Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate an table.

A
Abramsky, Sasha, 9
Abu Dhabi (United Arab Emirates), 124
Accenture, 159
Accountability: for mistakes, 137, 195, 204; promoting reliability and, 137–139; questions for promoting, 143
Actions, vision as guiding, 49
Active resistance, 89
Agenda of mutual benefit, 108
AIG bonuses, 114
Airbus A380, 59–60
AirTran, 159
A.M. Best, 144
Amazon.com, 156
American Airlines, 17
American Express, 23
American Management Association, 7
Andersen Consulting (Accenture), 159
Andrews, Vic, 144, 145, 146
Annan, Kofi, 38
Anti-social behaviors, 153, 157
Apple, 74, 84
Arab Emirates, 59
Architecture of results, 68–69
Arnott, David, 134
Ash, Mary Kay, 81
Assessments: concern for stakeholders, 119–123; purpose and vision, 65–66, 72; trust in competence, 64–65, 72; trust in identification, 160–164; trust in reliability, 134–143
Augsburg Helsinki School of Management, 56
Austin, Stan, 173–174, 176
Automobile industry bailout (2008), 18
Avram, Eugen, 38, 41

B
Baby Boomers, 198
Bailouts (2008), 18, 114
Barrett, Colleen, 31
Bartholomew, Martin, 156–157
The Bay, 68
Bear Stearns, 18, 84–86
Behaviors: distrust leading to fear and destructive, 7–9; distrust and “we versus them,” 6–7; leadership reliability reflected by, 140–142; organizational trust driving individual, 20; trust gap of intentions and, 11–12; trust levels related to, 15–16; uncertainty leading to antisocial, 153, 157
Bills, John, 32, 52, 53
Blackwater (Xe), 159
Blame: avoidance of, 138, 143; responsibility as counterpart to, 204
Blogging, 92
Boeing, 23
Bolton, Iris, 171
Bon Mot Communications, 50, 63, 96, 197
Branham, Leigh, 112
Bristol-Myers Squibb, 50
Buckley, George, 187
Building trust. See Trust building
Built to Last (Collins and Porras), 23, 152
BusinessWeek, 49, 144, 145

C
Canon, 56
Carlton Society, 188
Center for Creative Leadership, 62
Cesaria, Ruggero, 74–75, 165
CH2M HILL, 124–125
Change: as competency component, 55; “good” as the enemy of great, 186; high-trust organizations and effective, 189; increasing competence by leading, 72; Kodak as example of failure to, 55–56; questioning competence and fear of, 61–62; questions to ask about, 73; risk perceptions of, 89. See also Innovation

Chaos Navigation, 56

Chase, T. Richard, 62

China: cultural differences in communication in, 135–137; guanxi (relationship/connections), 135–136; hui bao (reciprocity system) practice of, 136

Chouinard, Yvon, 35

Chrysler, 18, 113

Cinquencento (Fiat 500), 74

Clair A. Hill & Associates, 124

CNBC, 85

Coca-Cola, 117–118

Collins, Jim, 23, 66, 152, 186

Communication: aligning policies, practices supporting concern with, 121–122, 123; American vs. Chinese perceptions of reliable, 135–137; complacency in, 87; of concern for stakeholders, 121, 123; consequences of distrusted, 83–90; crisis situation and high-trust, 194–196; developing strategy for trusted, 213–215; of identification with organization, 161–163, 164; knowledge or information deficits and, 88; linking core values to practices of, 79; open and honest, 81–83, 90–101; organizational silence barrier to, 87–88; perceptions of trust based on, 14; promoting accountability, 137–139, 143; social media, 91, 98, 199; transparent, 91–92, 139–142, 143, 156–157; The United States Intelligence Community Information Sharing Strategy (2008) on, 101–104; U.S. Northern Command improvement of, 90–91. See also Information

