Index

9/11 attack on the World Trade Center 299–300, 302
9/11 (film) 295, 292, 293

Accra 547–59
“acoustic dimension” of modernity 444 acoustic sense 354
actor–network theory 4, 6, 80–1, 82, 716 “adaptive capacity” debates 60 aerial photography 656, 658, 659, 660–2 see also photourbanism affect 277–85, 384–5, 388 affective relationship between cinema, experience, and urban environment 322 and emotion 277–9
central to writers on the city 279–82 cinematic cities 282–4 cities as “maelstroms of affect” 279 city affect 279–82
fear 284
in built form 301–2
mediated through the senses 285 mixophobia 284
neglect of affect 279
of acoustics 38
of Beijing, captured in film 283 spaces of affect 284–5
the uncanny 284–5
“affordance,” pleasure of 67–8
Africa 358–61
African cities as “work in progress” 751
see also Kinshasa, sub-Saharan Africa, South Africa African Americans in US cities 504
African National Congress and “neoliberal” policies 536 Ahmedabad, ethnography of an Indian city 8, 48–56 as megacity (2005) 49
pol system 51
textile industry in 54–5 violence in (2002) 49, 59
AIDS 67
“air power theory” 129
Almond, Julia 442, 449–50
L’amore molesto (film) 339, 342–4 analytic borderlands 210–19 apartheid 532–5
architecture
as a political technology 464–5 for change and flexibility 380–1 “star” architects 646–7 Arendt, H. 393, 394, 395–6
art, artists, art galleries and spaces 72–4, 454–7 Asia 165
aural environment of a city 385 Australia, public libraries 414, 415 automobiles see cars, and public spaces
Ballard, J. G., Concrete Island 60
Baltimore 728, 729–30
“bantustans” 535
Beijing
affect in Beijing 317–18
brand Beijing 320, 323–5 city map 321
civility in 318
films set in 318–19, 323 locales for storytelling 318 Olympics 323–4
public life in 318
see also China
Beijing Bastards (film) 319
Beijing Bicycle (film) 319, 323 being-in-the-world 469
Benjamin, W.
“A Berlin chronicle” 491 account of Naples 338–9 Arcades Project 280
on walking 490–1
Berlin (film) 449
billboard pictures 555–8, 556, 557 biological reductionism 467
Birmingham City Centre Challenge Symposium 727, 728, 734 blackness “Africanness” 548
and ethnicity 558
bodies and affect 384–5
and identities 506
as barriers to communication 383 bodies/publics 383–6
presentation of 383
bohemias 72, 73
Bolivia, Cochabamba people 100
bollards, barriers or militarized spaces 505
Bourdieu, P., 511–18
Distinction 576
field analysis and “field theory” 512–16 lost urban sociology 511–19 organization of rural mobility 513 radicalization of field analysis 516–18 reflections on nature of physical space 514–15 sociology of stratification 511–12 “spatialization of class” 511
The Social Structure of the Economy 516 urban theory 511
Brasilia 621
Buck-Morss, S. 280
bugan philosophy 196
business districts 598
Caldwell, L. 283–4
camera, instrument of resistance 656
see also photography
Cape Town 536, 539, 540, 541 capital globe-hopping not globe-covering 525 capitalism 525, 558–9
carbon, carbon dioxide “Copenhagen COP(15) flop” 110 emissions 13, 97, 98, 99, 103, 108–18, 176, 266 Kyoto process 110–11
carbon footprint 11, 176 carbon stabilization 114 carbon trading 10, 177 cars, and public spaces 265–73 auto-centered urban development 271–2 cars dominate urban streets and squares 265 motorists versus pedestrians 266–8 private car use 165
transformation of the street 268–70
Caterer and Hotel-Keeper, food travelogue of Soho (1906) 425–6
Cattle Depot Artist Village, Hong Kong 454–7 chaohuo 204–6
chenzhongcun 200–1
Chicago School (of Sociology) 157, 380, 620 case studies of night and night people identification of “the city” with “the ghetto” 588 influence of German thinkers on urbanists 174–5
Chicago School (of Urban Ecology) 680
China 143
Brand China 319–20
one-child policy 176
Tianmen Square protests 320–1 urban car-ownership and use 272 urbanism 701–10
Chinatown, Singapore 457–9 Chinese cities 174
and Occidental modernity 702
danwei and shequ: controlling urban populations 696–8 early European travelers’ reports 171 effects of market processes 625–6 electronic cities 207–8
emergence of real-estate market in 8–9 evolving city in China 402–3 neighborhood governance 690–9 rapid urbanization 382
rise in urban incomes and increase in vehicles on the road 165, 166
see also Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong Chombart de Lauwe, P.
and the Situationists 662–4
Photographies aériennes 662
Chuangye (film) 204–5
Cities Alliance 743, 744 cities
and carbon reduction 108–18
and cars 265–73
and development 13
and intensities of feeling 301–3 and market fundamentalism 13 and regional urbanization 683 and subjectivity 626, 626–7 and the processes of reconstruction 61 and the rule of markets 15–25
INDEX

