Index

9/11 see September 11 World Trade Center attacks, 2001

Abolitionism 488, 556–7; see also Brown, John; ontology: of the slave Aborigines (Australia) see Indigenous peoples (Australia)
Aborigines Acts 435; South Australia, 1911 and 1939 431 abortion: Christian terrorism and 295–6; poverty and 545–6
Abraham: covenant with God 337
Abravanel, Isaac: and the story of Dinah 164–5, 169–170 absolutism, doctrinal 579–80
Abu Ghrabi prison, Iraq 294
Acala (Tantric Buddhist deity) 214, 220, 221
Acaranga Sutra 263
adaptation, behavioral 77–8
Addis Ababa Agreement, 1972 418, 420
Adorno, Theodor W.: Kertész and 346
Afghanistan: protection of women a justification for war with 127, 128; and religious minorities 104; war, 1979-369; women 442
Africa, colonialism in 500–2; connection of Teso insurgency with 505; conventional views: 498–9; Mamdani on 500; see also particular countries, regions, &c.
African Americans: and Gandhi 560 afterlife: rewards in 91
ahīnsā 199–201, 207, 209, 263, 559
Aizen (Wisdom King) 221 al-Aqsa Intifada 516–7, 520 al-Asad, Hafiz 292n.
al-Bashir, Omar 418
al-Husayn, son of Ali, cousin of the Prophet Muhammad: martyrdom and Shi‘ism 285 al-Qaeda 288–9, 300; and the Crusades 142; the internet and 302n.; and martyrdom 96; meaning of term 289; and Muslim humiliation 338; Orientalism and 513; Pape on 486; Saudi Arabian policing and 520; September 11 attacks 89; model for Western understanding of Islam 193; and ummah as sacred “state” 102–3 al-Shafi‘i, Muhammad ibn Idris 277 al-Shaybani, Muhammad 277 al-Sulami, Ali ibn Tahir 279 al-Turabi, Hassan 418
Albigensian Crusade, 1208 156
Albrecht, Friedrich 432
Alexander II, Emperor of Russia: assassination 455

