INDEX

A
- accessibility and value, 123
- action-oriented thinking, 64
- Adams, Scott, 4
- adaptability, organizational, 79
- advantageous complexity, 161
- agility vs. structures, 195
- AllSaints store, 130
- Amazon.com, 59, 122, 158
- American Girl dolls, 6–7
- analytical vs. creative thinking, 29, 39, 165, 198–199
- Anderson, Greg, 129
- Ansoff, Igor, 101
- anthropologists, 138, 145
- Apple, xi, 59, 158
- applied design thinking
  - for business model design, 170–184
  - design thinking principles, 62–73
  - for problem solving, 60–61
  - strategic innovation and, 16–18
  - See also design thinking principles
- Archie McPhee, 78
- assembly lines, 51
- awareness, 112

B
- B-corps, 193
- Behavioral Theory of the Firm, A (March and Cyert), 193
- bicycles, 93–94, 119
- big data, 22, 55–56
- Blockbuster, 95
- Bloomberg, 30
- BMW, 59
- branding
  - consumer expectations and, 118
  - differentiation in, 129
  - experience design for, 129
  - technological innovation, effect on, 193
  - value redefinition and, 120–123
- brand storytelling, 143, 145
- Branson, Sir Richard, 4
- Buchanan, Richard, 30
- Buffett, Warren, 121
- Burberry, 59, 130
- business management. See management and leadership
- business model design
  - applied design thinking for, 170–184
  - business models vs. strategies, 161–162
  - company revenue models and, 166–167, 175, 182–183
  - conceptual metaphors for, 167
  - frameworks for, 165–167
  - functions and overcomplexity of, 160–161, 184
  - myths about, 158
  - old vs. new models and change, 3–4
  - for strategy and organization challenges, 156–167
  - systems-level approach to, 184–185
  - types of models, 159
  - value creation and, 161–163, 165–167
- business models, defined, 159
- business school programs, challenges for, 4, 198–199
- business solutions. See strategic business challenges
- business strategies
  - business models vs., 161–162
  - competitive strategy, 73, 121, 126
  - See also management and leadership; strategic thinking
  - business strategy and planning. See strategic planning

Businessweek
- 30
- butterfly effect, 12–14

C
- capitalism vs. social good, 192–193
- capital-light business models, 156
- change and disruption
  - acceptance of and business, 108
  - in business models, 156–167
  - butterfly effect and, 12–14
  - chaos of change, 79, 109
  - management's inability to respond to, 55–58
  - organizational change, 82, 109, 113–114
  - rapid rate of in society, 3–4, 12, 91, 101, 108
  - resistance to, 79
  - sense making as solution to change challenges, 81, 108–114
  - technological innovation and, 3–4
  - change initiatives, 108–109
  - chaos of change, 79, 109
  - chess, 35, 126
  - chief executive officers (CEOs), 54
  - See also management and leadership
- competition
  - experience design as solution to challenges for, 126–132
  - extreme competition as challenge, 126–127
  - innovation management and, 16–18
competition (continued)
objectivity vs. creativity in, 126 competitive advantage

business model design and, 160, 166, 184 design thinking and, 30–31, 73 strategic foresight for, 99
strategic planning and, 196 work environments supporting change and, 109 competitive differentiation, 138 competitive strategies, 73, 121, 126–127, 129 complex business models, 160–161 complexity advantageous vs. disruptive complexity, 161 in business model design, 160–161, 184 globalization and speed of change, 98, 101 in human connections, 14 scientific management and, 51 sense making as solution for, 110 simplicity and oversimplification vs., 38–45 simplicity in design thinking vs., 38–45 conceptualization, 192
conceptual metaphors, 167 connectedness empathy and emotions for, 69, 86–91 hyperconnected age value chain, 160 rise in human connections, 14 sense making and, 113
technology and communication changes, 3 Conscious Capitalism (Mackey and Sisodia), 193 constructive processes, 68 customer experiences
business model design and, 165–166
experience design and, 16, 128–132
experience triggers, 131
humanization and relationships, 140–145 loyalty and, 128, 158
meaningful experiences, 130
unmet needs and business model design, 35, 171–174 design thinking
analytical vs. creative thinking, 29, 39, 165, 198–199
in business and management, lack of, 52–54, 157 curiosity and, 86, 148
design oversimplification and, 38 enterprise creativity, 72 fear of failure, effect on, 148–149 imagination, 86, 110, 193, 195–198
predictability and, 94
storytelling and, 88–89
in strategic planning, 157, 193, 195–198 understanding and learning of, 148–149 Crisis-mode thinking, 18–20
Crosby, Philip, 82
cross-industry scanning, 105 cultural capital, 141 cultural touch points and humanization, 141 culture, defined, 141 curiosity, 86, 148
customer value, 120–123
customization, 123, 160
Cyert, Richard, 193

