INDEX

e represents exhibit; f represents figure; t represents table.

A
Accountability: of schools, 191, 192; of students, 109; of teachers, 121
Achievement First schools, 69–70
Achievement gap, 105, 113, 121, 196–198
Achievement Network, 115
Action plans, 120–121, 159
Adaptive tests, 110
Adaptive unconscious, 59
Adequate Yearly Progress students, 112
Administrators, hiring, 28
Affirmation, definition of, 21, 197
Alexandria, Virginia, 128
Allen, D., 161
Alvarado, A., 56
Ambady, N., 59, 62
Announced evaluations. See Scheduled evaluations
Anonymous surveys, 185
Appraisal: definition of, 21, 197; ratings in current system of, 22
Aspire Charter Schools, 126
Assessments: in effective teaching, 105–106; preparing students for, 97–101; standards and, 92; superintendent visits and, 174; teachers’ accountability for, 121; types of, 106–109; in unit plans, 95. See also specific types
Assistant principals, 68
Atlantic Elementary School, 199–211
At-risk students, 18, 105, 159
Audience response systems, 108

B
Backwards-designed plan, 90, 94, 188
Balance, work-life, 158, 166, 168–169
Bambrick-Santoyo, P., 62–63, 76, 109, 111, 113, 116, 190
Baron, W., 126
Bauer, L., 213
Beatty, I., 197
Begley, S., 165
Ben-Hur, M., 88
Berra, Y., 68
Big Ideas, 95, 96
Big Picture Company, 107
Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, 28
Binary ratings, 24
Black, P., 105
Blame, climate of, 113
Blanchard, K., 143
Blink (Gladwell), 59
Bloom, B., 105
Bloomberg, M., 39
Boilerplate, 34
Boston Globe, 32
Boston Public Schools, 24, 126, 128
Boudett, K. P., 106
Boyden, A., 105–106
Bracey, G., 1
Braxton, W., 28
Breakthrough Coach workshop, 193
Bridge documents, 17
Brown-Chidsey, R., 113
Bubble students, 112
Building Teachers’ Capacity for Success (Hall & Simeral), 55

C
Calderon, H., 113
Calendar, curriculum: for curriculum planning, 90; interim assessment analysis in, 115–116; recommendations for, 93–94
Calendar, time management, 161–163
California Standards for the Teaching Profession (Moir et al.), 126
Calling on People Who Already Know the Answer. See COPWAKTA syndrome
Camden County Schools (Georgia), 117–119
Checking for understanding, 105
Checklists: examples of, 69–70; versus follow-up conversations, 65–66; lack of effectiveness of, 24, 27; principals’ experiences with, 44–45; for systematic mini-observations, 73–75. See also specific checklists
Chenoweth, K., 18
Chicago, Illinois: evaluation forms in, 24; teacher ratings in, 22
City, E., 56
City, E. A., 106
The Class (film), 192
Classroom management, 131
Classroom materials, 92
Classroom observations. See Teacher observations
Classrooms, conducting follow-up conversations in, 66
Clickers, 108
Closet, C., 1
Clutter, 194
Coal dust, 32
Coalition of Essential Schools, 107
Cohen, D., 57
Cold-calling, 108
Collaboration, 159; superintendent visits and, 174
College professors, 59
Collusive deals, 30
Common Core State Standards, 16; curriculum planning components and, 90; development of, 92; interim assessment alignment and, 115; purpose of, 93; superintendents’ role and, 188; test preparation and, 99
Community outreach, 132
CompStat system, 28
Confidentiality, of evaluations, 37
Conservatory Lab Charter School, 128
Constituencies, 173, 174f
Consulting teachers, 150
Continuous improvement, 151–155, 169
COPWAKTA (Calling on People Who Already Know the Answer) syndrome, 21, 108
Cornerstone Academy for Social Action, 199
Costa, J., 167
Courageous principals, 72–73
Covey, S., 51, 52f, 87, 157, 160
Cox, E., 79
The Crime Fighter (Maple), 28
Cynics, 36
Curriculum alignment: morale and, 13; principals’ personal experiences with, 78–79; superintendents with, 187, 191; teachers’ resistance to, 11
Curriculum: breadth of, 98; definition of, 91–92; slim booklet of, 199–211; with standardized tests, 13–14; with standardized tests, 38–41
Curriculum design: big picture question for, 87–88; calendar for, 93–94; cross-grade teacher meetings, 112; cross-pollinators, 79
Curriculum planning: description of, 89–91; mini-observations and, 102; pre-observation conferences for, 88; standards in, 92; test preparation and, 97–101; of unit plans, 94–97
Curriculum planning description of, 89–91; mini-observations and, 102f; superintendents and, 185
Curriculum summaries, 17
Cynics, 86