© 2011 Blackwell Publishing Ltd. Published 2011 by Blackwell Publishing Ltd.
Algeria: women 442–3
Ali, cousin of the Prophet Muhammad 284–5
Aliyah 383
Afro, Michael 429
"alternative" leadership: Jews in the Holocaust 386–7
Althaus-Reid, Marcella 550
Amaterasu Omikami (ancestral deity of Japanese imperial line) 228 ambiguity of violence, interpretive 71 ambiguity, social, in religion 52
American Civil War, 1861–1865: cotton-growing and 501; Garrison and 494, 557; and nonviolence movement 557; pacifists and 159
American Union against Militarism 558
Amin Dada, Idi 503
Amish 555
Amoghavajra 214
Anabaptists 554–5
anger: Nhat Hanh on 565 Anglican Church Missionary Society 501 Ani Ma'amin 387 animal sacrifice: Chinese culture and 250, 258; comparative traditions 320, 321–2, 329; Hinduism 196, 198, 201–2; Jainism 264
Annan, Kofi 579
Arendt, Hannah 15; on the Gulag 343, 344; on types of pleasure 78–80; and war 158–9, 273, 274
Aum Shinrikyo 224n., 304, 305; apocalyptic vision 205; attempt at legal registration 309; complaints by young members' families 309; conspiracy theories 312–13, 317; failure 304–12, 316–17; impulse toward purification 297; murders 309–10; and "performative violence" 315; and poa 309–10; in politics 310–11; psychology 293; punitive mission 312–14; subway attack, 1995 315
Aurobindo, Sri 206, 207–8
Australia: "core culture" 346; Pacific island communities in 470
Avalos, Hector: Fighting words 142
Aztec: and sacrifice 320, 324
Babri mosque, Ayodhya, India: destruction, 1992 336, 339, 368
Bailey, Clinton: and the story of Dinah 178
Bajiajiang (Taiwanese ritual performance troupe) 482
Baku, Azerbaijan: Azeri-Armenian conflicts 453
Ballou, Adin 557
Bamalaki 502
bao 251, 252, 260, 260n.
Barnard Center for Research on Women 134n.
Basic Education Movement (Brazil) 543
Bataille, Georges: and sacrifice 320–1
Bauman, Zygmunt: on difference 349–50; on the Gulag 347, 349; on the Holocaust 344–5, 347, 349; and power 351; on social liquidity and modern nihilism 347, 350
Bedouin: Bailey on 178; Burder on 174; Bush (G.) on 174
Begin, Menachem 332
Bekhor Shor, Joseph: and the story of Dinah 167, 169 belief: as coping strategy immediately before death 387
Bengal: Hindu women in 389–404
Bennett, John C. 272
Bernard of Clairvaux, Saint: and the story of Dinah 164
Beth Jacob (Orthodox Jewish girls’ school network) 384, 386–7
Bhagavad Gītā 197, 204–8; and religio-ethnic identity 336
Bharati, Uma see Uma Bharati
Bharatiya Janata Party 208; and Gujarat riots, 2002 368
Bhattacharyya, Raghubandana see Raghubandana Bhattacharyya
Bible, the: ambivalence toward violence 549–50; biblical violence in Genesis 34 163–78; Esther, book of 165–7; exaltation of violence in 580; Quaker challenges to authority of 157: sacrifice in 320; and slavery 357, 358, 360, 488; and the Spanish-American War, 1898 407–14, 415n.; and the unborn 491
“bibliofication” 57
“big men” (Africa) 503, 507–8; killed during Teso insurgency 498 (epigraph), 504–5
Bigelow, Albert 562 bin Laden, Osama: apocalyptic vision 295; Lincoln (B.) on 11; and martyrdom 96; Muslim humiliation and 334, 335, 338–9; and September 11 attacks 89; and ummah as sacred “state” 102–3 biological weapons: Aum Shinrikyō and 311 Birth of a Nation, The (film: D.W. Griffith) 413
Black, Leonard 362–3, 364 black magic: in Buddhist ritual 218, 222 blood: in Chinese legal system 256–5, 483; in Chinese ritual violence 478 blood sacrifice: China 474; see also animal sacrifice; human sacrifice bodhisattva: Tantric Buddhism 212
Boff, Clodovis 544, 549, 551n.
Boff, Leonardo 544, 549, 551n.
Bonhoeffer, Dietrich 150; Rudd and 436
Bourdieu, Pierre: and symbolic violence 121
Bouyeri, Mohammed 235n.
Bosch, Hieronymus 212
Boxer Rebellion, 1900 255
Brahman caste 199, 200, 201, 205
Brazil: land reform efforts 548; liberation and violence 543–8
Brebeuf, Jean de 152–3
Brethren (church) 555; Tuvalu 465
Brightman, Edgar 562
Britain: and Hinduism in colonization/colonial administration of India 103, 106, 108, 208
Brooks, David 133
Brown, John (Abolitionist) 485, 486, 487–91, 494; Garrison on 493; Harpers Ferry raid 490; Pottawatomie assault 489–90
Browne, E.H.: and the story of Dinah 171
Brubaker, Rogers 348
Bryan, Andrew 359
Buddha, the: and Hindu scriptures 202; victory over Māra 214
Buddhism (see also Nichiren Buddhism: Tantric Buddhism; Theravāda Buddhism); American nonviolence movements and 565–6; Asahara and 309; atonement in 257; and demonology 254; “engaged Buddhism” 565–6; funerary rites 257; persecuted under Meiji government (Japan) 229; and sacrifices 258–9, 260; and symbolic violence 211–24; and the underworld 257
Bufacchi, Vittorio 70
Bund 82–4
Burder, Samuel: Oriental Customs 173; Oriental Literature 173–4
Burdwan, Dowager Rani of: British colonial attitude to property rights 394
Burkert, Walter: and sacrifice 320, 321–2
Burnier, João Bosco 544
Bush, George (biblical scholar): Illustrations of the Holy Scriptures 174
Bush, George W. (U.S. President): and concept of crusade after 9/11 117; Lincoln (B.) on 11
Calhoun, John C.: on slavery 364n.
Calvin, Jean: and the Chosen People 534, 535; and religion as category 8; and the story of Dinah 164, 170
Câmara, Hélder Pessoa, Archbishop of Olinda and Recife 543, 547–8, 582; death threats to 544; quoted on levels of violence 545, 546, 547
Cambodia: China, Vietnam and 245; as quasi-sacred state 102
Camp David peace process, failure of 517
Candlish, Robert: and the story of Dinah 172, 173 canon law 274–5
capitalism: and conflict 573–4; dowry murder, patriarchy and (India) 130, 131; and ideology 59; and militarism 574–5; Protestant ethic and (Weber) 54; and social injustice 571–2; and socially induced aggression 575; see also globalization, capitalist Carlebach, Joseph Zvi 382–3
Casaldáliga, Pedro, Bishop of São Felix do Araguaia 544, 546–8 casuistry: Buddhism 219 categories, philosophical 9
Catholic Church: missions (Pacific islands) 462–4, 468; and political conversations (Brazil) 543; rivalries with Protestantism (Pacific islands) 461, 462–3; support for the poor (Brazil) 544, 548; Vatican II 544; and World War II 561
Catholic Peacebuilding Network 582
Catholic Worker (journal) 562
Catholic Worker movement (U.S.) 561–2 Cathars 156
cattle and sociopolitical status: Iteso 500, 504
Cavanaugh, William: The Myth of Religious Violence 12–14, 141, 143–4 CCC (Comando de Caca aos Comunistas) (Brazil) 544, 551n.
Center for Studies in Islam and Democracy 449n.
Central Intelligence Agency (U.S.): and the Mujahideen 441
Cham dances 218
chaos: taken more seriously than violence itself (Chinese culture) 252 charisma: discourse 56–7; the mystic and 82; routinization 55–8; Weber and 54–6
Charles I, King of England: providentialism in death sentence on 529
Chassidic Jewry: Poland 383
Chechnya: radical Islamism and 289 Child, Lydia Mary 359
childbirth: sacrifice and (Greek tradition) 289
China: Boxer Rebellion 255; Communist revolution, 1949, religious overtones of 260; Confucianism and war 237–47; deities in Chinese culture 253; premodern legal system 255–7; religion as administrative servant of state 103–4; violence in religious culture 249–60
Chinese Catholic Church 103–4
Cho, Seung-Hui 7, 17
choice (and lack of) in religious violence 492, 495n.
choice and prospect theory 79
Chomsky, Noam 185
Chosen People: Puritan perception of 532–4, 534–5
Christ: Anabaptists and Sermon on the Mount 554–5; anthropomorphically embodied god 138; liberation theology and 550; Passion and Crucifixion 150–1, 250, 324, 362, 410–14, 455; and masculinity 469; nonviolence and the suffering of 562; sacrifice 324; as “suffering servant” 358, 360; and temporary ascendancy of evil 361; union of all people in 561–2; see also Christianity Christian Evangelist (denominational journal) 409
Christian Identity movement (U.S.) 92, 95
Christianity: Africa and China 108; church-based advocacy groups and Sudan 422; Hindu violence against 334; millennialism, medieval 313; Monophysite 419; and nonviolence 546–7; patriarchy and US culture 131; persecution in Roman Empire 153–7; and sacrifice 324; Sudan 417, 419; traditionalist/fundamentalist (U.S.) 95; United States and the Spanish-American War, 1898 407–14, 415nn.; and violence 149–60; see also Catholic Church; liberation theology; missionaries; Protestantism church and state, separation of: and religion as category 28; religious terrorists' rejection of 297–8 circumcision: use and abuse of rite 170, 172 civil religion: United States 7, 25, 30, 407 civil rights movement (U.S.) 562; see also King, Martin Luther Jr.