D
de Botton, Alain, 99
debtfueled growth, 83
decision theories, 54 defensive vs. offensive actions, 18
Defying the Crowd: Cultivating Creativity in a Culture of Conformity (Sternberg and Lubart), 149 Dell, 119
design language, 35, 143
Design of Business, The (Martin), 56 design school programs, challenges for, 4, 198–199
design thinking
analytical vs. creative thinking, 29, 39, 165, 198–199
business and design schools and, 4, 198–199 business publications on, 30 core capabilities of, 16, 192 cost advantages of, 30–31 defined, 29–33
intuition and, 32, 55, 59, 63, 94, 112, 193, 198
paradigm changes in, 195 problem solving in, 63
proto-theories for, 29–30, 54 science as inspiration for, 34–35 science vs. art of, 34–35 simplicity vs. complexity in, 38–45 strategic innovation and, 16–18 versatility of uses for, 39
design thinking principles
about, 62–73
action-oriented thinking, 64
comfortably with change, 65 competitive logic for business strategies, 73 dynamic constructive processes, 68 empathy, promotion of, 69
enterprise creativity, 72
foresight integration, 67 human-centric thinking, 63, 66
meaningfulness, 71
risk reduction, 70

Design Thinking (Rowe), 30 deterministic chaos, 13 Diesel, 37
differentiation
  in branding, 129
  in business models, 161–162
  competitive differentiation, 138 lack of in brands, 127 meaningfulness in design thinking, 16 digital cameras, 101 disciplines, defined, 193, 195 disruption. See change and disruption disruptive complexity, 161 distribution models, 159 dolls, 6–9
dromology, 3
Drucker, Peter F., 95
dynamic constructive processes, 68

E
Eames, Charles, 196
EasyJet, 122
EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization), 83 economic crises, 4, 18 economic expansion, 83 efficiency, focus on humanization as solution for, 140–145
  intuition vs., 109
  limitations of, 198
  standardization and challenges of, 136–138 emerging markets, 83 emotions and empathy connectedness and, 69, 86–91
  experience design and, 130–132
  focus on in design thinking, 120 for gaining insight, 69 humanization and, 39, 140–145
sense making and, 111
standardization and empathy, 138
storytelling and, 86–87
emotive value, 129
employee relationships, 152 engagement experience design and emotions, 131–132
  storytelling and, 88
  strategic foresight for, 100
enterprise creativity, 72
enterprise resource planning (ERP), 59 enterprise software systems, 160–161 entrepreneurship, 35, 83 environmental scanning, 102, 113
Erhard, Werner, 100
Eternally Successful Organization, The (Crosby), 82 Excel spreadsheets, 71, 151, 184 excessive variation, 52 experience, nature of, 130 experience design, 128–132 Experiences in Visual Thinking (McKim), 30 experience triggers, 131
experimentation, 149 extreme competition, 126–127

F
“fail fast, fail cheap, fail early” concept, 150 failure
  design principles for reducing, 70 fear of risk and, 86, 148–149 stories for fear of, 86 fictiveness, 89
fit, concept of, 161–162, 177
Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 196
Florida, Richard, 193
Ford, 51
foresight. See strategic foresight Fuller, Buckminster, 159 future-oriented approaches, 61, 98–105

G
Gandhi, Mahatma, 151
Gardner, Howard, 198
Gates, Bill, 192, 199
GE, 161
generous experiences, 130
George, Bill, 193

globalization
  foresight and rapid rate of, 98 growth challenges and, 83
  speed of change and complexity of, 98, 101 sustainability over profit and, 192–193 GM, 156
graffiti, 75
growth
  acceptance of change and, 108
  as business challenge, 81–85
  consumption and, 4
  debt-fueled growth, 83
  disruption and effect on, 3 emerging markets and, 83 focus on vs. on excellence, 192 measuring, 82–83

H
Hamel, Gary, 59
Handy, Charles, 192
Harvard Business Review, 30
human-centric thinking
  in design thinking and strategic planning, 30, 32, 61, 196, 198 as design thinking principle, 63, 66 in value redefinition, 120–123 human experience, 128–132 humanization
  capitalism vs. social good, 192–193 cultural and social values, 142
  in design thinking, 192
  language and, 143
  research and human culture, 145 social values and, 141–142 as solution for standardization, 140–145
See also emotions and empathy Hunt, James, 199
hyper-connected age value chain, 160