as base areas for broader struggles 188 as command centers 213
as form of code to be deciphered 60 as mega death traps 175
as problematic spaces 134
as sites for concrete operations of the economy 212 as “spaces of hope” 738 concentrating diversity 212 concentrations of energy consumption and pollution 10–11 densely populated 158
dissident view on global urban growth 118 ethnic and racial diversity 162 European “great city” 586–7 future of sustained urban change 108–10 homosexuality of 586–94
in confl ict 503–4
in the African context 522 material environment of 4–5 paths to urban energy autonomy 118 post-border cities 164
re-imaging of cities 731
the acoustic city 442–50
the apartheid city 532–5 the competitive city 729
the efficient city 643–6 the liquid city 36
the networked city 59
the post-apartheid city 542 vanguards of change 111–14
see also global cities citizen-soldiers 130–2
City Beautiful movement 648
city centers 755
city life and the senses 347–55 city managers and and international policy innovations 527 city planning, three historic currents 643–53 city’s economy, in “cultural terms” 210
city–suburb distinctions 621
city-zenship in contemporary China 398–405
see also Shanghai
Civil Rights or Civil Wrongs Museum 478, 480, 481 civility and orderliness 236 class
and ethnicity 596
structure 575–6
struggle and resistance 232 clientelism, patronage and corruption 753–4 Clinton Climate Initiative 114
Cloverfield (film) 288–303, 289, 290, 291 and the 9/11 attack 299–300 and the film 9/11 295
and the uncanny 296–9
Coconut (Kopano Matlwa) 541
colloquia 726–7, 728
colonialism 547
commodification of the city, development of 8–9 community action 717–18 community-based planning 650–1 competitiveness 622
Concrete Revolution, The (film) 323 connectivity 720
Constant 224–32
Déréville (drift city) 225, 230
“Design for a gypsy encampment” 228
New Babylon 225, 227–9, 231–2 vision of nomadic cities 222 contractual planning 647 Coronelli globes 322–3
corporate culture 216, 217 cosmopolitanism, discourses on 385 Costa Rica 465–6
cultural exploration of cities 61–2 cultural globalization 161–2 cultural sustainability 453–4 Dallas–Fort Worth metroplex 185–6 dance 255–63
see also English country dance danwei (urban work unit) 195, 404, 692, 695, 696–8, 702, 707
Darwin, C., theory of natural selection 172 “data mining” 130
Day after Tomorrow, The (film) 312
Death of a Neapolitan Mathematician 339, 341–2 decommodification 542–3 deliberative planning 628–9, 632, 633–4, 637–8 design guidelines for the urban square 675 design of buildings 217 designer planning 646–7 designing out disorder and inappropriate conduct 674 deterritorialization of space 469, 470 developmentalism 526–7
difference in public life 396 “disaster porn” 308–9
disease and infection 159–60, 245–53
AIDS 67
health policies and plague regulations HIV 253 SARS 253
the “Black Death” 247–50 threats from maritime trading 160 tuberculosis 252–3
disorder and social incivility 671–4 division and difference 501–9 divisions in cities, political 502–3 DIY electronics market 205 doctrine of Discovery 171
Donald, J. 282
Donald, S., films of Beijing 283
Dongtan, environmentally friendly eco-urbanism 99–100 downtown shopping districts 598–603 drug dealing 671–3
drug use 67
dysfunctional land markets” 743

