Index

Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations acepromazine  646, 820

acral lick dermatitis  265–272
   behavioral modification techniques  269
   client education  272
   clinical features  267
   complications  272
   contributing/risk factors  266
diagnosis  267–269, 268
etiology/pathophysiology  265
handouts  269–270
history  265–267
patient monitoring  272
prevention/avoidance  272
therapeutics  269–272
drug therapy  270–272
surgical considerations  272
Adaptil® dog-appeasing pheromone  20, 530, 649
acral lick dermatitis  272
anxiety disorders  261
generalized anxiety  331
separation anxiety  360
compulsive and repetitive behaviors  401
   excessive licking  432
   flank sucking  410
   fly snapping  422
   pica  444
   shadow and light chasing  465
tail chasing or spinning  477
digging behavior  771
fear of people  282
fear of places and things  294
fear of the outdoors  304
fear-based defensive aggression  32
firework sensitivities  318
food-related aggression  42
house soiling  664
human directed aggression  54, 66
idiopathic aggression  76
interdog aggression  86, 97
introductions and  302, 316
mounting behavior  803
mourning behavior  722
nocturnal behaviors  821
noise sensitivities  345
puppy behavioral problems  915
reactivity on leash walks  844
redirected aggression  116
rescue dogs  955
territorial aggression  127
thunderstorm sensitivities  385
travel-related problems  878, 882
urine marking  698
veterinary office aggression  135, 139, 140
age-related soiling  662 aggressive behavior  3 associated conditions  3–10 degenerative/developmental  4–5 endocrine/metabolic  5–6 idiopathic/iatrogenic  8–9 immune/allergic  7 infectious diseases  7–8
      neoplasia  6
      neurological  3, 7 nutritional  6
      toxins  9
      trauma  9–10
      vascular  10
see also canine aggression; feline aggression Aktivait®, cognitive dysfunction  578 allergic conditions  7
alopecia, psychogenic see psychogenic alopecia/
   overgrooming
alprazolam  645, 646
anxiolytic use  625
   generalized anxiety  328
   separation anxiety  358, 371
   canine veterinary office aggression  137
   fear of people  281
   fear of places and things  293
   fear of the outdoors  303
   feline aggression  154
      fear-based/defensive aggression  166
      veterinary office aggression  246
firework sensitivities  315
noise sensitivities  343
older dogs  565
reactivity on leash walks  842
thunderstorm sensitivities  383
travel-related problems  880
urine marking, canine  696
attention-seeking behavior 392, 396, 414–415, 458, 727–734
behavioral modification techniques 731–732
client education 733–734
complications 734
contributing/risk factors 728
definition 727
diagnosis 729–730
etiology/pathophysiology 727
handouts 732
history 727–729
kittens 899
patient monitoring 734
prevention/avoidance 734
prognosis 734
therapeutics 730–732
management techniques 730–731
auditory enrichment 526, 536
auditory stimulation management 590, 616 azapirones
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 293
fear of the outdoors 303
firework sensitivities 316
generalized anxiety 329
noise sensitivities 344
older dogs 565
thunderstorm sensitivities 384
baby introduction to pets 496–498 bacterial infections 8
begging 736–744
behavioral modification techniques 741–742, 741
client education 743
contributing/risk factors 737
definition 736
diagnosis 739
etiology/pathophysiology 736–737
handouts 742
history 737–738
management 740–741
prevention/avoidance 743
prognosis 744
safety considerations 739–740
therapeutics 739–743
behavioral modification techniques
acral lick dermatitis 269
anxiety disorders 258–259
  generalized anxiety 325–327
  separation anxiety 353–356, 368–369
attention-seeking behavior 731–732
begging 741–742, 741
canine aggression 18–19, 18
  fear-based/defensive aggression 28–29
  food-related aggression 39–41
  human directed aggression 51, 63–64
  idiopathic aggression 73–74
  interdog aggression 83–84, 93–94
  possessive/resource guarding aggression 104–106, 105, 107
  redirected aggression 113
territorial aggression 123–124
  veterinary office aggression 135–136
carrier training 623–624
chewing, destructive 750–751
cognitive dysfunction 575, 575
compulsive and repetitive behaviors 398
  excessive licking 428–430
  flank sucking 407–408
  fly snapping 418–420
  pica 440–441
  shadow and light chasing 461–463
tail chasing or spinning 474–475
  wool sucking and fabric eating 485–486
coprophagy 757–758 destructive play 763–764
digging behavior 770–771
enrichment 529, 543
fear of people 278–279
fear of places and things 290–291
fear of the outdoors 301–302
feline aggression 152–153
  fear-based/defensive aggression 163–165, 901
  intercat aggression 152, 178–182, 179
  offensive aggression 192–193
  petting-induced aggression 203–205, 203, 204 play-related aggression 215–216
  redirected aggression 222
  reintroduction techniques 180–182, 181, 182
territorial aggression 234–235
  veterinary office aggression 244–245, 245
feline scratching behavior 858–860
firework sensitivities 313–314
handling plan 592–594
house soiling
  canine 660–663
  feline 673–676, 675, 676
house training 684–686
hyperactivity 779–780
introduction of pets to one another 509–510 introduction to human family 497–500
jumping on people 785–786, 911
kittens 923–928
  behavioral problems 901–902
leash reactivity 840–841
mounting behavior 799–801
mourning behavior 719–720
mouthing/play biting, canine 810–811, 912
nocturnal behaviors 818–819
drug therapy 820
handouts 819–820
noise sensitivities 340–342
older cats 552
older dogs 564
predatory behavior 830–831
psychogenic alopecia 450–451
behavioral modification techniques (continued)
puppies 934–939
behavioral problems 911–913
rescue dogs and cats 952–953 roaming behavior 851–852
scratching behavior, feline 858–860, 901–902 stealing household objects 867–869
thunderstorm sensitivities 381–382
travel-related problems 877–879
urine marking, canine 694–696
veterinary procedures 640–644 vocalizations, excessive 888–892, 912
benzodiazepines 645–646
anxiety disorders 260
generalized anxiety 328–329
separation anxiety 358, 371
canine aggression 20, 31
veterinary office aggression 137
contraindications/precautions 20, 155
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 293
fear of the outdoors 303
feline aggression 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
intercat aggression 184
veterinary office aggression 246
firework sensitivities 315
noise sensitivities 342–343
older cats 553
older dogs 565
reactivity on leash walks 842
thunderstorm sensitivities 382–383
travel-related problems 880
see also specific drugs
beta blockers 647
blind dogs, enrichment for 529 body language defensive 587–588
fear recognition 609–611, 610 feline facial expressions 610, 613 human 592
offensive 588
body pressure wrap 649
anxiety disorders 261
feline aggression 168, 185
feline handling management 626
firework sensitivities 318
noise sensitivities 346
thunderstorm sensitivities 386
travel-related problems 882
brain abscess 8
buprenorphine 647
buspirone
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 293
fear of the outdoors 303
firework sensitivities 316
generalized anxiety 329
intercat aggression 183
mourning behavior 721
noise sensitivities 344
older dogs 565
reactivity on leash walks 843
thunderstorm sensitivities 384
butorphanol 647
canine aggression 13–22
behavioral modification techniques 18, 18
canine enrichment 521–531
auditory enrichment 526
benefits of 521
blind dogs 529
client education 530
expected course 531
feeding strategies and food games 526, 527
for specific behaviors 527–529
handouts 529
kennel or shelter 529
lack of 521
behavioral modification techniques 529
clinical features 523
diagnosis 524
drug considerations 529
history 522–523
management 524
olfactory enrichment 526
patient monitoring 530
physical activity 525
problem prevention/avoidance 530–531
social interactions with other dogs 525–526, 525 social interactions with people 525 tactile enrichment 526–527
INDEX 991

