Index

A

Accounting: to calculate overhead ratios, 96–97; philanthropic equity added to rules for, 146–149

Advertising: donated, 63, 189; to educate public about humanitarian sector, 61–63, 65; expenditures for consumer brands vs. charities, 63–67; in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 16; recommended spending on, 74–75, 196; social media as complementing, 81–82, 84; as tool for creating reputation, 59–60, 61

Advertising campaigns: to deflect blame for high gas prices, 71; development of, 87–89; to educate public about fundraising expenditures, 78–80; execution of, 90–92; “Got Milk?” 72–74, 88; “I’m overhead,” 75–78, 186, 190; “incredible, edible egg,” 67–70; of pork producers, 70–71; research as prerequisite for, 85–87

Advocacy organizations: of diverse communities, 49–52; Independent Sector, 51, 69–70, 171. See also Charity Defense Council

AIDS: author’s work focusing on, 10–12; salary of head of charity helping people with, 38–40; movement focusing on, 197; organization protesting reporting on, 50

Alcoholics Anonymous, 181

Alvanos, Alexander, 167–169

American Cancer Society, 2

American Charities for Reasonable Fundraising Regulation (ACFRFR): proposed Charity Defense Council partnership with, 121–127; structure and financing of, 105, 112; work on important cases, 105–112
American Egg Board (AEB), “incredible, edible egg” campaign, 67–70
American Institute of Philanthropy (AIP), 48
American Petroleum Institute (API), 71
Americans with Disabilities Act, 131
Anti-Defamation League, 29, 49, 52
Apple: differences between humanitarian sector and, 13, 63, 113, 135; “1984” Mac ad, 88; tools for creating reputation of, 60
Armstrong, Neil, 8, 193
Aronson, Jennifer, 155–157
Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund, 105
Aviv, Diana, 150–152
Avon Products Foundation, breast cancer walks produced by, 14–15, 200n23
Blitzer, Wolf, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 58
Borochoff, Daniel, 48
Boys & Girls Clubs: executive compensation at, 29–38; spending on lobbying and travel, 37
Breast cancer: deadline for ending, 195; Komen for the Cure spending on, 65, 66; movement focusing on, 197; walks benefiting, 11, 14–15, 200n23
Breast Cancer Alliance, “I’m overhead” ad for, 75–77
Bremner, Robert, 3
Brewer, Cassady V., 169–171
Bush administration, 193
California Milk Processor Board (CMPB), “Got Milk?” campaign, 72–74, 88
Cancer, 134–138. See also Breast cancer
Cancer Challenge, Inc., 134–138, 140
Cause Corps, 142
Causes: cost of fundraising for popular vs. lesser-known, 99–100; definition of, 3, 19, 96–97; executive compensation as investment in, 32; overhead as part of, 18–20, 76–78

Cavaney, Red, 71

Change: belief in possibility of, 198; coordinated effort to produce, 196–198; in public opinion of charities, 5–7, 53; in public opinion on gays and lesbians, 51; in system for creating change, 28

Charitable giving: advertising to increase, 70–71, 74, 75, 92; deadline for increasing, 195; by wealthy individuals, 169–171

Charitable purpose, defining fundraising as having, 139–141

Charities: facilitating reporting by, when seeking grants, 171–172; influence of public opinion on behavior of, 6–7; proposed national database of, 141–145; public opinion of, 1–4, 195; public vs. private, 169–170; “rule book” for, 15–18. See also Humanitarian sector

Charity Defense Council: actions to change relationship with media, 56–58; actions to correct misconceptions of humanitarian sector, 85–92; becoming member of, 180; crafting of civil rights legislation by, 131, 177; deadlines and goals for, 195; donating to, 180; founding of, 27–28; “I’m overhead” marketing campaign, 75–78, 186, 190; one-thing-a-day list, 184–185; proposed ACFRFR partnership with, 121–127; rapid response media team, 183–184; research on impact of low overhead, 185–186; ways to help, 180–191; Web site, 180, 181, 182, 190; working on meetings or seminars for, 180–183, 186–189

