Index

Abel, G. G. 42, 128
abstinence violation effect (AVE) 91, 92 action–control system 27, 28, 29 adaptive autonomous systems, humans as 9–10 affect 82
defining 71
female offenders 77–78
implications in relapse 91 links to other treatment targets 76–77 negative and positive pathways 72–73
research developments 130–134 research neglect 130
role in sexual offending 71–73 empathy and empathy deficits 75 guilt 74
offence supportive beliefs 76
self-esteem 74–75
shame 73–74
treatment implications 78, 112
treatment content 79–81
treatment process 81–82
treatment refusal/
non-completion 78–79
see also emotion affect-as-information phenomenon 24 affective dyscontrol 20, 21, 22 affective framing 6, 7, 10, 12 affective phenomena 6, 11, 12, 13; see also emotion; mood affectivity 10, 12
agency 2, 8, 12, 13, 30 Alexandrov, Y. I. 17
altruism and empathy model 56–57
Anderson, D. 76
antisocial cognition 25–26, 27 anxiety 24, 112; see also stress Apperly, I. A. 40 appraisal 5, 7, 10, 20–21 approach goals 82, 93–94, 95, 96, 113, 118
Ashfield, S. 60
attachment theory 38–39 attention (mental focus) 6 attitudes
anti-social 74
and cognitive distortions 42, 111 cultural/societal 19, 23
defining 23
hostile 22, 23, 24
impact on meaning 3
offence supportive 42, 46
patriarchal 19, 22, 26
prosocial 116
in therapy 115, 116
autopoiesis 3
avoidance goals 3, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 113, 118
Babchishin, K. M. 41–42
Barbaree, H. E. 22–24
Barnett, G. D. 54, 56
Basic Empathy Scale 61
Baumeister, R. F. 75
Index

Becker, J. V. 100, 128
Beech, A. 27–29, 42, 81, 135, 137
Beech, A. R. 59, 60, 76, 81, 95, 115, 116, 138
Beech, A. T. 95
behavioural experiment (BE) 117 beliefs
behavioural experiment (BE) 117 distorted 22, 25–26, 27, 42, 75–111
impact on meaning 3, 21
maladaptive 12, 27, 28, 29, 42, 43
offence supportive 59, 71, 76, 82, 95, 128, 129, 130
pro-criminal 25
see also attitudes; implicit theories Bickley, J. A. 95
biological factors 22, 27, 28, 29, 36–38, 97–98
Biven, L. 6
Blackburn, R. 74
Blagden, N. 81
Blake, E. 45
Blanchard, R. 36, 37
blockage 18, 20, 135
Boden, J. M. 75
Bohmer, M. 114, 115, 116
brain injuries 37
Braithwaite, J. 73
Bright, D. A. 81
Burton, D. 37

Cantor, J. M. 36, 37
Carver, C. S. 114
Cassidy, J. 38
child sexual abuse
affect pathways 72
attachment theory 38
cognitive distortions 42
dangerous world theory 45–46 deviant sexual fantasies 112 deviant sexual interest 41–42
Four Preconditions Model 18–20, 134–135
implicit theories model 43, 129 neurodevelopmental deficits 36–37 offenders’ history as victims 22, 37
Pathways Model 25–27
Quadripartite Model 20–22
seemingly unimportant decisions (SUDs) 90 Theory of Mind model 39–40, 58 childhood trauma factors 22, 28, 38, 98, 99, 101, 102, 120, 136 children as sexual beings implicit theory 25, 43, 44, 46, 129 Christensen, B. K. 36
Christensen, W. 6
cognition
antisocial 25–26
defining 5, 17, 35
everactive approach 8–9
in models of sexual offending
Four Preconditions Model 19
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 23
ITSO 27–28
Pathways Model 25–26
Quadripartite Model 20–21
pluralistic approach 35–36
research developments 128–130
social 17, 20–21, 30, 35, 129
treatment implications 109–111
cognitive ability 30 cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) 8, 13, 130–131, 132, 137–138 cognitive deconstruction 75
cognitive distortions
challenging 117
defining 42
and offence supportive beliefs 76 research history 128
in sexual offending models 20, 25, 27, 43
treatment implications 109–111
cognitive explanations 35–36, 46–47 criminogenic cognitive constructs 40
cognitive distortions 42
deviant sexual interest 41–42
rape myths 42
schemas and implicit theories 42–44 neurodevelopmental deficit theories 36–38 overlapping constructs 44–46 single-factor theories 36 social-cognitive development theories attachment theory 38–39
treatment implications 46 cognitive restructing 114, 117, 128, 132 cognitive skills treatment programme 1 Colombetti, G. 8, 9–10
coping strategies
adaptive 91
maladaptive 22, 24, 26, 77, 80, 90, 98, 99
training 79–80, 81, 91, 119, 121 Cornehl, S. 114, 115, 116 correctional psychology 1, 2, 4, 13, 128, 130
Crick, N. R. 39
Cuff, B. M. P. 54, 61
cultural factors 19, 22, 23, 28, 29, 42
Cunningham-Rathner, J. 128

