INDEX

Abilities, compared to skills, 287
Academic health centers, 221–222
Academic practice, physicians, 205–206
Academy of Physician Assistants, 298
Access to health care, 392–393
Accountability, passing to consumers, 391
Accountable care, 405–406
Accountable Care Act (2010), 11
Accrediting organizations, for physicians, 220
Accuracy, and electronic communication, 172
ADA, See Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
Adaptation, 457–458
Adaptive organizations, 40–41; shift from bureaucratic organizations to, 39–40
ADDIE model, 322–323, 331; implementation phase, 331
Administrative principles, 37–38
Administrators, 71
Adventist Midwest Health-Chicago Tribune, and Keeping Chicago Well program, 386
Adverse impact, 304
Advertising, 359–366, See also Marketing; agencies, 359–360; audience, 366; direct marketing, 360, 363; guerrilla marketing, 360, 363, 365–366; in-house, 359; Internet marketing, 360, 362, 365; magazines, 361, 364; mobile, 361–362, 365; newspapers, 360–361, 364; objective of, 359; out-of-home, 361; radio, 296, 360, 364; search engine marketing, 360, 362; social media, 361, 365; television, 360; word-of-mouth marketing, 360, 363, 365–366
Aetna, social networking platform for employers at, 386
Affective commitment, 260–261
Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) (1967), 303–304
Agreeableness, 310
Alcoa, 183–184, 461; focus on safety problems at, 466; and reduction of workplace injuries, 29
“Amazing Stories” campaign, New York Presbyterian Hospitals/Munn Rabot agency, 360
American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE), code of ethics, 440–441, 443
American Medical Association: Code of Medical Ethics, 226, 439; FRIEDA online, 298
American Nursing Association, link for job seekers, 298
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 286–287, 305
Andragogy, 327
Appraisal review meeting, 346–347
Autonomous control, health care professionals, 6
Background checks, 308
Baldrige Core Values, 128–129
Barnard, C., 112
Behavioral observation scale (BOS), 343
Behavioral theory, 113
Behaviorally anchored rating scale (BARS), 343–344; example, 344
Beneficence, 214, 426, 431–433; and care providers, 431–432; compassion deficit, 432–433; and nonmaleficence, 431
Bing, 365
Blogs, and health care, 385–386
Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina: HealthNAV, 385; “Let’s Talk Cost” campaign, 358
Board of directors, 16
Bona fide occupational qualification (BFOQ), 304
Brand, 357; maintaining, 479
Budget, training, 323–324
Bureaucratic management, 36, 38–41, 43–45, 48–51, 53
Bureaucratic organizations, 40–41, 45; decision making in, 175; and information shared with employees, 175
Bureaucratic rules/regulations, 45; eliminating, 129
Capitation, 209
Casual research, 380
CAVEman program, University of Calgary, 329
Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation, 11
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 412
Centra State Health Care (New Jersey), 383
Central responsibility, 106
CEO, 16
Certificates of need, 403
Certification election, 267
Change: in bureaucratic organizations, 136; effects of cultural development on facilitation of, 154–158
Change leadership, 140–141; critical focus areas of, 182; status quo management vs., 140
Change process: elements of, 139; and health care manager, 141
Charity care, 392
Chronic diseases, 395; epidemic of, 463; and health care delivery, 23; morbidity/mortality from, 9; mortality reduction, 394
Circumstantial control, health care managers, 6
Classical approach to management, 36; administrative principles, 37–39; scientific management, 37
Classroom training, 329; lesson plan, 331–332
Clinical errors, 12–13
Code of ethics, 439–441; defined, 439; function of, 439–440
Code of Medical Ethics, American Medical Association (AMA), 226
Coercive power, 109, 140
Collective bargaining, 267–268; grievance process, 268; and management rights, 268; negotiations, 268
College recruiting, 296
Commitment, 478–479; affective, 260–261; continuance, 261; organizational, 260–263
Communication, 161–190; adding value to health delivery, 186–188; building a thick culture, 176–178; with customers, 163; decoding, 165; electronic, overdependence on, 171–172; encoding, 165; enthusiasm, communicating with, 170–171; evaluating the message being communicated, 169–170; exceptional skills, demonstrating, 164–165; feedback, 169; health care manager skills, 165–166; between health care professionals, 24–25; and innovation, 185–186; interpersonal, 165; listening, 163, 166–170; managers’, 163; medical errors, 182–185; with members of the organization, 162–163; methods/skills, 165–172; and motivation, 178–182; open, 163; passion, communicating with, 170–171; perceived insincerity, 171; problems, 182–185; process of, 163; and promotion, 359; risk points in, 22; trust, building in relationships, 172–176; two-way, 167
Communication, risk points in, 22–23
Community hospitals, 220–221; board members, 71; CEO salaries, 194; decreased number of, 196, 220; hospital square footage devoted to direct patient care vs. administrative activities, 194–195
