A
Accountability: lessons from Hershey Company experiences, 27–29; lessons from Penobscot River restoration project, 126–127; rise of corporate, 73–75
Activism: investor, 70–71; social, 65–66, 191–192
Acumen Fund, 281–282
Adaptability, 268–269
Adidas, 62
Affordable Care Act, 102
Age of Sustainability, 53–75; basic description of, 6–8; communications in, 61–62; empowered employees in, 68–69; and expansion of social responsibilities of business, 55–57; and increasing democratic participation, 58–59; interdependence in, 60–61; investor activism in, 70–71; pioneer companies in, 53–55; rise of corporate accountability in, 73–75; risks and opportunities in, 145–146; and sense of world imperiled, 63–64; shift of power from public to private sector, 66–68; social consciousness and activism in, 64–66; stakeholders’ power and influence in, 72–73
Albom, Mitch, 77
Alcan, 44, 180
Alcoa, 217
Amazon, 167
American Electric Power (AEP), 219–221, 251, 253, 255, 261–262
American Forest and Paper Association (AFPA), 229
Amnesty International, 72
Anderson, Ray, 96
Anglo-American (mining conglomerate), 217
Annan, Kofi, 77
Annapurna Salt, 49
Apparel industry, 142, 228–229
Apple, 60–61, 254
Ariely, Dan, 104
Artifacts, 259
Ashoka, 275
Assange, Julian, 69
Assumptions, underlying, 259, 261–263
Atlantic Station, 171–172
Attestation, 248
Automotive industry, 51, 143, 169–170

