Content

List of Contributors, vi
Preface, viii

1 Adolescent and transitional urology—an introduction, 1

Part I: The kidney
2 Anatomical and cystic anomalies of the kidney, 13
3 Stones, 22
4 Prune-belly syndrome, 29

Part II: The ureter
5 Renal function in adolescents by Dr Kate Hillman and Professor Guy Neild, 41
6 Structural anomalies and reconstruction of the ureter, 49
7 Vesico-ureteric reflux, 58

Part III: The bladder
8 The neuropathic bladder and spina bifida, 75
9 Lower urinary tract replacement and reconstruction, 91
10 Urinary diversion and undiversion, 116
11 Other bladder conditions, 122
12 Exstrophy and epispadias, 128
13 Cloacal exstrophy, 154

Part IV: The urethra
14 Posterior urethral valves, 167
15 Hypospadias, 177

Part V: Disorders of sex development
16 Scrotal abnormalities, 193
17 The overvirilized female, 202
18 The undervirilized male, 218
19 Adolescent sexuality and counseling, 232

Part VI: Neoplasia
20 Neoplastic disease: outcomes in survivors, 239

Index, 250