Index

Page numbers in italics represent figures, those in bold represent tables.

absent-mindedness 247
accountability 396
active failures 137
administrative data analysis 51 adverse drug events 62–3, 64–5, 112–13, 113
reduction of 224–6
adverse events
definition of 53
examples 55–6
Harvard Medical Practice Study 54
impact and cost 56–7
mortality 58–9
patient reporting 298–300, 300
rates of 54–5, 55
study of 49–52
case record review 52–6
methods 50–2, 51, 52
surgical 57–8
Yellow Card system 77
see also clinical incidents Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality 216 alerts 255–6
alternative treatments 337
Amalberti, Rene 282, 314–16, 315 anæsthesia, safety of 21–2 anaesthetic awareness 173, 187
emotional trauma 187
anaesthetists
compliance with new safety procedures 315 violation of safety rules 312, 313 anonymity of reporting systems 9 antibiotic abandon 9 anticipation 325, 330–2
Arora, Sonal 324
asthma 36
attitudes to error 199–200 autopsy 52
availability 337
Aviation Safety System 78
Aylin, Paul 109
Bainbridge, Lisanne 262
Baker, Ross 391, 395, 400 bar coding for blood transfusion 254–5 Barr, David 8
barriers to reporting 88–90
Batalden, Paul 219
Bate, Paul 400
Bates, David 220, 222, 253
Benn, Jonathan 91
bereavement 175–6
Berwick, Don 43–4, 211, 276, 290–1, 301 bias 248
hindsight 50–2, 337
Billings, Charles 80, 90
blame 137–8
Blaya, Joaquin 256
blocking of memories 247
blood transfusion, bar coding 254–5
Boestig, Mats 397
Bogner, Marilyn, Human Error in Medicine 23 briefing 353–6
misuse of 355
Bristol Royal Infirmary Enquiry 16–17, 19–20
British Airways safety information system (BASIS) 77–8 British Medical Journal 14
bucking the system 309–10
Bunker, John 12
Index

