Index

ability 22, 128, 139, 140 ability requirements approach 22, 23 abnormal work hours 197, 200, 206–10, 214
and distress 209
and family life 208
and fatigue 208
and health 207–10
and well-being 208
definition 206–7
empirical evidence 208–10 prevalence 207
risks 207–8
absence policy 382
absence/presence culture 382 absenteeism 367
and job demands 126
and job design 84
and job satisfaction 332
and psychological flexibility 403
and salaries 50
and stress-management interventions 395

and work design 82
see also sickness absence absorption 300, 301 abusive supervision 179 accident proneness 345
accidents 342–66
and failures in maintenance 356, 359 and human behaviour 355
and lack of communication 355
and management practices 354, 355, 356, 359 and physical work environment 358, 359 and safety climate 362

and social support 358
and subjective demands 134
and the physical environment 355 antecedents of 354–9
discussion of 360
exposure 345–7
incidence 357–8
liability for 344, 345
of miners 12–13
prevention 345
propensity for 346–7
risk groups for 343–4
accomplishments 146, 296, 298 actigraphs 206
action phases 441
action programs 148
action regulation theory 145, 147–52, 155, 163, 416 activation 125, 127
activation–deactivation 304 activation-enhancing mechanism 103, 109 active failures 351–3
active learning 71–2, 403
active learning hypothesis 71–2 active recovery mechanism 213, 215 activities 4–5
activity–rest cycle 206, 207, 214 adaptation 426, 462
adaptive structuration theory (AST) 221, 232–5

An Introduction to Contemporary Work Psychology, First Edition.
Edited by Maria C. W. Peeters, Jan de Jonge and Toon W. Taris.
© 2014 John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. Published 2014 by John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. adaptive testing 42
additional decrement (AD) 74–5 adrenal glands 197, 198 advising 438
affect 203, 252, 259, 310 affective path of enrichment 274 age 244–7, 261, 417
agency 78, 465
aggression 102, 179, 245 agreeableness 278 agriculture 7, 8
airline cockpits 229
air traffic control 138, 261 alcohol 244, 250
allostatic load 199, 200, 214 allostatic load theory 199 allostatic systems 200
alpha coefficients 38
alternative forms reliability 35, 36–7 ambiguous behaviour 180 ambulance call-out scheduling 229 anaesthesia teams 452
antecedent–outcome models 272, 274 anxiety 10, 306, 395
applied psychology 13
appreciation 163, 186, 467 appreciative inquiry (AI) 473 arousal 154, 464
asset-focused strategies 468 attention 126, 135, 172, 235, 308, 359 automatic emotion regulation 160–1 automatic mode 151
automatic processes 150
automatic regulation 162 automation 223
automatization 149, 150, 152
autonomy (AU)
and end-user engagement 80
and high-quality work 357
and job control 172
and job demands 97
and job discretion 95
and motivation 92
and NWW 19
and recovery from work 215
and resources 95
and social support 95
and the Vitamin Model 75
and work–family conflict 285
and work–family enrichment 281
and work-time control 212
as a job resource 102
avoidance-focused coping 283 balance mechanism 103 bank wiring observation room 437 behaviour 323–4
and accidents 355
and engagement 308
and gender 270
and group cohesiveness 181
and job demands 126
and job simplification 172 challenges-seeking 421, 422 counterproductive 307
demands-reducing 421, 422, 423 feedback-seeking 421 proactive 420 resources-seeking 421, 422, 423 restrictions on 148
risky 10
safety-related 347
social support-seeking 421 unhealthy 203
see also positive organizational behaviour behavioural description approach 22, 23 behavioural lifestyle mechanism 203, 204, 205 behavioural modification 477 behavioural readiness 327 behaviour-based work–family conflict 270 behaviourism 474
behaviour requirements approach 22, 23 Bhopal disaster 351
biofeedback 395
biotechnology teams 436, 445 biomechanics 207, 208, 210 body mass index (BMI) 282 body positions 153
body temperature 207
bonuses 81
boredom 293–320
and arousal 316
and counterproductive work behaviour 309
and dispositional factors 311–12
and distress 307
and engagement 299–300
and extraversion 310
and health 316
and job demands 73
and performance 307, 316
and sickness absence 307, 316
and turnover 307
and underload 154, 306
and under-stimulation 125, 298, 301, 304, 316
and well-being 302, 316
avoidance 422
causes 306–7
consequences 306–7
definition 298
explanations for 313–14, 316
in popular culture 9 measurement 299
research 295
bottom-up participative approach 403 boundarylessness 378, 380 boundaryless work 213, 214, 215 breaks 208, 211, 212, 215, 437 Broader-and-Build Model 462 broadening effect 462
buffering effect 95, 173, 175 building effect 463 bullying 5, 179, 408
bureaucratization 306
burnout 293–320
and accomplishment 296, 298 and cardiovascular symptoms 306
and CSEs 253
and cynicism 297, 298, 301
and depersonalization 296 and emotional instability 309, 310
Index

and engagement 303
and health 306, 309, 316
and interpersonal resources 305
and job demands 92, 97, 305, 309
and job resources 92, 95, 309
and locus of control 311
and mental distancing 297, 298, 301 and neuroticism 309
and optimism 311
and overload 304, 313
and overstimulation 316
and performance 316
and psychosomatic symptoms 306 and reciprocity 313
and self-efficacy 311
and self-esteem 296, 311
and sickness absence 309, 316, 377
and stress 316
and subjective demands 134
and the ERI Model 78
and the JD-R Model 93
and uncertainty 157
and well-being 302, 316
and withdrawal from team 313
and women 248, 250, 298
and workaholism 303
and work–family conflict 279
and work obstacles 157
antecedents 91
as a multidimensional construct 297 biomarkers 306
causes 305–6
consequences 305–6
definition 296, 297
explanations for 312–13
history of 294–5
incidence 298
interpersonal explanation 313

