Accumulation:
  focus of, 143
  reconciling retirement income portfolio construction with, 15–19 simulated paths for, 31–32
  transition from accumulation to retirement and, 144–146
  See also Engineering approach to allocations
Accumulation plans, see Constructs, basic portfolio Accumulation portfolios:
  asset gatherers and, 246
  brokers and, 244
  financial planners and, 248
  overview of, 4
  transitioning into retirement income portfolios, 90–91
Action planning, after losses, 230–233
Active risk management:
  active rebalancing, 130–132
  after losses, 233
  cushion and, 126–128
  description of, 88
  expected returns and, 122
  high-water mark flooring, 125–126
  overview of, 115–118
  periodic rebalancing, 128–130
  protecting lifestyle flooring, 108 rules for, 123–124
  simple plan for, 124–125
  static example of, 118–121
  taxation and, 133–134
  view from capital market line, 121
Adviser-client relationship:
  end result of, 221
  overview of, 203–207
  resources, knowledge of, 207–210
AIG, bail-out of, 56
Allocations:
  cash, transition to precautionary, 144–145
  for lifestyle, age, and inflation, 149
Annuities:
  basic, 52–54
  choosing time for, 77–78
  complex, 54–55
  description of, 219
  economic factors of, 147
  issuer risk and, 220 psychological factors of, 147
  reverse mortgages as, 183–184
  sleeving and, 74, 75
  variable, 55, 180, 182, 183
  See also Mortality, monetizing
Annuitization, definition of, 71
Aspirational floor, 34, 37–38, 203–204
Assessment, after losses, 229
Assets:
  being underwater on, 229
  of client, 208
  risky, allocations to, 88, 97–99
  rollover, 244, 245–246, 248
  upside, 181–182, 183
Assets under management (AUM), 245, 246
At-risk flooring, 117
Auction rate securities, 135–136
Balanced portfolios:
  drawdown plans, 19
  fixed depletion weights, 7–9
  fixed spending levels, 5–7 Murphy’s Law of retirement and, 9–10
  overview of, 4–5
Balanced sheet view of flooring, 28–30, 31, 43–45
Balance sheets, of clients, 207–209, 215
Bedrock floor, 34, 36–37
Black, Fisher, 130
INDEX
Bonds
  bond strips and, 219, 220
  bullet, 51
  discount, 84
  OID, 66
  zero-coupon, 59–60
Borrow cost, 225
Bottom-up estimates, 37
Brick layer accumulation plan, 78–79
Brokers, 243–245
Bullet bonds, 51
Bundled products, 180, 182–183
Business model that includes natural transition, creating, 152–153
Business risks, 213
Buy/write portfolios, 132–133, 136–137
Callable securities, 61, 66
Capital Asset Pricing Model, 120
Capital market contracts, 24
Capital market line (CML):
  active risk management and, 121
  adding to flooring, 111–112
  allocation along, 72, 73
  allocation by age, 99–100
  as illustrative, 76–77
Capital markets flooring, reversibility of, 220
Capital markets products:
  choice of, 46, 48
  flooring with, 59–67
  trading of, 218–219
Capital markets wealth, 44
Cash allocation, transition to precautionary allocation, 144–145
Change, as disruptive, 71
Client segmentation, see Market segmentation CML, see Capital market line
Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures (CUSIP), 63
Constant proportional portfolio insurance (CPPI), 130–133
Constant relative risk aversion, 19–20
Constrained lifestyle, definition of, 188–189
Construction of portfolio, and reconciling retirement income with accumulation, 15–19
Constructs, basic portfolio:
  brick layer, 78–79
  overview of, 77–78
  surge maker, 80
  track layer, 79–80
Consumption floor, see Flooring Consumption needs:
  as risk-free liability, 32–33
  yes/no planning, 33–34
Corporate securities, 66
Coupon strips, 63
CPPI (constant proportional portfolio insurance), 130–133
Crash risk, 128–129, 130
Credit risk:
  definition of, 61
  insurance contracts and, 55–57
  municipal securities and, 66
Cushion:
  measuring, 124
  overview of, 126–128
  rebalancing and, 164
CUSIP (Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures), 63
Death benefits of complex annuities, 54
Decreasing relative risk aversion, 19, 20–21, 98, 241, 242
Derivative contracts, 66–67
Discount bonds, 84
Discount rates, 224–225
Discount securities, 151
Discretionary equity allocations, 97–99, 215, 230
Discretionary wealth:
  sleeving for, 74–76, 78
  during transition, 145
Discretionary wealth subportfolios, rebalancing, 108–109
Diversification:
  of credit risk, 56
  of risk, 214
Drawdown plans:
  as sensitive to longevity, 10
  views of, 161
Economic models of retirement income:
  dynamics of risk aversion, 19–21
  funding of flooring, 22–23
  market risk and mortality risk, 23–24
  overview of, 13–15
reconciling portfolio construction with accumulation, 15–19 risk, uncertainty, and risk aversion, 25 separation between flooring and upside, 21–22
See also Mortality, monetizing
Efficient frontier, 72
Engineering approach to allocations:
discretionary equity allocations, 97–99, 215, 230
flooring allocations, 88–93
longevity allocations, 93–96
overview of, 87–88
precautionary allocations, 88, 96–97
summary of, 99–103
Enhanced yield products, 135–136
Equities, 219
Equity allocation, during transition, 145
Example portfolios:
high net worth as group, 194–201
mass affluent as group, 187–194
mass market as group, 186–187
overview of, 185–186
ultra-high net worth, 201–202
Excess portfolio sleeving, 73–74
Exchanges, trading on, 219
Expected return:
