INDEX

ABB 292
ABN AMRO 68–9, 72
achievement-oriented leadership style 118 action learning 144–5 activity-based costing (ABC) 199 administrative work 4, 126
Ahold Store Development 69–70
American Airlines 173
American Express 293
anchoring of changes 48
asset utilization 16
AT Kearney 242
attention 124
attitude 218–19, 222–3
authority-compliance management 117 Autoliv 66
balanced scorecards 156, 198, 200–4 bandwagon effect 181
barriers to strategic change 25–9, 42 behaviourism 217
best practices 210–11, 277 BETAMAX 181
big five personality traits 114
BMW 65
BOHICA attitude 258
Boliden 71–2
bottom-up initiatives 38, 45–6 bounded rationality 230
British Steel Corporation (BSC) 241–2 brokers, role of 119
Bull Group 295
business unit managers 249–50
business units (BU) 81–2 buy-in 48
buying 3–4
capabilities 138–9
centralization 98–103
centre-led action network (CLAN) 100 centre-led function 22
change agent 76, 191
change cycle 191–2
change, implementation 43–8 change leader as individual 234–5 change measurement, difficulty of 27 charismatic leadership 125
chief procurement officer (CPO) 96 China 305–22
choice, managerial role 111 classic change paths 45 classical approach to purchasing and supply management 62–3, 65–6 cognitive approach 217 cognitive dissonance 222 cognitive processes of managers 41 collaborative platforms 178 collaborative product development systems 178 collaborative, planning, forecasting and replenishment (CPFR) systems 22 commercial orientation 21, 159 commitment 48
common law 101
communication 47–8, 173, 176–8
Compaq 103–4
Compendium 201
compensation 90
competence capital 156
competence careers 155–8 competence ladder 155
competence, employee, development of through organizational design 154–5 using value systems 155 competencies see knowledge and competencies competition
as a motivation factor 63
as dimension of ICT 174 independence and 62, 65
perfect 138
competitive advantage 63 sourcing contributions to 17 using purchasing to create 253–4 conceptual skills 114–5 conceptual thinking 160
confidentiality 148
consensus strategy 37
consolidation 48
costs, managerial role 111
corruption industry, change initiatives in 257–60 consultant’s view of strategic change 48–53 consultants, working with 53–5 content of strategy 35
contingency theory 40
continuous adaptation 68 continuous, proactive change 70–1 continuous, reactive change 71–2 continuous path 46
contrast effect 230
contributions of sourcing 16–20 cr-Decisions and interdependence 62, 65 entered purchasing 99–100 coordination dimension of ICT 173 coordinator, role of 119 core knowledge 138
corporate coherence 102 corporate culture 96
corporate purchasing officer (CPO) 239
Corus 240–4, 252
cost(s)
direct 19
indirect 19–20
optimization 16
target 199–200
total 4, 195
country-club management 117
COVISINT 173–4, 176
consumer, reactions to 124 critical products 210
cross-functional teamwork 22, 82 Crucial knowledge 137 culture 40
leadership and 124–5
sourcing 154
customer knowledge 140–1 customer relationship management (CRM) 173 customer satisfaction index 156
costs, managerial role 111
costs, direct 19
continuous, reactive change 71–2
dimensions, influencing purchasing function’s role 80 direct costs 19
direct mutual adjustment 96–7 direct supervision 97
directive leadership style 118 director, role of 119
discontinuous path 45–6 dismissal, criteria for 125 mediator, manager as 109
mediation, role for 110
mediation, role for 110
dominant design 181
double feeding, avoiding 180 driving forces 123
early supplier involvement 4 e-auctions 175–6
education 152
effectiveness 29
efficiency 29
efficient consumer response (ECR) 5 effective data interchange (EDD) 171, 183 emergent strategy 36, 38 emotion sediments 123–4 emotional intelligence 122 emotional labour 122
emotional stamina 122
emotions, leadership and 121–4 empathy 122
employability security 90 employment, selection and dismissal, criteria for 125 empowerment 126
enablers 6
enduring firms 127
enterprise resource planning (ERP) 22, 54, 171, 179 entrepreneur, manager as 110 entrepreneurial strategy 36 environmental constraints 40 E-procurement 90
adoption model 218
systems 175–6
Ericsson 141–3, 156–8, 175 case study 305–22
sourcing in China 311–18
Ericsson Competence Management (ECM) 142–3 Esso 244
ethnocentrism 317
Etos 70
expectancy theory  118, 223 expression  122
external integration  22, 89 external variables  221–2 facilitator, role of  120 fat organizations  89–90
federal organization of purchasing (FOP)  100–1 feeling rules  122
Ferguson  295
figurehead role  109
five forces analysis  275 followers, involvement of, leadership and  113
Ford Motor Company (FMC)  173, 180, 183
Formula One racing  190–1 frame of reference  230 functional cost analysis (FCA)  199 functional structure  92
Gall & Gall  70
GE Consumer Electronics  295
General Motors  173 geographical dispersion  147 geographical structure  93–4
Global Positioning Systems (GPS)  172
Global Procurement and Supply Chain Benchmark  5 global quality tracking system (GQTS)  179 global sourcing  93–4, 308–9, 318–19 goal
common, leadership and  113 setting  222
group purchasing coordinator (GPC)  99 Group Shared Services (GSS) 68–9 guerilla approach  258
halo effect  230
handling and activities  125
Heijn, Albert  70
Hewlett-Packard  103–4
holistic approach to purchasing  5 hollow company  329
human capital index  156 human resources development (HRD)  329 human skills  114
hybrid structure  98
IBM  37, 96, 172–3, 192, 293
  Procurement Competitive Advantage (PCA)  9 sourcing transformation at  7–11 identity building  125
ideological strategy  36
Ikea  34, 97
imposed strategy  37
impoverished management  117 incentives to share knowledge  147 indirect costs  19–20
individual behaviour
  managing  222–4
  underlying principles  229–32 individual filtering  230 inertia  41
influence  78
  leadership and  112–3
information agents  178
information and communications technologies (ICT)  5, 169–87, 273–4 information, definition  137 informational role  109 ingredient branding  78 innovator, role of  119 inspirational leadership  125 institutional theory  40 insurance premium  158
Intel Inside phenomenon  78 intelligent agents  178 intended strategies  35 interdependence  101
internal integration  22, 89 internal production costs  19 international procurement office (IPO)  91, 94, 309–10, 314 international purchasing  93–4 interpersonal roles  109 inventory-level control systems  180
Jaguar  65
JC Penney  293
just-in-time (JIT)  5, 17
JVC  181
key knowledge  138
key performance indicators (KPIs)  70–1 knowledge and competencies  136–46 knowledge and skills assessment tool  162–7 knowledge gap  146
knowledge lifecycle  138 knowledge management  146–52
Kotter’s eight-step management model  46–8, 111 Kraljic matrix  182
laissez-faire leader  117 language  101
lateral processes  96
leadership  107–33
leading coalition  47
lean organizations  89–90
Lear Corporation 179
learning process 41
learnt behaviour 317
leverage products 210
Levi Strauss 292
liaison devices 96
liaison role 109
lock-in effects 181
Lotus Notes 178
maintenance, repair and operations (MRO) 81–2 management accounting principles 196–200 management planning systems (MPS) 22 management style 96
mandatory cooperation 96
market structure 93
market transparency 174
Marlboro man syndrome 263 maturity degrees of 21–5
of sourcing function 102 maturity wheel 203
McDonald’s 93
measurement
change and motivation 190–2 difficulty of 27
traditional 193–6 mentoring 96, 120
micro-strategy 55
middle management, behaviour 233–4 middle-of-the-road management 117 Mintzberg on management 109–11, 119 mission 34
mission, vision, goals and strategy (MVGS) 146 modern approach to purchasing and supply management 62–3, 65–6 modularization 82
momentum for change 46–8 monetary-based method of TCO analysis 205–6 monitor
manager as 109
role of 120
Moore Corp. 293
motivation 122
motivation theory 154, 222–3 Motorola 104
multiple reality 253
multi-tied supply chains 4
Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) 231