Communication plans: The Corporate Communicator (Rewer e-zine) on, 97–99; developing the specifics of, 96; developing trust building strategy using, 213–215; establishing values and expectations for, 95–96; high-trust communication strategies and, 190–191; importance of developing formal, 197–198

Compensation packages, 113–114

Competence: characteristics of, 31; description of, 29; distrust in, 58–62; fear of change increased when questioning, 61–62; trust in, 62–75

Competence dimension: building trust in competence, 62–64; characteristics of, 31; the competent organization, 47–56; description of, 29; distrust in competence, 58–62; examples of, 29–31; institution-based trust characteristics and, 181; as organizational trust driver, 27; trust in competence, 56–58

Competent organizations: change component of, 55–56; core capabilities of, 54–55; distrust in, 58–61; fairness is equated with, 61; goals, strategy, structure, and execution of, 51–52; high-quality results of, 68–71; Kodak’s failure to change, 55–56; Philips Medical Systems as example of, 52–53; purpose and vision basis of, 48; story illustrating the, 47–48

Complacency, 87

Concern for employees/stakeholders dimension: characteristics of, 36; description of, 34–35; examples of, 35–36; institution-based trust characteristics and, 181; as organizational trust driver, 27. See also Employees

Concern strategies: 1: assess concern for stakeholders, 119–120, 122; 2: assess policies and practices demonstrating concern, 120, 122–123; 3: communicate concern for stakeholders, 121, 123; 4: align communication, policies, and practices supporting concern, 121, 123

Concerned organizations: CH2M HILL example of, 124–125; examples of distrust in, 112–118; examples of trust in, 108–112; policies and practices of, 120, 121–123; self-management concept used to build trust by, 110–112; story illustrating the, 105–107. See also Stakeholders

Conflict situations: description of, 191–192; role of trust in, 191–193

Confucian or time-oriented cultural dimension, 176
Core capabilities: of competent organizations, 54–55; development of, 71–72; development of open/honest communication, 94–95, 100–101; questions to ask about, 73
Core values: fairness as, 61, 107, 117–118; Hewlett-Packard’s HP Way, 40–41; identification dimension at center of, 27, 40–42, 151–152; leadership response to ethical violations of, 207–208; linking communication practices to, 79; purpose and vision reflecting, 48; Zappos.com employee’s commitment to, 155. See also Organizational culture
Cornell, Holly, 124

The Corporate Communicator (Rewer e-zine), 97–99
Corporation responsibility, 99
Costco, 18–19
Courage (Lee), 121
Covey, Steven M.R., 21, 108
Creative Services Center (Tuscaloosa), 189
Creativity: connections between innovation, risk, and, 185–189; inhibited by fear of failure, 187. See also Innovation
Crisis situations: description of, 191–192; high-trust communication during, 194–196; high-trust crisis management plan for, 193–194; role of trust in, 192–193
Cultural differences: American vs. Chinese communication perspectives, 135–137; American vs. Chinese reciprocity systems, 136; Hofstede’s five dimensions of culture and, 176–178, 179ff; how collaboration is impacted by, 176–183t. See also Globalization; Organizational culture
Customer loyalty: competence component of, 58, 59; identification component of, 153–156, 162
Customer service: Nordstrom Rule Book on providing, 150–151; Southwest Airlines’ approach to, 30–31, 49, 91; USAA focus on reliable, 144–147; Zappos.com focus on, 154–156

D
Destructive behaviors, 7–9
Digital cameras, 55–56
Disney: “guest recovery” service of, 66; successful habits of, 23; “We create happiness” vision of, 49–50
Disney, Walt, 105
Disraeli, Benjamin, 108

