Index

Additional consideration
  type-1 prosthesis
    bone level/trans-mucosal, 379 implant and pontic positioning for optimal esthetics, 381–383 loading protocols and transition phase, 380–381
    staged treatment, 379–380
    timing of placement, 379
    type-2 prosthesis
      implant design and number, 387
      loading protocols, 388
      staged treatment and transition phase, 387–388
Adjacent teeth/oral environment description for, 139
  radicular coverage, 141–142
  treatment chronology for, 141
Alveolar bone preservation (tooth extraction) analysis before, 277
  anatomical assessment, 279 esthetic assessment, 278–279 orthodontic history, 278
  periodontal assessment, 278
  surgical technique, 279
  buccal and lingual flaps, elevation of, 283–285 internal healing (remodeling), 275
  membrane application for GBR, 285
  periodontal assessment, 278
  rationale for ridge preservation, 275 scientific data supporting (ridge preservation), 275–277 socket debridement in, 282–283 socket fill, 285–289
  surgical wound, suturing of, 289
  temporary restorations and postoperative care, 289–290 Alveolar height, 279
Alveolar ridge preservation, 273–277
Alveolar thickness, 279
Amalgam plugger, 147
Anatomical considerations for tooth replacement, 130–131 atrophic ridge treat option, 908 Augmentation materials procedures performed by, 154t
Autogenous bone, 107–109
"Available bone," 152, 167, 205, 208, 310, 393

Basic treatment principles
  esthetic zone, 136–139
  Bicuspization, 220, 256
  Biologic membrane/sealant, 191
  Bio-Oss use
    biopsy timing following, 157t BIS therapy
    before initiating (intravenous), 32–33
    during intravenous, 33
  Bone-added osteotome technique, 173
  Bone modeling, 273–275
  Bone regeneration, 109t
  Bone window, detachment, 147–148
  Bovine bone matrix graft, 90
  Branemark type implants, 201
  Buccal/lingual flaps elevation, 283–285
  Buccal submucosal incision, 67

Caldwell-Luc sinus augmentation therapy, 183–184
CAT scan, 322–324
CBCT. See Cone-beam computer-enhanced tomography Cementoenamel projections, 253–253
Ceramo-metal reconstruction, 377
Clinical examples
  esthetic single tooth sites (immediate implant placement), 299–305 for extraction of multirooted maxillary teeth, 225–227, 228–229, 238–245 GBR, 71–72, 74–77, 81–89 immediate loading of full arch (in case of failure), 336–354 tooth retention and implant placement, 15–16, 19–35 treatment of furcated mandibular molars, 258–259, 267–269
Concomitant regenerative therapy, 90
Cone-beam computer-enhanced tomography (CBCT), 122, 123, 370, 372f, 377, 386
Congruent implant-tooth (I-T) prosthesis, 367t, 373 Congruent I-T prosthesis (Type-I) additional considerations
    bone level/trans-mucosal, 379
    implant/pontic positioning for optimal esthetics, 381–383
400 Index

Congruent I-T prosthesis (Type-I) (continue)
loading protocols and transition phase, 380–381
staged treatment, 379–380
timing of placement, 379
clinical/radiographic diagnostic criteria, 376–378 design options for, 383–384 implant and pontic positioning for optimal esthetics, considerations of, 381–383
implant design, 379
implant position determination/surgical placement, 378
loading protocol and transition phase, 380–381
staged treatment, 379–380
timing of placement, 379
Core biopsy, composition, 158t
Cost analysis
for decayed single-rooted tooth, 23t missing maxillary first molar, 29t
single missing tooth, 27t
Crestal augmentation, 98
Crestal incision, 102
Crestal window sinus augmentation therapy, 150–151
Crown-lengthening osseous surgery esthetic ramifications of, 21–22 factors considered, 19
Crown to root ratio, 196
Decayed single-rooted tooth
cost analysis of treatment options for, 23t
treatment options for, 23t
Decision making (multirradicular maxillary teeth extraction) augmentation and following, 219–220
of maxillary molar extraction, 224–225 without simultaneous implant placement, 220 fundamental approach, 218–219
implant placement
extraction of maxillary molars, 223–224 of extraction of two-rooted maxillary bicuspids, 220–223 treatment selection for, 247 Decorticition, 68
Dental implant patients
radicular coverage, 141–142
