SUBJECT INDEX

A

Ability status and students, 275
Academic colleagues, partnerships with: action steps for, 444–452; conclusions on, 452–453; defining and framing, 434–435; four reflections on, 435–443; for seamless learning environments, 433–434; seven types of student-affairs-faculty interaction, 436
Academic freedom and tenure, threats to, 660–661
Access and attainment, continuing inequality of, 659–660
Accommodating mode, 490, 492
Accountability, institutional: conclusions on, 106–107; and Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS), 103–104, 208–209; defined, 96–97; importance of, 99–100; relevant literature on, 97–99; resources on, 104–106; stakeholders for, 100–101; and student affairs, 101–102, 104
Accreditation organizations, six regional, 227, 228
Accreditation process, 102–103
Actual-to-Expected Graduation Rate Model, 182–183
Actual-to-Peer Graduation Rate Model, 183–184
Additive stage professional, 420
Administrative bloat, responding to charges of, 661–662
Alabama State Board of Education, Dixon v., 540–541
Alcohol policies and practices, 216
Alliances, university-community: benefits of, 483–484; conclusions on, 487; essential aspects of, 484–486; and leadership teams, 486–487; value of, 481–483
American Graduation Initiative, President Obama’s, 179
American Indian Higher Education Consortium (AIHEC), 254
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 77, 275, 548, 551
Annual giving, 516, 583–584
Annual Security Report (ASR), 553–555
Antidiscrimination laws, 548–551
Application stage professional, 420, 423
Arbitration, 492, 495
Art of Hosting, 500–501, 502
Artifact analysis, 63
Assessment: and Astin’s IEO model, 566, 571–573; competency-based, 566, 570–571;
Assessment; and Astin’s IEO model, (continued) conclusions on, 577–578; and documenting contributions, 563–566; historical overview of, 562–563; implementing, 573–577; importance of, 166–168; outcomes-based,
561, 566, 568–570; pre-assessment, student satisfaction, utilization data, and needs assessment data, 566, 567–568; and student learning, 166–168
Associate’s colleges: mission statements of, 31–32;
and student affairs professional practice,
39–40; students at, 273–274
Association of College Unions International
(ACUI), 17, 210–211
Association on Higher Education and Disability
(AHEAD), 253
Associations, professional: benefits of membership in, 257–258; conclusions on, 259–260; functions of, 245–246; general description of, 121–122, 205, 207–212; history of, 246–251; involvement and leadership opportunities in, 258–259; specialty associations, 251–256; structure of, 256–257
Astin’s IEO model, 566, 571–573
Athletics and recreation, intercollegiate: benefits of, 327–329; conclusions on, 339; overview of, 329–334; and student affairs, 334–339
Audit, crisis, 620–621
Audit, culture, 62
Audit, financial, 521
Authority and power, 468

B

Baccalaureate colleges, 28–29
Bakke, Regents of the University of California v., 278
Bargaining and negotiation, 469
Barnette, West Virginia State Bd. Of Educ. v., 537
Behavioral intervention teams (BITs), 624
Belonging, sense of, 147
Bias and prejudice on campus, 216
Black Colleges and Universities, Historically (HBCUs): background on, 269, 270; mission statements of, 33; and student affairs professional practice, 40–41
Blended student support services, 356
Board of Regents of the Univ. Wis. System v.
Southworth, 538
Body language, 399
Bologna process, 114–115
Bottom-up leadership, 447–448
Budget cuts, dealing with, 532–533. See also Fiscal pressures
Budget cycle, 528–532
Budget models, 526–528
Budgets: purpose of, 522–525; types of, 525–526
Bullying and interpersonal violence, 278, 338,
555, 623

