scrutiny, 15
self-worth, measure of, 241 “sensible,” 16
sensible, as distinct from intelligible, 236 separation of powers, and juridicality, 13 servility, 96, 241
sex
extramarital, 258
morality of, 237–238
sexuality, for pleasure, 237–238 sexual practices, “unnatural,” 16, 258 Seymour, Melissa, 2, 11, 13, 14 shame, as basis for morality, 176–177 Shelley, Mary, 29, 31
skill, rules of, 5
slaughter, 246
slavery, 9
and colonialism, 258
ethical tests applied to, 70 rejection of, 262
wrongness of, 113
social causation, and responsibility for crimes, 194
social contract
punishment in, 176
of state, 174
social custom, and inequality, 247, 248 Social Democrat Kantians, 255 social rank, and punishment, 186 “soulless despotism,” danger of, 205 sovereign judging, 174
right to punish of, 176 sovereignty absolute, 207n. 8
of juridical state, 197 Spinoza, Benedict de, 262 spouse, runaway, 257
state duty to support poor of, 173 juridical, 197, 198, 203
just, 116
moral need for, 171
moral system of, 184
powers of, 173
punishment provided by, 182 with separation of powers, 205 teachers, relationship with students of, 167 state of nature, 196 status
and private right, 166
relations of, 167, 171
Steinbeck, John, 261 “subjective,” use of, 91–92 suicide, 16, 66, 92, 94, 236–237
ethics of, 53
prohibition of, 258
wrongness of, 257
supreme being, belief in, 100 Supreme Court, U.S., 205
supreme principle of morality characteristics of, 123–124 criteria for, 132
as necessary, 123
propositions for, 130–132 rivals to Kant’s principle, 134 and utilitarianism, 131 sympathetic feeling, 13, 14, 103, 224–226 sympathy, duty of, 224 talents, ethics of developing, 54
teachers, relationship with students of, 167 technology, and world order, 201 Teilnehmung (sympathy), 227n. 14 teleology, in ethical theory, 182 theft, and punishment, 185 theism, 261
third-person perspective, 140 torture executions, rejection of, 191–192 transgressions, 258
treason, punishment of, 188 truthfulness, requirement of, 239 truth-telling dignity of, 108
and moral law, 49
and punishment, 47
Tugendlehre (Doctrine of Virtue), 2, 38, 180, 211, 231–232 UC-maxim, 66. See also Maxim unfairness, revealed by PCI, 68 United States, federal system of, 13 universal conformity, 35 universal duties, 230
universal hospitality, 116

Universal Law Formulas, 6–7, 52, 232, 233 derivation of duties from, 53–54 misconceptions about, 56 noncontradiction tests of, 55
role of, 59–60
universal law of nature, UC-maxim as, 61 universal laws, 76, 105. See also Formula of Universal Law universal legislation, possible, 50 universal monarchy, 200, 201 uprightness of character, perception of, 51n. 10 usufruct, system of, 165 utilitarianism, 131

value
community of shared, 258
conception of, 88
and concept of good, 25 conditional, 32, 89
intrinsic, 8, 32
in Kant’s theory, 7–8
kinds of, 8
moral, 40
and price, 108
qualification of, 27–28, 30 rational moral, 248
and rational will, 49–50 value of ends arguments, 148, 149 value of rational agency argument, 148, 149–150 vices, 96
violence, 16
virtue
concept of, 20
as worthiness, 97
Virtue, Doctrine of (Tugendlehre), 38, 211, 229, 231–232 volition, principle of, 128

Watson, Gary, 154
weak universalization, principle of, 132–133 wealth, uneven distribution of, 215 well-being, moral, 214

the Will caption of, 3, 21
definition for, 145
human distinguished from holy, 22
Robert Johnson on, 21–23
natural purpose of, 23 perfect or holy, 86–87
and practical law, 129
in practical presupposition arguments, 140 and practical reasoning, 86
rational, 26
test of contradictions in, 71–74
Wille, 50n. 2
Williams, Bernard, 154 willing, action as effect of, 128 wit, and good will, 21
women, protecting dignity of, 249n. 8
Wood, Allen, 2, 11, 14, 15, 103, 148, 149, 223

World Order, just, 12–13 world republic, 197–198, 199, 206

Zärtlichkeit, 228n. 15
Zauberflöte, Mozart’s Die, 99
Zweig, Arnulf, 2, 15–16