Carayon, Pascal 165

Care bundles 384
care delivery problems 154
Care Quality Commission 76 case analysis 52
case note review see case record review
case record review 51, 52–6, 104
censure 137–8
Centre for Patient Safety 25
chain of events 144–8
assumption of reliable system 144–5 assumptions about people 145–6 differences in practice between hospitals 147–8 influence of hierarchy on communication 146–7 physical appearance of syringes 147 Challenger Space Shuttle disaster 120 change
drivers of 391, 392–3
implementation of 397
informing patients of 189 leading system 391, 393–5 opportunities for 18–21
safety indicators 106
checking errors 128
checklists 353–6
misuse of 355
Chernobyl 120
chronic unease 279
chronology of events 142–4, 154–5
claims analysis 52
Clarke, Sharon 286
clinical guidelines 308
clinical iatrogenesis 12
clinical incidents 126, 129–30, 131
care delivery problems 154
chronology of events 142–4, 154–5
clinical context and patient factors 154 communication failures 131 contributory factors 154–5
examples 193–4
factors contributing to 152 human reliability analysis 158–60 inappropriate prescriptions 131 investigation and analysis 151–3 case example 156–8, 157 integration and evaluation 163–4 medical errors 112–13, 113 medication errors 62–4
designing out 233–6, 234
reduction of 222–6, 223, 224–6, 252–5, 253
vincristine 141–8
pharmaceutical issues 131
staff support 192–206
systems analysis 153–6
transcription errors 131 wider impact on clinical staff 197–8 see also errors; medical treatment injuries clinical interventions 211–28 complex see complex interventions clinical judgement 335–6, 337 clinical Microsystems 371–2 clinical prediction 250–1 clinical reasoning, improvement of 338 clinical surveillance 51
clostridium difficile 112
Codman, Ernest 6–7, 15
cognitive errors 132
Cohen, Guy 211
colleagues, support from 203 collective mindfulness 280
colorectal cancer 36
Columbia Space Shuttle disaster 121 communications 255–6, 326 closing down 355
teamwork 351–3
communication channels 392 communication errors 128 influence of hierarchy on 146–7 compensation 24, 181–2
complacency 144–6
complex adaptive systems 373 complex interventions 372–5 evolution of 373–4
hospitals as complex adaptive systems 373
impact of 374–5
computerized physician order entry 253–4
confidence 325
Confidential Enquiry into Maternal Deaths 15
Confidential Human Factors Incident Reporting Programme (CHIRP) 78 confidentiality of reporting systems 80 confirmation 337
congestive heart failure 36
conscientiousness 324
Consumers Advancing Patient Safety (CAPS) 189 continuous quality improvement 381
Cook, Richard 23
cookbook medicine 308
Cooper, Jeffrey 21–2
core challenges 400
corollary orders 256–7
coronary artery disease 36
Coulter, Angela 292
counselling 204–5
creative decision making 333
Crew Resource Management 360 Crisis Resource Management 360 critical incidents 90
Croskerry, Pat 336, 337
culpability 274–6, 275
cultural iatrogenesis 12 culture 392
learning 276–7
safety 123, 269–87
cures, hazards of 3–4
custom and practice 145
daily goals 351–3
dangerous omissions 28
Davenport, Daniel 287
Davies, Jan 21
Davis, Rachel 295
Dean, Bryony 63
decision making 249–51, 332–7
clinical judgement and choices 335–6, 337 creative 333
intuitive recognition primed 333–4 naturalistic 334
recognition primed 250
rule-based 334–5
strategies and context 333, 333 surgeons 333
training 336–7
decision support 257–60, 396 patients’ response to 259–60 defences 144
delay 221–2
delirium 67–8
Deming, W. Edwards, System of Profound Knowledge 218 denominators 98–9
depression 173
design for safety 213–14, 230–44
design and error 231–2
healthcare 232–3
hospital acquired infection 239–41
medication error 233–6, 234
resuscitation trolley 236–9, 237, 238
whole system design 241–4
developing countries, injection safety 61–2, 62 diagnostic errors 130–2, 132
no-fault 132
differences in practice 147–8 disclosure of errors 178–83
DODAR 322
Dominguez, Cynthia 330
Donabedian, Avedis 36
Donaldson, Liam 26
drivers of change 391, 392–3
Early Support Activation 206
Edmondson, Amy 365
education 204
elderly patients 65–8, 67
electronic medical records 257, 396
review of 51
emergency medicine, safety training 362–4
emotional trauma 186–7
engagement 383, 398–9
engineering perspective 135
errors 22–3
acknowledgement of potential for 202 blame and censure 137–8
chain of events 144–8
checking 128
classification of 127–9, 128
in medicine 129
communication 128, 146–7
criminalization of 141–2
definition of 126–7
description of 129
diagnostic 130–2, 132
no-fault 132
errors (Continued)
disclosure of 177–9
experience of 194–7
human 119–39
healthcare industry 123–4
major accidents 119–23
investigation and analysis 151–3
learning from 17–18, 26–8, 27