Civil War, American see American Civil War, 1861–1865
Civil Wars, English (17th cent.) 528, 531–2, 534 civilization and the personal 52 Clarke, Adam: and the story of Dinah 170 “clash of civilizations” 31, 72, 279–80 clientelism: Africa 503 club goods, religious (Iannaccone’s model) 42–3
Cold War: nonviolence movements and 562
Colebrooke, H.T. 392, 393; and nirindriya 403; and sati 398 collective action, theory/economic models of 40, 45 colonial agenda, British: Bengali Hindu women in 392–6, 404; Western secularist bias and indigenous religions 512 colonization: and later conflicts 573; religion as category and 28 Comando de Caca aos Comunistas (Brazil) 544, 551n. communalism: and South Asian religious violence 370 communities of faith see intentional communities community, principle of: King (M.L. Jr.) and 563 compassion: Tantric Buddhism 212 conflict resolution/ transformation:
frame works 576–7, 580; religious peacebuilding and 141, 520–1, 568, 569, 570, 575–6 conflicts, post-Cold War 572–4; religion as cause of 577; religious intervention in 577–8; religious rhetoric and 572–3
Confucianism: and sacrifice 323; and war 237–47
Confucius 239–40; see also Confucianism conquistadors: in Inquisition 156 conscientization 579, 585n.
constructed memory 55 consumerism: Bauman, “liquid terror” and 347 context, cultural: webs of meaning 114 contexts, anthropological importance of 70
Cornwallis, Mary: and the story of Dinah 163–4, 170
Corpus Juris Civilis: W. Jones’ model for Hindu law 398
Correlates of War (COW) Project 139–40, 141, 145
Cossacks 451, 459n. cotton-growing 501 criminalization of protest/opposition, Western: Muslim cultural vocabulary and 193 Cromwell, Oliver: at Drogheda 527, 529, 532; Irish campaign in general 532, 534; and Protestant dissent 533; and providentialism 528, 529–30, 532; at Wexford 527–8, 529 crowd behavior 60, 374 crucifix: Chinese reaction to 250
Crusades 44, 46, 117–20, 142; Bush (G.W.) and 117; and image of Muslim violence 187; massacres of Jews 149; media treatment 118–19
Cuban insurgents (1898) 406, 407, 410; and American notion of war of sacrifice 411–14 culturalist explanations of violence 513–14, 515–17 culture and meanings 51 curiosity: seen as fault in young women 164 cycle of rebirth (Hinduism): liberation from 205
Dada Vasvani 269
Dalai Lama, 5th (Ngawang Lobsang Gyatso) 222
Dalai Lama, 14th (Tenzin Gyatso) 565–6; The Art of Happiness 80–1
Danish cartoon controversy, 2005 107–8, 133
Dante Alighieri 212
Daoism: and demonology 252, 254;
funerary rites 257; and sacrifices 259, 260 dar al-harb 277–9 dar al-islam 277–8
Darfur crisis (Sudan) 422
Darwin, Charles: On the Origin of Species 138
Dasi, Kishori see Kishori Dasi
Davidson, Ellis: The Bible Reader 166
Davidson, Robert: and the story of Dinah 178
Dawkins, Richard 138
Day, Dorothy 561–2
Dayatattva (Raghunanadana Bhattacharyya) 397 de Jesus, Carolina 543; quoted 541 death: Jainism and 266 “death by culture” (Narayan) 130 decadence, Western: religious terrorism and impulse toward purification 296–7 decanonization of violent scriptural texts, proposed 145
Defenders of the Defenders of Life 491 defense: Thomas Aquinas on 274–5 dehumanization 575; modernity and 347
Delitzsch, Franz: and the story of Dinah 171, 175
Dellinger, David 561
Deming, Barbara 564
demonization of enemies 296, 487, 575 demons: in Chinese legal system 256; exorcism 252; involvement with the living (Chinese religious culture) 250; legal torture and 256; messianic variants 255; and morality of slavery 365n.; in Tantric Buddhism 213, 214, 215, 216, 218–19, 220 desire: Gandhi on 559 dharma 196, 197, 198, 199, 202–4, 205, 390 Dharmaśāstras 197, 198–9, 201, 203, 204, 206, 209; British colonial agenda towards 392–6; definition 390–1;
Hindu nationalism and 207–9; Tantric
Buddhism and 213, 214, 215, 224 dialogue across cultures: radical Islamism hostile to 280
Difaa al Shaabi, al 419
Digest of Hindoo Law, A (tr. Colebrooke) 392, 402–3 Dinah (Biblical personage): story of rape by Schechem 163–78
Dinka: and sacrifice 324
“disapperared” people: Brazil 543, 551n.
divine imperatives: sociology of religious violence 90–1, 298–9, 300–1; and theocratic control 298
divine presence: and peacebuilding 582–3
Dixon, Thomas: and Spanish-American War, 1898 413–14
docrine: irrelevance to contemporary religious experience 345 Dome of the Rock, Jerusalem: religio-ethnic humiliation and 338 dominance: aim of violence 72–3
Donatists 154–5, 158
Douglass, Frederick 488; on violence and “false” Christianity 363–4 dowry murder: Hinduism and 130
Driver, Samuel Rolles: and the story of Dinah 165, 170–1
Drogheda, Ireland: Cromwell and 525, 527, 529, 532 drunkenness: factor in pogroms 455
Dubnow, Simon 452
Duguid, Charles 430
Durckheim, Émile: and functionalist definitions of religion 24
Dyer, Mary 156–7
East India Company: and Bengali Hindu women 392–3
Easter: and pogroms 455
Eastern religions: American nonviolence movements and 564–5; see also names of particular religions
Ebert, Roger 113
Eckhardt, Meister: on joy and happiness 81–2
Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians: and the world 583 Edict of Milan 154
education: Polish Jews in the Holocaust 384 Elcho Island: Methodist mission 430 elections: Africa 503 “elective affinities” (Weber) 51
Eller, Jack David 139
En no Ozunu 215
England, John 358
Enlightenment tradition: rejected by religious warriors 97
Equatoria Corps (Sudan) 418, 420
Erikson, Erik 60
Ernabella, South Australia: Presbyterian mission 430 esoteric Buddhism see Tantric Buddhism Esposito, John 185
ethnocentrism: and sacred view of own history 94
Eusebius of Caesarea 152 “exchange theory” (Stark) 47n.
exorcism 252, 474, 477–8, 482; Daoism 254, 255 experience: religious terrorism and the bifurcation of 301 fact and value, dichotomies of: challenge of violence to 52 “faction”, political 370, 371 “failed prophecy” 85 failed states: radical Islamism and 289 failure of aspiration: and Asahara Shôkô’s demeanor in court 304, 317; Aum Shinrikyô 304–12, 316; Heaven’s Gate 313–14; and proselytism 304–5; punishment as revenge for 312–14; risk for sectarian leaders 316; and spiritual status 305; violence as means of overcoming 314–15, 317 Fairbank, John 238 faith: unique nature of 90 family honor: Judaism and 165 fanaticism 192
Fanon, Frantz 487 fascism 343, 344, 345, 348, 350, 351; neo-fascism 348, 349; and relationship between religion and politics 344; and sacralization of violence 344
fasting to death: Jain tradition 268
Fatah (organization) 513, 517, 519
February 26 Incident (Japan), 1936 227, 233–4
Fellowship of Reconciliation (U.S.) 558, 560
Feminist Majority Foundation 127 feminists: and Muslim fundamentalism 445–7
Fiji: indigenous cause 466–7
“Final Solution” 383
Fiorenza, Elisabeth Schüssler see Schüssler Fiorenza, Elisabeth fire rituals, Buddhist 220–1, 222–3
First African Baptist Church (Savannah, Georgia) 365n.
FIS (Front Islamique du Salut) 442, 448n.
Fitzgerald, Timothy 143–4 force and violence 17–18, 20
Fox, George 83, 555
Fuxe, John: “Book of martyrs” 153
Fragoso, Antonio, Bishop of Crateus: quoted 549
France: Civil Code 132; Islam in 132; North African immigrants 131–3; secular state 106
Frankfurter, Felix 29–30 free will: nonviolence and 564
Freire, Paulo 543, 549, 585n.
Freud, Sigmund: and cultural instability 53; on suppressed desires 139 Front Islamique du Salut 442, 448n.
Fudo¯ (Wisdom King) 220, 221; see also Acala Fugitive Slave Act, 1850 (U.S.) 489 fundamentalism: Christian 95, 97n.; Islamic 61, 444–5; origin of term 97n.; women’s responses to (Islam) 445–7
Gândhi, Mohandas K. (Mahâtma) 83–4, 196, 206–7; influence 207; and interethnic sympathy with humiliation 341; Jainas and 269; and nonviolence 559–60; Muste and 560–1
Garang, John 418, 421
Garrison, William Lloyd 488, 493–4; and Abolitionism 556–7
Garuḍa (Vedic personage) 218
Gassis, Macram Max 422
Gaza Strip: Hamas in 288, 513, 519
Gebara, Ivone 544, 551n.
INDEX 601