calculating, 17
risk management and, 122
Explicit notional, flooring as providing, 102–103
Fallacies and mistakes, 224–228
“Fat tail” events, 122
Financial capital, definition of, 208
Financial planners, 247–248
Financial professionals:
asset gatherers, 245–246
categories of, 243
financial planners, 247–248
insurance planners, 246–247
portfolio managers, 248–249
transaction-oriented salespeople, 243–245
Financial wealth:
alternative and restricted view of, 44–45
definition of, 29
Fixed income allocation, transition to flooring allocation, 144
Flooring:
allocations to, 88–93, 148–150
aspirational, 34, 37–38
at-risk, 117
balance sheet view of, 28–30, 31, 43–45
bedrock, 34, 36–37
bounded outcomes and, 30–32
capital market contracts, 24
choosing type of, 45–48
definition of, 28, 75, 203–204
finished, 38
fully funded compared to underfunded, 22–23
goal of protecting, 107–108
high-water mark, 125–126
hybrid, 46–48
inflation-protected, 38–42
insurance contracts, 24, 55–57
locking in, 81, 116, 134–135
nominal vs. real, 28, 38–42
notional, 116
as providing explicit notional, 102–103
raising, 111–112
securing under lifestyle, 14–15, 27–28 separation between upside and, 21–22 sleeve for, 73–76
as stimulative to economy, 228
types of, 42–45, 214–221
Flooring cost, 117
Flooring products:
基本 types of, 179
bundled with upside products, 183
definition of, 178
Flow amounts, 209
Focus of portfolios, changing, 3
Formulas:
Capital Asset Pricing Model, 120
cumulative returns, 227
finding flooring allocations, 92
forward value, 226
habit formation, 238–239
HARA framework, 236–237
optimal consumption, 14
retirement income problem, 16–18
Forward value, 226
Fully taxable accounts, 82, 83
Functional components, rebalancing, 109–111
GMAB, GMIB, and GMWB plans, 55, 56
GMAB, GMIB, and GMWB products, 182, 183
Government principal strips:
to create flooring, 61–63, 64, 65
finding and buying, 51 Government securities:
to create flooring, 59–60
municipal, 65–66
overview of, 60–61
strips, 61–63, 64, 65
TIPS, 40–42, 63, 65
Guaranteed minimum accumulation, income or withdrawal benefits plans, 55, 56
Guaranteed minimum accumulation, income or withdrawal benefits products, 182, 183
Habit formation, 238–241
HARA (Hyperbolic Absolute Risk Aversion)
framework, 236–238
Healthy status, after losses, 230–231
Hedges, buying, 143–144
Hedging guaranteed stock performance, 225
High initial habit formation, 239–240
High net worth as group example portfolio:
constrained lifestyle at retirement, 199–200
constrained lifestyle with transition, 196–199
overview of, 194–195
simple lifestyle, 195–196
underfunded lifestyle at retirement, 201
underfunded lifestyle with transition, 200–201
High-water mark flooring, 125–126
Historical backtest of managing risk in retirement allocations, 131–132, 164–165
Hole, digging out of, 228–233
Horizon, and risk, 225–227
Human capital, definition of, 29, 208
Hybrid flooring, 46–48
Hybrid liquidity, 137
Hyperbolic Absolute Risk Aversion (HARA)
framework, 236–238
Incentive effect, 184
Inflation: impact of, 38–39
problem of, 28
risk of, 214
Inflation-protected flooring, 38–42
Inheritance, 146
Inorganic liquidity, 137
Insurance contracts, 24, 55–57
Insurance planners, 246–247
Insurance products, 50–51, 219, 231
Insurance wrappers, 55, 75, 182–183
Intuition, portfolio, 76–77
Investment risks, 213
IRA accounts:
rollover, 84
Roth, 82–83, 84
Issuer risk, 219, 220
Lax model of habit formation, 238–241
Level-payment annuities, 34–35
Level-payment (real) annuities, 35–36
Liabilities, of client, 208
Life-cycle planning:
empirical studies of, results of, 241–242 history of theoretical developments in, 235 lifestyle and, 210–212
model, 235–238
rising lifestyles and habit formation, 238–241
Lifestyle:
flooring types and, 214–221
life-cycle and, 210–212
risks to, 212–214
See also Simple lifestyle; Stressed lifestyle;
Underfunded lifestyle
Lifestyle flooring, see Flooring Lifestyle maintenance:
balanced portfolios and, 4–5 floor for, 7
window for, 34–36
Lifestyle risk, 7–9
Locking in flooring, 81, 116, 134–135
Longevity, 219
Longevity allocations, 93–96
Longevity protection, 178, 179
Longevity risk, 88
Losses, regaining ground after, 223, 228–233
Low initial habit formation, 239, 240–241
Market risk, taking, 23–24
Markets, behavior of, 30–31, 205, 223, 228
Market segmentation:
  example portfolios for, 185–186
  by lifestyle, wealth and age, 174–175
  by lifestyle and wealth, 173, 174
  overview of, 167
  for retirement income portfolios, 169–175
  for traditional portfolios, 168–169
Markowitz special case of Modern Portfolio Theory, 15
Mass affluent as group example portfolio:
  constrained lifestyle at retirement, 192–193
  constrained lifestyle with transition, 188–192
  overview of, 187–188
  simple lifestyle at retirement, 188
  underfunded lifestyle at retirement, 194
  underfunded lifestyle with transition, 193–194
Mass market as group example portfolio, 186–187
Mean/variance optimization, 19
Mistakes and fallacies, 224–228
Modern Portfolio Theory, 4, 7, 15
Monitoring portfolios against cushions, 127–128
Mortality, monetizing:
  flooring via, 75
  risk pooling and, 23
  underfunded lifestyle and, 48
  See also Annuities
Mortality-monetized consumption, 44
Mortality risk, taking, 24
Municipal securities, 65–66
Murphy’s Law of retirement, 9–10