Eastern Europe 756
ecological modernization 63 economic inequalities and social polarization 684–5 economic regenration 453–4 economic sociology of regulation 754 economy and culture in the global city see analytic borderlands
electronic cities 194, 196, 201–3, 204, 207–8
Elizabeth II, coronation (1953) 435–6
Elms, Robert, and “Up With People” 442–3 embodied spaces 383, 466–8 emotion vs. reason 383–4 employment “color bar,” South Africa 535 energy and power generation 111–12 energy efficiency 110–17
Engels, Friedrich
analysis of capitalist urbanization in Manchester 3–4 nineteenth-century observations of Manchester 12 engineering 646
engineering of certainty 637
English country dance 165, 255–6, 256–60 in London 258–60
in New York 260
entrepreneurial urbanism 729–32 environmental catastrophe 102 environmental degradation 685 environmental justice debate 685–6 environmental sustainability of urban cultural spaces 454 equity planning 649
erosion of boundary between urban and suburban 681, 684 ethnic and racial diversity in cities 162 ethnic enclaves 184
see also ghettos
ethno-nationalism, and “anxiety of incompleteness” 163 European cities 748–50, 755–6 governance failures 748
European Spatial Development Perspective 741 European Union 740–2, 744 everyday mobility 166–7 eviction 210
dysfunctional land markets” 524–5

Fallen Angel, The (film) 327, 329 far right politics 124, 125 feminism 506, 651
feminist critiques 278, 350, 467 see also gendering urban space flâneur/s 164, 323, 436, 489, 586
Florida, R., The Rise of the Creative Class and Cities and the Creative Class 488, 586–7, 592, 593, 594
Foucault, M. 122–5
France 632

immigrant districts as “backward zones” 124–5 new military doctrine, main battle spaces at home and abroad 122 policing public demonstrations 123 proliferation of violent struggles 121 shift from external to internal colonization 125 urban unrest 610–11
use of “security zones” 123–4 Frankfurt School 383
free cities 170
French Modernism 664
Freud, S. 288
Civilisation and its Discontents 344 on the compulsion to repeat 298–9 on the uncanny 296, 298–9 Friedman, T. 129–30
future of the environment 12–13