carcinogenic substances 5 cardiovascular reactivity 94 cardiovascular symptoms 77, 78, 127, 157, 209, 306 career development 255 career opportunities 75, 77, 78 career outlook 5
caring 183, 189, 190
catecholamines 197
challenge demands 146, 147, 161, 307, 308 challenge–hindrance stressors 146 Challenger disaster 351 challenge seeking 421, 422, 425 Chemnitz 12
Chernobyl disaster 351–2 chronological approach 246 circadian rhythms 207–210, 215 circumplex model of emotions 301 civic virtue 361
Civil, Respect and Engagement at Work (CREW) 46 classical psychometric theory 42 classical test theory (CTT) 34–43, 41 coaching 397, 406
see also training
goal industry 79
cockpit crews 452
coefficient of precision 38 coefficient of stability 36 cognitive activation theory of stress (CATS) 197 cognitive appraisals 259 cognitive-behavioural programmes 394, 395 cognitive-behavioural therapy 395 cognitive coping strategies 395 cognitive demands 102, 105, 107, 145, 149, 154, 163 cognitive detachment 105, 107 cognitive development 91 cognitive errors 348–9, 353 cognitive image 148 cognitive load 18, 154
cognitive resources 102, 105, 107 collaboration 452
collectivism 450
combat stress see war stress commitment 16, 97, 126, 425 common method variance (CMV) 40, 42, 43, 49, 132, 135 communication and accidents 355 and multicultural teams 450 and stress management 396
and training 449
new means of 19
structure 440
virtual 449–50, 452, 454
competence and action regulation theory 163
and feedback 95
and resources 95
compensation mechanism 103 competition 268, 271
complexity 102, 151, 418
components approach 275–6 comprehensive soldier fitness (CSF) 469 comprehensive stress-management interventions 403 computer-adaptive testing 42 computer crime 363 computer-supported cooperative work (CSCW) 229 computer technology 138 see also information and communications technology concentration 125
concurrent validation 40 conflict 141, 179, 180, 441, 451, 453 conscientiousness 251, 278, 312 Conservation of Resources (COR) theory 93 constant effect (CE) 74–5 constellations 162
construct contamination 40, 42, 43 construct deficiency 40, 43 construct validation strategies 39, 40 consultation 83
consumer needs 435
content validation strategies 39, 40 contingency planning 465–6 control 187, 255, 260, 424 see also job control control beliefs 173, 174, 175 controlled processes 150 convenience sampling 49, 51 co-ordinated activities 4–5 coordination meeting 233
Copenhagen Psychosocial Questionnaire (COPSOQ) 384 coping 72, 73, 95–6, 184, 282–3, 286, 311, 395 coping hypothesis 95 core self-evaluation (CSE) 252, 253 correlation 50
cortisol 198, 206
cost-benefit analysis 454 counselling 181, 394
counterproductive work behaviour (CWB) 126, 253, 309, 323, 324, 331–3, 422 covariation see correlation coworker support groups 397 creative job demands 334–5 creativity and conflict 180 and detachment 106–7
and job resources 103, 105
crew resource management (CRM) 448, 449 crisis support 386

criterion contamination 41 criterion deficiency 41 criterion-referenced validation strategies 40 Cronbach’s alpha 36, 38 cross-domain principle 279, 280 cross-training 448
Cullen Report 353
culture 9, 11, 189, 283–4 curvilinear effects 75, 76 customer satisfaction 309

cynicism 95, 248, 297, 298, 301, 313

data collection techniques 22, 23 Davis-Besse nuclear power plant 349 deadlines 123
decision latitude 69, 70 decision making 85, 124, 396
decision models 380–4
dedication 300, 301
depth acting 160, 162
degradation 94
Demand–Control–Support (DCS) Model 24, 63, 69–73, 118, 120, 176 and ancillary interventions 84
and job demands 95
and job design 85
and policy 82–4
and sickness absence 375, 377
and stress 294
evaluation 72–73
nature of demands 146
Demand-Induced Strain Compensation (DISC) Model 24, 89, 99–109
see also extended DISC Model (DISC-R) demand reduction 425, 426
and job control 175
and resources 162–3
and role stress 179
nature of 145–62
qualitative 146
relating to internal processes 145
see also challenge demands;
cognitive demands;
emotional demands;
environmental demands;
hindrance demands;
interpersonal demands;
job demands;

demands-reducing
behaviour 421, 422, 423
demographic changes 19, 223 depersonalization 296, 313 depression 10, 72, 78, 175, 306
De Re Metallica 12
De Re Militari 12
Design phase 473
design studies 21
Destiny phase 473
detachment 103–7, 110, 212 developmental interventions 475 diagnostic profile 107–8 diaries 54, 258, 259, 425 diet 250
direct spillover 273
Discovery phase 473
DISC questionnaire
(DISQ) 102, 107
discretionary behaviour 423 disease model 473
display rules 158, 162, 417 distress 146, 209, 307 distributed cognition 228, 229 Docklands Light Railway 230 doctors 11
domain specificity principle 273 Dream phase 473
dual-earner couples 267, 271 Dutch Boredom Scale (DUBS) 299, 303 dynamic model of presenteeism and absenteeism 381, 382–3 economic crises 435
education 16, 20, 417

evaporative cooling 212 effort–reward imbalance theory 197, 199, 200, 214 Effort–Reward Imbalance (ERI) Model 24, 63, 77–9, 84, 85, 95, 163, 186, 375, 377 eldercare responsibilities 267

