Index

abrasion, 215
acid cleaners, 217
adhesion, 59
advice to patient, 212
appearance, 213
cleaning dentures, 214
controlling dentures, 213 initial sensations, 213 limitations of dentures, 213 soreness, 214
wearing dentures at night, 214 ala-tragal line, 180
alginate, 136–7, 145–6
alkaline peroxide cleaners, 217
Alma gauge, 98, 100
alveolectomy, 50
alveolotomy, 49
angular stomatitis (angular cheilitis), 119–21 antifungal preparations, 118
appearance
assessing in trial dentures, 196–9 creating a natural appearance, 196–9 influencing outcome of treatment, 22–4 lip support, 98
obvious change in, 213
articulating paper, 207–8
articulators, 194–9
attitudes to tooth loss and dentures, 31–2 balanced articulation, 207–9 balanced occlusion, 193–4, 200–01, 207–8 Bennett angle, 197
biometric design, 88
bone (see also mandible; maxilla) genial tubercles, 124–5
mylohyoid ridge, 124–5
pathology within, 123–4 resorption
causes of, 5–7
long-term changes, 223
reducing risk, 6
sharp, irregular, 124
tooth unerupted, 124
tori, 126
undercut ridges 62, 125
border seal, 61–2
bruxism. See parafunction BULL rule, 209
burning mouth syndrome, 254–7
cancer, 83–4, 223
check record, 210–12
articulating the dentures, 211 recording jaw relations, 211
cleaning dentures, 214–7, 238, 241–2 immersion cleansers, 216 mechanical cleaning, 215
cleaning dentures (cont.)
  types of cleanser, 216
  acid, 217
effervescent, 217
hypochlorite, 216
other, 217
clearance of teeth, 33
  without immediate provision of dentures, 51–2 clinical audit, 82
closest speaking distance, 193
cohesion, 59
condylar angle, 193
condylar axis, 193
condylar path, 193
copy dentures
  communication with dental technician, 107
copy template, 106–7 indication, 22, 88, 104–6
quality control and enhancement, 108–9
stages of treatment, 107 coronoid process, 134
cross-infection control, 78–9
dental health surveys, 224 dental laboratory communication with, 77, 107, 139, 148, 171
cross-infection control, 83–4
denture(s) See copy dentures; existing dentures;
immediate dentures; overdentures abrasion of, 215
  adapting to, 21–4, 223
  advice to patient, 212–7
  appearance, 195–9
  base, hypersensitivity to, 256 base materials, 247–9
    cobalt-chromium, 248
    modified polymeric, 248 reinforced, 248
  breakages
    causes, 215–6
    debonding of teeth, 249–50
    fatigue fracture, 245 impact fracture, 245
    mid-line fracture, 245
cleansers, 128, 216–7
cleanliness, 222
control of, 23, 58–9, 174, 213
deposit on, 214
designing, approaches to, 88
disinfection, 117
faults, 229
fixative, 63
fracture. See breakages
hyperplasia, 122
identification markers, 199–200
  inclusion markers, 200
  surface markers, 200
immediate. See immediate dentures
impression surface, 85
inclusion markers, 200
instability, 228–9
limitations
  mastication, 8–9
  replacing bone, 5
  restoring appearance, 7 marking dentures. See identification markers
mid-line fracture, 142, 245
need for treatment, 15
occlusal surface, 85, 204
pain under, 228–32
plaque, 125, 127, 222
polished surface, 85
predicting outcome of treatment, 25–28
rebasing, 225
relining, 224
repairing, 246–7
success rate of treatment, 24–5 surfaces
  impression, 85
  occlusal, 85
  polished, 85
surface markers, 200
training, 252–3
temporary partial, 36
trial, 189–201
wearing at night, 214
denture-bearing areas, 130–35
  assessment of, 84
denture-induced hyperplasia, 122–3 denture stomatitis, 111–8

hyperplasia
denture-induced, 122–3 denture-induced palatal inflammatory papillary, 118 hypochlorite cleanser, 216, 238, 284, 241–2