veterinary clinic 528
where to use 521
canine-friendly handling see handling considerations
carrier training 623–624
cerebral vascular disease 10 chemical restraint 599–603
injectable drugs 599–600, 600
chewing, destructive 527, 743–752
behavioral modification techniques 750–751
client education 751
complications 752
contributing/risk factors 747
diagnosis 749
etiology/pathophysiology 751
history 746–749
management 750
prevention/avoidance 752
prognosis 752
puppies 911–912
therapeutics 750–751
children
interactions with pet 498 starting kittens off right 924 climbing behaviors, cats 540, 542 clomipramine
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
fear-based/defensive aggression 30
human directed aggression 53, 65
interdog aggression 95
redirected aggression 114
territorial aggression 125
veterinary office aggression 137
compulsive and repetitive behaviors 399
excessive licking 431
flank sucking 408
fly snapping 421
pica 443
psychogenic alopecia 452
shadow and light chasing 464
tail chasing or spinning 476
wool sucking and fabric eating 487
contraindications/precautions 19, 155
fear of people 280
fear of places and things 292
fear of the outdoors 303
feline aggression 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 167
intercat aggression 183
offensive aggression 195
petting-induced aggression 206
redirected aggression 223
territorial aggression 236
firework sensitivities 316
generalized anxiety 329
mourning behavior 721
noise sensitivities 344
reactivity on leash walks 843
separation anxiety
canine 357
feline 370
thunderstorm sensitivities 383
urine marking
canine 696
feline 707
see also tricyclic antidepressants (TCAs) clonazepam 646
older dogs 565
clonidine 646
fear-based/defensive aggression 31
firework sensitivities 315
generalized anxiety 329–330
human directed aggression 65
noise sensitivities 343
reactivity on leash walks 842–843
redirected aggression 114
separation anxiety 358
territorial aggression 125
thunderstorm sensitivities 383
veterinary office aggression 137
clorazepate 646
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 293
fear of the outdoors 303
firework sensitivities 315
generalized anxiety 329
noise sensitivities 343
reactivity on leash walks 842
separation anxiety
canine 358
feline 371
thunderstorm sensitivities 383
travel-related problems 880
cognitive dysfunction
behavioral modification techniques 575, 575
client education 579
definition 570
diagnosis 573–574
enrichment for 528
etiology/pathophysiology 570
handouts 575–576
patient monitoring 579
prevention/avoidance 580
prognosis 580
safety considerations 574–575
therapeutics 575–579
drug therapy 576–577
see also older cats; older dogs cognitive dysfunction history 570–573
contributing/risk factors 571–572
complex partial seizure 414, 415, 458 compulsive and repetitive behavior disorders 391–402
behavioral modification techniques 398
client education 401
clinical features 395
contributing/risk factors 393–394
compulsive and repetitive behavior disorders (continued)
definition 391
diagnosis 396–397
etiology/pathophysiology 391–392
handouts 398–399
history 392–395
management 398
patient monitoring 401–402
prevention/avoidance 402
prognosis 402
safety considerations 397–398
therapeutics 397–401
drug therapy 399–400
see also acral lick dermatitis; flank sucking; licking, excessive; pica; psychogenic alopecia; shadow and light chasing; tail chasing or spinning; wool sucking and fabric eating confinement training, puppies 938 coprophagia, canine 754–759
behavioral modification techniques 757–758
client education 759
complications 759
contributing/risk factors 755–756
definition 754
diagnosis 757
etiology/pathophysiology 754–755
history 755–756
management 757
patient monitoring 759
prevention/avoidance 759
prognosis 759
therapeutics 757–759
drug therapy 758
corticosteroids adverse effects 9
precautions 75
counterconditioning and desensitization (CCDS) anger disorders 258–259
generalized anxiety 325–327
separation anxiety 355–356, 368–369
canine aggression 18
fear-based/defensive aggression 29
food-related aggression 39–41
human directed aggression 51, 63–64
idiopathic aggression 73
interdog aggression 93–94
redirected aggression 113
territorial aggression 123–124
veterinary office aggression 135, 136
digging behavior 771
fear of people 279
fear of places and things 290–291
fear of the outdoors 301–302
feline aggression 152
fear-based/defensive aggression 164
intercat aggression 180–182, 181, 182
offensive aggression 193
territorial aggression 234–235
veterinary office aggression 244–245
firework sensitivities 314
flank sucking 407
fly snapping 419
handling 593–594
leash reactivity 841
mounting behavior 800–801
noise sensitivities 341–342
older dogs 564
predatory behavior 830–831
psychogenic alopecia 450
shadow and light chasing 462–463
tail chasing or spinning 475
thunderstorm sensitivities 381–382
urine marking 695
vocalizations, excessive 889–890
wool sucking and fabric eating 485
cranial injury 9 crate training 684, 685
rescue dogs 952
D-amphetamine, hyperactivity 780 defensive aggression see canine aggression defensive body language 588 degenerative conditions 4–5 dental prophylaxis, older cats 554 desensitization see counterconditioning and desensitization (CCDS) destructive play see play developmental conditions 4–5 dexmedetomidine oromucosal gel, canine noise aversion 260 diazepam 646
canine veterinary office aggression 137
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 293
fear of the outdoors 303
feline aggression 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
intercat aggression 184
veterinary office aggression 246
firework sensitivities 315
generalized anxiety 328
hepatotoxicity in cats 20, 155
noise sensitivities 343
older dogs 565
reactivity on leash walks 842
separation anxiety
canine 358
feline 371
thunderstorm sensitivities 382
travel-related problems 880
urine marking, canine 696
dietary measures
canine aggression 21
cognitive dysfunction 579
fear of people 283
dietary protein levels 6 diethylstilbestrol, house soiling management 663
contraindications/precautions 663
digging behavior 527, 528, 767–772
  behavioral modification techniques 770–771
client education 722
contributing/risk factors 768
diagnosis 769
handouts 771
history 767–769
prevention/avoidance 772
prognosis 772
safety considerations 770
dimenhydrinate 880
diphenhydramine 880
displacement behavior 391, 396 distemper 7–8
dog parks 513–514
dominance-related aggression 45, 49 dopaminergic agents
  firework sensitivities 317
  noise sensitivities 344
  separation anxiety, canine 358–359
  thunderstorm sensitivities 384 “drop it” teaching 41, 106, 107, 869 drug therapy see specific conditions and drugs elimination diary 687 elimination issues see house soiling; house training;
  urine marking Elizabethan collar 597
encephalopathy
  feline ischemic 4–5
  hepatic 4
endocrine conditions 5–6 enrichment see canine enrichment; feline enrichment epilepsy 7 event medications 645–647 excitement urination 662 extinction 731–732
  excessive vocalizations 889 fabric eating see wool sucking and fabric eating facial expressions, feline 610, 613 facial rubbing/self-grooming objects 537, 540
fear 253
  clinical features 609–611, 610
  fear response 254, 274
  puppies 935
  of people 274–284
  behavioral modification techniques 278–279
  client education 283
  complications 283
  contributing/risk factors 275–276
  definition 274
  diagnosis 277–278
  drug therapy 280–282
  etiology/pathophysiology 274
  handouts 279–280
  history 275–277
  management 278
  patient monitoring 283
  prevention/avoidance 283
  prognosis 284
  therapeutics 278–283
of places and things 285–296
  behavioral modification techniques 290–291
  client education 295
  complications 295–296
  contributing/risk factors 286
  definition 285
  diagnosis 288–289
  drug therapy 292–295
  etiology/pathophysiology 285–286
  handouts 291–292
  history 286–288
  management 290
  patient monitoring 295
  prevention/avoidance 295
  prognosis 296
  safety considerations 290
  therapeutics 289–295
of the outdoors 297–306
  behavioral modification techniques 301–302
  client education 305
  complications 306
  contributing/risk factors 298
  definition 297
  diagnosis 299–300
  drug therapy 302–304
  etiology/pathophysiology 297
  handouts 302
  history 298–299
  management 300–301
  patient monitoring 305
  prevention/avoidance 305–306
  prognosis 306
  therapeutics 301–305
veterinary visits 585, 606–607, 607
  see also handling considerations see also anxiety disorders; fear-based/defensive aggression; firework sensitivities; noise sensitivities;
thunderstorm sensitivities
fear-based/defensive aggression
  canine 24–33
    behavioral modification techniques 28–29
    client education 32
    contributing/risk factors 25
    definition 24
    diagnosis 27
    drug therapy 30–32
    etiology/pathophysiology 24
    handouts 29–30
    management 28
    patient monitoring 33
    prevention/avoidance 33
    prognosis 33
    safety considerations 27–28
    history 24–27
    see also canine aggression
fear-based/defensive aggression (continued)

