Contents

Foreword by Paul Monaghan, Allford Hall Monaghan and Morris, Architects ix
Preface – ‘My Why’ xi
Acknowledgements xiii
Note to the reader xv
Abbreviations xvii

1 Introduction – the CIOB Design Manager’s Handbook 1
   Context, scope, audience and structure

2 Process 19
   Project context, processes, CDM, cost management

3 DMTCQ 59
   The Design Management Benchmark, a framework model for Design Management based on Time, Cost and Quality

4 Tools 63
   Generic tools to control design production and design development

5 Procurement 91
   Main procurement routes, Employer’s Requirements/Contractor’s Proposals

6 Value and innovation 101
   Value management, innovation and DM

7 People 111
   Context, tsunamis, tribes and people

8 Training 123
   Roles, skills, training

9 Quality 127
   Urban and environmental context of design, quality, legacy

10 Stories 133
    People, projects – some stories

11 Future 145
    Context, external and internal factors, BIM, DM2050

Afterword 161
Addendum – October 2012 163

Appendices 165
A Lean Project Delivery – Alan Mossman, Glenn Ballard & Christine Pasquire 165
B The ‘ADePT’ methodology – Paul Waskett and Andrew Newton 191
Contents

C Choosing by Advantages – Alan Mossman 197
D Delivering value – A Guidance Note for Design Managers – Michael Graham 201
E Style, Behaviours & your ‘Leadership Moments’ – Saima Butt 209
F Educating the Design Manager of the future – Paula Bleanch 213
G Facilitating workshops – John Eynon 221

Bibliography/Resources/Further Reading 223
Index 229