D
Danielson, C., 6, 37, 123–125, 128, 152
Darling-Hammond, L., 39
Data displays, 110–111, 116, 119, 120f
Data Wise books, 106
Daughtry, H., 75
Day-Timer calendars, 163
Delegation, 158, 166–167
Demographics, 18
Denver, Colorado: merit pay in, 39; teacher ratings in, 22
Detailed write-ups. See Lesson write-ups
Diminishing returns, 62
Discipline, 161
Distractions, 165
Documentation, of mini-observations: common questions regarding, 75; methods for, 75–78; superintendents’ role in, 78; time management and, 78
Dog-and-pony-show tradition, 29–32
Downey, C., 53–56
Driven by Data (Bambrick-Santoyo), 62–63, 109, 116, 191
Dry-erase boards, 108
DuFour, B., 110, 195
DuFour, R., 1, 34, 110, 120
Duncan, A., 39
Dweck, C., 109

E
Eaker, R., 120
East Bronx Academy of the Future, 213
Edmonds, R., 8–9, 17–18
Education coordinators, 8
Education Gadfly, 28
Education Sector, 28
Efficacy training: principals’ personal experiences with, 10–11; teachers’ resistance to, 11
Electric audience response systems, 108
Electronic forms, 65–66
Elmore, R., 56
E-mail, 165
End-of-year evaluations: linking mini-observations to, 80–82; rubrics for, 145f, 152, 191–193; superintendents and, 175, 185, 191–192
Enduring Understandings, 95
Engagement, in SOTEL method, 71
English, F., 55
Enhancing Professional Practice: A Framework for Teaching (Danielson), 124–125
Essential Questions, 95, 96–97, 190
“Evaluating New York Teachers, Perhaps the Numbers Do Lie” (Winerip), 39
Evaluation forms: creation of, 24; length of, 35–36; for systematic mini-observations, 73–75; variations in, 23–24
Evaluations: design flaws in, 37; examples of, 53; peer observations and, 64; principals’ courage to give, 72–73; from superintendents, 184
Cross-grade teacher meetings, 112
Cross-pollinators, 79
Culture: of resistance, 11–12; superintendent visits and, 174; time management and, 158
Curriculum: breadth of, 98; definition of, 91–92; slim booklet of, 199–211; with standardized tests, 13–14; with standardized tests, 38–41
Curriculum alignment: morale and, 13; principals’ personal experiences with, 13–14; with standardized tests, 13–14; superintendent visits and, 174; time management and, 158
Curriculum design: big picture question for, 87–88; calendar for, 93–94; effective curriculum planning in, 89–91; learning expectations in, 92–93; lesson plans in, 101–102; objectives and, 88; pre-observation conferences for, 88; standards in, 92; test preparation and, 97–101; of unit plans, 94–97
Curriculum planning: description of, 89–91; mini-observations and, 102f; superintendents and, 185
Curriculum summaries, 17
Cynics, 86

