Index

AARP 310
acculturation 129
Aday, L. A. 247
adherence to treatment—factors affecting 37–8 advance care directive 79–80
African Americans 131, 132, 136, 246, 314, 315 cancer risk 315
healthcare decisions 319
ageism 127–8
aging population
  aging and health prospects 56 and cost of drugs 168 humor and aging process 102–3 impact of 16
  institutional care 57
Alaska Natives 132
alcohol abuse 6
  in media 219–20
Alcoholics Anonymous 111, 112, 138
alcoholism 139, 220
Al-Qaeda 244
alternative medical approaches 9, 125, 132–4, 136, 215
Alzheimer, Dr Alois 72
Alzheimer’s disease 71, 72–3
American Hospital Association 162
American Medical Association (AMA) 21, 133, 162 and body image 218
  on handling bad news 40–1
American Nurses Association 162
anorexia and bulimia 217–18
Asian Americans 132, 315, 326
Association of Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology 160 at-risk communities 12, 245–8, 236 benefits of social networks 117 health initiatives 252–4
  and HIV/AIDS 242
  persistence of risky behaviour 252–3 audience analysis surveys 271 avian flu 4, 243
baby talk with seniors 76–7
bad news:
  communicating 20, 21, 39–41
  defined 40
  demographic effects of giving bad news 41–2 Bandura, A. 263
barriers to culturally sensitive healthcare 132–3 behavioral change 261
behavioral intentions 264