treatment chronology for, 141–142
Edentulous maxillary jaw (dental implant therapy) diagnostic criteria (clinical and radiographic), 392–393 implant retained removable prosthesis, 392t role of, 392
maintenance considerations, 388–391
operator risk factors additional, 373
treatment selection, diagnostic classification, 370 visualization treatment outcome, 370–373 options for rehabilitation of, 367t patient risk factors
medical history, 365–367
patient age, 367–368
presenting condition, 365
reason for tooth loss, 368 patient’s expectation of treatment (esthetic vs. function) facial-extraoral analysis, 369–370
radiographic analysis, 370
restorative options
implant-retained fixed prosthesis, 373–374
materials, implant-retained fixed prosthesis, 374–375 single retentive elements, 393–396 splinted bar-retained prosthesis, 396–397 supported (implant) removable prosthesis, 392t type 1: congruent I-T prosthesis
additional consideration, 379–381
clinical/radiographic diagnostic criteria, 376–377 considerations of implant and pontic positioning for optimal esthetics, 381–383 implant position determination/surgical placement, 378 type 2: noncongruent I-T prosthesis. See also Noncongruent I-T prosthesis (Type-2)
additional consideration, 387–388
clinical/radiographic diagnostic criteria less demanding, 385–386
implant position determination, 386–387
Efficacy, PRGF, 116
Elaboration protocol, PRGF, 115–116
Endodontic therapy, 16
Esthetic concept, 272–273
Esthetic fixed implant restoration, 124
Esthetic implant prosthesis, 27
Esthetic risk assessment, 126
Extract mandibular molars, problems with, 249–255
Facebow-mounted models, 47–48
FEA, 595 Finite element analysis
Final abutment selection, 306–307
Finite element analysis (FEA), 197–200, 319
Full arch, immediate loading delayed loading, 318
FEA, 319, 320
full mouth restoration, 330–335 complications, 354–360
mandible, 336–339
maxilla, 339
prosthetics
cement-retained provisional restorations, 332–336 screw-retained provisional restorations, 330–332 treatment planning, 320–328

GBR. See Guided bone regeneration Gold standard
in GBR, 97
of regenerative graft material, 107
Gore-Tex membrane, 71
Gore-Tex sutures, 68
Graft material
advantages and disadvantages of, 156t modification of, 188–189 包装技术, 189
selection for sinus augmentation, 156–159
Graft packing techniques modification, 189
Growth factors
VEGF, 113
TGF-α, 113
PRGF, 85, 111t, 113–114, 188, 189, 191, 311
HGF, 113
Guided bone regeneration (GBR), 48–51, 109, 297 decortication, 68
diagnostic requirements, 47–48 implant placement in atrophic ridges, 72–77 inflammation and infection of, 78–85 membrane fixation in, 68–72 membrane selection in, 68, 85–89 soft tissue primary closure after, maintenance of, 61t utilizing technical modifications, 67t success defined in, 109t suture materials/techniques, 67–68 technical considerations in, 48–51
treatment options, 95
treatment planning exercise, 89–90, 90t Hard tissue
evaluation, 128–130
grafting options, 130t
HDD. See Horizontal defect dimension Hepatocyte growth factor (HGF), 113
HGF. See Hepatocyte growth factor
Horizontal defect dimension (HDD), 299, 300, 306
Horizontal releasing incisions, 52–53, 54t, 103
Immediate load therapy, 328t Implant-based esthetic treatment adjacent teeth and the oral environment, 139–141 basic treatment principles in esthetic zone, 136–139 implant site, 139
patient concerns, motivation, and attitudes, 136
radicular coverage
treatment procedures and chronology for, 141–142 risk analysis (pretreatment), 134–136 treatment chronology for modification (adjacent teeth and/or oral environment), 141 treatment principles in esthetic zone, 136–139
Implant design
congruent I-T prosthesis, 379
noncongruent I-T prosthesis, 387
Implant patient. See Periodontal patient
Implant placement
in atrophic ridges, 72–74
augmentation without, 220 in compromised sites, 307–309 concomitant tooth extraction and, 263–267 of extraction of maxillary molars, 223–224 following tooth extraction in the posterior maxilla, 219–220
molar extraction in, 255–258 in single-tooth edentulous sites, 309–311 sinus augmentation, 151–157