litigation 200–1
medication-related see clinical incidents nature and scale of 49–71 organizational 148–9, 149 perspectives on see error paradigms prescribing see clinical incidents psychology of 132–4
mistakes 133
slips and lapses 133
violations 133–4
reactions to 196–7
reduction in 32–4
study of 49–52
methods 50–2, 51, 52
traumatic effect of 198–200 attitudes to error and medical
culture 199–200
beliefs about control 200 personal standards and selfcriticism 199
reactions of those involved 199 understanding 141–66
usefulness of concept 138–9 error paradigms 134–7
engineering perspective 135
person model 136
system model 136–7
error reduction 134–7
error reporting systems 52 error wisdom 321–2
event tree analysis 159 evidence-based medicine 217–18 exceptional violations 311 expertise, deference to 280, 281 failure, preoccupation with 280 failure modes and effects analysis 158, 159, 160–3
fallibility, awareness of 326–8 Farhan, Maise 348
fault tree analysis 159
feedback and action 90–3, 92, 93
types of 92
Firth-Cozens, Jenny 195, 199
flexibility 277–9
Flin, Rhona 328–9
Fonsecka, Carlo 195
forcing functions 256–7 frail patients 65–8, 67
framing 337
gangrene 5
Gawande, Atul 307, 354
General Medical Council 16, 77
geriatric medicine 65–8, 67 Gigerenzer, Gerd 18
global trigger tool 104–5
Greenhalgh, Trish 261
Grol, Richard 375
group culture 272–3
hand hygiene 302–3
breaking the rules 310
handovers, reduction of 243–4 harm 5
definition of 98
reduction of 32–4
vulnerability to older patients 65–8, 67
very young patients 68–71, 70
Hart, Elaine 347
Harvard Medical Practice Study 25, 54, 60
Hayward, Rodney 42
hazard analysis and critical control points (HACCP) 159
hazard awareness 326–8
hazard and operability study (HAZOP) 159
headache 36
Healey, Andrew 346
Health Protection Agency 112
Health and Safety Executive 76
healthcare
improving quality of 15–17 parallels with aviation 27–8 safety culture 270
safety skills 323–6
simplification and standardization 219–21
healthcare associated infection see hospital acquired infection; nosocomial infection healthcare industry 123–4 differences from other industries 124–5 safety organization 125–6
Henriks, Goran 397
Herald of Free Enterprise 120 heroic medicine 4–5
Hickson, Gerald 185
high performing healthcare systems 390–403 conditions and drivers of change 391, 392–3 Jonkoping County (Sweden) 397–9 leading system change 391, 393–5 long term investment 400–1 system improvement 399–401 Veterans Affairs, New England 395–6 high reliability organizations 278 lessons from 279–81, 280 high reliability research 281–2 hindsight bias 50–2, 337
hip fracture 36
Hippocratic Oath 4
Hofer, Timothy 42
Hogan, Helen 88
Holland, John 373
Hollnagel, Eric 127
Holmes, Oliver Wendell 4 honesty 325
Hooker, Worthington 4 hospital acquired infection 5–6, 59–61 designing out 239–41 hospital standardized mortality 111
hospitalism 5–6
hospitalization, hazards of 9–11, 10 hospitals as complex adaptive systems 373 human error 119–39 healthcare industry 123–4 major accidents 119–23 human error assessment and reduction technique (HEART) 160 human reliability analysis 158–60 techniques 158–60 humility 324
Hutin, Yvan 61
hypertension 36
iatrogenic disease 8–9 clinical 12 cultural 12 social 12 identity bracelets 301 identity of patients 301–2
Iedema, Rick 182
Illich, Ivan 11–13 implementation of change 397 incident decision tree 274–6, 275 incident rate 86–7 incident reporting barriers to 88–90 encouragement of 89 see also reporting and learning systems incident reports 81–2 individual perspective 136 individual (staff) factors 150, 151 infants see neonates/infants infection transmission 239–40 single rooms reducing 240–1 information 392
information technology 246–65 communication and alerts 255–6 decision support 257–60 electronic medical records 257 false sense of security 264–5 forcing functions and corollary orders 256–7 implementation of 260–2 inflexibility and rigidity 263 integration within work process 263–4 ironies of automation 262–3 judgement and decision making 249–51 limits of memory 247–9 reduction of medication errors 252–5, 253 unintended consequences 262–5 ingenuity, as barrier to process improvement 227–8 injection safety 61–2, 62 Institute for Healthcare Improvement 222, 385 Institute of Medicine ‘Crossing the Quality Chasm’ 38, 40 ‘To Err is Human’ 25, 26, 37, 216 institutional context factors 150 instruments, misinterpretation of 27–8 intensive care
  care bundles 384
  safety 375–81
    evidence into practice 376–9, 377 foundations of 376
    state wide harm reduction 380–1 intervening variables 102
  interventions
    clinical 211–28
    complex 372–5
    safety 300–2
  intravenous drug administration, errors in 63–4 Inwald, David 69
  ironies of automation 262–3