© 2013 John Wiley & Sons, Inc. Published 2013 by John Wiley & Sons, Inc.
bereavement counseling 64
Bhopal, India 237
biomedical model
  approaches 225
  of health 127
  of medicine 9
biotechnology companies 167–9 bioterrorism 267
body dysmorphic disorder 218–19 body image 145, 208, 217, 218 bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE) outbreak 237 breast cancer 97, 254, 255, 265 African Americans and 137, 138 avoidance focused coping 101 and family history 61
  media and 225
  problematic integration therapy 29 psychological impact 113
Brinson, S. L. and M.H. Brown 249
California and marijuana usage laws 322 Campbell, Dr T. Colin 325 cancer 4, 17, 57, 147, 254–5 advanced care directives 80 attitudes towards in Japan 129 changing terminology 143 communicating cancer risk 255 and communication issues 112–13 and diet 325–6
  and health literacy 318
  and holistic approach 134 impact of cultural diversity 126 impact of spirituality 136 links to death and dying 140–1 management of cancer 141
  and the media 225
  and social networks 106, 107–8, 140 stigma associated with cancer 60–1, 139, 140–1 capitation 22
caregiving 55ff breakdown of caregivers 57 caregiver communication 59, 60 caregiver roles 59–60
  caregiver’s burden 59
  caregivers as liaison providers 62 caregiving and caregivers’ health 57, 58 changes in relationships 60–1 characteristics of caregivers 56–8 communicating problems to others 63 communication and caregiving 55, 58 communication of emotional support 63 discussion of terminal illness 62 distance family caregiving 55, 58 interactions between caregivers and patients 61–2 numbers in the US 55, 82 relations with patients 105 responsibilities of caregivers 59
  topic avoidance 59–60
cell phones and patient prescriptions 192 Center for Disease Control (CDC) 7, 185, 192, 201, 239, 243–4, 249, 334
  health campaigns 260, 261, 271
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 10, 160, 162, 216 Centers for Medicare and Medicaid 66 children and malnutrition 241 chronic disease populations 37 church and spiritually based health interventions 137 cigar smoking 220–1
clinical preceptorships. 168 cognitive complexity 109 cognitive decline 70, 71 comforting messages, impact of 109–10 Commission on Health Communication, (Speech Communication Association) 6–7 communication accommodation theory (CAT) 31–2, 44 communication competence 60 and psychosocial concerns 68–9
  and stress 175
  and topic of death and dying 78–80
Communication Privacy Management Theory 23 communication skills training 20–1, 131 as not being “soft science” 21 communicating about illness 107–8 communication
  communication and creation of reality 127 and health issues 143
  and social support process 108–10
  and support groups 116
  within systems 160–1
communications, computers 183ff
and advertising 195
disadvantages 194–5
privacy issues 194–5
communicative predicament of aging model 71 community based health initiatives 252–4 Community Health Accreditation Program (CHAP). 66 community involvement and influencing health behavior 254 companions and provider interactions 45 competition in healthcare 22 computer-mediated support groups 189 advantages and disadvantages 189–90 creation of equality 190 therapeutic benefits of text communications 191 conceptualization of self 60 Congressional Budget Office 312 consumers, healthcare 187
continuing medical education (CME) 195–6 Coombs, T. 250, 251
coping strategies and health 100–3 types 101
cosmetic surgery 218–19
costs of healthcare 22 crisis communication 238, 239–40, 334 crisis communication center (CCC) teams 251 crisis management plans 250, 251 cross-cultural communication 188 cues to action, concept of 265–6 cultivation theory 209–10 cultural approach to organizations 166 cultural competence 125 cultural differences in concepts of healthcare 127–31 American populations 130
among immigrants 127–30 cultural diversity and healthcare 16–17 cultural attitudes towards health 124, 128 cultural expectations and healthcare 26 cultural misunderstanding 319 culture as a dynamic concept 124 and conceptions of health and illness 124 culture and mortality 131–2 curative approach to illness 9, and death 9 current challenges to the healthcare system 8ff Dearing, J. W. 247
death education 64
attitudes towards death and dying 77–8, 80, 115 communicating with others about death and dying 78–80 coping with death of loved ones 80–2 typology of attitudes towards death 77–8 dementia 66, 71, 72
Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) 10, 162, 195, 317
Department of Homeland Security 10, 250–1 dependent older adults 57 depression 245
and HIV 321
and humor 102
and LGT individuals 315 diet and disease, links 325–6 diffusion of innovations model and theory 249, 269 digital divide 187, 188 direct-to-consumer marketing 167–8 disadvantaged populations 314, 319–20 discourse management 44–5
discrimination and health disparities 315 disease and illness, difference between 128 chronic diseases 235–6
and risk communication 235–6 disease susceptibility, changing 235 diversity issues 148
do not resuscitate orders 79, 80, doctors see physicians documentaries and unhealthy eating 217 Dutta-Bergman, M. J. 213, 218 dying, process of 56
coping with stigma 83
eating disorders 217–18, 320 electronic medical records (EMR) 193–4 emotional labor 174
emotional support for caregivers 63 for patients 97
end-of-life care 66, 77 environmental barriers to communication 76 environmental health threats 245, 255 environmental injustice 240, 247
environmental threats 240 estem support 97
ethnic grouping and hospice care 67 ethnic minorities 319
ethnomedical belief systems 127 European Association for Communication and Healthcare 6 expenses, surveillance of 174–5 extended parallel process model 266–7 Exxon-Valdez accident 238 face-to-face support groups 104, 107 family decision making 97–8 and healthcare 98

family identity 61
Federal Trade Commission’s Fair Information Practices guidelines 195 focus groups 272, 279
food, unhealthy 325
preferences 326–7
Fox, Michael J. 311
funding for health research 10
gay men:
and discrimination 315
and HIV/AIDS 140, 223, 246, 268
prejudice against 246, 321
global and large-scale health threats 240–5 Global Outbreak Alert and Response Network (GOARN) 252 grieving 80–1
reactions to grief 81–2