Garden City movement 158–9, 173, 619–20, 652 gated communities 23, 122, 124, 125, 284, 309, 403, 466, 482, 505, 511, 525, 536, 541, 626, 685, 703, 706, 707, 709 gays/lesbians and the city 506, 507, 586–94 as iconic residents 591
as metropolitan signs 594 equation with urbanity 590–1 evolution of from urban savior to urban signs 592 fantasy of urban life 592 gay enclaves 594
“gay San Francisco” 589 history of oppression 594 hostility towards 593–4 lesbianism 588
LGBT consumption 592–3
gendering urban space 596–604 gentrification 5, 9, 32–3, 505–6, 566–8, 571–82, 623 costs of gentrification 577–80 displacement and dislocation 577–81 gentrification aesthetic 576–7 gentrifiers 576–7
production-side versus consumption-side explanations 574–5
“revitalization” or “regeneration” 573
Right to the City movement 581 urban areas, opportunities for profitable redevelopment 572 what gentrification is today 573–4 geographies and theories of neoliberalism 524 Germany, solar energy in 113–14, 113 ghettoes 504–5
and the gay community 504 in apartheid-era South Africa 533, 535 in Renaissance Venice 504–5 of African Americans, US 504, 562–3 Glass Age Development Committee 434 global cities 7, 127
and capitalism 7
connectivity 717
sustainability of cultural and social life 452–61 transportation 721
global control capability 214–15
Global Financial Centres Index (GFCI) 45 global flows 160–2
global warming 13, 97, 108–11
amelioration of 10
and Hurricane Katrina 312–13 globalization 160–1, 219 and inscription 216–19
cultural 161–2, 215
effects 713
good cities and citizens 667–77
governance 722
of culture 382–3
of multicultural populations 182 of space and conduct 670–1 governing cities, political management of complex trade-offs 362 government and urban landscape 625 great density convergence 681–3, 681 green planning, parks movement 648 greening capitalism 99–100
Group Areas Act, South Africa 532–3 Habermas, J., and the internet 393–4 and newspapers and coffee houses 394–5 habitus 467, 512, 576
Halloween 609
Hamburg, Germany, and energy efficiency 112–13
Harlem 561–9
as spiritual home of “black cultural sublime” 561 commercial gentrification 566–8 ghettoization 562–3
“second” Harlem renaissance 563–4
Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone (UMEZ) 565–6
Hartford, Connecticut 269
Hawaii, restoration of statue of King Kamehmea 75–6, 75 health 718–20
Hegel, G. W. F. 390
hidden infrastructures and formation of urban public culture 636 historical materialism 4–5 homeland security 126–7 homosexuality of cities 586–94
see also gays/lesbians
Hong Kong 327–35, 454–7
and cinema 327–35
Cattle Depot Artist Village 454–7
cultural projects 387
global Hong Kong 333–5
Hong Kong cool 329–33
Howard, E., and the Garden City project 173, 619–20, 652 hukou (Chinese house registration system) 144–5, 195, 403–4, 693 Hurricane Katrina 97, 124, 126, 312–13

If the Route: The Great Learning of London 447–9, 450 imagined landscape 597
imagineering 622
immigration, immigrants 33, 752
see also migrants
Inconvenient Truth, An (film) 102 Independence Day (film) 489 industry in urban core 681 information technologies 213–14 infrastructural inequalities 622 infrastructure 720–2
Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change 102 inter-human dynamics 635–6 internet 131, 161–2, 202, 272, 387, 414, 494, 635, 714 Islam 372–4
Israel 127, 129, 503–4
Jacobs, J. M. 175, 280
Jameson, F. 60–1
just diversity 407–16
and concept of conviviality 412 and difference 409–10
and urban planning 412–13 “parity” of participation 412 planning 407–9
recognition 411–12
redistribution 410–13
social goals for urban planning 416

Keeler, Christine 437, 438–9
King Kong 313–15
King, Martin Luther 476–87, 478
Kinshasa, Africa 359–61 exaggeration of body and speech 361 music 361
Kinshasa, Africa (cont’d)
precarious existence 360–1 small budget 359
spaces of intersection 363–4 knowing tradition 632, 633, 638 Knowledge, The (London cab drivers) 447 land use planning and spatial regulation 365 landscape

aesthetics 62–3
and infrastructure 57
as a concretization of cultural values 597 as way of seeing space from a distance 57 language 468–9
Le Corbusier 620, 646, 656
Lefebvre, H. 408
Les Halles, Paris 664
linguistic theory to understand body space 468–9 lived space 465
living architecture 364–6
Local Agenda 21 114, 117

London
and Victorian social morality 431, 433–5 changing labor markets 41
congestion-charging zones and security zones 130 decline and renewal 39–41
Elizabeth II, coronation (1953) 435–6
housing problems 42
in the 1950s and 1960s 431–40 in the 1980s 38
in the twenty-first century 38–46
Notting Hill 439
police reformers and urban improvements 242
real-estate development 38–9
social consequences of economic change 42–4 swinging London 385
the future 44–6
The Knowledge (London cab drivers) 447
urban reinvestment 41–2
West End 436, 599
see also Soho