Distrust: Coca-Cola and PepsiCo building trust instead of, 118–119; common reasons for, 202; in competence, 58–61; as consequence of mistakes, 202, 203, 204, 208; executive compensation packages creating, 113–114; failure leading to, 4, 10, 63; in identification, 157–159; in openness/honesty, 83–90; organizational trust model with outcomes for, 172; processes central to employee, 112–118; in reliability, 130–133; technology start-up company example of, 115–117; trust building by first understanding, 201–204; trust building by overcoming, 204–208. See also Organizational distrust
Distrust in competence: consequences of, 58–59; examples of, 59–61
Distrust in identification: consequences of, 157–159; description of, 157
Distrust in Openness/honesty: consequences of, 84–90; description of, 83–84
Distrust in reliability: consequences of, 130; example of high cost of, 130–133
Distrust to optimal trust continuum, 16
dot.com collapse, 91
Drucker, Peter, 157
Drummond, Jim, 128
Drummond Manufacturing, 127–128

E
Eaton, Timothy, 67
Eaton’s of Canada, 67–68
Eberhardt, Ed, 90
Edelman Trust Barometer, 91–92
Edoardo (IKEA employee), 166
Effectiveness (perceived), 28ff, 42–43
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 1
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 3

Employees: attracted to leading edge, 58; distrust impact on productivity of, 7; economic uncertainty affecting, 33; “guest recovery” power allowed Disney, 66; identification with IKEA by, 164–167; identification with Nordstrom by, 150–151; identification with organization core values by, 27, 40–42; job satisfaction of, 28ff, 42–43; open and honest communication with, 81–83, 90–101; organization core ideology fit with, 152; regular trust feedback from, 214; self-management to build trust in, 110–112; Southwest Airlines’ trust in competence of, 30–31; trust component of learning by, 22–23; trust driven by Employees (continued)
concern for, 27; trust education for, 213; trust impact on work effort by, 22. See also Concern for employees/stakeholders dimension
Enron scandal, 15, 159
Ernst & Young, 91, 92
Ethical violations, 207–208
Ethos Water, 50
Ewington, Nigel, 9
Executive compensation packages, 113–114

F
Facebook, 91, 92
Faconnable, 150
Failure: of Bear Stearns, 84; creativity inhibited by fear, 187; distrust consequence of, 4, 10, 63; of Hurricane Katrina response, 15; as innovation risk, 33, 187; lack of competence leading to, 52; 3M successes following, 187, 188. See also Mistakes
Fairhurst, Gail, 162
Fairness: of competent organization, 61; as goal of concerned organization, 107; PepsiCo’s commitment to competitive, 117–118
Fear: distrust leading to, 7–9; of failure, 187
Fed-Mart, 19
Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), 17, 92
FedEx, 59
Fiat, 74–75
Field change orders (FCOs) [Philips Imaging Systems], 52–53
Financial crisis (2008), 5, 18, 113–114
Financial Times, 21
Focus Consultants, 176
Ford, 18, 91, 136–137
Ford, Henry, 25
Forrester Research, 144–145
Fortune magazine, 84
Fortune magazine’s 100 Best Companies to Work for, 21, 124
Fragile to resilient trust continuum, 17
Friedman, Thomas, 8–9, 55, 175–176

G
Gabel, Pontus, 165, 166–167
Gallup/USA Today poll (2008), 113
Gandhi, Mahatma, 169
Generations X and Y, 99
Geronimo, 152
Girl Scouts of the USA, 48, 51
Glassner, Barry, 8
Global financial crisis (2008), 5, 18
Globalization: building trust in context of, 182–183; examples of issues related to, 177–178, 181; Hofstede’s five dimensions of culture applied to, 176–178, 179fig–180fig; mixed challenges and opportunities of, 175–177; trust model and institution-based trust for, 181t. See also Cultural differences
GM (General Motors), 18, 136–137
Goals: of competent organizations, 51–52; concerned organizations and fairness, 107; measuring productivity, 209–211
Golden Step Award, 188
Gomez, Ray, 196
Good to Great (Collins), 66, 186
Graham, John, 135, 136
Gretzky, Wayne, 127
Guanxi (Chinese connections), 135–136