Harwood, Jake and Lisa Sparks 143, 253 health and aging 8
health awareness 261
health behaviour 278, and values 263–4 health belief model 265 health beliefs 3, 146, 187, 273 and impact on healthcare 28 impact of religion and spirituality 135ff
health campaigns 8, 319
audience analysis 270–2 audience segmentation 272–3 campaign arc and analysis 280–2 campaign evaluation 279, 280 channels and message dissemination process 277–9 culturally centered 145–6 definitions 259, 260
design 260
determining goals 261–2 diffusion of innovations theory 269
extended parallel process model 266–7 health communication campaigns 6 inoculation theory 275
message design and dissemination 3, 4, 313–14 message failure 270
on TV 259
pilots 280
problem formulation 276 process of conducting health campaigns 270–9 prospect theory 275–6
sleeper effect 281
social cognitive theory 262–4 social scientific approach 261 stages of change model 267–9
tailoring messages 278–9
theoretical approaches 262–9 two-sided persuasive messages 275 use of fear 266–7
using persuasive messages 274–5

Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act 2010 311–12 health communication 3, 10 and cultural attitudes 125 and healthcare reform 310 and the dying 56
culturally sensitive communication 188 defining 5–6
emerging trends 331–2, 335–6 history of health communication research 6–8 interaction between provider and patient 17–18 learned research and publications 6–7, 8 views of healthcare, provider and patient 18ff see also Internet, health-related websites health disparities 314–16
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) 163, 169–70, 195 effect on medical research 170 and providers and patients 170
health insurance 38, 46, 157, 159, 172, 200, 316 changes in 10
health insurance organizations 162, 163 and older people 8, 43–6 see also Medicare, Medicaid health interventions 319–20
health literacy 36, 68, 147, 315, 317–19
and disadvantaged populations 319, 320 diversity of access to 125 impact of health literacy 318 Internet and literacy issues 187–8 health maintenance behaviour 4, health maintenance organizations (HMOs) 172, 200–1 health news stories in the media 222–6, issues arising 223–5
health organizations 3, 155ff communication cycles 164 communication within organizations 163–5 organizational hierarchy 157 health problems, risk factors for 236 health divide 236
health related websites 184, 311
benefits of 189–91
credibility of 186
sponsorship of 198
health risk messages 3
communicating 127
communication strategies for addressing 248–52
health workers 59
healthcare apps 185–6
healthcare consumers, marketing to 167–8 healthcare debate 310–11 healthcare in the media 311 healthcare delivery service organizations 162 healthcare information, sources of 312–13 access 184–6, 315
health information 3
health information seeking behavior 213–14 and new technology 183ff healthcare insurance and hospices 66 healthcare legislation 319 healthcare organizations 3, 156ff characteristics of systems 159–61 complexity of message routes 164–5 costs of systemic problems 160 and healthcare delivery 177 and healthcare teams 295 hierarchy 158
influences on organizations’ communications 167ff need for intra-systems communications 160–1 organization culture 165–7 organizational communication networks 165 positive outlook 166
as stakeholders 157, 295 stress and conflict in organizations 173–7 as systems 157–61
systems and patient care 158–9 types of healthcare organizations 161–2 healthcare professionals: and pain control 68 and ethnic diversity 126 diversity of professionals 285–6 socialization into cultures 147 training provision 147
healthcare reforms 309ff healthcare risks, communication of 320 healthcare services: in US 4 barriers to healthcare access 332 challenges to healthcare provision 30 cultural conceptions 147 healthcare system and the dying 56 and impact of long-distance caregiving 58 innovation in communication 183–4 and new technologies 10–11 patient satisfaction with healthcare 36 satisfaction with healthcare 5 structure of system 19
healthcare settings and stakeholders 131, 29 healthcare system problems 316, 319 healthcare teams 285ff building and maintaining trust 291 communication styles 300 conflict management 299–300 consensus building 300–2 continuum and models 288–9 decision making process 296–8 decision making standards 294–6 effective communication 298–9 efficient teams 293
factors in success 287, 302–3 goal setting 293
Index