imbibition, 137

immediate dentures, 44–51
advantages, 45
clinical and technical procedures, 48–50
alveolectomy, 50–51
alveolotomy, 49–50
flanged dentures, 49–50
impressions, 49
open-face dentures, 48
contraindications, 51
disadvantages, 46
types of, 46–8
flanged, 46–8
open face, 46–8

implant-supported overdentures, 41–4 implant design, 41
impression technique, 43–4 placement of implants, 42–3 success rates, 41–2

impressions, 130–49
master impressions, 140–49
alginate, 145–6
border-trimming materials, 145
elastomers, 148
impression materials/techniques, 145 impression plaster, 147–8
mucostatic/mucodisplacive techniques, 140–41 special trays, 141–5
border-trimming materials, 145
checking, 143
close fitting, 142
correction, 143–4
diagnostic impression, 143 spaced, 142
stops, 142–3
preliminary impressions, 152–8 impression material and techniques, 136–9
alginate, 136–7
dimensional instability, 137
impressions (cont.)
imbibition, 137
syneresis, 137
alginate wash technique, 138 border moulding, 136–7 impression moulding, 138 laboratory prescription, 139
quality control and enhancement, 140
stock trays, 134, 136
‘wash’ impression, 95
zinc oxide-eugenol paste, 166–8
impression plaster, 168–9
impression surface, 55–6, 85, 203
incisal relationship, 174–80 causes of failure due to, 174–80
communication with dental technician, 188
quality control and enhancement, 188
preventing failure by adjusting the record rims, 183–5 assessing the patient, 180–83
pre-extraction records, 187
relevance of natural, 174–6 incisive papilla, 147–8
inclusion markers, 200
injection moulding, 206
intercuspal position, 68, 70 inter-occlusal rest space, 70 interpupillary line, 156 iron deficiency, 13, 83, 113, 120, 229, 255 jaw relations, recording, 150–61
communication with dental technician, 172
lower record rim adjustment, 158 occlusal vertical dimension, reassessing, 158
quality control and enhancement, 172
record blocks, 154–5
rest vertical dimension, 150–3
two-dot technique, 152
Willis gauge, 151–2
retruded jaw relationship, recording, 159–61 upper record rim adjustment, 155–8 magnets, 38
mandible. See also bone
tori, 141–3
mandibular positions, basic, 68–70 centric occlusion, 70 centric relation, 70
freeway space (inter-occlusal rest space), 70
intercuspal position, 70, 73
muscular position, 70, 73–4 reference positions, 74 rest position, 70–73
clinical significance, 69
control of, 70–72
tongue effect on, 72
variables effecting 72–3 retruded arc of closure, 72–3 retruded contact position, 69–70, 74 retruded jaw relation, 74 marking dentures, 199–200
inclusion markers, 200
surface markers, 200
masseter muscle, 132
maxilla. See also bone pattern of resorption, 89 prominent tuberosities, 125 mentalis muscle, 131
modiolus, 132
mouth. See oral cavity mucodisplacive impression techniques, 140–41 mucostatic impression techniques, 140–41
mylohyoid ridge, 124
nasolabial angle, 157
neutral zone (zone of minimal conflict), 65
assessing in trial dentures, 192
impression, 88, 185–7
nutrition, 14, 112
occlusal error
clinical causes, 206–12
correction, 207–12
identification, 207
laboratory causes, 205
correction, 205–6
occlusal surface, 55, 85
assessment of, 204
occlusal vertical dimension, 69–70, 73–4, 183
assessing in trial dentures, 193
inadequate, 134 older people
age changes in systems, 11
in denture-bearing tissues, 12 in muscles, 12
biological age, 27–8, 87
characteristics of normal ageing, 18 communication, 17–18
condition of dentures, 16
demographic changes, 9–10 drug therapy, 14
nutrition, 15, 126
practical points in care, 16–18 psychiatric disorders, 13 psychological changes, 14–15 systemic diseases, 12–13
oral cavity
cancer, 83–4, 223
preparation of, 111–26
reduced air pressure, 71
overdentures
advantages, 37–8
disadvantages, 39
implant-supported 41–4