B
B corporations, 275–276
Badgley, Rick, 233
Bangor Hydroelectric, 116, 117, 118, 119, 121, 126, 127
Banking and finance, 142
Banks, John: on Indians’ dependence on Penobscot River, 114, 115; on log removal plan, 120–121; opened meeting with eagle feathers, 108, 109; as representative of Penobscot Indian Nation, 107, 122
BASF Grameen, 280
Behnke, James, 143–144
Ben & Jerry’s, 276, 278, 312n7
Berkshire Hathaway, 237
Better Life Index, 285
Bilbrey, John P., 18
Black Bear Hydro Partners, LLC, 125, 126
Bloomberg ESG, 283–284
Boeing, 254
BP (British Petroleum), 81–82
Brand, Stewart, 215
Brook, Barry, 215
Browne, John, 81
Brownfields movement, 170–172
Buffett, Warren E., 237
Bullock-Mixon, Vidette, 217
Bush, George H. W., 113
Bush, George W., 26
Business: benefits of sustainability to,
45–50, 52, 303n18; expansion of social responsibilities of, 55–57; functions of, linked to sustainability movement, 87–90; global problems as opportunities for, 286–288; reasons for not pursuing sustainability, 82–84; shift of power from governments to, 66–68;
superficially supporting sustainability, 84–85; sustainability viewed as outside realm of, 96–106; sustainable, defined, 2; uneven record on sustainability, 80–82. See also Multipurpose businesses
Business ethics, 4, 6, 77
Business for Social Responsibility, 79,
136
Business schools, 65, 79, 84, 275
Business strategy: example of TBL management and, 158–159;
intersection of public interests and,
33–34, 156; linked to environmental or social objectives, 292–293. See also Sustainability strategy
Byrne, Rhonda, 77
Cadbury Schweppes, 22, 25, 30–31
California Public Employees’
Retirement System (CalPERS) fund,
284
Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids, 23, 24 Capabilities: defined, 263; important for sustainability, 263–269
Capital, sustainability and, 2
Capitalism: new vision of, incorporating sustainability,
271–273; sustainability as outside realm of, 96–106
Carnegie, Andrew, 55
Carpenter, George, 212
Carson, Rachel, 56–57
Casa Bahia, 49
Cascade Engineering, 276
Castaneda, Carlos, 256
Caterpillar, 265
CEOs, 77–79, 90, 180
Ceres, 217, 219, 240, 251
Change: acting ahead of impending, 150; required by business leaders at all levels, 85–86, 90–91; superficial vs. systemic, 84–85, 93–94
China: companies criticized for cooperating with government of, 67, 268; increasing democratic participation in, 59; manufacturing operations closed due to human rights record of, 226
Chouinard, Yves, 180, 276
Cisco Systems Foundation, 281
Citigroup, 79
Clean Air Act, 57, 220
Clean Air Task Force, 219
Clean Water Act, 57
Clorox, 227, 255
Coca-Cola: Honest Tea Company purchased by, 278; Kerala, India, water crisis and, 45–46, 146; at meeting about obesity crisis, 143;
as member of IIRC, 255; sustainability reporting by, 249–250; worked with Oxfam America, 212, 267
CocoaLink, 18–19
Colgate-Palmolive, 278
Collaboration: between advocacy organizations and business, 212–213, 214–217; among rival companies for sustainable management, 141, 143–144; as capability important for sustainability, 263–265
Communications: as driver of sustainability, 61–62; linked to sustainability movement, 89; by social media, 234–236
Community interest companies (CICs), 277
Companies. See Business
Competition: collaboration among companies in, 141; collaboration among companies in, for sustainable management, 143–144; pressuring, to take sustainable measures, 149–150, 154; sustainability and, 100–101
Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act. See Superfund law
Comstock, Beth, 69
Construction industry, 142
Cook, Liz, 217
Cooperation. See Collaboration
Corporate culture, 256–269; change of, required for sustainability, 85, 256–257; defined, 258, 290; evaluating existing, 260; identifying and overcoming underlying assumptions of, 261–263; lessons from Hershey Company experiences on impact of, 30–31; lessons from Penobscot River restoration project, 127; levels of, 259; reasons sustainability resisted by, 257–258; steps for examining, 298–299
Corporate social responsibility (CSR): Hershey reports on, 17, 18, 19; MBA courses on, 79; sustainability vs., 3–4
Corporation 2020, 271–272
Costco, 50
Council for Educational Travel, USA (CETUSA), 16
Country Lanes, 161
Credit Suisse, 283
CSR Wire, 135
Culture. See Corporate culture
Customers: attitudes toward sustainability, 83; employees viewed as, 256; as members of value chain, 221; needs of, as opportunities for sustainability, 148–149; relations with, sustainability movement and, 88; as stakeholders, 226–232
D
Damon, Matt, 65
Data storage, 167
Davies, Kert, 53, 61, 216, 277–278
Davis, Ian, 39, 145, 272–273
Day, Laura Rose, 122, 123, 124–125
De Beers Consolidated Mines, 222
Dees, J. Gregory, 274
Deloitte LLP, 255
Deutsche Bank, 283
Developing countries: example of sustainability protecting business in, 45–46, 146–147; GE’s water filtration system for, 37–38, 39; packaging of consumer products for, 158; sustainability as promoting business growth in, 49, 59; sustainability’s impact on, 103
Diamond, Jared, 193
DiCaprio, Leonardo, 65
Dice, Mark, 155
Disney, 199
Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 43, 79–80
Dowa Mining Company, 170
Dreyfus Third Century Fund, 71
Drucker, Peter, 56, 236
Dunn, John, 29–30
DuPont: shift from chemical to soy protein business, 7, 160; shift from minimization to optimization by, 172–173; sustainability champion in, 180; as sustainability pioneer, 54, 55; sustainability vision of, 265
DuPont, E. I., 54
E
Eccles, Robert G., 43–44, 257
Echoing Green, 282
Eco-efficiency, 47–48
Economic bottom line, typical measures of, 5
Economic interests. See Profit
Edelman Trust Barometer, 72
Elhauge, Einer, 98–99
Elkington, John, 4, 137
Ellsberg, Daniel, 69
EMC Corporation, 235–236