Comorbidities, 24
Comparative effectiveness research (CER), 11–12
Compassion deficit, 432–433
Competition, 57, 463–464
Competitive advantage, 464
Comprehensive goals, health care managers, 6
Conceptual skills, 47
Conflict, and management, 25–26
Conscientiousness, 309
Constructive discharge, 254–255
Consumerism, 391
Consumers: and demand for excellent medical care and customer service, 30; empowerment, 472–475; and prevention of illness, 43
Content validity evidence, 312
Continuance commitment, 261
Continuous quality improvement, 457
Contracts, 210
Contractual rights, 251–252
Controlling function, 48–50
Coordinated care, to get health care costs under control, 5
Coordination: among employees, 53; of care, 18
Corporate entities, and physicians, 219
Corporate practice, physicians, 204–205
Cost-effectiveness, and health care reform, 412–418
Cost escalation, 4, 41
Creativity, 148–150
Criterion-related validity evidence, 312–313
Culture: Baldrige Core Values, 128–129; defined, 126; and establishment of motivation/innovation/acceptance of change, 154; of a health organization, 154–158; and innovation, 155, 157; and leadership, 111, 125–131; levels of, 127; managers’ responsibility in building, 155
Culture building, and management, 470–471
Culture diagnosis, 155
Culture of excellence, 31, 104, 120, 125–126, 135–160; innovation, 135–136
Culture of innovation, 471–472
Dabble time, W. L. Gore and Associates, 51
Decentralization vs. centralization, 92–93
Decision making, 57; in bureaucratic organizations, 175; transparency in, 175–176
Decoding, 165
Definitive criteria, health care professionals, 6
Delivering Happiness: A Path to Profits, Passion, and Purpose (Hsieh), 20–21
Delivery of health care: adding value in, 131–133; best practices in, 24; building a new process for, 21–27; change process in, 138–141; and chronic diseases, 23; and communication between health care professionals, 24–25; communication, risk points in, 22; components of excellence in, 111–112; consumer empowerment, 472–475; cost of services delivered, 162, 460, 466; creating a vision of,
Delivery of health care (cont’d)
120–122; culture of safety, development of, 27;
disorganization of, 161–162; efficiency in, 19–21;
eliminating waste through, 21–22; financial incentives, 459; future of, 7;
information technology revolution in, 480–482; infrastructure problems, 7; innovation in, 475–477; just-in-time production in, 28; lack of system coordination, 54–55;
measuring value in, 187; monumental change in, 455–456; most common error in, 124; payment system, 23; people as most important component in, 44; people issues, 482; perfect system of, 56; quality of service in, 22; radical change in, need for, 25; reengineering, 459–472; shared decision making/informed patient choice, 187–188; trust/brand/reputation, 478–479
Deming, W. E., 346
Descriptive research, 380
Design component, employee training, 325–326
Direct marketing, 360, 363
Discrimination, 443–446; appearance of, 306; types of, 304
Disparate impact, 304
Disruptive innovation, 10, 151–152
Distance medicine, 60–61
Diversity, and employee referrals, 295–296
Divisional structure, 95–96
Domino effect, and internal recruitment, 291
Drucker, P., 346
Drug/device manufacturers and suppliers, 224–225
DrugFinder, HealthNAV, 385
E-learning, 329–330
Economic issues: productivity, 459; value, 458
Economic resources, absorption of, 393
EEOC, See Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC)
Efficiency/effectiveness, of health care delivery, 8, 10
Electronic communication: improving quality via, 172; overdependence on, 171–172
Electronic medical records (EMRs), 24, 42, 59–60, 125, 151, 199–200, 414, 449–451
Emergency room errors, 461
Employee development, 321–322
Employee discipline, and justice, 435
Employee engagement, 41; and trust, 158
Employee focus groups, 276
Employee motivation, secret of, 142–148
Employee motivators, 42
Employee opinion survey, 275–277; focus of, 276
Employee orientation, 318–321; criticisms of, 319; formal appraisal topics, 318–319
Employee participation, 119–120
Employee referrals, 295; and diversity, 295–296; and nepotism, 296
Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), 405
Employee training, 321–334; ADDIE model, 322–323, 331; andragogy, 327; classroom training, 329; costs associated with training program, 323–324; defined, 321; design component, 325–326; development, 330–331; e-learning, 329–330; evaluation phase, 332–333; macro-level, 324–325; micro-level, 324–325; needs assessment, 323–325; off-site training methods, 328–330; on-site training methods, 328–329; online training programs, 329–330; organizational development initiatives resulting in need for, 325; and performance problems, 324–325; room preparation, 331–332; trainers, main objective of, 322; training budget, 323–324; training goals, 326; training location, 331; training methods, 327–328; training needs, 326; training objectives, 326; VAK model, 326–327