electronic books 223
electronic patient record (EPR) system 234–5 email 223
emergent states 441
emotional demands 93, 102, 107, 145, 158–62, 408
emotional detachment 107, 108 emotional deviance 161, 162 emotional dissonance 97, 160 emotional exhaustion 296 emotional instability 309, 310 emotional labour 145, 158–62, 180 emotional resources 102, 107, 108 emotional stability 102, 252, 309, 310 emotional support 102, 182, 184, 187, 190 emotion-focused coping 283 emotions 162, 462–3 emotion work 18, 145, 158–62, 180 employability 20, 21
employee assistance programmes 395 employee attitude surveys 54 employee retention 473 employment
and health 11, 77
and status 10
and well-being 11
protection 375
social benefits 10
see also unemployment
empowerment 172, 403, 449 enactive mastery 256
end-user engagement 80 energetic process 93, 97 engagement 293–320
and attitude 308
and boredom 299–300
and burnout 303
and challenge demands 307, 308
and challenge seeking 425 and conscientiousness 312
and customer satisfaction 309 and demand reduction 425
and dispositional factors 312
and emotional stability 309, 310
and extraversion 310
and job crafting 424, 425, 429
and job resources 95, 97, 98, 304, 307, 308, 309, 427
and motivation 308, 309
and performance 312
and positive affect 310
and project work 416
and PSC 408
and resources 95
and responsibility 307
and sickness absence 308
and supervisory coaching 98
and the JD-R Model 95
and turnover 308
and well-being 302, 316
assessment 301, 303
causes 307–9
definition 299, 300
distinguished from satisfaction 304
explanations for 307–9, 314–16
engineering 21
entrepreneurs 268, 452
environment 152, 396
environmental demands 152
equity 75
ergonomics 15, 21, 138, 139, 152, 226, 345 errors
and accidents 362, 363
and subjective demands 134
and working memory 154 cognitive 348–9, 353
discussion of 361
documentation of 361 knowledge based 348, 349, 351, 353 non-intended 350
of teams 435
rule based 348, 349
see also generic error-modelling system esteem 77, 78, 79, 189, 190 ethnic diversity 417
ethnicity 244, 248–9, 250 ethnography 228
European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions (EFILW) 200
European Statistical System (Eurostat) 368 European Survey on Working Conditions 207 European Working Time Directive (EWTD) 201
evaluation 132
exercise 395
exhaustion 146, 296, 297, 300, 301, 313, 316, 424 existential realism 44–7, 50–5 expansion approach 270, 271 expansionist theory of multiple roles 270 expectations 179, 312 experience sampling 52, 53, 258 expert ratings 132
extended DISC Model (DISC-R) 104–5, 106–10 external organizational factors 122 external recovery 210, 211, 212, 215 extraversion 278, 281, 285, 310, 475 eye protection 359
facet job satisfaction 322–2 factories 13
family
and social support 184
definition 268–9
resources 281, 285
family–work conflict (FWC) 272, 279, 280, 282, 284, 285 family–work enrichment (FEW) 272, 281–2, 284, 285 fatigue
and abnormal work hours 208
and arousal 154
and burnout 297
and cognitive demands 154 and computer technology 138
and degradation 94
and focusing 154
and job demands 138, 139
and performance 94, 138
and reduced capacity 154 and rest 125, 128
and shift rotation 209, 210
and subjective demands 134
and work hours 203, 205, 223
in ammunition factories 294 see also fatigue-like states fatigue-like states 125, 128
see also fatigue
feedback (FB) 66, 68, 69
and competence 95
and job demands 97, 123
and learning 95
and motivation 92
and self-efficacy 256
and social persuasion 464
and social support 181
and uncertainty 157
as a reinforcer 474 positive and negative 462 use of 151
feedback loops 385
feedback-seeking behaviour 421 field experiments 45–7
five-stage model of team development 443 flexibility
and automatization 150
and competition 268
and mobile working 224
and PSC 408
and work–family policies 283
and work-time control 212
in human action 149 of work 19, 81, 414
organizational 124
psychological 403 requirement for 20, 21
spatial 20
temporal 19, 20 flight attendants 158
flow 54
focus groups 52, 53
focusing 154
formative evaluation 228 free periods 211
friendships 16, 184
full mediation 94
functional approach 246
functional units 149
Gallup Organization 475 gap analysis 473
gender 244, 247–8, 270, 382
general accident causation scenario 355 general failure types (GFTs) 354, 355–9 generalizability 44, 45, 47–51, 54–6 Generic Error-Modelling System (GEMS) 347, 348–51 globalization 19, 21, 417, 436, 449, 450, 452 global job satisfaction 322 goal attainment 156, 244, 308 goal-directed activities 4 goal setting 151, 447, 465 goals, operators, methods and selection rules (GOMS) 228 grand theories 90
grand-tour questions 52
groening, Matt 10
group cohesiveness 181 group discussion 47
group identification 451
groupthink 451, 453
guessing parameter 42 hackers 363
halo effect 136
happy–productive worker thesis 31 harassment 179, 180, 190, 408 hardiness 311
Hawthorne studies 16, 64, 65, 437 health
and boredom 316
and burnout 306, 309, 316
and emotional demands 93 and emotion work 161–2
and employment 11
and job control 72, 73, 191, 399
and job demands 71–3, 92, 93, 100, 125, 129, 140, 163, 421, 424
and job motivation 92
and job resources 92, 100
and lean production 124
and locus of control 174
and managerial support 285
and motivation 109
and multiple roles 270
and off-the-job events 104
and overload 399
and overtime 204, 205, 214
and presenteeism 399
and PSC 407, 408
and qualitative demands 163
and recovery from work 105, 197
and satisfaction 40
and shift work 99, 209, 210
and sickness absence 385, 386, 399
and sickness presence 385, 386
and social support 72, 73
and stress 190, 197, 198, 394
and the DCSM 69
and the ERI Model 77
and the human relations movement 17
and the JD–R Model 421
and unemployment 10, 77
and work hours 202–5, 207–10, 214
and work psychology 5, 17
and work–family enrichment 282
and workload 93, 421
mental 74–7, 306, 396, 403
of miners 12, 17
Health and Safety Executive 83 health-impairment process 93, 97, 424 health information theory (HIT) 221 heart disease 72
heliotropism 461, 476
Herald of Free Enterprise disaster 351 hierarchies 163, 435, 436, 453 hierarchy of functional units 149 high-performance work systems (HPWS) 124, 125, 357 high-quality work 357
high-strain jobs 70, 104, 105
hindrance demands 146, 147, 308, 424
hindrance stressors 179 Hippocratic Collection 11 hope 128, 260, 465–6, 468, 477 hopelessness 465
hostility 180, 189
human computer interaction (HCI) 221, 227, 228 human factors 15, 225
see also ergonomics
human relations movement 16–17 human resource management (HRM) 123, 124, 125, 137, 140 humour 286
hypothalamic–pituitary–adrenal (HPA) system 197, 198, 200 ideal processes 151
‘i deals’ see idiosyncratic deals idiosyncratic deals (‘i-deals’) 20, 135, 417, 419 illegitimate tasks 20
ill-health policy 370 Illness Flexibility Model 381–2 immune system 127, 200
inactivity 250
incentives 124, 437
incivility 46
income 10, 248
independent variables 44–5 indicator tool 83
indirect spillover 273
individual characteristics 75, 243–66 see also worker characteristics individual/organizational interface-directed interventions 397 individual stress-management interventions 395–400 individualism 450
Industrial Fatigue Research Board 294 Industrial Revolution 10, 13, 17, 64, 268 inefficacy 313
information and communications technology (ICT) 10, 20, 21, 123 information overload 223 information revolution 18
information systems 232 information technology (IT) 222, 223, 233 injuries 343, 346, 357
innovation 100, 123–5, 139, 425–6 Institute of Social Research (University of Michigan) 294 instrumental path of enrichment 274 instrumental support 182, 184, 187, 188, 190 integration 269 intellectual mode 151 intended acts 348 intended errors 350