Employees: attracted by reputation for sustainability, 68, 187, 233; as customers, 256; empowerment of, 68–69; financial benefits of policies promoting satisfaction of, 50; Ford as pioneer in economic benefits for, 54–55; and implementing sustainability, 187–189; as members of value chain, 221; as stakeholders, 29, 232–234
Energy industry, 51–52, 142
Engen, Travis, 44, 180
Enron, 35
Environment, health, and safety (EHS), 89–90
Environmental bottom line, typical measures of, 5
Environmental Defense Fund, 41, 219
Environmental interests: as concern of government, 99–100; DuPont as pioneer in, 54; GE’s changed position on, 35–36; Wal-Mart’s positive record on, 40–41, 42
Ernst & Young, 70
Essential Action, 23
Etsy, 276
European Union, 80
Exel, 16, 17
External assurance, 248–249
ExxonMobil, 52, 66–67
Facebook, 7, 167, 235
Fair Labor Standards Act, 56
Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), 111, 116, 118, 124
Federal Express, 67
Federal False Claims Act, 69
Fennelly, Dick, 121, 122, 124
Fiduciary duty, 27, 99, 271
Finance and accounting, 89
Financial benefits: of employee satisfaction, 50; evidence of, of sustainability, 42–45, 257; of stakeholder engagement, 126
Fisher, Mike, 21, 26, 208–209
Fishing industry, 1, 142
Fogle, Jared, 165
Food industry: anti-obesity movement and, 143–144, 154–155; calorie labeling in fast-food restaurants, 230; organic food labeling regime mandated by government, 230; sustainability issues for, 142. See also Obesity crisis
Ford, Bill Jr., 51, 137
Ford, Henry, 54, 55
Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), 229
Freeman, R. Edward, 72
Friedman, Milton, 96, 97, 104
Friends of the Earth US, 47
FTSE KLD 400 Index, 43
FTSE4 Good Indexes, 43
Full-cost pricing, 101–103
G
Gandhi, Mahatma, 299
Gap, 226, 267–268
General Atlantic, 282
General Electric (GE): customer needs as opportunities for, 148; in Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 79; ecomagination and healthymagination initiatives of, 35–39, 69, 233; environmental record of, 35; redefinition of, 271; sustainability championed by CEO of, 180; Sustainability Sweet Spots for, 36, 38, 39
General Mills, 143, 144
Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), 240
Genetically modified (GM) seeds, 46–47
Gerber, 47
Gifford, Kathy Lee, 152
Gilbert, Jay Coen, 275, 276
Global Partnerships for Tobacco Control, 23
Global Reporting Initiative (GRI): as cofounder of IIRC, 255; guidelines for sustainability reporting, 133, 141, 239–244; origin of, 217, 240
Global trends. See Age of Sustainability
Goals: defined, 289; setting, when implementing sustainability, 176, 178–179
Goldman Sachs, 283
Goodyear, 223
Google, 7, 67, 167, 268
Gordon, Jennifer, 16
Gore, Al, 65
Government: organic food labeling regime mandated by, 230; power shift to private sector from, 66–68; relations with, sustainability movement and, 90; social and environmental issues as concern of, 99–100; support for sustainability movement, 80; sustainability programs to avoid regulation by, 95
Grameen Bank, 274, 279
Grameen Danone, 279, 280
Grameen Veolia Water Ltd., 279–280
Grant Thornton UK LLP, 255
Great Plains Institute, 219
Green, Michael, 285
“Green building” initiatives, 48
GreenBiz, 135
Greening Diplomacy Initiative, 80
Greenpeace, 53, 61, 213; called for boycott of Indonesian timber, 193; campaigned against toxic chemicals in manufacturing sportswear, 62; changed attitude toward business, 212; opposed Shell’s disposal of Brent Spar, 197–198; opposes research on genetically modified (GM) seeds, 47; public trust in, 72; slogan of, 211; Unilever and, 212, 215
Greenwashing, 94, 134, 232, 248
Gross, Peter, 167
Groupe Danone, 278, 280
Hall, Scott: background of, 115–116; as chief negotiator for PPL, 107, 119–120, 121, 127–128, 197; negotiated long-term plan for future of Penobscot, 122, 123, 124; played crucial role as middle manager for PPL, 111, 150, 233; on results of private-public partnership, 125–126; worked for Bangor Hydroelectric, 116–117, 118
Hart, Stuart, 49
Hawken, Paul, 96
Hayek, F. A., 96
Hayward, Tony, 81
Health care industry, 142
Heineman, Ben, 35
Henkle, Dan, 226
Hershey, Milton S., 13, 14–15, 27, 56
Hershey Company, 13–32; board’s attempted sale of, 20–26, 176, 206–210; corporate social responsibility (CSR) reports, 17, 18, 19; history of, 13–15; lessons from experiences of, 26–31; mistreatment of guest workers at, 15–17; record on ethical sourcing of cocoa, 18–19
Hewlett-Packard, 79, 184
Higg Index, 153, 228–229
Holliday, Chad, 180
Home Depot, 67
Honest Tea Company, 278
Hope Schools project, 59
Hopkins, Ed, 171
Human resources (HR): as concern of sustainability movement, 88, 306n6; sustainability’s impact on, 186–189
Hummel, Bruce, 22, 24
IKEA, 223
Immelt, Jeffrey, 33, 35, 77, 180
Impact charts, 202–203
Implementing sustainability, 175–189; establishing procedures and KPIs for, 176–179; framework for, 290–299;
human resources (HR) and, 186–189;
by integrating sustainability throughout company, 185–186;
setting goals when, 176, 178–179;
sustainability champions for, 179–181; sustainability departments for, 181; task forces or steering committees for, 179; by turning crises into opportunities, 151–155; virtual sustainability departments for, 175, 181–185; ways to begin, 147–150
India: Bhopal gas disaster, 95; Kerala water case, 45–46, 146–147; training for women offered by Unilever, 159
Indian Self-Determination Act, 114
Industries, sustainability issues for specific, 141–143
Influence grids, 205–210
Information technology (IT), 88–89
Insurance industry, 142
Interdependence, 2–3, 60–61
Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility, 70, 136
International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 255
Investor activism, 70–71
Investor relations (IR), 89
Ioannou, Ioannis, 43–44, 257