maintenance, 40–41
technique, 39–40
tooth-supported, 33, 37–40 palatal gingival vestige, 130–32, 135 palatal inflammatory papillary hyperplasia, 118–19 palatal relief, 126, 162–3 palatal rugae, 131
palatine torus, 131
parafunction, 228–30, 256 Parkinson’s disease, 12, 256 patient assessment, 80–90 complaints, 220–21
diagnosis, 88
examination, 82–7
dentures, 85–8
extra-oral, 82–3, 221–2 intra-oral, 83–5
history, 80–82
dental, 80–81
medical, 81
social, 82
prognosis, 90
treatment plan, 88–9
pear-shaped pad, 131, 133, 140, 142, 144, 189 peer review, 77
polished surface, 55, 85
post-dam, 61–2, 101, 153–4
pre-extraction records, 187
pressure-disclosing materials, 222 radiographs, 124
rebasing, 225–6
recall procedures, 217, 220–26 long-term recall, 222–4 short-term recall, 220–22 relief (palatal), 126, 162–3
relining, 224–6
relining materials, 226–42
hard, 226, 234–5
soft long term, 238–42
soft short term, 235–8
residual monomer, 126, 255
rest vertical dimension, 69, 73–4 retention, 56–62, 204
muscular forces, 56
designing dentures for, 57 patient skills, 57–8 physical forces, 59–61
adhesion, 59
cohesion, 59
obtaining optimum, 61–2 accuracy of fit, 62
area of impression surface, 62
bony undercuts, 62
border seal, 61
facial seal, 61–2
fixative, 63
post-dam, 61–2
soft liners, 63
springs, 64
surface tension, 59
viscosity, 60
retromolar pad, 131, 133
saliva, 14
artificial, 233
functions of, 230–32
saliva (cont.)
  influence on retention, 59–61 lack of, 230–34
    associated with burning mouth syndrome, 256
  viscosity, 60
soft lining materials
  assisting retention, 63
  long term, 238–42
    adjustment, 242
    cleaning, 241–2
    comparison of types, 240
    indications for use, 239 types, 239
  short term, 235–8
    cleaning, 238
    clinical applications, 237–8 composition, 235
    functional impression, 95, 237–8 relevant properties, 236–7 temporary soft lining, 238 tissue conditioning, 237 special tray, 141–4
speech disturbance, 257–9 split-cast technique, 205–6 stability, 56–70
  assessing, 86–7
  displacing forces, 64–6 gravity, 66
      through the occlusal surface, 64–5 through the polished surface, 65–6 neutral zone, 65
      zone of minimal conflict, 65
  retentive forces, 55–60 support, 66–7
Staphylococcus aureus, 120 stock tray, 134–6
sulci, shallow, 121–2
  prosthetic treatment, 121 surgical treatment, 122
sulcus tissues, anatomy, 131 supporting cusps, 209
surface markers, 200
surface tension, 59
syneresis, 137
systemic disease, detecting, 83
tardive dyskinesia, 13
teeth, artificial arrangement, 165–6
  choice of, 163–5
  debonding, 249–50
  material, 166–7
  selection of posterior, 171 use of existing denture, 100 tissue-conditioning materials. See soft lining materials tongue
  defensive, 192
  papillary changes, 83
  tongue thrust endogenous, 182
tori, 126
total tooth loss
  adults in 1998, 1–2
  in other countries, 4
  mental barriers to, 2
  psychological effects, 22 rate of, 2
  trends over 30 years, 3 transition from natural to artificial dentition methods, 33
  reaction of patient, 32 try-in procedures, 189–201 assessment, articulator, 189–91
    impression surface, 189
    occlusal surface, 190
    polished surface, 190
  assessment, mouth, 191–9
    appearance, 196–9
    base extension, 191
    neutral zone, 192
    occlusal vertical dimension, 193
    occlusion, 194–5
    retentive and stability, 191
  communication with dental technician, 200
  quality control and enhancement, 200
two-dot technique, 152–3
vibrating line, 131–2
viscosity of saliva, 60–61 vitamin B complex deficiency, 13, 83, 113, 255 vitamin C deficiency, 15, 113, 120
Willis gauge, 151–2
xerostomia. See saliva
zinc oxide-eugenol paste, 146, 226
zone of minimal conflict (neutral zone), 65, 88–9, 192 zygomatic process, 135