feline 147, 148, 159–170
  behavioral modification techniques 163–164, 901
  client education 169
  complications 169–170
  contributing/risk factors 160
definition 159
diagnosis 161–162
drug therapy 165–168
etiology/pathophysiology 159
handouts 165
history 160–161
kittens 899, 901
management 163, 164, 165
patient monitoring 169
prevention/avoidance 169
prognosis 170
safety considerations 162–163
warning signs 162, 163
see also feline aggression
feeding behavior, cats 542 feeding strategies 526, 527
feline aggression 145–157
  behavioral modification techniques 152–153 classification 145
client education 156
clinical features 147–150, 148
complications 157
contributing/risk factors 146
diagnosis 150–151
etiology/pathophysiology 146
fear-induced/defensive see fear-based/defensive aggression
history 147
idiopathic 150
intercat see intercat aggression maternal see maternal aggression offensive or frustration-related see offensive aggression pain-induced see pain-induced aggression patent monitoring 156
petting-induced see petting-induced aggression play-related see play-related aggression
prevention/avoidance 156
prognosis 151–152, 157
redirected see redirected aggression risk assessment 151–152
territorial see territorial aggression
therapeutics 152–156
drug therapy 153–155
surgical considerations 156
feline enrichment 532–545
auditory enrichment 536
benefits of 536
client education 544
complications 545
facial rubbing/self-grooming objects 537, 540
for specific behaviors 540–543
kittens 927
lack of 532
  behavioral modification techniques 543
clinical features 534
diagnosis 535
drug considerations 543
history 532–534
management 535
olfactory enrichment 538
patient monitoring 544
play 536, 537, 538
problem prevention/avoidance 544
scratching posts 537
veterinary clinic 543
visual enrichment 537–538
where to use 535
feline ischemic encephalopathy 4–5 feline pheromone products 155, 649
acral lick dermatitis 272
anxiety disorders 261
generalized anxiety 331
enrichment 538, 543
fear of people 282
fear of places and things 294
fear-based/defensive aggression 168
firework sensitivities 318
handling management 626
house soiling 677
intercat aggression 178, 180, 185
kittens 929
  behavioral problems 902
mourning behavior 722
nocturnal behaviors 821
noise sensitivities 345
offensive aggression 196
older cats 554
petting-induced aggression 208
pica 444
psychogenic alopecia 453
redirected aggression 225
scratching behavior 857, 860
separation anxiety 372
territorial aggression 237
thunderstorm sensitivities 385
travel-related problems 878, 882
urine marking 708
veterinary office aggression 248
wool sucking and fabric eating 488 feline-friendly handling see handling considerations feline-friendly hospital 619–623, 620, 621, 622 Feliway products see feline pheromone products fight or flight response 254
firework sensitivities 308–320
  behavioral modification techniques 313–314
client education 319
complications 319
contributing/risk factors 310
definition 308
diagnosis 311–313
etiology/pathophysiology 308–309
handouts 314–315
history 309–311
management 313
patient monitoring 319
prevention/avoidance 319
prognosis 319–320
therapeutics 313–318
drug therapy 315–318
see also noise sensitivities
flank sucking 404–411
behavioral modification techniques 407–408
client education 410–411
contributing/risk factors 405
definition 404
diagnosis 406
etiology/pathophysiology 404
handouts 408
history 405–406
patient monitoring 411
prevention/avoidance 411
prognosis 411
therapeutics 406–410
drug therapy 408–410
flooding 291
fluoxetine
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
  fear-based/defensive aggression 30
  human directed aggression 53, 65
  redirected aggression 85, 95
  territorial aggression 125
  veterinary office aggression 137
compulsive and repetitive behaviors 399
  excessive licking 431
  flank sucking 408
  fly snapping 421
pica 442
  psychogenic alopecia 452
  shadow and light chasing 464
  tail chasing or spinning 476
  wool sucking and fabric eating 487
fear of people 280
fear of places and things 292
fear of the outdoors 303
feline aggression 153
  fear-based/defensive aggression 166
  intercat aggression 183
  offensive aggression 193
  petting-induced aggression 206
  redirected aggression 223
  territorial aggression 236
firework sensitivities 316
generalized anxiety 329
mourning behavior 720
noise sensitivities 343
older dogs 565
reactivity on leash walks 843
separation anxiety
  canine 358
  feline 370
thunderstorm sensitivities 384
urine marking
  canine 696
  feline 707
fly snapping 413–424
behavioral modification techniques 418–420
client education 420, 423
complications 423
contributing/risk factors 415
definition 413
diagnosis 417
etiology/pathophysiology 413
handouts 420
history 414–416
management 418
patient monitoring 423
prevention/avoidance 423
prognosis 424
safety considerations 418
therapeutics 418–422
drug therapy 420–422
surgical considerations 422
food games 526, 527, 536, 537
food-related aggression 35–44
  behavioral modification techniques 39–41
  client education 43
  contributing/risk factors 36
  diagnosis 37–38
  drug therapy 42
  etiology/pathophysiology 35
  handouts 41–42
  history 35–37
  management 38–39
  patient monitoring 43
  prevention/avoidance 43
  prognosis 44
  safety considerations 38
  see also canine aggression
foundation training, puppies 938–939 frustration-related aggression, feline see offensive aggression fucosidosis 4
gabapentin 646
anxiolytic use 624
canine redirected aggression 115
canine territorial aggression 125
canine veterinary office aggression 137
feline petting-induced aggression 206 feline veterinary office aggression 246–247
older dogs 565
generalized anxiety 321–333
behavioral modification techniques 325–327
client education 332
complications 333
generalized anxiety (continued)
  contributing/risk factors 322–323
  definition 321
  diagnosis 324–325
  etiology/pathophysiology 321–322
  handouts 328
  history 322–323
  management 325
  patient monitoring 332
  prevention/avoidance 332–333
  prognosis 333
  safety considerations 325
  therapeutics 325–327
  drug therapy 328–331
  see also anxiety disorders
  "go to place" cue 106
  gonadotropin-releasing hormone (GnRH) agonist, mounting behavior 801 granulomatous meningioencephalitis 8–9 grooming
    feline handling techniques 618 feline petting-induced aggression management 204 overgrooming see psychogenic alopecia/
    overgrooming
    self-grooming objects 537, 540
    gustatory stimulation 591 handling considerations
    behavioral modification techniques 640–644
    canine-friendly handling 585–604 behavioral modification plan 592–594
      client education 603
      clinical features 587–588
      complications 604
      definition 585
      drug use 599–603
      etiology/pathophysiology 585
      handling tools 595–598
      handouts 599
      history 586–587
      patient monitoring 603–604
      problem diagnosis 589
      problem management 589–592
      problem prevention/avoidance 604
      problem risk factors 586 restraint 594–596, 599–600 distress 630–635
      contributing/risk factors 631
      diagnosis 633–634
      etiology/pathophysiology 630
      history 630–633
    feline-friendly handling 606–628
      behavioral modification techniques 623–624
      carrier training 623–624
      client education 623–624, 627
      clinical features 609–611
      complications 627
      definition 606
      drug use 624–626
    etiology/pathophysiology 606–607
    feline-friendly hospital 619–623, 620, 621, 622
      handouts 624
      history 608–609
      management 612–623, 615, 616, 618
      patient monitoring 627
      problem diagnosis 611–612
      problem prevention/avoidance 627
      prognosis 627–628
    puppies 936–937, 936
    routine task accomplishment 634–639
      behavioral modification techniques 640–644
      client education 649–650
      complications 650
      drug use 644–648
      leashing 638, 639
      muzzling 638, 638, 639
      nail trimming 635–636
      oral medication administration 636
      patient monitoring 650
      prevention/avoidance 650
      prognosis 651
      topical medication administration 636 vaccinations/injections 636
      venipuncture 636–637
    see also veterinary office aggression Harmonease®, thunderstorm sensitivities 386 hepatic encephalopathy 4, 414, 415, 458 hiding behavior, cats 540, 541
  house soiling
    canine 653–666
      behavioral modification techniques 663
      client education 665
      complications 665–666
      contributing/risk factors 656
      definition 668
      diagnosis 658–659
      etiology/pathophysiology 655–656, 668–669
      handouts 663
      history 656–658
      learned house soiling 662–663
      management 553, 659–660
      older dogs 553, 559, 662
      patient monitoring 665
      prevention/avoidance 665
      prognosis 666
      therapeutics 659–665
        drug therapy 663–664
      cognitive dysfunction and 572
    feline 668–679
      behavioral modification techniques 673–676, 675, 676
      client education 678
      complications 678
      contributing/risk factors 670
      definition 668
      diagnosis 672–673, 673
      history 669–672
      patient monitoring 678
prevention/avoidance 678
prognosis 678–679
therapeutics 673–677
drug therapy 677
see also house training; urine marking