H
Hackman, Michael, 113
Handy, Charles, 173, 183–184
Harvard Business Review, 74
Hayes, T. Burke, 124
Hemmingway, Ernest, 23
Hesselbein, Frances, 51
Hewlett, Bill, 40, 41
Hewlett-Packard, 23, 40–41, 186
High-trust organizations: better performance of, 21; characteristics of, 188–189; communication plan for developing, 190–191; crisis communication best practices for, 194–196; easy of making effective change in, 189; excellence of, 20–24; positive transformation possible through, 215–216; questions to develop, 190. See also Organizational trust; Organizations; Trust
Hock, Dee, 191
Hofstede, Geert, 176
Hofstede’s five dimensions of culture: overview of, 176–178; results of European responses to trust in, 179fig
Holtz Communication + Technology, 91
Holzt, Shel, 91–92
Home Depot, 113
Honesty. See Openness/honesty
Howland, James, 124, 125
HP Way, 40–41
HR Magazine, 71
Hsieh, Tony, 154, 155, 156
INDEX

Hui bao (Chinese reciprocity system), 136
Hui, Chun, 153
Hurricane Katrina, 15
Hutchens, Wayne, 4

IBM, 91, 92
Identification: building trust for, 159–164; characteristics of, 42; core values at center of, 27, 40–42, 151–157; customer loyalty tied to, 153–156, 162; examples of organizational, 150–157, 164–167
Identification dimension: characteristics of, 42; core values at center of, 27, 40–42, 151–152; description of, 40; examples of, 40–42; institution-based trust characteristics and, 181; as organizational trust driver, 27
Identification organizations: building trust in identification, 159–164; examples of distrust in identification, 157–159; examples of trust in identification, 152–157; IKEA example of, 164–167; Nordstrom example of, 150–151; story illustrating the, 149–152; Zappos.com example of, 153–157
IKEA Group: background information on, 164–165; cultural philosophy and identification with, 166–167; mission and vision of, 165–166; Quality Education Soft Toy Campaign of, 166
Individualism-collectivism cultural dimension, 176
IndyMac Bank, 18
Information: distrust from deficits in, 88; increasing demands for instant, 197–198; leadership control over, 90; “need to know” vs. “need to share” mentality on, 79, 91, 92; uncertainty from lack of, 89; The United States Intelligence Community Information Sharing Strategy (2008) on, 101–104. See also Communication
Innovation: “good” as the enemy of great, 186; Publishers Innovation Project example of, 188–189; 3M’s commitment to, 186–187; trust as fundamental to, 185–189. See also Change; Creativity
Institute of Management (Berlin), 56
Integrity: as open and honest organization core, 77–80; as trust component, 11–12
Intelligence Community Information Sharing Executive, 102
Intelligence Community’s “need-to-know” culture, 102
International Association of Business Communicators (IABC) Research Foundation, 209
International Leadership Association, 51
IT (information technology): developing communication plans and, 95–99; developing culture of information sharing, 103–104

J
Jacobs, Mary, 32–33, 188
Janega, Patti, 37–38
J.D. Power, 145
Job satisfaction, 28, fig, 42–43
Jobs, Steve, 84
Johnson, Craig, 113
Johnsonville Foods, 69–71
"Johnsonville University," 71
J.P. Morgan Chase, 85

K
Kamprad, Ingvar, 164
Keeping the People Inc., 112
Kelleher, Herb, 30
Kelly, Kate, 85–86
Kemper Insurance, 49, 50
King, Martin Luther, Jr., 20
Klum, Heidi, 139
Knowledge deficits, 88
Kodak, 55–56
Korthals, Robin, 68
Kotter, John, 48
Kranz, Gene, 45
Kumar, Rajeev, 63