intensification of work 20 interaction (effect) 95, 100, 128, 162, 176, interdisciplinary work design framework 416 interfaces 227
internal organizational factors 122 internal recovery 210, 211, 212, 215 internal reliability 35–8 internal validity 46
International Labour Office 200–1
International Labour Organization (ILO) 7 International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 120 internet-based surveys 54 interpersonal contact 75
interpersonal demands 296
interpersonal relations 447 inter-rater reliability 35, 36, 37 inter-role conflict 284
interruptions 157
inter-sender conflict 155 interviews 52, 53, 132, 372 intra-sender conflict 155 intrusion 475
investment, in employee skills 124 involuntary absence 372–3 iso-strain jobs 70
item difficulty parameter 41 item discrimination parameter 42
item response theory (IRT) 41, 42 job analysis 96–7
job characteristics and attitudinal outcomes 416 and individual characteristics 75 and job features 76
and mental health 75
and overcommitment 79
and performance 190
and satisfaction–performance relation 330
and the Vitamin Model 73–6
and well-being 76, 190
eyellow changes 421
interactions between 100 see also job characteristics approach; Job Characteristics Model job characteristics approach 22 see also job characteristics; Job Characteristics Model Job Characteristics Model (JCM) 24, 63, 65–9, 416 and ancilliary interventions 84
and job design 85
and motivation 92
and policy 82–4
evaluation 67
see also job characteristics; job characteristics approach job complexity 334–5 Job Content Questionnaire (JCQ) 71 job control 172–95
and health 191
and autonomy 172
and decision authority 172
and demands 175
and empowerment 172
and health 72, 73, 399
and job decision latitude 172
and job demands 304
and leadership 187–8
and learning 72, 173, 175
and locus of control 176
and mobile working 224
and motivation 172, 173, 175, 190
and overload 120
and participation 172
and performance 172, 178, 191
and pressure 120
job control (cont’d)
and PSC 408
and resources 176
and satisfaction 172, 175
and self-efficacy 173, 176
and self-reports 175
and social meaning 190
and stress 172, 173, 175, 176
and the DCSM 71–2
and the Vitamin Model 75
and well-being 175, 178
assessment 83
definition 69
functions 173–4
guidance 83
in the working environment 190 interventions for improving 176–7 objective ratings 175
outcomes 172–95
research 174–6
job crafting 414–33
and commitment 425
and control 424
and employee rank 423, 424
and engagement 424, 425, 426, 429
and innovation 425–6
and job demands 421, 422, 423
and job resources 421
and motivation 420, 426
and organizational change 425–6
and performance 424, 426
and pressure 424
and satisfaction 424, 425
and self-efficacy 429
and self-image 424
and the JD–R model 421–3
and well-being 429
as an individual job redesign approach 419–29 conceptualization 419–20
definition 415, 419, 420, 421
dysfunctional consequences 426
outcomes 424, 425
predictors 423
roots 415–18
training 427–9
unresolved issues 426–7
job decision latitude 172 Job Demand–Control Model 162, 173, 175, 408
job demands
and ability 128, 140
and attitudes 126
and autonomy 97
and behaviour 126
and boredom 73, 144
and burnout 92, 97, 305, 309
and coping 73
and depression 72
and emotional dissonance 97 and exhaustion 424
and fatigue 138, 139
and feedback 97, 123
and health 71, 72, 73, 92, 93, 100, 125, 129, 140, 163, 421, 424
and heart disease 72
and high-performance work systems 125 and human resource management 140
and job control 304
and job crafting 421, 422, 423
and job performance 125
and job resources 103, 105, 108, 109, 110
and learning 126
and morale 396
and motivation 73, 92, 100, 424
and negative affect 144 and organizational citizenship 126
and overload 304
and performance 126
and performance appraisal 123 and private life constraints 128, 140
and productivity 100
and PSC 408
and psychological capital 128, 140
and recovery 106
and recruitment 123
and rewards 163
and role ambiguity 156
and role problems 304
and satisfaction 126
and self-regulation 101
and sickness absence 126, 375
and skill development 126
and social support 72, 97, 304
and strain 95, 97
and stress 109, 135, 375
and stressors 145
and the DCSM 69–73
and the Vitamin Model 75
and training 123
and turnover 126
and under-stimulation 73
and well-being 97, 125, 129, 140, 396
and worker characteristics 140
and work–family conflict 285
and work–home interference 128
as effort 77
assessment 83, 132–5
creative 334–5
definition 102
guidance 83
interpersonal 335
qualitative see qualitative job demands quantitative see quantitative job demands empirical test of 98
evidence for 97
key assumptions 92–7
Job Demands–Resources Model (JD–R Model) 24, 89, 91–9, 108, 109, 118, 173
and health 421
and job analysis 96–7
and job crafting 421–3
and PSC 408
and well-being 421
and work–family enrichment 281
empirical test of 98
evaluation 98–9
evidence for 97
job control (cont’d)
Job Descriptive Index (JDI) 322–3 job design 63–88, 415
and absenteeism 84
and motivation 419
and performance 419
and recovery from work 211
and working conditions 419 guidance on 84
involvement of employees in 80 political regulation 64
research 223
socio-technical approach 172 see also job redesign Job Diagnostic Survey (JDS) 68, 69 job discretion 95
job performance see performance job prospects 163
job redesign 137, 138, 139, 396, 415–17, 420 and diagnostic profile 107–8
and motivation 418
and Taylorism 16
and technology 417
and the DCSM 71
and well-being 418
bottom-up approaches 419 continuous 231
individualization of 417–18
relational perspectives 417
research 416
time perspective 418
top-down interventions 414–15 to stimulate proactivity 417–18 job redesign see also job design job resources
and burnout 92, 95, 309
and commitment 97
and creativity 103, 105
and engagement 95, 97, 98, 304, 307, 308, 309, 427
and health 92, 100
and job crafting 421
and job demands 103, 105, 108, 109, 110
and learning 105
and morale 396
and motivation 92, 95, 97, 100
and PSC 408
and self-efficacy 309
and stress 109
and well-being 396
and work-family conflict 285
definition 102
stress-buffering effects 101, 103, 106 job restructuring 396
job satisfaction see satisfaction job security 163, 382
job simplification 232
joint optimization 80
justice 180, 189
just-in-time management 123 King’s Cross disaster 351 knowledge-based action 349 knowledge-based errors 348, 349, 351, 353 knowledge-based industry 417 knowledge-based mode 151 knowledge, skills and abilities (KSAs) 441, 442, 448, 454 knowledge work 18, 20 laboratory experiments 44–5, 47, 56 labour market 122–4, 139 labour statistics 7
lack of recovery mechanism 202–5 Landauer, Thomas 235
lapses 348, 351
laptops 224
lateness 332
latent failures 351–5
layoffs 52
laziness 14, 15
leaders 472–4
leadership 12, 16, 42, 181, 186–8, 440, 449, 450
lean manufacturing 123
lean production 124 learning opportunities 281 orientation 255, 260 active 403
and detachment 106–7
and feedback 95
and job control 72, 173, 175
and job demands 126
and job resources 105
vicarious 464
leave 283
legal institutions 122, 124, 139 leniency 467
lifelong learning 20
lifespan approach 247
lifestyle 244, 249–50
lifting 102, 153
lighting 16, 358, 437
load effects 199
locus of control (LoC) and burnout 311 and dynamic model of presenteeism and absenteeism 382
and health 174
and job control 176
and stress 176
and work-family conflict 278, 279
definition 252
London Underground 226, 229–30 low-strain jobs 70
Lyons Electronic Office (LEO) system 235–6 maladaptation 462 management and accidents 354, 355, 356, 359, 362, 363 attitudes to safety 359 implementation of layoffs 52
just-in-time 123
of conflict 441
of performance 137, 139, 213 scientific 14–15
style 123, 125
systems 345
management standards for work-related stress 138–9 management standards process 84 managerial support 284, 285
Index