house training
lack of 660–661
puppy 680–688
behavioral modification techniques 684–686
client education 688
complications 688
drug therapy 687
handouts 686–687
history 681–683
management 684, 685
patient monitoring 688
problem diagnosis 683–684
problem prevention/avoidance 688
problem risk factors 681–682
prognosis 688
training log 687

human directed aggression
behavioral modification techniques 51, 63–64
client education 55, 67
complications 56, 68
contributing/risk factors 47, 59–60
diagnosis 49, 61–62
etiology/pathophysiology 45–46, 58
familiar people 45–56
handouts 51–52, 64
history 46–48, 58–61
idiopathic see idiopathic aggression
management 50–51, 62–63
patient monitoring 53, 67
prevention/avoidance 53, 67–68
prognosis 56, 68
safety precautions 49–50, 62
therapeutics
drug therapy 52–54, 64–66
surgical considerations 54
unfamiliar people 58–68
see also canine aggression

hydrocephalus 4
hyperactivity 774–782
behavioral modification techniques 779–780
client education 781
contributing/risk factors 776
definition 774
diagnosis 777–778
etiology/pathophysiology 774
handouts 780
history 775–777
patient monitoring 781
prevention/avoidance 781
prognosis 782
safety considerations 779
therapeutics
drug therapy 780–781
hyperthyroidism 5
hypothyroidism 5

idiopathic aggression
canine 70–78
behavioral modification techniques 73–74
client education 77
contributing/risk factors 71
diagnosis 72
etiology/pathophysiology 70
handouts 74
history 70–72
management 73
patient monitoring 77
prevention/avoidance 77
prognosis 78
safety considerations 72–73
surgical treatment 76–77
therapeutics 72–76
drug therapy 74–76
see also canine aggression
feline 150
idiopathic conditions 8–9 feline cerebral infarction 9 immunological conditions 7 infectious diseases 7–8
injections 636
intercat aggression 147–148, 172–187
behavioral modification techniques 152, 178–182, 179
reintroduction techniques 180–182, 181, 182
client education 186
complications 186
contributing/risk factors 174
definition 172
diagnosis 176
etiology/pathophysiology 172–173
handouts 182
history 173–176
management 177–178, 177
patient monitoring 186
prevention/avoidance 186
prognosis 186–187
safety considerations 176–177
therapeutics 176–185
drug therapy 183–185
surgical considerations 185
see also feline aggression