Jacklin, Ros 332, 335
Johns Hopkins Intensive Care Reporting System 84
Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) 7 Jonkoping County (Sweden) 397–9 engagement and spread 398–9 Esther 398
  quality strategy 399
  Qulturum 398
  sustained leadership and commitment 397–8 judgement 249–51

Karlsson, Sven Olof 397
Kazandjian, Vahe 103
Kennedy, Ian 20
Kenney, Linda 205
Kerr, Eve 42
King, Willie 18, 19
Klein, Gary 334
knowledge gaps, masking of 355

latent conditions 137
Lawton, Rebecca 311
leadership 326, 349–51, 392, 397–8 behaviours for safety 393–4 in practice 394–5
  specific skills 350–1
leading system change 391, 393–5 lean thinking 221
Leape, Lucien 22–3, 25, 59, 63, 199, 217, 222, 269 learning culture 276–7
learning from error 17–18
Ligi, Isabelle 69
Lilford, Richard 99, 101–2 Lister, James 6
litigation 23–5, 200–1
lobotomy 3
local reporting systems 82–3, 83
London Protocol 153–6
Long, Susy 66, 324
long term investment 400–1
Lucas, Deborah 134

Mcglynn, Elizabeth 35
McGuckin, Elizabeth 302
McIntyre, Neil 17
major accidents 119–23
management factors 150
Mandatory Occurrence Reporting Scheme (MORS) 78 mandatory reporting systems 80
Mann, Murray Gell 373
manslaughter 141–2
Marella, William 296
mass customization 246–7
Mau, Bruce 231
Maxwell, Robert 16
Mayer, Erik 97
measurement, critical role of 96–7 Medawar, Peter 18
medical errors see clinical incidents; errors medical harm 3–13
medical nemesis 11–13
medical records
  electronic 257, 396
  review of 51, 52–6, 104
medical treatment injuries 171–90 breaking the news 185–6 compassion in action 189–90
  compensation 24, 181–2
  disclosure of error 177–9
    open disclosure 179–85
  impact of 172–4
    emotional 172
    family, life and work 173–4 physical injury 172
    psychological injury 172–3
long-term issues 186–9
  continuing care and support 187–8
  emotional trauma 186–7
  financial assistance and practical help 188 informing patients of changes 189 patients’ experiences of 174–7 patients’ needs 177
  uniqueness of 171–2

see also clinical incidents
Medically Induced Trauma Support Services (MITSS) Inc. 189

medication errors 62–4
  designing out 233–6, 234
  reduction of 222–6, 223
  information technology 252–5, 253
  St Joseph’s Medical Centre 224–6
  see also clinical incidents

medication labels 233, 234, 235–6

medicine
  control and power 200
  culture of 199–200

Medline 14

Medteams training programme 363, 364

Meigs, Charles 6

memory
  blocking of 247
  limits of 247–9
  persistence of 248
  transience of 247

meningococcal disease, infants 68

Milburn, Alan 26

misattribution 247–8

mistakes 133
  knowledge based 133
  rule based 133
  see also errors

Moray, Neville 23

morbidity 52

mortality 52
  adverse events 58–9
  hospital standardized 111
  post-surgery 111–12

Moser, Robert 8
Moss, Fiona 309
motivation 383
MRSA 112

MRSA Action UK 189

multiple information systems 87–8

MyChart 257

NASA, Safety Reporting Hierarchy 79
National Health Service learning from errors 26–8, 27 reporting systems 75–6

National Patient Safety Agency 77
National Patient Safety Foundation 32 national reporting systems 84–5
  Australian incident monitoring system (AIMS) 85–6
UK National Patient Safety Agency 86

natural healing 4–5
naturalistic decision making 334 near misses 103
neonatal death 175–6
neonatal intensive care 70
neonates/infants 68–71, 70 never events 105–6
  mandatory reporting 105–6 Nightingale, Florence 5

no-fault errors 132

non-technical skills 328–9
Norman, Don 231

nosocomial infections 60, 112

Observational Team Assessment in Surgery 346–7

Offen, Nigel 16

open disclosure 179–83
  barriers to 183–5
  patient information sheet 180–1 open mindedness 325

openness with injured patients 203 operation errors 128

opportunities for change 18–21 organizational accidents 148–9, 149 organizational culture 271–3 and group culture 272–3 organizational factors 150 organizational perspective 136–7 outcome measures 99, 101

