CONTENTS

Acknowledgments viii
Introduction 1

1 Childhood within Anthropology 17
Introduction 17
Children: The First Primitives 18
Culture and Personality 22
Cross-Cultural Studies of Child-Rearing 26
Children in British Anthropology 34
The Gendered Child 38
Child-Centered Anthropology 43
Conclusion 49

2 What is a Child? 50
Introduction 50
Childhood as a Modern Idea: The Influence of Philippe Ariès 51
Conceptualizations of Childhood 53
Children as Incompetent or Subordinate 56
Children as Equals 61
Children as a Means of Forming Families and Giving Status 63
Children as an Economic Investment 67
Unwanted and Nonhuman Children 70
Conclusion 77
3 The Beginning of Childhood
   Introduction 79
   Fetuses 80
   Spirit Children 87
   Reincarnation 95
   Anomalies 98
   Conclusion 103

4 Family, Friends, and Peers
   Introduction 104
   The Role of Parents 105
   Adoption and Fosterage 107
   Children outside the Family 118
   Siblings 121
   Friends and Peer Groups 126
   Conclusion 132

5 Talking, Playing, and Working
   Introduction 134
   Learning Language 135
   Children and Play 141
   Work or Play? 149
   Conclusion 155

6 Discipline, Punishment, and Abuse
   Introduction 156
   Discipline and Punishment in the Western Tradition 157
   Physical Punishment 159
   Alternatives to Physical Punishment 166
   Who Can Punish Children? 170
   Child Abuse 172
   Conclusion 179

7 Children and Sexuality
   Introduction 181
   Anthropology, Sexuality, and Childhood 182
   Children and Sex: The Influence of Freud 184
CONTENTS

Incest and Abuse 187
Ethnographies of Children and Sexuality 190
Child Prostitution 196
Conclusion 200

8 Adolescence and Initiation 201
Introduction 201
What is Adolescence? 202
Adolescence and Globalization 207
Initiation 212
Initiation: A Psychological Approach 215
Initiation and Education 221
Initiation and Gender 224
Initiation: The End of Childhood? 228
Conclusion 231

Conclusion 233

Bibliography 239
Index 270