interdog aggression
behavioral modification techniques 83–84, 93–94
client education 87, 97
contributing/risk factors 80, 90
diagnosis 82, 92
etiology/pathophysiology 79, 89
familiar dogs 79–87
handouts 84, 94–95
history 79–82, 90–92
management 83, 93
patient monitoring 87, 98
interdog aggression (continued)
  prevention/avoidance 87, 98
  prognosis 87–88, 98
  safety considerations 82, 92
  therapeutics 82–86, 92–97
    drug therapy 84–86, 95–97
    surgical considerations 86
  unfamiliar dogs 89–99
  see also canine aggression

introducing pets
  into the human family 493–503
    behavioral modification techniques 497–500
    child interactions 498
    client education 502
    clinical features 495
    complications 503
    diagnosis 496
    drug considerations 500–502
    expected course 503
    handouts 500
    history 493–495
    new baby introduction 496–498
    patient monitoring 503
    problem prevention/avoidance 503
    risk factors 494
  to one another 505–517
    behavioral modification techniques 509–510
    cats 510–511, 924–925
    client education 516
    clinical features 507–508
    complications 517
    diagnosis 508
    dog parks 513–514
    dogs 510, 925
    drug considerations 514–516
    etiology/pathophysiology 505
    expected course 517
    handouts 514
    history 506–507
    kittens 924–925
    management 509
    parallel walking 512
    patient monitoring 517
    problem prevention/avoidance 517
    risk factors 506
    unfamiliar dogs on leash walks 512–513

jumping on people 783–788
  behavioral modification techniques 785–786, 911
  client education 787
  contributing/risk factors 784
  diagnosis 784–785
  handouts 787
  history 783–784
  management 785
  prevention/avoidance 788
  prognosis 788
  puppies 906, 911
  safety considerations 785

kennel enrichment 529

kittens
  behavior problems 897–904
    behavioral modification techniques 901–902
    client education 903
    clinical features 899
    complications 904
    contributing/risk factors 898
    diagnosis 900
    etiology/pathophysiology 897
    handouts 902
    history 897–899
    management 900
    patient monitoring 903
    precautions 902
    prevention/avoidance 904
    prognosis 904
    safety considerations 900
    surgical considerations 903
  starting off right 918–931 children and 924
    client education 930
    environment enrichment 927 environment preparation 921–922 essential supplies 921
    handouts 929
    history 918–920
    kitten care 923
    multi-cat households 924–925
    patient monitoring 930
    play 923, 925–927
    problem diagnosis 920–921
    problem prevention/avoidance 930
    problem risk factors 919 resident dog and 925 routine creation 922–923 scratching 925, 926
    socialization 923–924
    surgical considerations 930
    training 923, 927–928

lead poisoning 9

leash problems, canine
  leash aggression 89
  leashing 638, 639
  puppies 911
  leash training 938
  see also reactivity on leash walks “leave it” command 106, 868–869 licking, excessive 425–434
    behavioral modification techniques 428–430
    client education 430, 433
    complications 434
    contributing/risk factors 426
    definition 425
    diagnosis 427–428
    etiology/pathophysiology 425
    handouts 430–431
    history 425–427
management 428
patient monitoring 433
prevention/avoidance 434
prognosis 434
therapeutics 428–433
drug therapy 431–432
light chasing see shadow and light chasing litter boxes 541–542 litter box cafeteria 674–675, 675 puppy house training 686 see also house soiling lorazepam 646
canine veterinary office aggression 137
feline aggression 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
older dogs 565
maropitant citrate, motion sickness 625 maternal aggression
  canine 98, 109, 128–129
  feline 150
meclizine 880
metabolic conditions 5–6 methylphenidate, hyperactivity 780 motion sickness 873
  behavioral modification techniques 877
diagnosis 876
drug therapy 880
etiology/pathophysiology 873
history 874
mounting behavior 795–804
  behavioral modification techniques 799–801
client education 803
  complications 804
definition 795
diagnosis 797–798
drug therapy 801–802
etiology/pathophysiology 795–796
handouts 801
history 796–797
management 798–799
patient monitoring 803
prevention/avoidance 804
prognosis 804
safety considerations 798
surgical considerations 803
mourning behavior 715–724
  behavioral modification techniques 719–720
client education 723
  complications 724
  contributing/risk factors 715
  definition 715
diagnosis 717–718
etiology/pathophysiology 715
handouts 720
history 715–717
management 719
prevention/avoidance 723
prognosis 724
safety considerations 718
therapeutics 718–723
drug therapy 720–721
mouthing/play biting, canine 805–814
behavioral modification techniques 810–812, 912
client education 812–813
complications 814
contributing/risk factors 806–807
definition 805
diagnosis 809
etiology/pathophysiology 805–806
handouts 811–812
history 806–809
management 809–810
prevention/avoidance 813
prognosis 814
puppies 912
safety considerations 809
music therapy, feline aggression 168 muzzle use 18, 135, 595–598, 596, 638, 639 alternative safety measures 597 emergency use 597–598, 598
fear-based/defensive aggression 28
human directed aggression 62
interdog aggression 92, 97
muzzle styles 596 puppies, training 938
redirected aggression 113
routine task accomplishment 635, 638
veterinary office aggression 134
nail trimming 635–636
neoplasia 6
Neospora caninum infection 8 neurological conditions 3, 7 new baby introduction to pets 496–498 nicergoline
  cognitive dysfunction 578
  older dogs 567
night waking, older dogs 563 nocturnal behavior 815–823
  behavioral modification techniques 818–819
client education 822
  contributing/risk factors 816
definition 815
diagnosis 817–818
etiology/pathophysiology 815
history 815–817
management 818
patient monitoring 822
prevention/avoidance 822–823
prognosis 823
noise sensitivities 335–347
  behavioral modification techniques 340–342
client education 346
  complications 347
  contributing/risk factors 337
definition 335
noise sensitivities (continued)
diagnosis 338–340
etiology/pathophysiology 335–336
handouts 342
history 336–338
management 340
patient monitoring 346
prevention/avoidance 346
prognosis 347
therapeutics 340–346
drug therapy 342–345
see also firework sensitivities; thunderstorm sensitivities nutraceuticals see Anxitane®; Zylkene® nutritional disorders 6 offensive aggression, feline 149, 189–197

