INDEX

3PL (third party logistics) 121 absorption costing 98 activity service offerings 58, 67
advanced services
  business processes 79–101, 199, 204–211
  categorization 65, 66 characteristics 76–77
  customer motivations 94–100 definition 64–68
delivery 107–122, 134–135 examples 76–77
extended life-cycles 69–71
facilities and location 144–147
features 69–75
financial performance 80–82
generalized economic model 74, 75
ICTs 169, 170–177, 178
knowledge bases 11, 12, 13
leadership 107–110
manufacturer motivations 87–94
new aspects 15–16
organizational structure 154–159
penalties 71–72
people deployment 183–185
practices 9–10
proactive processes 208–211
product-service systems 6–10, 112–116
profitability 82–87
radar diagrams 67–68
responsibilities 71–72
revenues 72–75, 82–87
risks 71–72
roadmap 100–101
scope 5–9
service delivery systems 116–119
services 82–87
summary 76–77
technologies 9–10
terminology 5–9
transitions 218–221, 231
vertical integration 159–163 world of production 110–112 Aerospace 11, 46, 145–146, 161 aftermarket 29
after-sales phases 201–202 aircraft/airlines
  business implications 91, 97–98
  front office employees 196
service delivery systems 120
servitization elements 73
skill-sets 190
technology innovation
  perspectives 40
allocation costing 98
Alstom
  business implications 90–91, 97
  customer facing measures 127
  facilities and location 144, 147, 149
  front office employees 192
  ICTs 175–176
  knowledge bases 11, 12
  leadership 109
macro internal performance measures 128, 129
organizational structure 156, 164–165
service delivery systems 120, 121
servitization elements 60, 70, 71
vertical integration 159, 161–165
  see also London Underground
Northern Line
America
  advanced service delivery 117
  business implications 91
  economic perspectives 24–27
  environmental perspectives 33–36
technology innovation
  perspectives 40–41
analyse ICT functions 171, 176–177 application factors, transition readiness 227, 228, 229 Audi 160–161 authentic skill-sets 186, 187, 190 automated algorithms 176 automatic ICT analyses 172 automobile industry
economic perspectives 26, 28–29
facilities and location 143
financial performance 80
new aspects 15
scope 6–7
terminology 6–7
transitions 225–226
vertical integration 160–161
  see also Rolls-Royce availability contracts 91, 115, 206–207
  see also advanced services
B2B (business to business dealings) 154 B2C (business to consumer dealings) 154 back office employees 183, 184, 194 base services 64–68, 83, 85, 86, 156–157
BMW 28–29, 143, 144
Bristol Siddeley 99
Britain see United Kingdom
British Rail 156
business activity focus 96–97 business contexts 23–50
  economic perspectives 24–30
  environmental perspectives 30–37
  knowledge perspectives 42–49
  market perspectives 37–39
  social perspectives 37–39
  summary 49–50
  technology innovation perspectives 39–42
business growth 88, 90–92
business implications 79–101
business processes 199–212
  advanced services 199, 204–211
  production environment 200–204 production facilities 112, 113
  summary 211–212
  transitions 221, 222
business to business (B2B) dealings 154 business to consumer (B2C) dealings 154 capabilities, excavation 7, 8 capability contracts see advanced services capitalization factors 227, 229 carbon dioxide outputs 32–33, 36 car manufacturing see automobile industry Caterpillar dealerships
  business implications 84, 89, 91, 92–93, 96, 99
business processes 206–207
  customer facing measures 127
  facilities and location 144, 146, 149
  ICTs 174, 175
  knowledge bases 11, 12, 13
  leadership 108, 109
  macro internal performance measures 128, 129
  organizational structure 158
  servitization elements 60, 64–65, 71–72, 74
  skill-sets 191
  transitions 227, 229
  vertical integration 159
Cathy Pacific Airlines 190
CBM see Condition-based Maintenance centralized facilities 110
  see also control centres
China 24–29, 32
Civil Aerospace 11
  see also Aerospace clothing 226
  co-location of facilities 149–151 competitor lock-outs 92–93 compressor blades 171–172 computer-based algorithms 172 Condition-based Maintenance (CBM) 48–49 condition monitoring technicians 185 consumer durable ownership 33–36 contracts
business processes 91, 97–98, 99, 206–207, 211
ICTs 177
organizational structure 163–164
product-service systems 114, 115
service delivery systems 120
servitization elements 67, 71–72
transitions 219, 227, 229
vertical integration 163–164
