Accuracy of nurses’ diagnoses
diagnostic reasoning, and, 24–27
factors that influence variance
diagnostic task, 31
diagnostician, 34–36
situational context, 32–34
history of knowledge development, 23–24, 27–29
measurement of, 28–29, 106–107, 347–358
nurses’ responsibility for, 27
professional accountability, 36–37
reasons for concern about, 29–30
reasons to develop diagnostic abilities, 30–31
Advance practice nursing case studies
Adult health clinical nurse specialist
case studies, 157–160, 165–170
Pediatric specialist case study, 229–233
Primary health care nurse practitioner
case studies, 216–219, 238–242,
296–299
Psychiatric advanced practice nursing
case studies, 176–180, 311–316
Assessment, nursing
Amount of data, 44–45
Cultural, 41, 44. See also individual case studies
Frameworks
Functional Health Patterns, 43,
58–60, 339–345
Nursing model for practice, 43
theory-based, 42–43
Focused, 44
Barrett, E.A.M., 197–199, 311–316
Case management nursing case study,
286–290
Case studies
Need for, 19
Use of critical thinking with, 73–74
Community health nursing case
studies
Home health care
Family caregiving of person with Alzheimer’s, 200–205
Family caregiving of person with a colostomy, 206–210
Family caregiving of child with spina
bifida, 307–310
Hospice care, 225–228, 268–272
Low literacy, 277–282
Orthopedic and other health problems, 100–104, 334–336
Respiratory, 58–60, 325–328
Stroke care, 186–190, 317–320
Homeless shelter, 197–199
Primary health care
Diabetes self management, adult,
157–160, 165–170
Diabetes with psychiatric component, 296–300
Pediatric health functioning,
229–233
Urinary incontinence, 216–219
Women with past traumas, 176–180,
238–242, 311–316
Public health nursing, 258–262
School health nursing, 105–109
Shelter for battered women, 238–242
Telephone advice, 171–175
Critical thinking
cognitive skills, 13–29
definition, 9, 13
habits of mind, 14–29
use with case studies, 73–74

Diagnostic reasoning process, 24–27, 39–40

Electronic health records, 7–9
Erickson, H.C., 191–193, 200–205, 302–306

Evidenced-based practice and quality-based care, 7
and NANDA-I, NOC and NIC, 8–9, 44

Family nursing case studies, 200–205, 206–210, 268–272
Gordon, M., 58–60, 78, 91–93, 334

Health outcomes
importance, 5–7
standardization, 48–50
with health promotion diagnoses, 68–69
with problem diagnoses, 62
with risk diagnoses, 65
with strength diagnoses, 71
Horta, W.A., 143–146

Intelligence
and decision making, 23–24
external world of the individual, 11–12
internal world of the individual, 11
person’s experience, 12–13
Sternberg’s theory, 9–13

Interventions
and nursing diagnoses, 39–40
with health promotion diagnoses, 69
with problem diagnoses, 62–63
with risk diagnoses, 65–66
with strength diagnoses, 71
Kolkaba, K.Y., 220–224
Knowing the patient, 26–27

Long term care nursing case study, 234–237
Maternity nursing case studies
hysterectomy post delivery, 243–246

Medical-surgical nursing case studies, in hospital cardiovascular acute care, 120–124, 133–136
preparing for discharge, 151–156, 283–285, 321–324
endocrine, 125–129, 161–164
gastrointestinal, 206–210, 211–215, 286–290
hematological, 334–336
integumentary, 116–119
musculoskeletal
muscular complications from immobility, 91–95
optopedic, 83–86, 130–132, 143–146
rheumatoid arthritis, 194–196
nervological, 130–132, 137–142, 191–193
oncology
pre-diagnosis stage, 78–82, 87–90
terminal stage, 147–150, 194–196, 220–224
respiratory
hospitalized for testing, 78–82, 263–267
sleep apnea, 273–276
substance abuse, 91–95 urinary, 91–95, 273–276
Neuman, B., 165–170, 247–251
NANDA International (I) nursing diagnoses about, 8–9, 39–40
and medical diagnoses, 40
guiding principles for use, 40–48
relation to interventions and outcomes, 36

Nursing Interventions Classification (NIC), 50–51, 62–63, 65–66, 69, 71
Nursing Outcomes Classification (NOC), 48–50, 62, 65, 6–69, 71

Palliative care nursing case studies, 220–224, 225–228

Parse, R., 176–180

Partnership model, about, 42, 43, 44

Pediatric nursing case studies child with spina bifida, 307–310
  children in unsafe home conditions, 258–262
  premature neonate, 110–115
  psychological response of 2 year old, 229–233
  school child with asthma, 105–109

Peplau, H., 181–185, 302–306

Pesut, D.J., and Herman, J., 220–224

Psychiatric nursing case studies
  outpatient psychiatric, 176–180, 311–316
  in emergency room, 181–185
  inpatient psychiatric, 252–255, 291–295
  with other health problems, 296–300

Quality-based care, 5–19

Rogers, M., 206–210, 311–316

Roy, Sr. C., 83–86, 116–119

Standardized nursing languages, about, 8–9

Watson, J., 100–104, 225–228