Charity Navigator: on executive compensation in humanitarian sector, 47–48; salary of head of, 48; as source of information on charities, 43, 54, 55, 143

Charting Impact (CI), 171–172

Clow, Lee, 88

CNN, on executive compensation at Boys & Girls Clubs, 29–38

Compensation. See Executive compensation

Copilevitz, Errol, 111, 112, 154–155

Corporations: for-profit charities within, 138–139; for-profit foundations created as, 133–138

Csaki, Roland, 83
Cuomo, Andrew: investigated executive compensation in New York nonprofits, 41–42, 43, 44–45; restricted executive compensation in New York nonprofits, 102, 103

D
Dairy Management, “Got Milk?” campaign, 74
De Tocqueville, Alexis, 2
Deadlines: for Charity Defense Council, 195; value of, 193–195
Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund, 105
Disney Company, 33, 63–64, 65
Donations: to Charity Defense Council, 180; restricted, 35–36; targeted, 110–111

E
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 9
Employees, job dissatisfaction of, 104
Erhard, Werner, 8, 194
Excess business holdings rule, 163–165
Executive compensation: at Boys & Girls Clubs, 29–38; Charity Navigator on, 47–48; deductibility of, for for-profit foundations, 138; Florida cap on, of charity leaders, 118–119; at Food & Friends, 45–47, 48; in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 15–16; as investment in cause, 32; at Long Island Association for AIDS Care, 38–41; New York governor’s attack on, 41–45; New York restrictions on, 102–103
Exempt purpose, IRS definition, 134
Exxon, 37

F
Facebook: American Petroleum Institute’s page, 72, 84; as complement to paid advertising, 82, 83, 84; “Got Milk?” page, 74; “I’m overhead” campaign, 78; “incredible, edible egg” campaign, 69–70; Independent Sector page, 69–70; pork producers’ page, 71
Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 121, 125, 161–162
Florida: cap on salaries for charity leaders, 118–119; Pinellas cases on charity regulations of, 106–109, 124–125
Food & Friends, executive compensation at, 45–47, 48
For-profit charities, created by corporations, 138–139

For-profit foundations, 133–138; benefits of, 137; features of, 136–137; for-profit corporations vs., 133–136; questions about, 137–138; tax-exempt nonprofits vs., 136

For-profit sector, rules for humanitarian sector vs. for, 15–16

Fraud: creating task force for dealing with, 122; overhead costs and, 97–98, 110; policymakers’ focus on, in charities, 41–44, 120–121, 162–163; registration regulations and, 127

Fuller, Buckminster, 28

Fundraising: ad campaign to educate public about expenditures for, 78–80; defining, as having charitable purpose, 139–141

Fundraising cost ratio. See Overhead ratio

GiveWell, 143

Government: ensuring humanitarian sector independence from, 159–161; executive compensation at nonprofits receiving funding from, 41–45; loan program to cover delayed reimbursements by, 150–152; national charitable impact estimate by, 149–150; registration regulations of states, 125–127; regulation of charities by FTC, 125, 161–162

Grants, facilitating reporting by charities seeking, 171–172

Grassley, Chuck, Boys & Girls Clubs attacked by, 29, 31–32, 33, 34, 38, 102

GreatNonprofits, 143

Grogan, Paul, 155–157

Growth: nonprofit accounting change to facilitate, 146–149; public policy undermining, 98–99; through collaborations and mergers, 155–157

H

Hodges, Martin, 76, 77

Huffington Post, 43

Hugo, Victor, 193

Human Rights Campaign, 52
Humanitarian sector: desire for change in, 20–24; dissatisfaction of employees in, 104; double standard for spending in for-profit vs., 32–38; limited size of organizations in, 17; “miniaturized ambitions” of, 75; multi-pronged effort to produce change in, 196–198; national advocacy organization, 51; need for leadership movement in, 25–27; number of employees in, 52; tendency to accept difficulties, 130–131; use of terminology, xiii; victimization of, 7. See also Charities