L
Lake, Ruth Ann, 176–177
Lam, Mark, 135, 136
Leadership: assess openness/honesty of communication by, 94, 100; building trust in competence by assessing, 66–68, 73; control over information by, 90; as core competence, 67; executive compensation packages and, 113–114; Nordstrom’s philosophy on, 150–151; purpose and vision relationship to, 51; questions to ask about reliability, 142–143; reliability reflected by behaviors of, 140–142; response to ethical abuses by, 207–208; trust education for, 213; trust skills needed by, 196–197
Leadership questions: to ask about competence, 72–73; to ask about concern for stakeholders, 122–123; to ask about identification, 163–164; to ask about openness/honesty, 100–101; to build trust in culturally diverse/global environment, 182–183

Learning trust, 22–23

Lee, Cynthia, 153
Lee, Gus, 118, 121
Lee, Harper, 196
LEGO, 155
Lehman Brothers, 9
Lincoln, Abraham, 80
Listening gray, 94
Little Yellow Book (CH2M HILL), 125
Locander, William, 129
London Olympic and Paralympic games (2012), 124
Lowe, Richard, 9
Loyalty (customer): competence component of, 58, 59; identification component of, 153–156, 162
Luechauer, David, 129
Luke, Apostle, 128

M
McConnell, J. M., 101
McCullough, David, 80–81
McDonald’s, 138–139
McIntire, Lee, 124–125
McKinsey & Company, 15
McKinley, John, 149
McKinnell, Henry, 113
Madoff, Bernie, 18
Mankiller, Wilma, 42
Marchionne, Sergio, 74, 75
Mary Kay Cosmetics, 81
Masculinity-femininity cultural dimension, 176
Masdar City (green community) [United Arab Emirates], 124
Measures of productivity, 209–211
Medical malpractice crisis, 10
Merryfield, Fred, 124
Meyerrose, Dale, 90, 101
Millennials, 198
Mistakes: accountability for, 137, 195, 204; correcting, 204; distrust consequences of, 202, 203, 204, 208; how supervisors deal with, 121; learning from, 187, 204; as part of innovation process, 186; tolerance for, 161. See also Failure

MITRE Corporation, 35
MITRE Educational Assistance Program, 35
Model. See Organizational trust model
Molinaro, Sam, 85
MySpace, 91, 98

N
Nahmias, David, 118
Nardelli, Bob, 113
“Need to know” mentality: Intelligence Community’s, 102; “need to share” versus, 79, 91
“Need to share” mentality: “need to know” versus, 79, 92; organizational benefits of, 103
New York Times, 8
The New York Times Regional Media Group, 32, 188
Newspaper industry, 188–189
Nietzsche, Friedrich, 83
Nordstrom: as identification organization, 150–151; as visionary company, 23
Nordstrom, Jim, 151
Nordstrom Rack, 150
Nordstrom Rule Book, 150–151
Normstrom.com, 150
Nuts About Southwest website, 92
Nutt, Shelly, 86

O
Obama, Barack, 113
Okie, Francis, 187
Open and honest organizations: characteristics of, 79; distrust in, 83–92; integrity as core of, 77–80; “need to know” vs. “need to share” of, 79, 91, 92; story illustrating the, 77–79; strategies for building trust in, 92–101; transparency of, 91–92
Openness/honesty: assess communication practices for, 93–94, 100; assess current state of, 92–93, 100; assess leadership communication, 94, 100; develop core communication capabilities, 94–95, 101; developing communication plan, 95–99, 101; institution-based trust characteristics and, 181
Openness/honesty dimension: characteristics of, 34; description of, 32; examples of, 32–34; as organizational trust driver, 27
Openness/honesty strategies: 1: assess openness and honesty and trust, 92–93, 100; 2: assess communication practices, 93–94, 100; 3: assess leadership communication, 94, 100, 100–101; 4: develop core communication capabilities, 94–95; 5: develop the communication plan, 95–99, 101

Oregon State University, 124

Organizational architecture design, 68–69

Organizational culture: building a reliability, 137, 142–143; building a trust, 201–216; business process of “glocalization” of local, 138–139; IKEA’s practices reflecting, 165–167; supporting identification, 163, 164; Zappos.com’s well defined, 154–156.