J
Jacoby Development Company, 171–172

K
Kahn, Bruce, 284
Kasky, Marc, 153
Kearney, Neal, 217
Key performance indicators (KPIs):
defined, 289–290; establishing, when implementing sustainability, 177–179; leading vs. lagging, 177; steps for developing, 294
Keys, Alicia, 65
King, Angus, 118
Knight, Phil, 152
Kraft Foods, 22, 23–24, 143
Kyoto Protocol, 102

L
Labeling, 227–231
Lagging indicators, 177
Lang, Robert, 276
Lawler, Edward, 131
Leaders: CEOs as, 77–79, 90, 180; middle managers as, 128, 148, 150, 233; prepared to respond to sustainability crisis, 76–77;
sustainability as challenge for all levels of, 85–86, 90–91
Leading indicators, 177
Legal affairs, 90
Lenny, Richard (Rick), 23, 25, 26, 30
Levi’s, 226, 229
Levitt, Steven D., 104
Life-cycle assessment, 168–170
Life-cycle management (LCM), 164–165
Ling, Joseph, 164
Live, Learn and Thrive program, 59
Logging industry, 193–195, 229
Long-Lytle, Devon, 235
Long-term orientation, 84, 127, 265–266
Lovelock, James, 214
Low-profit limited liability companies (L3Cs), 276–277
Lytle, Thom, 235

M
Mackey, John, 77, 180
Makower, Joel, 135
Managers, middle, 86, 128, 148, 150, 233
Manning, Bradley, 69
Mannweiler Foundation, 276
Manufacturing, sustainability movement and, 87
Marketing, 87
Marketing industry, 143
Maxeiner, Dirk, 198
MBA Oath, 79
McDonald’s: and calorie labeling, 154, 230–231; and obesity crisis, 7, 165–166; reasons customers attracted to, 83
McDonough, William, 162–163
McKinsey & Company, 39, 145, 271
Measurement: defined, 290; steps for, 296–298; of Triple Bottom Line, 5; of value of multipurpose businesses, 283–285. See also Sustainability reporting
Merrill Lynch, 283
Microsoft, 67, 180–181, 255
Minimization: benefits of, 163–164; defined, 162; examples of, 163, 164–166; finding opportunities for, 166–167; life-cycle assessment as ultimate, 168–170; as ongoing process, 167; shift from to optimization, 172, 174; shift to optimization from, 170–171
Mining industry, 143
Mintzberg, Henry, 104
Monbiot, George, 215
Monitor Group, 282
Monsanto, 46–47
Moore, Michael, 69, 152
Morris, Michael, 299
Moss, Michael, 143, 144
Myers, Matthew, 24