Employee turnover, 273–275

Employer-based health insurance, 404

Employment-at-will, 253–254

Employment interview, 310–311

Empowerment, 40; consumer, 472–475; of health care workers, 5; and responsibility, 122–123

EMRs, See Electronic medical records (EMRs)

Encoding, 165

Engaged employees, 41

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), 298–299

Equal Pay Act (1963), 250

Errors in health care, See Medical errors

Ethics committees, 441–443; education role, 441;

functions of, 441; patient case consultation, 442–443; policy development and review role of, 441–442

Evaluation phase, employee training, 332–333

Executive search firms, 297

Expert opinions, payment in return for, 230

Expert power, 109–110

Expertise, 478

Exploratory research, 380

External recruitment, 291–292, 294–300; and social media outlets, 299

Extraversion, 309

Extrinsic motivation, 146

Facilitated user networks, 152

Facilitation of change, effects of cultural development on, 154–158

Fair Credit Reporting Act, 308

Fair Labor Standards Act (1938), 251

Fayol, H., 36, 38

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS), 269

Fee-for-service, 208–209

Feedback, 169; multisource, 338–341; from performance appraisals, 335; upward, 340

Fidelity, 429–430

Financial management,

389–421; characteristics of, 406–409; controlling health care costs, 397; cost of health care, 394–402; cost shifting from third-party payer to consumer, 411;

employer-based health insurance, 404; health care finance characteristics, 406–409; and health care reform, 412; health care spending, expected increase in, 399–401; Hill-Burton Act, 403; patient behavioral factors, 409–410, 416; patient-centered medical home (PCMH), 416–417; planning, 444; private sector insurance vs. public sector insurance, 397–398; tax reform, 415; total health care spending, 396, 398; uninsured Americans, 402; U.S. federal expenditure, 396

Forced distribution method, 341

Formal orientation programs, criticism of, 319

Full-time staff, alternatives to hiring, 282–285

Functional structure, 94–95

Functions of the Executive (Barnard), 112

Future Management, The (Hamel), 44

Future of health services, See Health services, future of General structural types, 94–98; divisional, 95–96; functional, 94–95; hybrid, 97–99; matrix, 96–97