C

California Community Colleges Online Education
Initiative, 350
California State University, Northridge (CSUN),
168–169
Campaigns, fund raising, 516, 590–591
Campus crisis: defined, 616; inevitability of, 613.
See also Crisis management
Campus environments: assessing and enhancing,
60–63; conclusions on, 67–68; constructed environments, 52, 57–60; four dimensions of, 52; frameworks for understanding,
51–53; human aggregate environments, 52,
54–56; impact of, 63–66; importance of,
49–51; organized environments, 52, 56–57;
physical environments, 52, 53–54
Capital budgets, 525–526
Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, 27, 28, 390
Carr v. St. John’s University, 544
Changes affecting student affairs: collaboration, 647–649; conclusions on, 653–654; educator role, 649–650; emphasis on financial management, 646–647; professional preparation programs, 644–645;
psychological health of students, 652–653;
societal issues and norms, 650–652;
specialization, 641–643; staff diversity,
645–646; and the student body, 639–641
Changing student population: conclusions on,
280–281; and demographic landscape of U.S., 267; and diversity, 268–269; overview of, 269–272; trends in student characteristics, 272–277. See also Student diversity
Chickering’s seven vectors, 141–142
Chief diversity officers (CDOs), 299–300
Choosing a Vocation, 9
Clery Act, 78, 547, 553–555, 625
Cognitive development theories, 142–143
Collaborating mode, 491, 492
Collaboration: deepening, 441–443; overcoming barriers to, 437–439
Subject Index

College Completion Goal plan, President Obama's 2020, 441
College impact theories, 145–146
College Results Online, 183
Common Core State Standards (CCSS), 226
Community–college partnerships: benefits of, 483–484; conclusions on, 487; essential aspects of, 484–486; and leadership teams, 486–487; value of, 481–483
Community college students, 273–274
Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE), defined, 60
Community colleges: mission statements of, 31–32; and student affairs professional practice, 39–40, 370; and student characteristics, 273–274
Community engagement, defined, 482–483
Competencies, professional, 231, P412–419
Competency-based assessment, 566, 570–571
Competing mode, 490, 492
Complete College Tennessee Act (CCTA), 188, 189
Compromise solutions, 491, 492
Computer-mediated communication: and student development, 602–605; and student Internet access, 597–599. See also Social media and college students
Computer ownership, 597
Confidentiality and privacy, 218
Conflict: and decision-making, 471–472; five methods for dealing with, 490–492; inevitability of, 489–490; and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, 491
Conflict interventions: conclusions on, 502–504; gracious space for, 495–502; types of, 492–495
Conflict Mode Instrument, Thomas-Kilmann, 491, 503
Conscience, personal, 203, 204, 206–207
Constructed environments, 52, 57–60
Consumer protection legislation, 79
Contracts and grants, 516–517
Contributory negligence, 545
Controversial Issues Process, National Coalition Building Institute, 500, 501, 502
Cost of attendance and financial aid trends: college attendance and income, 88–90; debt management, 90–91; financial aid programs, 85; fund raising, 84, 91–92; loans, 86–87; revenues, 82–83; student costs, 84–85
Council of Student Personnel Associations in Higher Education (COSPA), 17, 232, 251
Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), 227
Crime Statistics Act, Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus, 78, 547, 553–555, 625
Crisis levels and scalability, 616–617
Crisis management: plans, 620–622; process approach for, 614–616; protocols, 622–632; and stakeholders, 617–618
Crisis management teams, 618–620
Critical incidents, 616
Critical race theory (CRT), 148
Culture: audits, 62; student-centered, 58–59; and values, 449, 496–497
Cycle of professional development, 420

D

Davis, Southeastern Community College v., 551
Deaning, 7–9
Debt, managing, 90–91
Decision-making: art of making, 202; conclusions on, 474; and conflict, 471–472; data-driven, 472; and good relationships, 471; and governance in higher education, 462–468; intersection of politics and, 468–470; models, 460–462; political dimensions of, 457–460, 473–474; and procrastination, 472–473
Demographic and social trends, 74–77
Demographic landscape of United States, 267–268. See also Student diversity Depression, and lack of purpose, 310–311. See also Lives of purpose
Des Moines, Tinker v., 537
Digital citizenship, 605
Digital identity formation, 604–605
Digital leadership, 606
Disabilities, access for those with, 77–78
Disabilities Act (ADA), Americans with, 77, 275, 548, 551
Disaggregated Graduation Rate Approach, 184–185
Discretionary costs, 528
Distance learning. See Online student services
Diversity: challenges to, 277–278; conclusions on, 280–281; defining, 268; as global issue in higher education, 278–280; recommendations regarding, 280; scholarly works on, 268–269. See also Multicultural campus communities

Diversity officers, chief, 299–300

Diversity Officers in Higher Education (NADOHE), National Association of, 254, 255–256

Dixon v. Alabama State Board of Education, 540–541

Documenting Effective Educational Practices (DEEP) Project, 377

Donors: and annual giving, 583–584; expectations of, 586–587; as friends, 582–583; and “the ask”, 588–589