Los Angeles 681, 686

maschinic rhythms of the city 634
Macmillan, H., and the Profumo scandal 439–40 “Magic Geography” 661
Malthus, T., Essay on the Principle of Population (1798) 172 Manchester, England 185–6 policing 237–42
market model as solution to the environmental crisis 10 market reform and emerging residential diversity, China 703 Marx, K. 9–10, 35
Marxist critiques of the ecological approach 170–1, 175, 176
urban studies 12
Masdar City, Abu Dhabi 99

“mask of rationality” 380
material culture 634–7 material ordering of urban being 634–5 materialities 3–13
megacities 12, 521
Megalopolis 26–37
“megalopolitan” city regions 686–7
Melbourne, Australia 488–97
International Arts Festival 488–9, 492 metropolis and postmetropolis 328–9 metropolis era, end of 679–88 metropolitan urbanization 679–80 metrosexuals 593
middle class 375–7
see also gentrification migrants and migration and employment opportunities 163–4 and urban transnationalities 184–5 as a “blind flow” 195
as contributors to life of cities 182 as the “floating population” 194
effects 196
importance of 188
in China 193, 194, 196–9, 705 in Shanghai technology markets 203 internal and external 547 relationship between migration and cities 179–80 rural to urban migration 163, 193, 625–6, 702–3 transnational and rural–urban migration 162–4 military urbanism 9
mobile bodies 157–60
mobile cultures 164–5
and psychogeography 164–5
the flâneur 164
mobile phone usage 162
mobilities 157–67
and civility 236–43
and the emergence of the modern city 236
as an active politics 232
Montgomery County, Maryland 29–30
Montréal, Boulevard St-Laurent 603
Moore Street Market, Brooklyn, New York City 463–4, 471–3, 472–3 morals and morality 671 movement as translation 165 multifunctional spaces 395
Mumbai 163
Munich, Germany, and energy efficiency 112 “Myersphere experiment” 492 myth of the European city 748–9

Naples, and film 337–45
as a female city 343–4
Walter Benjamin, account of Naples 338–9 native/foreign divide 184–5 natural disaster and environmental disaster 312 Nature, interpretations and representations 101–2 neighborhood governance in Chinese cities 690–9 neo-colonial land grabs 126–8 neoliberal agendas, for forms of state regulation 528 neoliberal capitalism 624 neoliberal economics 7–8 neoliberal restructuring projects 16 neoliberal techniques, political valency 525–6 neoliberal urbanization 20–4, 387–8 neoliberalism 6–9, 15–18, 20, 24–5, 387–8, 508, 624, 627–8 “actually existing neoliberalism” 16–18 adaptability of neoliberalism 15–16 and change in understandings of social policy 739 and global cities 7
as a theory, limits and exceptions 525 class and fragmentation 542 creatively destructive neoliberalism 20 deep neoliberalism 18 directional responses to 627–8 from neoliberalized cities to neoliberal urbanism 24–5 graphic imagination of 508 neoliberalism and urban transformation, connections 16 neoliberalism, deregulation, privatization, increasing competition 15 neoliberalization 17
path dependent neoliberalism 18–19 shaping of “good” cities and “good” citizens 627 state intervention 16–17
the market and the city 6–9, 624 urbanization of neoliberalism 24–5 networked vulnerability 717, 718 networks 623–4
new biopolitics of urbanism 716 new military urbanism 121–32
new model for a just and democratic America 638
New Orleans and Hurricane Katrina 312–13 “new public management” 749 new regionalism 687–8
“new urban politics” 729
New York 38–46, 304–15
9/11 304
changing labor markets 41
compared to Los Angeles 681, 686
decline and renewal 39–41
housing problems 42
in the twenty-first century 38–46
Moore Street Market 463–4, 471–3, 472–3
real-estate development 38–9
social consequences of economic change 42–4 SoHo and Chelsea gallery districts 72 subway turnstiles 68–71
the future 44–6
Times Square 677
urban reinvestment 41–2
World Trade Center 308
“New York Women” 601
New York’s Ladies’ Mile 601
New Zealand, neoliberalization 526 night employees 217, 612–13, 614 night-time violence between young people in leisure zones 611–12 exclusion of youths from leisure places 612 in America 610
in Bologna 611
in British cities, problem of leisure time violence 611 in Italy, Portugal, Spain, France 611–12 see also disorder nights in the city 606–15 representations of urban nights 606 benevolent nights 612–13 safer cities 613
nomadic cities 221–32
nomads 157–8
and political fictions 227–30 Notting Hill, London 439