Generational targeting, 353

Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GIBA), 305

Goals: management, 8–9; training, 326
Google, 365
Google Analytics, 362
Governing board, 71
Government payers, 391–392
Grapevine method of recruitment, 293
Graphic rating scales (GRS), 342–343
Grievance process, 268
Griggs v. Duke Power Co., 304
Guerrilla marketing, 360, 363, 365–366
Harvard Pilgrim Healthcare, 386
Hawthorne studies, 42, 45
Headhunters, 297
Health care consumer: and absorption of economic and health care human resources, 393; access to health care, 392–393; financial challenges confronting, 409–412
Health care costs, 7–8; escalation debate, 9–10
Health care delivery, See Delivery of health care
Health care enterprises, 391
Health care errors, See Errors in health care
Health care financial management, See Financial management
Health care management, See Management
Health care marketing, See Marketing
Health care organizations: ability to remain relevant, 57; bureaucratic structure of, 136; competition, 57, 463–464; complexity of, 464–465; employment attorneys, 306; increase in size of, 56; and organizational design/structure, 101; private, 391; public, 391; staffing, 281–315
Health care professionals, miscommunication among, 27
Health care reform, See Reform
Health care system, See also Delivery of health care; Management; Reform: business model, revision of, 18; challenges to, 15–16; changes in, 5, 13–19, 137; current state of, 13; disease prevention, 123; drivers of quality, 16; dysfunction of, 54; as dysfunctional, disconnected network, 9; environment, changes in, 15; evidence-based management, 18–19; excellent services, building into culture, 19–20; goal achievement in, 10; inputs/outputs/throughputs, 393; as largest U.S. employer, 33–34; new managers in, 6; original design of, 15; performance measurement, 18–19; primary goals of, 389–421; prioritization in, 28–30; productivity in, 28–30; reform and improvement of the current system, 4; restructuring to encourage integration/coordination of care, 23–24; services, 136–137; simple model of, 14; wasted resources, 5
Health information technology, 199
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) (1996), 405
Health outcomes, improving, 123–125
Health plan, potential segments for, 354
Health Professionals Education Act (1963), 403
Health services, future of, 455–484; adaptation, 457–458; continuous quality improvement, 457; positive outcomes, 457
Health services management, 53–58; disruptive value network, 55; focused job design process, 55; incorporating patients in management of their health care, 53–54; motivation of staff, 57–58; primary care, 55; waste in delivery of health services, 55–56
HealthGrades, 340
HealthNAV, 385
Hiring, See also Staff selection: negligent, 307–308

Human Side of Enterprise, The (McGregor), 113

Human skills, 46

Humana Innovation Center (Louisville KY), 386

Hybrid structure, 97–99

Imitation, as driver of innovation, 28

Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 305

Independent Payment Advisory Board, 218–219

Information technology: and innovation, 157–158;

investment in, 5–6;

revolution in health care delivery, 480–482

Infrastructure, 5

Innovation, 135–136, 148–150; and communication, 185–186; and culture, 155, 157; culture of, 471–472; in delivery of health care, 475–477; disruptive, 10, 151–152; effects of cultural development on, 154–158; in health care, 148–154; and information technology, 157–158; management, 44–46, 57–58; and observation skills, 153–154

Innovator’s DNA, The: Mastering the Five Skills of Disruptive Innovation (Dyer/Gregersen/Christensen), 153

Innovator’s Prescription, The: A Disruptive Solution for Health Care (Christensen), 151

Institute of Medicine (IOM), 123, 182, 460–461

Insurance companies, and cost of health care, 358

Integration vs. differentiation, 90–92

Internal job posting, 292

Internal networking, 293

Internal recruitment, 290–291; and career/succession planning system, 293; domino effect, 291; methods, 292–294