Geertz, Clifford  70, 141
Gelugpa school (Buddhism) 222 genre, concept of 380 “generals” (Chinese popular deities) 478 genocide  349, 350; Rwanda 499; see also Holocaust, the Gentile, Emilio: Politics as religion 25
Gerondi, Jonah: and the story of Dinah 167
Gersonides see ben Gershom, Levi Ghose, Aurobindo see Aurobindo, Sri GIA see Groupe Islamique Armée
Gibbon, Edward: on Christians and violence 153–4, 159
Gideon (Biblical personage), story of: evoked by Cromwell 532
Ginsberg, Allen 565
Girard, René: definition of violence 217; mimesis theory of violence 140; on sacrifice and violence 320, 321 Gītā Govinda (Jayadeva) 202 global ethic 579 globalization, capitalist: and conflict 569, 573–4; kyriarchy and 569; and militarism 574–5; religious peacebuilding as antidote to 568; and social injustice 571–2, 575
Go-Daigo, Emperor of Japan 221
Go-Reizei, Emperor of Japan 221
Go-Sanjō, Emperor of Japan 221
God: Abolitionism and 556–7; Hinduism 207; punitive 301; and religious routinization 58; slavery, humiliation and 358; union with, religious terrorism and 299; and violence, suggested approaches to 551n.; will of, unverifiability of 144; see also divine imperatives; divine presence god-king 101–2, 108
Godse, Nathuram see Nathuram Godse
Gogh, Theo van 235n.
Goldstein, Baruch: Hebron mosque incident, 1994 332, 336
goma 220–1
good and evil: Hinduism/Buddhism 216;
Indian model of conflict between 214–15; and religious terrorism 295; slavery as apocalyptic conflict between 489
Good Samaritan, Biblical parable of the: and Spanish-American War, 1898 408–10
Goulart, João 543 grace: St Ignatius’ program of spiritual education 81
Gratian: Decretum 273
“Great Migration” (to New England) 525
Greece, ancient: politics and war 351
Greengrass, Paul 113
Gregg, David: and Spanish-American War, 1898 412
Gribble, Earnest 426, 429–30, 435
Gribble, John 426
Grosseteste, Michael 156
Grotius, Hugo: and just war 275–6
Groupe Islamique Armée 442, 448n.
groupism: and Kertész 348
gto ritual 218
Guanyin, China: pilgrimage cult 257
Guevara, Ernesto (Che) 546
Gujarat riots and massacre, 2002 208, 339;
 factional conflict and 371; the internet and 369; Muslim economic activity and 370
Gulag, the: Arendt on 343, 344, 350;
Kertész on 347, 348, 350
Gush Emunim (movement) 84–5
Gutierrez, Gustavo 544, 551n., 574
Guyatt, Nicholas: Providence and the Invention of the United States, 1607–1876 528–9 hadith literature: jihad in 276 Haganah organization 176
hagiographic traditions, comparative 297
Haiti: ethnological explanations of violence 66–7; traumas 73
Halhed, N.B. 392
Ham, curse of 365n.
Hamaguchi, Osachi 230
Hamas (organization) 93, 189, 287–8, 513, 517–18; and delineation of religion as concept 518–19; and local conflict resolution 521; suicide attacks on Israel 191
Hara, Takashi 230
“hard” targets: suicide bombing and 41–2
Harmer, Thomas: and the story of Dinah 173
Harpers Ferry raid 490
Hashomer organization 176
Hastings, Warren: and Hindu law 392, 398 hate, politics of 444; “hate mysticism” 449n.
Hayagrīva (Buddhist deity) 217
Heaven’s Gate community 313–14, 315, 316; collective suicide 96, 313–14
Hebron mosque incident, 1994 332, 336 hegemonism: Mencius and 242–4
Heine, Heinrich: and the story of Dinah 172 hells: Buddhist/Hindu iconography 212; Christian 212
heresy: Grosseteste’s definition 156;
Inquisition and 155–6
Hermannsburg Lutheran Mission (Australia) 432, 434–5 hermeneutical circle of action and reflection: liberation theology 549
Hertz, Joseph: and the story of Dinah 175–6 Hezbollah (organization) see Hizbullah (organization) hierarchy: Mencius and 242
hijab, ban on (France) 350, 352
Hill, Paul 295, 296, 298–9, 486, 487, 494
himsā 559
Hindu law: codes 392, 398–403; sources 390–1; and women 389–90, 391, 398–403
Hinduism 196–209; British administration in India and 103, 108; and dowry murder 130; Gândhi and 559; and humiliation 333–4; and religion as category 28; and sacred space 339–40; Tantric Buddhism and 212
Hindutva 28, 208; see also nationalism: Hindu
Hirohito, Emperor of Japan 228; and February 26th Incident 234
Hirsch, Samson Raphael: and the story of Dinah 175
Hispaniola expedition, 1655: effect of defeat on Cromwell 530
Hizbollah (organization) 287–8, 516, 519, 520; and local conflict resolution 521
Holocaust, the: Arendt on 343, 344, 347; Bauman on 345, 347, 349–50; definition 379–80; Jewish Defense League and 337; and Jewish religious observance 385, 387; Jewish social frameworks during 381–2; Judaic theology and 380, 383–4, 387; Kertész on 346–7, 348–50; “never again” 331–3, 337; overt and covert 379; post-Cold War period and 349; and victim gender 380–1, 382, 385, 386–8
Holy Spirit Movement (Teso region, Uganda) 506 “holy war”: Christian example 411; Iranian revolution and 273; just war contrasted with 274 homologation: Christian endorsement of proposed criminalization 149, 157 honor killing 128, 135n.
Hopedale community (Mass.) 557
Horsely, Neal 296
Hubert, Henri: and sacrifice 320 human nature, violence and 14 human rights: international law 108–9 human sacrifice: in early Chinese religious culture 258, 474 humiliation: Islam and 444; possibilities for inter-ethnic sympathy 340–1; providentialism and 535n.; and psychology of terrorism 294–5; and religious violence 331–41
Hungary: as post-communist nation-state 349
Huntington, Samuel 31, 72, 279–80
Hutchinson, Anne 156–7
Hutterites 555
Hyderabad, Pakistan: founding story 333–4 Hypatia (Alexandrian intellectual) 149 hypostases (Buddhist deities) 214
Iannaccone, Laurence R. 42, 45
Ibn Hazm 278
Ibn Kaspi, Joseph: and the story of Dinah 168, 169, 170
Ibn Rushd 278–9
Ibn Taymiyya, Taqi ad-Din Ahmad 279 iconoclasm, contemporary 121–2 identities, contemporary 59; civically ordered 345; and “organic alignment” of groups within nation-states 346; rejection of 349; shifting/merging 345, 351; subjective meanings underestimated 376 identity: conflicts of 60; humiliation and 334–5; order and 60; politics of 62, 63; providentialism and (America) 528; “refocusing” 60; religio-ethnic 334–5 ideology, religion and 53, 58, 59, 63
Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, Saint: martyrdom 151
Ignatius of Loyola, Saint: short program of spiritual education 81 imperialism: Spanish-American War, 1898, and American identity 414 incest: sacrifice as expiation for (Dinka) 324 Independent (journal, New York) 408
India: British colonial administration and Hinduism 103; initiation rites (urban gangs) 47n.; tolerant/segregated state 105, 106
Indian Council of Historical Research 370
Indigenous peoples (Australia): child removals 432–4 (see also Stolen Generations); decimation 424; European condescension toward 424–5; forced relocation 431; languages 424; massacres and atrocities against 425–7; missionaries and 426–31, 432, 434–5; policing and 426–7; Protectorate 431–2; sexual exploitation 427, 433 injury: essential element in violence 16 innocence of victim, denial of 313–14
Innocent IV, Pope: Ad extirpanda (bull) 155–6; Albigensian Crusade, 1208
Inoue, Nisshō 230–2, 235n.
Inquisition, Catholic 155–6; casuistry 219; St Augustine and 155 instability of religious cultures 52–3 Institutes of Hindu Law (tr. W. Jones) see Manusmṛti institutions, religious: rationale 91 instrumentalist perspectives on violence 371–2, 376, 486 intentional communities 79–80 interdisciplinary engagement with religion, lack of 137–40, 145 interests, particular: appeals to religion to validate 580 “internal exile” as legal category: Kertész on 348
International Committee for the Peace Council 582 International Institute for the Study of Islam in the Modern World 449n.
international law: human rights and religious freedom 108, 110 internet, the: enabling factor in religious violence 302n., 369 internment: Teso region (Uganda) during insurgency 505 inversion, Christian hermeneutic of: and violence 154, 158, 159
Iran: revolution, 1979 272–3; as sacred state 102; women 440–1
Iraq: protection of women a justification for war with 127–8
Isaac ben Samuel: and the story of Dinah 167
Isatabu Freedom Movement 468
Islam 184–5; communities perceived as threat to West 186; conquests 282, 291; culturalist explanations of violence and 513–14: existentially violent character, perceived evidence of 184, 185–8, 192; fundamentalist argument 61; grievances reidentified as terrorism 193; Hindu nationalism and 333–4; historical commonality with Judaeo-Christianity 187, 188; historical context of origins 187–8, 191–2; and humiliation 334, 338–9, 341; identity politics 185; increased identification of violence with 74; Islamic feminism 446–7; Lewis (B.)’s characterization 31; media connection with violence 114–17, 186, 188; monolithic understanding of 185–6; Pakistan 349; prisoner of its history 187–8, 190; redefinition 184; and secular modernity 190–1; secularist caricatures of, in New York Times 133; Shinto contrasted with 234; Smith (W.C.) on 58; Sudan 417–18, 419–20, 421, 422–3; and violence in North African immigrant communities (France) 112; warrior spirit 444; Western secularist bias and 512; and Western strategy during Cold War 188
Islamic Jihad (organization) 516
Islam(ism), radical 279, 280, 287–90; culturalist explanations of violence and 513–14, 516
Islamist movements: historical background and masculinity 443–5; and women’s roles 443
Israel: Arab retaliatory raids on 177; growing power of, and militant Islam 444; humiliation and religious-ethnic identity 335–6; Jewish promised land 93; Leibowitz on founding principle 178; a model for U.S. role in the world
INDEX