F
Facial expressions, of students, 107
Family outreach, 132, 159
Fear of evaluations, 37
Feedback: in peer assistance program, 150; for students, 108
Feedback, supervisory: barriers to, 13, 37; in conversational form, 65–66; documentation of mini-observation and, 75–77; in effective evaluation model, 195–196; goal of, 80; humility and, 72; from instructional coaches, 64; methods of, 57; for principals, 167; principals’ experiences with, 46–47; rubrics and, 145–146; superintendents and, 187, 191; teachers’ desire for, 68, 82; written form of, 76–77
Ferguson, R., 1, 70, 126–127, 154
Fiarman, S., 56
Fifteen Thousand Hours (Rutter, Maughan, Mortimore, Ouston, & Smith), 9
Filing paperwork, 166
Finland, 21, 113–114
Firing teachers: effects of, 31; importance of, 3; peer assistance program and, 150–151
Fisher, D., 109
Flying visits, 44–45
Focus, on achievement, 157, 158–160
Follow-up conversations: benefits of, 65–68; in effective evaluation model, 195, 196; humility and, 72; location of, 66, 67f, 68; principals’ courage during, 72–73; for professional development, 79–80; to promote teacher teamwork, 79–80; between superintendent and principal, 185
Follow-up systems, 158
Formative assessments: description of, 107–109; example of, 113–114
Fountas-Pinnell reading levels, 119–121
Four-point scales, 127–129
Frequent fliers, 165
Frey, N., 109
Freeman, S., 126
Frequent fliers, 165
Frequent fliers, 165
Frequent fliers, 165
Index

Full-lesson observations, 64
Fundamental Attribution Error, 31

G
Galley, L., 39
Gardner, H., 34
Gay, A., 117–119
Getting Things Done (Allen), 161
Gladwell, M., 59
Glenn, D., 109, 154
Goal setting: continuous improvement and, 152; for frequency of mini-observations, 59; implementing interim assessments and, 114; lesson plans and, 101; priority goals and, 159–160; of superintendents, 188; time management and, 158–159
Goals, long-range, 158–160
Goldstein, J., 150–151
Google Hangout, 116
GPAs, 112
Grade-level teams, 12–13
Grading criteria, for writing assessments, 14–15
Graphs, of test data, 119, 120
Greater Newark Academy, 116
Grievances, 43
Growth mindset, 109
Grubb, N., 113–114

H
Haley-Speca, M. A., 125
Hall, P., 55
Hamilton, M., 39
Hanuschek, E., 1
Harvard Bulletin, 8
Harvard Graduate School of Education, 9
Hattie, J., 1, 107
Haycock, K., 1
Health Departments, 32
Healthy lifestyle, 168–169
Heath, C., 100
Heath, D., 100
Hedges, L., 1
Hiebert, J., 64
Hillsborough, Florida, 148
Hiring effective teachers: importance of, 21; time management and, 166
Home, working at, 166
Home-schooling, 32–33
Hooks, 79
Horn, S. P., 1
Housecleaning, definition of, 21, 198
“How I Confronted HSPS (Hyperactive Superficial Principal Syndrome) and Began to Deal with the Heart of the Matter” (Marshall), 55
How to Make Supervision and Evaluation Really Work (Saphier), 125
Howard, J., 10–11, 17, 110
Huberman, M., 72
Humility, 72
Hyperactive Superficial Principal Syndrome (HSPS), 45–46

I
Improvement, teacher: assumptions about, 1; definition of, 198; effectiveness of evaluations in, 1; function of, 21
Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (2004), 113
Inputs, focusing on, 103–104
“How Inside the Black Box” (Black & Wiliam), 107
Insights, from mini-observations, 60, 62
Instructional coaches: at data meetings, 117; description of, 64; feedback from, 64
Instructional leaders, 9
Instructional quality: general strategies for improving, 3–4; importance of, 1–3; rubric for, 131; specific strategies for improving, 4–5; student achievement and, 1–3; superintendent visits and, 174; time management and, 158
Instructional Rounds (City et al.), 56
Insubordinate behavior, 11
Intellectual development, 109
Intensives, 75
Interim assessments: alignment of standards with, 115; benefits of, 110–111; criteria for, 114–115; debates about, 110; description of, 109–110; example of, 113–114; frequency of, 115; implementation of, 111–121; superintendents and, 190–191; versus teaching to the test, 100; time management and, 158
Interpersonal dynamics, 37
Interruptions, 165, 194
Intrinsic motivation, 38
Isolation: external standards and, 17; as problem of evaluation process, 37–38; teachers’ experiences with, 8, 12

J
Japanese schools, 64
Jaquith, A., 39
Johnson, J., 70
Johnson, S., 39
Journal of Education for Students Placed at Risk, 70