Internet marketing, 360, 362, 365
Internet recruiting, 297–299; disadvantages of, 298–299
Interpersonal communication, 165–166
Interpersonal skills, 335
Intrinsic motivation, 146
Involuntary separations, 274–275
IOM, See Institute of Medicine (IOM)
Job analysis, 288; value of, 286–287
Job description, 335
Job performance, 334, See also Performance appraisal
Job satisfaction, 259–260
Joint Commission, The (TJC), 288, 441
Just-in-time production, 28
Justice, 426, 433–435; defined, 433; employee discipline, 435; managerial decision making, 434–435; risk potential, community assessment in terms of, 433–434; and staff, 434
Kaiser Family Foundation, 4
Kaiser Permanente, 382
Keeping Chicago Well program, and Adventist Midwest Health-Chicago Tribune, 386
Kerr-Mills Act (1960), 403
Knowledge, skills, abilities, and other characteristics (KSAOs), 287–288, 303, 307
Labor costs, 270
Landrum-Griffin Act (1959), 264
Leader-member relations, as situation variable, 114
Leadership, 105–134; basics of, 108–112; behavioral theory, 113; central responsibility, 106; coercive power, 109; and culture, 111, 125–131; development of, 111; effectiveness of leader, 108; employee participation, 119–120; empowerment and responsibility, 122–123; expert power, 109–110; function, 48–50; health outcomes, improving, 123–125; inspiration, 106–107; legitimate power, 109; referent power, 110; in relation to other management functions, 107; respect for, 110; reward power, 109; servant, 118–119; sharing of power, 111; situational, 114; skills of, 128; sources of power, 108–110; sustainable momentum, 106; theory, 112–119; transformational, 115–117
Legitimate power, 109, 140
Lesson plan, 331–332
Letters of reference, 308
Liability exposure, physicians, 222, 229
Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act (2009), 250
LinkedIn, 299
Listening, 166–170
Location, training, 331
Locke, E., 146
Low affective commitment, 261
Low continuous commitment, 261
Macro-level employee training, 324–325
Magazine advertising, 361, 364; and recruitment, 294–295
Managed care programs, 7–8
Management, 5–6, 8–9, 33–63, See also Bureaucratic management; Financial management; Management functions; Managerial skills; Strategic management; circumstantial control, 6; classical approach to, 36; comprehensive goals, 6; and conflict, 25–26; and culture building, 470–471; defined, 34, 456; and enforcement of targeted rules/regulations, 25; and environment for learning/growth, 20; and errors, 12–13; and ethics, 424–425; for-profit business work, as improvement guide, 10–11; functions, 8; goals, 8–9; health services, 53–58; of human resources, 50; innovation, 44–46, 57–58; major branches, 36; and need for positive change, 137; new, recruitment of, 6; prioritization, 29–30; productivity and efficiency, 36–37; qualitative outcomes, 6; and redesigned organizations, 26; and reengineering of health care, 467–470; rules/duties of (Fayol), 38; selfless service,
6; and staffing, 28; study of, 34; of technology, 58–61; theory, 35–44; transition factors, 6; unsuccessful solution, 20–21

Management functions, 47–50; controlling function, 48, 49–50; leadership function, 48, 49–50; organizing function, 48–49; planning function, 47–48; self-managed work team, 50–53

Management rights, and collective bargaining, 268

Managerial skills, 46–47; development program, 322

Marketing research, 378–383; analysis and reporting of results, 382; application of process, 383; casual research, 380; data collection, 381–382; defined, 378; descriptive research, 380; experimental research, 381; exploratory research, 380; and marketing campaigns, 379; observational research, 381; predictive research, 380; problem recognition, 379; research design, 380–381; research objectives, identification of, 379–380; survey research, 381; uses of, 378

Maslow, A., 42

Matrix structure, 96–97

Mayo Clinic, 130–131; keeping needs of patients first, 164; management style of, 18; principal values of, 52; team approach, 51–52

McGregor, D., 42, 113

Medicaid, 392, 397–398, 404; and cost-effectiveness, 413; reimbursements, 411

Medicare, 392, 397–398, 402; beneficiaries, 415; means-tested insurance, 413–414; private sector insure for the elders prior to implementation of, 403–404; recipients, 415; reimbursements, 411; trust fund, 393

Medicare Hospital Insurance Trust Fund, depletion of, 413

Medicare Sustainable Growth Rate reimbursement formula, 218

Mental model, 17

Mentoring, 318–321; program targeting nurses, 320–321; program targeting physicians, 321