manufacturing 18, 20, 69, 123, 416 Marienthal 10
marital dissatisfaction 273
Maslach Burnout Inventory (MBI) 297, 298, 300, 303 mass production 13 mastery experiences 464 matching hypothesis 100–2 meaningfulness of work 66
measurement 32–4
media 228
mediation 94 medical care 138
medical model 459
medical research teams 436 meditation 395
memory biases 53
mental distancing 297, 298, 301 mental effort 154 mental health 74–7, 396, 403 mental models 148
mental rehearsals 466
meta-analysis 55
metabolic disorders 209 meta-paradigm 90
Metropolitan Life Insurance 475 Michigan Organizational Assessment Questionnaire 322 micro-breaks 211
microcomputers 223
middle-range theories 90–1 military manuals 12, 17 mills 13
miners
accidents 12–13
diseases 12, 17
mini-breaks 211
minimal specification 80, 231 mission analysis 441 mistakes 347–50
see also errors
mobbing 179
mobile working 224–5
model development 90–1 model of sickness presence and sickness absence 381, 382 modelling 464
moderation (effect) 75, 94, 162, 333, 713 modern psychometric theory 41–2 money 474
mood 135
Moore’s law 223 morale
and job demands 396
and job resources 396
and scientific management 16
and stress 402
survey of 41
see also motivation mortality 10
motivating potential score (MPS) 68, 85 motivation
and autonomy 92
and complexity 151
and control beliefs 174
and CSEs 253
and engagement 308, 309
and feedback 92
and health 109
and human resource management 124
and JCM 92
and job characteristics 65–9, 416
and job control 172, 173, 175, 190
and job crafting 420, 426
and job demands 73, 100, 424
and job design 419
and job redesign 418
and job resources 92, 95, 97, 100
and job simplification 172
and performance 416
and positive psychology 98
and productivity 64
and resources 93
and satisfaction 151, 327
and self-evaluation 244
and STST 81
and task significance 92–3 and teamwork 441
and variety 151
antecedents 16
in action regulation theory 148 maintenance 422 measures 42
of soldiers 12
motivational demands 145, 149 motivational enhancement process 97 multicultural teams 450, 452 multidimensionality of constructs 102 multi-functional roles see multi-skilled roles multinational teams 436 multi-skilled roles 81
musculoskeletal discomfort 211
National Programme for Information Technology (NPfIT) 221
needs assessment 404
negative affect 135, 144, 180, 203, 252, negative bias 461
negative stimuli 461–3 negativity 477
negotiation 438, 450
neuroticism 438, 450
needs assessment 404
objective employee characteristics 244, 245–50 objective measurement 129–32, 136–7 objective ratings, and job control 175 observational studies 52, 53 observation method 52 observed ratio 35
occupational health and safety (OHS) 405, 406 occupational medicine 12–13, 17, 152 off-the-job events 103–4 older persons 375
open-ended questions 52 openness to experiences 278 operant conditioning 91 operational definition 32 opportunity seeking 467 optimism 42, 96, 97, 111, 255, 466–70, 475, 477 optimizing violations 350 Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) 368 organizational approach 246 organizational change and job crafting 425–6 organizational citizenship behaviour (OCB) 126, 245, 253, 323–4, 331, 333, 361 organizational climate 472, 473 organizational constraints scale 157 organizational culture 379 organizational flexibility 124 organizational performance 124 organizational psychology 227, 229 distinguished from work psychology 6 organizational renewal 124 organizational restructuring 52 organizational stress-management interventions 397, 398 organizational structure 225, 396 organizational time demands 284 overcommitment 78, 79, 375 overlapping schedules 270 overload 120–1, 154, 156, 179, 223, 277, 285, 304, 313, 399 overstimulation 298, 304, 316 overtaxing regulation 157, 158 overtime 119–21, 197, 200–1, 214
and health 204, 205, 214
and well-being 204, 214
excessive 205, 206
mandatory 205
quality of 204–5
Paddington train crash 352–3 PAR approach 401, 403, 409 parallel design 231 parental leave 268
partial mediation 94 participant observation 53, 228 participation 172, 396, 403–4, 406 participative approach (stress management) 403–4, 406 passive jobs 70, 119
passive recovery mechanism 211, 213, 215 patient-to-nurse ratio 305 pay-for-performance systems 17
pay inequity 247
pensions 16
performance and activation 125
and boredom 307, 316
and burnout 316
and challenge demands 146, 161
and conscientiousness 312
and CSEs 253
and degradation 94
and emotion work 161
and engagement 312
and ethnicity 248
and fatigue 94, 138
and gender 248
and human resource management 137
and job characteristics 67, 190
and job control 175, 191
and job crafting 424, 426, 429
and job demands 126
and job design 419
and leadership 12, 16
and motivation 416
and positive psychology 458–9
and positivity 477
and pressure 117
and project work 416
and PSC 408
and role demands 156
and satisfaction 32, 55, 321–36
and self-efficacy 261
and self-evaluation 244 and states 244
and stress 294
and subjective demands 134
and subjective employee characteristics 261 and task analysis 21
and the DCSM 69
and the DISC Model 103
and the JD-R Model 94
and well-being 5
and work psychology 5, 11
appraisal 123
cues 135
definition 323–5
management 137, 139, 213
of teachers 258
of tasks 323, 325–30
sustainable 5, 6, 11
performance-based approach 246 performance-protection strategies 93 performance-related incentives 124 permanent employment 20 personal crafting plan (PCP) 428 personal digital assistants (PDAs) 53–4 personal growth 146 personality 135, 250, 270, 277, 278, 281, 383, 423, 424 personal resources 96–8, 110, 111, 259–61 person-directed interventions 395–6 person–environment fit 137, 163 person–job fit 303 personnel psychology 6
person–role conflict 155 phase model of disillusionment 312 physical demands 102, 107, 145, 152–3 and ergonomics 152
and hindrance demands 147
and stressors 152
physical detachment 107 physical distribution 440 physical resources 102, 107 physiological arousal 464 placement 396
planning 14, 148, 151
political institutions 122, 124, 139 political issues 403, 435 popular culture 9, 11 positive affect 252
positive intervention 458–80 positive life situations 471 positive organizational behaviour (POB) 459, 460 positive organizational context 472 positive organizational scholarship (POS) 459, 460 positive psychology
and motivation 98
and performance 458–9
and the success paradigm 460–1
and well-being 458–9
positive stimuli 461–2, 463 positive work behaviours 474 positivity 57, 460, 461, 476, 477 power distance 450
power problems 403
power relationships 225 practical support 184 precision 44–6, 50, 56 predictive validation 40 pre-retirement 372
presenteeism 35, 367, 379, 380, 399 see also sickness presence pressure 117, 120, 121, 424 preventive stress management theory 397 primary prevention strategies 408 primary stress-management interventions 394, 396–8, 400 proactive actions 425 proactive personality 417, 423, 424 proactive perspectives 417 proactive work behaviours 420 probabilistic principles 103 probability sampling 47, 48, 49, 51 problem-focused coping 282 problem solving 85, 151, 438–9, 473, 447 process analysis 94 process-focused strategies 469 procrastination 422
production deviance 307 productivity
active learning hypothesis 72
and AI 473
and coping 72, 73
and friendships 16
and happiness 31
and job demands 100
and motivation 64
and positivity 460
and PSC 408
and qualitative demands 163
and satisfaction 31, 35, 43
and sickness absence 370, 386
and sickness presence 378, 379, 380, 385, 386
and STST 81
and Taylorism 16
and teams 16
and technology 235
and working conditions 437
and work psychology 11
antecedents 16
professional efficiency 297, 301 profit 11, 16, 473 project work 416
promotion opportunities 247 propensity 351
protective clothing 13 psychological capital (PsyCap) 128, 140, 255, 260, 470–3, 477 psychological contract 20, 21, 417 psychological effort 69 psychological flexibility 403 psychological resources 474 psychological safety 180, 450 psychological saturation 154 psychological vitamins 74, 76 psychometric theory 42
psychomotor action 438, 440 psychosocial hazards 409 psychosocial risks 393–413 psychosocial safety climate (PSC) 406–9 psychosocial work environment 384, 386 psychosomatic complaints 157, 175 psychosomatic disorders 253 psychosomatic symptoms 146, 306 psychotechnics 13, 17
PUMA Model 377
punctuated equilibrium paradigm 443 qualitative job demands 118–19, 144–68 qualitative overload 154 qualitative research 51 qualitative underload 154 quality of life 10 quantitative job demands 117–43 quantitative overload 154 quantitative techniques 53 quantitative underload 154 quasi-experiments 46–7 random sampling 48, 51
rating 135, 136
reactivity 53, 198
reciprocity 77, 79, 313, 315 recognition 474
records 55
records-based data 368
recovery from work 104–106, 109, 196–219 recovery theory 104 recreational programmes 16 recruitment 12, 123, 137 re-engineering 414
regulation obstacles 156, 157, 158 regulation problems 145, 156–8 regulation requirements 151–2 regulation uncertainty 156, 157, 158 see also uncertainty regulatory resources 152 rehabilitation 386
Index