N
Nabisco, 143
Nader, Ralph, 45, 57
National Guestworker Alliance, 16
National Labor Relations Act, 56
National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), 22
National Organic Standards Board, 230
Natural Resources Defense Council, 219
Nature Conservancy, 107, 193–194
Nestlé, 19, 22, 25
Net Impact, 65
Netflix, 173
Neuberger & Berman Socially Responsible Fund, 71
New Profit, 282
Nike: charged with abusing workers in factory, 153; intangibles owned by, 62; Kasky case, 94, 153, 250; and labeling standard development, 229; pressured competitors to be more sustainable, 149, 154; responded to campaign against toxic chemicals in manufacturing sportswear, 62; stakeholder group created by, 217–218; supply-chain negotiation by, 222–223; transformed by discovery of children working in factories, 7, 151–153, 268–269
Nippon PGM Company, 170
Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): changed attitude toward business, 211–214; dealing with adversarial, 213–214; managing partnerships with, 214–217; power and influence of, in Age of Sustainability, 72–73
Nooyi, Indra, 39, 77, 180
Northeast Utilities (NU), 151, 154
Novo Nordisk, 254

O
Obama, Michelle, 144
Obesity crisis: collaboration required to combat, 263–264; food companies’ responses to, 154–155; public concern over, 7, 142, 143–144; Subway’s minimization strategy for, 165–166
Occupational Health and Safety Administration (OSHA), 17
Occupy movement, 66, 191–192
Opportunities: for business in imperiled world, 286–288; customer needs as, 148–149; for minimization, 166–167; for optimization, 173–174; risks turned into, by sustainability, 145–147; sustainability jiu-jitsu as turning crises into, 151–155
Optimization: defined, 162; examples of, 163, 171–173; finding opportunities for, 173–174; shift from minimization to, 170–171, 172, 174
Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, 285
Organizational culture. See Corporate culture
Oxfam, 72, 212, 267

Packaging: minimization and optimization strategies for, 163; new product “take-back” laws on, 102; policies and procedures for reducing, 177; sustainability issues for, 143; by Unilever, 48, 158; Wal-Mart’s efforts to reduce, 41, 149, 231
Parnassus Fund, 71
Partnerships: with NGOs, 212–213, 214–217; with stakeholders, 192–195
Patagonia, 180, 229, 276, 277
Pausch, Randy, 77
Pax World Fund, 71
Penobscot River restoration project, 107–128; battles over future of dams in, 115, 116–119; changed atmosphere with new owner of dams and power plants in, 119–121; eagle feathers opening discussion of, 107–109; and Indians’ dependence on river, 113–115; and industrial history of river, 111–113; lessons from, 126–128, 150; results achieved to date, 124–126; stakeholders in, 109–111; talks to work out agreement for, 121–124
PepsiCo: global minimum working age standard of, 177; Hurricane Katrina relief efforts of, 67; Kerala, India water case, 45–46, 146–147; reaches out to women and minorities, 7; shareholder resolution driving interest in sustainability, 239; sustainability analysis by, 140; sustainability championed by CEO of, 77, 180; sustainability sweet spot for, 38–40, 83; sustainability vision of, 265; virtual sustainability department communications at, 184
PETA, 212
Pfizer, 79, 217
Pharmaceutical industry, 143
Philanthropy: as responsibility of business, 55–56; sustainability vs., 33–34
Philip Morris, 24
Physicians for Social Responsibility, 47
Pillsbury, 143–144
Politics, 31, 127–128
Potter, Jim, 119–120
PPL Corporation, 119–120, 121–122, 123–124, 125, 126, 127, 128
Prahalad, C. K., 49
PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), 8, 78, 92, 140, 165, 231–232, 251
Priority tables, 203–204
Prius. See Toyota
Private sector, shift of power from public to, 66–68
Procedures: defined, 289; establishing, when implementing sustainability, 176–179
Procter & Gamble (P&G), 212; business growth in developing countries, 59; committed to women’s rights in Arab countries, 224–225; develops products for desperately poor, 7; in Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 80; in meeting about obesity crisis, 143; sweet spot for, 83; works with Wal-Mart, 60
Profit: business forms merging public good and, 271–278; drawbacks of focusing solely on, 27, 127; overlap between public good and, as sweet spot, 33–34, 156; as primary objective of business, 97–99; sustainability as enlightened way of pursuing, 270–271
Public good: business forms merging profit and, 271–278; overlap between profit and, as sweet spot, 33–34, 156
Public relations (PR), 89, 94–95
Puma, 62
Index 331