office space 212–13, 217–18 oil, coal, gas and radioactive material 108–9 Orientalism (Edward Said) 507
Oshii, M., Ghost in the Shell [Kôkaku Kidôtai] 59 overseas resettlement 171
Oxford Street, Accra 547–59

paintings 368
Panic in the Streets (film) 146–64
Parent, M. 661–2
Paris 658–64
Centre Pompidou 664
Les Halles 664

performativity in the public realm 394–7 performing (in) the city 492–6
Philadelphia, south Asian professionals in restructuring of 186 philosophical pragmatism 620 photography 349, 658–9, 660, 663, 664 photourbanism 656–65
Pin to See the Peepshow, A (F. Tennyson Jesse) 442, 449 planning imaginaries 619–21 and philosophical pragmatism 620 Brasilia, modernist planning 621

city–suburb distinctions 621
Garden City project 619–20
Le Corbusier’s machinic idea of the city 620 technicist approach to planning 620 poetics of walking 496–7 police and policing 123, 159, 420–2, 562–3, 607–8, 610–12, 669, 671, 676, 685, 751, 752 and the formation of the modern city 236–43 policy learning and policy transfer 623 policy tourism 729, 732–3 politics and planning 619–29 politics of the public realm 396 polluter pays principle 10 pollution of Indian cities 49, 50 population
anxiety 170, 176
“bomb” 175–6
control and sterilization programs 174–5, 176 growth 158
post-border cities 164
post-industrial metropolis 57–63 post-neoliberalism 521–9 post-political city 627 postwar mass urbanization, US 174 poverty 508
Preston, P. and Simpson-Housley, P., Writing the City 281–2 printing press 348
private car use 165
privatization of public space 8 process planning 647–8
production sites and “global control capability” 214–15 Profumo, John, scandal 436–7, 437–8, 438–9 programmatic acting in an uncertain world 640 programmatic planning 637–40 proxemics 468
public as process 381
public authorities as private entrepreneurs 622–3 public health 129
public libraries 413–16
public realm 390–7
and public space 382
public reason 380–2
public space 386, 635
public toilets 69–72
public utilities 116
public–private partnerships 668–9, 729–30 publics and cultures 379–88 publics in process and urban democracy 386–8 quasi-epidemics 97
“racial” classification, South Africa 532 racial segregation, South Africa 533 radical or critical planning 651 reconstituting the inner and outer cities 683–4 reform planning 648
regenerative strategies 683 regional urbanization 679–88 “reimagining” of the urban (Amin and Frith) 81 relational planners 640 religious spaces 285, 367–74
Al Walid’s golden spike 371–4 Dome of the Rock 372
interiors and exteriors 370–1 multi-faith prayer rooms 374 religious architecture 368, 369, 370–1 reproducing cultures 379 residence through revolution and reform 142–52 riots see violence and urban unrest risk and hazard 632
Rockman, Alexis 313
Rodaway, P., Sensuous Geographies 285 Rossi, A., and “urban artefacts” 58
rural to urban migration 163, 193, 625–6, 702–3 sacking of cities in warfare 169
Saint-Exupéry, A. de 660
San Francisco 589
Anti-Displacement Project, and Yerba Buena 578 Flood Building 598
public solar installations 113
SARS (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome) 253, 621, 718–19, 722 science-led hazards 632
“scientific” planning 645–6 Sebald, W. G., Austerlitz 58–9 sectarian enclaves 124
security-obsessed urbanism 685 “security” services and technologies 126, 127
“sedentary space” and “nomad space” 223
Sennett, R., Flesh and Stone 280–1
“sensuous geography” 347
Shanghai 142, 143
city-zenship in households 149–51
Jin Mao tower 400
migrant workers in 401
residential housing market 134–41 technology markets 193–208
Xintiandi 708, 709
Sharp, C., and English country dance 256, 257 Shequ system 696–9, 707 shopping districts 598–603 “shrinking cities” 176
Simmel, G.
mask of rationality 391–2
notion of a “blasé metropolitan attitude” 327, 328 notion of impersonal life 392 notion of indifference as a defense mechanism 391 Philosophy of Money and The Metropolis and Mental Life 391 problem of psychic over-stimulation 397 rationality a social construct in everyday life 391 teatro mundi 394–6
Singapore
- Chinatown 457–9
- cultural projects 387
- high-rise housing in 5, 79–93
- “housing the nation” project 79
- maintaining a successful housing event 83–4
- “situated surplus” 381