407; “never again” and 332–3; sacred space and 337–8; tolerant/segregated state 105; see also Palestine

Israelites, Biblical: Puritan likening of New England colonies to 533–4

Isetsu tashio (principle) 231

Iteso (African people) 508n.; failure of Ugandan government toward 508n.; social structure 500, 506; village courts 507–8

Jacob, Benno: and the story of Dinah 175

Jade Emperor (China) 476

Jagannath Tarkapanchanan 392

Jahangir, Asma see Asma Jahangir

Jain tradition 204, 263, 267–8, 269–70; and animals 264, 269; dialectic of violence 268–9; Gândhi and 559; many-sidedness 267; and non-violence 263–6, 268–9; and other religions 267; repression of 266–7

Jakobsen, Janet: on the secular 12, 13

Jamieson, Robert: and the story of Dinah 172, 179n.

Jayadeva: Gitá Govinda 202

Japan: Shintó and violence 227–35; U.S. occupation, 1945-126

Jehovah’s Witnesses 29–30; Samoa 465

Jerome, Saint: and the story of Dinah 164

Jesuit missionaries 152–3

Jesus, Carolina de 543; quoted 541

Jesus Christ see Christ

Jewish Defense League 332, 337

Jewish tradition: and sacrifi ce 323

“Jewish Underground” 84–5

Jews: anti-Jewish violence in Russia 451–9; and blurring of identity in modern power structures 344–5, 352n.; in the Holocaust 379–88; and humiliation 331–3; as middlemen 454; as revolutionaries 454, 458; Russian fear of 453, 454

Jien, abbot 222

jihad 184, 187, 272–3, 282, 290–1, 445; and authority 291; Christian 296; in culturalist explanations of violence 516; history 276–9, 280, 282–91, 291n.; individual duty in 278–9; and martyrdom 283–7, 289, 290–1; and outrage at women’s emancipation 447; radical Islamism and 273, 300–1

Jimmu, Emperor of Japan 228, 235n.