Hunger: author’s work on, 8–10; deadline for ending, in American children, 195

Hunger No More, 77–78

Hunger Project, 8–9, 194

I

Iger, Robert, 33

Independent Sector, 51, 69–70, 171

Independent sector. See Humanitarian sector

IRS: defining fundraising as having charitable purpose, 139; excess business holdings rule, 163–165; exempt purpose definition, 134; progress report requirement for new tax-exempt organizations, 152–153; and public-private partnership to improve charities’ effectiveness, 157, 158; tax-exempt status standards of, 154–155; taxonomy for exempt entities, 167–169

J

Jobs, Steve, 88

K

Kamprad, Ingvar, 163

Kennedy, John, 24, 193, 194

Kennedy, Robert, 5

Komen for the Cure, 65, 66

Kroger, John, 93, 101

L

Lambda Legal, 52, 105

Lane, Marc J., 165–167

Lang, Robert M., 173–174

Law of unintended consequences, 94–95

Laws. See Public policies

Leadership movement, needed in humanitarian sector, 25–27. See also Charity Defense Council

Leahy, Norman, 107
Legal defense fund: created by ACFRFR partnership with Charity Defense Council, 121; need for, 104–105, 119–121; tasks of, 122–127

Legislation. See Public policies

Lenkowsky, Leslie, 163–165

Lennon, John, 179

Light, Paul C., 4

Loan program, to cover delayed government reimbursements, 150–152

Lobbying: humanitarian vs. for-profit sector spending on, 37; by private foundations, 145–146

Lockheed Martin, 33

Los Angeles, disclosure statute for charities, 112–117

Low-profit limited liability company (L3C), 173–174
M

Madigan v. Telemarketing Associates, 110
Maehara, Paulette, 23
Mangano, Edward, 40
Manning, Jeff, 72, 73
Maragos, George, 39
Marketing campaigns. See Advertising campaigns
McGovern, Gail, 47

Media: actions to change relationship with, 56–58; Charity Defense Council’s team for rapid response to, 183–184; distorted reporting on executive compensation in charities, 29–48; educating reporters in, 53–56; lack of organization to respond to distorted reports in, 30–31, 33, 40, 48, 49, 52–53; oversimplified opinions spread by, 2; paid vs. nonpaid, 59–60, 61; reputation created by, 59–61
Media, paid. See Advertising
Mendenhall, Lawrence, 145–146, 174–176
Merton, Robert K., 94, 95
Mexican-American Legal Defense and Educational Fund (MALDEF), 105
Microsoft, 33

N

NAACP, 49, 52, 105
National Breast Cancer Coalition, 195, 197
National Civil Rights Act for Charity and Social Enterprise: crafting of, 131, 177; humanitarian sector leaders’ thinking on, 130–131; issues to be covered by, 131–133; statement of purpose, 129–130. See also Legislation, proposed
National Gay & Lesbian Task Force, 52
National Multiple Sclerosis Society of New York, 83–84
National Pork Board (NPB), 70–71
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 167–168
Neruda, Pablo, 198
New Jersey, proposed regulation on targeted gifts, 110–111
New York: governor’s investigation into executive compensation at nonprofits, 41–45; restrictions on executive compensation in charities, 102–103
New York Post, on executive compensation at AIDS care organization, 38–40
NFF Capital Partners, 148
Nonprofit Overhead Cost Project, 97, 185–186
Nonprofit sector, xiii. See also Humanitarian sector
Nooyi, Indra, 33

O
Obama, Barack, 51
Oregon, legislation on charities’ overhead ratios, 93–94, 96–101, 120
Ottenhoff, Bob, 152–153
Out of the Darkness walk, 12
Overhead: consequences of focus on, 20, 23; consequences of low, 6–7; double standard on, in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 32–38; educating reporters on, 53–56; flaws in asking about, 18–20; “I’m overhead” advertising campaign, 75–78, 186, 190; lack of advertising to educate public about, 61–63; laws requiring disclosure of, 112–118; public concern with, 5; public opinion on charities’ spending on, 3, 4; research on impact of low, 185–186
Overhead ratio: for breast cancer walks, 14–15, 200n23; information on, on Web sites, 20, 62; lack of standard definition of, 97; transparency of, 96–97; U.S. Supreme Court rulings on, 98, 162
Overholser, George, 146–149
Oxfam America, 9, 10