K
Kain, J., 1
Karhanek, G., 120
Keeling, D., 22
Kennedy, M., 193
Klein, J., 39, 184
Klein, K., 71
Konstantopoulos, S., 1
Kotter, J. 57

L
Ladd, F., 1
“Law and Order in Grade 6E” (Marshall), 8
Lawrence, D., 150
Learning. See Student learning
Learning outcomes. See Objectives
Learning stations, 8
Learning walks, 56
Lemov, D., 218
Lensmire, T., 23
Lesson launches, 79
Lesson plans: in curriculum planning calendar, 90–91; importance of, 100; principals’ inspection of, 101; versus unit plans, 101–102
Lesson Study, 64
Lesson write-ups: examples of, 213–218; principals’ experiences with, 123–124; problems with, 33–36; superintendents and, 187
Leverage Leadership (Bambrick-Santoyo), 62–63
Levy, S., 65
Live data, 109
Looking at Student Work (LASW), 106
Looping, 12
Low-achieving students, 2
Low-inference observations, 34
Low-level questions, 108
Low-stakes tests, 112

M
Malleable intelligence, 109
Maple, J., 28
Marshall, K., 8, 55, 124, 142, 186
Martin Luther King Jr. Middle School, 7
Marzano, R., 34, 70, 87, 98, 110, 116
Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS), 10, 16
Massachusetts Education Reform Act, 47
Mastery Learning theory, 105
Mather Elementary School, 7, 9–18, 37; discipline at, 161; mini-observations at, 43–56
Mather Memo, 10; description of, 165; origin of mini-observations and, 47; teacher isolation and, 12
Matthews, J., 117–119
Maughan, B., 9
Mausbach, A., 56
Mazur, E., 108
McGregor, D., 37
McKain, R., 157
McTighe, J., 5, 89–90, 94–97, 110
Measures of Effective Teaching (MET) project, 28, 80, 154
Meetings: to discuss interim assessments, 112, 116–119; for follow-up conversations, 68; to introduce rubrics, 143; principals’ feedback on, 167; between superintendent and principal, 191–192; time management and, 158, 163
Merit pay, 38–39
Methane, 32
Metropolitan Achievement Test, 14
Mindset
Midyear conferences, 152
Midst (Dweck), 109
Mining industry, 32
Mini-observations: benefits of, 53–54, 55, 84–85; components of, 57; curriculum planning and, 102; documentation of, 75–78; duration of, 59–64; in effective teaching model, 195–196; effectiveness of rubrics and, 145; encouragement for, 51–52; flawed implementation of, 187; follow-up conversations after, 65–68; formula for success of, 59; frequency of, 58–59, 63, 75; limitations of, 103; linking end-of-year evaluations to, 80–82; number of, 58–59; origin of, 46–48; perceptive observations in, 68–72; personal style in, 49–50; sampling instructions, 54–56; from superintendents, 186–187; teachers’ concerns about, 82–84; teachers’ feelings about, 84–85; time management and, 167; tracking of, 50–51; types of feedback in, 52–53; unions and, 186; versus walk-throughs, 56
Minority students, 105
Mishra, A. K., 81
Mission, 158, 174, 185
Moir, E., 126
Morale: curriculum alignment and, 13; effect of mini-observations on, 55; firing teachers and, 31; principals’ experience trying to raise, 12
Mortimore, P., 9
Mulheren, J., 22
Murnane, R. J., 106

N
Narrative write-ups. See Lesson write-ups
Nation at Risk (National Commission on Excellence in Education), 9
National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), 93
National Commission on Excellence in Education, 9
Necessary work, 167
New Leaders for New Schools, 113
New Teacher Project, 22
New teachers: evaluations as seen by, 7–8; full-lesson observations of, 64
New York City: evaluation forms in, 24, 25–26c; merit pay in, 39; principal evaluation groups in, 187; restaurants in, 32; test scores as part of evaluation process in, 39; tracking teachers’ work in, 28
New York Times, 8, 39, 105, 121
New Yorker, 87
Newsweek, 65
90/90/90 schools, 18
No Child Left Behind Act, 112
North Star Academy, 109, 125–126, 128
Note taking: to document mini-observations, 75–76; for time management, 163–164
NPR, 32
Nuthall, G., 38
NWEA, 110
Nye, B., 1