healthcare teams (con’t) impact on patient care 287 importance 286–8
measuring results 294 patient centered focus 301–2 performance-based team structure 293 role congruence 298
sense of ownership 290–2 significance of training and cooperation 287 synergistic healthcare team model 289–92, 303 team efficiency 301,302 team norms 301
team synergy 298–302
training 288
types of 293
healthcare, tension between different approaches 9–10 healthcare-associated infections (HAIs) 160 HealthNet 192
health-related crises 236 Healthy People 2010 314 heart attack 24, 73, 99, 255 heart problems and choice of pharmaceuticals 168 helping, being helped by 115–16
Hispanics 131–2, 136, 144, 145, 188, 246, 315
HIV/AIDS 4, 17, 111, 210, 236, 255 analysis of risk 253
communication strategies 127, 143, 249–50, 263 creating message content 273–7 and fear of knowing 29, 30, 100, 101 and gay men 246, 268, 321
and the media 210, 221, 223–4, 275
as global threat 236, 241–2, 255, 268 heterosexuals and 241–3, 253, 268
HIPAA and 169, 195
“innocent victims” 246
need for long term care 57, 68, 96
networks 111, 117, 190
and safe sex 268
social cognitive theory and AIDS prevention 263 stigma 97, 113, 139, 140, 320–1, 327 targeting audience 274
transtheoretical model 268 use of fear in health campaign 267 and the Web 185, 190, 192 holistic approach to healthcare provision 34, 133, 134, 166 homeopathic treatments 9 homophobia 139
hospice and palliative care 7, 59, 63–7, 68, 83, 170 barriers to hospice care 65–7, 83 history 64–5
hospice services and care 65 interdisciplinary teams 67 and Medicare 171
and topic of death and dying 78
Hospice Inc 64
hospitals 112, 132, 161, 170, 248, 313
and advertising 166, 167, 169
and competition 22
electronic records and communication 191, 192, 193, 195, 271, 335
goal setting 293
and healthcare system 162, 163, 162, 301
health insurance 171, 172, 198
and hospices 65, 67, 76
hospital structure and systems 158–9, 164–5, 166 medical research 170
and nursing homes 75, 157
patients’ safety 160
range of providers 19
religion and hospitalization 136, 137 support for staff 176, 296 Human capital 248
humor as coping mechanism 102, and aging process 102–3 Hurricane Katrina 238, 239
hyperpersonal interaction 190 hypothalamic–pituitary–adrenal (HPA) 99 illegal immigrants 246–7, 310 illness, communicating about 107–8 and cultural perceptions of 127 non-communication about illness 189 and people’s sense of identity 144 images in the mass media 3 immigrants and healthcare 26, 124, 126ff, 247–8, 320, 333
acculturation 129
informed consent 129–30
Index

linguistic issues 124, 126 mistreatment of healthcare system 126 impact of TV on lifestyles 216–17 individuals and healthcare 225–6 Infectious Diseases Society of America 160 information overload 96 informational support 96–7
informed consent 129–30
Institute of Medicine 160 insurance companies and hospices 66 insurance and managed care 171–3 interactions between different social groups 31 interactive starvation 76 intercultural communication 3 training programs 125, 333–4 intergenerational barriers 58
International Communication Association (ICA), Therapeutic Communication interest group 6 International Disaster Database in Brussels, Belgium 238 international health communication issues 327 Internet 3, 93, 108
attempts to create guidelines 186 credibility of information 186–7 and health tourism 319
and healthcare information 183, 184ff and social needs 212
underserved populations 187–8
Web 2.0 187
interpersonal relationships 3

JCAHO 162
Johnson, Magic 275
Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) 66

Kaid, Lynda Lee 309, 310
Kaplan, Roger 238
Kevorkian, Dr Jack 324
Korsch, B. and F Negrete 6
Kubler-Ross, Elizabeth 64

language and health 8
Latinos 314
learned helplessness 96
LGT individuals and health disparities 315