Nominal flooring:
  definition of, 28
  real flooring compared to, 38–42
Normal distribution, and Value at Risk, 122
Notional flooring, 116

OID bonds, 66
One-sided rebalancing, 108, 109–111
One-sided taxable accounts, 82
Optimal consumption, 14
Organic liquidity, 137

Outcomes:
  bounded compared to unbounded, 30–32
  managing expectations around, 184–185
  “Over the hump” fallacy, 228
Owner’s equity, 208

Passive management style, 116, 123, 124
Payout funds, 78
Personal income statement, 209–210
Personal risks, 212–213
Phantom income, 40–41, 61, 221
Planning questions, 211–212
Portfolio managers, 248–249
Portfolios
  see Example portfolios; Rebalancing
  portfolios; Static portfolios
Portfolio sleeves for retirement income, 72–76
Precarious status, after losses, 231–232
Precaution, 214
Precautionary allocations, 88, 96–97
Precautionary holdings:
  definition of, 178
  product types, 180
Products:
  for asset gatherers, 245–246
  basic building blocks, 178–180
  bundled, 180, 182–183
  enhanced yield, 135–136
  for financial planners, 247–248
  flooring, 178, 179, 183
  functional definitions of, 178 insurance, 50–51, 219, 231
  for insurance planners, 246–247
  for portfolio managers, 248–249
  reverse mortgages, 183–184
  solutions compared to, 12
  for transaction-oriented salespeople, 243–245 wrapped, 55, 75, 182–183
  See also Capital markets products Proposal for transition:
  accumulation plan types, 160–161
  allocations, 161–163
  current status, showing, 156–158
  lifestyle and flooring types, 160
  overview of, 155
  passive vs. active risk management, 163–165
  reconfiguration, 158–160
Protection: of flooring, 107–108
of lifestyle, 214
longevity, 178, 179
Public policy risks, 213, 214
Pure longevity insurance, 50–51