O
Objectives: curriculum design and, 88; implementing interim assessments and, 114; in SOTEL method, 71
On-the-spot assessments. See Formative assessments
Organizing tasks, 161, 162e, 163–166
Outlook calendar, 163
Outsourcing evaluations, 34
Overload, 34
Overtesting, 112, 116

P
Pacing guides, 93
Pancoast, M., 193
Paperwork, 166, 193
Parents, 159, 174
Parker, N., 158
Particular-general-particular strategy, 143, 184
Partnership for the Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC), 16, 99
Pate-Bain, H., 105–106
Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) program, 64; benefits of, 150–151; description of, 149; origin of, 150; superintendents and, 187
Peer observations, 64
Perceptive mini-observations, 68–71
Perez, L., 70
Pessimism, of teachers, 10
Petrilli, M., 28
Petrock, L., 126
Phi Delta Kappan, 51, 55, 88, 168
Planning periods: to enhance teamwork, 12; superintendents and, 193
Planning skill, 130–131
Planning systems, 158, 161–163
Planning time, summer, 193
Police departments, 27–28
Popham, J., 14, 110, 115
Portfolios: to increase observations, 28; limitations of, 107
Poston, W., 55
Praise, of teachers: in beginning of mini-observations, 47–48; examples of, 52; need for, 46; for test scores, 40
Pre-observation conference: curriculum design and, 88; duration of mini-observations and, 64; problems with, 29; teachers’ arguments for, 30, 31
Preventing crises, 158, 167–168
Principals: attendance of, at team meetings, 167; feedback for, 167; important tasks of, 167; inspection of lesson plans by, 101; as instructional leaders, 9; need for courage in, 72–73; role of, in teacher teamwork, 79; role of, in UbD, 95–96; self-assessment of, 158, 169–170; sharing load of mini-observations of, 68; as students for a day, 75; superintendent evaluations of, 175, 178–183, 184–185; versus third-party evaluators, 80
Prioritizing goals, 159–160, 194
ProComp plan, 39
Procrastination, 163, 165–166
Professional development: peer assistance program and, 150; using follow-up conversations for, 79–80
Professional environment, 193
Professional responsibilities, 132

230 Index
Index

Q
Quality assurance, 22, 198
Quality Counts, 98
Questions, asking, 107–108
Quick-writes, 108
Quizzes, 108

R
Race to the Top program, 39
Rating scales: for evaluating principals, 175, 184; examples of, 128–129; ineffective types of, 24; in newly created rubrics, 127–130; in scoring of rubrics, 145–146
Reassurance, of teachers, 46
Recall questions, 108
"Recovering from HSPS (Hyperactive Superficial Principal Syndrome): A Progress Report" (Marshall), 55
Reeves, D., 18, 106, 110
Reflection, 169
Reinforcement, 53
Relaxation, 168
Report card grades, 106, 112
Resistant culture, 11–12
Resnick, L., 56
Response to intervention (RTI), 113–114
Restaurant industry, 32
Reteaching, 115–116, 120
Retrieval effect, 109
Rhee, M., 28, 39
Rice, J., 1
Rivers, J. C., 1
Rivkin, S., 1
Rockford, Illinois, 22
Rothman, R., 28
Rosenthal, R., 59, 62
Rockville, Maryland, 192
Rivere, J. C., 1
Rice, J., 1
Rhee, M., 28, 39
Rice, J., 1
Rivkin, S., 1
Rockford, Illinois, 22
Rothman, R., 28
RTI. See Response to intervention
Rubrics: below proficient scores on, 146–151; benefits of, 124, 155–156; charting results of, 154–155; comparison of, 219–220; continuous improvement and, 151–155; creation of, 124–133; for end-of-year evaluations, 145f, 152, 191–193; for evaluations of principals, 175, 178–183, 184–185; example scoring of, 147f; future of, 155–156; implementation of, 120; introduction of, to teachers, 143–144; principals' personal experiences with, 14–15; for principal's self-assessment, 169; principals' versus teachers' scores on, 152, 153f; versus SOTEL checklists, 146, 148f; in student self-evaluation, 120; students' input on, 154; teachers' impressions of, 144f; teachers' practice with, 15; template for, 136–142; tips for scoring of, 145–146; unions and, 148, 149
Rush to Judgment (Education Sector), 28
Rutter, M., 9