see also advanced services control centres 135, 172, 196, 209–210 copying machines 91
core business activity focus 96–97 core competence concepts 111 cost advanced service motivations 88–90 reductions 95–96
transition readiness 227, 229
culture 191, 192–193, 227, 228, 229
customers experience 114
facing measures 125–128
feedback 177
intimacy 62–63
success 88–90
support agreements 196
Delphi techniques 82
demand signals 200
dematerialization 36
deployment of employees 112, 113, 181–197, 221, 222
deployment phases 70–71
document management 46, 127
deployment phases 70–71
document management 46, 127
eco-efficiency 36
economic factors 223, 224
economic models 74, 75
economic perspectives 24–30
EHM see Engine Health Management elements of servitization 55–77 employee costs 26–27
employee deployment 112, 113, 181–197, 221, 222 EMU (engine management unit) 174 energy-related carbon dioxide outputs 32–33, 36 engineers 185
Engine Health Management (EHM), ICTs 171–172, 174 engine management unit (EMU) 174 engines
business implications 97–98, 99
ICTs 172–173
servitization elements 67
technology innovation perspectives 40
Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) 111, 170
environmental factors 223, 224
environmental perspectives 30–37
equipment design 150
Equipment Management Services 11, 12
ERP see Enterprise Resource Planning ethically friendly strategies 36–37 Europe 24–27, 30–32, 40–41
see also United Kingdom excavators 7, 8
ex-contract equipment 92 execution phases 70–71 exploitation of resources 31 exploitation of services 29 extended life-cycles of advanced services 69–71
facilities and location 143–151, 221, 222
factories 110
failure modes 130, 131
fashion 226
faults in production environments 202–203 feedback-based information sets 177 field engineers 185
financial systems
incentives 193
performance 80–82
visibility improvements 98–99
see also product-service systems FirstDirect 114–115, 120 fixed cost transfers 97–98 fleet management 11, 12, 127 flexible skill-sets 186, 187, 188–189 Ford, Henry 6–7, 87–88, 111, 181
front office employees
behaviour 185–191
culture 191–193
deployment 184, 185
incentives 191–192, 193
leadership 191–192, 193
organizational structure 155
skill-sets 182, 185–191
transitions 231
gas turbines 8–9, 175, 204–205
GDP (Gross Domestic Product) 38, 39 generation phases 70–71
Global Navigation Satellite Systems (GNSS) 40–41 global warming 32–33, 36 green strategies 36–37
Gross Domestic Product (GDP) 38, 39
Harley Davidson Motorcycles 26
Heathrow Airport 73
high-brand values 28–29 high-technology manufacturing 27, 28 Hoyer 97
humanistic skill-sets 186–191, 231 hyper-consumption 37–38 ICTs see information and communication technologies identity of products 26 IHIP (intangible, heterogeneous, inseparable and perishable) 44 ILFC (International Leasing and Financing Company) 9
incentives 191–192, 193
industrial product–service systems (IPS$_s$) 47 information and communication technologies (ICTs) 169–180
advanced services 170–177
analyse functions 176–177 architecture 170–177
facilities and location 150–151
impact 178–179
innovation perspectives 40–41 monitoring functions 170, 173–175
proactive processes 209–210, 211
production facilities 111, 112, 113
respond functions 176–177 store ICT functions 170–171, 175–176
summary 179–180
transitions 221, 222, 231
transmit ICT functions 170, 175–176 information systems (IS) 47 in-house production 111 innovation 39–42, 231–232 installed product base 29 instrument services 29–30 intangible, heterogeneous, inseparable and perishable (IHIP) 44 integrated skill-sets 194–196 Integrated Vehicle Health Management (IVHM) 48–49 intermediate services 64–68, 83, 85, 86 internal performance measures see macro internal performance measures International Leasing and Financing Company (ILFC) 9
International Symposium on Service Science 47
IPS$_s$ (industrial product–service systems) 47
IS (information systems) 47
IVHM (Integrated Vehicle Health Management) 48–49
Just-in-Time 15, 80, 232
Kanban manufacturers 117
Kawasaki motorcycle plant 117
Kaizen manufacturers 117
knowledge factors 223, 225
knowledge perspectives 42–49
labor rates 26–27
landfill operations 91 language and terminology 57–59
leadership 107–110, 191–192, 193, 230
Lean techniques 15–16, 43, 80, 165, 217, 227 local internal performance measures 131–134 local monitoring 177
location of facilities 143–151, 221, 222 logistics providers 62
London Underground Northern Line