Lippke, S. and J. P. Ziegelmann 268–9 litigation 296, see also medical malpractice living wills 79–80
long-term illnesses, people and 56, 57
Love Canal, New York neighbourhood 237 lower income individuals 315

managed care 22–3, 45–6
institutionalized older adults 75–7 and the Internet 200–1
limits to relationship between aging and ill-health 70 and polypharmacy issues 74–5 marginalized groups 246, 253–4 healthcare campaigns 261–2 marijuana, debate over medical use 322–3 mass media
and cosmetic surgery 218–19
and eating habits 216–18, 325 and HIV epidemic 268
influence of media 209–10 needs fulfilled by mass media 210–14 and patients’ expectation 25–6 and people’s health 8, 208ff media: and eating disorders 216–18 and acts of violence 219
advertising of prescription medications 221–2 alcohol 219–20
and crisis management 251 and health behavior 214–18, 221 health news stories 222–6
issues arising 223–5
media and marijuana 323 media bias and inaccuracies 225–6 media use and social need 212–14 media use patterns 188
negative influence of media on health behaviors 226–7 political bias 223
and substance abuse 219–21
Tea Party, media and healthcare 316 and tobacco 220–1
under and over reporting of issues 224–5 unrealistic portrayals 214–5 mediation 217, 219
Medicaid 38, 170–1, 310, 311, 314 medical advances and life expectancy 66 medical care, mainstream 64
NCI 2005 Health Information National Trends Survey revealed 213 negative support 96–7
networks
and coping with terrorism 252 and illnesses 189–90
strong and weak tie 106, 107–8, 190
new technologies:
and health campaigns 201–2
tailoring messages 201–2
Nimmo, Dan 309, 310
non-probability sampling 271
nonverbal communication 32–3, 35, 272 nurses 19, 147, 164, 165, 167, 174, 180, 213, 286 and continuing education 195 and end of life care 56, 65, 67, 68
and handling patients’ information 23
and HIPAA 169–70
interaction with patients 27, 43, 157, 313 nursing dissatisfaction 176–7 parish nurse programs 161, 162 as part of healthcare team 287–8, 289, 291, 298 role conflict 174
nursing home residents, requirements of 75–7 expense of 77
negative support 96
staff communication in nursing homes 76–7 training of staff 76
Obama, President Barack, healthcare reforms debate 309, 310, 312, 316
Obama administration and medical marijuana debate 323
obesity 130, 326
and influence of media 216–17
lifestyles 140, 212, 325
and mobility 73
older adults and advertising of medications 222
and discrimination 315
and health campaigns 278
older patients 141
and access to the Internet 187–8
and bad news 42–6
and cancer care 141
concerns and communication 69ff demographic changes 42–3
discourse management 44–5 failures in accommodation with providers 43–4 growing proportion in US 69 health concerns 69–70
managed care influence 45–6 negative media portrayal 215 physician attitudes to older patients 43 provider communication and companions 45 psychosocial concerns 43 relations with physicians 43–4 stereotypes 44
on-line support groups 7 optimal matching model 114–15
organ donation 82
Organizational information theory and healthcare organizations 163–5 overaccommodation 31, 44, 96
Oxycontin 277

Pacific Island Americans 132 pain 61–2
alleviation of 61
nonverbal clues 62
palliative care 7, 9–10, 67–9 barriers to palliative care 68–9 compared to curative care 67 pandemics 241ff
parent–child communication interventions 217 passive coping strategies 145
patient advocates 174
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010 (PPACA) 309, 310, 311, 316 patients
adherence to treatment 37–8, 278 barriers faced 143
and caregivers 59–61, 105
and changes in identity 60–1 communicating with 6, 36–8, 61–3, 174, 175, 183 communication 17ff, 25–30, 194
communication skills training 36
compromising by computer usage 194 consumeristic view 35–6 control of illnesses 34 conveying bad news 39–42
cultural attitudes 8, 9, 19, 26, 128, 130–3 disadvantages of communication technology 194–5
education of 37–8
emotional needs 166, 175
ethnic and cultural aspects 222, 315, 319–20, 333 factors affecting patient dissatisfaction 37
health literacy 315, 318–19 healthcare teams and 286–7, 288ff and health-related websites 186 and holistic medicine 134 hospitals and 159, 160, 162 impact of cost of medicines 168 impact of cultural perceptions 128 impact of overtechnical language and jargon 29, 38 impact of web-based information 196 improving knowledge 36, 37–8 lack of provider communication and malpractice 39 lack of providing details 133–4 legal rights 129
legislation 311–12, 314
and media 25–6, 211, 214–15, 222ff and medical organizations 172–3 need to ask for clarity 147 need to recognize provider limitations 36 negative attitudes 30–1 negative presentation 176 negotiating encounters 33 over and under medication 62 paternalistic views of healthcare 27, 30
patient advocates 174
patient centered care 34, 127 patient cues 25, 194
patient diversity and healthcare issues 125–7, 128 patients and emotional support 71 patient needs and goals 29–30 patient perceptions of healthcare 27–8 patient privacy and data protection 169–70, 194 patient provider relations 3, 7, 11 patient–patient communication 184, 189–91
Index