Dael, N. 62
Damasio, A. 5
dangerous world implicit theory 25, 44–46, 129
Davis, M. H. 55, 61
Day, A. 17, 112
decision-making 1, 4–5, 21, 30 Demuyck, S. 37
depression 21, 22, 73, 112 developmental factors, biological 22, 27, 36–38; see also biological factors developmental factors, environmental 23, 39, 101, 102, 128; see also childhood trauma factors; multi-modal self-regulation theory developmental factors, social-emotional 19, 23, 38–40, 58, 96, 128; see also multi-modal self-regulation theory Dialetical Behaviour Therapy 120
disinhibition 18, 19, 20, 24, 93
Dodge, K. A. 39
Dodgson, P. G. 76
Duff, S. C. 62
Durrant, R. 56–57
Dykas, M. J. 38
dynamic risk factors 13, 46, 80, 119
dyscontrol 1, 20, 21, 22
dysregulation 25, 26–27, 80, 97–99, 100, 136
dangerous world implicit theory 25, 44–46, 129
developmental factors, environmental 23, 39, 101, 102, 128; see also childhood trauma factors; multi-modal self-regulation theory developmental factors, social-emotional 19, 23, 38–40, 58, 96, 128; see also multi-modal self-regulation theory
Dialetical Behaviour Therapy 120
disinhibition 18, 19, 20, 24, 93
Dodge, K. A. 39
Dodgson, P. G. 76
Duff, S. C. 62
Durrant, R. 56–57
Dykas, M. J. 38
dynamic risk factors 13, 46, 80, 119
dyscontrol 1, 20, 21, 22
dysregulation 25, 26–27, 80, 97–99, 100, 136 ecological factors 27, 28
Eldridge, H. J. 60
Elliott, I. A. 60
Elsegood, K. J. 62 embodiment conception of human functioning 9 emotion
CBT view of 130–131
comparable across mammals 6–7 conceptual issues conceptualizing and emotional experience 6–7 emotion, cognition, motivation 7 emotion and cognition 5–6 emotion and decision-making 4–5 emotion and values 6 level of explanation 4 conceptualizing alongside cognition 131 correctional psychology view 1, 2, 13, 130
defining 17
enactive model 9–12, 13–14 in vivo facilitation 132 integral vs. incidental 21
in models of sexual offending
Four Preconditions Model 19–20
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 23–24
ITSO 28–29
Pathways Model 26
Quadripartite Model 21
multi-faceted nature 3–4 negative see negative emotion/ emotional state/affect emotion (cont’d)
neuroevolutionary origin 6
overview 3–4
positive see positive emotion/emotional state/affect psychological/philosophical theorizing/research view 1–2, 111–112
research developments 130–134
treatment implications 111–113
see also affect emotional activation 132 emotional congruence 18, 19, 46, 134–135
emotional expressiveness 81, 115–116, 118, 120
emotional regulation/management training 79–81, 113, 114, 115, 120
emotional systems 6
empathic processing model 56
empathy
assessing 61–62, 63–64
cognitive vs. emotional 75
defining 53–54
enactive view 11
female offenders 60, 77–78
future research needed 63–64 and guilt 63, 74, 75, 76 intervention efficacy 60 link to negative behaviours 57–58 link to sexual offending 58, 75 models 57
altruism and empathy model 56–57
empathic processing model 56
empathy deficits model 55–56 four stage model 55
multi-dimensional model 55
and self-esteem 76, 77
and shame 73, 75, 76, 77
state and situation specific 59–60 vs. sympathy 54
treatment implications 62–63
victim-specific deficits 58–60 empathy deficits 55–56, 58–59, 60, 63, 75, 76, 77
enactive approach 13–14
correctional therapeutic implications 12–13
enactive mind 8–9
model of emotion 9–12 entitlement implicit theory 25, 26, 129 evidence-based practice (EBP) 138
excuses 110, 129
executive dysfunction 37
Farrington, D. P. 57, 61, 75
Fazio, R. L. 37
Feelgood, S. 81
Fernandez, Y. M. 55, 59
Finkelhor, D. 18–20, 134–135
Firestone, P. 81
Fisher, D. 76
Fordham, A. S. 81, 115, 116
Four Preconditions Model of Sexual Abuse 17, 18–20, 134–135
four stage model of empathy 55 fragmentation of treatment programmes 2, 12, 46, 109, 117, 138
Frith, U. 39
Gannon, T. A. 45, 77, 117 genetic factors 28, 29, 37, 98
Gibat, C. C. 112
Gilbert, P. R. 74, 79
goals see approach goals; avoidance goals; motivation
Golias, P. 81
Good Life plan 121
Good Lives Model (GLM)
emotional congruence 20
goods striven for 18
maladaptive strategies 29 motivational goals 24, 26 needs and values 134 treatment approach 96, 118, 121, 137
Gordon, J. R. 89–91
Greenberg, L. S. 115
Gregson, M. 81
guilt
behaviour focus 74
and empathy 63, 74, 75, 76
female offenders 77
impact on treatment 112 moral emotion 73
positive engagement 82, 133 in post-crime phase 72
research developments 132–133