business processes 204–205
customer facing measures 127
facilities and location 149
macro internal performance measures 129–130
organizational structure 165
product-service systems 114–115
skill-sets 189
vertical integration 165
long-term business relationships 88, 92–93 lost passenger hours 129–130, 189, 205–206 Lotus and Morgan cars 26 lower-cost economies 28–29 luxury cars 26, 28–29, 143, 144 machine tool services 29–30, 223, 225
macro internal performance measures 125–126, 128–131, 148, 164, 178
maintenance services condition-based 48–49
front office employees 196
location 145–146
servitization elements 73
skill-sets 189
value demonstration 136–137
MAN
business implications 89–90, 97
business processes 204–205
customer facing measures 127
facilities and location 144, 146
ICTs 174
knowledge bases 11, 12
leadership 109
macro internal performance measures 128, 129
servitization elements 60, 62, 70
technology innovation perspectives 40 Managed Print Services 11, 12 manual observation-based information sets 177 Manufacturing Resource Planning (MRP II) 111, 170 marginal costing 98
market factors 223, 224
marketing research communities 42, 44, 48
market perspectives 37–39
mean time between failure (MTBF) 129 mean time to failure (MTTR) 129 medium–high technology manufacturing 28 Mercedes 28–29
monitoring ICT functions 170, 173–175 monitoring technicians 185
Moore’s law 41, 42
Morgan cars 26
motorcycle industry 26, 27, 117
MRP II (Manufacturing Resource Planning) 111, 170
MTBF (mean time between failure) 129
MTTR (mean time to failure) 129 multi-layered filtering processes 108–109 multi-vendor products 91 naturalistic approaches 36 Navigation Satellite Systems (GNSS) 40–41 non-financial incentives 193
Northern Line see London Underground Northern Line obsolesces watch 128 operating cost reductions 95–96 operations management research communities 42–43, 48 operations rooms 135–136
organizational structure 153–159, 163–164
outsourcing 111
overpopulation 31
ownership 33–36, 37–39, 221 paper machine services 29–30 pay-backs 189–190
pay per use services 57
see also power-by-the-hour models penalty systems 85–86, 207
people deployment 181–197, 221, 222
performance measures 123–142
customer facing measures 125–128
facilities and location 148
ICTs 178
indicators 131–134
local internal measures 131–134 macro internal 125–126, 128–131, 148, 164, 178
production facilities 112, 113
pyramid of 124–126
summary 138, 142
transitions 221, 222
value demonstration 134–138
vertical integration 164
PHM (Prognostics and Health Management) 148–149 points of sale 112, 113 pollution 31
population growth 31–32
poverty 31
power-by-the-hour services 6, 57, 72–73, 79, 91, 97–99 power equipment services 29–30 PPS see product-service systems pre-emptive growth-driven strategies 90 printers 91
proactive processes 208–211
process innovations 90–92 product/asset performance 95–96 product-centric services 46, 177 product factors 227, 228, 229 product identity 26 production-centric servitization 155, 220–221
production environments 200–204
production facilities 110–112
product ownership see ownership product sales phases 200, 201 product services see advanced services product-service systems (PSS)
  advanced services 112–116
  environmental perspectives 30
  knowledge perspectives 42–43, 46–47, 48
  performance measures 125
  scope 6–10
  transitions 220, 221
profitability, advanced service
  business implications 82–87
profits, advanced service motivations 88–90
Prognostics and Health
  Management (PHM) 48–49
PSS see product-service systems pure-service organizations 4, 38, 60, 61–62, 226
push perspectives 39–49
quarry trucks
  business processes 206–207
  facilities and location 149
  ICTs 174
  servitization elements 74
Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) 226
rail services
  business implications 90–91
  business processes 204–205
  customer facing measures 125–126
  economic perspectives 29–30
  ICTs 175–176
  organizational structure 156
  product-service systems 114–115
  service delivery systems 120
  skill-services 189
  vertical integration 159, 161–162
  see also Alstom; London Underground Northern Line
  reactive services 204
  recruitment processes 182 regeneration phases 70–71 relationship-based strategic supply partnerships 231
  relationship building skill-sets 186, 187, 188
  relationship factors 227, 228, 229 relationship-style contracts 163–164 remote ICT access 178–179 remote monitoring 177