patients (con’t)
  patient–provider communications 4, 5 patient satisfaction 34, 36–7 patients and team building 301–2 perception of effective communication 41–2 perceptions of providers 26, 27 pharmaceutical advertising 222 reactions to bad news 41–2 and religion/belief systems 136–7
  social identity 143–5
  socialization 25–6
  stigma of particular illnesses 141, 142
  and support groups 115–16
  telemedicine 199–200
  theories about patient–provider relations 8 uncertainty 28–9
  see also healthcare teams, hospices, older patients, provider–patient communications, religion and spirituality patient–provider relations 56, 79, 80, 110ff, 124–5, 157, 163, 183, 322, 331 communicating risk 236, 248–9, 254–5 conveying bad news 39–42, 96
  cultural aspects 188
  nonverbal communication 35
  and older patients 42–6, 102, 127–8, 262
  patient satisfaction 146, 176, 213 satisfactory outcomes 36–8 unsatisfactory outcomes 18, 38–9 see also medical malpractice Pecchioni, L. and L. Sparks 213 personal interactive function 212–13 pharmaceutical companies 167–9, 171, 222 physical activity/mobility and health status 73–4 physicians: 157, 162
  and advanced care directives 79, 80 attitudes towards patients 25, 28, 255
  and caregivers 58
  end-of-life treatment 56, 66, 78
  and ethnic minorities 130
  and health literacy 318
  and HIPAA 170
  and marketing 167
  and mental health issues 142, 321 patients’ attitude towards doctors 26, 27, 31, 39, 186, 196, 213 and pharmaceutical advertising 167, 221, 222 physician resistance to use of web-based patient interaction 196–7 physician–patient communication 17, 18, 32ff, 96, 144, 197, 200 religious beliefs and contacting doctors 136 training of  19
  see also patient–provider communications political communication 313–14 politics and healthcare 309ff, 314ff and healthcare communication 311–13 politics of life and death 323–4 Politics of nutrition 324–7 polypharmacy 74–5 positive affect strategies 275
  post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) 245, 247 Preferred provider organizations (PPOs) 172–3 presbycusis 70–1
    impact on perceptions of caregivers 71 and paralinguistic cues 71 prescription medications, advertising of 221–2 preservation of life and quality of life 79 printed media and healthcare information 312 privacy and provider–patient relations 23
    internet 195
  privacy policies 169
  probability sampling 271 problematic integration theory 29, 102 problematic provider–patient communication 32–3 prostate cancer 113, 190, 265 Protocol International 131 providers 7, 83, 103, 105, 106, 109 addressing health risks 249 approaches to healthcare 9
    attitudes towards patients 7
    and bad news 40, 41, 42
    biomedical model of health and illness 128 caring for terminally ill 67 challenges 22–3
communicating with patients 10, 11, 20, 222, 320 communication training 20–1 constraints on providers 36 cost effectiveness of new technology 191 costs, time and communication behaviour 23
conveying bad news 39–42
cultural perceptions and barriers 124–3, 188, 315, 319, 333–4 dealing with patients 10 and discussing mortality 77–9 diversity 146–8
education 42, 196
electronic communication 192ff electronic medical records 193–4 and global health threats 236, 239–40
and health literacy 317, 319, 327
and healthcare organizations 157, 159, 162, 163, 173ff, 183–4 HIPAA 170
and hospices 66, 68
impact of incomplete information communication 35 improving skills 33–5
information acquisition 24–5
managed care 171–3
and media 211–12, 214–15
Medicare and Medicaid 171
and mistakes 29
modifying communication strategies 41, 336
and older patients 42–6, 69, 73, 74 outcome of communications 36–39 patient–provider communication 191ff, 197–8 perspectives 35–6
pharmaceutical marketing 167–9 poor communication skills 32–3, 56 privacy 23
provider diversity 146–8 provider perceptions of patients and communication 24–5, 110, 286–7 provider perspectives and needs 35–6 provider–patient communication outcomes 36–46 provider–provider communication 4, 122, 163, 191–4, 195 providers’ communication skills and patient satisfaction 37 providers and patient concerns 33–4, 98 reaction to patients’ attitudes 25 and religion 136–7
risk communication strategies 254–5 teams 286–8, 302, 312
technology and communication 192–3, 196ff, 331, 332 TV and provider–patient interaction 211 views of health and healthcare 18–20 see also healthcare teams, medical malpractice, patients psychosocial aspects of illness 9 psychosocial needs 34
public health issues 56 and collective responses 226 public health research 260
see also health campaigns public policy 261–2
racial discrimination 246, 247, 311, 315
Rawl, Lawrence G. 238 reciprocity issues 108
religion and spirituality 135–9
terms defined 135
religion and social support 137–8 and health 135ff, 287
right to life 323–4
risk and cultural norms 253 risk communication 8, 235ff risk and public perception 237–8 risk communication campaigns 253 risk communication and crisis communication 238–9 risk communication research 253 strategies at provider–patient level 254–5 term defined 236–7
trends and challenges 334 with at-risk and marginalized populations 252–4 Rogers, Everett 249, 269 role conflict and role ambiguity 174 role of Health Communication Research 8ff role models, unhealthy, in the media 215 Rosenblum, Daniel 255
Salmon C. and C. Atkin 273, 274, 278
“sandwich generation” 56
Saunders, Dame Cicely 64
Index

