Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Prologue: Why Study Disability? ix

Part I The Roots of Dehumanization 1
  1 Intellectual Disability: History and Evolution of Definitions 3
  2 The Social Construction of Purgatory: Ideas and Institutions 19
  3 A Failure of Intelligence 37
  4 The Consequences of Reason: Moral Philosophy and Intelligence 53

Part II Out of the Darkness 77
  5 Defining the Person: The Moral and Social Consequences of Philosophies of Selfhood 79
  6 Alternative Views of Moral Engagement: Relationality and Rationality 95
  7 Culture and Intellectual Disability 116

Part III Disability Ethics for a New Age 131
  8 Quality of Life and Perception of Self 133
  9 Application and Best Practices: Rights, Education, and Ethics 151
  10 Epilogue: Visions of the Future 170

References 177
vi Contents

Name Index 215
Subject Index 225