DREAM Act, 274–275, 278, 280

Envisioning the Future of Student Affairs, 355, 435, 437

Enrollment projections, 271–272

Environmental services for online students, 347–348

Environments, campus: assessing and enhancing, 60–63; conclusions on, 67–68; constructed environments, 52, 57–60; four dimensions of, 52; frameworks for understanding, 51–53; human aggregate environments, 52, 54–56; impact of, 63–66; importance of, 49–51; organized environments, 52, 56–57; physical environments, 52, 53–54

Facebook, 398, 538, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 626

Facilitation, 492–493

Faculties, seven types of student affairs–, 436. See also Partnerships with academic colleagues

Fairness and justice, 219. See also Legal relationships with students

Faith and spiritual development theories, 144–145

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 78, 547, 551–553

Family structure, 74–75

Favoritism, 218–219

Financial aid trends and cost of attendance, 82–91

Financial issues, public versus private, 520–522

Financial status, student, 191–192

Firearms, right to carry, 539–540

First student affairs professionals, 4–6

Fiscal environment for student affairs, 510–512, 646–647

Fiscal management: and budget cuts, 532–533; and budget models, 526–528; and budget cycle, 528–532; conclusions on, 533–534; and five purposes for a budget, 522–525; and funding sources, 512–520; and public versus private financial issues, 520–522; skills for, 509–510; and types of budgets, 525–526

Fiscal pressures: conclusions on, 92; costs and financial aid issues, 82–91; and demographic trends, 74–77; factors involved in, 73–74; and federal initiatives, 77–79; and state finance issues, 79–82
Fisher v. University of Texas at Austin, 278
Formative stage professional, 420
Fourteenth Amendment, 537, 540–543
Fourth Amendment, 537, 540
Free or reduced-price lunch (FRPL), 76
Freedom of speech, 537–539
Fund raising: annual giving, 516, 583–584; art and science of, 586–589; campaigns, 516, 590–591; conclusions on, 593; and fiscal pressures, 84, 91–92; major gifts, 584–585; planned giving, 585–586; and raising friends, 582–583; startups, 591–592; and university development, 589–590
Funding sources: endowment income, 515–516; fund raising, 516; grants and contracts, 516–517; and other sources of income, 519; special programs, 517–518; state and federal capital budgets, 518–519; state-appropriated funds, 512–513; student fees, 514–515; tuition, 83, 513–514
Future leaders, 662–663
Future of Student Affairs, Envisioning the, 355, 435, 437
Future students, 76–77

G

G.I. Bill, 14–16
Gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (GLBT) resource center, 136, 277
Gender and students, 270, 272, 276–277
Global competence, 126–127
Global Fund for Women, 299
Globalization: and a common agenda, 120–121; conclusions on, 127–129; defined, 114; and internationalization, 114–115; and professional associations, 121–122; and regional and national contexts, 116–120; and staff development, 123–124; and student development, 124–125
Goss v. Lopez, 541
Governance in higher education, 462–468
Gracious space: creating, 495–502; defined, 497, 503
Graduation Rate Approach, Disaggregated, 184–185
Graduation Rate Model, Actual-to-Expected, 182–183
Graduation Rate Model, Actual-to-Peer, 183–184
Graduation Rate Survey (GRS), 179–180, 181, 182
Grants and contracts, 516–517

H

Handbook of Student Affairs Administration, The, 480, 613
Hard skills and soft skills, 125–126
Health and wellness programs, 333–334, 338–339
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 552
Healy v. James, 538
Henley, Osteen v., 542
Hiring process: on-boarding, 401, 404; recruitment, 390–393; selection, 393–401
Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU), 254
Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs): defined, 270; mission statements for, 34; and student affairs professional practice, 41–42
Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs): background on, 269, 270; mission statements of, 33; and student affairs professional practice, 40–41
History of student affairs, 3–23
History of student affairs professional associations, 246–251
Honest reflection, 318–319
Housing Officers, Association of College and University, 17, 237
Human aggregate environments, 52, 54–56
Human capital theory, 149