S
Safety, in SOTEL method, 71
Saints, 35–36
Salaries, of teachers, 21
SAM. See School Administrative Manager model
Sanders, W. L., 1
Santa Cruz Rubric, 126, 128
Saphier, J., 1, 34, 36, 43, 63, 125
Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory ratings, 24
Sato, M., 23
Saxton, A. M., 1
SBAC assessment, 99
Scantron, 110
Scheduled evaluations, 29–31, 187. See also Teacher evaluations
Schmoker, M., 19, 79–80, 87, 110, 159
School Administrative Manager (SAM) model, 193
School visits, from superintendents, 174–175, 185
Schoolwide improvement, 79–80
Scope and sequence, 93
Scrivin, S., 213
Self-assessment, 158, 169, 170f
The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 51, 52f
Sexton, S., 22
Sineral, A., 55
Sinners, 36
The Skilful Teacher (Saphier et al.), 125
Sleep, 168
SMART goals, 17, 114, 121
Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium, 16–17
Smith, A., 9
Software, 76, 77–78
SOTEL checklists: description of, 71; versus rubrics, 146, 148f
Spillane, R., 9, 173
Spreadsheets, 93, 94, 116, 154
Staff memos, 164–165
Stakeholders, 173, 174f
Standardized tests, 16; curriculum alignment with, 13, 14; versus interim assessments, 109; as part of evaluation process, 38–40; preparing students for, 97–101
Standards: assessments and, 92; description of, 92–93; implementing interim assessments and, 114
State standards: in interim assessments, 109–110; principals' personal experiences with, 16–17; superintendents role and, 188
Steele, J. L., 106
Steffy, R., 55
Stiggins, R., 119
Stigler, J., 64
Strategic plans, 158–160
Student achievement: gap in, 105, 113, 196–198; instructional quality and, 1–3; superintendents and, 184, 191; teachers' beliefs about, 104; test scores revealing, 104–105
Student learning: lack of focus on, 15; limitations of supervision and, 103; problems with evaluations and, 38–40; in SOTEL method, 71; students' accountability for, 109; superintendents and, 173, 174f
Student surveys: to increase observations, 28; as part of continuous improvement, 154
Student work, 106, 107
Students: accountability of, 109; facial expressions of, 107; input of, on rubrics, 154; in interim assessment process, 119–120; principal following, 75; self-evaluation of, 120; teachers' collusive deals with, 30
Suggestions, examples of, 53
Summary pages, 133, 142
Summative test scores, 191
Summer planning time, 193
Superintendents: end-of-year evaluations and, 175, 185, 191–192; evaluations of principals by, 175, 178–183, 184–185; follow-up conversations with, 185; function of, 80; helpful actions of, 173; interim assessments and, 190–191; mini-observations by, 186–187; role of, in documentation of mini-observations, 78; school visits from, 174–175; supervisory feedback and, 187; time management and, 185, 193–194; unit planning and, 185, 187–190
Supervision: characteristics of effective, 195–196; definition of, 20; function of, 21–22; limitations of, 103; model of, 41; principals' personal experiences with, 43–56; purpose of, 197–198; time management and, 158
Support system, 169, 194
Surveys, 185
Systemic mini-observations, 73–75

T
Teacher Advancement Program (TAP), 28
Teacher evaluations: characteristics of effective, 195–196; controversy surrounding, 20–21; current flaws with, 22–23; definition of, 20; effectiveness of, 1; function of, 21–22; model of, 41; principals' personal experiences with, 19–20; as seen by new teachers, 7–8; students' input on, 154; teachers' fears of, 37; time-consuming nature of, 35–36. See also Evaluations: Scheduled evaluations