Hall, G. C. N. 1, 20–22, 135 Hamilton-Giachritsis, C. E. 81, 115 handedness 36–37
Hanson, R. K. 39, 54, 55–56, 112
Happé, F. 39
Harder, D. W. 73
Harris, A. J. R. 112
height 37
Hein, G. 54
Helkama, K. 75
Hermann, C. A. 41–42
Hirschman, R. 1, 20–22, 135
Hoaken, P. N. 38
hostile attribution bias 38, 45, 46
Howells, K. 17, 112
Hudson, S. M. 1, 55, 58, 72, 92–95, 113
Hunter, J. C. 116

Ickes, W. 62
identity 8, 73, 79, 82
identity change 72
Imhoff, R. 41
implicational processing 132 implicit association test (IAT) 41–42, 44 implicit theories 25, 42–46, 76, 128–129
Integrated Theory of Sexual Offending (ITSO) 17, 27–29, 135
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 17, 22–24
integrative pluralistic approach 30–31, 35–36, 44, 46
Interpersonal Reactivity Index (IRI) 61 interpersonal warmth 13 intimacy deficits 25, 26, 27, 74, 119–120, 134
IQ scores 36

Johnson, M. 5
Jolliffe, D. 61, 75

Jones, R. 55
Judgment Model of Cognitive Distortions (JMCD) 43–44

Keenan, T. 39, 45–46, 92–95
Kelly, A. E. 79
Kitcher, P. 56–57
language 7
lapses 90, 91, 92
Laws, D. R. 89–90, 91, 117
Lazarus, R. S. 5, 20
Lee, V. 38
Leith, K. P. 75
Lewis, S. J. 73
Lietaier, G. 116
Lindsay, W. R. 95
loneliness 24, 26, 72–73
Lönqvist, J. E. 75
Looman, J. 73, 112

Maiese, M. 8, 9, 10, 11
maladaptive emotional functioning 19–20

Mann, R. E.
approach goals 118
depression and mental illness 81
empathy 54, 55, 56
excuses and cognitive distortions 110–111, 129
schemas 42
treatment content 79
treatment refusal 78
Marlatt, A. 89–91, 112
Marques, J. K. 112
Marshall, L. E. 79, 116
Marshall, W. L.
approach goals 118
comprehensive approach 116–117
coping strategies 81
empathy and offence supportive beliefs 59
Four Stage Model of empathy 55
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 22–24
non-completion of treatment 78
self-regulation model 72, 95
Marshall, W. L. (cont’d) shame and self-esteem 76–77, 79, 133 social skills 114
  therapist features 116
Maruna, S. 78, 110–111, 129
Marziano, V. 46
Masters, R. 81
McCloskey, H. 75
McDonald, E. 58
McGrath, R. 80
McVay, L. A. 100
mental illness 81, 102
Mergenthaler, F. 114, 115, 116 Mind in Life (Thompson) 8 mood 3, 28, 29, 80, 112–113; see also affect Mortillaro, M. 62 motivated cognition 19
motivation
  defining 17
  Good Lives Model 18
in models of sexual offending
  Four Preconditions Model 20
  Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 24
  ITSO 29
  Pathways Model 26–27
  Quadripartite Model 22
research developments 134–137
treatment implications 113–114 motivation–emotion system 27, 28–29 Moulden, H. 81
multi-dimensional model of empathy 55 multi-factorial theories of sexual offending 17, 30 Integrated Theory of Sexual Offending (ITSO) 27–29
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 22–24
Pathways Model 25–27
Precondition Model 18–20
Quadripartite Model 20–22
strengths and limitations 30–31 multi-modal self-regulation theory 97, 136 critique and future implications 100–101
evidence 99
theoretical conceptualization 97–99
treatment implications 99–100

nature of harm implicit theory 129 negative emotion/emotional state/affect in models of sexual offending 1, 21, 23–24, 26, 28–29 negative affect pathway to offence 72–73, 112
  and shame 133
  and stress 20
treatment implications 76–77, 78, 80, 81, 112–113
neurodevelopmental deficits 36–38, 97–98 neuropsychological systems 27–29
Newton, M. 75
non-completion of treatment 78–79
normativity 6
Nunes, K. L. 41–42, 111

