activities of daily living, 123
adaptations–major and minor, 154, 155 advance decision, 204
advance statement, 204
advance care planning, 200 amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, 9 anxiety management, 129 anxiety symptoms, 129
challenging patterns of unhelpful thinking, 130 controlled breathing, 132 distraction, 134
limiting the time spent worrying, 132 muscular relaxation, 133 problem solving, 131
reducing avoidance, 135 relaxation, 132
strategies for managing anxiety, 130 understanding anxiety, 130 visual imagery, 134 assessing for a splint, 162 assessment of occupational performance, 136 assisted dying and implications for occupational therapy, 205 assistive devices, 142, 152 assistive technology, 152 augmentative and alternative communication, 166 bed mobility, 124, 161
breaking bad news, 208
burden of care, 184
Canadian process practice framework, 50 capacity, 203
caregiving, 183
case scenarios/studies, 8, 12, 17, 21, 117, 167, 196, 197
Jane Duffy’s story, 186
Central philosophy of occupational therapy, 65 client-centred practice, 48 client expertise in evidence based practice, 35 clinical guidelines, 33 diagnosis and pharmacological management of Parkinson’s disease, national clinical guideline, 33 management of multiple sclerosis in primary and sensory care, 33 motor neurone disease assessment and management, 33 Parkinson’s disease, diagnosis and management in primary and secondary care, 33 clinical reasoning, 66 cognitive rehabilitation, 126, 127 communication, 206
computer access, 166 context-dependent practice skills, 81 continuing professional development and lifelong learning, 41 resources, 41
cooling, 142
co-production, 57
core professional reasoning skills, 65 core values for neurological practice, 81 CPD see continuing professional development definitions
long term neurological conditions, 2 occupation, 86
occupational goals, 98
occupational therapy, 63 delivering good quality, safe and effective care, 24 diagnosis with a long term neurological condition, 172 disease progression, 194 distal stabilisation, 141 doing, being, becoming and belonging, 88 dressing, 123
driving, 180
eating and drinking, 123 economic impact, 1
education and monitoring, 163 electronic assistive technology, 163 end of life care, 195 energy conservation, 125 enhancing the therapist-client relationship, 53 environmental adaptations, 151 environmental characteristics and occupational performance, 150 environmental control systems, 165 evaluating your practice, 58 evidence based practice, 27 appraising the evidence, 29 asking clinical questions, 31 finding the best evidence, 28 implementing findings into clinical practice, 29 using electronic databases, 27 using evidence to inform clinical decisions in occupational therapy, 30 why do we need evidence based practice?, 27 examples of application to neurological practice, 70, 73, 76, 79, 80 exploring disease and illness experience, 49 falls management, 135 familial motor neurone disease, 11 fatigue management, 124 frames of reference, 78 biomechanical, 79
cognitive behavioural, 78
neurodevelopmental, 80
generalisation, 128
grooming, 124
handling disappointment, 208
HD see Huntington’s disease health economic evaluation, 39 health promotion, 53 housing adaptations, 154 Huntington’s disease, 4
body functions, 4
body structures, 4
case study, 8
diagnosing, 7
impairments, 5
measures for, 114
stages of, 4
identification of people at risk, 136 illness experiences, 172 illness prevention, 53 impact on family and carers, 183 improving relationships, 144 International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health, 2 intervention strategies, 128 lasting power of attorney, 201 lifespan transitions, 174 living with a long term neurological condition, 171 meaning, quality of life and well-being, 198 measurement care needs and dependency level measures, 110 unemployment level measures, 113 disease specific measures, 111 how to measure, 102 impairment level measures, 111 measures in neurological rehabilitation, 106 measures of client experience, 59 occupational therapy specific outcome measures, 107 perceived health and quality of life measure, 111 physical impairment measures, 112 quality of life measures, 113 selecting the right measure, 103 what are occupational therapy outcomes?, 102 what is measurement?, 101
what to measure?, 103
why measure?, 102
measures
Action Research Arm Test (ARAT), 112 activities of daily living indices, 106, 109 Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Assessment Questionnaire (ALSAQ-40), 115
Assessment of Motor and Process Skills (AMPS), 107
Barthel ADL index, 109
Behavioural Assessment of Dysexecutive Syndrome (BADS), 113
Berg Balance test, 112
Canadian Occupational Performance Measure (COPM), 107
Consultation and Relational Empathy (CARE), 59
Caregiver Strain index, 114
Doors and People, 113
Edinburgh Cognitive and Behavioural ALS Screen (ECAS), 115
EUROQOL (EQ-5D), 114
Expanded Disability Status Scale (EDSS), 115
Frenchay Activities index, 109
Functional Independence Measure (FIM) and Functional Assessment Measure (FAM), 109
General Health Questionnaire (GHQ12), 113
Herth Hope index, 115
Hoehn and Yahr staging, 116
Hospital Anxiety and Depression Scale (HADS), 113
Huntington’s Disease Health-Related Quality of Life Questionnaire (HDQoL), 114
Medical Outcome Study Short Form (SF 36), 113
Model of Human Occupational Screening Tool (MOHOST), 108
Modified Ashworth Scale (MAS), 112
Modified Fatigue Impact Scale, 115
Motricity Index, 112
MS Impact Scale–29, 116
MS Quality of Life Inventory (MSQLI), 116
Neurological Fatigue Index for Motor Neurone Disease (NFI-MND), 115
Neuro QOL, 114
Nine Hole Peg test, 112
Nottingham Extended ADL Index, 109
Parkinson’s Disease Questionnaire (PDQ 39/PDQ 8), 116
Patient Experience Questionnaire (PEQ), 59
PPE-15, 59
Rivermead Mobility Index, 112
ten meter timed walk test, 112
Test of Everyday Attention (TEA), 113
Timed ‘Up and Go’ (TUG) test, 112
Unified Huntington’s Disease Rating Scale (UHDRS), 114
Unified Parkinson’s Disease Rating Scale (UPDRS), 116 visual analogue scales, 112 memory disorders, 127
MND see motor neurone disease (MND) models of care
Canadian Model of Occupational Performance and Enablement (CMOP-E), 70 conceptual models of practice, 69 Kawa (River) model, 76
medical model of care, 47
Model of Human Occupation (MOHO), 69
Occupational Performance Model (Australia), 78 Person-Environment-Occupational Performance (PEOP) model, 73 social model of disability, 48 motor neurone disease, 9
body functions, 10
body structures, 10
case study, 12
diagnosing, 12
impairments, 11
measures for, 115
MS see multiple sclerosis multiple sclerosis, 13
body functions, 14
body structures, 14
case study, 17
diagnosing, 17
impairments, 15
measures for, 115
Occupation in long-term neurological conditions, 86
in death and dying, 197 Occupational adaptation, 96 apartheid, 93
depression, 93
disruption, 93
dysfunction, 93
justice, 93
marginalisation, 95
patterns, 87
performance enablers and deficits, 101 therapy core skills, 81