231
Teacher observations: ineffective strategies to increase, 28; infrequency of, 27–28; need for change in, 40–41; problems with, 29–40; time management and, 167
Teacher turnover, 36
Teachers: concerns of, about mini-observations, 82–84; fears of, 37; involvement of, in interim assessment implementation, 116; isolation of, 8, 12; in PAR program, 149–151; pessimism of, 10; reassurance of, 46; rubric practice of, 15; salaries of, 21
Teaching, effective: assessment and, 105–106; benefits of interim assessments to, 110–111; in effective teaching model, 195–196; factors that contribute to, 20f; lack of agreement on, 23f; results of, 2, 3f; rubric criteria for, 130–132; shared definition of, 23–27; in SOTEL method, 71; superintendent visits and, 174; working conditions for, 21
The Teaching Gap (Stigler & Hiebert), 64
Teaching, ineffective: effects of, 2–3f, 32; examples of, 21; firing teachers for, 3; having the courage to address, 72–73; peer assistance for, 150–151; personal experiences with, 7–8; rubric scores and, 146–149; in teach-test pattern, 104–106
Teaching to the test, 98, 100–101
Team meetings, 163, 167, 193
Team planning, 97
TEAM rubric, 127
Teamwork, effective: planning periods to enhance, 12; principal’s role in, 79; using follow-up conversations to promote, 79–80
Teamwork, weak, 12–13
Technology, 76, 77–78
Teitel, L., 56
Tennessee, rubrics in, 129
Tennessee Statewide Test, 2f
Test preparation: debates about, 97–101; teachers’ focus on, 40; versus UbD, 97
Test scores: as part of evaluation process, 38–40; superintendents and, 191; teach-test pattern in, 104–105, 121–122; year-end test data from, 106
T-EVAL software, 77, 133, 213
Theory X/Theory Y, 37
Think-pair-share, 108
Third-party evaluators, 28, 80
Thomas B. Fordham Institute, 16
The Three-Minute Classroom Walk-Through (Downey et al.), 55, 56
Thumbs-up/thumbs-down method, 107–108
Tiers of teaching, 113–114
Time management: basic principles of, 157; best practices for, 157–169; documentation of mini-observations and, 78; frequency of mini-observations and, 59; hours on tasks and, 169, 170f, 171f; superintendents and, 185, 193–194
Toch, T., 28, 35
To-do lists, 161, 162e
Tooms, A., 168
Tough, P., 105
Tracking mini-observations: frequency of mini-observations and, 59; origin of, 50–51
Trimble, S., 117–119
Tripod Project, 70, 126–127, 154
Truman, H., 73
Trust, 81, 113, 196

U
Uline, C., 70
Unannounced visits: in mini-observation process, 58; need for, 32–33, 46
Understanding by design (UbD), 94–97, 188
Understanding by Design (Wiggins & McTighe), 89–90, 94
Unions: mini-observations and, 186; objective of, 24; rubrics and, 148, 149
Unit plans: calendar for, 93–94; components of, 95; curriculum as, 92; definition of, 93; full write-ups and, 33–34; versus lesson plans, 101–102; superintendents and, 185, 187–190
Upper Big Branch mine, 32
Urban schools: resistant culture in, 10; teachers’ personal experiences with, 6–18; variables for effectiveness in, 8–9

V
Value-added evaluations, 39, 121
Value-added work, 167
Video cameras: to increase observations, 28; as mini-observation option, 64; superintendents’ evaluations and, 187
Vigdor, J., 1
Visible Learning (Hattie), 107

W
Walk-throughs, 56
Wallace Foundation, 84
Washington, D.C., 28, 129, 130
Washington University in St. Louis, 109
Waste work, 167
Weisberg, D., 22
Whatever It Takes (DuFour et al.), 120
Whiteboards, 108
Whitehurst, G., 1
The Widget Effect (New Teacher Project), 22, 31
Wiggins, G., 5, 14, 89–90, 94–97, 103, 110
Willem, D., 103, 105, 108, 110, 115, 197
Wilson, L., 9
Winerip, M., 39, 121
Working conditions, for effective teaching, 21
Writing assessments, 14–15

Y
Year-end test scores, 106