O’Brien, M. D. 79, 116
Ó Ciardha, C. 42, 138–139 offence supportive cognitions 19, 25–26, 27, 59, 72, 76, 128, 129–130, 134 offender responsibility 79 Oxley, J. C. 11

paedophilia see child sexual abuse
Panksepp, J. 6
Pathways Model 17, 25–27, 133
perception–memory system 27, 28, 29 perception/recognition of emotions in others 11, 54, 55, 58, 76, 120; see also empathy personality problems 20, 120
Pessoa, L. 5
Pfafflin, F. 114, 115, 116
Pithers, W. D. 55, 60, 89–90, 91, 112 Pithers, W. S. 89–90, 91 planning of offence 21, 93, 94–95, 134 Polaschek, D. L. L. 25, 55, 57, 72 positive emotion/emotional state/affect
female offenders 77
Pathways Model 26
positive affect pathway to offence 72, 113 and rehabilitation 74 research needs 133–134
shame’s impact on 73
treatment implications 80, 81
problem of immediate gratification (PIG) 91, 92 problem solving 6
propositional processing 132, 138 Proulx, J. 72–73, 78, 112 psychological needs 17–18 Quadripartite Model 1, 17, 20–22
rape affective pathways 72
dangerous world theory 45, 129
distorted beliefs 28, 42
Integrated Theory of the Aetiology of Sexual Offending 22–24 negative/hostile attitudes 22, 23–24
Quadripartite Model 20–22
rape myths 42, 128
recognition/perception of emotions in others 11, 54, 55, 58, 76, 120; see also empathy
refusal of treatment 78–79 rejection 22, 24, 26
relapse 90, 92, 118, 135–136
relapse prevention (RP) 89–90, 135
critique and future implications 92
evidence 91–92
theoretical conceptualization 90–91
treatment implications 91–92
reoffence predictors 80, 91, 112, 114, 120, 121, 137 research attention needed
affection 130
empathy 63–64
female offenders 60, 130, 138
positive affect 133–134
cognition–emotion–motivation links 137–138 integrative pluralism 138–139 key developments 127–128
cognition 128–130
emotion/affect 130–134
motivation 134–137
multi-factor theories 137 obstacles 138–139
risk exposure, unexpected 90 risk prediction and management 2 risk–need–responsivity type studies 2
Robichaud, L. K. 36, 37
Rogers, D. 81
Rose, M. R. 45, 77
Ross, T. 116
Roys, D. T. 63
Safe Offender Strategies (SOS) 99–100
Salter, A. C. 110
Sams, M. E. 17
Saunders, M. 116
schemas
cognitive explanations 42–44, 111
Integrated Theory of Sexual Offending (ITSO) 27 judgment type, determining 40
Quadripartite Model 25, 26
treatment 133
Scherer, K. R. 62
Schofield, C. 118
Scott, H. 39
scripts 25–27, 94, 113
seemingly unimportant decisions (SUDs) 90, 92
self-conception 8
self-distress 76
self-esteem
and empathy 76
female offenders 77
and hostile attitudes 22 and loneliness 72
and sexual offending 74–75
and shame 76–77, 79, 133
treatment implications 79, 81, 118–119
self-evaluation 73, 75, 95
self-management plans 121
self-regulation 89
cognition–emotion–motivation links 135
enactive approach 8
executive function 37
female offenders 101–102
models
multi-modal self-regulation theory 97–101, 136
relapse prevention (RP) 89–92 self-regulation model see self-regulation model and motivation 114, 134 offenders with serious mental illness 102 training 120
self-regulation model 135–136
critique and future implications 96–97
disinhibition 1, 113
evidence 95–96
negative and positive pathways 113
overview 92–93
theoretical conceptualization 93–95
treatment implications 96
self-worth 118–119; see also self-esteem sense-making 4, 8, 9–10 Serran, G. A. 78, 79, 81, 116
Sex Offender Treatment Evaluation Project (SOTEP) 91–92 sexual arousal 18, 20, 22, 41, 121, 134–135 sexual fantasies 72–73, 90, 98, 112 sexual interests, inappropriate 37, 41–42, 44, 74, 77, 121, 134, 137
shame
and empathy 73, 75, 76, 77
female offenders 77
and negative affect 62–63, 133 and positive affect 73
research developments 132–133
role in sexual offending 73–74
and self-esteem 76–77, 79, 133