Ovretveit, John 400
Owen, Harry 347

Paddington Rail Accident 120
Pasteur, Louis 6
survey 283

see also safety

Patients for Patient Safety programme 303–5

peer support 205–6

Peer Support Programme 205–6

people, assumptions about 145–6 perfectibility model 22

performance measurement 396

permit to work 323

persistance of memories 248

person model 136

Person United Limited Substandard and Errors (PULSE) 189

personal standards 199

pharmakos 3

physical injury 172

physician involvement in improvements 393

Pichert, James 185

Piper Alpha disaster 120, 123

plan-do-study-act (PDSA) approach 382

planning errors 128

Popper, Karl 17–18

post-operative handover 356, 358–9

post-traumatic stress disorder 172

precarious events, designing around 243–4

Predictive Human Error Analysis (PHEA) technique 128, 128

preparedness 325, 330–2

preventive care 36

probabilistic risk assessment 159, 159 problem solving, first-order 227–8

process improvement 218–19

positive personal characteristics limiting 227–8 process measures 101–2

professional boundaries, reinforcing 355

Pronovost, Peter 284, 375, 387

protocols 308, 392

breaking 309–13, 312, 313

natural lifespan 317

psychological injury 172–3

puerperal fever 5–6

quality of care

aims for improvement 38

contribution to safety 42–4
definition of 34–5, 34
failure of 41–2
and safety 31–45, 37, 102–4 quality chasm 35–6
quality indicators 36
quality management 218–19
quality strategy 399
questioning decisions 146–7
Qulturum 398

Raleigh, Veena 109
Rasmussen, Jens 23, 314
reactions to errors 199
Reason, James 23, 132, 134, 165, 279, 327

Medical Accidents 23
Swiss Cheese metaphor 144, 145
recognition primed decision making 250, 333–4 records see medical records regret 337
Reiling, John 231, 241
reliability 277–9
reporting and learning systems 75–94 anonymity of 80
aviation, aerospace and nuclear 77–82 components of 78
confidentiality and anonymity 80 counting and classification 81–2 mandatory vs voluntary 80 barriers to reporting 88–90
confidentiality 80
feedback and action 90–3, 92, 93
healthcare 82
importance of 93–4
incidents to be reported 83
local 82–3, 83
multiple information systems 87–8
national 84–5
Australian incident monitoring system (AIMS) 85–6
UK National Patient Safety Agency 86
specialty 83–4
types of 75–7
underlying incident rate 86–7 representativeness 337
research
high reliability 281–2
patient safety 44–5
resilience 277–9
resources 392
resuscitation trolley, design of 236–9, 237, 238
retrieval errors 128
rework 221–2
risk management 23–5
Rochdale experiment 15
root cause analysis 52, 153 routine violations 134, 311 rule-based decision making 334–5 rule-breaking 133–4, 309–10 exceptional 311
management of 318–19
migration 313–16, 315
necessary 134
optimizing 134
reasons for 310–13, 312, 313 routine 134, 311
theory of 313–16, 315
rules and procedures see protocols
Rush, Benjamin 3, 4