behavioral modification techniques 192–193
client education 196
complications 197
contributing/risk factors 190
definition 189
diagnosis 191–192
etiology/pathophysiology 189
handouts 194
history 190–191
management techniques 192
patient monitoring 197
prevention/avoidance 197
prognosis 197
safety considerations 192
therapeutics 192–197
drug therapy 194–196
surgical considerations 196
offensive body language 588 older cats, behavior problems 549–556
behavioral modification techniques 552
client education 555
contributing/risk factors 550
diagnosis 551
etiology/pathophysiology 549
handouts 552–553
history 549–551
management 552
patient monitoring 555
problem prevention/avoidance 555
prognosis 556
therapeutics 552–554
drug therapy 553–554
see also cognitive dysfunction older dogs, behavior problems 557–568
behavioral modification techniques 564
client education 567
contributing/risk factors 558
diagnosis 560–561
etiology/pathophysiology 557
history 558–560
house soiling 553, 559, 662
injectable sedation 600
management 561–564, 562
patient monitoring 568
problem prevention/avoidance 568
prognosis 568
therapeutics 561–567
drug therapy 564–567
see also cognitive dysfunction
olfactory enrichment 526, 538
olfactory stimulation management 590, 616–617 onchectomy (declawing), feline aggression 156 opioids 646–647
oral medication administration 636
overgrooming see psychogenic alopecia/
overgrooming
oxazepam
feline aggression 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
older dogs 565
pain-induced aggression 9–10
feline 150, 611
parallel walking 512
parasitic infections 8
paroxetine
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
fear-based/defensive aggression 30
human directed aggression 65
interdog aggression 85, 95
redirected aggression 114
territorial aggression 125
compulsive and repetitive behaviors, wool sucking and fabric eating 487
fear of people 280
fear of places and things 292
fear of the outdoors 303
feline aggression 133
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
intercat aggression 183
offensive aggression 195
petting-induced aggression 206
redirected aggression 223
territorial aggression 236
firework sensitivities 316
generalized anxiety 329
mourning behavior 721
noise sensitivities 344
older dogs 565
pica 442
psychogenic alopecia 452
reactivity on leash walks 843
separation anxiety
canine 358
feline 370
tail chasing or spinning 476
thunderstorm sensitivities 384
urine marking
canine 696
feline 707
petting-induced aggression, feline 148, 199–209
behavioral modification techniques 203–205, 203, 204
client education 208–209
complications 209
contributing/risk factors 200
definition 199
diagnosis 201–202
etiology/pathophysiology 199
grooming considerations 204
handouts 205
history 200–201
management 202–203
patient monitoring 209
prevention/avoidance 209
prognosis 209
safety considerations 202
therapeutics 202–205
drug therapy 205–208
surgical considerations 208
phenothiazines, anxiety disorders 260 phenylpropanolamine, house soiling management 663
contraindications/precautions 663
pheromone treatment see Adaptil® dog-appeasing pheromone; feline pheromone products phobias 253
see also fear; firework sensitivities; noise sensitivities; thunderstorm sensitivities
pica 436–446
behavioral modification techniques 440–441
client education 444–445
complications 445
contributing/risk factors 437
definition 436
diagnosis 438–439
handouts 442
history 436–438
management 439–440
patient monitoring 445
prevention/avoidance 445
prognosis 445–446
therapeutics 440–444
drug therapy 442–444
pindolol 647
play
aggressive, canine 805–814, 810–812
behavioral modification techniques 810–812
client education 812–813
complications 814
contributing/risk factors 806–807
diagnosis 809
etiology/pathophysiology 805–806
handouts 811–812
history 806–809
management 809–810
prevention/avoidance 813
prognosis 814
safety considerations 809
surgical considerations 812
therapeutics
drug therapy 812
destructive, feline 761–765
behavioral modification techniques 763–764
client education 765
contributing/risk factors 761
definition 761
diagnosis 772
handouts 764
history 761–762
management 763
prevention/avoidance 765
prognosis 765
enrichment, feline 536, 537, 538
food games 526, 527, 536, 537
kittens 925–927
behavioral problems 899, 901
puppies 935
play-related aggression, feline 149, 211–218, 212
behavioral modification techniques 215–216
client education 217
complications 218
contributing/risk factors 213
definition 211
diagnosis 214–215
etiology/pathophysiology 211
handouts 216
history 212–214
management 215
patient monitoring 217
prevention/avoidance 217–218
prognosis 218
safety considerations 215
therapeutics 215–217
drug therapy 216
surgical considerations 217
see also play
porencephaly 5
possessive/resource guarding aggression 100–109
behavioral modification techniques 104–106, 105, 107
client education 108
contributing/risk factors 101
definition 100
diagnosis 102–103
etiology/pathophysiology 100
handouts 107
history 100–102
management 104
prevention/avoidance 108–109
prognosis 109
puppies 937–938, 937
safety considerations 103
therapeutics 103–108
drug therapy 107–108
predatory behavior 824–834
behavioral modification techniques 830–831
client education 833
complications 833–834
predatory behavior (continued)
  contributing/risk factors 826
  definition 824
  diagnosis 828–829
  etiology/pathophysiology 824
  handouts 831–832
  history 825–827
  management 829–830
  patient monitoring 833
  prevention/avoidance 833
  prognosis 834
  safety considerations 829
  surgical considerations 832

pregnancy
  canine aggression 78, 98
    possessive aggression 109
    territorial aggression 128–129
  canine stealing behavior 871
  feline aggression 157
    intercat aggression 187
  propentofylline
    cognitive dysfunction 579
    older dogs 567
  propranolol 647
  protozoal infections 8 pruritus 7
  psychogenic alopecia/overgrooming 447–454
    behavioral modification techniques 450–451
    client education 454
    complications 454
    contributing/risk factors 448
    definition 447
    diagnosis 449–450
    etiology/pathophysiology 447
    handouts 451
    history 447–449
    management 450
    patient monitoring 454
    prevention/avoidance 454
    prognosis 454
    therapeutics 450–453
  psychomotor epilepsy 7
  puppies
    behavioral problems 906–916
      behavioral modification techniques 911–913
      client education 915
      clinical features 909
      contributing/risk factors 908
      diagnosis 909–910
      drug therapy 913–915
      etiology/pathophysiology 906–907
      handouts 913
      history 907–909
      management 910–911
      prognosis 916
      surgical considerations 915
      choice of 932–934
  starting off right 932–940
    client education 939–940
    collar and leash training 938
    complications 940
    confinement training 938
    foundation training 938–939
    handling and restraint 936–937, 936
    handouts 939
    muzzle training 938
    play 935
    problem prevention/avoidance 940
    resource guarding 937–938, 937
    socialization 934–935, 934
  Purina® diets for cognitive dysfunction 579

‘quiet’ cue teaching 890–891 rabies

  cats 8
  dogs 7
  reactivity on leash walks 835–846
    behavioral modification techniques 840–841
    client education 845
    contributing/risk factors 836
    definition 835
    diagnosis 838
    etiology/pathophysiology 835
    handouts 841–842
    history 835–837
    management 839–840, 839
    patient monitoring 845
    prevention/avoidance 845
    prognosis 845–846
    safety considerations 838
    therapeutics
      drug therapy 842–843
  redirected aggression
    canine 110–117
    behavioral modification techniques 113
    client education 116
    complications 117
    contributing/risk factors 111
    definition 110
    diagnosis 112
    etiology/pathophysiology 110
    handouts 113–114
    history 110–112
    management 113
    patient monitoring 116
    prevention/avoidance 117
    prognosis 117
    safety considerations 112–113
    therapeutics 112–116
      drug therapy 114–116
    feline 149, 219–226
    behavioral modification techniques 222
    client education 225
    complications 226
    contributing/risk factors 220
INDEX 1003

