Contents

Foreword xiii
Acknowledgments xvii
We All Care about Experience (Introduction) xix

Part I  The Evolution of Employee Experience 1

1  Defining Employee Experience 3
   Utility 3
   Productivity 3
   Engagement 5
   Employee Experience 6

2  Research on Employee Experience 11
   A Note about the Research Sponsors 15

3  Employee Experience Drivers 17
   Poor Success with Engagement 18
      Engagement Measures Downward 18
      Engagement Has Become the New Annual Review 20
      Engagement Tends to Look at the Effect but Not the Cause 21
      Engagement Surveys Are Exhausitngly Long 22
      Engagement Acts as an Adrenaline Shot 22
   The War for Talent 26
      Skills Gap and Talent Shortage 26
      Changing Demographics 27
      Changing Face of Talent Competition 28
      Psychology (and Sociology) 29
      Business Turbulence 29
   Technology 30
Alternative Work Arrangements and the Gig Economy 32
   Growing Fast but Not Dominating 33
   The Effect on Employee Tenure 35
People Analytics 38
   People Analytics in Action 40
   The Future of People Analytics 43
Transparency 45

Part II  The Reason for Being and the Three Employee Experience Environments 49

4  Reason for Being 51
   Statements from Leading Organizations 52
   The Three Employee Experience Environments 56

5  The Physical Environment 59
   Chooses to Bring in Friends or Visitors 61
   Offers Flexibility 64
   Organization’s Values Are Reflected 67
   Leverage Multiple Workspace Options 70
   How Organizations Scored 74

6  The Technological Environment 77
   Availability to Everyone 78
   Consumer Grade Technology 82
   Employee Needs versus Business Requirements 84
   How Organizations Scored 86

7  The Cultural Environment 89
   Company Is Viewed Positively 90
   Everyone Feels Valued 95
   Compensation and Benefits 96
   Having Employee’s Voices Heard 97
   Organization Doesn’t Ask 97
   Organization Asks but Does Nothing 98
   Organization Asks and Acknowledges 98
   Organization Asks, Acknowledges, and Acts 98
Employees Are Recognized for the Work That They Do 98
Legitimate Sense of Purpose 100
Employees Feel like They’re Part of a Team 107
Believes in Diversity and Inclusion 109
Referrals Come from Employees 112
Ability to Learn New Things and Given the Resources to Do So and Advance 114
Learning and Development
Advancement 115 118
Treats Employees Fairly 120
Executives and Managers Are Coaches and Mentors 122
Dedicated to Employee Health and Wellness 124
How Organizations Scored 126

8 The Employee Experience Equation 131

Part III Why Invest in Employee Experience? 133

9 The Nine Types of Organizations 135 inExperienced 136
Emerging 137
Engaged 139
Empowered 140
Enabled 140
preExperiential 141
Experiential 141

10 Employee Experience Distribution 145

11 The Business Value of Employee Experience 149
Customer Service 151
Innovation 153
Employer Attractiveness 153
Admiration and Respect 154
Brand Value 154
Other Lists 155
CONTENTS

12 Business Metrics and Financial Performance 157

13 The Cost of Employee Experience 167

Part IV Building the Experiential Organization 171

14 System 1 versus System 2 Experiences 173

15 The Employee Experience Design Loop 177
   - Respond 178
   - Analyze 180
     - Scenario 1 Analysis Reveals 180
     - Scenario 1 Insight for Your Organization 180
     - Scenario 2 Analysis Reveals 181
     - Scenario 2 Insight for Your Organization 181
     - Scenario 3 Analysis Reveals 181
     - Scenario 3 Insight for Your Organization 181
   - Analysis Enablers 181
   - Design 182
   - Launch 183
   - Participate 183
   - Example: General Electric 184
     - Respond 184
     - Analyze 185
     - Design 185
     - Launch 186
     - Participate 187
   - Example: Airbnb 189
     - Respond 189
     - Analyze 189
     - Design 190
     - Launch 191
     - Participate 191

16 The Starbucks Model of Transparency 193

17 The Employee Life Cycle 197
CONTENTS

18 Moments That Matter or Moments of Impact
   Specific Moments That Matter 201
   Ongoing Moments That Matter 202
   Created Moments That Matter 203
   Moments That Matter at Cisco 203

19 Moments That Matter and Employee Experience 205

20 The Employee Experience Pyramid 209

21 What about the Actual Work? 213

22 Who Owns the Employee Experience? 217
   Initiated by the CEO and Executive Team 217
   Owned by the People Team 219
   Driven by Managers 220
   Championed by Everyone 222

23 A Lesson from Airbnb 223

24 The Role of Employees 227

25 Where to Start 229
   You Have to Care, Really Care 229
   Define a Reason for Being 231
   Build a People Analytics Function 232
      Start Small 232
      Identify the Required Skills 234
      Have Executive Support, Typically the Chief People Officer 236
      Train the Organization 236
      Tell Stories 237
   Build or Improve the Experience Team 237
   Deploy Feedback Tools/Mechanisms 239
      In-Person Feedback 239
      Feedback via Technology 241
   Implement COOL Spaces, ACE Technology, and CELEBRATED Culture 242
CONTENTS

Example: Adobe

Technological Environment
244

Physical Environment
245

Cultural Environment
246

Identify and Create Moments That Matter (or Moments of Impact)
250

Think of Your Organization like a Lab Instead of a Factory
253

26 Focus on What Makes Your Company Unique
257

27 Size, Industry, and Location Don’t Matter
261
   Always Improve
262
   Think like a Laboratory
262
   Move beyond Checklists
263
   Put People at the Center and Know Them
264
   Design with, Not For 264
   Care
264
   Focus on What Makes You Unique
265

28 A Futurist’s Perspective
267

Appendix
269

Index
271