P
Pallotta, Dan: history of humanitarian sector work by, 7–12; Pallotta TeamWorks founded by, 12–15, 200n23; Uncharitable, 15–18, 20–24
Pallotta TeamWorks, 12–15, 200n23
Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG), 52
Pay for performance, 174–176
Pay-for-success bonds, 165–167
Penn, Sean, 198
PepsiCo, 33
Peters, Geoffrey, 104, 112, 126, 161–163
Philanthropedia, 143
Philanthropic equity, 146–149
Pinellas cases, 106–109, 124–125
Powell, J. Enoch, 59
Private foundations: applying pay-for-performance to, 174–176; eliminating “stingy benevolence” by, 169–171

Profit: earned by for-profit foundations, 136, 138; in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 16

Public opinion: actions to correct misconceptions of humanitarian sector, 85–92; ad campaigns to counteract, about humanitarian sector spending, 75–80; of charities as wasting money, 1–4, 195; deadline for reversing, about charities, 195; of gays and lesbians, 51; influence of, on charities’ behavior, 6–7; reason to not focus on, 6

Public policies: on disclosure by charities, 112–118; law of unintended consequences applied to, 94–95; need for organization to respond to poorly conceived, 96, 104–105, 119–121; proposed organization to deal with, 121–127; registration regulations of states, 125–127; restricting compensation of charity leaders, 102–103, 118–119. See also Legislation, proposed; National Civil Rights Act for Charity and Social Enterprise Puritans, as source of ideas restricting charities, 17–18

R
Red Cross, 4, 47–48
Registration regulations, 125–127
Reputation, media as creating, 59–61
Research: on impact of low overhead, 185–186; to understand public’s view of humanitarian sector, 85–87
Ride for Life, 10
Risk taking, in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 16
Rodriguez, Anthony, 78

S
Save the Children, 63–64
Secretary of State of Maryland v. Joseph H. Munson Co., Inc., 98
Share Our Strength, 9, 195
Shore, Bill, 149–150
Social impact bonds, 165–167
Social media: categories of, 81; as complements to paid advertising, 81–82, 84; “incredible, edible egg” campaign on, 69–70; myth of, as “free,” 82–84. See also Facebook
Social profit sector. See Humanitarian sector
Spillett, Roxanne, 29, 30, 31, 32, 36
Stanton, Barbara, 79
Steel, John, 73–74
Stichtung Ingka Foundation, 163
Sylvester, Lisa, 31

T
Takano, Mark, 10
Tax exemption: for-profit foundations and, 136–138; proposed progress report requirement for new organizations with, 152–153; revision of taxonomy for exempt entities, 167–169; setting new standards for, 154–155
Taylor, Art, 171–172
Telemarketing, 99–100, 110
Telemarketing Associates, Madigan v., 110
Tennessee, disclosure requirement for disaster relief organizations, 117–118
Third Sector Capital Partners, 148
Time horizon, in humanitarian vs. for-profit sector, 16
Toyota, 59
Transparency, and overhead ratios, 96–97
Travel, Boys & Girls Clubs spending on, 37
Tyler, John, 159–161

U
Unintended consequences: of attack on executive compensation at Boys & Girls Clubs, 35–36; of Cuomo’s investigation of salaries of nonprofit executives, 43–44; of Florida law regulating charities, 106–108; law of, 94–95; of New York restrictions on executive compensation, 102–104; of proposed New Jersey regulation on targeted donations, 110–111; of proposed Oregon law on overhead ratios, 93–94, 96–101
United Nations, Millennium Development Goals, 9
U.S. Chamber of Commerce, 37
U.S. Supreme Court: charity solicitation ordinances ruled unconstitutional by, 3; Madigan case, 110; Munson decision, 98; rulings on overhead ratios, 98, 162
Utah, lawsuit over charity regulations of, 109

W
Walker, Eric, 157–159
Washington Post, 48
Web sites: Charity Defense Council, 180, 181, 182, 190; as element of advertising campaign, 89; information on overhead on, 62; proposed national charity database, 141–145
Winthrop, John, 8