schema 27
Scherer C. W. and N. K. Juanill 252
Scholl, J. D. Williams, and B. Olaniran 251 self-efficacy 263
SeniorNet 188
sensation seeking trait 273
SENTAR approach 273
September 11 10, 236, 239, 243, 240, 267
Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS) 163, 210, 236, 243–4 sexual activities 139
changing 260, 261, 268, 269 dysfunction 113
information about 23
and media 140, 220, 221
orientation 26, 315, 321 patient privacy 194
problems with discussing 139–40 risky sex 202, 215, 224, 252, 273 safe sex 221, 237, 263, 268 sexual behavior 221
sexually transmitted diseases (STD) 185, 221, 222, 249
see also HIV/AIDS
sexuality 225
obsession with 139
Schiavo, Terri 323–4
smoking 4, 7, 24, 117, 129, 139, 221, 237, 253, 264, 319, 321 interventions and campaigns 136, 137, 186, 281, 269, 276, 314
and media 144, 215, 220
Social Amplification and Attenuation of Risk Framework 238 social capital 247
social cognitive theory 262–4
social comparison theory 104
social identity, 114, 253
and communication 144
and health 253
“level of self” 143
and mental illness 142
self-discrepancy 145
shifts in 61
social discrepancy theory 144–5 social identity theory 143–4 social implications of illness 139ff social information processing theory 190 social media 208, 212
social networks 104
communication within 100–11
strong tie and weak tie compared 105–6, 107–8 social obligations and constraints 108 social status as a risk factor 245–6 social support and health 8, 93ff buffering and main effects models 100
and communication 108–10
history of research into aspects 94 instrumental support 95, 96 interventions 116–17
models 98–103
positive and negative functions 96–8 reciprocity 104–5
social network 93
and stress 100–3
types of social support 94–5 Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America 160 socio-emotional selectivity theory (SST), 108
Sparks, L 252
Speech Communication Association (National Communication Association) 6 spirituality and health 7, 135–8
St Christopher’s Hospice, UK 64
standardized patients 21 Stanford 5-Cities project 263 states of change (SOC) model 268–9 stereotyping 58, 139, 188, 319, 333–4, in the media 215 stigma of health conditions 97, 118, 320–22 changing perceptions of stigmatized health issues 143ff and disease 139
stigmatized illnesses 321
storytelling as a means of communicating information 249 stress and health 98–100
health impact 98–9
job stress 176–7
provider stress 173–7
and social support 100–3, 109, 112 stress and conflict 175–6 and support 177
stress, morbidity and mortality 100 substance abuse 219–21
Index