I

Identity centers, 337
Identity formation, digital, 604–605
Identity politics, 298–299
Immigration and students, 274–275
Impact of college on students, 145–146
Income and college attendance, 88–90
Income sources: endowment income, 515–516; fund raising, 516; grants and contracts, 516–517; and other sources of income, 519; special programs, 517–518; state and federal capital budgets, 518–519; state-appropriated funds, 512–513; student fees, 514–515; tuition, 83, 513–514
Incremental budgets, 526
Individual conscience, 203, 204, 206–207
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 78
Innovative models of student affairs practice, 379. See also Organizational design
Input-environment-outcome (I-E-O), 145–146
Institutional classification systems, 26–28
Institutional mission: conclusions on, 44–45; purposes of, 25–26; and student affairs professional practice, 26, 35–43; and types of colleges, 28–35
Instructional Technology Council (ITC) Annual Survey, 350, 357
Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) federal graduation rate model, 176–177, 179
Intellectual development theory, 143
Intentional silence, creating, 316–318
Intercollegiate athletics and recreation: benefits of, 327–329; conclusions on, 339; overview of, 329–334; and student affairs, 334–339
International Association of Student Affairs and Services (IASAS), 121, 122
International students, 279. See also Student diversity
Internet access, student, 597–599
Intersectionality, 148–149
Interviews: campus, 398–401; pre-campus, 397
Intramural and recreation programs: benefits of, 328–329; overview of, 331–332; and student affairs, 334–339. See also Intercollegiate athletics and recreation

J

James, Healy v., 538
Job interviews: campus, 398–401; pre-campus, 397
Journal of College Student Development, 250
Justice and fairness, 219. See also Legal relationships with students

K

Kauffman, Soglin v., 541

L

Latin America, student affairs in, 119
Law of Higher Education, The, 556
Laws, antidiscrimination, 548–551
Leaders-as-hosts, 500
Leadership: bottom-up, 447–448; in professional associations, 258–259; top-down, 445–446
Learning communities, 442–443
Learning in public, 498–499
Learning Partnership model, 65
Learning Reconsidered, 65, 233, 239, 434, 564–565
Legal relationships with students: and antidiscrimination laws, 548–551; conclusions on, 555–556; and constitutions, 536–537; and consultation, 535; and contracts, 543–544; and federal and state regulations, 546–548; and First Amendment, 537–539; and Fourteenth Amendment, 540–543; and Second Amendment, 539–540; and tort liability, 544–546
Let’s Move campaign, 338
LGBT Resource Professionals, Consortium of Higher Education, 253
Liberal arts colleges: defined, 28; mission statements for, 29; and student affairs professional practice, 36, 370–371
Life Plan, GPS, 350
Life Skills Program, NCAA’s, 337
Lifelong professional learning: competencies, 231, 412–419; conclusions on, 428; defining professional development, 419–421; good practices, 427–428; lifelong learning, 411–412; meaningful, 407–408; model of, 421–426
Lives of purpose: conclusions on, 323–324; helping students prepare for, 309–311; meaning and purpose, 311–313; and mentoring, 321–323; pedagogies for making, 313–321
Loans, 86–87, 90–91
Lockdown protocol, 627–628
Lone Star College System, 361
Lopez, Goss v., 541
Low-income students, 277
Lunch Program, National School, 76

M

Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), 191
Master’s colleges and universities: mission statements for, 29–30; and student affairs professional practice, 37–38, 370
Maxwell’s axiom, 407
Meaningful lives: conclusions on, 323–324; helping students prepare for, 309–311; meaning and
Subject Index

Apple, 311–313; and mentoring, 321–323; pedagogies for making, 313–321

Mediation, 492, 494–495
Memorial services, 631–632
Mentoring for meaning, 313–321
Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 228
Miles, Powe v., 537
Military students, 275–276
Mission statement: conclusions on, 44–45; purposes of, 25–26; and staff recruitment, 391; and student affairs professional practice, 26, 35–43; and types of colleges, 28–35
Mobility of student affairs professionals, 43–44
Models and metrics for measuring student success, 182–189
Models and theories: application of, 150–151; conclusions on, 151–152; seven categories of, 140–150
Models of student affairs practice: innovative, 379; traditional, 376–377, 378. See also Organizational design
Moral compass for everyday ethics, 221–222
Moral conversation, 319–321
Moral/ethical development theories, 144
Moral focus of student affairs work, 212–213
Moral landscape of student affairs work, 215–220
Morrill Acts, 30
Multicultural campus communities: assessment and accountability for, 302–304; complex issues in, 287–290; conclusions on, 304–305; curricula and co-curricula in, 300–301; diversity officers in, 299–300; and identity, 290–291; and identity politics, 298–299; and language, 297–298; and pedagogical issues at the individual level, 292–295; and recruitment and retention, 301–302; and structural transformation, 299; and uncomfortable conversations, 295–297. See also Student diversity
Multicultural competence, 77
Multicultural Organizational Development (MCOD) strategy, 303
Multiple Dimensions of Identity (MDI) Model, 293
Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 491