NAM case study 240, 244–7, 252 natural form of organization 87 negotiated change 44
negotiating for change 44

negotiator, manager as 110 network externalities 181 network/value chain mapping 275
new product development 199
Nokia Mobile Phones 64
Nordic Construction Company (NCC) 64, 96, 114, 223, 234, 257–90
Nortel Networks 292

objectives of sourcing 16–20 offshoring 4
old knowledge 138
one-stop shopping 209
on-the-job learning 152–3 Opel 65
open book accounting 198
open marketplaces 176
operational purchaser 232 organization of professionals 126 organizational changes at NCC 267–8, 272–3 organizational design changing 103–4
link to coordination needs 95–8 organizational knowledge 140 organizational structures 91–8 organizations, definition 87–8 orientations 21
outsourcing 4

participative leadership style 118 partnerships 65
path dependence 181
path-goal theory 118–19
pay 90
perceived behavioural control 220–1, 223 perception 218
perfect competition 78
personality 230–1
Philips 69
Philips Electronics 79
Philips Medical Systems 141 planned strategy 36
population ecology 40
Portuguese East-India Corporation 172, 184–5 power
knowledge as 148
relations 40
separation of 101
preventing change 41
proactive change 68, 72
proactivity 38
problem solving, integrated 196 problem-solving skills 115 process orientation 159 process strategy 35, 37
process structure 94–5 procurement 3–4
producer, role of 119
product knowledge 141
product structure 92
professional knowledge 140 professional organization 126 projection 230
promising knowledge 137 purchasing and supply management 7 classical and modern approaches 62–3, 65–6 purchasing coordination phase 22 purchasing licence 156 purchasing, major shifts in 89 purchasing managers 249–2 purchasing maturity 102 purchasing maturity assessment tool 201–4 purchasing orientation 159 quality assurance 4 quality function deployment (QFD) 199 Quickplace 178