Methods, training, 327–328

Micro-level employee training, 324–325

Miscommunication, among health care professionals, 27

Mission statement, 16, 430, 444

Mobile advertising, 361–362, 365

Mobile marketing, 385

Monetary/nonmonetary rewards, 45–46

Monster.com, 297

Morality, 435–439; choice and responsibility, concepts of, 436; defined, 435; managers as moral beacons, 438–439; moral development, 438; moral integrity, 436–438;
Morbidity/mortality, major causes of, 9
Motivation, 145; and communication, 178–182; defined, 142; effects of cultural development on, 154–158; extrinsic, 146; and health care reform, 179–180; intrinsic, 146; of workers to achieve organizational goals, 143
Multipliers (Wiseman/ McKeown), 469
Multisource feedback, 338–341
National health insurance, 402
National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) (1935), 263–264
National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), 265–267
National Labor War Board, and employer-based health insurance coverage, 404–405
Needs: training, 326
Needs assessment, 323–325
Negligent hiring, 307–308
Negotiations, 268
Nepotism, 296
Neuroticism, 310
New York Presbyterian Hospitals/Munn Rabôt agency, “Amazing Stories” campaign, 360
Newspaper advertising, 360–361, 364; and recruitment, 294–295
Nonmaleficence, 214, 426, 430–433; defined, 430; and medical malpractice cases, 431; and technology, 449; and treatment of staff, 431
Normative commitment, 261
Objectives: training, 326
Observation skills, and innovation, 153–154
Off-site training methods, 328–330
Office of Wellness, 416
On-site training methods, 328–329
“On the Folly of Rewarding A While Hoping for B” (Kerr), 334
O’Neill, P., 29, 183–184, 461
Online training programs, 329–330
Open communication, 163
Open Leadership: How Social Technology Can Transform the Way You Lead (Li), 173
Open organization, 174–175
Openness to experience, 93–94
Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 399
Organizational alternatives, continuum of, continuum of, 40
Organizational chart, 87
Organizational commitment, 260–263; affective, 260–261; continuance, 261; normative, 261
Organizational concerns, physicians, 217–225
Organizational design, 86–87, 101
Organizational strategy, responsibility of, 70–72
Organizational structure, 86, 87
Organizing function, 48–49
Out-of-home advertising, 361
Out-of-hospital physician management, 193
Part-time employees, 285
Passion, communicating with, 170–171
Patient autonomy, 213–214; and physicians, 213–214
Patient behavioral factors, 409–410, 416
Patient-centered approach to preventative care and curative medical procedures, 405–406
Patient-centered medical home (PCMH), 416–417
Patient-focused care, 462–463
Patient home monitoring, 61
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA), 198
Patients: poor communication to, 8; positive outcomes for, 457; and quality improvement, demand for, 9
Payment system, health care delivery, 23
Peer/team ratings, 339
Perceived insincerity, 171
Performance appraisal, 334–346; anniversary date option, 337; annual review, 337; appraisal review meeting, 346–347;
behavioral observation scale (BOS), 343; behaviorally anchored rating scale (BARS), 343–344; comparative method, 344; customer/patient ratings, 339–340; feedback from, 335; financial outcomes used, 336; forced distribution method, 341; frequency of, 336–337; graphic rating scales (GRS), 342–343; HealthGrades, 340; interpersonal skills, 335; job description, 335; and managers, 337–338; multisource feedback, 338–341; narrative method, 344; peer/team ratings, 339; probationary period, 337; quality patient care ratings, 335–336; RateMDs.com, 340; rating errors, 338; rating method, 342, 344–345; recission, 345; systems, 335–346; 360-degree review, 340–341; upward feedback, 340

Personal and family concerns, physicians, 215–217

Personal mastery, 17, 20

Personal selling, 368–369

Pharmacists, new role for, 58

Physician: as key player in effort to improve delivery systems, 191–192; management, 191–241; organizations, 98–99

Physician management, 191–241, 206; academic health centers, 221–222; academic practice, 205–206; accrediting organizations, 220; beneficence, 214; changing environment for physicians, 195–201; community-based model, 194–195; community hospitals, 220–221; concerns, 201–207; corporate entities, 219; corporate practice, 204–205; delivery of medical care in a team environment, 196–197; drug/device manufacturers and suppliers, 224–225; electronic medical records (EMRs), 199; expert opinions, payment in return for, 230; government practice, 206; health information technology, 199; Independent Payment Advisory Board, 198; justice, 214; leadership role of physicians, 192; liability exposure, 222, 229; management concerns, major source of, 193–194; management methodologies, 193; medical-legal issues, 228–230; medical staff bylaws, 230–231; “medically necessary” services, 198; Medicare Sustainable Growth Rate reimbursement formula, 218; models, 231–234; nonmaleficence, 214; organizational concerns, 217–225; out-of-hospital, 193; patient autonomy, 213–214; Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA), 198; personal and family concerns, 215–217; perspectives, 192; physician paternalism, 212–213; physicians as managers, 234–238; policy-related decision making, 200; political and legal affiliations, 228–231; power management models, 231–232; powerless management models, 232; practice model, 203–207; practice specialty, 201–203; pragmatic chameleon, 233–234; pragmatic management, 233–234; principled management models, 232–233; private practice, 197–198, 203; professional ethical concerns, 225–227; professional societies, 225; professional status of physicians, change in, 200; quality of care concerns, 212–215; regulatory overlay, 194; regulatory bodies, 219–220; reimbursement issues, 207–11; service suppliers, 223–224; special interest power brokers, 197; third-party payers, 218; unionization of residents, 200–201; volunteer organizations, 222–223