Narrative of efficiency, responding to, 658–659
National Association of Deans of Women (NADW), 10, 11, 17, 246
National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), 329, 330
National Association of Student Affairs Professionals (NASAP), 253
National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA), 17, 121, 122, 210, 230, 231, 247–249, 250, 251, 257, 258, 259, 407, 596
National Association of Women Deans and Counselors (NAWDC), 17, 247
National Association of Women in Education, 246–247
National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC), 349
National Incident Command System (NIMS), 619, 620
National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA), 105
National Intramural Recreation Sports Association (NIRSA), 237
National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA), 330
National Orientation Directors Association (NODA), 211–212
National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), defined, 60
Needs assessment data, 568
Negligence lawsuits, 545
Negotiation: and bargaining, 469; principled, 493–494
New England Association of Schools and Colleges, 228
New England Resource Center for Higher Education (NERCHE), 444
New Leadership Alliance for Student Learning and Accountability, 105
Nonlinear decision-making in higher education, 461–462
North America, student affairs in, 118–119
North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, 228
Northwest Commission of Colleges and Universities, 228

O

Office for Civil Rights (OCR), 548
On-boarding or orientation process, 401–405
Online learning, growth of, 344
Online orientation, Richland Community College’s, 347–348
Online seamless learning environment, 354–355
Subject Index

Online students: description of, 344–345; success and retention of, 357–359; supporting, 343–344
Operating budget, defined, 525
Organizational design: alternative approaches to, 381–382; complexity of, 367–368; conclusions on, 385–386; issues in student affairs, 369–374; systematic approach to, 382–385
Organizational design in higher education, theory and research related to, 374–380
Organized environments, 52, 56–57
Osteen v. Henley, 542
Outcomes-based assessment, 566, 568–570

P

Partnerships: benefits of, 483–484; conclusions on, 487; essential aspects of, 484–486; and leadership teams, 486–487; value of, 481–483
Partnerships with academic colleagues: action steps for, 444–452; conclusions on, 452–453; defining and framing, 434–435; four reflections on, 435–443; for seamless learning environments, 433–434; seven types of student-affairs-faculty interaction, 436
Pell Grants, 89
Personal conscience, 203, 204, 206–207
Personal Learning Networks (PLNs), 606
Personal relationships with students, 217–218
Personality types: Holland’s theory of, 52, 55; and Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 491
Person-environment interaction, 52, 55
Peterson v. San Francisco Community College District, 545
Philosophical questions, 315–316
Physical features of campus environment, 52, 53–54
Political mind-set, developing a, 459–460
See also Decision-making
Position descriptions, 392
Positive spirit, 497–498
Powe v. Miles, 537
Powerful Partnerships, 452
Pre-assessment, student satisfaction, utilization data, and needs assessment data, 566, 567–568
Predictive Analytics Reporting (PAR) Framework, 358–359
Prejudice and bias on campus, 216
PREPARE model of professional development, 421–423, 424, 425
Principled negotiation, four parts of, 493–494
Principles, seven shared ethical, 208, 230, 232
Principles of Good Practice for Student Affairs, 230
Privacy and confidentiality, 218
Procrastination, artful, 472–473
Professional associations: benefits of membership in, 257–258; conclusions on, 259–260; and ethics, 205, 207–212; functions of, 245–246; general description of, 121–122; and global perspective, 121–122; history of, 246–251; involvement and leadership opportunities in, 258–259; specialty associations, 251–256; structure of, 256–257
Professional development: competencies, 231, 412–419; conclusions on, 428; defining, 419–421; good practices in, 427–428; as lifelong learning, 411–412; meaningful, 407–408; model of, 421–426
Professional mobility, student affairs, 43–44
Professional preparation programs, 644–645
Proprietary colleges and universities: mission of, 34–35; and student affairs professional practice, 42–43
Psychological health of students, 652–653
Psychosocial development theories, 141–142
Punishment, 219
Purpose, lives of: conclusions on, 323–324; helping students prepare for, 309–311; meaning and purpose, 311–313; and mentoring, 321–323; pedagogies for making, 313–321