R
Rainforest Action Network, 193
Rainforest Alliance, 212, 213
Raven, Peter, 46
Ravenel, Curtis, 283
Reputation: of AEP, 220; benefits of, for sustainability, 68, 80, 187; of BP, 82; determined by actions, 175; ease of ruining, 237; of Ford and Goodyear, 223; of GE, 233; of Hershey, 15, 17, 31; improved, by sustainability, 50, 52; information from outside sources on, 135; as intangible asset, 62; of Nike, 153; of PepsiCo, 39; of Sustainable Forest Initiative (SFI), 229; of Wal-Mart, 41, 42, 82, 225
Research and development (R&D), 88
Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 57
Responsibility: for all members of value chain, 28, 61; expansion of corporate, 73–75; expansion of social, of business, 55–57; questions about, for business leaders to consider, 21–22; risks and opportunities with new, 147; sustainability vs., 51–52. See also Corporate social responsibility (CSR); Socially responsible investing (SRI)
Responsible Care, 95
Retailing, 143
Risks: managing, sustainability and, 88, 146–147; of sustainability reporting, 247–252, 298; turned into opportunities by sustainability, 145–147; World Economic Forum survey of, 78
Rockefeller, John D., 55
Rockefeller Foundation, 281
Rogers, Jean, 284
Royal Dutch Shell, 51–52, 66–67, 150, 154, 197–198
RTK law, 238
Russell, Gordon, 118
S
SABMiller, 212, 267
Safe Drinking Water Program (of P&G), 59
Sales, 88
Sanger, Stephen, 144
Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 69, 245, 249, 252
Savitz, Andy, 8, 231–232
Schanberg, Sydney H., 151–152
Scharffen Berger chocolates, 19
Schein, Edgar H., 258–259
Schlosser, Eric, 144
Schuler, George E., 107
Schultz, Howard, 77
Scott, H. Lee, 40, 76
Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 253, 254
Self-assessment. See Sustainability self-assessment
Serafeim, George, 43–44, 257
Service Employees International Union, 16
Seventh Generation, 276
Shareholder value, 126, 127, 145, 272–273
Shareholders: actions of, driving companies' interest in sustainability, 70–71, 238–239; avoiding conflict between society and, 34, 93; corporations' obligation to, 99
Shell. See Royal Dutch Shell
Shiller, Robert, 104
SHS OnSite Solutions, 16
Shultz, Edward, 190
Sierra Club, 47, 171, 212, 219
Silent Spring (Carson), 57
Skoll Foundation, 275
Smith, Adam, 96, 103, 104, 286
Smith, Liz, 175
Snowden, Edward, 69
Social activism, 65–66, 191–192
Social bottom line, typical measures of, 5
Social businesses, 277–278
Social consciousness, 64–66
Social entrepreneurship, 274–275
Social interests: as concern of government, 99–100; Wal-Mart's