Situationists 224, 231, 662–4 skyscrapers infilling of downtown core 682

slums 11, 742–4

“smart growth” 177

smell and touch 351–5

Smith, Jackie 476–87

social and cultural diversity 61

social and economic inequalities 508 social construction and social production of space 465

“social control” and police power 236 social engineering, South Africa 532 social inclusion 453

social inequalities between North and South 10 social justice planning 644, 649–52 social ordering and “police” system 235 social reform planning and social justice planning 620–1, 643–4, 648–9 tension between expert and everyday knowledge 620 whole city visions 619–20

socialist totalitarianism 702 socio-ecological movements 101

sociology 608–9

socio-technical cities 80–2 socio-technical housing 82–3

Soho, London 369, 419–28, 434

catering in Soho 425–6

cosmopolitan area 420–1

“Hogarth’s Soho House” 426–8 poverty studies and local history of old Soho 422–5

Soja, E., notion of the postmetropolis 329 solar energy 113–14, 113

sound and urban space 444–5

see also the acoustic city

South Africa 532–43

neoliberalization 526

see also apartheid, racial segregation spaces of publicness 382–3 spatiality and production of space 470 spatializing culture 463–73

“spectral nationality” 364 speeding up and intensification of globalizing process 160

Spinoza, B. 78–9

“splitting” and “rebundling” 720

Splintering Urbanism (S. Graham and S. Marvin) 80

squatter settlements 11

steam power 171–2

strategic planning 637–8

street improvements for social ordering 240 street maps 750–1

street politics 385–6, 486–7 street theater and freak shows 96

streetlights 607–8

structural adjustment policies 526

subjectivity and the “post political city” 625–9 sub-Saharan Africa, cities of 12 suburbs, suburbia 33, 34, 35, 172, 269, 680, 755 surveillance 349

surveillant economy 126–8

sustainability, dense cities as paragons of 176–7 sustainable cultural spaces 452–61 sustainable development vs justice and equality issues 99 sustainable planning 648–9

swinging London 435

Sydney, and energy efficiency 112

“synekism” 688

technicist approach to planning 620

technological networks 59–60 temporality and the global city 508–9 theorization of urban life 182 theorizing urban neoliberalism 524–8 theory of communicative interaction 393