Occupations
for becoming, 91
for being, 90
for belonging, 92
for doing, 89

pain management, 137
exercise, 139
dermatology, 140
leading a healthy lifestyle, 138 pacing, 138
shifting focus, 139
socialisation and recreation, 140 strategies, 138
stress, tension and pain, 139 thinking constructively, 140 using medications properly, 139

palliative care, 195
parenthood, 174
Parkinson’s, 18
body functions, 18
body structures, 18
case study, 21
diagnosing, 21
impairments, 19
measures for, 116
personal limitations, 54 person-centredness, 46 planning for the future, 194
PLS see primary lateral sclerosis PMA see progressive muscular atrophy posture and positioning in lying, 160

in sitting, 158
powered wheelchairs, 160 practice guidance, 33

fatigue management for people with MS, 34
management of the ataxias, towards best clinical practice, 34 occupational therapy for people with Huntington’s disease, best practice guidelines, 35 occupational therapy for people with Parkinson’s, 34 occupational therapy in the prevention and management of falls in adults, 34 splinting for the prevention and correction of contractures in adults with neurological dysfunction, 34 translating the NICE and NSF guidance into practice, guide for occupational therapists, 35 primary lateral sclerosis, 10 professional standards of practice, 40 progressive bulbar palsy, 9 progressive muscular atrophy, 10 proximal stabilisation, 140 psychosocial adjustment, 185 quality improvement, 36 rehabilitation and recovery, 173 rehabilitation interventions, 122 respiration, 161

safeguards, 203
seating and postural management, 156 self-management, 55
sexual relationships and intimacy, 144 shared decision making, 35 sleep, 143, 160
smart housing, 166
social and cultural transitions, 175 spirituality, 198

splinting, 142, 162
sporadic motor neurone disease, 11 strategic context, 24

National Service Framework (NSF) for long term conditions, 25 clinical standards neurological health standards, 26

supporting carers, 184
supporting the needs of young carers, 185 supportive care, 195

switches and input devices, 166 technology to support participation, 150

telecare, 164
telehealth, 164
theoretical basis, 63
therapeutic use of self, 199

therapist self-care, 200
| toleting, 123  | work, 175  |
| index to hopelessness, 208 | disclosing a long-term neurological condition, 176 |
| transitions theory, 171 | Equality Act, 177 |
| tremor, 140 | practical application of 'reasonable adjustment', 178 |
| understanding the whole person, 51 | remaining in work, 176 |
| VAT exemption, 153 | return to work, 178 |
| weighted cuffs, 142 | suggested adjustments, 178 |
| wheelchairs, 159 | supporting employers, 179 |
| work difficulties identified, 178 |