I
ice cream, 125
Ikea, 122, 158
illiteracy, 52
imagination
  curiosity and, 86, 148
  importance of, 86, 110
  lack of in business planning, 157 logic and, 195
  in strategic planning, 193, 195–198
See also creativity industrial engineering, 51
ING, 158
innovation
  business model design and limits to, 138, 158–167
  challenges to, 32
  creative culture and, 148–149
  predictability and, 94
  standardization and efficiency vs., 136–138
  strategic foresight and, 98–105
  strategic innovation, 16–18
  technological innovation and change, 3–4, 22, 55–56, 160–161, 193 variation and, 52 innovation management, 16–18 insights
  in constructive design process, 68 creating meaning and, 71 empathy for understanding, 69 rapid prototyping to improve, 152
  storytelling and, 87
  weak signals and foresight for, 98, 101–103, 112–113
inspirationalization, 88, 192 intuition, 32, 55, 59, 63, 94, 112, 193, 198

J
Japan, 57
Jobs, Steve, 88
journey mapping, 132, 194

K
Kipling, Rudyard, 87
Kodak, 156
Kupferberg, Tuli, 16

L
language
  design language, influence of, 35 humanizing through, 143 leadership. See management and leadership “learn fast, learn cheap, and learn early” concept, 150
learning by doing principles, 64 learning experiences, 130 license models, 159
listening-based research, 66
Lorenz, Edward, 13
loyalty, 128, 158
Lubart, Todd, 149

M
Mackey, Jack, 193
malleability, 94
management and leadership acceptance of change and, 108
  analytical vs. creative thinking in, 39, 165, 198–199
  applied design thinking for problem solving, 60–61
  balanced cultures and decision making, 55
  CEOs and topple rate, 54 change initiatives, successes of, 108–109
  changing management paradigms, 22 creativity, lack of in, 19–20, 22, 54 crisis-mode thinking and, 18–20 design principles for, 62–73
  growth challenges and, 83
  inefficiency in, 59
  need for new approaches to, 4, 19–22, 55–59
risk aversion in, 19–20, 22
scientific management, 51 traditional hierarchies and models in, 63, 79, 83
  visionary expectations of, 157
Mao Zedong, 8–9
March, James, 193
Martin, Roger, 56
mass production, 51, 52
Matchbox cars, 167
McKim, Robert, 30
meaningful experiences, 130
Medtronic, 193
mental models, 113–114
mergers and acquisitions, 54 metaphors, conceptual, 167 meteorologists, 12–13
Mickey Mouse, 124
Mintzberg, Henry, 94
MISC magazine, 96, 142
mission statements, 4 modernist movement, 19

N
natural resources crises, 4, 83
Netflix, 59, 122
Nintendo, 122
Norman, Don, 32

O
offensive vs. defensive actions, 18 optimization, 192
organizational change, 82, 109, 113–114
organizational design design thinking and culture, 32
  growth challenges and, 82
  storytelling and, 86–87
organizational silos, 198 organizational structure. See business model design
Orwell, George, 142