Safe Drinking Water Act, 57 record of failure on, 41. See also Corporate social responsibility (CSR) Social media, 61–62, 143, 234–236
Social Progress Imperative, 285
Social Progress Index, 285
Socially responsible investing (SRI), 70–71, 89, 281
Solzhenitsyn, Aleksandr, 105
Sony, 169, 186
Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), 199
Southwest Airlines, 255
Spurlock, Morgan, 165
Stakeholder engagement: defined, 290; Hershey’s lack of, 20; importance of, 190–191; by PPL, 120, 127; steps for establishing process for, 295–296
Stakeholder mapping: impact chart technique, 202–203; influence grid technique, 205–210; priority table technique, 203–204; target analysis technique, 200–201
Stakeholders: adversarial relationships with, 197–199; creating groups of, 217–221, 249; customers as, 226–232; defined, 72; employees as, 29, 232–234; lessons from Hershey experiences on accountability to, 27–29; members of value chain as, 221–226; NGOs as, 211–214; partnering with, 192–195; in Penobscot River restoration project, 109–111; potential impact on future of companies, 191–192; power and influence of, in Age of Sustainability, 72–73; seeing perspective of, 195–197; using social media to enhance relationships with, 234–236
Starbucks, 77, 233, 254–255
Steering committees, 179
Stigson, Bjorn, 287
Stock exchanges, publication of sustainability data required by, 239, 252–253
Stock prices, of sustainable companies, 43–44, 257
Stone, Oliver, 69
Stonyfield Farm, 278
Strategy. See Business strategy;
Sustainability strategy
Subway, 165–166
Sumalindo Lestari Jaya, 193–195
Superfund law, 57, 139–140, 170–172, 238
Supply chain: management of, linked to sustainability, 87; Nike’s sustainability commitment transmitted throughout, 222–223; working with, to implement sustainability, 149. See also Value chain Sustainability: defined, 2, 4; evolution of concept of, 270–273; financial benefits of, 42–45, 257; hard cases for pursuing, 51–52; integrating, into corporate strategic planning, 156–159; interdependence and, 2–3; philanthropy vs., 33–34; responsibility vs., 51–52; terms confused with, 3–4; ways business enhanced by, 45–50, 52, 303n18. See also Implementing sustainability
Sustainability arguments against: by cynics, 92, 93–96; by skeptics, 92, 96–106
Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB), 284
Sustainability champions, 179–181
Sustainability departments, 181; virtual, 175, 181–185
Sustainability jiu-jitsu, 145–155; defined, 146; by looking for low-hanging fruit, 147–150; PepsiCo’s actions in Kerala case as, 146–147; from turning crises into opportunities, 151–155
Sustainability management system, framework for, 290–299
Sustainability map, 159–161
Sustainability movement: business functions linked to, 87–90; business leaders supporting, 76–79; global problems as opportunities for, 286–288; institutional support for, 79–80; reasons for businesses’ failure
Index 333

Sustainability programs: importance of middle managers in early stages of, 148; inadequacy of, 96; steps for launching, 293–294
Sustainability reporting, 237–255; benefits of, 246–247; costs and difficulties of, 245–246; definition of measurement and reporting, 290; as driving companies’ interest in sustainability, 237–239; employees’ interest in, 232; Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) guidelines on, 133, 141, 239–244; integrated into basic performance reporting, 254–255; online, 253–254; risks of, 247–252, 298; steps for, 296–298. See also Measurement
Sustainability self-assessment, 131–144; how you do it component of, 131, 138–140; steps for, 291–292; and sustainability’s application to your industry, 141–144; what you do component of, 131, 136–138; who can conduct, 132; who you are component of, 131, 132–136
Sustainability strategy: definition of strategy, 289; life-cycle assessment as, 168–170; minimization as, 162–167; no guarantee of success with, 252; optimization as, 162–163, 170–174. See also Business strategy; Sustainability Sweet Spot
Sustainability Sweet Spot: defined, 34, 156; for General Electric (GE), 36, 38, 39; and incorporating sustainability into strategic planning, 156–159; lessons from Penobscot River restoration project, 127; map for finding, 159–161; for PepsiCo, 38–40; steps for finding, 292–293; for Wal-Mart, 40–41, 42
Sustainable Apparel Coalition, 228–229
Sustainable corporations, defined, 2
Sustainable Forest Initiative (SFI), 229
Sweet Spot. See Sustainability Sweet Spot
Swiss Re, 212