rational approaches 108 rational planning 34, 192–3 rational process 41
rationalization role 19–20, 77 reactive change 68, 72
reactive strategic change 38 realized strategies 35 recruitment 153–4
redundancy, risk of 148
reinforcement 223
relatedness, concept of 102 relationship oriented approaches 108 relationship, degree of involvement 66–7 relationship-oriented leadership 121 resistance, individual 224–9 resistance to change 41, 215–36 resource allocator, manager as 110 resource structure 19 respect, lack of 148
restraining forces 123
return on investment (ROI) 17–18, 30 return on net assets (RONA) 17 revolutionary change 68 revolutionary, proactive change 68–9 revolutionary, reactive change 69–70 rewards, distribution of 124 rhetoric 125
RJR Nabisco 293
role behaviour 124
role of purchasing, changing 79–83 internal and external relations 79–82 roles of sourcing 16, 19–20 routine products 209
Royal Hoogovens 241–2
Saab Automobile 179
sabotage 225
SABRE system 173, 179
Sandvik 71–2
SAP 179
SASIG 177–8
Scandinavia Automotive Suppliers 177 selection, criteria for 125 self-awareness 122
self-regulation 122
sense making 129
service operation 126
services, buying of 24 Shell 69, 244–6
situational leadership model 118 small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) 317 snowball method 44
social judgement skills 115
social skills 123
Sony 181
sourcing, developments in organizing 88–91 sourcing function 16
sourcing patterns, change in 306–8
sourcing ROI 30
specialist knowledge purchasing 154 spokesperson, manager as 110 spot-market approach 209 stability as platform for change 72–6 staffing 89–90
at NCC 264–5, 275–8
knowledge management 152
standardization 97
stereotyping, cultural 318
Stewart on management 111
strategic change
agent of 42–3
consultant’s view of 48–53 definition 38–40
general understanding 55
implementation 43–8
leading 128–9
magnitude of 38
organizational and environmental factors 40–2 types 39–40
working with consultants 53–5 strategic leadership, role of 110–11 strategic products 210
strategic purchaser 233 strategic/tactical management responsibilities 91 strategizing 42–3, 55
buying firm’s 77
purchasing function’s role 77 strategy 34–8
strategy formation 47
strategy formation in practice approach 42 structure role 19–20, 77 structured activity systems, organizations as 87 subjective norm 219–20, 223 subsidiarity 101
success, generation and celebration of 48 supplier knowledge 140
supplier relations 61–86 supply chain management (SCM) 179 supply chain orientation 159 supply management 3–4 supply market knowledge 140 supportive leadership style 118 SWOT analysis 49
synergy 97, 103, 253
creating purchasing 247–52
systemic jointism 44 systems approach 259
tactical purchaser 232–3 target cost 199
target cost management 199–200 team management 117
technical skills 114
technological capabilities 19 technology acceptance model 218 Telefunken 295
theory of planned behaviour (TPB) 217–22, 229–32, 235 theory of reasoned action (TRA) 217–18
Thomson Consumer Electronics 295
Thomson Multimedia 295
Thomson, turnaround at 291–304
Thorne 295
top-down change 44–5
top-down processes 37–8 total cost 4, 195
total cost of ownership (TCO) 198–9, 204–8 total quality management (TQM) 4–5 Totalpartner 280
tracking systems 180
TradeRanger 216, 219–20, 224, 226–7, 229 traditional measurements of purchasing and supply 193–5 shortcomings of 195–6 traits 230–1
transactional management responsibilities 91 transactional orientation phase 21, 159 transformational leadership 108, 125–6 transparency 148
triggers of change 42
trust 128
turnaround management 291–302
twin citizenship 101
types of strategy formation 36–7 umbrella strategy 37
unconnected strategy 37 unified theory of technology acceptance and use 218 unrealized strategies 36 upstream business development 160 urgency, creating sense of 46 value-added 195
value analysis 199–200
value analysis/value engineering (VA/VE) 199 value-based leadership 109 value-based method of TCO analysis 205–6 value chain integration phase 22 value chain orientation 159 value creation 16, 329
value engineering 199
vendor-managed inventory schemes 17 vision 34, 47
sense making and inspiration in leadership 125–9 visionary leadership 109, 127 Volkswagen 65
voluntary cooperation 96
Volvo Car Corporation 65–6, 181, 183, 263
Xerox 293–4