at time of extraction of maxillary molars, 223–224 at time of extraction of two-rooted maxillary bicuspids, 220–223
Implant restoration, 124
Implant-retained fixed dental prostheses (I-R FDP), 366t, 373
Implant-retained fixed prosthesis
classification, 573–574
diagnostic criteria (clinical/radiographic), 392–393
materials, 374–375
role of, 392
Implants. See also Implant placement internal vs. external attachment, 205 maximize prognosis, characteristics to, 205 Implant stability quotient (ISQ), 320
Implant surface, roughened, 205
Implant therapeutic approach, 26
Implant therapy
in esthetic zone, 137
general risk factors for, 128t procedures designed to enhance site in, 139
IMZ implants, 163–164
Incisions
crestal, 102
horizontal releasing, 103
Infected sites, 255
Infected teeth, 78
Internal healing (remodeling) of bone, 275
Interproximal pocket, 10
Intraoperative site assessment, 259–260
I-R FPD. See Implant-retained fixed dental prostheses ISQ. See Implant stability quotient Lateral window sinus augmentation therapy, 145–150 Loading protocols for type 1: congruent I-T prosthesis, 380–381 for type 2: noncongruent I-T prosthesis, 388 Long span fixed prosthesis, 27
Mandibular molars (furcated), treatment of concomitant tooth extraction and implant placement, 263–267
implant placement at time of extraction, 255–258 implant selection, 260–263
intraoperative site assessment, 259–260 problem and definition, 248–255
Maxillary rehabilitation utilizing staged implant placement protocol, 388
Membrane application for GBR, 285
Membrane exposure factors, 65
Membrane exposure posttherapy, 65
Membrane fixation, 68–71, 69t
Membrane selection in GBR, 68, 85
Miller’s classification gingival recessions, 128t
Minimal approach surgery, 18–19
Missing maxillary first molar
cost analysis of treatment options for, 29t
treatment options for, 28, 29t
Missing maxillary first molar, second molar, 27–30 cost analysis of, 29t
treatment options for, 29t
Monodent bridge, 108
Mucoperiosteal flaps, 82
Multirooted maxillary tooth, extraction of treatment options, 229–230 treatment performed, 230–231 Noncongruent implant-tooth (I-T) prosthesis, 367
additional consideration
implant design and number, 387
loading protocols, 388
staged treatment/transition phase, 387–388
clinical/radiographic diagnostic criteria less demanding, 385–386 determination of implant position, 386–387
maintenance considerations, 388–391
type 1 vs., 391
Nonsurgical crown lengthening, 22
Operator risk factors (in dental implantation) additional, 373 specific diagnostic classification for treatment selection, 370 visualization of treatment outcome, 370–373
Oral BIS, 33–35
Orthodontic supereruption, 22, 23t
Orthodontic supereruption, cost of, 22, 23t
Orthodontic therapy, 47, 131, 141 Osteotomes alveolar bone core technique advantages, 171
sinus augmentation, 167–172
Osteotome technique, 144, 169–172, 170f, 173f, 174–177, 179f
bone-added, 173
Osteous resective techniques, 4–9
Osteotome therapy, 28
Patient evaluation (dental implant) description, 122–124 treatment planning and anatomical considerations in, 130–131 hard tissue evaluation, 128–130 restorability in, 125–126
soft tissue evaluation, 126–128 Patient health on treatment (implant placement), 32–35 diabetes, 32
intravenous bisphosphonates, 32–33
oral BIS, 33–35
parafunctional habits, 35
smoking, 35
Patient risk factors (dental implant therapy) general
medical history, 365–367
patient age, 367–368
presenting condition, 365
reason for tooth loss-susceptibility to periodontal disease, 368 specific facial-extrarotual analysis, 369–370 facial-intraoral analysis, 370
radiographic analysis, 370
PDGF. See Platelet-derived growth factor
PDL. See Periodontal ligament
Periodontal ligament (PDL), 274, 280–283
Periodontal patient, 3, 12
Periodontal regenerative therapy, 2–3
Periodontal therapy, 2, 3, 5, 15, 246, 254, 256
PGCF. See Platelet-derived growth factor (PGCF) Piezosurgery utilization, 149–150
Platelet-derived growth factor (PDGF)
Platelet factor-4 (PF-4), 113
Pocket elimination therapy, 4–9, 11–13
Porcelain gymnastics, 307
Posterior maxilla
  buccolingual/palatal augmentation in, 145 contradiction to, 144
formulating hierarchy of treatment selection, 182–184