Organizational distrust: crises made worst through, 10; expensive consequences of, 10–11; fear and destructive behaviors fostered by, 7–9; the high cost of, 5–11; impact on employee productivity, 7; “we versus them” fostered by, 6–7. See also Distrust

Organizational excellence: making the decision to trust, 23–24; trust as fundamental for bottom-line results, 21; trust impacting organizational forms for, 22; trust impacting organizational learning, 22–23; trust impacting work effort for, 22

Organizational silence, 87–88

Organizational trust: excellence relationship to, 20–24; five key drivers or dimensions of, 27, 29–42; importance of, 3–5; individual behaviors driven by, 20; as the “main thing,” 4, 12, 23, 25, 28, 171, 215–216; myths about, 11–12; profiling, 208–209; pyramid of, 19, 20

Organizational trust characteristics: communication-based, 14; culturally determined, 13–14; dynamic, 15; multidimensional, 15–16; multifaceted experience, 12–13

Organizational trust continuums: distrust to optimal trust, 16; fragile to resilient trust, 17; shallow to deep trust, 17–20

Organizational Trust Index (OTI), 26, 27, 209, 215

Organizations: competent, 47–71; concerned, 105–126; core ideology of, 152; identification, 149–167; open and honest, 77–104; policies and procedures of, 121–122, 123, 211–212; productivity of, 7, 203, 205–207, 209–211; reliable, 127–147; trust and the virtual, 183–185, 213. See also High-trust organizations; Organizational culture; Trust building

Outcomes: organizational distrust, 172t; organizational trust, 172t. See also Results

P

Packard, Dave, 40, 41

Passive resistance, 89

Patagonia, 35–36

Paulsen, Jim, 8

Paulson, Jim, 136

Peanut Corporation of America, 86

Peanut salmonella outbreak (2009), 86, 106

PepsiCo, 117–118

Perceived effectiveness, 28

Pershing, John J., 47

Pfizer, 113

Philips Imaging Systems, 52–53

Philips Medical Systems, 32, 52–53

Policies: supporting concern with aligning, 121–122, 123; trust building by reviewing, 211–212

Poor Richard’s, 105–106

Porras, Jerry, 23, 152

Power distance cultural dimension, 176

PricewaterhouseCoopers, 21

Procedures: supporting concern with aligning, 121–122, 123; trust building by reviewing, 211–212

Productivity: distrust impact on, 7; downsizing resulting in lowered, 203; monitoring trust by identifying related measures of, 209–211; process for making changes that increase, 205–207
Profiling organizational trust, 208–209
Publishers Innovation Project, 188–189
Purpose: as basis for competence, 48; building trust in competence by assessing, 65–66,
72; leadership relationship to, 51; of vision,
48–49
Pyramid of trust, 19, 20

Q
Quality Education Soft Toy Campaign
(IKEA), 166
Questions. See Leadership questions
Quinn, Laura, 62

R
Reciprocity systems, 136
Reliability: building trust in, 134; strategies for building trust in, 134–143
Reliability dimension: characteristics of, 39; description of, 37; examples of, 37–39; institution-based trust characteristics and,
181; as organizational trust driver, 27
Reliability strategies: 1: assess reliability/trust in reliability, 134–137, 142; 2: develop culture of reliability, 137, 142–143; 3:
promote accountability, 137–139, 143; 4:
foster transparency, 139–142, 143
Reliable organizations: building trust in,
134–143; developing culture of reliability,
137, 142–143; distrust in reliability,
129–134; story illustrating the, 127–128;
trust in reliability, 128–129; USAA example as, 143–147
Resistance: active, 89; passive, 89
Results: architecture of, 68–69; competence organization and high-quality, 68–71; questions to ask about, 73; trust as fundamental for bottom-line, 21. See also Outcomes
Rewers, Angelique, 50, 63, 96–97, 197–198
Reynolds, Larry, 3–4, 5, 11
Risk: perceptions of, 89; trust and taking innovative, 185–189
Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 80, 81
Russell Investment Group, 21