Thousand Plateaus, A (Deleuze and Guattari) 222, 223, 231

“throwntogetherness” 636

Tiananmen massacre (1989) 319, 320

Tigo cellphone adverts, Accra 548, 555–8

Times Square, New York 677

toll roads, Ontario 721–2

Toronto, Yonge-Dundas 627, 667–77

townships, South Africa 533, 535

“transactions” 381

transnational and rural–urban migration 162–4

transnational corporations 161 transnational interconnectivity 724 transnational marketplaces 215 transnational social fields 181 transnational/translocal spaces 469–71 transnational urbanism 714–15

“transnational urbanization” 621, 622 transnational urban political ecology 713–22 transnationality 162–3, 179, 181

and the city 179–89

and urban studies 181–3

transport 165–7 traveling theory 507–8, 521–9

“troublesome populations” 738–9 turnstiles on the New York subway 68, 69, 70

High Entry Turnstiles (HEETs) 68–9, 71

uncanny, the 296–8

Freud on the uncanny 296, 298–9 uncertainty 631–41
United Kingdom, public libraries 41
United States
Fair Housing Act 172–4
megalopolises 11, 26, 27 “Negro removal” 174
postwar mass urbanization 174
public libraries 414
rational zoning legally struck down (1917) 173 US–Mexico boundary 164
see also Baltimore, New Orleans, New York, San Francisco uprooted communities, urban villages 704–5, 709 “urban neoliberalization” 524
Urban Audit and State of European Cities report 741 urban choreographies see dance urban decanting 174
Urban Dream Capsule 495–6, 497 urban ecological conundrum 97 urban economies, rethinking 12–13 urban engineering 236–7 urban environment, restructuring of 732 urban environmental affairs in social struggles 100 urban environmental catastrophe 103 urban environments 5, 103–4 urban fabric 361–2
urban governance 621–5, 747–56 urban government 748, 749, 754–6 urban government/governance debate 747 urban implications of social transformations 638–9 urban investment in urban and economic growth 453 urban landscapes 58–9
urban materialities of nature 9–11 urban meshwork 637
urban metabolism redux 97–9 urban monoculture 634
urban overcrowding 170
primary principle of city, regional and state planning 169–70 racial zoning 173
urban pastoral 62, 63
urban planning in an uncertain world 631–41 urban planning theory 632–3 urban policies 738–44
urban political ecology 716–17 urban politics at work 357 urban population control 169–77 URBAN program 741
urban public goods 196
urban publics 380
urban redevelopment on “heritage” sites or waterfronts 386–7 urban socio-ecological imaginaries: discourses of urban nature 101–2 urban socio-ecological movements and struggles for justice 100–1 urban space 58
urban sprawl 754–5
urban studies, future of 522 urban–suburban dualism 681–2 urban theorizing 528–9
urban theory, pessimism in 715 urban world (the city) 679–80 urbanization 158
as threat to planetary life 169 in developing countries 176 of nature 96–104
of suburbia 684
process and its socio-spatial effects 686 “urbicide” 127–8
Urry, J. 285
utopias, utopian planning 651–2
Ventura, California 73, 74
Victorian capitalism and population control 172–3 video games 131–2
Ville radieuse, La 659–60 violence and urban unrest 128–9, 231, 610–11, 752 see also disorder and social incivility visuality 348–50
vulnerability in urban structures 621–2 walking “the city” 488–97, 490–2 Walter Benjamin on walking 490–1 walking in Tokyo 490
War on Poverty Program (US) 651
“War on Terror” 130, 371–4
“Washington Consensus” 402
Weber, M. and Simmel, G. 174
Werrason, aka “King of the Forest,” band leader 361
West End, London 436, 599
Western Samoa 469
White, E., The Flâneur 586, 586–7, 588, 590
white flight 29, 685
Williams, R., The Country and the City 381
Wired magazine 131
women’s suffrage activity 603
Wong Kar-Wai 327–35
Woolf, V. 281
World Bank and the Cities Alliance 526–7
World Bank 742–4
World Development Report 2009 743
World War I 427, 659
World War II 170, 258, 259, 436, 708
Young, I. 284
Zhejiangcun 199–200
zoning 354