Contents

Notes on Contributors ix

Introduction: Media Ethics as Global
Stephen J. A. Ward 1

Part I Media Ethics Worldwide 11

1 Why Media Ethics Still Matters
Nick Couldry 13

2 Universals and Differences in Global Journalism Ethics
Thomas Hanitzsch, Patrick Lee Plaisance, and Elizabeth A. Skewes 30

3 The Role of the Journalist in Reporting International Conflicts
Howard Tumber 50

4 Global Journalism Networks: Funding and Ethical Hurdles
Brant Houston 69

Part II Media and Diverse Public Spheres 87

5 Contextual Ethics and Arab Mass Media
Ralph D. Berenger and Mustafa Taha 89

6 From Journalism Ethics to an Ethics of Citizenship: Evidence from Colombia
Hernando Rojas and Tim Macafee 110

7 Media Ethics in a New Democracy: South African Perspectives on Freedom, Dignity, and Citizenship
Herman Wasserman 126

8 Democratization by Boilerplate: National Media, International Norms, and Sovereign Nation Building in Postwar Liberia
Jo Ellen Fair 146

Part III Global Issues 169

9 The Role of Global Media in Telling the Climate Change Story
Sharon Dunwoody and Magda Koniczna 171
Contents

10 Ethics of Global Disaster Reporting: Journalistic Witnessing and Objectivity 191
   Karin Wahl-Jorgensen and Mervi Pantti

11 Affective Expertise: The Journalism Ethics of Celebrity Sourcing 214
   Katherine M. Bell

12 Global Media Ethics, Justice, and Indian Journalism 235
   Shakuntala Rao

Part IV Theoretical Foundations 251

13 Global Media Ethics? Issues, Requirements, Challenges, Resolutions 253
   Charles M. Ess

14 Global Ethics and the Problem of Relativism 272
   Clifford G. Christians

15 Global Media Ethics: Utopian or Realistic? 295
   Stephen J. A. Ward

Index 315