support groups 42, 82, 111ff, 201, 252 communicating within 114–16
and communication 112–13
face-to-face 104
and helping others 115
models adopted 138
networks 94, 107
online 7, 12, 94, 95, 104, 107, 108, 185, 187, 189–91, 197 participation and health outcomes 116, 145 providing sense of common identity 98, 114 reasons for joining 112–14 sharing of narratives 114, 115 support providers 98, 110
optimal matching model with support seekers 114–15 perceptions of support providers 103–4 support provision, interactive nature of 110 supportive communication 93 inadequate support 112 surgery and global perceptions 128 sympathetic adrenal medullary (SAM) response system 99 systems and equifinality 160 systems theory 159

targeted health interventions 116 task-orientated talk 76
Tea Party 316
telemedicine 7
telemedicine/telehealth and patients 7, 199–200, 214 advantages 199
disadvantages 200
effect of crossing state boundaries 200 terminally ill patients 59, 174 communication problems 61 pain alleviation 61–2
reluctance to talk about terminal illness 62 terrorism 4, 212, 236, 244–5 biological terrorism 163 communication and crisis management 250–2 coping with psychological effects 251–2
defined 244
theory of reasoned action 264–6 third-party access to computer records 194–5
Three Mile Island 237
tobacco use 220–1
topic avoidance 59–60
transnational model 267–8
TV programs, influence of 209, 211, 259ff use of new communication technologies in healthcare 3 uses and gratifications theory 218
Veterans’ Administration Healthcare System 162
Viagra 221, 222
video games, impact of 219
"War on Drugs" 323
WebMD 196, 198, 210
Websites 311, 325
healthcare 184, 186, 192, 196
managed care 200–1
medical tourism 317
official 185
patient access to providers 198–9
privacy policy 196
and Web 2.0 187
White, Ryan 246

underaccommodation 44
unhealthy eating and mass media 216–17
US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 237–8 US: provision of healthcare in 4 causes of death in 4 changing ethnic balance 125–6 cultural diversity 125
history of communication campaigns 6 medical malpractice suits 38–9
obesity 4
use and gratification theory 210
use of new communication technologies in healthcare 3
Veterans’ Administration Healthcare System 162
Viagra 221, 222
video games, impact of 219
"War on Drugs" 323
WebMD 196, 198, 210
Websites 311, 325
healthcare 184, 186, 192, 196
managed care 200–1
medical tourism 317
official 185
patient access to providers 198–9
privacy policy 196
and Web 2.0 187
White, Ryan 246
Wilson, Representative Joe  309
Witte, K  266–7
women and healthcare  26, 61, 107
  as caregivers  57–8
cosmetic surgery  218–19
  and eating disorders  218 and exercise  73

and HIV/AIDS  241–2
  and sex work  242–3
Women’s Health Initiative  254–5 work–life conflict  174
World Health Organization (WHO)  243, 244 world hunger  241