Jisshu (Japanese Buddhist deities) 214

Jokhang Temple (Lhasa, Tibet) 217

Jones, Jim 304–5, 315, 317

Jones, William (orientalist) 392, 393, 395–6, 401; and “Roman” model of Indian law 398

Jonestown mass suicide, 1978 96, 149

Joseph, John (slave) 360–2

Joshua (Biblical personage) 188

Judaic law: perceived subversion in 454

Judenrates 386

Juergensmeyer, Mark 228, 315

jus gentium 274

jus in bello/jus ad bellum 275–6 just war, philosophy of 20, 158–9, 271, 272, 280; history 273–6 justice, social: and confl ict intervention 585n.; King (M.L. Jr.) and 562–3; more general late-mid-20th-century quest for (U.S.) 566

justifi cation of violence, religion as 71–2

Kahane, Meir 332

Kakar, Sudhir 60–1

Kalisch, Marcus: and the story of Dinah 171

Kalpa Sutra 263

kāma 198, 205

dakike: meaning 221

Kampuchea see Cambodia

Kanwar, Roop 391

karma 197, 200, 204, 205; retribution 211; ritual action 200; violence and the soul 265

Kashmir dispute (India and Pakistan) 92, 334, 368; Hindu and Muslim humiliation, sacred space and 339–40, 341n.; the state and 372

Keil, Carl Friedrich: and the story of Dinah 171, 174

Kertész, Imre 346–51

Ketsumeidan (organization) 230–1

Khan, Badshah 341

Khan, Mohammad Sidine 184; quoted 183, 294

Khmelnitsky, Bohdan 451

Khmer Rouge 102

Khomeini, Ruhollah, Ayatollah 296

Kierkegaard, Søren 344, 351n.
Kimhi of Narbonne, David: and the story of Dinah 168, 169–70
King, Martin Luther Jr. 562–3; basis of legitimacy 19; and martyrdom 153; on pacifism and segregation 493–4
King, Rodney, trial of: violence nullified by linguistic atomization 327
King Philip’s War (New England), 1675–1676 526 Kingdom, The (film: Berg) 114 kings, duties of: Hindu tradition 196, 203
Kishinev pogrom, 1903 452
Kishori Dasi: dispute with British colonial authorities over property rights 394–5 knowledge and political interests 513
Kôdôha (Imperial Way Faction) 232, 233, 235
Kôfuku no Kagaku 306
Kongôbuji (Shingon monastery) 221
Kongzi see Confucius
Koni, Joseph 506
Konpira see Kum. bhira
Konrád, Georg: and internal exile 348
Kook, Tzvi Yehuda Hakohen 84–5, 337
Kriesberg, Louis 572
Krishna see Kṛṣṇa
“Kristallnacht” (pogrom) 382
Kṛṣṇa (Hindu divine incarnation) 204–7
Kum. bhira 220
Kyoto Declaration on Confronting Violence, 2006 580 kyriarchy 569, 570, 584n.; obstruction to justice/peace 579–80
Lagu, Joseph 418
Lakwena, Alice 506
Landless Workers’ Movement (Brazil) see Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais sem Terra (Brazil)
Langdarma, King of Tibet: killing of, ritually reenacted 218–19 language: charisma and 56 “language-games” (Wittgenstein) 51–2
Laos: Vietnam and 245
Large, Stephen 231, 235n.
Lau, Moshe Chaim 387
Laud, William, Archbishop of Canterbury 525
Laue, James H. 585n.

law: as impersonal and transcendent operation 52; the state and religion 101; see also Roman law; shari’a law
Lawrence, Bruce 140
League of Gileadites 489
Lederach, John Paul 568, 570, 575–6
Left Behind series of novels 301
Legalism (Chinese thought) 241 legitimate violence: Tantric Buddhism and 213 legitimation: religious routinization and 57–8; totalitarian systems 344
Lei Haizong 238
Leibowitz, Yeshayahu: and the story of Dinah 177–8 Leveller movement 555 levels of violence 541–2, 547
Levi ben Gershom: and the story of Dinah 164
Lewis, Bernard 31
liberalism 105; politics and war 351 liberation theology 542, 549–51, 551–2nn.; 581, 582; Brazil 544, 547–8, 551–2nn.; and church support of militarism 574–5; definition 542; feminist 575, 578, 581, 582 life force (Chinese thought) see qi
Lincoln, Abraham 159
Lincoln, Bruce: maximalist and minimalist accounts of religious discourses 11–12, 13; and religion as category 9, 13 liquidity, social 347, 350 local deities: Buddhism and 213, 217 local identity: popular religion and 476 local/spatial context of violence 367
Locke, John: and religion as category 27–8; and the secular state 105, 107
London River (film: Bouchareb) 116
Lord’s Resistance Army, The 506
Lorenz, Konrad 138
Lotus Sutra 231, 259
Louima, Abner 73
love: devotion-based groups 82–5; pleasure experienced as 82; self-danger 84–6
Luzzatto, Samuel David: and the story of Dinah 174
Lucas, Alice 166
Lucius III, Pope: Ad Abolendam (bull) 155
Machiavelli, Niccolò 486
Mackail, John William 166
Maduro, Otto 582
Magnus, Lady Katie 166
Mahabharata 197, 203–4; and Babri Mosque incident 336–7; notion of Bharata in 339–40; see also Bhagavad Gita
Mahavairocana (buddha) 215
Mahavira Vardhamana 263
Mahayana Buddhism 212
Maheshvara (Hindu/Buddhist deity) 215–17
Maimonides, Abraham: and the story of Dinah 168
Maimonides, Moses: and the story of Dinah 167–8
Maine (U.S. ship), sinking of 406; Rainsford on 415n.
Majima, Terayuki 308
maladaptation encouraging violence, religion as (Dawkins) 138–9
Malaita Eagle Force 468
Malakites 502
Malthus, Thomas 143
Mamdani, Mahmood: Citizen and Subject 500
Mananzan, Sr Mary John 569, 574–5 mandala 213–14
Manichean dichotomy 301
Marquis’rimilakalpa 218
Manusmrti 390, 395–6; appropriation of, in governance 394, 396
Maira: the Buddha’s victory over 214; demons 220
Marians 534
Marinus, Martyrdom of (early Christian document, 260 CE) 158 Marists 462–3 martial arts, Chinese 474, 476; trance performance 479 martial ritual procession troupes (China) 481–2 martial traditions: Buddhist/Daoist 254–5 martyrdom 95–6; Christian 151–3; Christian-Muslim common history 188; and eternal life 91; hadith literature on 283–4; Hill (Paul) and 493; jihad and 283–7, 289, 290–1; manipulation of concept 86; Melanesian Brotherhood 468; Qur’an on 283; as rational choice 44; religious terrorism and 297; riots preceding Iranian revolution and 285; ritualization 298; as sacrifice 326; Shi’ism/Sunnism 286; signaling 46
Marx, Karl: and Mount Lebanon incident, 1860 513; and ontology of violence 487, 495n.
Marxism 10: influence on radical Islamism 287
Mary I, Queen of England 153 masculinity, heroic: Islamist movements and 443–4, 447, 448n.
Massachusetts Bay colony 532
Mather, Increase 525–6; “The Day of Trouble is Near” (sermon) 533; on King Philip’s War 526, 530–1; and providentialism 530–1
Maximilian, Acts of, 295 CE 158
May 15 Incident (Japan), 1932 232 “meaning, surplus of” (P. Ricoeur) 56 meanings: religion, culture and 51 meat: in Chinese sacrificial practice 258 media: electronic 120; religion portrayed as harmful 113; in reproduction of violence 69; role in terrorism 302n.; selective coverage 122 meditation: Tantric Buddhism 213
Megasthenes 203
Melanesian Brotherhood 468
Mencius: and Confucius 240; and hegemonism 242–3; and hierarchy 242; and war 240–4
Mengzi see Mencius
Mennonites 555; and conflict transformation 575; and Spanish-American War, 1898 415n.
Merka Ha-Rav Yeshiva 84
Methodist church: Fiji, 466–7; Samoa 465
Michizane, Sugawara 220 micro-scale of violence 141, 145 militarism: globalization and 574–5 Mill Hill mission 501 mimesis theory of violence (Girard) 140 minority religions: the state and 107–8 missions and missionaries, Christian: to Australian Indigenous peoples 425, 426–7; Hindu humiliation, violence and 334; Pacific islands 461, 462–3, 465, 468, 469, 470n.; Teso region (Uganda) 501 Mitaksha tradition 390–1; and women’s property rights 395 modernity: Brubaker on 348; Kertész on 346–7 moka exchanges 463
INDEX 607