493 reinforcement 474

relatedness 95
relational crafting 425 Relative Deprivation Model 10, 11 relaxation training 395 reliability 34–8, 39, 55, 56 remuneration 78
repetitive strain injuries 211 replaceability 380
representational states 228 research design 43–55 research design requirements 44 resilience 96, 128, 255, 260, 468–470, 477 resistance to degradation 94 resource depletion 202 resource-increasing coping strategies 283 resources
and autonomy 95
and competence 95
and cynicism 95
and demands 162–3
and engagement 95
and job control 176
and motivation 93
and relatedness 95
family 281, 285
personal 96, 98, 110, 111, 259, 260, 261 regulatory 152
resources-seeking behaviour 421, 422, 423 response rate 49, 51 responsibility 66, 307 rest periods 16 return-to-work interviews 372 reward contingency 333–4 rewards 77–9, 163, 186, 474 risk analysis 345
risk assessment 405, 406 risk-focused strategies 468–9 risky behaviour 10 role accumulation theory 270, 271 role adjustment 417 role ambiguity 147, 155, 156, 179 role clarification 447 role conflict 147, 155–7, 179, 277, 285, 408 role demands 155, 156
role expectations 156
role overload 155, 179, 277, 279 role requirements 75
role–role conflict 155 roles 81, 83, 105, 270, 405–6 role strain 269
role stress 155–6, 179, 269 role stress theory 269 role stressors 277, 278, 279 role structure 439
role theory 155
role uncertainty 156
Romans 12, 17
routine violations 350
routinization 149, 150, 152 rule-based actions 349 rule-based errors 351, 348, 349 sabotage 307
safety 21, 342–66
climate 346, 359, 360–3 committee 359
historical perspectives 345 laws (UK) 344–5
officers 359
performance 245 regulations 350
training 355, 359, 361, 363
safety citizenship behaviours (SCBs) 361–2 safety-related change 361 salaries 50, 75, 77, 79 sampling 51 sandwiched generation 285–6 satisfaction
and absenteeism 332
and affect 252
and behavioural readiness 327
and challenge demands 161
and complexity 151, 418
and counterproductive work behaviour 331–3
and creative job demands 334–5
and emotional stability 252
and emotion work 161
and employee withdrawal 332, 333 and family–work conflict 281 and genetic predisposition 252
and health 40
and job characteristics 67, 416
and job control 172, 175
and job crafting 424, 425
and job demands 126
and latency 332
and leadership 181
and mandatory overtime 205
and motivation 327
and optimism/pessimism 42
and organizational citizenship behaviour 331, 333
and performance 32, 55, 321–36
and productivity 31, 35, 43
and qualitative demands 163
and role demands 156
and sickness presence 35
and stress-management interventions 395
and task performance 325–30
and turnover 40, 332–3
and variety 151
and women 248, 250
and work–family conflict 279
and work–family enrichment 282
antecedents 16
definition 322–3
distinguished from engagement 304
evaluation 132
facet 322–3 global 322
in relationships 285
measurement 41, 42
scarcity approach 269 scientific management 14–15, 17, 28, 64, 172 secondary data 54
secondary research 54–5
secondary stress-management interventions 394, 397–8, 400 selection 137, 475–6 bias 7–8
of workers 14
and job demands 139
and stress management 396
for teams 451
selection-based positive interventions 475–6 self-awareness 473
self-directed behaviour 427 self-efficacy 111, 174, 256, 260 and assets 468
and burnout 311
and challenges 309
and job control 173, 176
and job crafting training 429
and job resources 309
and performance 261
and personal resources 96
and psychological capital 128, 470, 471
and the ERI Model 77
definition 252, 254
development 463–5, 477
micro-intervention to increase 256–7 moderating role 97
self-employment 268
self-esteem
and burnout 296, 311
and personal resources 96
and the ERI Model 77
definition 252
moderating role 97
self-evaluation 244, 252 self-management 81, 414 self-rated measures 132–7 self-regulation 20, 77, 101, 473 self-reports 42, 43, 49, 134, 175 self-rostering 213 self-scheduling 213, 215 self-talk 470
semi-autonomous work groups (SAWGs) 81, 82 sensitivity requirements 147 sequential interdependence 440 service organizations 158 service sector 7, 8, 18, 20, 416 shell shock 294
shift work 99, 197, 207–10, 215 sick leave 369, 375
sick pay 16
sickness absence
and boredom 307, 316
and burnout 309, 316, 377
and engagement 308
and health 385, 386, 399
and job demands 375
and job strain 376–7
and productivity 370, 386
and psychological flexibility 403
and social support 375
and stress 375
antecedents 374, 375, 377, 384, 386
approaches to studying 374–7 costs 5, 369–70, 384
databases 368
decision models 380–3
definition 367
duration-based approaches 371–2, 37 forms 371–4 frequency-based approaches 371, 373 functional 370
practices to reduce 386
prevalence 368–9, 375
prevention 386
screening instrument 386 volition-based approaches 372, 373, 374 see also absenteeism sickness presence
and gender 378
and health 379, 380, 385, 386
and productivity 378, 379, 380, 385, 386
and professional identity 378 and profitability 379
and satisfaction 35
antecedents 386
costs 378, 384
decision models 380–3
definition 378, 380
in a market analysis consultancy 379–80
practices to reduce 386
prevalence 378
prevention 386
see also presenteeism signal passed at danger (SPAD) 253 similarity-attraction theory 248 simplification 14, 17, 154, 172
single parents 267
situational violations 350 skill-based actions 349 skills acquisition 228
development 126
skill variety (SV) 65, 68, 69, 418 sleep difficulties 203, 209, 215, 225, 306 slips 348, 351
smartphones 19, 224
smoking 10, 244
snapshot approach 50