Q

Quality Matters (QM), and online course design, 360
Subject Index

R

Raising friends, 582–583
Rebuilding Campus Community: The Wrong Improperative, 157
Recreation, campus: benefits of, 328–329; overview of, 331–332; and student affairs, 334–339.
See also Intercollegiate athletics and recreation
Recruitment, and multicultural campus communities, 301–302
Recruitment, staff: and knowledge and skills, 392–393; plan, 393; and position description, 392; and type of institution, 390–391
Reference checks, 397–398
Reflection, honest, 318–319
Regents of the University of California v. Bakke, 278
Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504 of, 77, 548, 551
Religiously affiliated colleges: mission statements for, 29; and professional associations, 255; and student affairs professional practice, 37
Research and doctoral granting universities: mission statements for, 30–31; and student affairs professional practice, 38–39, 369–370
Residence life and housing, 336–337
Resource allocation, and budgets, 523
Responsibility-centered budgeting, 527–528
Restorative Circles, 500, 501–502
Retention, staff: factors in, 405–407; and on-boarding, 401–405
Retention resource list, 175, 195–197
Retention theory, Tinto’s college student, 146–147
Reverse transfer, 273–274
Richland Community College (RCC), 347
Risk management. See Legal relationships with students

S

St. John’s University, Carr v., 544
San Francisco Community College District, Peterson v., 545
Sanction-oriented administrative hearings, 163
Scholarly Personal Narrative (SPN) writing, 315
Scholarship of teaching and learning: four features of, 164; reasons for engaging in, 166; and technology, 159, 165
Scorecard for the Administration of Online Programs, Sloan-C Quality, 360
Seamless learning model, 378
Search committees, 394–395
Searches and seizures, unreasonable, 540
Second Amendment, 537, 539–540
Section 504 and ADA, 77, 548, 551
Security Report, Annual (ASR), 553–555
Self-Assessment Guides (SAGs), CAS, 234, 235
Self-directed learning, 191
Self-presentation, student, 604–605
Self-service support, and online learning, 355–356
Senior student affairs officers (SSAOs), 370, 372, 373, 377, 638, 640–653, 662
Sense of belonging, 147
Service learning, 442
Seven vectors, Chickering’s, 141–142
Sexual misconduct, 216–217
Sexual Violence, Dear Colleague Letter on, 543, 550
Sexual Violence Elimination Act, Campus, 217
Shared governance, 466–467
Sheltering in place, 628–629
Silence, intentional, 316–318
Smartphones, 598–599
Social and cultural capital, 149–150
Social intelligence, 495, 496
Social media, uses and misuses of, 219, 351, 398, 626. See also Facebook
Social media and college students: conclusions on, 607; digital identity formation, 604–605; frequency of use, 600; reasons for use, 600–601; social networking sites (SNSs), 599
Soft skills, 125–126
Soglin v. Kauffman, 541
Soul friends, 322
South Africa, student affairs in, 119–120
Southeastern Community College v. Davis, 551
Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, 228
Southworth, Board of Regents of the Univ. Wis. v., 538
Specialization, 641–643
Specialty associations, 251–256
Staff and student development, 122–127
Staff diversity, 645–646
Staff recruitment: and interviews, 397–401; and knowledge and skills, 392–393; plan, 393; and position description, 392; and type of institution, 390–391
Staff retention: factors in, 405–407; and on-boarding, 401–405
Staff selection, 393–401
Standards, applying professional: case illustrations, 237–241; conclusions on, 241; in contemporary context of student affairs,
Standards, applying professional: case illustrations, (continued) 229–237; in higher education, 226–229; in K-12 education, 226 Standards of Professional Practice, 230 State and federal capital budgets, 518–519 State finance issues, 79–82 State-appropriated funds, 512–513 Stories, meaning-making, 314–315 Student Achievement Measure (SAM), 187–188 Student affairs: history of, 3–23; and professional associations, 121–122, 205, 207–212; and professional mobility, 43–44 Student affairs, changes affecting: collaboration, 647–649; conclusions on, 653–654; educator role, 649–650; emphasis on financial management, 646–647; professional preparation programs, 644–645; psychological health of students, 652–653; societal issues and norms, 650–652; specialization, 641–643; staff diversity, 645–646; and the student body, 639–641 Student affairs educators (SAEs): and assessment of student learning, 166–168; and changing demographics and technology, 159–160; coping strategies of, 162–163; and scholarship of teaching and learning, 163–166; three issues facing, 158 Student Affairs History Project, 20 Student agency model, 379 Student Army Training Corps (SATC), 9 Student characteristics, trends in, 272–277 Student conduct offices, 338 Student costs, 84–85 Student debt, managing, 90–91 Student development, 16–17, 124–125 Student diversity: challenges to, 277–278; conclusions on, 280–281; defining, 268; as global issue in higher education, 278–280; recommendations regarding, 280; scholarly works on, 268–269. See also Multicultural campus communities Student engagement, and social media, 603 Student fees: mandatory, 514; special, 515 Student learning: assessment of, 166–168; as new approach, 18; supporting, 433–434. See also Partnerships with academic colleagues Student Learning Imperative, The, 18, 169, 433–434 Student Personnel, history of, 11–16 Student Personnel Point of View (SPPV), The, 13, 14, 15, 158, 229, 433 Student population, changing: conclusions on, 280–281; and demographic landscape of U.S., 267; and diversity, 268–269; overview of, 269–272; trends in student characteristics, 272–277. See also Student diversity Student retention theory, Tinto’s college, 146–147 Student Right to Know Act (SRTK), 1990 US, 176–177 Student satisfaction instruments, 567 Student services, online: and accountability, 359–361; collaboration for, 353; conclusions on, 361–362; delivery methods for, 355–357; scope of, 346–350; and student affairs, 351–353 Student success, measuring: conclusions on, 193; and emerging models and metrics, 182–189; and key educational terms, 177–181; and retention resource list, 175, 195–197 Student success, redefining, 189–192 Student success models, 146–147, 182–189 Student volunteerism, 337–338 Student-centered culture, seven features of, 58–59 Student-driven model, 379 Students: at community colleges, 273–274; future, 76–77; holistic welfare of, 203–204, 212–213; personal relationships with, 217–218; psychological health of, 652–653; types of, 54; working, 87–88. See also Student population, changing Students, online: description of, 344–345; success and retention of, 357–359; supporting, 343–344 Subcultures, four student, 54 Success, student. See Student success, measuring Success and Progress (S&P) rate, 185, 186, 187 Supervision of staff, 402–405, 407 T Teaching and learning beyond the classroom: and assessment, 166–168; conclusions on, 169–170; and economic calamities, 160–163; scholarship of teaching and learning, 163–166; and universities in transition, 159–160 Technical services, and online student success, 348 Technology, student affairs’ historical relationship with, 595–597. See also Computer-mediated communication; Social media and college students
Subject Index