mokṣa 198–200, 201, 202–3, 559
Monophysite Christianity 419 monotheism: and outsiders 140
Montefiore, Claude Goldsmid 166–7 moral communities see intentional communities morality: definition 585n.
Mormons 464, 471n.
Moro Movement 468
Morrison, Norman 150
“Mother Bunch” (American columnist) 411
Movement for the Restoration of the Ten Commandments of God 315
Movimento de Educação de Base (Brazil) 543
Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais sem Terra (Brazil) 548, 550
MST see Movimento dos Trabalhadores Rurais sem Terra (Brazil)
Mugema 502
Muhammad, Prophet: charisma 56; and jihad 282–3; Smith (W.C.) on 58
Mujahideen: 441–2, 448n. murder: as act of restoration (Buddhism) 219
Museveni, Yoweri 503
Muslim Brotherhood 444
Muste, A.J. 560–1, 562
mutuality, principle of 558; King (M.L. Jr.) and 563 Mwerinde, Credonia 315 myth, religious violence as 23–32, 143–4 mythohistory 61

Nahmanides, Moses: and the story of Dinah 168
Nakagawa, Tomomasa 310
Nakaoka, Kon’ichi 230
nao: attribute of disorder 252
Narayan, Uma see Uma Narayan Nathuram Godse 207 nation-state: as dharma 209; and ethnicity 346; post-Communist Europe 349; shifting/merging civic identities 345, 349; and totalitarianism 350 national expansion: Spanish-American War, 1898, and American identity 414 National Islamic Front (Sudan) 417 nationalism: devotion-based groups 85–6:
Hindu 206, 207–9, 333–4; as religion 25
Naylor, James 555
Nazism 344: and the Jews 381–6; see also Holocaust, the “negative identity” 575
Nehru, Jawaharlal: and communalism 370
neocolonialism 573
“never again” (Jews and the Holocaust) 331–3, 334
“New Atheists” 1, 113, 140–1
New England: “Great Migration” to 525; guiding impulse behind foundation 532;
King Philip’s War, 1675–1676 526; Mather family and 528; and Puritan rhetoric 531, 532–4; Puritans in 532–3
New England Non-Resistance Society 494
New Sudan Council of Churches 419
New York Times: secularist caricatures of Islam 133
New Zealand: Pacific island communities in 470
Ngarrindjeri confederation (Australia) 428
Ngawang Lobsang Gyatso, 5th Dalai Lama 222 ngengampi (Australian Indigenous practice) 428–9
Nhat Hanh, Thich 565–6
Nichiren Buddhism 230–2
Nicholas II, Emperor of Russia: October Manifesto 456
Nicholas de Lyre: and the story of Dinah 164
Niebuhr, Reinhold 160, 271
Nietzsche, Friedrich 344, 351n.
nihilism, modern: Kertész, Bauman and 347 Nimeiri, Jaafar 417, 418, 420; overthrow 418, 421 nirindriya: women defined in A digest of Hindoo Law 403 nivṛtti 196, 198–202, 205
Niyazov, Saparmurat: Rukhnana 102
Noble, James 430
Nonaka, Shirō 229–30; manifesto 229–30, 232–3; subsequent influence 234–5; suicide 234 nonviolence: Casaldáliga’s ambivalence 548–9; in U.S. history 554–8, 560–6
Northern Ireland: Catholic-Protestant violence 149
Nubia: Christianity first preached in 419 nuclear weapons: movement to ban 562 Numayrī, Ja’far see Nimeiri, Jaafar oath-taking: in Chinese legal system 256
Obote, Milton 503
Odessa, Russia [now Ukraine]: pogroms 451, 454–5, 456–7
Official, Joseph: and the story of Dinah 169–70 oligopoly market system 571 ontology: of the slave 488–91, 494; of the unborn 491–3; of violence 485–8, 493–4, 495n. opposition to violence: sacrifice as 329 order: and identity 59
Order of the Solar Temple 314–15, 316 organizational capacity of religion: opportunities for violence 45 Orientalism: social sciences and the Middle East 512–14, 515
Origen of Alexandria 151–2
Oslo Peace Process (Middle East) 109, 520
Ostrovsky, Moses: and the story of Dinah 177
Other, religious: secular violence against 31–2
Ottoman Empire: conquests as jihad 291; humiliation as source of allegiances in World War I 334; Muste on 561 Pacific Conference of Churches 467, 471n.
Pacific islands: Christianity 461–70; missions 461, 462–3, 465, 468, 469, 470n.; religion, pluralism and conflicts 461–70
pacifism: Christian tradition 159, 271–2; criterion for proposed scriptural canon 145; and ontological violence 493–4 Padmasambhava 216 pain: link to divinity 359
Pakistan 367; and the Mujahideen 441; and the nation-state 349; Shi‘a-Sunni violence, 1980s–90s 368
Palestine: Dar al-Islam 93; devastation/humiliation in 294; see also Israel
Palgyi Dorje 218
Paltiel, Haim: and the story of Dinah 169
Pape, Robert A. 141, 486
Papua New Guinea: raskol gangs 469
Paradise now (film: Abu-Assad) 115–16
Parliament of the World’s Religions: Council for a 582; Declaration, 1993 579
Parshvanatha, 23rd Tirthankara 263
Partition (India/Pakistan), 1947 367, 368; historical revisionism 372–3; and violence against women 374
Passover: and pogroms 455 peace, principle of: King (M.L. Jr.) and 563 Peace Council: International Committee for 582 peacebuilding, religious 571, 582–3; academe and 569, 570–1, 578, 581–2, 583–4; frameworks 575–7, 580–1; and global injustice 574–5; relevance 577–81; social levels 568; see also conflict transformation
Penn, William 555
Pennsylvania: founding 555
Pentecostalism 464, 467, 468, 499; Brazil 551n.; Ghana 507; Pentecostal Assemblies of God 465; Teso region (Uganda) 505–7
Peoples Temple 304–5, 307, 315, 316–17 “performance violence” (Juergensmeyer) 315
Perpetua, Saint 83
persecution: of Christians in Roman Empire 153–7 personalism (theology) 562–3
Peshawar, Pakistan: refugee camps 441, 442 Philippines: Spanish-American War, 1898, and 414 philosophers and violence 15, 16–17
Plato: and cultural instability 53
Plaut, Gunther: and the story of Dinah 171, 172 pleasure 76–8; devotion-based group 82–5; higher 80–2 pluralism: Wittgenstein and 51–2; see also religious pluralism Pou: Aum Shinrikyō and 308–9, 309–10
pogroms 451–9
Point McLeay Mission (Raukkan, South Australia) 428
Poland: Jews and the Holocaust 383 policing: and Indigenous Australians 426 “political opportunity structure”: and suicide attacks 517–18 politics: legally-based relationship between religion and 343–4; meaning 351 Pomare dynasty (Tahiti) 470n.
poor: location of grassroots peacebuilding 568–9
Pope, the: and just war 274
Popular Defense Forces (Sudan) 419 popular religion, Chinese 473–83; definition 475 postreligious constructivism 140, 141 Potemkin (battleship): mutiny, 1905 457 poverty: and spiral of violence 541, 545 powa 219, 224n.
power 18–20; Arendt on 15, 18–19, 350–1;
Bauman on 351; and religion as category 29; and religious/secular distinction 29–31
Prajāpati (Hindu deity) 323 pratyāti 196–9, 205 premodernity: absence of modern “religious” category 26–7 principal and agent 40
Proctor, Redfield 407 profit: militarism, the weapons industry and 574; as motive for war, Mencius on 240 property rights, Bengali Hindu women’s: British colonial policy toward 394–5 Prophet, A (film: Audriard) 116
“prosperity Gospel”: Africa 499
Protestant ethic: and capitalism (Weber) 54
Protestantism: Brazil 551n.; Charismatic 463, 464–5; and Spanish-American War, 1898 406, 414–15n.; Pacific islands 462, 464, 466–7, 468, 469; U.S. establishment 406; and violence in American history 524; see also names of particular church denominations providentialism 524, 525, 528–33
“Prozac effect” (P. Kramer) 77 pu 251, 259, 260n. punishment: Aum Shinrikyō and 312–14; Mencius’ philosophy of 244
Purim 336
Puritanism 524–5, 531–2; New England 532–3 qi: blood and 256; and demonology 252, 254
Qibya raid, 1953: Leibowitz and 177
Quakers (Society of Friends) 555–6; American Civil War 159; persecution of 156–7; and Spanish-American War, 1898 415n.
Qu’ran: and Islamic feminism 446–7; just war in 276; and martyrdom 283; and violence 187
Rad, Gerhard von: and the story of Dinah 165
Rāgarāja (Wisdom King) 221
Raghunandana Bhattacharyya: and sati 396–7
Rainsford, William 409–10, 415n.
Rama 61
Ramakrishna Order 206
Rāmāyaṇa 196, 203; and religio-ethnic identity 336
Rammohun Roy 403
raskol gangs (Papua New Guinea) 469 rational choice theory 46–7nn.; and martyrdom 43–4; and suicide bombing 37–46, 46nn.–47n.
reading ability: precursor for freedom 364 “redeemed” ghosts (Chinese protector spirits) 480–1 refugees: Indian Partition and 368
Reichsvertretung 382
Reid, Richard 96 relativism, cultural 69–70 religion as concept/category 512, 518–20; definition 8–11, 23–9, 380, 542 Religions for Peace (organization) 580 religious community: Jews and the Holocaust 380 religious economies school 38–40 religious evolution: unilinear model 138 religious freedom: Western laws 99 religious literacy, lack of 63–4 religious pluralism: Pacific islands 461–5 religious truth, absolute nature of 92–3 religious war/violence: definition 100–1 “religious wars” (Europe): secularist bias and 512 religiously mixed couples: Pacific islands 464, 471n.
Religulous (film: Maher) 141 retribution: religious conflict as cover for (South Asia) 370 Revolutionary Association of Women of Afghanistan 441
Rg Veda 196–7, 397 rhetoric of violence, religious 525–8, 531, 572–3
Riches, David 68, 70, 71, 74
Rigali, Norbert J. 585n.
Rimpel, Yvonne Hakime 66
Risshō Gokokudō organization 231
“rites of terror” 463 ritual: Tantric Buddhism 213, 217; language of sacrifice 327; religious terrorism and 298–9 ritual violence: Buddhist 217–24; in Chinese popular religion 473–4, 477–83; difference from violent ritual 474; extinction in Pacific islands 463
Robinson, George Augustus 426
Roman Empire: Caesars declared gods 101
Roman law: recovery of 274
Rosenheim, Kaethe 382
Roy, Rammohun see Rammohun Roy Rudd, Kevin: Apology 435–6
Rudolph, Eric 295
Rudra (Hindu/Buddhist deity) 215, 217
Russia: anti-Jewish violence 451–9; Civil War, 1918–1921; Revolution, 1905 456
Rustin, Bayard 561
Rwanda 499
sacralization of human activity 91–2 sacred space: religio-ethnic humiliation and 337–40 sacrifice 321–2, 323–5; in Chinese religious culture 258–9; Hinduism 198; martyrdom as 326; non-animal offerings 322–3; non-utilitarian nature 321, 322; power dynamics 325–6; religious terrorism and 297; religious traditions compared 322–4; as social violence 328–9; substitution as a founding notion in 327–8; and violence 320–30; see also animal sacrifice; human sacrifice
Saddam Hussein: execution seen as sacrificial substitute 328
Sagoya, Tomeo 230
Said, Edward 512
Saikō (priest) 220
St Bartholomew’s Day massacre, 1572 149; Candlish, the story of Dinah and 172
sainthood: Calvin’s view of 535
Sakamoto, Tsutsumi: murdered by Aum Shinrikyō 309–10
Śākyamuni 214
Sampson, Cynthia 570
Samuel ben Hofni: and the story of Dinah 167
sannyāsa 203
Santerian community: and sacrifice 328
Santi Suri 265
śāstras see Dharmaśāstras satiation of enemies 296, 487 sati 130, 390, 391, 393, 394; abolition 402; British colonialism and 396–8, 402–3 satyagraha 207, 560
Saudi Arabia: policing practices and al-Qaeda 520 Savarkar, Vinayak Damodar 208 scapegoat: deflection of anger 321 scarce resource theory 142–3, 144, 145
Schirch, Lisa 570
Schüssler Fiorenza, Elisabeth 569, 578 Schwartz, Regina 140 scientists, natural and social: insufficient insight into religion 137–40, 145 scripture: liberation from authority of, proposed 145; obedience to 92; routinization and 57; typological readings of (New England Puritans) 533 sectarianism: Muslim 94 secular, the; Jakobsen on 12 secular apocalypticism 140, 141 secularism: comparison with religion as cause of violence 125–6; cynical use of religious symbolism 345; and modernization 345; in Western social sciences 512–13 seimutonjaku 310 self-consciousness: role in idea of religion 61–2 self-defense, holy: violence acceptable as 489–91, 492, 494, 495n.
self-mutilation: in Chinese religious culture 259 self-righteousness: and religion as ideology 58 self-transcendence 52–3
September 11 World Trade Center attacks, 2001 89, 96, 112–13, 137, 184, 185, 186; Atta’s last letter 298–9, 314; Bush (G.W.) and concept of crusade after 117; character structure of attackers 293; “holy war” and 273; Lincoln (B.) on 11; Muslim humiliation and 335; overlay on older conflicts (Asia) 375; and perceptions of Islam 188; “performance violence” 315; as virtuous punitive act 314
Srinmo (Buddhist demoness) 216–17
Stalinism 344; see also Gulag, the Stark, Rodney 47nn.
state, the: category of the secular, Jakobsen on 12, 21n.; Cavanaugh on 13–14; emperor as (Japan) 233; extension of internal power 350; failed 289, 349; and force 17–18; liberal state 105–6, 107; and minority religions 107–8; relationships between religion and 99–109; religion as administrative agent of 103–4, 106, 108; religion as social service provider 104; religion as threat to 104–6; sacred state 102–3, 108, 178 (see also god-king); secular state 105–6, 107; segregated state 105, 107; South Asia 372, 376; state-based nationalism and minorities 372; structures and opposition groups 514; tolerant state 104, 107; typologies of state use of religion 101–4; Weber’s definition 486
state church: Europe 105–6 statues: China 253–4 “Stolen Generations” (Indigenous Australians) 432–3; Rudd’s Apology 435–6
Strehlow, Carl 434–5
Stridhana 391, 400
structuralist explanations of violence 514–15
Stuyvesant, Peter 157
Sudan: Anglo-Egyptian condominium period 417–18, 420; civil wars 417–19, 420–2; Comprehensive Peace Agreement, 2005 419, 422; languages 421; north-south divide 417–18, 419, 420, 421, 422; religion and conflict 417–23
Sudan Liberation Movement 420
Sudan Peace Act, 2002 422
Sudan People’s Liberation Army 418, 421
Suikdhittavata (Raghunandanadana Bhattacharyya) 397–8 suffering: the sacred in but not of 364; scope of term 365n.
“suffering servant” (Book of Isaiah) 357, 358, 360; common ground between pro- and antislavery 359; literary motif 359–60
Sufism: and jihad 286–7; radical Islamism and 287
Sugimoto, Goro 214 suicide in Chinese religious culture 259; collective 96, 305, 307, 313–14 suicide attacks 289–90; and culturalist/structuralist explanations 515–18; motives 37–8, 293; rational choice theory 37–8, 39, 40–2, 43–4, 46; as sacrifice 297
Sunni Islam: and martyrdom 284 supernatural intervention: and victims of violence 73 Suzuki, Kantaro 227 symbolic peace: postulated 122 symbolic violence 121; Buddhism and 211–24 symbols, religious: ideological use of 51; spiritual content subordinated to politics of identity 62, 63, 345 Taguchi, Shuji 308–9
Tahiti 470–1nn.
Taiheiki 220
Taiping rebellion 473
Takahito Shinno, Crown Prince of Japan 221; see also Go-Sanjo, Emperor of Japan takfir 287, 290
Taliban 189; treatment of women, and international reaction 127, 128, 441, 442
Talmud: perceived subversion in 454
Tamil Tigers (Liberation Tigers of Tamil Ealam) 40, 41, 369, 516
Tantric Buddhism: iconography of violence 211–17; Jaina critique of 267; Japanese 217, 223; rituals 221–3
Taplin, George 428–9
Tarkapanchanan, Jagannath see Jagannath Tarkapanchanan
Tatars: in Buddhist demonology 212
Tati (Tahitian chief) 462
Tchernichowsky, Saul: and the story of Dinah (Parashat Dinah) 176–7 television and violence 14 temple festivals (China): processions 476, 479–82, 483 Tenzin Gyatso, 14th Dalai Lama see Dalai Lama, 14th terrorism: Israeli-Palestinian conflict and 273; mass-casualty terrorism, explanations for rise of 515; media role in 302n.; psychology of religious terrorism 293–301, 302n.; Qu’ranic rejection of 187; radical Islamism and 290; reconceptualization of Muslim violence as 188–93; religious rationale 91–2, 184; Shinto and 227–8, 229–35; South Asia since 9/11 374–5; statistics 41; U.S., Sudan and 421; see also suicide attacks