Safer Patients’ Improvement Programme 97
Safer Patients Initiative 104, 381–3
description of 381–2
impact of 383–5
engagement and motivation 383 patient outcomes and system change 384–5
process improvement 383–4
readiness for improvement 382–3
safety 96–113
creation of 214–15
culpability 273–5, 274
culture of see safety culture design for 213–14, 230–44
design and error 231–2
healthcare 232–3
hospital acquired infection 239–41
medication error 233–6, 234
resuscitation trolley 236–9, 237, 238
whole system design 241–4
intensive care 375–81
intervening variables 102
safety (Continued)
measurement of 104–6
  global trigger tool 104–5
  mandatory reporting of never events 105–6 systematic record review 104 unexpected consequences 109–11 measures reflecting 97–9, 100 outcome 99, 101
  process 101–2
  structural 99
organization of 125–6
and quality 31–45, 37, 102–4 rules and procedures 308 seven levels of 150–1, 150, 152
  teamwork 345–6
time tracking 111–13
  hospital standardized mortality 111
  medication errors and adverse drug events 112–13, 113 mortality following surgery 111–12
nosocomial infections 112
visions of 212–13, 213
see also patient safety safety behaviour 277
safety campaigns 385–8
safety climate 283
safety culture 123, 269–87
  changing towards 284–5
culpability 274–6, 275
definition of 273
  elements of 269–71
healthcare 270
measurement of 282–4
  openness and fairness 274 and patient safety 285–7
safety indicators 98, 106–9
  changes in 106
safety interventions 300–2
safety skills 321–39
  decision making 332–7
  hazard awareness 326–8
healthcare 323–6
  industry 321–3
non-technical 328–9
  situation awareness 329–32
  working conditions 337–9
safety standards 109–11 safety targets 109–11
safety training 357, 360–5
  emergency medicine 362–4
  simulation 360–1
St Joseph’s Medical Center, error reduction programme 224–6
Schein, Edgar, Organisational Culture and Leadership 271–2 Schimmel, Elihu 9–11, 10
Scottish Audit of Surgical Mortality 111 selection errors 128
self awareness 325
self criticism 199
Semmelweiss, Ignaz 6
sepsis 5
Sevdalis, Nick 335, 346
Seven Questions approach to safety 322
Shojania, Kaveh 215
Simanowitz, Arnold 171
Sims, J. Marion 4
  simulations 360–1
situation awareness 325, 329–32
  skills training 392
slips and lapses 133
social iatrogenesis 12
speaking up 294
specialty reporting systems 83–4 spinal injection, death from 144–8 staff, impact of clinical incidents on 197–8 staff factors 150, 151
staff support 192–206
  coping strategies 201–6 acknowledgement of potential for error 202 agreed policy on openness 203
  counselling 204–5
  education and training 204
  peer support 205–6
  support from colleagues 203 experience of error 194–7
  litigation 200–1
Staines, Anthony 400
standardization 213–14, 219–21, 396
  in design 242
  standards
  personal 199
  safety 109–11
Stanhope, Nicola 87
statistical prediction 250–1 status epilepticus 193–4 structural measures 99
structure 392
suggestibility 248
suicide 198
risk of 250
support organizations 189 surgery anticipation and preparedness 331 briefing and checklisting 353–6 mortality after 111–12
post-operative handover 356, 358–9 simulations in 360–1
surgical adverse events/complications 57–8
surgical errors 6–7
surgical outcome 6–7
surveillance 93–4
Sutcliffe, Kathy 278, 279–80, 280
Swiss Cheese metaphor 144, 145
system design 165–6, 165 System Engineering Initiative for Patient Safety (SEIPS) 165–6, 165 system improvement 399–401
system model 136–7
systematization 396
systems analysis 153
clinical incidents 153–6
systems failure 324
systems thinking 119–39
task/technology factors 150 team factors 150
teams 341–5, 343, 344
redesigning 356–7
teamwork 326, 341–65
advantages of 345
assessment of 357, 360
briefing, checklisting and daily goals 351–7
definition of a team 341–5, 343, 344
leadership 349–51
observation of 346–9
and safety 345–6
safety training 357, 360–5
technology 213–14
technology push 261
thalidomide 3
Thomas, Louis 8
three bucket model 327
Toft, Brian 141
Topping, Andrew 15
total quality management 153, 276 tragedy as opportunity for change 18–21
training 204
decision making 336–7
for safety 357, 360–4
emergency medicine 362–4
simulation 360–1
transfers, reduction of 243–4 transience of memory 247 trigger tools 104–5
Tripod Delta 160
UK Health and Safety Commission 273
UK National Patient Safety Agency 86,
127, 153, 233
incident decision tree 274–6, 275
Undre, Shabnam 346
US Center for Disease Control and
Prevention 112
US Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations 294 van Pelt, Frederick 205 variables, intervening 102
Vaughan, Diane 314
venous thromboembolism,
prevention 216–17
Veterans Affairs, New England 396–7 electronic medical records and decision support 396
implementation of change 397 performance measurement and
accountability 396
standardization and
systematization 396
vigilance 325, 330–2
Vincennes incident 135
vincristine, accidental administration of 141–8
violations see rule-breaking voluntary reporting systems 80
Wachter, Robert 110, 387
Walshe, Kieran 16
waste 221–2
Weick, Karl 278, 279–80, 280
Weingart, Saul 298
whole system design 241–4
patient environment 242 reducing transfers and handovers 243–4
standardization 242
Williams, Jeremy 160
Woods, David 23
work environmental factors 150
working conditions 337–9
World Alliance for Patient
Safety 304
World Health Organization 34
Wu, Albert 192, 203, 375
Yellow Card system 77
Zion, Libby 19