S
Salmonella outbreak (2009), 86, 106
Sample, Steven, 80, 94
Sam’s Club, 19
Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 10
Sasson, Steven, 55
Save the Children, 165
Schultz, Howard, 12
Schwartz, Alan, 85
Sears, 68
Seator, Patricia, 105–106
Seeger, Matthew, 194
Self-management concept, 110–112
September 11, 2001, 81, 90
Severgnini, Beppe, 14
Shallow to deep trust continuum, 17–20
Sharpe, Peter, 68
SIETAR Congress (2008), 9
Singal, Jim, 18–19
Skorman, Richard, 105–106
Smith, John F., 136
Smither, Linda, 130–133
Social media, 91, 98, 199
Social Media for Communicators
Conference, 154
Social networking sites (SNS), 91,
98, 199
Sony, 56
Sophocles, 5
Southern Colorado Economic Forum, 8
Southwest Airlines: Nuts About
Southwest website of, 92; social media communication used by, 91; “the triple crown” rating of, 31; trust in employee competence by, 30–31; vision of, 49;
Zappos’ commitment to customer service studies by, 155
Stakeholders: distrust in competence by,
58–62; distrust in concern for, 112–118;
distrust in identification by, 157–159;
distrust in reliability by, 130–133; examples of concern for, 124–125; open and honest communication with, 81–83, 90–101;
on organization structure/execution,
52; regular trust feedback from, 214; trust in concern for, 108–112, 118–123;
trust driven by concern for, 27; trust in high-quality results by, 68–71; trust in identification by, 159–164. See also Concerned organizations
Stalin, Joseph, 80, 81
Standard & Poor’s, 144
Standard operating procedures (SOPs), 98
Stark, Peter, 56
Stayer, Ralph, 69, 70–71
Street Fighters: The Last 72 Hours of Bear
Stearns, The Toughest Firm on Wall Street
(Kelly), 86
TARP relief package, 8
Tata Management Training Centre, 63
TEC International Diversity Management, 9
Technology: organizational architecture and, 69; as trust building challenge, 173–174
Texas Department of State Health Services, 86
Thoreau, Henry David, 171
3M, 23, 186–188
Time-oriented cultural dimension, 176
Training/trust education, 213
Transparent communication: openness/honesty fostered by, 91–92; reliability fostered by, 139–142, 143; Zappos.com’s commitment to, 156
Transportation Safety Administration (TSA), 91
Truman, Harry, 80–81
Trust: as fundamental to innovation, 185–189; identifying productivity measures for monitoring, 209–211; job satisfaction, effectiveness, and, 28; organizational trust model with outcomes for, 172; positive transformations possible through, 215–216; regular feedback from employees/stakeholders on, 214. See also High-trust organizations
Trust building: challenges of, 171–199; for competence, 62–64; for concern, 118–125; in culturally diverse/global environment, 182–183; for identification, 159–167; “need to know” vs. “need to share” for, 79, 91, 92; for openness and honesty, 90–99; parameters for, 39; for reliability, 134–143; self-management concept for, 110–112; to sustain organizations during crisis, 192–196. See also Organizational trust; Organizations
Trust building challenges: of building trust for the future, 196–198; communication plan to address, 190–191; during conflict and crisis situations, 191–196; globalization as, 175–183; identifying the, 171–174; innovation, creativity, and risk as, 185–189; questions to develop strategies for, 190; virtual organization as, 183–185
Trust building strategies: aligning vision, strategic direction, operations, and trust, 212–213; for competence, 64–73; for crisis situations, 193–196; for culturally diverse/global environment, 182–183; developing communication strategy, 213–215; identifying productivity measures for trust monitoring, 209–211; for openness/honesty, 92–99; overcoming distrust, 204–208; policies and procedure review, 211–212; for reliability, 134–142; understanding distrust as, 201–204; for virtual organizations, 184–185
Trust in competence: building, 62–64; Fiat’s experience in building, 74–75; strategies for building, 64–73
Trust in concern: building, 118; examples of building, 124–125; strategies for building, 119–123
Trust in concern strategies: 1: assess concern for stakeholders, 119–120, 122; 2: assess policies and practices demonstrating concern, 120, 122–123; 3: communicate concern for stakeholders, 121, 123; 4: align communication, policies, and practices supporting concern, 121, 123
“Trust crash,” 5
Trust education, 213
Trust gap, 11–12
Trust in identification: building trust in, 159–160; strategies for building trust in, 160–164
Trust model. See Organizational trust model
Trust in openness/honesty: building trust in, 90–92; description of, 81–83; strategies for building trust in, 92–99
Trust in openness/honesty strategies: 1: assess openness and honesty and trust, 92–93, 100; 2: assess communication practices, 93–94, 100; 3: assess leadership communication, 94, 100, 100–101; 4: develop core communication capabilities, 94–95; 5: develop the communication plan, 95–99, 101
Trust in reliability: building, 128–129; strategies for, 134–142
Trust in reliability strategies: 1: assess reliability/trust in reliability, 134–137, 142; 2: develop culture of reliability, 137, 142–143; 3: promote accountability, 137–139, 143; 4: foster transparency, 139–142, 143
Twain, Mark, 56, 77
Twitter, 91

