Contents

Foreword  Earvin "Magic" Johnson  xiii

Acknowledgments  xv

Chapter 1  Why Sports and Business for Women?  1
  Be Flexible: Don’t Play the Play, Play the Game  12
  Succeed Together!  16
  Accept All Challenges  17
  Title IX Creates Equality  18

Chapter 2  The Playbook  23
  Successful Strategies for Your Team  27
  The Learning Plan  30
  Establish Your Leadership Style  32
  Don’t Be Late. Really.  35
  Loyalty Matters  37

Chapter 3  Find Your Love and Passion  43
  Toughen Up—Mentally  46
  Michael Jackson’s Message: Man in the Mirror  48
  Rucker Park: The Little White Girl Plays with the Best  50
  Muhammad Ali’s Gift of Hope  51
  The Power of a Woman’s Natural Traits: Empathy and Intuition  54
CONTENTS

Mentoring and Creating Opportunities for Others 55
Negotiating 101: Why Should I Have You on My Team? 56
Ladies, Dry Your Tears! 60

Chapter 4 Never Fear Success 63
Talk to Me 66
Utilize Criticism to Get Tougher and Better 68
Learn about Overcoming Fear from the Great Lou Holtz 71

Chapter 5 Think Like a Champion 75
Be Determined 79
You Are Who You Think You Are 84
My First Meeting with the Champ 87
Selective Hearing Not Allowed 90
Be Someone’s Hero 91

Chapter 6 It’s All about Teamwork 95
A Promise to the Team 102
Teamwork Defined 103
Building a Team 104

Chapter 7 Do Your Homework 111
Google It! 119
Scouting Report 121
See the Future 122
Larry Fitzgerald Provides a Lesson on Observing 123

Chapter 8 Stay in Shape 127
Make a Commitment and Get Started 131
Minimize Stress 133
A Few Words for Women Only 134

Chapter 9 Sports Talk 139
Use the Morning Headlines 141