treatment implications 78–79, 81–82, 112, 119, 133
Shaw, S. 81
Shine, J. 75
Sieger, R. J. 25–27, 72, 133
Silfver, M. 75
Singer, T. 54
single-factor theories see cognitive explanations situational (proximal) factors 18, 20, 22, 24, 90–91, 94, 114 Smart, L. 75
social cognition 17, 20–21, 30, 35, 129 social deficits 25
social difficulties 38
social information processing 38–40, 45–46, 76, 128–129 social learning processes 28 socialization 98
socio-affective functioning 72 socio-cultural factors 19, 22, 23, 28, 29, 42 Steptoe, L. 95
stigmatization 73–74, 79, 115 Stinson, J. D. 100, 114, 136 stress 20, 24, 90; see also coping strategies Structured Assessment of Risk and Need (SARN) 72 sympathy 54, 55, 56, 57, 61 Theory of Mind 39–40, 45–46, 58 theory of nasty minds 39, 40, 46 therapeutic alliance 13, 82, 114–115, 115–116, 118 therapeutic process 115–116 therapists
emotional activation 13, 115, 120, 132
emotional awareness 13, 115–116 emotional responsivity 115–116, 117, 118, 138
empathy 13, 79, 115–116, 118 evidence-based practice (EBP) 138
flexibility 117
non-confrontational approach 116 prosocial attitudes, encouragement of 116 self-disclosure 116
theoretical literacy 139
therapeutic alliance 13, 82, 114–115, 115–116, 118
versatility 139
see also treatment implications
Thompson, E. 3–4, 8, 10
Thorne, K. 81
treatment implications
affect 78
female offenders 77–78
negative 76–77, 78, 80, 81, 112–113, 133–134 positive 80, 81
treatment content 79–81
treatment process 81–82
treatment refusal/non-completion 78–79
cognitive distortions 109–111
cognitive explanations approach 46 cognitive-behavioural programmes 114–115 comprehensive approach 116–118, 121–122, 138
coping skills 119
domains targeted 118–119 emotional issues 120 flexible, unstructured approach 117 integrating cognition, emotions, motivation 117–118 intimacy deficits 119–120
self-management plans 121
sexual interests 121 emotional regulation/management training 79–81, 113 emotions 12–13, 111–113 empathy enhancement programmes 62–63
enactive approach 12–13
evidence-based practice (EBP) 138
female offenders 77–78
Good Lives Model (GLM) 96, 118, 121, 137
history of treatment 114
motivation 113–114
multi-modal self-regulation theory 99–100
refusal 78–79
relapse prevention (RP) 91–92
Safe Offender Strategies (SOS) 99–100
schemas 133
self-esteem 79, 81, 118–119
self-regulation model 96
shame 73–74, 78–79, 81–82, 112, 119, 133
therapeutic alliance 13, 82, 114–115, 115–116, 118 values of clients 12
see also therapists Umwelt 9
uncontrollability implicit theory 129 values 6, 12, 43, 134, 136, 137, 138; see also attitudes; beliefs; implicit theories Van Langen, M. A. M. 57, 58, 60 verbal articulation 11–12, 13, 120
Verkasalo, M. 75
Wales, D. 58
Ward, T.
altruism and empathy model 56–57
attitudes 23
CEM entwined in all human action 18
cognitive distortions 42, 128
dangerous world implicit theory 45–46
implicit theories model 43–44, 76, 128–129
Integrated Theory of Sexual Offending (ITSO) 27–29, 135
integrative pluralistic approach 44, 131, 138
motivation 22
offence process model 72, 95
Pathways Model 25–27, 133
self-regulation model 1, 92–95, 113, 135–136 theory of mind perspective 39 therapist responsivity 117
Ware, J. 79
Watson, J. 115
Webster, S. D. 59, 95, 118
Winder, B. 81
women (as offenders) childhood environment factors  101 dangerousness of men/males perception  45
  dearth of research on  60, 130 emotional dysregulation  77
  empathy  60, 77
  multi-factor theory, lack of  138
  self-regulation model  101–102, 136
  treatment  77–78

women (as victims)
  dangerous world theory  45
  desire to understand  24 distorted cognitions about  20–21, 28 hostile attitudes towards  22, 23–24
  rape myths  42
  see also rape
  Wright, S.  17, 112
  Yoder, J. R.  37