social capital development strategies 468 social constructionism 421 social debt 185 social exchange model 313–14 social information 135 social interactions 172–95 social loafing 453 social marginality 248
social meaning 186–8
social networking 223
social persuasion 256, 464 social stressors 173, 178–80, 186, 190 social support 180–6
and autonomy 95
and caring 183
and coping 184
and feedback 181
and health 72, 73, 185
and job demands 72, 97, 304
and PSC 408
and sickness absence 375
and stress 181, 184
and the DCSM 70–2
and work–family conflict 277, 278, 279, 285
effects on employees 184 meaning of 187–8
negative effects 184–5 networks 285 seeking 421
sources 183–4
socio-technical systems theory (STST) 63, 79–84, 172, 221, 230–2, 234–5, 416 soft systems analysis 231 software development 229 soldiers 12
spatial flexibility 20, 213, 215 spells 371
spillover models 272–5
split-half reliability 37 spousal support 281
spuriousness hypothesis 330
St Lucie Medical Center 476 stability 20 standardization 15, 306 standing 153
state approach 250
state-like characteristics 244, 251, 254–6, 260, 261, 475 states 250, 251, 257, 259–61, 475 status 10, 75, 359
stepping 465
stewardship 361
stock-investment simulations 259 stock purchase plans 16 strain
and challenge demands 146
and CSEs 253
and emotion work 161
and gender 248
and job demands 95, 97, and role demands 156
and sickness absence 376–7
and social stressors 186
and stressors 173, 184
hypothsis 71–2
strain-based work–family conflict 270 stratified sampling 48, 51 strengths 472
stress
and burnout 316
and control beliefs 174, 175
and coping theory 294
and CSEs 253
and Demand–Control–Support Model 294
and emotion work 159–60
and gender 247
and goal attainment 156
and health 197, 198
and job control 172, 173, 175, 176
and Job Demand–Control Model 175
and job demands 109, 135, 375
and job resources 109
and locus of control 176
and mobile working 225
and morale 402
and optimism/pessimism 42
and performance 294
and qualitative demands 146
and recovery from work 104, 109
and shift work 209
and sickness absence 375
and social interactions 175
and social support 181, 184
and the ERI Model 77
and uncertainty 156, 157
and vacations 211
and well-being 402
and work–family conflict 279
definition 197
environmental factors 152, 399
in World War II 196
interventions 360
management 394–401
manifestations of 197
measurement 42, 133
person-environment fit approach 137
prevention 406–9
reduction 394
research 294, 400
responses to 200
risk factors 408
symptoms 146
work related 138–9
see also cognitive activation theory of stress; stress management interventions stress appraisal theory 146 stress buffering (mechanism) 101, 103, 106, 109 stress management intervention 393–406 stressors
and challenge demands 146, 147
and exhaustion 297
and health 198
and hindrance demands 146, 147
and job control 173, 175
and job demands 145
and physical demands 152
and satisfaction–performance relation 330
and social support 184
and strain 173, 184
and stress-management interventions 394, 395
and work–family conflict 277, 285
and work–home interference 203 exposure to 200
prevalence 401
reduction processes 396 social 178–80, 186, 190 stretch goals 465, 470 strikes 16
structured interviews 52
students 45
stupidity 14
subcontractors 357
sub-goals 470
subject attrition 45
subjective demands 134 subjective employee characteristics 244, 250–60 subjective measures 129, 132–7 substance use 245
success 460–1, 465
summative evaluation 228 superordinate goals assignment 451 supervision 17, 75, 98, 132, 184, 408 support 80–1, 83, 185–6, 188 surface acting 160, 162 surveys 43, 47–51, 54, 56, 132, 135 sustainable performance 5, 6, 11 Swiss Cheese model 352, 353, 355 sympathetic activation 94 sympathetic–adrenal–medullary (SAM) system 197, 198, 200 system design 85
systems approach 225–7
Systems Engineering Initiative for Patient Safety (SEIPS) 226 tailored testing 42
talent 250, 475–6, 477 tardiness 245
target approach (stress management) 397, 400 tasks analysis 21–3
avoidance 422
complexity 423
crafting 425
design 151
elements 126
interdependence 423, 439
planning 14
redesign 23
simplification 14, 17
social meaning of 188–9 role cross-cutting 451
training for 14
types 437–40
variety 281, 357, 418
task–action grammar (TAG) 228 task characteristics approach 22, 23 task identity (TI) 65–6 task-representation techniques 22, 23 task significance (TS) 66, 68, 69, 92–3, 417, 418 task-simulation techniques 22, 23 taskwork 441, 454
Taylorism 14, 15, 16, 28, 172
teachers 258, 375 team-based structures 435, 436 team building 447, 454 team competencies 441–2 team coordination training 449 team development interventions 447–9 team errors 435
Team Evolution and Maturation (TEAM) model 443 team knowledge 446 team mental models (TMMs) 445, 446, 449, 452 teams 16, 229, 434–57
faultlines 451
training 447–9, 454
virtual 19, 233, 417
team self-correction training 448–9 teamwork 441–2, 449–50, 454 technical equipment 102 technological innovations 123, 124, 139 technology 220–38
and demographic changes 223
and experience sampling 53
and job redesign 417
and job roles 81
and manufacturing jobs 18 and organizational psychology 229 and organizational structure 225 and power relationships 225
and productivity 235
and scientific management 15
and teams 229, 435, 449–50
and work-family interaction 268, 271 changing nature of 223–5 effects on work tasks 10
failure 221, 222, 236 future 223
interfaces with 227
media 19
rejection of 221
research on 223
social context 229
systems approach 225–7
telework 417
temperature 358