P
Palm, 156
 Parsons The New School for Design, 59, 198–199 phrenology, 17
Pixar, 148
planning, defined, 191
See also strategic planning Porter, Michael, 73, 162
portfolios vs. planning, 195
Post-It Notes, 17, 30, 38, 114–115, 168–169 poverty reduction, 192
PowerPoint slides, 71, 86, 88, 151, 184, 196, 198 P2P file sharing, 101 practices vs. theories, 195 predictability
as business challenge, 94–95
defined, 94
focus on vs. on change, 109 future-oriented approaches and, 61, 98–105
intuition vs., 109
malleability vs., 94
rapid prototyping to improve, 152
strategic planning and, 12–14
weather predictions, 12–13
price, defined, 121
“Principles of Scientific Management, The” (Taylor), 51 proactive vs. reactive actions, 18 problem solving applied design thinking for, 60–61 customer value and, 120–123
in design thinking, 63
focus on past vs. creativity, 54 planning for change and, 108 scientific approach to, 34–35 “wicked” problems, 35, 101
See also design thinking principles profit and cost saving business focus on, 4, 51–52, 82–83
capitalism vs. social good, 192–193
design thinking for, 29–31
price, defined, 121
standardization and, 136–138
prototyping, 150–153
purpose vs. power, 195
Q
questions, embracing, 72
Quid, Inc., 10–11
R
rapid prototyping, 150–153
rat race, 19
reactive vs. proactive actions, 18 rebellion vs. conformity, 195 Reflective Practitioner, The (Schön), 35 relationship building, 56, 140–145, 152 relevance, maintaining
as business challenge, 118
value redefinition as solution for, 120–123 research and data collection big data and, 22, 55–56 customer journey mapping, 132 human culture and, 145
rapid prototyping, 150–153
sense making and, 113
weak signals and foresight, 98, 101–103, 112–113
risk reduction, 70
risk taking and creativity, 148–149
Rittel, Horst, 35
Rowe, Peter, 30
S
Salesforce.com, 122
Samsung, 59
scenario development, 104–105
Schoemaker, Paul, 54
Schön, Donald, 35
school programs, challenges for, 4, 59, 198–199 science, as inspiration, 34–35 Sciences of the Artificial, The (Simon), 29, 54
scientific management, 51 sense making context mapping and, 101, 104
defined, 110–111
intuition and, 112
social media and, 113
as solution for change challenges, 110–117 sensors, employees as, 113 signal processing, 98, 101–103, 111–113 signals, defined, 102 silos, organizational, 198 Simon, Herbert, 29–30, 54 simplicity vs. complexity, 38–45
Sisodia, Raj, 193
Six Sigma management, 52, 59 social entrepreneurship, 35 social experiences, 130 social good, 141–142, 192–193 social media, 4, 113, 129, 130, 193 social values, 141–142 sociologists, 35, 145
software systems, 160–161
Sony, 156
standardization
as business challenge, 136–138
humanization as solution for, 140–145
STEEP analysis, 102
Stemberg, Robert, 149
storytelling
brand storytelling, 143, 145
fictiveness of stories, 89 narrative structures in, 87–91 purpose of stories, 86
scenario development, 104–105
as solution for growth challenges, 84–91 strategic business challenges
about, 79–81
change and sensing for, 81, 108–114 creative culture and prototyping for, 81, 146–153 extreme competition and experience design for, 81, 126–132
strategic business challenges (continued) growth and storytelling for, 81–91 predictability and story strategic foresight for, 81, 94–105 relevance and value redefinition for, 81, 118–125 standardization and humanization for, 81, 136–145 strategy and organization and business models for, 81, 156–167 strategic foresight context mapping, 101, 104
defined, 99
foresight defined, 101 planning vs., 98
portfolios vs. planning, 195
scenario development, 104–105 single-point forecasting, 105 as solution for predictability challenges, 94, 98–105 weak signals and, 98, 101–103, 111–113
strategic innovation, 16–18
strategic planning
big data, 22, 55–56
change and disruption in business and, 156–157 creativity and imagination in, 157, 193, 195–198
defined, 191
failures in, reasons for, 54–55
innovation management and, 16–18
intuition and, 32–33, 55, 59, 63, 94, 112, 193, 198 old vs. new approaches to, 16
predictability and, 12–14
strategic thinking vs., 94 strategic thinking, 94 strategy, defined, 191
strategy and organization
as business challenge, 156–157
business model design as solution for, 158–167 subscription models, 159 sustainability
design and business school programs and, 199 growth and balance of resources, 83
natural resources crises, 4 systems-level thinking crisis-mode thinking vs., 18–20 for solving business problems, 51
strategic foresight and, 103 traditional management approaches and, 39, 51–52 systems vs. objects, 195 T
tape guns, 78
Taylor, Frederick, 51 team ownership, 152
technological innovation
big data, 22, 55–56
change and disruption due to, 3–4 connections to brands and, 193
software systems, 160–161 technology scanning, 105
“Theory Construction as Disciplined Imagination” (Weick), 193, 195
Toffler, Alvin, 52
Tomlin, Lily, 19
topple rate, 51
total quality management (TQM), 59 Toyota, 161
transdisciplinary design, 198–199 triggers, experience, 131 trust and credibility, 4 Twitter, 161
U uncertainty and foresight, 67 V
value chains, 160
value creation
applied business model design and, 170–184
in business models, 161–163, 165–167
design thinking for, 16
lack of in management, 59 value-capture vs., 59 value mapping, 122
value redefinition, 120–123 value redefinition and branding, 120–123 variation, 52
Virilio, Paul, 3 visibility and prototyping, 152 vision and visioning growth and need for, 84–85, 87
sense making and, 110
standardization and, 138
See also storytelling; strategic foresight visualization
business model design and, 165, 184
in constructive design process, 68
predictability and, 95
sense making and, 114
visual mapping, 104, 122 W weak signals, 98, 101–103, 112–113 weak signal scanning, 102, 105, 113
weather predictions, 12–13, 51
Weick, Karl, 111, 193, 195
Whole Foods, 193
“wicked” problems, 35, 101
“Wicked Problems in Design Thinking” (Buchanan), 30
Y
Yale, 198
Young, F. M., 54
Yu, Gang, 39, 40
Z
Zappos, 122
Zara, 158
Zipcar, 122