S-adenosylmethionine (SAMe) tosylate cognitive dysfunction 577–578
  older cats 554
  older dogs 567
scent marking see urine marking scratching behavior, feline 855–862
  behavioral modification techniques 858–860, 901–902
  client education 861
  complications 862
  contributing/risk factors 856
  definition 855
  etiology/pathophysiology 853
  handouts 860
  history 855–857
  kittens 899, 901–902, 925, 926
  management 857
  patient monitoring 862
  prevention/avoidance 862
  surgical considerations 860–861
scratching posts 537, 858–859, 859
sedation 599–601
  injectable drugs 599–600
  older dogs 600
  oral sedatives 601
  dosages 602
selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs) 645
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
  fear-based/defensive aggression 30
  human directed aggression 65
  interdog aggression 95
  redirected aggression 114
  territorial aggression 125
  fear of the outdoors 302–303
  feline aggression 153
  fear-based/defensive aggression 166
  offensive aggression 194
  petting-induced aggression 206
  redirected aggression 223
  territorial aggression 236
  older dogs 565
  pica 442
  shadow and light chasing 464
  side effects 30, 85
  tail chasing or spinning 476
  urine marking 707
  wool sucking and fabric eating 486–487
  see also specific drugs
selegiline
  anxiety disorders 260
    generalized anxiety 329
    separation anxiety 358, 371
  cognitive dysfunction 576
  firework sensitivities 317
  interdog aggression 85
  noise sensitivities 344
  older cats 553
Senilife®
cognitive dysfunction 578
older dogs 567
separation anxiety 348, 363
canine 348–361
  behavioral modification techniques 353–356
  client education 360–361
  complications 361
  contributing/risk factors 350
  diagnosis 352–353
  etiology/pathophysiology 348
  handouts 356
  history 349–352
  management 353
  older dogs 563–564
  patient monitoring 361
  prevention/avoidance 361
  prognosis 361
  safety considerations 353
  therapeutics 353–360, 357
    drug therapy 356–360
enrichment for 528
feline 363–374
  behavioral modification techniques 368–369
  client education 373
  complications 373
  diagnosis 366–367
  etiology/pathophysiology 363
  handouts 369
  history 364–366
  management 367
  patient monitoring 373
  prevention/avoidance 373
  prognosis 373–374
  therapeutics 368–372
  drug therapy 370–372
serotonergic medications
acral lick dermatitis 270
anxiety disorders 259–260
  generalized anxiety 329
  separation anxiety 357–358, 370–371
canine aggression 20
  human directed aggression 52–53, 65
  idiopathic aggression 75
  interdog aggression 95
  redirected aggression 114
  territorial aggression 125
compulsive and repetitive behaviors 399
  excessive licking 431
  flank sucking 408
  fly snapping 421
  pica 442–443
  shadow and light chasing 464
  tail chasing or spinning 476
  wool sucking and fabric eating 486–487
fear of people 280–281
fear of places and things 292–293
feline aggression 153
  duration of treatment 154
fear-based/defensive aggression 166
intercat aggression 183
offensive aggression 194–195
petting-induced aggression 206
redirected aggression 223
territorial aggression 235–236
veterinary office aggression 247
firework sensitivities 316
mourning behavior 720–721
noise sensitivities 343–344
precautions 20
psychogenic alopecia 451–452
reactivity on leash walks 843
thunderstorm sensitivities 383–384
urine marking
  canine 696
  feline 707
see also selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs); specific drugs sertraline
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
  human directed aggression 65
  interdog aggression 85
  fear of people 280
  fear of the outdoors 303
  feline aggression 153
  firework sensitivities 316
  flank sucking 408
  fly snapping 421
  generalized anxiety 329
  noise sensitivities 344
  older dogs 565
  pica 442
  reactivity on leash walks 843
  separation anxiety
    canine 358
    feline 370
  shadow and light chasing 464
  thunderstorm sensitivities 384
sex-hormone-associated aggression 5–6
shadow and light chasing 456–467
behavioral modification techniques 461–463
client education 466
  complications 467
  contributing/risk factors 458–459
definition 456
diagnosis 460–461
etiology/pathophysiology 456–457
handouts 463–464
history 457–460
management 461
patient monitoring 466–467
prevention/avoidance 467
prognosis 467
safety considerations 461
therapeutics 461–466
  drug therapy 464–465
  surgical considerations 466
shelter enrichment 529 social interaction 539–540 between pets 511–512, 525–526, 525 with people 525, 536
socialization
  kittens 923–924
  puppies 934–935, 934
Solliquin®
  house soiling 664, 677
  kittens 929
  behavioral problems 902
  mourning behavior 722
  puppy behavioral problems 915
  reactivity on leash walks 844–845
  rescue cats and dogs 955–956
  travel-related problems 882
spinning see tail chasing or spinning squeeze cage 597
squeeze panel 597
stealing household objects 864–871
  behavioral modification techniques 867–869
  client education 870–871
  complications 871
  contributing/risk factors 865
  definition 864
  diagnosis 866
  etiology/pathophysiology 864
  handouts 869
  history 864–866
  management 867, 870
  precautions 870
  pregnancy and 871
  prevention/avoidance 871
  prognosis 871
  safety considerations 867
stereotypical behavior 391–392, 396 storm-related anxiety see thunderstorm sensitivities submissive urination 662 surgical therapy
  acral lick dermatitis 272
  canine aggression 21
  feline aggression 156
  feline scratching behavior 860–861
  fly snapping 422
  kittens 930
  behavioral problems 903
  mounting behavior 803
  predatory behavior 832
  puppy behavioral problems 915
  rescue dogs and cats 956
  roaming 852
  shadow and light chasing 466
  tail chasing or spinning 478
  urine marking 698, 709
  see also specific conditions systemic lupus erythematosus 7
tactile enrichment 526–527
tactile stimulation management 591
tail chasing or spinning 469–479, 470
  behavioral modification techniques 474–475
  client education 478
  complications 479
  contributing/risk factors 470–471
  definition 469
  diagnosis 473
  etiology/pathophysiology 469
  handouts 475
  history 469–473
  management 474
  patient monitoring 478–479
  prevention/avoidance 479
  prognosis 479
  safety considerations 474
  therapeutics 474–478
  drug therapy 476–477
  surgical considerations 478
territorial aggression
canine 119–129
  behavioral modification techniques 123–124
  client education 127–128
  complications 128
  contributing/risk factors 120–121
  definition 119
  diagnosis 122
  etiology/pathophysiology 119
  handouts 124–125
  history 119–122
  management 122–123
  patient monitoring 128
  prevention/avoidance 128
  prognosis 128
  safety considerations 122
  therapeutics 122–127
  drug therapy 123–127
feline 149–150, 228–239
  behavioral modification techniques 234–235
  client education 238
  complications 239
  contributing/risk factors 229–230, 230
  definition 228
  diagnosis 232
  etiology/pathophysiology 228
  handouts 235
  history 229–231
  management 232–234, 233
  patient monitoring 238–239
  prevention/avoidance 239
  prognosis 239
  safety considerations 232
  surgical considerations 238
  therapeutics 234–238
  drug therapy 235–237
testosterone-associated aggression 5–6
thiamine deficiency 6
ThunderCap® device 649, 839, 839
thunderstorm sensitivities 375–387
behavioral modification techniques 381–382
client education 386
complications 387
contributing/risk factors 377
definition 375
diagnosis 378–380, 379
etiology/pathophysiology 373–376
handouts 382
history 376–378
management 380
patient monitoring 386
prevention/avoidance 387
prognosis 387
safety considerations 380
therapeutics
	drug therapy 382–386
see also noise sensitivities
topical medication administration 636
towel restraint 597
toxins 9
Toxoplasma gondii infection 8 trading for stolen items 105, 105
training
carrier training 623–624
crate training 684, 685, 952
kittens 923, 927–928
puppies 938–939
collar and leash training 938
confinement training 938
foundation training 938–939
muzzle training 938
rescue cats and dogs 932–935
see also house training trauma, aggressive behavior association 9–10
travel-related problems 873–883
behavioral modification techniques 877–879
client education 882
complications 883
contributing/risk factors 874–875
definition 873
diagnosis 876
drug therapy 880–882
etiology/pathophysiology 873
handouts 879–880
history 873–875
management 877
patient monitoring 883
prevention/avoidance 883
prognosis 883
safety considerations 876–877
trazodone 646