sinus augmentation
crestal window, 150–151
lateral window, 145–150 sinus membrane perforations in, 185t–186t
class I, 186–187
class II, 187–188
class IIa, 188
class IIb, 188
success of, 144–145
Postregenerative therapy, 50f, 52f, 61, 65, 84
Preparation rich in growth factors (PRGF), 85, 111f, 113–114, 188, 189, 191, 311 class of technology development, 114–115 initial research evidence for efficacy of, 116 as optimized platelet-rich plasma, 113–114 in other medical fields, 119 protocol for elaboration of, 115–116 for soft tissue healing, 119–120 therapeutic applications of, 116–119
Presurgical planning, 321t Pretreatment considerations partially dentate patient, 134–136 PRGF. See Preparation rich in growth factors Prognosis maximization
implant characteristics to, 205–208
Pronounced scalloped, 278
Prosthesis
criteria for type of, 362t criteria for type of immediate, 328t fixed vs. removable, 367t implant supported/retained maxillary removable, 392t indirect vs. direct, 362t long span fixed, 27
segmental compared to full-arch congruent I-T, 377t type 1 congruent implant-retained fixed, 378 type 1/type 2, fixed prosthesis, 391t Recombinant human bone morphogenetic protein 2 (rhBMP-2), 289 Regenerated bone
maintenance without implant placement, 105 stability of, 104–105
Removable prosthesis
diagnostic criteria (clinical/radiographic), 392–393
role of implants, 392
Resective periodontal surgical therapy, 2–3
Resective therapy, 3–4
Resonance frequency analysis (RFA), 320
Restorative options
  materials, implant-retained fixed prosthesis, 374–375
in maxillary jaw, 373–374 Restorations
cement-retained provisional, 332–336 full mouth, 350–354
screw-retained provisional, 330–332 screw vs. cement-retained provisional, 362t RFA. See Resonance frequency analysis rhBMP-2. See Recombinant human bone morphogenetic protein 2 Ridge augmentation therapy, 50f, 52f, 61, 65, 84 success and failure rates of, 97t Ridge preservation
  alveolar, 275–277
  rationale for, 275
Root placement, alveolus, 279
Root regenerative therapy, 15
Routine therapy, 197
Shorter implants use clinical applications of
  of mandibular molar extraction, 210–212 of posterior mandible, 208–210 clinical studies in, 200–203 finite element analyses in, 197–200 implant characteristics to maximize prognosis in, 205–208 preconditions for, 203–205 utilization in maxillary posterior areas, 212–214 Single missing tooth, 24–25
cost analysis in tooth bounded space, 27t treatment options for, 264
Single missing tooth
  cost analysis for, 27t
treatment options for, 264
Single retentive elements, 392t, 393–396
Single-rooted decayed tooth, 16–19
cost analysis of treatment options for, 23t
treatment options for, 23t
Single tooth removal definition, 295
evacuation socket assessment, 297 evacuation technique, 297 Single tooth removal (continue) patient examination and workup in, 295 specific examination and treatment planning, 296–297 treatment approach, selection of, 297–298
Sinus augmentation therapy, 28–29
Caldwell-Luc, 183–184
with concomitant implant placement, 151–159
contraindications to, 144
crestal window, 150–151
and implant placement at time of extraction of maxillary molars, 223–224 lateral approach, 164–167 lateral window sinus, 145–151
with concomitant implant placement, 151–159
osteotome, 167–172
PRGF utilization in, 191 procedures performed by technical approach, 154t sinus membrane perforations, errors of, 148–149 technical approach, 154t Sinus membrane perforations
class I, 186–187
class II, 187–188
class IIIa, 188
class IIIb, 188
results of treated, 185–186t
Socket debridement (tooth extraction), 282–283
Soft tissue
evaluation, for tooth replacement, 126–128 management of, 5–9, 51–67 Specific clinical scenarios, implant placement
missing maxillary first molar, 227–230
multiple missing adjacent posterior teeth, 27
single missing tooth, 24–25
single-rooted decayed tooth, 16–19
Splinted bar-retained prosthesis, 392t, 396–397
Staged treatment
congruent I–T prosthesis, 379–380
noncongruent I–T prosthesis, 387–388
Successful implant utilization global prerequisites of successful, 208t prerequisites for, 205t Supported removable prosthesis. See Implant retained