Technology Usage in Student Affairs, Survey of, 351
Tennessee Model, 188–189
Theories and models: application of, 150–151; conclusions on, 151–152; seven categories of, 140–150
Theory: defined, 137–138; six reasons for using, 139–140
Theory U, 498
Thomas-Kilmann Conflict Mode Instrument, 491, 503
Timely warnings, 625, 626
Tinker v. Des Moines, 537
Tinto's college student retention theory, 146–147
Title IV funds, 547
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 549–550
Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 548–549
Top-down leadership, 445–446
Tort liability and risk management, 544–546
Tribally controlled colleges: mission of, 32–33, 270; and student affairs professional practice, 40
Tuition, 83, 513–514. See also Student costs
Twitter, 398, 599, 603, 606, 626

U

Unit budget requests, developing, 529–531
University and College Accountability Network (U-CAN), 105
University of Texas at Austin, Fisher v., 278
University Professional, Continuing, and Online Education (UPCEA), 351
Utilization data, 567–568

V

Values: and culture, 449, 496–497; and decision-making, 469–470
Violence Against Women Act, 78, 555
Violence and bullying, 278, 338, 550, 555, 623. See also Crisis management
Vocationalism, 9–11
Voluntary Framework of Accountability (VFA), 105–106
Voluntary System of Accountability (VSA), 106, 185–186, 187
Volunteerism, student, 337–338

W

Warnings, timely, 625, 626
Wealth, distribution of, 75–76
Welcoming the stranger, 498
Wellness programs, 333–334, 338–339
Western Association of Schools and Colleges, 228
Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE), 347
What Matters in College, 52
Women in Education, National Association of, 246–247
Work study, 88
Working students, 87–88
Writing, reflective, 319

Z

Zero-based budgeting, 527