Real flooring:
definition of, 28
nominal flooring compared to, 38–42

Rebalancing portfolios:
active risk management and, 128–132
along functional dimension, 163–164
discretionary wealth subportfolios, 108–109 functional components, 109–111
overview of, 107–108
raising floor, 111–112
Reconfiguration proposals, 158–160
Regaining ground after losses, 223, 228–233

Resources, knowledge of, 207–210

Retirement flooring, see Flooring
Retirement Income Industry Association (RIIA), advisory process of, 205–207
Retirement saving problem, 10–11
Reverse mortgages, 183–184
Reversibility, 219–220
Risk:
crash, 128–129, 130
credit, 55–57, 61, 66
horizon and, 225–227
increasing, as improving outlook, 224–225 issuer, 219, 220
lifestyle, 7–9
longevity, 88
market, taking, 23–24
mortality, taking, 24
pooling, 23, 49–50
to retirement lifestyle, 212–214
shortfall, 5–7
tolerance of, and locking in flooring, 81
types of, 11–12
See also Active risk management

Risk aversion:
age and, 241–242
dynamics of, 19–21
preferred portfolios for, 25
segmentation and, 168, 171
See also Decreasing relative risk aversion
Risk measurement, risk management compared to, 115–116
Risk-return focus, 30–31
Risky assets, allocations to, 88, 97–99
Rollover assets, 244, 245–246, 248
Rollover IRA accounts, 84
Roth IRA accounts, 82–83, 84
Scalability, 135
Securities:
auction rate, 135–136
callable, 61, 66
corporate, 66
discount, 151
See also Government securities
Segmentation:
example portfolios for, 185–186
by lifestyle, wealth and age, 174–175
by lifestyle and wealth, 173, 174
overview of, 167
for retirement income portfolios, 169–175
for traditional portfolios, 168–169
Shortfall risk, 5–7
Simple lifestyle:
definition of, 188, 216
flooring types for, 188, 216, 217, 218
Sleevering, 73–76
Social capital, definition of, 29, 208
Stack-and-roll plans, 244
Stack-and-roll transition, 151–152
Static portfolios:
under market stress, 118–121
taxation and, 133
Status reports, 156–158
Stay the course strategy, 232
Stressed lifestyle:
definition of, 216
flooring types for, 48, 217, 218
Strips, and cushion, 127–128
Sudden transition from accumulation to retirement, 153
Surge maker accumulation plan, 80
“Tail” events, 122
Target allocation with periodic one-sided rebalance, 111
Target date funds, 78
Index

Taxation:
  active risk management and, 133–134
  categories of accounts and, 81–83 discussions with adviser, 220–221
  of phantom income, 61
rebalancing and, 109, 110–111
  shields, using advantageously, 72, 83–85
Taxation:
  of phantom income, 61
Tax-deferred accounts, 83
Templates, generic:
  brick layer, 78–79
  overview of, 72
  surge maker, 80
  track layer, 79–80
Three-tier liquidity hierarchy, 137
TIPS (Treasury Inflation Protected Securities), 40–42, 63, 65
Top-down estimates, 36–37
Track layer accumulation plan, 79–80
Transaction costs, and rebalancing, 108–109
Transaction-oriented salespeople, 243–245
Transition from accumulation to retirement income:
  after losses, 230–231
  allocations for, 204
  business model that includes, 152–153 difficult, handling, 146–148 making seamless, 150–152
  order of, 144
  overview of, 19, 141–144
  steps in, 144–146
  sudden, handling, 153
timing of, 148–150
See also Proposal for transition
Treasury Inflation Protected Securities (TIPS), 40–42, 63, 65
Triage, after losses, 229–230
Ultra-high net worth example portfolio, 201–202
Underfunded lifestyle:
  definition of, 193, 216
  flooring types for, 48, 217, 218
  portfolios for, 193–194
Underwater on assets, 229
Upside, definition of, 178
Upside assets:
  combined flooring/upside products, 183
  product types, 181–182
Value at Risk (VaR), 122
Variable annuities, 55, 180, 182, 183
Volatility:
  calculating, 17
  CPPI and, 132–133
  over time, 227
Wealth:
  financial, 29, 44–45
  lifestyle and, 216
  See also Discretionary wealth
Window for maintaining lifestyle, 34–36
Wrapped products, 55, 75, 182–183
Yes/no planning, 33–34
Yield enhancement, 135–136
Zero-coupon bonds, 59–60