prosthesis
Surgery, dental replacement, 328–330
Surgical guide
type-I prosthesis
implant design, 379
loading protocol and transition phase, 380–381
staged treatment, 379–380
timing of placement, 379
type II prosthesis
implant design and number, 387
loading protocols, 388
staged treatment and transition phase, 387–388
Surgical wound, suturing of, 289
Suturing materials/techniques, 67–68
Technology development, PRGF, 114–115
Temporary restorations/postoperative care adjustment in tooth extraction, 289–290
TGF-α. See Transforming growth factor-α
Therapeutic applications, PRGF, 116–119
Tooth extraction
esthetic zone
external dimensional changes, 273–275
internal healing (remodeling), 273
scientific data supporting alveolar ridge preservation, 275–277
and implant placement, 263–267
internal healing, 275–277
in posterior maxilla, 219–220
as reconstructive event, 80
Tooth loss/treatment options
side effects, 123t
Trajectory, alveolus, 279
Transforming growth factor-α (TGF-α), 113
Treatment algorithms development, implant
placement
clinical example for, 14–16, 19–24
eliminating less predictable therapies, 30–32
financial algorithms, 16
influence of patient health on treatment plan
selection, 32–35
longitudinal human studies, 9–13
osseous resective techniques, 4–9
resective therapy, 3–4
specific clinical scenarios, 16–19
missing maxillary first molar, 27–30
multiple missing adjacent posterior teeth, 27
single missing tooth, 24–25
single-rooted decayed tooth, 16–19
when faced active periodontal disease, 1–3 Treatment options
atrophic ridge, 90t
for implant placement, 90–91t, 93–94t, 96t
missing maxillary first molar, 28, 29t
for teeth regeneration, 102
for treatment planning exercise, 96t

Staged treatment, 379–380
timing of placement, 379
type 2 prosthesis
implant design and number, 387
loading protocols, 388
staged treatment and transition phase, 387–388
Surgical wound, suturing of, 289
Suturing materials/techniques, 67–68
Technology development, PRGF, 114–115
Temporary restorations/postoperative care
adjustment in tooth extraction, 289–290
TGF-α. See Transforming growth factor-α
Therapeutic applications, PRGF, 116–119
Tooth extraction
esthetic zone
external dimensional changes, 273–275
internal healing (remodeling), 273
scientific data supporting alveolar ridge
preservation, 275–277
and implant placement, 263–267
internal healing, 275–277
in posterior maxilla, 219–220
as reconstructive event, 80
Tooth loss/treatment options
side effects, 123t
Trajectory, alveolus, 279
Transforming growth factor-α (TGF-α), 113
Treatment algorithms development, implant
placement
clinical example for, 14–16, 19–24
eliminating less predictable therapies, 30–32
financial algorithms, 16
influence of patient health on treatment plan
selection, 32–35
longitudinal human studies, 9–13
osseous resective techniques, 4–9
resective therapy, 3–4
specific clinical scenarios, 16–19
missing maxillary first molar, 27–30
multiple missing adjacent posterior teeth, 27
single missing tooth, 24–25
single-rooted decayed tooth, 16–19
when faced active periodontal disease, 1–3
Treatment options
atrophic ridge, 90t
for implant placement, 90–91t, 93–94t, 96t
missing maxillary first molar, 28, 29t
for teeth regeneration, 102
for treatment planning exercise, 96t
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>405</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Treatment outcome maximization, 109
Treatment planning for dental implantation, 124–125
in GBR, 89–107
multirooted maxillary teeth extraction, 231–235 Treatment selection for edentulous maxillary jaw, 370 following extraction of two-rooted maxillary bicuspid, 246f multirooted maxillary teeth extraction, 247
for posterior maxilla augmentation, 182–184

Two-rooted maxillary bicuspid treatment selection, 246f Type 1: congruent I-T prosthesis, 375, 378f
clinical/radiographic diagnostic criteria, 376–377
design options using segmental restoration, 383–384 of implant and pontic positioning/optimal esthetics, 381–383
implant position determination, 378

Vascular endothelial growth factor (VEGF), 113, 116
VEGF. See Vascular endothelial growth factor Virgin teeth, 24–25