Physician paternalism, 212–213

Planning function, 47–48

Political and legal affiliations, physicians, 228–231

Position power, as situation variable, 114
Index

Positive outcomes, for patients, 457
Power: coercive, 109; expert, 109–110; legitimate, 109, 140; position, 114; referent, 110; reward, 109, 140; sources of, 108–110
Power management models, 231–232
Powerless management models, 232

Practice of Management, The (Drucker), 346
Pragmatic chameleon, 233–234
Pragmatic management, 233–234
Predictive research, 380
Pregnancy Discrimination Act, 305

Prescription for Excellence: Leadership Lessons for Creating a World-Class Customer Experience from UCLA Health System (Michelli), 477

Primary care providers, 55, 410–411
Principled management models, 232–233
Principles of Scientific Management, The (Taylor), 37

Prioritization, 29–30
Private health care organizations, 391
Private practice, physicians, 197–198, 206–207; value set, 203
Probationary period, 337
Process audit, 26

Productivity, 459

Professional ethical concerns, physicians, 225–227
Professional societies, 225
Professional Standards Review Organization, 403
Profit motive in health care, conflict created by, 390
Profit per employee, 270
Promotion, 358–359; key tools of, 359; sales, 369–370
Promotional mix, 359
Providers, financial challenges confronting, 409–412
Psychological contracts, 257–259
Public health care organizations, 391
Public health initiatives, and improved health levels, 394
Public relations, 366–368

Qualitative outcomes, health care managers, 6
Quality issues, in health care, 41
Quality of care concerns, physicians, 212–215
Quality patient care ratings, 335–336
Quantitative outcomes, health care professionals, 6
Questioning: and innovation, 153; as a tool, 144

Radio advertising, 360, 364; and recruitment, 296
RateMDs.com, 340
Rating method, performance appraisal, 342, 344–345
Rationing of care, and technology, 449

Recission, 345

Recruitment, 281–302, See also Hiring; Selection; Staff selection; college recruiting, 296; employee referrals, 295; executive search firms, 297; external, 291–292, 294–300; full-time staff, alternatives to hiring, 282–285; headhunters, 297; help-wanted newspaper ads as external recruitment method, 294–295; internal, 290–294; Internet recruiting, 297–298; internships, 300; job analysis, value of, 286–288; local unemployment office, 296–297; locum tenens, 284; online job postings, 298; part-time employees, 285; preceptorships, 300; primary goal of, 289; radio advertising, 296; realistic job preview (RJP), 289–290; recruiting function, evaluating, 300–302; recruitment websites, 297–298; television advertising, 296; yield ratio, 301–302

Recruitment methods, measures of success, 301
Reengineering delivery of health care, 459–472; and organizational culture, 470–472; role of leadership in, 467–470
Referent power, 110
Reform, 31, 107, 393; and communication, 165; and cost-effectiveness, 412–418; demand for, 14–15;
Index