temporal flexibility 20 tenure 246–7
tertiary stress-management interventions 394, 397–8, 400 test content strategies 39 test–retest reliability 35, 36 test theory 34–43
texting 223
time and motion studies 15, 28 time balance 275
time-based work–family conflict 270 time demands 270
time management 395
time orientations 450
time perspective 418
time pressure 102, 146, 147
tobacco 250
top-down participative approach 403 top-down processing 353
training
and asset-focused strategies 468 and communication 449
and high-quality work 357
and job demands 123, 139
and leadership 449
as stress management intervention 396
defective for managers 397 in decision making 85
in job crafting 427–9
in problem solving 85
in quasi-experiments 47 in relaxation 395
methods 353
of teams 447–9, 454
PsyCap interventions 470–1
safety 355, 359, 361, 363
throughout career 20
to conduct tasks 14
trait-like characteristics 244, 251, 252–4, 257, 260, 261, 475 traits 250
transactional stress and coping theory 91 transactive memory systems (TMSs) 445, 446 transition phases 441
true score 35
turnover
and boredom 307
and CSEs 253
and engagement 308
and job demands 126
and organizational action plans 476
and satisfaction 40, 332–3
and the ERI Model 78
and the human relations movement 16
and work–family conflict 279
two-wave panel design 50 uncertainty 122, 124, 139, 147, 156, 157 underload 154, 306
undermining 179
understaffing 124
under-stimulation 73, 125, 298, 301, 304 unemployment 7, 8, 10, 73, 77, 369
see also employment unhealthy behaviours 203 unintended acts 348
unionization 16
unstructured interviews 52 usability 228
user-centred design 236 Utrecht Work Engagement Scale (UWES) 301, 303 vacations 211, 212, 213 valence 268
validation strategies 39, 40 validity 38–41, 55, 56, 65 variable relationship strategies 39 variance analysis 231 variance at source 80, 81 variety 151
VBBA 133
Vegetius 12
verbal protocol technique 349 vicarious learning 464
videoconferencing 19 vigilance 125, 157
vigour 300, 301
violations 347–51, 360
see also errors
virtual communication 449–50, 452, 454 virtual meetings 19
virtual teams 19, 233, 417 Vitamin Model (VM) 24, 63, 73–6, 84, 85 vocational psychology 14 volitional demands 149 voluntary absence 372–3 volunteer work 27, 28, 268 Volvo 82
wages 16
war stress 196
waypower 465, 466
Wealth of Nations 41 weekend work 197
well-being affective 74
and abnormal work hours 208
and boredom 302, 316
and burnout 302, 316
and employment 11
and engagement 302, 316
and group cohesiveness 181
and human resource management 137
and job characteristics 76, 190
and job control 175, 178
and job crafting training 429
and job demands 97, 125, 129, 140, 396
and job redesign 418
and job resources 396
and justice 180
and managerial support 285
and meaning at work 186
and mobile working 224
and multiple roles 270
and off-the-job events and organizational performance 124
and overtime 204, 214
and performance 5
and positive psychology 458–9
and positivity 477
and pressure 117
and project work 416
and PSC 407
and social activities 286
and stress 402
and STST 81
and subjective employee characteristics 261
and the human relations movement 16, 17
and the JD–R Model 421
and uncertainty 156
and work 5, 11
and workaholism 302
and work psychology 5, 17
and work–family conflict 286 individual differences in 309–12
of miners 12, 17
taxonomy of 301–4
Western Electric Company 16, 64, 65, 437 whistleblowing 361
willpower 465
withdrawal behaviour 307, 313, 324–5, 332, 333 within-person fluctuations 257 women
and burnout 248, 250, 298
and developmental assignments 247 and domestic tasks 285
and job satisfaction 248, 250
and job strain 248
and multiple roles 270
and promotion opportunities 247, 250
and sickness presence 378
and stress 247
and work–family enrichment 282
and work–family interaction 268 career orientations 247 increasing participation in workforce 267, 417
pay inequity 247
working conditions 250
work ability 383
work adjustment 386
workaholism 294, 302, 303 workarounds 221
work attendance 367–90
work-directed interventions 398 worker characteristics 13, 118–19, 140
see also individual characteristics work–family balance 268, 275–6 work–family culture 283–4 work–family enrichment 271, 274, 279, 280–2, 284, 285 work–family interaction 267–89 work–family policies 283–4 workforce changes in 18–19
diversity of 19–20
work groups 81, 437
work–home interference 128, 203, 205, 212 work hours abnormal 197, 200, 206–10, 214
and fatigue 203, 205, 223
and health 203, 205, 214
and mobile working 225
and sleep 203
demanding 200
limits 201, 205
long 197, 200–6, 214
working conditions 89, 137–9, 186–9
and job design 419
and productivity 437
for women 250
psychosocial 137, 138–9 working memory 150, 154 working time 122
work intensification 124 work–life balance 215, 223, 224 workload 120, 146, 408, 421 work–non-work balance 212 work obstacles 156–8
work organization 157
work pressure 20
work psychology aim 5
and demographic changes 19
and health 5, 8, 17
and performance 5, 11
and productivity 11
and profit 11
and technology 226
and well-being 5, 8, 17
definition 6
distinguished from organization and personnel psychology 6 from 1850 to 1930 13–15 from 1930–present 15–17
research methods in 31–57
selection bias in 7–8 work–rest cycles 215 work schedules 210
work space 81
work strain-sickness absence model 376 work-time control (WTC) 212–13, 215 work-time flexibility 215 work-to-family conflict (WFC) 272 work-to-family enrichment (WFE) 272 work to rule 80
workplace design 18
workplace redesign 137, 138, 139
Yerkes–Dodson law 125