Subject Index

abbreviations 75, 126–127
  common 75
  measurement 76
Abstract section 4, 115–116
  creating with word processing 118 active voice 24–25
actual event, citing 34 agreement in number 22, 23 AIDS 67
alphabetization 102, 104, 105
American Psychological Association 2, 4, 44, 52, 73, 77, 78, 88, 101 anonymity 50
antecedent references 24
APA style in oral presentations 155–156
APA-style report, sections of 4 apostrophes 21, 22
appendixes 118
arguments, credibility of 5
Association for Psychological Science 73, 163 attrition 50, 52
averages 60–61, 62
bad statistic 65
bar chart 66
see also figures
bibliography 101
book references in reference list 109–111 author is also publisher 111 chapter in book 110
cited book 110
electronic version of print book 110 entire book 109
see also References section
capitalization 123–124
chartjunk 65
Children's Defense Fund 67
College Board 1, 4
common knowledge 13
communication effective 8–9 oral 6–7
written 6
confidentiality 50
connection between text and tables or figures 87
contractions 16, 23
Subject Index

data-to-ink ratio 66

describing common occurrences 37

descriptive statistics 71, 72

  presentation of 72

design of research 57, 58

Design subsection 57, 58

  elements of 57

deviations from APA style 5

differentiating results and discussion 68

Discussion section 4

  comparing results to others in 96–97

  connecting ideas in 94

  difference between Results and Discussion sections 87

  examples 93

  integrating ideas in 94

  starting 93

  summary of results in 92–93

ellipsis points 104

emotion, appeal to 5

encyclopedia entry reference 112

see also References section

ethical guidelines 14

ethics 19, 169

expressions

  colloquial 16

  vague 16

fictional scenario, creating 34–35

figures 82–87

  bar chart 66

  common elements 83

  frequency histogram 85–87

  histogram 66

  line graph 83, 84

  scatter diagram 85

footnotes 118

frequency histogram 85–87

  see also figures

frequently asked research questions 63

graduate school admission 2

grammar 9, 16–17

Greek letters 75, 77

Groups, labeling 20

headings 120–122

histogram 66

  see also figures

hyperlink 163, 165

HyperText Markup Language (HTML) 8, 163, 166

hypotheses 70–71, 92–93, 96

identifying scope of previous research 36

indent, hanging 105–106

informed consent 57

insignificant results 73, 95

  see also results

Internet publishing 8

  inserting images 166

  using word processing 164–166

  software 166–169

  metatags 166–167

Internet references 112

  see also References section

Introduction section 4, 34–37

  citing actual event 34

  citing quotation 36–37

  creating fictional scenario 34–35

  describing common occurrences 37

  identifying scope of previous research 36

  introducing a topic 33

  presenting statistic 36

  statement about important issue 35

italics 75, 77, 124–125

journal references in reference list 106–109 advanced publication of journal article 108 journal references in reference list (cont’d) 108 internet-only journal article 108 group author 109 journal article 107

journal article with more than seven authors 109 special issue of journal 109
see also References section

guidelines 153–155
preparation 156–158, 160 oral versus written English 151–152, 155

panda 15
paraphrase 11–13
participant assignment 57 participant characteristics 46 participant descriptions 48 participants 44–52
assignment of 57
demographics of 46
directions to 57
human participants 44–50, 52 recruitment of 45, 47, 49 passive voice 24–25
periodicals, format of references 107–109
see also References section
plagiarism 13–14, 169
plurals 26–28
possession, indicating 22
poster creating poster with PowerPoint 144–150 publishing on the Internet 168 poster presentations 7–8 reducing information 136–137 visual communication 135–136 visual style 137–142
poster session
attire 142–143
covering a poster 143–144 post-reinforcement pause 10 $P_{rep}$ 73
presentation references 113
see also References section
procedure 56–58
pronouns 21–22, 23, 24

language
hyperbolic 16
inclusive 19–20
technical 20–21

limitations of research, acknowledging 98–99

line graph 83, 84
see also figures

literature review 38–40

manuscript pages, order of 119

marginally significant results 74
see also results

materials 52–54
mean 61

measurement abbreviations 76
median 61
Method section 4

mode 61

negative reaction to statistics 59–60 newsletter reference 111

see also References section

nonsignificant results 73, 95

notes 79, 119
numbers
communicating with 61–62
presentation of 89–90
understanding 63–65

oral presentation

graphics 158–159
Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association

2, 4, 20, 25, 33, 44, 77, 88, 101, 121, 131

punctuation 119, 131–134

quotations 121, 125, 128–131 citing 36–37
long 129, 130–131
short 121, 125, 129, 130

References section 4, 101 format of 106–113
book references 109–111
encyclopedia entry 112
Internet references 112
newsletter articles 111 periodical articles 107–109 presentations 113
order of citations 105
see also book references in reference list; journal references in reference list references in text 101–105 chronological order of 104, 105 multiple sources in parentheses 104–105 one or two authors 102–103 personal communication 104 six or more authors 103–104
three to five authors 103

referents, clarity of 23–24 research design 57
research questions 63
results insignificant 73, 95
marginally significant 74 significant 73
results, implications of 97–98 Results section 4
difference between Results and Discussion sections 87

Roman letters 75, 77
running head 116–118
scatter diagram 85

section headings 120–122 self-determined motivation 11 self-plagiarism 14
short title 116
significance 63, 64
significant results, reporting 72–74
see also results
spelling 25
standard deviation 61
statistical significance 63, 64, 72–74 statistics
presentation of 36, 60, 74–77, 89–90
examples 64
use of 60–61
stimulus materials 52, 53–54 subject attrition 50, 52
subject characteristics 46 subject mortality 52
subjects 44–52
animal 50, 51, 55–56
nonhuman 50, 51, 55–56
symbols, statistical 76–77

tables 77–82
basic table 79

creating with word processing 81 means and standard deviations 79, 80, 82 Task Force on Statistical Inference 73 terror management theory (TMT) 40–42 title page 116–118
top-down approach 70
transitions 18–19
Type I error 95
uploading manuscript to the Internet 168 variables 57
verb forms 24–25
verbatim directions 57 word processing, using to create hanging indent for reference 105–106 word use, specific 25, 29–30 “Worst Social Statistic Ever” 67
writing bad-writing contest 8
effective 17–19
ethical 10–14
good habits 9–10
problems 21–24
professional 2–3
scientific 2–3
writing style 16
colloquial expressions 16
contractions 16
hyperbolic language 16
vague expressions 16