legislation, 4; and motivation, 179
Regulatory bodies, and physicians, 219–220
Regulatory overlay, physician management, 194
Reimbursement issues, 207–11; capitation, 209; contracts, 210; fee-for-service, 208–209; salary reimbursement models, 209–210; targeted physician and managing entity, value sets of, 210–211
Reputation, management of, 479
Resistance to change, 107–108
Responsibility, and empowerment, 122–123
Revenue per employee, 270
Reward power, 109, 140
Risk points in communication, 22–23
Salary reimbursement models, 209–210
Sales promotion, 369–370
Scientific management, 37
Search engine marketing, 360, 362
Self-direction, health care professionals, 6
Self-managed work team, 50–53
Selfless service, health care managers, 6
Servant leadership, 118–119
Service delivery organization, defined, 45
Service errors, 12–13
Service suppliers, 223–224
Situational leadership, 114
Skills, compared to abilities, 287
Social learning theory, 327
Social media: advertising using, 361, 365; and health care, 385–386
Solution shops, 152
Southwest Airlines, 479
Special interest power brokers, 197
Staff selection, 302–313, 303–304, See also Recruitment; Americans with Disabilities Act, 305; background checks, 308; cognitive ability tests, 309; commonly used methods, 306–307; employment interview, 310–311; evaluation, 312–313, 460; Fair Credit Reporting Act, 308; fraud, challenge of, 307–308; Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GIBA), 305; and health care management, 28; Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 305; letters of reference, 308; negligent hiring, 307–308; NEO-R, 310; personality tests, 309–310; Pregnancy Discrimination Act, 305; process, 307; staffing process, beginning, 282–289; testing, 309; Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection Procedures, 312
Staffing, process, beginning of, 282–289
Strategic management:
defined, 68; environmental scanning, 72–81; evaluation and control, 85–86; managing strategy, 69–70; organizational strategy, responsibility for, 70–72; process, 71–86; strategic vision, 70; strategy formulation, 81–85; strategy implementation, 85; strategy vs. structure, 88–89; and structure, 67–102
Structure: broad design considerations, 88–94; decentralization vs. centralization, 92–93; divisional, 95–96; functional, 94–95; general structural types, 94–98; hybrid, 97–99; integration vs. differentiation, 90–92; matrix, 96–97; organic vs. mechanistic, 93–94; and technology, 100
Structured interviews, 311
Subject matter experts (SMEs), 312
Sustainable momentum, 106
System coordination, lack of, 54–55
System, defined, 13
Taft-Hartley Act (1947), 264
Targeted physician and managing entity, value sets, 210–211
Task structure, as situation variable, 114
Tax reform, 415
Taylor, F., 36–37
Team members, collaboration among, 18
Technical skills, 46–47
Technology, 5–6, 13–14, 43, 151; electronic medical records (EMRs), 42, 59–60, 449–451; and ethics, 447–451; as a force for change, 100; in high-velocity organizations, 465–466; management of, 58–61; and nonmaleficence, 449; and rationing of care, 449; and structure, 100; telemedicine, 60–61
Telemedicine, 60–61, 151
Television advertising, 360; and recruitment, 296
Theory X/Theory Y, 42, 113
Thick culture, trust in, 178
Third-party payers, 218, 391–392; cost shifting from, to consumer, 411; financial challenges confronting, 409–412
360-degree review, 340–341
Timeliness, and electronic communication, 172
Title VII of the Civil Rights Act (CRA) (1964), 253, 303–304
Touch points, variables of, 157
Trainers, main objective, 322
Training evaluation, 332–333
Transformational leadership, 115–117
Transparency, 478; in decision making, 175–176
Trust, and employee engagement, 158
Trust, building in relationships, 172–176
Trustworthiness, 232
Tuition reimbursement, 322
Turnover, 273–275
2020 Workplace: How Innovative Companies Attract, Develop, and Keep Tomorrow’s Employees Today (Meister & Willyerd), 479
Twit2Fit fitness program, Humana Innovation Center (Louisville KY), 386
Twitter, 299
Two-way communication, 167
Type X behavior, differences between Type I behavior and, 146–147
Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection Procedures, 312
Uninsured Americans, 392, 393, 402, 408, 411–412, 415
Unions: certification election, 267; collective bargaining, 267–268; National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) (1935), 263–264; unionization process, 265–266
University of Calgary, CAVEman program, 329
University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, 357
Upside-down pyramid view of today’s organizations, 144–145
Upward feedback, 340
Urgent Care Finder, HealthNAV, 385
VA hospital staff assignments, physicians, 206–207
VAK model, 326–327
Validity, 312
Value-adding process businesses, 152
Value-adding worker, 143
Value, calculation of, 156
Value sets, 210–211
Vanderbilt University Health Center, 386
Vertically integrated health care enterprises, 391
Veterans Administration (VA), 392
Virginia Commonwealth Medical Center, 353–354
Vision, 106, 390
Voluntary separations, 274
Volunteer organizations, 222–223
W. L. Gore and Associates, 51
Weber, M., 36; on management, 39
Welch, J., 341
Wellpoint, 345
Western Electric Company plant, Hawthorne studies, 42
Whistleblowing, 255–256
Wonderlic, 309
Word-of-mouth marketing, 360, 363, 365–366
Worker safety, 183–184
Workforce productivity, measuring, 270
Yahoo, 365
Yield ratio, 301–302
YouTube, 385