U
Uncertainty: anti-social behaviors and, 153, 157; lack of information leading to, 89
Uncertainty avoidance cultural dimension, 176
UNICEF, 165
Unilever, 32, 48, 54
United Arab Emirates, 124
United Nations, 37–38
The United States Intelligence Community Information Sharing Strategy (2008), 101–104
University of Bucharest, 38
University of Colorado Foundation, 4
University of Notre Dame, 69
US Airways, 17, 18
U.S. automobile industry bailout (2008), 18
U.S. Department of Transportation Consumer Report, 30
U.S. Justice Department, 86
U.S. Northern Command, 90–91
U.S. Presidential Medal of Freedom, 51
U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 10
USA Today, 9, 18
USA: background information on, 143–144; focus on reliable customer service by, 144–147; high performance level maintained by, 144

V
Values. See Core values
Valujet (AirTran), 159
van der Wielen, Reggy P.J., 32, 54, 55
Virtual organizations: building trust in, 184–185; trust education for members of, 212; unique characteristics of, 183–184
Vision: aligning strategic direction, operations, trust, and, 212–213; building trust in competence by assessing, 65–66; of competent organizations, 48; four core purposes of, 48–50; IKEA Group’s, 165–166; innovation as central to 3M, 187; leadership relationship to, 51
Vision statements, 48–49
Visionary companies: core ideology of, 152; examples of, 23

W
Wal-Mart, 19, 67–68
Wall Street Journal, 85
Wall Street meltdown, (2008), 5, 18, 113–114
Waller, Sarah, 77–79
Washington, Booker T., 185
Washington Mutual, 18
Water, Ethos, 50–51
Watson Wyatt study (2002), 21
“We versus them” behavior, 6–7
Weber Shandwick/KRC Research survey (2008), 9
Wells Capital Management, 8
Wellstone, Paul, 90
West Zone (Philips Medical Systems), 32, 52
Western Educational Corporation, 130–133
WorldWork Ltd., 9

X
Xe, 159

Y
YouTube, 98, 156

Z
Zappos.com: culture, values, and identification of, 153–157; social media used by, 91, 92
Zeller’s, 68