canine redirected aggression 115
canine territorial aggression 125
fear of people 281
fear of places and things 292
fear of the outdoors 303
firework sensitivities 315–316
generalized anxiety 329–330
noise sensitivities 343
older dogs 565
reactivity on leash walks 842–843
separation anxiety, canine 358
thunderstorm sensitivities 383
travel-related problems 880
veterinary office aggression 137
tricyclic antidepressants (TCAs) 645
acral lick dermatitis 270
canine aggression
	fear-based/defensive aggression 30
	human directed aggression 65
	interdog aggression 95
	redirected aggression 114
territorial aggression 125
contraindications/precautions 19, 20, 155
fear of the outdoors 302–303
feline aggression 154
	fear-based/defensive aggression 166, 167
	offensive aggression 194
	petting-induced aggression 206
	redirected aggression 223

territorial aggression 236
older dogs 565
pica 442
shadow and light chasing 464
side effects 30, 85
tail chasing or spinning 476
urine marking 707
wool sucking and fabric eating 486–487
see also specific drugs
tryptophan deficiency 6 urination excitement 662
submissive 662
see also house soiling; house training; urine marking
urine marking
canine 690–699
behavioral modification techniques 694–696
client education 698
contributing/risk factors 691
diagnosis 693
etiology/pathophysiology 690
handouts 696
history 690–693
management 694
patient monitoring 698
prevention/avoidance 698
prognosis 699
surgical considerations 698
therapeutics 694–698
drug therapy 696
feline 700–710, 701
behavioral modification techniques 705–706, 706
client education 709
contributing/risk factors 701
diagnosis 703–704, 704
etiology/pathophysiology 700
handouts 706
history 700–703
management 704–705
patient monitoring 709–710
prevention/avoidance 710
prognosis 710
surgical considerations 704, 709
therapeutics 704–709
drug therapy 707
see also house soiling; urination vaccinations 636

vascular conditions 10
venipuncture 636–637

veterinary office aggression
canine 130–141
behavioral modification techniques 135–136
client education 139
contributing/risk factors 131–132
definition 130
diagnosis 133–134
etiology/pathophysiology 130–131
handouts 136
history 131–133
management 134–135
patient monitoring 140
prevention/avoidance 140
prognosis 141
safety considerations 134
therapeutics 134–139
drug therapy 136–138
feline 241–249
behavioral modification techniques 244–245, 245
client education 248
complications 249
contributing/risk factors 242
diagnosis 243–244
drug therapy 246–248
etiology/pathophysiology 241
handouts 246
history 241–243
management 244
patient monitoring 249
prevention/avoidance 249
prognosis 249
see also handling considerations
viral infections 7–8
visual enrichment 537–538
visual stimulation management 589–590, 614–616

vocalization, excessive 883–894
behavioral modification techniques 888–892, 912
client education 893
contributing/risk factors 886
definition 885
diagnosis 887–888
etiology/pathophysiology 885
handouts 892
history 885–887
management 888
prevention/avoidance 893–894
prognosis 894
puppies 907, 912
safety considerations 888

wool sucking and fabric eating 481–490
behavioral modification techniques 485–486
client education 488–489
complications 489
contributing/risk factors 482
definition 481
diagnosis 484
etiology/pathophysiology 481
handouts 486
history 481–483
management 485
patient monitoring 489
prevention/avoidance 489
prognosis 489–490
safety considerations 484
therapeutics 485–488
drug therapy 486–488

zinc phosphide toxicity 9 Zylkene® 649

anxiety disorders 262
generalized anxiety 331
separation anxiety 360, 372
attention-seeking behavior 733
canine aggression 20
fear-based/defensive aggression 32
food-related aggression 42–43
human directed aggression 54, 66
idiopathic aggression 76
interdog aggression 86, 97
redirected aggression 116
territorial aggression 127
veterinary office aggression 139
compulsive and repetitive behaviors 401, 442
excessive licking 432–433
flank sucking 410
fly snapping 422
pica 444
psychogenic alopecia 433
shadow and light chasing 465–466
tail chasing or spinning 477
wool sucking and fabric eating 488
enrichment 530, 544
fear of people 282
fear of places and things 294–295
fear of the outdoors 305
feline aggression
fear-directed/defensive aggression 168
intercat aggression 185
Zylkene* (continued)
  offensive aggression 196
  petting-induced aggression 208
  redirected aggression 225
  territorial aggression 237
  veterinary office aggression 248
  feline handling management 626
  firework sensitivities 318
  house soiling 664, 677
  introductions and 502, 516
  kittens 929
  behavioral problems 902
  mounting behavior 803
  mourning behavior 722
  nocturnal behaviors 822
  noise sensitivities 345
  older cats 554
  older dogs 567
  puppy behavioral problems 915
  reactivity on leash walks 844–845
  rescue dogs and cats 955–956
  thunderstorm sensitivities 386
  travel-related problems 882
  urine marking 698, 709