T
Taft, William Howard, 113
Take Part organization, 65
Talent, attracted by reputation for sustainability, 68, 187, 233
Talisman Energy, Inc., 251–252
Target analysis, 200–201
Task forces, 179
Taylor, Kathy, 208
Technology industry, 142
Tellus Institute, 240
Thaler, Richard H., 104
Thatcher, Margaret, 97
The Sustainability Consortium (TSC), 228
Thinking: independent, 266–268; long-term, 127, 266
Thoreau, Henry D., 44
3M, 80, 148, 164–165, 233–234
Timber industry, 193–195, 229
Timberland, 229
Tom’s of Maine, 278
Toyota: in Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 79; life-cycle assessment by, 169; Prius developed by, 7, 83, 138, 150, 161–162
Transparency: big data and, 88–89; Hershey’s lack of, 19, 20; lessons from Hershey’s experiences on importance of, 29–30; by McDonald’s, 230–231; as outgrowth of Age of Sustainability, 8; and social network ombudsmen, 234; sustainability reporting and, 241, 243, 247, 252; throughout Nike’s supply chain, 222–223; when dealing with NGOs, 214, 218
Transportation industry, 143
The Triple Bottom Line (Savitz), 9
Triple Bottom Line (TBL): GRI and, 240, 241; as measure of sustainability, 5–6; origin of concept of, 4
Triple Bottom Line (TBL) assessment. See Sustainability self-assessment Triple Bottom Line (TBL) reporting. See Sustainability reporting.
Trotsky, Leon, 156
Tyndale, Stephen, 212

U
UBS, 283
Unilever: Ben & Jerry's purchased by, 276, 278; benefits of eco-efficiency to, 48; develops products for people in poverty, 7, 49; in Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), 79; global growth strategy of, 156–159; Greenpeace and, 212, 215; as member of IIRC, 255
Union Carbide, Bhopal, India, gas disaster, 95
United Nations: Global Compact, 77–78; Human Development Index, 285; World Food Program, 40
Unsafe at Any Speed (Nader), 57
U.S. Agency for International Development (AID), 40
U.S. Agriculture Department, 230
U.S. Conference Board, 78–79
U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, 57
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 35, 57, 80
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 107, 111, 118, 124, 125
U.S. Labor Department, 16
U.S. State Department, 16, 80

V
Value chain: adversarial groups attacking, 61, 216; as category of stakeholders, 200; engaging with, 221–223; factors complicating management of, 224–226; responsibility for actions of members of, 28. See also Supply chain
Values, espoused, 239
Veolia Water, 280
Virtual sustainability departments, 175, 181–185
Vision: defined, 289; sustainability, 265–266
Volvo, 149
Vowler, Robert C., 24

W
Wal-Mart, 76; and Bangladesh garment factory fire, 41, 225; as competition for Wegman’s, 50; environmental programs to reduce waste, 7, 231; environmental stewardship by, 40–41, 42; Hurricane Katrina relief efforts of, 67; labeling standard development and, 228, 229; low wages paid by, 7; reaching out to stakeholders, 192; reasons customers attracted to, 83; reputation of, 41, 42, 82, 225; shareholder demands driving interest in sustainability, 238–239; size of, 67; uneven record of, 41, 82; works with P&G, 60; works with supply chain, 149, 222
Warren, Elizabeth, 192
Warren, Rick, 77
Weber, Karl, 8
Websites, for information about companies’ sustainability efforts, 135–136
Wegman’s, 50
Welch, Dennis E., 151, 154
Welch, Jack, 35, 77
Wendy’s, 154–155
Whaling industry, 1, 300n1
Whistleblowers, 69
White, Allen L., 254, 271–272, 273
Whole Foods, 19, 77, 154, 180
Winslow Green Index, 43
Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 131
Wolf, Naomi, 69
World Business Council for Sustainable Development, 43, 78, 100–101, 141, 303n18
World Economic Forum at Davos, 78
World imperiled: events presenting evidence of, 63–64; opportunities for business in, 286–288; sustainability efforts inadequate for, 96
World Resources Institute, 193
World Wildlife Fund, 72
Wrigley, 25–26

Y
Yaegashi, Takehisa, 161
Yahoo, 67, 268
Yunus, Muhammad, 8, 274, 277–278, 279–280

Z
Zipcar, 173