Tertullian 157

Teso region (Uganda) 498, 500; colonial experience 500, 501–2; insurgency 498, 499, 504–5; Karamojong raids 503–4; see also Iteso (African people)

theocratic impulse 296–8 theology: definition 542 theology of suffering: slavery and human responsibility 357–8

Theravāda Buddhism 217

“thick description” (Geertz) 70, 141

Thomas, Norman 558

Thomas Aquinas, Saint: and just war 274

Thoreau, Henry David 559

“Three Teachings” 475

Threlkeld, Lancelot 426

Ticktin, Miriam 131–2, 133

Tilak, Bal Gangadhar 206, 207–8 time, experience of 56–7

Tobias ben Eliezer: and the story of Dinah 167

Tonton Macoutes 66

Torah: moral authority 168

Torres, Camilo 546; quoted on poverty and violence 545

Tōseitha 232, 235, 235n. totalitarian systems: Arendt on 343–4; equivalencies 344, 347, 350; type of legitimation 344 totalitarianism 344, 351; Arendt on 343, 344, 350–1; Bauman on 347; Kertész on 347, 348, 350, 351; modernity and 347; and relationship between religion and politics 344; and sacralization of violence 344

Tragic Prelude (mural) 485

trance performance 479–80, 481

transcendence 56; and violence 129, 309

triangle of violence (Riches) 68, 70, 74

Trigault, Niklaas 238, 246–7

Trimmer, Sarah: on the story of Dinah 163

Tsongkhapa 222

Turkey: secular state 106

Turner, Nat 149–50

Tylor, Edward Burnett 138

Tzvi, Shabbetai 83

U gyran pa 219

Uganda: governance since independence 503; see also Iteso (African people); Teso region (Uganda)

Uma Bharati 374

Uma Narayan 130–1

Umasvati: Tattvarthasutra 263

Unaipon, James 429

underworld, the: in Chinese religious culture 256–7

Union of Russian People 456

United 93 (film: Greengrass) 112–13

United States: Christianity and the Spanish-American War, 1898 407–14, 415n.; religious freedom in law 106; religious right 108; shift from Christianity to nationalism as religion 25, 29–30; see also American Civil War, 1861–1865

United States Commission on International Religious Freedom 109, 422

United States Institute of Peace: Religion and Peacemaking Program 582

Upaniṣads 197, 198, 200, 201–2

Ursuline Convent (Charlestown, Mass.): Protestant attack 149, 157

Vaiśravaṇa (Buddhist deva-king) 214

Vajrapāṇi (Hindu/Buddhist deity) 215–16, 221 value connotation of concepts 69

van Dyke, Henry: and Spanish-American War, 1898 412–13

Van Lennep, Henry John 174

Varshney, Ashutosh: on South Asia and violence 370–1

Vedānta 198, 206

Vedas 196–8, 199, 200, 201–2, 205; sacrifice in 320, 322; see also R. g Veda; Upaniṣads vegetarianism: and Buddhist sacrifice 258–9; in Hinduism 202, 206–7; in Jainism 264, 266 victims, religion as coping strategy for 72–3 Vidyadhishananda Giri, Swami 83
Vienna, Austria: and identity politics 345, 351–2n.
Vietnam: Chinese attack on, 1979 245–7
Vijnanesvara 390
“vindicationist” school of (U.S.) foreign policy 407 violence, concept of 249–50 violence, definition(s) of 15–18, 67–8, 100–1, 380, 542 violence, levels of 541–2, 547 violence, spiral of 542, 547–8, 549 “violent imaginaries” 72 violent ritual: difference from ritual violence 474 Virginia Technical University shooting incident, 2007 7–8
Vishnu (Hindu deity) 202
Vitoria, Francisco: and just war 275
Vivādabhanagāravā (Hindu legal code: tr. Jagannath Tarkapanchanan) 392
Vivādarnavasetu (Hindu legal code) 392, 400
Vivekānanda 206–7
Vodou 66–7, 73
Voltaire, Charles-Marie Arouet de: and the story of Dina 172–3
Voodoo see Vodou
Waal, Frans de 139
Waco affair, 1993 314–15
Wahhabism 444
Wampanoag Indians 526 war: boundaries of peace and (Confucianism) 237–47; Buddhism and 211, 214; Chinese and 237, 238; Christianity and 157–9, 408–14 (see also Spanish-American War, 1898); Confucianism and 237–47; Confucius and 239–40; educative aspect (Mencius) 244; Hinduism and 196, 203–8, 209; humanitarian cause 407, 415n.; Machiavelli on 486; Mencius and 240–4; military/civilian casualty ratio 134–5n.; politics and 351; punitive theory (Mencius) 241–4; as self-sacrifice 411–12; and social structures questioned 558
“War on Terror”, 2001–186
War Resisters’ League (U.S.) 558 war taxes: Quakers and 556 Ward, Keith 23 warrior caste 203
Watanabe, Jōtarō 227, 233
Wealth of Nations (Adam Smith) 47n. weapons industry 574, 583
Weber, Max: and charisma 54–5, 63; “elective affinities” 51, 54; and ideational/material interplay 54; on the state 21n., 486
Weld, Theodore Dwight 360
Wesley, John: and the story of Dina 164
Westernization: Iran in Pahlavi era 440
Westphalia, Peace of, 1648 276
Wiesel, Elie 331
Williams, Rowan, Archbishop of Canterbury 107
Wilson, David 138
Winthrop, John 156
witness to violence, role of 70–1 Wittgenstein, Ludwig 51–2; on eternity 57 women: conflict over concept of “woman” and 126; in Hindu śtric tradition 389–404; Muslim fundamentalism and 439–48; and nonviolence movements 557–8; Pacific islands 469–70; peacemakers 582 (see also liberation theology, feminist); Protestantism, access to ministry and 469; and religious authority 126–34; in religious violence 374, 439–48; Spanish-American War, 1898, and 411; US colonial discourses 126; violence against 126, 128–34, 574; Western, Islamist view of 443
Women Against Fundamentalism 446
Women for Afghan Women 134n.
Women Living under Muslim Laws (network) 445
Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom (U.S.) 558
Women’s Peace Party (U.S.) 558
Woolman, John 556
World Conference of Religions for Peace 582
World Health Organization: definition of violence 16
World Social Forum: World Forum on Theology and Liberation 582 World War I: and nonviolence movement (U.S.) 557–8; pogroms (Russia) 457 wrestling: as feedback mechanism to preempt violence 138 World War II: internment (U.S.) 561; Muste, his followers and 561
Wright, Henry C.: on slavery 556 wu 251–2

wu 259

yang energy 482
Yassin, Ahmed 191
Yasukuni Shrine 232, 235n.
Yellow Turban uprising 473
yin power: blood and 480
Yixing 216, 221
Yugoslavia: disintegration through reaction to misperceived threat 349; Orthodox-Catholic violence 149
Zaō Gongen (Buddhist deity) 215
Zealots 188
Zionism 383, 384