  repair services 67, 73, 145–146, 202–203
  research communities 42–48 resilient cash flow 88, 93–94 resilient skill-sets 186, 187, 191 resource consumption 31, 33–36 respond ICT functions 171, 176–177 return on experience exploitation 121
revenues 72–75, 82–88, 90–94, 97–98
RFID (Radio Frequency Identification) 226 risk reductions 99–100
Risk and Reward sharing contracts 71–72, 74
Rolls-Royce
business implications 79, 91, 99
business processes 204–205
facilities and location 144, 145–146
ICTs 171–172, 175
knowledge bases 11, 12
knowledge perspectives 46
leadership 109
organizational structure 157
scope 6, 8–9
service delivery systems 120
servitization elements 57, 60, 67, 70, 72–74
skill-sets 190
technology innovation perspectives 40
terminology 6, 8–9
transitions 217
value demonstration 134
vertical integration 161

Satellite Systems (GNSS) 40–41
SDL (service-dominant logic marketing) 44 senior managers 59
service-centric skill-sets 186, 187, 189–190
service delivery systems
business processes 199–212
facilities and location 143–151
ICTs 169–180
key capabilities 119–122
organizational structure 153–159
people deployment 181–197
performance measures 123–142
scope 10
skill-sets 181, 185–191
terminology 10
transitions 220, 221
value demonstrations 123–142
vertical integration 153–154, 159–167
see also product-service systems service-dominant logic (SDL) marketing 44 service sciences 43, 47, 48 services-led competitive strategy 61, 62–63 servitization research communities 45–46 Singapore Airlines 120, 190
skill-sets 181, 185–191
authentic 187, 190
flexible 186, 187, 188–189
impact 194–196
proactive processes 210
production facilities 112, 113
relationship building 186, 187, 188 resilient 186, 187, 191 service-centric 186, 187, 189–190 technically adept 186, 187, 190–191
transitions 221, 222, 231
social factors 223, 224
social perspectives 37–39
store ICT functions 170–171, 175–176
supply systems 231
see also product-service systems
support agreements 196
support factors 227, 229 support staff 185

technically adept skill-sets 186, 187, 190–191
technicians 185
technology 39–42, 99–100, 223, 224
terminology 4–10, 57–59
third party logistics (3PL) 121 through-life life-cycles 70–71 time between failures 129
TMS (train management systems) 175–176
tool manufacturers 223, 225
TotalCare
business implications 91
customer facing measures 127
facilities and location 145–146
knowledge perspectives 11, 12, 46
servitization elements 70
touch-points 114, 200–202, 204–205
tours 138, 139–141
Toyota 15, 80, 160–161
training rooms 135–136
Train Life Services 11–12, 70–71, 91, 159, 161–162
train management systems (TMS) 175–176
train operators, product-service systems 114–115
train services see rail services transactional interactions 203–204
transitions 217–233
advanced services 218–221
economic factors 223, 224
environmental factors 223, 224
knowledge factors 223, 225
market factors 223, 224
motives 227, 228, 229
obstacles 230–232
readiness 221–229
social factors 223, 224
technological factors 223, 224
transmit ICT functions 170, 175–176
tuck services
business implications 89–90
business processes 204–207
facilities and location 149
ICTs 174
servitization elements 74
see also MAN
Tube Lines 114–115
see also London Underground
Northern Line
turbines 8–9, 175, 204–205 underdeveloped countries 31
Unipart logistics providers 62
United Kingdom (UK) 25, 26, 27, 30, 80–82, 156
United Nations (UN) 31–32
United States of America see America unscheduled downtime 129 use phases 200–201
value demonstration 123–142
communication 137–138
complexity 135–136
investment 135–136
maintenance facilities 136–137
operations rooms 135–136
tours 138, 139–141
training rooms 135–136
war rooms 135–136
value in use business models 8 variable cost transfers 97–98
Vehicle Health Management (IVHM) 48–49
Viper engine 99
Virgin
business implications 90–91, 97
facilities and location 147
macro internal performance measures 128
organizational structure 156
service delivery systems 120
servitization elements 73
visibility business impacts 98–99
transition readiness 227, 229
visualization, elements of
war rooms 135–136
Wincanton logistics providers 62
Xerox
business implications 89
customer facing measures 127
facilities and location 144
knowledge bases 11, 12
leadership 109
scope 4
service delivery systems 120
servitization elements 60, 71
terminology 4

Index compiled by Indexing Specialists (UK) Ltd